Germany's Advance Guard Quietly Arrives For Peace Conference

Delegation Is Quartered in Hotel Surrounded by Protection.

FEW PEOPLE KNEW OF ARRIVAL OF PARTY

Freedom Is Given the Party Within Zone Guarded by Detectives - Except Discussion.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, April 25.—The first of the Germans who are to participate in the Versailles congress arrived in Versailles today in two parties. The first group consisting of three official couriers, arrived early in the day, and the second, headed by Herr Loewen, came later. They were escorted to the hotel des Reservoirs.

The Germans were met at the station by Colonel Henry of the military of war commissary, and M. Oudille of the ministry of the interior, who were delegated by the French government to take charge of the German representatives.

Few Knew of Arrival.
The arrival of Kaiser and his party was so quietly arranged that few persons in Versailles were aware even in the afternoon of their presence.

A French detective of the most obvious "plain clothes" type loitered at the front entrance to that wing of the Hotel des Reservoirs, and companions under the window of the room facing the Versailles park were the only indications of the character of the state guests who had displaced civilian lodgers and crowded them to seek other shelter in forced Versailles. The detective did not interfere with traffic in the street or in the park.

The Germans will not be expected, and probably do not desire to extend their movements into the general quarters of Versailles.

Exit Route for Walks.
Nor is it expected that the Germans will extend their movements beyond the great Palace to the Bois de Boulogne and in the other, to the Frisson and the Petit Triangle. The necessary precautions will be taken to prevent annoyance by curiosity seekers or possible hostile persons in that part of the park adjoining the hotel where they take their walks and through which they pass to and from the Hotel Frisson when the preliminary conferences with the associated delegates will take place.

The German delegation will be allowed to use code in communicating with Germany and will have direct telephone and telegraph connections. The Germans will also be allowed to use couriers who will enjoy full diplomatic immunity.

EXPECT NEGOTIATION DISSESSION.
BERLIN, April 25.—Troickor Walter M. A. Schoenking, one of the German delegates to the peace conference at Versailles declared today that the powers of the German delegates were "quite sufficient" to enable them to sign the peace treaty on the spot. He added, however, that the national assembly must sanction the treaty.

Professor Schoenking's statements were made in an interview with the Zeitung Am Mittag. Concluding he said:

"The importance of the delegation should be appreciated as an indication that the imperial government reckons on real negotiations. The contents of the latest note permit the conclusion that our opponents are in principle inclined seriously to negotiate with us."

"I personally am optimistic enough to hope that French reports of the contents of the treaty are materially inaccurate and that therefore an acceptable preliminary peace may be agreed within the next few weeks even though special deliberations may be protracted for months."

AUGUST JULIARD IS DEAD.
By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 25.—August J. Juliard, capitalist and diamond dealer, died at his home here tonight. He was born at Canton, Ohio. Mr. Juliard was director of some of the oil, banking and insurance companies in America and trustee of several trust companies.

Summary of The International Situation

By the Associated Press. Although Vittorio Orlando, Italian premier, has withdrawn from the peace conference and returned to Italy, he still is in communication with the conference chiefs in Paris. The French premier, George Clemenceau, received a message from the Italian statesman Friday morning, but no hints as to its contents has been divulged. Signor Orlando dispatched his message while on his way to Rome. Baron Sonnino, Italian foreign minister, will leave Paris for Rome Saturday, according to announcement.

The departure of Premier Orlando is defined in conference circles not as a rupture, but as a suspension of Italian collaboration in the actual peace conference. In some quarters the expectation has been expressed that Signor Orlando will return to Paris in time for the delivery of the peace terms to the German plenipotentiaries at Versailles—about May 1 or 2. It is expected that the Italian delegates remaining in Paris will continue to collaborate on various secondary inter-ally combinations.

The commission delegates seem confident that a settlement will be reached after a conference of Premier Orlando with the Italian parliament at Turin. It is expected that the final manifesto has been drafted. "Wait and hope" was the watchword expressed at the Italian headquarters Friday.

President Wilson outwardly has displayed no disposition to yield to the Italians and the opinion voiced among American circles is that only through a change in the attitude of the Italians can an agreement be reached.

From Italy comes word that in Rome and other cities there have been demonstrations which have been manifested have cheered the United States but uttered expressions of animosity toward President Wilson.

An American officer arriving in Paris from Rome reports that four Italian divisions have been detached there and that virtually all the inhabitants of the city, with the exception of Italians, have departed.

The advance guard of the German peace delegation reached Versailles Friday.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS ATTACKING MUNICH IN VIOLENT BATTLE

By the Associated Press. GENEVA, April 25.—German government troops are attacking Munich and violent fighting is going on, the loss being heavy on both sides, according to advices received here. The fighting has been going on since Sunday, and is said to be gaining ground. Munich is virtually isolated from the rest of Germany.

PLANS ARE DEVISED TO REDEEM GILA LANDS
Arizona Project to Be Watered From Big Dam—Government Assists.

By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, April 25.—An agreement on the details of the Gila river, Arizona, reclamation project was reached here today by representatives of the federal government and property owners of the district affected, the Casa Grande and Florence valleys.

According to an official announcement tonight the dam will be built ten miles above Florence. 70,000 acres will be benefited and the cost, with $250,000 already appropriated by congress with the provision that it not be spent unless the success of the project is assured.

TWIN FALLS COUNTY WINS TWO FIRSTS AT DECLAMATORY MEET

Two of the three high honors possible at the state declamatory meeting held in Blackfoot last evening came this county. Miss Dorothy Kenworthy of Twin Falls high school won first in the dramatic contest, while Miss Ruth Kohr of Piller scored high in the humorous division. The other first, in the dramatic class went to Miss Mona Steffen of Blackfoot. Word of the results were received last evening by Hal O. Tillie, superintendent of schools, and E. T. Mitchell, principal of the high school. Mitchell, rejoiced at the victory of Miss Kenworthy was manifested among high school students last evening. The students were also pleased that Piller won a first.

CANCEL MANY MORE SHIP CONTRACTS

Work on 2,000,000 Tons of Steel Vessels Is Ordered Stopped.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 25.—Cancellation of contracts made during the war for construction of 2,000,000 tons of steel vessels was announced today by the shipping board which is preparing to close government work in many yards throughout the country. This brings the total cancellations since the signing of the armistice to 4,000,000 tons.

In the brief announcement issued from the office of Chief Frank Higginson no reference was made to the actual number of contracts involved or to the yards affected by the cancellation order. It was explained, however, that action at this time would not come as a surprise to builders, as no title was served on their contracts by the board's new policy, the chief feature of which was the elimination of building plans for all ships under 12,000 tons.

At the end of March about 800 ships for the board had been launched, but not delivered. These ships represented a tonnage of about 1,000,000. On the same date keels had been laid for some 600 ships aggregating 800,000 tons. Shipping board officials said they were unable to give the actual number of contracts outstanding or later figures than of March 31. It was indicated, however, that yards like Hog Island, along with smaller plants on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts, would lose some government business.

FORMULA FOR MUSTARD GAS MADE IN U. S.

Dr. Scheele, Under Direction of Schweitzer, Invented Poison.

WAS SENT IN CODE ACROSS THE SEA

Master Spy Kept Close Tabs on Operations in America, Making Minute Reports.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 25.—Under "the master spy" Dr. Hugo Schweitzer, German agent in this country reported to Berlin by code every detail of America's business life, kept from the allies half a million; five hundred thousand pounds of explosive and semi-mustard gas which sold for thousands of American dollars, according to Franklin P. Graves, all-American property expert today, who spoke at the annual banquet of the National Cotton Manufacturers association tonight.

Kept Tab on Business.
"True it is that the Hamburg-American line and the North German Lloyd—help-faithful-ship-for-Berlin—thousands of our business life, which—came under their observation that not a ship left our harbors, not a cargo was loaded or unloaded, not a passenger member of the organization watched and reported every detail of our life to the German government," said Mr. Graves.

"Not greater than all, and forming the foundation of her entire espionage and propaganda system, stood the industry. As long as you were supplied by the 'big six' your business had no secret unknown to Berlin. In Berlin you will find a card index system which routes every fact connected with each and every one of your concerns that can be of any possible value to your rivals over there," Schweitzer was quoted.

The head of that system in this country, for years before the war was Dr. Hugo Schweitzer, president of the Boyer company. He was given his secret service number by his imperial government.

BULL IS DINED IN WALDORF-ASTORIA; BELLOWS APPROVAL

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 25.—A 400,000 bull known as "financial sensation," with a pedigree dating back nearly fifty years, dined as guest of honor today at a luncheon in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel given by the promoters of the Milk and Dairy exposition now in progress here.

Two hundred humans cleared when the animal, roiled in an orange blanket on which his name was embroidered, was brought in and fed a morning meal consisting of five-finger-tablets, which rested a giant Ivory platter containing Irish mash, which he ate with etiquette to be expected of a high bred bovine. After consulting a plate dish of baked ham and grating a pull of water, he followed his approval of the menu.

WANT ENLISTED MEN AT SOLDIER CAUCUS

Larger Delegation From Idaho Is Urged by National Secretary of American Legion.

Idaho's delegation at the veterans of the great war caucus at St. Louis next month will be increased to an indefinite number. A special effort will be made to secure a large delegation of enlisted men.

In a telegram to The Chronicle last evening, L. R. Collier of Pocatello, temporary secretary of the state delegation stated that a telegram had been received from Lieutenant Colonel Eric Fisher Wood, temporary secretary of the American Legion, urging the increased delegation. In his telegram Colonel Wood said: "I think every soldier may appoint himself to the delegation. He telegraphed the secretary of this St. Louis convention depends absolutely on a full representation from each state and it is therefore hoped that all state delegations and alternates will attend."

"In view of the fact that for many reasons certain men who are willing and able to go to the caucus are overlooked in the selection of delegates and alternates you are authorized to appoint as an official delegate at large any man from your state who will agree to be present. An especially large delegation of enlisted men is desired."

Lieutenant John S. Green and Sergeant Major Taylor Cummins of Twin Falls have already been selected as delegates and alternates, respectively, to the convention and are planning on attending while D. Harold McGrath of Twin Falls, was one of the Idaho men signing the call for the caucus.

Ask Citizens to Participate.
ST. LOUIS, April 25.—Despatches from Rome say the newspaper of that city report that the following circular was distributed in large numbers Friday in all parts of Rome by officers and men of the "allied armies":

"The Italian people, while reaffirming friendship for the peoples of Great Britain, France and the United States, invite citizens of allied nations now staying in Rome to participate in a demonstration to be made on the arrival here of the Italian peace delegation from Paris."

Received in Turin.
TURIN, April 25.—The Italian delegates returning from Paris to Rome received an enthusiastic reception when their train reached the city this afternoon, the city council and local authorities meeting the representatives of Italy to the conference. Deputies and senators assembled on the station platform and a crowd of at least 500 persons filled the station and surrounding streets.

Premier Orlando, Signor Bazzani and General Diaz spoke to the crowd from an automobile and then went to the prefecture, where there was another demonstration. "The party left this city for Rome at 8:15 o'clock."

Italians Attend Meetings.
By the Associated Press. PARIS, April 25.—The Italians have suspended attendance on such occasions and this morning are indirectly dependent on the power of France and whose work is inspired in the decision of territorial questions at issue but they continued today to participate in the deliberations of organizations formed prior to the conference and of the international economic council. They also continue to discuss the economic and financial situation with the American and other representatives as if nothing had happened.

At a meeting of the international economic council, the American and other representatives as if nothing had happened. Mothers of service men and service daughters of Twin Falls county are planning on commemorating the deaths of their children by handling together in a permanent organization.

"The war mothers' club was started in Indianapolis in 1917, by Mrs. Alice M. French," said Mrs. T. H. Irvin, in charge of the plans.

"It was organized to aid the food conservation, but after it came to the notice of the government it was made into a national organization."

"One of its main objects, now that the need for food conservation has lessened, is to develop soldiers' memorials, unless other organizations have them—under consideration. We endeavor to cooperate with all other patriotic organizations in observing days such as Memorial day and the Fourth of July.

"All members of grade and daughters who have seen service in the war are eligible. While at this time we only have a membership of about 20 in this county we hope to grow rapidly."

The club was organized here last August, but an account of the influenza it was necessary to stop meeting for some time.

The club is widely known now throughout the country. Each state has a war mother who is the head of the clubs in that state and each county has a war mother. Mrs. D. W. Stander of Pocatello is the state war mother and Mrs. T. H. Irvin in the Twin Falls county war mother. Other officers of the club in this county are: Mrs. David Brown, secretary, and Mrs. M. C. Putnam, treasurer.

The next meeting is to be held on May 15, and is to be an open meeting for all war mothers, and it is hoped that every war mother will come, said Mrs. Irvin.

The war mothers are to hold an all-day meeting at the headquarters of the Red Cross to sew and work next Wednesday.

The picnic social held by the Curry school Thursday evening, the proceeds to go to the French orphan fund, was a great success. As a result of the gathering $66 was cleared, one picnic alone bringing $9.

There was a large crowd attending and a royal good time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. H. Corbett will entertain the Entre Nous club at her home next Wednesday afternoon.

The A. F. and A. M. lodge entertained at the Masonic temple last evening for all Masons and their ladies. A large number attended the affair and all enjoyed a royal good time. A sumptuous luncheon was served during the evening.

Mrs. Harry Allen gave a delightful little dinner party for her nephew, W. J. Allen, in honor of his birthday Thursday evening. Covers were laid for eight. This invited guests were Miss Vera Ames, Miss Gladys Dwight, Mr. Florence—Mr. Painter and Mr. J. Harvey.

Among the club meetings of the week was the meeting of the T. V. Friday bridge club at the home of Mrs. Thomas Howberry Thursday afternoon. The high score was won by Mrs. F. H. Cag, and Mrs. Harry Berger. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a dainty little luncheon.

The Holston club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Scott April 15. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Thelton on May 1st.

The formal dance of the O. O. O. club was held at the Colton hall last evening. The hall was decorated with patriotic colors of red, white and blue. A five-piece orchestra furnished the music of the evening and a royal time was enjoyed by all. This was the first of the formal dances of the season.

Rebuilding of Devastated France

COULD BEARD WHICH COULD BEAR THE BURDEN

Ravages of Warfare and Deliberate Hun Policy of Destruction Make It the Work of Years.

By LLOYD ALLEN, Special Staff Correspondent.

It is impossible for outsiders to try to take on more than a relatively small part of the reconstruction work in France because first estimates show the total damage amounts to something like $10,000,000,000, or approximately the amount raised by the first three Liberty Loans in America. It is strictly a national job, this replacement of 600,000 wrecked homes, 100,000 of which are mere heaps of stone.

America is going to contribute some billions of dollars worth of material to the rebuilding of devastated France through the American Red Cross. Our aid in this direction alone will be valuable. It will consist of the distribution of supplies bought by the Red Cross for the active war zone in earnest, on which are now stored in the Red Cross warehouses and not needed urgently by the American armies.

Large as the Red Cross relief will be in actual dollars, it must still be viewed as a first aid program. Rather than the taking on of a program of actual reconstruction, that is, the actual rebuilding of demolished cottages.

The Red Cross policy is to provide, when it can, the necessary articles French villagers will need for another life anew. During the winter months there was a big demand for stoves.

Thousands were needed, with one stove a French family could manage to get along while the home deserted during war days was made habitable. But there were not enough stoves available to supply one-fourth of the demand. When the Red Cross makes of reconstruction work these days, it has in mind the providing of such necessities as stoves, medicines, and simple necessities. It does not mean, when speaking of reconstruction, to take up part in the rebuilding of damaged homes.

There are several American organizations that will rebuild houses, but these groups are taking on a very limited number of homes and are not endeavoring to house anything more than a small proportion of the two million French men, women and children that were homeless when the armistice was signed.

From many miles through northern France day after day and see the desolation of deserted villages in order to get an idea of the wreckage. The devastated area covers 4,000 square miles. Striked through this land are the ferocious shell segments where the land has been so blasted by thousands of high explosive shells and by mines that the ground has been left abjectly dead and in an utter desolation. It is officially estimated that 250,000 acres of farm lands, through one of the most productive parts of France, have been ruined by artillery fire.

Towns near these shell fields are usually completely wrecked. There is not enough left in the way of shelter to house anything larger than a stray cat. Malnevrou, which I visited on the way to the forest of the Argonne. In just such a place. A few hundred yards away from the town is a man's hand.

On Prince's Grand Stand.

Rebuilt the town, as viewed from the former sited trenches, is Aboufarcath, from which the German crown prince, in a concrete and steel observation tower three stories high, watched the progress of battle.

He could see, among other things, the houses of Malnevrou crumble day by day until former houses were stone heaps with protruding timbers that once held up roofs. Today Malnevrou can be recognized only by a sign board. A few stray German graves are marked with carefully lettered crosses on which metal identification tags have been nailed.

On, up the road toward Metz, about three-quarters of a mile, Montfouch today stands almost completely wrecked. Visitors to this territory never miss seeing the crown prince's safe, shelter which was constructed inside the walls of a three and a half story house—the only four walls left standing in the town. How the house around the crown prince's shelter escaped destruction, is still a mystery. Several shells hit it and the roof is partly torn away, but inside concrete walls three feet thick, built during the actual battle, the crown prince—having probably the finest riflemen in the big field that can be found anywhere on the long battle line from the North sea to Switzerland.

From the roadway in front of this house you have to look sharply to detect even a trace of life tower inside. From a point 200 feet down the road, the tower is visible.

Varennes, on the old French frontier, is another of the more interesting though desolate, probably 80 per cent destroyed, yet though the walls of many houses remain standing. Here it was that Louis XVI, escaping from Paris and from the mob that finally executed him, was caught and recaptured.

When Louis XVI, with his queen, was recognized and arrested, American negro infantrymen were drilling the day I passed through the town. Across the river in the ruins of houses, a Y. M. C. A. has some hundred feet in length and 20 feet wide was in full operation, selling cigarettes and giving

OUR GREATEST WAR MEMORIAL ALREADY STANDS—IT IS TWIN FALLS ITSELF!

Mr. Citizen, meet the NEW TWIN FALLS.

Sure, it looks a lot like our same old pre-war town on the surface. ... But look deeper.

Beneath the surface, Twin Falls boasts today, a Civic Soul.

Our city's spirit is a force reborn, fused in the fires of international strife, molded anew to nobler ends, vibrant now, with conscious co-operation in the works of peace and of the future.

We, the citizens of Twin Falls, were united by the war in bonds of common toll and sacrifice. ... The full meaning of civic solidarity has been revealed to us. We have come out of the war a vitalized and spiritualized municipal entity, inspired by a grand sense of our common patriotic achievements.

And Twin Falls' war-born community soul is its first and greatest war memorial—a living, glowing monument to our fallen heroes.

What greater tribute would those boys have wished for?

While they fought and fell, it was of HOME that they were thinking. It was THERE CITY that they longed to see once more.

Many a closing eye on the battlefield turned in mute despair toward HOME—Toward Twin Falls.

Shall Twin Falls soon forget? Shall we fail to hold fast, with those who fought for us?

Shall we fail to make Twin Falls in all ways worthy of them?

WE WILL NOT FAIL.

This is the first of a number of public spirited articles which will be printed in The Chronicle. The aim will be to stimulate new life in our common cause, to strengthen our bonds of mutual solidarity, and to raise ever higher the banner of Civic Patriotism, justice and prosperity—in short, to point the way toward making Twin Falls in fact a beautiful and happy community, in structure and in spirit a worthy memorial to the sublime sacrifices of our boys who fought in France.

With every reader of these articles we plead for hearty co-operation in the ALL-AMERICAN spirit of this campaign, to the higher honor of our boys and the greater glory of their city's name.

A GREAT MOMENT

Any man might expect the monument left by Frank W. Woolworth. That monument is not, as many people are hastily inclined to think, the five-and-ten cent store. It is quite true that in originating that particular institution Mr. Woolworth made a very important contribution to American business. It is true also that in bringing that idea to success he demonstrated as few men have ever done the wide and important practical things. No merchant or manufacturer hereafter will scorn "retail" as despite small fruit.

It might be said, too, that the fortune left by Mr. Woolworth is a great monument. It amounts to $30,000,000 or $40,000,000. But even great fortunes are ephemeral and have no historic merit.

The thing for which this merchant will be remembered longest and best is the Woolworth building. That is a structure which the American people have as yet hardly begun to appreciate. It has won national recognition chiefly for its great height. What it most deserves credit for is its beauty.

In this aspect of the famous office that most commend it to foreign visitors. They continued comments; they finally began to bring Americans to a realization that our country has produced a specimen of architecture wholly new in this world, and deserving to rank with the finest of European architecture. We have indeed achieved the miracle of creating a great office building with all a cathedral's loveliness and grandeur.

To the five-and-ten-cent store merchant is due the conception and inspiration that found their fulfillment in that glorious temple of commerce. A great architect designed the building; but it was Mr. Woolworth that supplied the idea and the opportunity.

REAL WAGES FOR SOLDIERS

A good many soldiers employed in building roads in this country—not military roads, but civilian roads—that they were being imposed on. The soldiers have been used for this purpose in large numbers in states where there are big military camps. Their labor, of course, has been of great benefit to the localities concerned. But the men felt that they had not enlisted as mere road builders, and they did not relish the idea of toiling at such tasks alongside of private workmen who were getting 45 or 50 cents an hour while the soldier received only their regular army pay of a dollar a day.

That injustice is now fortunately being remedied. It has been arranged that all troops engaged in road construction just present or future, shall be paid the difference between their army wages and the current wages of private employees. The money is provided from the $200,000,000 federal highway fund, and is deducted from the sum allotted by the government to the states utilizing this soldier labor.

Under such conditions there should be no objection to using men liberally on highway work, especially while there is any uncertainty about getting employment outside the army.

5000 MEN IN U. S. ARMY UNIVERSITY IN FRANCE

NOW TRAINING FOR BETTER PLACE IN CIVIL LIFE

NOTE.—This is the third of a series of stories by Staff Correspondent ... are spending the time overseas now that the fighting is over.

BY EDWARD M. THURLEY. PARIS.—Going to school and getting paid for it is one of the ways the A. E. puts in its time.

There's a plenty of pleasure in the France while on leave and in camp.

But aside from being bored and attending the former fighting men of the United States army. They are now, and have been for some time, in a school all the time while they were under military training in the camps at home and before they went into action over here.

This is different. They are now attending the Army University in France. Courses range from the preliminary schooling for those handicapped in their earlier years by lack of opportunity for even common school education, up to the advanced technical schools.

The agricultural school at Alencon is a fine illustration, testifying to the desire of many soldiers to take their living out of the soil when they get home.

College of Business. The college of business in the university at Bourges has the largest enrollment. The newly inducted officers and enlisted men who give up business successes to enter the army to make the draft of W. H. Lumborg, formerly of the New York Herald school of commerce.

TEDDY ROOSEVELT, JR. Will He Fill His Father's Shoes?

TEDDY, JUNIOR TEDDY, SENIOR

How young Theodore Roosevelt would look if he had his famous father's mustache and eyes.

NEW YORK. — Will Theodore Roosevelt, junior, fall heir to the political crown won by his father, the sixth he by Teddy the second, to the honor of Roosevelt admirers the country over?

Will he follow the footsteps of his illustrious father into the White House?

Those are questions puzzling politicians who look ahead, while interest daily increasing stream of Americans.

Many states' political leaders believe the young man will some day be president. Indeed, they are grooming him for the job. Others are trying to climb on the band wagon.

LAMAR ABBOTT SPEAKS "GREAT THINGS."

"I predict great things for him," says Dr. Lamar Abbott. "I don't say he will follow in the footsteps of his father. No man can follow in another's footsteps. He must make his own mark. If the boy is anything like his father, he will strike out along original lines."

And Louis Col. Theodore Roosevelt is like his father. His head is slumped like that of his father, only slightly tilted.

He is like his father in his every movement. He is quick and decisive. He has the typical Roosevelt grin, with the old "U. I." fluting of the teeth. He has the same heavy hand.

The son has the broad shoulders, the powerful frame, the quick motions of the father. His forehead, chin and nose are most like the elder T. R.'s.

With the addition of glasses and a wig, he would be mistaken, the resemblance would be striking. His manner, his every young American should know, but strong neck are nearly identical, and what his specific duty is, Rooseveltian. Also he's a hard worker.

He has counted his hat into the ring meaning the ring of politics and public life. At this moment Theodore, junior, is the most talked of young man in America.

He has been asked to become a candidate for vice president next year. This, it is believed, he will refuse. And still, his friends point to the fact that his father, went from that office to the president.

At present Colonel Roosevelt is at his desk in the brokerage concern of Montgomery & Co. 14 Wall street, and is giving most of his spare hours to the organization of the American Legion, American veterans of the world war, the national convention of which has been called in St. Louis in May.

Colonel Roosevelt is 31, a university man, a Republican, and married, with three children. At 21 his father had already several years of public life to his credit, having been elected to the New York legislature at 24, and being at 25 an United States civil service commissioner.

When he first went into the Spanish war, he was a lieutenant colonel and came out a colonel. T. R., the second, went in with the old "U. I." fluting of the teeth. He had a major and came back a lieutenant colonel. Both were educated at Harvard and both married in 1880.

"I shall conduct myself as I believe my father would have me," Colonel Roosevelt, Jr., said. "I am not so immediate as to dream I can fill his very high shoes. But this is a period in which every young American should know, but strong neck are nearly identical, and what his specific duty is, Rooseveltian. Also he's a hard worker."

OTHERS WHO FOLLOWED IN FOOTSTEPS.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, sixth president, was the son of John Adams, second president.

BENJAMIN HARRISON, twenty-third president, was the grandson of William Henry Harrison, ninth president.

ROBERT T. LINCOLN, secretary of war in the cabinets of Garfield and Arthur, was the son of Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth president.

JAMES R. GARFIELD, secretary of the interior in the cabinet of Theodore Roosevelt, was the son of James A. Garfield, twentieth president.

Thousands more are attending post office courses in the various universities in France. Courses range from the preliminary schooling for those handicapped in their earlier years by lack of opportunity for even common school education, up to the advanced technical schools.

The agricultural school at Alencon is a fine illustration, testifying to the desire of many soldiers to take their living out of the soil when they get home.

Your Wash Day
It means getting up early, with dread in your heart for the long, hard day ahead of you. A day full of the meanest kind, eg., drudgery, and back-breaking toil—a hasty lunch—and you finish at 4 or 5 o'clock with tired feet and an aching body.

If you employ a laundress
Think of the uncertainty of whether she is coming or not—scrumping on the wash for fear she will be dissatisfied—means to get for an extra person—waste of soap and abuse of clothes—with only partly clean clothes as a recompense.

If you employ servants
The constant strain of keeping them satisfied—the extra cost if they do washing and oftentimes extra help to assist them—the loss of time from other duties.

If you send it out
The unnecessary wear and tear of your clothes coming in contact with germ-laden clothes from some other home—careless handling in an unsanitary wash room—the excessive cost.

Let us bring an EDEN WASH up to your place and demonstrate it.

FIX CONQUERS BOISE BALL TEAM

Local Pitcher Twirls Fine Game—Hybarger Does Stellar Catching.

PITCHING air-light ball through-out Fix, Twin Falls high school's stellar pitcher, was checked out of a shutout last evening in the game with Boise—high school as a result of two errors on the part of Neuman, the Peoria city's first baseman. The final score was 7 to 1, with Boise high on the short end of the tally. Twin Falls outclassed the visitors throughout the contest. Fix fanned 14 of the Capital City bunch while holding them to two hits, both of the bingles being of the scratch variety. Boise threw a scare into the crowds in the stands when in the first inning Coby, the second man up, landed one in the right field that was a scratchy three-bagger. Rose had already gone out by the air-fanning route. The Bolsetts died on third when Williams flew to Kringle and Brown went out, Kringle to Neuman.

Twin Falls garnered a victory in the first frame. With two strikes on Yochum, the Boise catcher, was knocked out when he attempted to get a bachel off of C. Fix's bat. The lad suffered a badly lacerated face and nose and was taken out of the game, Zohg being brought in from left field and Bell being sent in in his place. Fix closed on a passed ball and Parsons swept an another catcher's error a moment later. Putterler rumbled home on a fielder's choice.

Another tally was added in the fifth inning jay when Kringle answered the crowd's cry for a hit with "I'll say so," getting a first. He stole second and went in third base on an error and came home as the result of another miscue.

Hybarger divided the honors with Fix, his pegging to the keynote catch cutting off any efforts of the visitors to purloin bases.

Another game will be played this afternoon.

Hybarger's throwing to second killed all of Boise's efforts at tying.

Boise catcher, dropped a third strike. Fix's single brought in Yochum and Neuman. Hybarger came in when Putterler went down. The Twins and Putterler ended the season by fanning.

A nifty double play, Rose to Coby to Langdon, prevented Twin Falls from scoring in the second.

The game lightened up until the seventh frame when Twin Falls again opened the fireworks. Fix, the pitcher, walked, Parsons followed suit. Putterler was safe on an error by Lang-

GROVER CLEVELAND ALEXANDER'S AMBITION, NOW THAT HE'S A CIT AGAIN, IS TO WIN THIRTY GAMES FOR CUBS

SERG. GROVER ALEXANDER

By Toy Grove
NEW YORK.—When the boys get back from overseas they come with lions and tigers high. They come with ambitions. Grover Cleveland Alexander, the great Cub pitcher, is no exception to the rule. His ambition and that ambition is to win about thirty games for the Cubs, help them into similar world's contention even before that great goal came the lamplike to get back to his St. Paul, Minn. home and see his mother first of all. Grover was a much beseought young man as he stepped down the dug plank on 3000 12th St. again. Wearing the uniform of a sergeant of the 342nd regiment of the Sixtieth-ninth division, he looked better than ever and his smile was throes after having participated in the greatest of all world's series and on this moment winning team. Grover was unwilling to get started for Nebraska. "My last of nearly 30 years old you know," he said, "The thought of seeing the home folks in what makes me happy. By object now I will also try 30 games for the Cubs and put them into the next world's series. I don't think my absence from the game has hurt my pitching arm, for I have had a little light-work abroad. The only practice we had was after the training in which we played a few games near Trier, Germany. My contract was sent to my wife and I expect to sign it at once and after a short vacation at home I will join the Cubs.

and went in third base on an error and came home as the result of another miscue. "Boise's lone tally came after Neal had batted and those had taken first on a pass. An error by Neuman's hit got to second, while Neuman's failure to handle Kringle's throw on Williams' grounder let Abe Blosse land in. Williams was caught in an attempted steal to third by a nifty throw from Hybarger to Parsons to Putterler.

LEVIATHAN BARELY MISSES BIG MINE

The Ship, With 12,000 Troops Aboard, Has Narrow Escape Off Grand Banks.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The giant ship Leviathan, with 12,000 military passengers, the last of the six transports to arrive here today bringing 29,212 men, missed a mine only by 30 feet, while off the Grand Banks of New Foundland Tuesday morning, her officers reported when she steamed tonight.

Six transports carrying 14,204 members of the 42nd (Hathlow) division, and 4283 members of the 74th (Library) division (Navy Troops). This is one of the largest single day's troop arrivals in this port.

Major General George W. Wood returned on the Leviathan in command of the troops of the 42nd division.

There were 1140 officers and 1441 men of the 140th field artillery; 68 officers and 1782 men of the 150th field artillery; 135 officers and 151 men of the division headquarters staff; four officers and 23 men of the 84th infantry brigade headquarters, commanded by Brigadier General Douglas MacArthur; 85 officers and 2942 men of the 16th infantry; six officers and 193 men of the division of military police companies; four officers and 118 men of the division headquarters troops; 20 officers and 2323 men of the 16th infantry; 36 officers and 463 men of the 117th sanitary train; loss ambulance companies 165, 166 and 167; and two officers and 29 men from scattered units in the same outfit.

In killed, wounded and missing the Hathlow division lost 439 officers and 18,485 men, the greatest casualty list following the Aisne-Marne offensive July 24 to August 6 last year, which cost 14 officers and 1463 men.

Recognizing the anxiety of the troops to get home, officers in charge of the coaling of the ship at Bristol declared that its departure could be hastened 24 hours with some volitional help on the part of the returning troops. More than one-half of the men on board volunteered. A Victory loan campaign on board resulted in subscriptions of more than $25,000.

Colonel Matthew A. Thiboy of New Mexico, Iowa, also visiting the friendly ship, came with him, returned in command of the 16th sanitary train of the division. This was composed of ambulance companies from New Jersey, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and Michigan, commanded by Major John D. Hogg of Detroit.

Major Miller is visiting. Major Miller of Chesterford, accompanied by Mrs. Miller, visited with friends in Twin Falls yesterday. Mr. Miller just recently returned from Chicago. He was a member of the last session of the legislature.

FOOD SHORTAGE IS REACHING CIVILIANS

Americans in Occupied German Territory Are in Serious Straits—Congressmen Complain.

By the Associated Press.

COBLENZ, Thursday, April 24.—A number of American civilians in various parts of occupied Germany are in serious straits because of the food situation, according to reports reaching American army headquarters here and efforts are being made to reach them with supplies as soon as possible.

Among those who have requested the relief of the American army is a number of members of congress who have been in Coblenz recently. It is proposed to send the food required by these most suffering Americans by doing this for some of her nations and Holland this week, began sending various kinds of provisions to Dutch subjects in the unoccupied districts of Germany.

An inter-allied food commission of 25 members will begin a three days' session tomorrow in Coblenz. The principal question to be decided will be that concerning the rationing of the civilians in occupied Germany. In the American area of occupation there are approximately 350,000 Germans, in the British area 2,000,000, in the French 2,000,000, and in the Belgian 1,500,000.

ALL FOR THE ROUND UP

Out-of-Town People To Be Here July 4.

Charles Adams and D. C. Graybill, who are in charge of the arrangements for the Elks' Round-up and soldiers' welcome on July 4, 5, and 6, were in River, Idaho, Friday and held during the past two days negotiations with the out-of-town people. Both men declare that the out-of-town people have signified their intention to be here in force and that all of these people will be here on that day in order to celebrate with Twin Falls.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, hot breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated or nervous, sallow, and can't get feeling just right, begin with hot bathing. Drink, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. To insure the best results, immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, wash and scrub before putting on your clean, white, linen.

To feel the young folks feel, if you feel before your blood, nerves and muscles become loaded with hot impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter-ounce limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless except for a slight bitterness, which is not unpleasant. Just as soap and water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water with limestone phosphate act on the stomach, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headache or have any stomach disorder should begin this habit before breakfast. They are assured they will become regulars on the subject shortly.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, April 25.—Reports of bubonic plague at Buenos Aires brought about a sharp bulge in the corn market today, although reports of this news the tendency of values was downward. The initial weakness seemed to be due to talk of possible imports of wheat from Canada. Likelihood, however, that shipping from Buenos Aires would be seriously interfered with became quickly the dominating factor. Opening prices, which ranged from 3/4 to 3/8¢ lower, with July $1.02 to 1.02 1/2 and September $1.58 to 1.58, were followed by double options—wholesaler—July and September were above yesterday's finish.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

But Less Mont If You Feel Back-ache or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels—removing all the acids, waste and poison, also you feel a dull-misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The uric is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels get irritated, obliging you to get up at two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uricous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will not act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water, drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease.

EXPORT TRADE MUST EXPAND SAYS HURLEY

American Merchant Marine Will Provide Bottoms for Shipping.

COUNTRY NOW AWAKE TO ITS OPPORTUNITY

Urges Manufacturers to Create New Markets and Develop Increased Demands.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Edward W. Hurley, chairman of the United States shipping board in addressing the sixth national foreign trade convention tonight declared that with an American merchant marine established business men of this country had no reason to fear the competition of Great Britain or any other country in extending their export trade. He said that the government already had made adequate plans for the necessary ships, which were the controlling factor in the development of foreign trade.

Trade Means Prosperity.

A large export trade, he said, meant prosperity at home. Wise legislation and close cooperation between the government and business men, he said, were necessary in the development of foreign business.

Mr. Hurley spoke at a banquet given by the convention which was attended by 1500 representatives of large business interests.

"An American merchant marine is now an accomplished fact," said Mr. Hurley.

"Our export trade has grown enormously, but we cannot feel that it has yet reached its full measure. The whole country has been awakened to the importance of foreign trade and the part it plays in American prosperity."

Ships Develop Business.

Ships were the "controlling factor" in the development of foreign trade. Before the war only 37 per cent of our total exports was carried in American bottoms. It is our hope, if our program is completed, to have sufficient ships to carry 60 per cent of our total commerce in American bottoms.

"We hear a great deal about what is going to happen to American business when Great Britain and the other nations, supposed to have certain advantages over us, get into full swing. After three months studying the situation in Europe I have not observed any outstanding advantage which they have over us either from a production point of view or a labor point of view or from the character of products manufactured."

England Fears America.

"Over in England you will hear the English critics telling their government that Great Britain will never be able to compete with the United States. We need not worry much about flank movements from our foreign competitors."

"We have developed enormous purchasing power at home and consequently, yet fairly, with each other and there is no reason why we cannot do the same in the markets of the world. Business should not get into the habit of relying upon the government to solve difficulties which can be overcome by ordinary business skill and honest methods. The best way to get new markets is not to interfere with competitors, but to create new markets and encourage increased demands."

"Every market in the world opens up to the American business man who is able to reduce their cost of production."

Victory Ship Moves.

About 150 miles below the Mexican border, somewhere along the coast of southern California, the navy's Victory ship, the U. S. S. Crane, was reported headed for Panama and the home port of New York. From the victory ship today came the following:

to settle the questions with such fairness and such wisdom as will tend to perpetuate the peace which every one desires.

It is up to the country to speed the "ship peace" policy. Every officer and man here is at the post of duty, ready to bring her into Victory harbor ahead of time. If the nation will make the necessary contributions to the Victory loan.

"We are at the orders of the country. Our engines move in accordance with the efforts of the folks at home. We are waiting for the wireless sparks which will order us to go full speed ahead."

Rear Admiral Coughlin announced tonight that the total for the navy itself had increased to more than four million dollars.

Lillian May Kenner, plaintiff, vs. Perry L. Kenner, defendant.

The State of Idaho sends greetings to Perry L. Kenner, the above named defendant.

You are hereby notified that a complaint has been filed against you in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the county of Twin Falls, by the above named plaintiff, and you are hereby directed to answer and answer the said complaint within twenty days of the service of this summons if served within said Judicial District, and within forty days, if served elsewhere; and you are further notified that unless you so appear and answer said complaint within the time herein specified, the plaintiff will take judgment against you as prayed in said complaint.

The said action is brought for the purpose of obtaining a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant, and that plaintiff be awarded the custody of a minor child, and restoring plaintiff to her maiden name—upon the ground that defendant has willfully neglected to provide for plaintiff the common necessities of life, defendant having the ability so to do, as more fully appears from the verified complaint of the plaintiff on file herein.

Advertising

from the U. S. Department of Labor

If you are not advertising, then advertise, because it saves money for you and it reduces the price to the consumer.

Advertising prevents profiteering. It uses honest profits and makes them permanent.

The message of the U. S. Department of Labor to merchants and manufacturers and to all progressive American business men is to advertise.

Tell the public about your goods. The consumer has plenty of money. He is willing to spend it on American-made products. The easiest, quickest and most economical way in which this can be accomplished is by advertising.
