

NEW HIGHWAY DISTRICT TO BE FORMED

More Than a Million Acres All Told. Petitions Signed Eagerly by Nearly Everyone to Whom They Were Presented by the Men Circulating Them.

A petition for the formation of a new highway district including all the territory not included in the Duhai highway district...

On the petition, began yesterday Monday and was in full swing Tuesday. Workers were particularly active at Hollister and Berger. In the east end of the county work began later and the canvass had scarcely started when it was found yesterday that instead of ten per cent of the taxable acreage of the proposed district, twenty-five per cent had signed up by noon yesterday...

While there are more than 1,000,000 acres in the superficial area of the county, only about 200,000 acres are suitable for farming. It is estimated that 20,000 acres would be enough to secure a call for an election.

GRAND PATRIOTIC ADDRESS BY BISHOP ROBERT J. COOKE

The World War and Prussian Psychology, Militarism, Frigidity and Propaganda, Most Eloquently Discussed at an Impromptu Meeting Last Night in the Methodist Church.

SPARKS FROM BISHOP COOKE'S ANVIL

Prussia has fastened the brand of infamy upon the brow of Germany. Bismarck—Man of iron and blood, great leader, great statesman and great founder—utterly devoid of conscience. Where England plants the Union Jack comes law and order; where German eagles live greed and tyranny. Nothing divides people like language. In the United States we want no hyphenated French, Italian or German; we want Americans!

Rev. R. J. Cooke, Bishop in the Methodist church for what is called the "Helena Area," consisting of the states of Montana, Idaho and both the Dakotas, being in Twin Falls on business connected with his diocese, was invited to speak last night at the Methodist church. His subject was "The World War and Prussian Psychology."

While there are more than 1,000,000 acres in the superficial area of the county, only about 200,000 acres are suitable for farming. It is estimated that 20,000 acres would be enough to secure a call for an election.

BOLSHEVIKI WILL FIGHT THE HUMS IN OPINION OF FRANCIS

Ambassador Avers That Trotsky Is at Last Ready for Real Defense—Washington Hopeful Notwithstanding Fall of Odessa—Japanese Intervention Halts While Action of Soviet Which Meets Today Is Awaited.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—That the Russian Bolsheviki forces are organizing their opposition to the German invasion was reported to the state department today by Ambassador Francis.

Trotsky expressed grave concern over reports that entente forces might invade Siberia, according to the American ambassador, and indicated that he did not believe such action would be necessary. He announced his intention of organizing "an army under iron discipline," with which the Russian government would be able to oppose Germany everywhere and keep the new republic a real force in the war.

It is understood that this conversation with the Bolsheviki foreign minister took place on either Sunday or Monday. The dispatch from Ambassador Francis made speedy progress in transmission, state department officials announcing that it was less than 24 hours in transit.

Trotsky's position was accepted by officials here as reassuring. It was believed that he and the other Bolsheviki leaders at last realize that war with Germany is unavoidable and that they will now be willing to accept any and all assistance which may be afforded them by the entente powers.

Deepest interest was evinced everywhere in Washington today in the meeting of the Russian soviet congress, scheduled after postponement, to assemble in Moscow. There was a wide division of opinion as to the action which would be taken, but the receipt of cheering news from Ambassador Francis made optimistic many close to President Wilson, who hope that the pact will be rejected.

The soviet will have before it assurances from the president that the United States returns to recognize the soviet government only if it is approved by a majority of the American Federation of Labor that organized labor in the United States is ready to recognize the soviet government.

Exchanges between the Japanese and the German government, which the foreign office resulted in a definite plan of action being suggested and then the problem was passed on to London, where it was approved on the face of the information furnished by France. It was not until President Wilson called for and secured a receipt of approval from the soviet government that China really held the key of the situation in her hands through the control at Harbin and then when the United States made it plain that it could not sanction any move which so closely resembled conquest, Tokio decided to withhold action pending developments.

France maintains her attitude of unqualified approval of the plan for Japanese intervention in Siberia. Great Britain is considering the possible effect of intervention on Russia and whether it would not be used by the Germans as an argument which it could not reasonably conquest. Tokio decided to withhold action pending developments.

The board then took up the matter of salaries. The report was that some increase would be suitable on account of increased cost of living, but no formal action was taken. Many questions were extended to the TIMES from both parties as well as from neutrals regarding the fulness and correctness of the TIMES account of the meeting, and it was stated that the committee were made, the following comments from W. J. Nison, a member of the board, to the reporter: "I want to compliment you on the fairness and accuracy of your account of the meeting. I have seen no other account of the meeting reported and I want to say that your report was the most impartial that I have seen of any of the papers of the city."

Call Issued for More Men for Army. Fifteen Will be Called From Twin Falls County—Farmers Passed Temporarily—No Credits Yet.

BOISE—Idaho was called upon today to furnish 246 men from class No. 1 for the first group of what Adjutant General Moody says is the second draft army. The number of men to be called from each of the local districts of the state has been based upon their gross total in Twin Falls county must furnish fifteen.

F. F. Johnson, state treasurer of the American Red Cross, at Boise, has advised headquarters that the Twin Falls Chapter will be granted more refund money from the war fund. This will allow the board sufficient funds to operate until the next drive, and the Chapter will be able to fill its quota of work.

Gauze for the surgical dressing department has not yet arrived but it is expected there are a few days rest the women will go back to their work with renewed energy.

A glass show case displaying a complete set of surgical dressings made in Twin Falls is on display at Headquarters.

The women visiting in California from Twin Falls are not forgetting the home Chapter. Miss M. E. Hamlin and Mrs. Tom Custello have forwarded sweaters to the sewing department this week.

G. D. Simpson, manager of the Northern division of the American Red Cross, and Harvey Lindley, National Campaign drive manager, will visit Twin Falls the last of this month on business relative to the Red Cross.

The progress of the refugee work as reported by Mrs. Sawyer is a credit to the chapter and auxiliaries. Between seventy and a hundred layettes are in various stages of completion awaiting the arrival of material. When it was learned that the department must be supported by donations the Refugee Circles were organized to meet the demand for readjustment. One hundred and eight circles have already been formed, each one of which is now turning out material and making one or more layettes. Through these circles the refugee headquarters is in touch with some five or six hundred women banded together for Red Cross work. Kimberly, Hansen, Plier, Arzantian City, Rock Creek, Murtagh and Pleasant Valley have responded to the extent of many donations of layettes. The Royal Neighborhood Altar Society, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Penelope Club, Wednesday Bridge Club, Twentieth Century Club, Hoover Luncheon Club, Teachers organizations, Daughters of the American Revolution, and practically all of the rural clubs have formed circles, also the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, the Episcopal Guild, L. D. S. Baptist Ladies and scores of individual women.

It is difficult to estimate the entire number of layettes that will be shipped from this chapter, but two hundred and fifty is considered a conservative estimate. Mrs. Sawyer says that the nicety of all the work on the garments and the generosity of the donations is an inspiration to the refugee committee. She emphasizes that this work is absolutely voluntary, and that all gifts, whether large or small, are gratefully accepted. Portions of layettes are gladly received and completed at refugee headquarters. Several gifts of money and material have also been received.

Announcements is made that some of the long expected material has been received and those who desire work can now get it at the rest room.

Mrs. Rose Logan, secretary of Community auxiliary submits the following report:

About thirty-five Red Cross members of the Community auxiliary attended the meeting at Community church Wednesday, March 6-18. Mrs. Dallas, chairman, was presented with a gift of material. The proceeds were the result of an entertainment and dance given by Mr. Doan.

Mrs. Griffin also made a presentation of $8.05 from the Salmon Social club. All of which is to be used for Red Cross purposes.

At the instigation of Ms. Dallas all members rose and gave a vote of thanks to the donors.

(Signed) Rose M. Logan, Secretary.

Hazelton News

The farmers' institute held in Hazelton Friday, under the auspices of the two local granges, failed to draw a crowd and the morning and evening part of the program was dispersed with entirely. The afternoon meeting was attended by probably fifteen people. The institute was made up of speakers from the Extension Department of the University of Idaho and undoubtedly would have proved of value to the farmers here if they had attended.

Harry Denton, of Kimberly, manager of the Farmers' Grain & Milling Co., of that place, was a business visitor Saturday.

C. O. Rolce, representing the farmers of this tract, together with a delegation of sheep and cattlemen, left Sunday evening for Doney, Colorado, where a hearing in the matter of leasing the grazing land lying to the north of this segregation will come up before F. E. Weymann, of the Reclamation Service. The farmers are much opposed to the service leasing these lands to anybody for the reason that it will force them to go out of the stock business and will to lose their hay market, for the reason that the big sheepmen will be shut out from either going or coming from summer to winter feed grounds.

H. E. Gundelfinger, cashier of the Hazelton State Bank, was a Report Visitor Saturday.

The vault doors for the Hazelton State Bank arrived this week and were put in place by Ernest White of Twin Falls. This completes the bank's new home.

The Barlow-Glassen Co. shipped a car load of fat hogs to Salt Lake the last of the week.

Mrs. H. E. Gundelfinger left Tuesday for Boise and Homedale, where she will visit with home folks for a week or so.

J. K. Lindsey, the local blacksmith, was laid up in bed for three days last week on account of sickness.

The following Hazeltonians were Twin Falls visitors Saturday: C. M. Willey, F. A. Johansen, M. Christopherson, Mrs. Conklin, James Glover.

Farmers here are plowing and getting ready for the spring planting. People in town are spading up their back yards and are going to raise some more war gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boden and the children returned home from Brigham City, Utah, Saturday, when Mrs. Boden has been in the hospital for the last month. The lady was afflicted with rheumatism, but is now on the road to recovery.

The town council met Monday evening and passed an ordinance creating a sidewalk district covering the business section, and are going to build the walks this summer.

Swift & Company

Publicity

At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company, which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

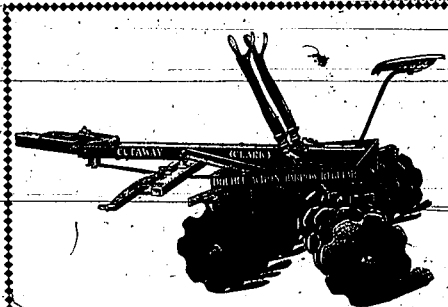

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:

Sales	$875,000.00.
Profits	$34,650.00.

This is equivalent to a $3,465. profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

Baker Honored by the French Nation

Refers to Great Friendliness of the People There and Similarity of Institutions to Ours

PARIS, MARCH 12.—Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, yesterday declared that his purpose in visiting France at this time is to confer with General Ferring, the American commander, to visit the American forces in the field and inspect the lines of transportation and the storage supply systems—so that America might support more effectively our army in France and the armies our gallant allies. Any visit to France at this time, Mr. Baker continued, is a pilgrimage to a very shrine of heroism and it is bound to be an inspiration to see the commanders and the armies that have so long held the frontiers of freedom against attack.

In America as in France, Mr. Baker pointed out, a civilian is secretary of war. That civil power is supreme and is a characteristic of our free institutions.

We are fighting to maintain civil power, added the secretary.

In America the dominant thought in all minds is the accumulating war materials are now accumulating and brought up and industrial resources must be organized so that the army can be supported.

The secretary declared that there was much satisfaction over the fact that war industries were organized at the beginning. Quantities of war materials are now accumulating and a great army is completing its training to join the forces already in France.

"There can be but one result when the forces of civilization combine," said the secretary.

"President Wilson phrased the spirit of America when we entered the war and his subsequent declarations reflect the feelings of the entire country," Mr. Baker continued. "Americans have committed all their resources to the winning of the war."

Secretary Baker said he was greatly impressed by the welcome accorded him at the French port where he landed. There has been a spirit of cordiality between the French and Americans since the beginning.

Mr. Baker said that he had made the whole voyage without sea sickness.

Commercial Club Holds a Meeting

Strong Sentiment in Favor of Maintenance of Commercial Organization Manifested

At a meeting of the members of the commercial club held on Monday evening, the matter of the activities of the club for the coming year were discussed, and a committee of 12 business men will meet and discuss commercial club affairs and report at a meeting of the members to be held Monday evening, March 18, at the Farm Bureau office.

The sentiment of the meeting was that some sort of commercial organization should be kept up in the city, and the recommendation of this committee will possibly decide the future action in this matter.

A committee of three members was appointed to get in the back dues, if possible, and clean up the dues of the old organization, before taking up re-organization or electing any officers of the club for the coming year.

The Secretary's report showed that the club has assets in the form of unpaid dues amounting to $1400.00, the total liabilities at this time being $470.

It was the feeling of the meeting that all the obligations of the organization should be cleaned up before any other organization or further action be taken in the matter.

The meeting was presided over by President Breckenridge, and the principal speakers were M. J. Swales, J. A. Barrett, C. J. McCormick, and others.

UP TO BANK AND FILE

The action of the Republican committee in charge of the management of the next congressional campaign, including the alleged falsification of the war as conducted the issue at the fall elections, following the announcement of a program of cooperation between Republican congressional leaders and Democratic insurgents to prevent the administration from getting legislation which it feels necessary for the successful conduct of the struggle, shows a purpose previously pointed out by THE TIMES to defeat the international program of President Wilson, after first defeating his national program and war plans.

From a purely partisan point of view nothing could be more satisfactory to the Democratic party than the Republican adoption of this policy. But from the viewpoint of effectiveness in the war, it can only result unfortunately during the progress of the campaign. Many of the greatest Republican leaders have by word and act assumed positions which show that they are far from even thinking of attempting to carry out a program at once unpartisan and suicidal.

What the rank and file of the party thinks of such a program is evident from the result of the special elections in the four New York City districts, March 5, to fill congressional vacancies. All Democrats stood squarely on platforms endorsing the administration. Republicans attacked the Wilson war record. The following report, which is worth repeating, tells the story:

The Democrats scored a marked and decisive victory in each of the four congressional districts in which special elections were held yesterday, indicating popular support of the policies of the administration at Washington and insuring continued Democratic control in the House of Representatives.

Three of the districts, ordinarily classed as Democratic, returned pluralities for the Democratic candidates, which, considering the strength of the local vote, cast were literally overwhelping. The fourth district, the Twenty-first, which is classed as Republican, gave the Democratic candidate a plurality of 2,102.

So poorly did the Republican candidate run in the Bronx district, the Twenty-second, that he was "nosed out" for second place by the Socialist candidate, with a difference of 211 votes. It was in this district, however, that the Socialist finally showed worth mentioning. The fact that the Socialist ran second will be regarded as a severe rebuff to the Republicans. The Democratic candidate had a clear majority in this district of 3,764.

The Republicans' constituting the rank and file of the party attend the primaries and make it quite plain, while so doing that a "cutthroat" policy will not be tolerated; in other words, if they effectively support what they believe, the committee will be compelled to reverse their plan of campaign. If they fail to do this, the New York result will be duplicated throughout the country in November.

It is up to the Republican party membership. If they adopt the attitude toward war conduct assumed by former President Taft, they can come out of the struggle with credit; if they do not, their superiority as a party will be inevitable and merited.

If further proof is needed that the fatuous leaders now in charge of the Republican campaign, with their Democratic collaborators from trusted-riden states, are interested in defeating the international policies of President Wilson, it can be found in the declaration yesterday of Republican Chairman Hays, opposing the proposal of solutions for war settlement until the end of the struggle. In other words, do as the Salt Lake Herald-Republican advocated—drop our ideals.

Democrats can meet with confidence and equanimity, but it would be too good to think of a great historical-political organization like the Republican party, ending its career through bringing made the foul instrument of their base purposes.

THE "RICH MAN WAR" CANARD

Confranted by irrefutable proof that his cry that the draft and taxation legislation enacted since the war began is a lie, and that directly the contrary is true, the pro-German agitator shifts the issue and points to the dolinquencies, proven in a few cases, and charged in some others, of certain rich men or powerful corporations that have striven to unfairly take advantage of this struggle to further their personal fortunes. Such men and such trusts exist. They are being prosecuted as fast as they can be secured which will warrant criminal action against them. None the less, for instance, falsely alleged to be favorites of the Hoover food administration. Incidentally, there is a percentage of the middle class and of the poor, who are striving to take advantage of the war to further their own personal interests, and no one class wants to be called upon to bear very much more than its share of war burdens. Neither patriotism nor profiteering is confined to any one class of citizenship. THE TIMES has freely denounced and will continue to denounce those who seek to use the war to secure privileges during its conduct, or to secure special favors for its close, growing out of the struggle. It stands by labor in its just demand that it shall not be called upon to drop organization and find itself without such when the struggle is over, while capital is organized. It denounces as false such charges as those made by Senator McCumber, that labor and capital have shown themselves unpatriotic. As a whole the contrary is a fact.

THE TIMES is as strongly opposed to predatory labor or to predatory capital. What it has striven to make clear is that the majority of men in capital, who it firmly believes, have striven to make clear is that the majority of men in all classes are and have been patriotic. Those who proceed on a captrary theory and try to take advantage of false theories, or of passiveness, whether Democratic, Republican, Prohibitionist or Socialist, rich or poor, are doomed to a merited sad awakening.

FARMERS' ANXIETY FOR SPEEDY RETURN OF BURRILL

"Say, he's a bear," moaned Mr. Clover Aphis. "You a regular bugbear for folks like you," retorted Miss Lady Bug with a sly, luring laugh. For you see, the two citizens of the insect-world looked at the matter from different viewpoints, as Prof. A. C. Burrill, to whom this conversation had reference, was the foe of the former and the friend of the latter. The ladybug claimed that a straw vote of the genus homo of the Twin Falls district would center her favorite estimate of the scholarly gentleman referred to.

At this time of the year when the mind of the producer turns to thoughts and love-of-nature-and-of-fields-green and of matured, hundreds of producers of the Twin Falls tract are wondering when they will be favored with the return of Professor Burrill to continue the investigations which proved of such inestimable value last year and with promise of even greater things for the future. The facts gleaned by these investigations were the means of saving thousands of dollars, and the foundations were laid for the ascertaining of further facts that would be of still greater value. Many farmers are expressing themselves to the effect that the sooner Burrill is back on the job the better, now that spring is here. It is understood that farming and commercial organizations will join in the movement.

THE TIMES being familiar with the work of Professor Burrill heartily approves of the movement and trusts that he will be here, where he is needed, at the earliest practicable moment.

The failure at the last minute, of an attempted fusion of all the elements of the new National party, which is also a prohibition party, under the National Dry Federation, leaves W. Bryan still in the Democratic party. The National party platform is much broader than that of the National Federation, which is principally devoted to prohibition. Whether Bryan would have actually adopted all the platform of the National party, had the fusion taken place, is a problem left unsolved by the failure of proposed amalgamation. Perhaps THE TIMES is prematurely assuming that he was willing to accept the whole nationalistic and socialistic program of the new political organization, which must involve co-operation with Democracy, was charged with inaccurately stating up the situation. After the defeat of the silver forces in congress under the Cleveland administration, Washington dispatches carried a story to the effect that Bryan was then in the house of representatives and was joining the People's party, and the stating headline "Bryan a Populist" appeared in most of the organs of the new party and in many others, but the report proved incorrect. Twice afterwards Bryan accepted presidential nomination at the hands of the Populists, but only in addition to a previously accepted Democratic nomination.

NO NOMINAL CASUALTY LISTS

Those who are making a loud and continuous howl over the fact that the war department has decided to give out for publication no nominal list of casualties among American troops in France, need find something more tangible than has yet appeared on which to base their complaints. The ruling was made by request of Gen. Pershing, who in turn acted pursuant to expressed wishes of French military authorities. The ruling does not prevent publishing the number and kind of casualties, but only the names with the command attached—by means of a number of which all sustained at the same time and place, the enemy would be able to determine by what and how many commands a certain sector was held.

As the new arrangement requires that the department at once notify, by letter, the proper relative of each soldier involved—a notification that will reach them more surely and quickly than newspaper lists, there seems to be small room for complaint. During the Civil war, right in our own country, the newspaper casualty lists came so slowly and were so full of errors as to have been almost worthless. It is scarcely surprising that military glory acquired under that definition, viz: "to die for your country and have your name spelled wrong in the newspaper!"

MISCHA ELMAN'S FIRST GREAT CONCERT SUCCESS

In October, 1904, Mischa Elman, the famous violinist, was in St. Petersburg, the star pupil of Leopold Godowsky, whose reputation as a teacher is now world-wide. It happened that a much adored young virtuoso was to give a concert and Prof. Godowsky was asked for his opinion upon the artist's ability. "I have a pupil only twelve years old who is as wonderful," he said. "This was naturally taken as a mild statement by all who heard it, and the news spread broadcast. Auer determined to put up his remaining and—designed-as-opportunity-for-Mischa Elman to appear at the opening concert of the Deutscher Liedertafel—the most important musical society of the city. Consequently, Elman, a lad of 12, played the Mendelssohn concerto, Paganini's "Nero" and Chopin's "Nocturne" with such terrific success that the audience refused to let him leave the stage until he had played a dozen encores. The following day the name of Mischa Elman was on everyone's tongue, and from that important moment on, his fame went from one to another city, and today he has played in practically every country of the globe.

This year, Elman is again in America, booked for concerts from the Atlantic to the Pacific. His list of engagements includes one in this city, under the management of J. C. Lasterberg, Friday, March 29.

DOUBLE ROLE FOR JULIAN ELTINGE IN NEW PHOTOPLAY

Julian Eltinge's third Paramount picture will be shown at the Idaho the last three days of the week, and is said by those who have seen it to be by far the best of all the Eltinge Paramount pictures. The story is called "The Widow's Might," and in it Mr. Eltinge assumes a double role. He plays the part of Dick Tavish, who falls in love with the picture of a girl on a train, who he eventually meets in Pasadena, where the two are in order to ferret out the unscrupulous actions of a land shark named Horace Hammer. Tavish learns that the only way to get any vengeance against Hammer is to rob the safe. This he starts to do when Hammer and Miss Stuart enter the room. The hotel is struck and his escape is cut off. Dick enters the room of Mrs. Pomfrey, a society woman, who is wearing her wig, is lying on the dressing table, and Dick threatens to expose Mrs. Pomfrey's falseness if she gives him away.

He dons the wig, rolls up his trousers and puts on a pair of the lady's slippers and as the excited guests come to tell her the story, Dick poses as a wealthy countess.

FAMOUS WOMAN IMPERSONATOR IDAHO'S ATTRACTION FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

THE LIFE OF THE SCREEN ACTOR, particularly if he should chance to be a feminine impersonator, is exceedingly varied, as Julian Eltinge can affirm after having enacted the role of Dick Tavish in "The Widow's Might," his third Paramount picture, which will be shown at the Idaho the last three days of the week. In the course of the film Mr. Eltinge learns to care for a baby, milk cows—scores an elderly aunt into presenting him, in female garb, as a prince, rolling in cash and otherwise comports himself generally in a manner that would scarcely be expected in an enterprising New Yorker.

RURAL ATMOSPHERE

The rural atmosphere of a good part of the film is a novelty in Eltinge pictures. But it is not long before the scene is changed to a fashionable resort, where the romance begins that leads to so many complications. The film commits the indecorous of falling in love with a calendar—or rather the face upon it.

THERE IS BUT ONE JULIAN ELTINGE WHO IS AS CAPTIVATING AS A WOMAN, AS HE IS ADMIRABLE AS A MAN. YOU WILL MORE THAN LIKE HIM IN THIS, HIS LATEST PARAMOUNT SUCCESS.

itself a variety of attraction, that could not be duplicated. There is but one Julian Eltinge—COULDN'T POOL THE BABY. Everyone but the baby in "The Widow's Might," Julian Eltinge's third Paramount picture, might have been deceived by the impersonator's wonderful make-up. But not the infant, who looked at the blond wig with disapprobation and when Eltinge held out his arms for the child, it dissolved in tears and howled.

THE PILOT Dick Tavish is an enterprising young New Yorker who decides there "is money in cows" and establishes himself as a rancher. He falls in love with the idealized head of a girl on a fancy calendar and later learns that she is the beautiful Irene Stuart. Dick learns that he must go to Coronado where Irene is staying, to see Horace Hammer, who sold him the ranch and whom he believes has put over a crooked deal. He works to discover evidence enough to convict Hammer and attempts to rob Hammer's safe for certain papers. He is nearly discovered by Hammer and Irene but in making his "get-away" he enters the room of Irene's maid and discovers a photograph—she wears a wig. He threatens disclosure unless she aids him in escaping, but she says she comes for the thief they find the charming Princess Martini who captivates them all.

VAUDEVILLE TWO BIG ACTS EVERY NIGHT AND AT THE CHILDREN'S SATURDAY MATINEE.

SCREEN CHATTER

Donald Crisp has been combining honey-mooning with business, having recently married Marie Stark, a charming actress of the west. He is minus the "face camouflage" he assumed when filming some of the recent pictures in a fashionable resort, where the romance begins that leads to so many complications. The film commits the indecorous of falling in love with a calendar—or rather the face upon it.

a serious rumor, however, that Mrs. Crisp had something to do with the removal. Douglas Fairbanks believes in "finds," and Allen Dwan, supervising director, agrees with him. Their latest discovery is Ruth Mason, who worked in a furnishing store at Tucson, Arizona, where the Fairbanks company produced some of the exterior scenes of "Heart of the South," the new Arcturion picture. Miss Mason was among a hundred Tucson girls who welcomed Douglas to Arizona. She attracted Fairbanks' attention and was assigned to a small part, which developed in production. It then became necessary to bring her to Los Angeles, and she is now a member of the Fairbanks company. Olga Printzhan, the brilliant young Franco-Italian scenarist, who wrote "One More American," George Deban's newest Paramount picture, is equally at home in any of the three countries, France, Italy or the United States, and speaks all three languages, together with several others, quite fluently. Madams Olga Printzhan—of whom we have said signora or plain Miss—has written scenarios for some of the largest companies. But in "One More American" she has produced the most effective photoplay script of her career. It is the story of an Italian immigrant and affords George Deban, the star, a splendid vehicle.

Berger Stays in Wisconsin Race

Declares That His Arrest For Sedition Makes Victory a Certainty for Socialists

MILWAUKEE, March 11.—With ex-Governor Francis E. McGovern out of the senatorial race today, Victor L. Berger, Socialist candidate and under indictment for alleged disloyalty, is claiming victory both at the primary and the election in a statement following McGovern's withdrawal. Berger said he expected to be nominated by an "unprecedented majority" and elected by a "big majority." McGovern has announced that he will back Representative Irvine-Lenora who was endorsed last week by the Republican state conference. He says that with the indictment of Berger should he—McGovern—remain in the field and Berger be disqualified, enough Berger support might go to Thompson the so-called La Follette candidate, to insure Thompson's nomination. Berger in his statement said that McGovern showed an ignorance of the law regarding his talk about the indictment "He should know" said Berger, "that an indictment is not a conviction and that the indictment as such, does not bar any man from being elected to office."

Hays Would Defer Reconstruction Plan

Republican Chairman Would Leave "New War Issues" Entirely Out of Mind Until Victory is Won

NEW YORK, March 13.—"Peace by victory, not by compromise in the bargaining," is the war slogan of the Republican party, voiced here today by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee. "The Republicans are firm in the belief that peace must be won by victory, not by compromised bargaining," said Hays. They are united in extending their efforts to win the war now, and they will advocate a sane policy of solving the problems of reconstruction after the war is over." The national chairman arrived here today to meet Republican committeemen from New England and Delaware, and will attend a dinner tonight. He explains there is no political significance to his visit in New York, saying he returned here to meet committeemen whom he was unable to meet on the occasion of his last visit. "My visit here is for the purpose of getting acquainted," said Hays, "and I am going to Washington tonight to meet several senators and congressmen for the same purpose. This trip east is purely a social one."

Saloons Refrain From Protesting

Sweeping Closing Order Unmet By Any Kind of Organized Opposition of Liquor Dealers

WASHINGTON, March 13.—A strange phenomenon is disclosed as a result of the drastic order closing the saloons within the five mile radius of permanent training camps which took effect Saturday, March 10. Not a single organized protest has been received by the department against the enactment of the law. The only movement that could be classed as a protest, has been received from a committee of Annapolis saloon men headed by the congressman, which asked for further time in order to close out their business. As far as known there is only one brewery affected by the order and its owner did not protest the order but asked in a roundabout manner if the order affected his establishment in the manufacture of beers and its sale to private families in the city. He was informed that the brewery would have to close.

Roosevelt Delighted at Honor to Son

Happy as Schoolboy When Informed That Captain Archie Won a Decoration in France

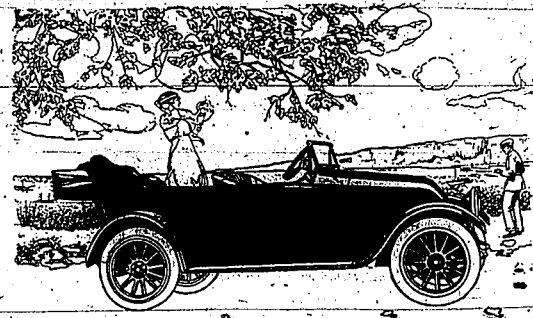

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., March 13.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was as happy as a school boy today when informed over the telephone from New York that his son, Captain Archie Roosevelt, had been decorated in France gallantry in action. "That's bully!" he shouted. "I sure am delighted." Captain Roosevelt was decorated with the croix de guerre by a French general. Just how young Roosevelt won the decoration is not known. Colonel Roosevelt also stated that it was the first word he had received of his son in a long time. "Archie was cabled three weeks ago" the Colonel said, "when his baby son arrived, but we have heard nothing from him." Captain Archibald B. Roosevelt is the third son of Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Thomas Would Shoot all I. W. W. Members

Expresses Opinion Following Protest of Fordney Against Commandeering of Sawmills

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Representative Fordney of Michigan, on behalf of lumbering interests, urged the senate military affairs committee today to modify the bill authorizing the president to take over the lumbering industry. "Let the president commandeer all the lumber he wants," said Mr. Fordney. "But don't let him control the operation of the 48,000 sawmills in the United States." The Michigan congressman charged that the I. W. W. was actively "crippling the lumber output." "If I had my way," interrupted Senator Thomas of Colorado, "I would let the I. W. W. up against a wall and shoot them."

FRANKLIN

As Springtime approaches, most of the "Shut Ins" of the world begin to think of and long for the open roads, and the budding trees and blossoming fields.

And to wonder how it will be possible for them to go where these things are, so that the fragrance of the flowers may be enjoyed, and they may witness the resurrection that comes when the year is young.

It is not any wonder that the Motor man has his harvest at this season. There are any number of good reasons for this desire. To give them would be almost like cataloging a list of the car virtues lacking in all other cars, and then adding all the excellencies possessed by all other cars.

This would seem to be unnecessary. All that should be needed is to show that the Franklin rides more comfortably, is easier and safer to drive, uses less gas, oil and tires; costs less to maintain; and lasts immeasurably longer than all other cars.

In a word it gives you more for your money in use, and costs less to buy than other cars when its beauty, comfort, economy and continuing value are considered.

All these things are so easy of proof. Do you want a car—all men do.

Then call on any manager or salesman of the Gooding Motor company and ask to be shown the Franklin.

We are glad to do this. You need not fear being bored by a lengthy talk. The Franklin talks for itself. Give it a chance to convince you.

Utah Is Slated for the Next Big Oil Excitement

DEVELOPMENTS are indicating that some portions of this state are underlaid with pools of "liquid wealth," and that Utah may soon take her place alongside Wyoming, Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas as an oil producer.

The great fortunes in oil have been made by those who were in on the discovery and development of properties. Once the production is proven, holdings usually take on such values that profits are necessarily smaller.

The DIXIE OIL COMPANY has holdings in southern Utah, on which OIL HAS BEEN DISCOVERED IN SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES, and it is a HIGH GRADE OIL.

We announced to some of our Twin Falls friends last week that we were developing this property and that we wanted them to coin with us and share in the anticipated profits. We have had so many requests for further information that we have decided to send our representative into that territory for a few days to answer these inquiries direct.

Mr. McKenzie and Mr. Andrews will be at the Perrine Hotel this coming week.

They have a quantity of our HIGH GRADE OIL DIRECT FROM OUR WELLS and a miniature refining plant with which they will demonstrate for you how to EXTRACT GAS, OLINE, KEROSENE AND FUEL OIL FROM THE CRUDE PRODUCT.

You can see with your own eyes that we can save over 75 per cent by ordinary distillation.

Demonstrations each day at ISIS THEATRE at 11 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

German Peace Rumor Fails to Interest the Administration

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The news originating in Bern that preparations for a peace conference are being made through the German newspapers and German propaganda for a new political move, "in the interest of peace," failed to interest official Washington today. It was authoritatively stated that unless it was on the face of it more than former "peace moves" it would meet no response of any kind from this country. According to the Bern story it is stated the new move is contemplated on the basis of "status quo ante" in western Europe and a recognition of the present status in the east. It can readily be seen that such a peace is not possible under the conditions outlined by President Wilson and the spokesmen of the entente allies, officials said.

How the Girls Serve Their Country—Interesting Letter from Young Lady Well Known to Twin Falls, Now in U. S. Service

Local mention was recently made in these columns of the appointment of Miss Mary Hungate as hospital dietitian in the army hospital nurse corps. At that time she expected to be assigned to duty at Camp Meade, Md. The assignment when received, however, sent her to Camp Wheeler, at Mason, Georgia, and the TIMES has the privilege of publishing a letter written soon after her arrival there to a lady friend here. Miss Hungate, it will be remembered, was at the head of the home economics department of the public schools, and in virtue of an outgoing personality, became quite generally known during her two years' service in that capacity.

rafter and clothing hanging on nails in the open. In the winter it was heated by stoves and the girls were truly drivers of water and bowls of wood. It had one hospital cot so high I require a pole vault to retire. It is going to be hard for me to accustom myself to the mess. The girls very plain and not particularly palatable—rough board tables, sans floor or service—however, we fare much better than enlisted men do as we have butter and more delicacies. My job is immense. At present I have charge of the special diets of all twenty-two wards and am supposed to inspect each diet kitchen every day. There are 111 beds in the mess. The wards are separate sheds with thirty-six beds in each, and office and a kitchen. They are all connected by a long hallway. The mess is 50 feet apart and are about fifty feet apart. The mess were out today preparing the soil for all of that intervening space for planting.

Dear Friend:

Tonight I am so tired I ache in every fibre but will not delay writing longer. I wish you could see our cadets—ten girls crowded in one room—perhaps about the size of the living room at the Inn. The interior decorations consist of rough beams and I am so glad that brother Will is here as it will enable me to have so many privileges that I would not have if I were in the States. I would like to have a brother to command, and his rank will help me. I like the girls in my shack—nice, well-dressed American girls, who work like dogs when on duty and who make the most of their pleasures. They have access to tennis courts and golf links and can secure government accounts if accompanied by an officer. The riding appears to me most but I have yet to acquire a habit.

I have so many things to buy. Have paid $4.50 apiece for my uniforms and a dollar and a quarter for aprons and I am in deep—immense—will require eight and a half dollars to wear the regulation white uniform and white belt apron like I wore at school. It is an attractive red lining, blue and tan and a red tie. On the right of the collar is the U. S. R. and the gold caduceus with white A. N. C. embroidered on it in the left. When off duty, you have an unlimited choice of apparel. It would be much simpler if your clothes were prescribed, so it is recommended to be economical in six weeks and can only take what is permitted by the authorities. Dancing is the most popular amusement but it is hard to dance at night and get up at six, go on duty at seven thirty—and get off at twelve; thirty, then again at three and off after dinner.

The nurses are ravenous. They eat all the time when off duty. Every night we have a French band. The canteen is just a short distance away and we keep the road hot. The girls say that they receive much less consideration than girls in the trenches, so as few people are aware that they are in the service. I must close now. Will write more soon.

Bicknell Explains the Seining Order

"Because of certain misunderstandings as to just what is permitted under the recent proclamation of Governor Alexander that permits the netting of certain kinds of fish, I desire to make plain what my understanding of that proclamation is and what is permitted and what is prohibited thereunder. "Permits will be issued by the state game department for the netting of mullet, bluegill, pumpkinseed, chub, white fish, bull trout and perch in non-game streams principally, but before the issuance of such permits it is necessary to obtain a stocking by deed that the stream in which the netting will be done are non-game streams. "No permits will be issued to seine any game fish streams of its size and where uncertainty exists concerning a stream being game or non-game and where there is thereon should be made to the state game warden's department. "The same laws protecting game fish remain in force as to the issuance of the proclamation, according to my understanding. The proclamation will not interfere with the fishing in the Snake river or any other streams where seining operations may be carried on, without danger to the game fish, thereon. "No permits will be issued for the use of trammel or gill nets and the game department will not authorize the use of a seine with a mesh smaller than two inches. "Any violation should be promptly reported to the state game department. "A copy of the permit granted under the proclamation is attached to the statement."

OVERMAN BILL STILL CAUSE OF RUCTION

REPORT OF HANSEN RED CROSS FOR FEBRUARY

During the month of February the Hansen Red Cross completed 92 hospital garments, 6 sets of legates, 19 sweaters, 4 pairs of pairs socks, 2 wash cloths, 1 pair wristlets, 60 buds of surgical dressings. The Junior Red Cross finished 29 pillows. The work in the surgical dressing classes has been discontinued for the month. The work in the sewing classes, as soon as gentle arrives notice will be posted on the bulletin board in the hardware store. Every woman is urged to give at least one afternoon or evening to the work. Mrs. Harry also has been busy with the knitting. Various washing work in that line can reach her by phone. The sewing is now in charge of Mrs. McCoy. Let all get together and pledge the Red Cross at least one garment a week. Most of these garments can be made in an hour, and surely none are too busy to give at least one hour a week to sewing for our boys over there.

ROME, March 13.—The aerial defense commanders at Naples, Foggia, and Terni have been blamed for failure to take effective measures against Austro-German aviators last Monday morning, when a raid was made, according to announcement made here today.

Leth Advises the Planting of Corn

The following advice is given by R. J. Leth of the University Extension department regarding the planting of corn this year: "The foremost substitute for wheat and we cannot afford to buy our entire supply in the middle west. Transportation difficulties and the high prices both offer unusual inducements to the Gem State farmer to grow this crop. We can raise a much larger share of our needs, thereby being very imperative for the proper prosecution of the war. More corn is especially urged upon the farmers living in the southern and central Canyons, Ada, Elmore, Gooding, Lincoln, Missoula, Cassia, and Twin Falls in the south and parts of Latah and Nez Perce in the north. "The transportation problem is at present in an acute stage. With added elements of troops and war supplies in the months to come the situation is bound to be expected to improve. Mr. Hoover has asked all communities to become as nearly self-sustaining as possible in order to eliminate long railway hauls. Every bushel of corn raised here will reduce transportation. It is needed to make us self-sustaining. The price of corn in Idaho is based on the middle western price, plus the freight. We will not produce enough for our own needs for several years to come. The Idaho grower has thus an advantage over his middle western competitor and can probably grow corn under present prices. There are no indications that the price will go naturally lower. Corn should be grown where conditions are right. It will not be justified in growing corn and wheat will produce a greater yield of wheat. The situation calls for the largest possible number of bushels of grain. Where corn will produce about 50 bushels grain as wheat or where it will fill in the time of the farmer to a better advantage, cultivation and a sufficient supply of moisture. With average soil and weather conditions, a good crop can be matured in many parts of the state. The extension division of the University of Idaho, at Boise, stands ready to assist in the selection of varieties. Questions on soil or methods of cultivation will be gladly answered. They are also anxious to hear from men having seed corn for sale and those desiring to purchase seed. The Farm Markets department, Boise, also maintains a list of men having seed corn for sale.

WHICH IS THE MOST ECONOMICAL

The most way carefully removed from the bones of a dressed chicken weighing two pounds and the bones and refuse were weighed. They amounted to thirty-eight per cent of the total weight, or three-quarters of a pound. The chicken had cost thirty cents a pound, which made the cost of the meat part forty-eight cents a pound.

The meat part of a larger chicken—four or five pounds in weight—ten cost ten cents less a pound than the smaller one. It is not economy then to buy a chicken of fairly good weight, for the proportion of waste increases as the size of the chicken increases.

In other words not so much of your money is buying bones, but more of both white meat and dark meat when you choose the larger fowl.

What pound chicken do you usually buy?

Salmon Tract Cut Up for Discussion

State Land Board Will Only Return Eliminated Land If It Can Cut Other Tracts

The delegation of Salmon land holders who went to Boise Tuesday to protest against the elimination of certain lands under the recommendations of the Whiffen report returned yesterday after laying their objections before the board.

The following account of the meeting was given in the Statesman:

MR. FARMER—

We are ready to supply your needs in Formaldehyde, Blue Vitriol and Corrosive Sublimite for spring farming.

ens of their own on how the matter should be handled. Thirty or more of the settlers appearing Tuesday before the state land board discussed with members of that body a report filed a month ago by C. W. Whiffen, an appraiser, sent down on the tract to determine what lands should be eliminated.

The board spent almost the entire day listening to the entrants, but took no action on the report, deferring action until today or until a later date.

Thomas Sanderson, owner of the Berger townsite on the lower end of the project, offered no protest against the action which the board proposes to take, but he wants 30 acres of water for the 30 acres of land he owns. Mr. Whiffen allotted him 20 shares.

Tears came to the eyes of E. H. Johnson, one of the settlers, when he pleaded with the board not to eliminate his farm. He owns 80 acres of land in the project.

"I have spent the best years of my life and all of my money retaining the tract on which I am living, and now the board proposed to treat me like a dog and take from me all that I own," he declared.

Mr. Johnson recently completed a beautiful home. Mr. Whiffen spent several weeks in going over the tract before he completed the report which he filed with the state land board.

The matter of reimbursing the settlers who will lose their properties if the project is reduced in size came up for discussion at the meeting Tuesday. The governor promised that the legislature's attention would be called to the need of settling in full with the farmers who lose their lands.

CALL ISSUED FOR MORE MEN

board affected, as will all other excess due to special call.

"The situation arising from the scarcity of farm labor demands that the call to the colors of men actively, completely and astiduously engaged in the planting or cultivation of a crop, but who are in excess of the new quota, should be deferred until the end of the new quota. Please instruct your local boards therefore that the president direct that in this emergency, call they shall pass the order numbers of such men and defer their call for the present. It must be borne in mind that this step is taken solely in the need of the nation, and not for the benefit of any individual. Therefore, who should consider it a great duty to exercise this power to conserve and augment the agricultural production, they should observe closely the conduct of those deferred, and immediately upon becoming convinced that any person so deferred is not giving his entire time and earnest attention to agricultural duty, or that he is trifling with the deferment thus granted him, the board should forthwith call him to the colors. All citizens should assist in making this expedient effective, and in bringing to the attention of the boards cases meriting deferment, as well as cases in which deferment is being abused."

The following are the number of men comprising the first quota in this call, according to Adjutant General Charles S. Moody:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Number. Includes Boise City (8), Ada (6), Adams (6), Bannock (22), Bear Lake (6), Benewah (6), Bingham (3), Blaine (3), Boise (2), Bonanza (2), Bonnaville (11), Boundary (2), Butte (2), Canyon (2), Cassia (8), Elmore (4), Franklin (4), Fremont (3), Gem (3), Gooding (4), Idaho (4), Jefferson (8), Kootenai (8), Latah (10), Lemhi (2), Lewis (2), Lincoln (2), Madison (2), Minidoka (2), Nez Perce (7), Oneida (2), Owyhee (2), Payette (2), Power (4), Shoshone (18), Teton (2), Twin Falls (16), Valley (2), Washington (2).

AGREE TO BUY SITE

The Mutual Light, Power & Heat company will buy the Clear Lakes power site for $200,000 in cash. The title can be cleared. This was agreed upon Tuesday evening by committees representing the company and W. C. Hazzard, the owner. A contract has been filed by Mrs. Syster against the property and the transfer is contingent on Mr. Hazzard's ability to prove his case.

Democrats Again In the Saddle

Swearing In of New York Members Gives Them a Plurality in the Lower House

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Democrats were again firmly in the saddle in the house this afternoon following the swearing into office of the four newly elected New York representatives, all of whom are of the administration party.

When it was explained that the total soldier vote was not over 360 and that the lowest majority was not over 100 of the four was 2,100 McKean withdrew his objection.

Huns Gone When Yanks Raid Trench

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 14.—The Germans have practically evacuated their advanced positions opposite the American on the Toul front—at least so far as offensive tactics are concerned, received corroboration on Monday night when Americans again raided the German lines, penetrating them to a certain depth.

Intense activity that developed on the Toul front since the Americans took up their positions there evidently caused the Germans to take precautionary measures.

East of Lunville—the only province the Germans make to holding their line in the last night's raid.

Although the Americans did not accept any prisoners when they penetrated German positions at 8 o'clock on Monday night, they effectually snatched a contemplated German gas attack which had been set for the near future.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—General Pershing, in a telegram to the war department today, told briefly of the American troops' repulse of a German trench raid on the early morning of March 13. He stated "Summary of activities of the 42nd (Rainbow) division from night of March 4 and 5," the cablegram read.

"The enemy attempted trench raid early morning March 5.—Same was repulsed with losses to enemy. Our losses reported slight. No missing prisoners. General Gorard, commanding eighth French army, congratulated the division commander on the way in which troops repulsed the raid."

Dutch Ships to be Commandeered

Arrangements Made With Holland for Seizure of Benelux Both Nations Are Being Formulated

NEW YORK, March 14.—Between 40 and 50 Dutch ships, both passenger and cargo, are being commandeered by the decision of the allies to commander Dutch shipping, are lying in New York harbor and waters adjacent.

Holland's merchant shipping is estimated at 1,522,550 tons by Whitakers & Lees, Ltd., London, registrar of book as its authority for the compilation. During 1917 a number of Dutch ships were sunk by German submarines, but the aggregate was not offset by fresh boats. The amount of Dutch shipping now lying in allied ports is variously estimated at from 500,000 to 900,000 tons.

August Phillips, the Dutch minister, was in conference with the president this afternoon at the White House. Holland's situation has been difficult as that country's shipping has been under threat of being sunk by Germany.

It is not the intention of the United States or Great Britain to take advantage of Holland in this matter, but other countries have no other alternative than to commander Holland's ships. Ample financial compensation will be given Holland for her ships and for the loss of cargo to that country in as good shape as when received or will be replaced.

CHICAGO, March 14.—Cash corn was off as much as 20c in price today. This was for the low grades while better grades were only 5c. The cash oats market was unchanged to 1/4c lower. Provisions were generally lower, although the feeling early in the day was not so. The commodities sold at higher levels at that time.

RAILROAD BILL TO PASS TODAY

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The administration bill probably will be finally passed today and go to the president to be signed tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The administration bill probably will be finally passed today and go to the president to be signed tomorrow. Consideration of the conference report upon the bill was postponed yesterday by the house immediately after it convened this afternoon.

DRY WORKERS INDICTED

CHICAGO, March 14.—Eight dry workers have been indicted by the grand jury here today on charges of perjury and forgery. Several of those indicted in the hot fight against the brewers and the drys are reported to have confessed that they copied hundreds of names from the city directory and forged them to the petition.

BIG NAVAL BILL INTRODUCED

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The largest naval appropriation bill in the history of the nation was reported to the house this afternoon by the committee on naval affairs. It appropriates $1,325,000,000, including $188,000,000 for naval aviation, a sum twice as large as that originally asked.

HOPE TO OUST SOCIALISTS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 14.—The Milwaukee county council of defense filed today to oust from the chairmanship of the board Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, Socialist, and also all other Socialist members of that body. This action followed the announcement of the Socialist city platform which has taken a stand against the war.
