PRICE FIVE CENTS

BOND DRIVE PRESSING ON TOWARD GOAL

Percentage as Compared With That of Last Campaign Is Good

BROKERS SEEK TO DECEIVE INVESTORS

Claims of License Rights Are Denied From Official Sources—Are Investigating

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The national Victory Liberty loan subscription tonight stood at $705,633, 100, the officially recognized result of five days of campaigning. Little of today's figures found its way into the figures as given out by the treasury.

At the close of the first week of the fourth Liberty loan campaign the time corresponding to tonight in the Victory loan drive, subscriptions of $565,112,000 had been rolled up—$150,000,000 more than subscribed this week. Since the fourth loan was larger than the current issue, the percentage at the end of its first week was 14.25, whereas 15.65 per cent of the Victory issue has been subscribed.

St. Louis District stands first in the percentage column—with 30 per cent of its quota already subscribed and covered with initial installment payments. The Chicago district ranks second and Boston third. In volume of sales, New York has $118,000,000, the largest sum, while Chicago has $115,332,000.

It developed today that several government agencies, including the department of justice, the federal trade commission and the treasury have taken steps to investigation of reports that Liberty loan "brokers" are doing a thriving business in many localities by buying up bonds of past issues at very low prices. Those bond brokers, it has been reported, urge persons to sell bonds—already bought and to subscribe for the new issue of Liberty notes.

Investigating Brokers.
In some cases, amateur brokers have paid as little as $70 and $80 for $100 Liberty bonds, although the market prices for all past issues are above $90. The investigation has been undertaken to ascertain whether buyers of these bonds had misrepresented the market value in an effort to lower the buying price. Newspapers were urged again to publish in prominent position the market quotations for bonds of past issues, as telegraphed to them daily, to prevent small bond owners from being misled of their savings.

Other reports to the treasury are to the effect that bond buyers in large cities advertise that they have been licensed by the government to buy Liberty bonds. Officials explained that no buyers have been licensed by the government to buy bonds, and that no formal restrictions are imposed by the treasury. In several cities, men have established what they call "Liberty bond exchanges" offering to take Liberty bonds in trade for jewelry or other merchandise.

Shows Big Gain.
CHICAGO, April 26.—Some official figures for the seventh federal reserve district tonight showed against Victory loan subscriptions of $18,000,000, a gain of approximately $12,000,000, came from Iowa and unofficial reports came from some of the other districts were "measured." Chicago had an official gain of $11,000,000 or only $2,000,000 above last night's estimate, and the city was $3,000,000 behind its schedule.

CALL OFF STRIKE.
By the Associated Press.
JACKSON, Mich., April 26.—Michigan railway trainmen have called off the strike tonight, which was ordered for Sunday, following a conference with Governor Steiger, and company officials at Lansing where a compromise agreement was reached.

MANY KILLED WHEN TWO LATIN-AMERICAN SHIPS COME TOGETHER

VALPARAISO, Chile, April 26.—Heavy loss of life is reported in the sinking of the steamers Magdalena (Chilean) and Alfonso. The Magdalena went down in a storm five miles off coast. The Alfonso was sunk in a collision with the steamer Fortuna.

MARKET UNHURT BY PRICE GUARANTEES

Market Hopes to Maintain Equilibrium With No Loss to Government Under Assured Price

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 26.—Officers of the food administration grain corporation announced tonight their conviction, at the close of a three-day conference to determine policies for the coming year, that the government price guarantee to wheat growers could be made effective without endangering the market or causing loss to the national treasury.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the corporation and federal wheat director, declared that crop fluctuations were that wheat would be traded in the government fair price basis. It will be possible, he added, that the market generally might be above the fixed price schedule. In which event the wheat director would not be an influence in trading as congress adopted no maximum price policy.

In case a crop exceeding the demand required government purchases and re sales in order to make good the difference between the market price and the farmers' guarantee. Mr. Barnes said the conference recognized the necessity of measures to insure reflection of the resale rate to consumers of bread.

However, with the spring wheat season two crops late, indicating a decreased acreage affecting the forecast record breaking winter crop, the director asserted, there was a reasonable chance that the country would produce "their very large" exportable surplus of wheat plentifully expected.

With few exceptions, Mr. Barnes stated, the grain marketing commission would have the same personnel as during the past year. Robert A. Iwlyn, second vice president in San Francisco, had resigned to go into private business, he said, and would be succeeded by W. A. Starr, his volunteer assistant. R. D. Jackson of Chicago had intended to retire, but consigned to remain when the president cabled from Paris a request for continuance of the 1919 organization. Edward M. Freese of St. Louis, in charge of the London office, and Charles T. Neal of Omaha, director of the corporation's activities at Hamburg, Germany, also would remain in the service, Mr. Barnes said.

TO MAKE RECORD OF ENLISTED MEN

Utah Will Prepare History of Each Man Who Saw Service in War
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, April 26.—The complete war record of every Utah man who served in the army, navy or marine corps from the time of enlistment or induction by draft is being compiled by the record of Utah's war history of the state. The department of war history is an outgrowth of the state council of defense, which some considerable time before the end of hostilities, developed the idea of preserving the record of Utah's participation in the war.
Local committees have secured or are securing, by a house to house canvass, the name and address of all Utah men in service. This was necessary because many men had enlisted while out of the state and neither draft nor recruiting records within the state indicated their enlistment. When this information reached the department a questionnaire was mailed to the nearest military headquarters for information to be used as a basis for a biographical sketch. It is planned that the state records shall contain a brief biography of every Utah man in military service during the war and once with Governor Steiger, and company officials at Lansing where a compromise agreement was reached.

VOL PLANES 2,000 FEET ALL AFLAME

With Clothing and Machine Afire, Aviator Makes a Landing

JUMPS FROM SEAT, ROLLS ON GROUND

Descends Fast Enough to Escape Consumption by Fire; Slow to Prevent Crash

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 26.—With his clothing ablaze and flames rapidly mounting toward his face, Paul L. Ferron, 31, aviator in the government mail service, volplaned 2000 feet to earth at Belmont park today. Although he was badly burned about the body, his chances for recovery are said to be excellent.

Fire-Follows Explosion.
Ferron took up one of the big planes—a rebuilt de Havilland Four—for a tryout over Belmont field. Something went wrong with his engine and following an explosion it caught fire.

He was confronted with the problem of guiding his plane to earth slowly to avoid being dished to pieces, and fast enough to save himself from burning to death in the air.

Rolls on Ground.
Ferron made a safe landing. The instant his plane touched the ground he jumped out and rolled on the ground to extinguish the flames. Mechanics rushed to the plane and extinguished the fire before it could reach the gasoline tank, but not until the machine had been virtually wrecked.

CRUSHED BY PROPELLER BLADE.
MILWAUKEE, April 26.—Mechanic rank Private of Uniontown, Ala., enlisted man attached to the Victory loan flying circus, was fatally injured here today when his head was crushed by a propeller blade on a machine he was attempting to start.

Summary of The International Situation

By the Associated Press.
Venezuela Orlando reached Rome Saturday to take up with the Italian government and parliament the situation brought about by the statement of President Wilson that Italy shall not have France.

The Italian premier received an enthusiastic ovation and the phrase, "Italy, France, Dalmatia" was shouted, pronounced by the chief minister, Sonnino and former Premier Salandra of the Italian delegation have left Paris for Rome to join the premier.

There has been little change in the situation in Paris and attention here is focused on Rome and what may occur there. The British and American delegations are hopeful of a satisfactory adjustment, but fear that the enthusiasm of the Italians may compel the Italian delegation to make demands.

President Wilson conferred with all the members of the American delegation this afternoon. In the forenoon he met Premier Lloyd George and Premier Etienne-Raymond to discuss financial clauses of the peace treaty.

A statement issued in Paris, saying that the report was inaccurate that the British and French premiers had approved President Wilson's statement on the Adriatic question, which they the premiers had sent a joint statement of their view to Premier Orlando. It was said the Franco-British statement was for Signor Orlando to decide.

Issuance of a statement bringing out that the British and French premiers agreed with the president on France and other phases of the Italian problem is being discussed.

Meanwhile, however, the various commissions of the peace conference are preparing for the plenary session Monday to consider the league of nations covenant and the presentation of the peace treaty to the German delegates about the middle of the week, probably Wednesday.

PARIS GROWS TENSE WHILE ROME HOWLS

TO ALLOCATE SHIPS AMONG THE ALLIES

Work on Final Details of the Peace Treaty Hindered by Anxiety

WILSON'S NOTE BEARS INITIALS OF PREMIERS

Evidence Produced to Show Approval of President's Steps by Other Leaders

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 26.—The allied maritime transport council at Paris has determined to allocate enemy shipping among the associated governments, "according to the ability of the respective governments to bring the vessels into speedy use, and in the case of passenger tonnage, according to respective needs."

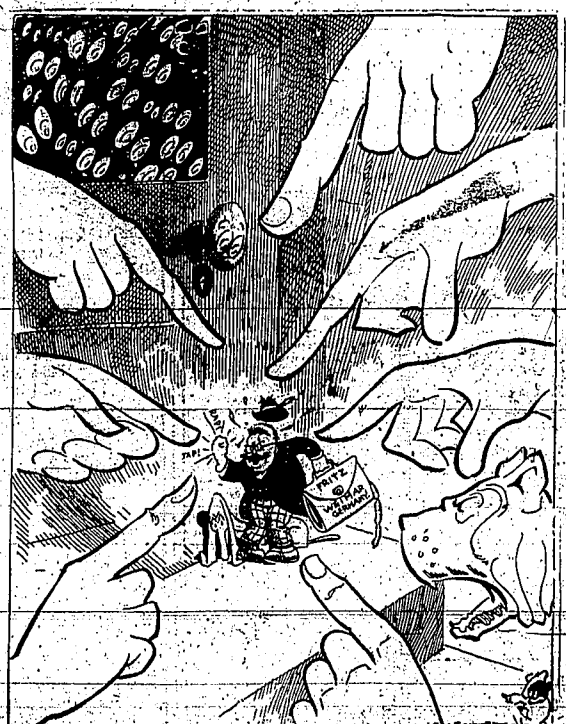

This announcement was made today by Raymond B. Stevens, vice chairman of the shipping board, after receiving a cablegram from the American delegation to the council. "Notice is hereby given," said the cablegram, "that arrangements have been made between the allied governments for the use and management of enemy tonnage (acquired and to be acquired since the conclusion of hostilities), as to management the position is that the allocation of vessels for management as between the associated governments has been determined according to the ability of the respective governments to bring the vessels into speedy use, and in the case of passenger tonnage, according to relative needs."

The council will fly the flag of the allied maritime transport council as well as the national flag of the country undertaking the management. These arrangements in no way prejudice the ultimate disposition of the vessels by the terms of peace and it has been agreed that in the discussion of the ultimate disposition of enemy shipping which is calculated to render it more difficult to apply the principle that the interim allocation of vessels for management or service, and use shall in no way prejudice its ultimate disposition.

It has been further agreed that the associated governments will hold a full and open conference at the final disposition of the ships action such as the transfer of share in enemy shipping which is calculated to render it more difficult to apply the principle that the interim allocation of vessels for management or service, and use shall in no way prejudice its ultimate disposition.

German Peace Delegate Arriving at Versailles

Work on Final Details of the Peace Treaty Hindered by Anxiety

Evidence Produced to Show Approval of President's Steps by Other Leaders

WILSON'S NOTE BEARS INITIALS OF PREMIERS

Evidence Produced to Show Approval of President's Steps by Other Leaders

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, April 26.—This has been one of the most anxious days of the peace conference, with all eyes turned toward Rome.

While work proceeded on the final details of the treaty before the meeting with the German delegates at Versailles the absorbing topic everywhere was the Italian issue and the effect it had in store for the conference. Brief information reaching official quarters showed the situation at Rome to be tense, with anti-American sentiment running high.

The departure of Baron Sonnino and Signor Salandra for Rome took the last of Italy's plenipotentiaries from the scene of the negotiations, leaving only "subordinates, without power of action."

President Wilson joined the American delegation at the Hotel de Crillon at 2 o'clock for a conference and then returned to the "White House" for a renewal of the council with Premier Clemenceau and Lloyd George.

President Wilson joined the American delegation at the Hotel de Crillon at 2 o'clock for a conference and then returned to the "White House" for a renewal of the council with Premier Clemenceau and Lloyd George.

Behind this approval of the British and French premier's another written document exists which was prepared immediately after the issuance of the president's statement with a view of expressing approval and support from the highest British official quarters. This is not from Lloyd George, but from one able to speak with authority. Italy's Name Included.

It is significant that the name of Italy has been included in the first draft of the peace treaty, indicating that the allies hold no change in Italy's status as signatory of the treaty.

Italy is similarly included in appendices to the revised covenant of the league of nations giving the names of the countries forming the league. The second question is: In this treaty will Italy be given the status of a plenipotentiary? Italy continues to be given full status as one of the entente allies.

ORLANDO IS OFFERED.
ROME, April 26.—Premier Orlando has been invited to the peace conference by the British and French delegates. It is not time for fine language and a calm, serene conclusion.

"The second question is: In this treaty will Italy be given the status of a plenipotentiary? Italy continues to be given full status as one of the entente allies.

LADIES' SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Back to Color and Gloss With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

When given sage brewed into a tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, a though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-made preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

White gray, faded hair is not awful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You must change its essence or soft-brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrant and you appear years younger. Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

WOULD BUILD GIANT RUSSIA AS A REPUBLIC

Admiral Kolchak Outlines Plans of the Omsk Government.

WOULD FREE COUNTRY FROM BOLSHEVIK LASH

Seeks to Establish Rule of Order by Popular Franchise and Restore Industry.

OMSK, Siberia, April 1, via Sao Francisco April 25.—By Courier to the Associated Press.—Admiral Kolchak, supreme ruler of the all-Russian government, sends a message to America, urging support of the Omsk regime. In a statement to the Associated Press giving in detail his ideas for Russia and the Russians. He declared in his statement that his government's aims were to free the people from the Bolshevik lash, "save the last remains of the national wealth," and reconstruct the country politically, economically and morally. He advocated "free participation of the people themselves in the organs of the general, state and local government."

Education, he urged, would be necessary to restore the morals of the "population which has lost under the influence of Bolshevism and anarchy its comprehension of the difference between good and bad."

Capital is needed.

Increased productivity, settlement of the agrarian question in favor of the "working peasantry," attraction to Russia of much capital and restoration of justice he cited, as among the prime needs of the country.

"The aim which the government sets for itself," Admiral Kolchak said, "should be the general aim of the loyal citizens of Russia—to free the country from the Bolshevik lash, to save the last remains of the national wealth, and to proceed then under conditions of complete order wisely to reconstruct the people's life upon the basis of free participation of the people themselves in the organs of the general state and local government. Supported by Greece.

"At the present time the government is operating on the basis of support of broad social groups and this authority is consistently growing stronger." It is sufficient to mention the resolution of the block of political parties and social organizations uniting all factions, "beginning from workers, organizations and socialists of the right wing and ending with the Cossack and the commercial-industrial groups, which have declared their full support of this government.

"As my main task I set the establishment of an army with fighting capacity, victory over the Bolsheviks and the establishment of law and order.

"I very strongly hold the idea that states in our days can exist and develop themselves upon a firm democratic foundation.

"Aims of Government.

"For the accomplishment of such a broad task, in all governmental offices there is proceeding energetic efforts unified by the one general binding idea of a national and governmental rehabilitation of a single great Russia. This work and the principles upon which it is based can be reduced to these fundamental propositions:

"The impossibility of a return to the old regime.

"CALL the people of Russia without distinction of religion or nationality should have equal rights.

"To all nationalities according to their desire should be granted cultural autonomy.

"The basic moral condition for the rehabilitation of Russia this government considers to be the moral and cultural development of the population which has lost under the influence of Bolshevism and anarchy its comprehension of the difference between good and bad, between what is permissible and what is not permissible.

Capital Seek Foreign Help.

"But it is clear that for the establishment of the economic life of the country, worn out by war and brought despite inextinguishable natural resources to a state of prostration, it is necessary to have immense capital which Russia at the present time does not possess. The process of amassing national capital would take a very long time and necessarily would "impair in its course the rehabilitation of the country. That is why it is necessary to attract foreign capital into the country. The establishment for this purpose of favorable conditions guaranteeing the integrity and profitableness of capital invested in the enterprises of reviving Russian industry will be one of the immediate tasks of the government.

"Finally in the sphere of financial policy measures for just and equal distribution of taxes, regulation of the exchange of currency disturbed by the war and complete deorganization of Bolshevism and for the establishment of national credit, will have first place."

Hidden Wealth Brings Man Under Suspicion

Food Brocade is Blamed for Million German Deaths

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, April 25.—The Imperial health ministry has issued a memorandum on the "causes of the" "dieck-und." It says that from 1915 to 1918

As a result of under-nourishment 742,000 people died in Germany and 160,000 others died from influenza owing to the loss of their power of resistance.

The fall in the number of births during the war exceeded four million for the entire and more than 2,000,000 for Prussia. The memorandum calculates at 55,300,000 marks the damage inflicted by the hunger blockade, in which it includes such curious items as unborn people and the loss of wages due to reduced working capacity.

PORTLAND, April 25.—An Porter shot and killed early today John J. Goddell, night clerk in a hotel and then shot himself five times. He was expected to "be a fatal. The cause of the trouble, according to the police, was Foster's jealousy of Goddell over a woman.

Patrolman George Hainey, who entered the hotel, was forced by Foster to put up his hands and was ordered by Goddell at Foster's request. Then Foster shot Goddell killing him. Foster later according to Hainey, marched the patrolman to the street, handed his revolver to Edward L. Gerwig, a passerby and asked Gerwig to shoot him. When Gerwig refused Foster shot himself. The police believe Foster was temporarily insane.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean almost every morning to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furrowed tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanliness. Your liver is the most important and the most abused and neglected organ of the body. You know its functions or know how to release the dammed-up body waste, bilious toxins. Most folks resort to violent cathartics, which is a dangerous, irritating chemical which can be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate. For the health and you can get anything elsewhere, and you can get it almost anywhere, and any pharmacist will sell you a quart of phosphate, which is sufficient for a demonstration of hot water and limestone phosphate cures, stimulates and restores the liver. Keeping you feeling fine and healthy.

"IF YOU KNOW OF A BETTER OLD, GO TO IT"

For our part, we believe in sticking to our own home town—and, as we stick to it, we intend to BOOST IT.

We believe Twin Falls is a GOOD PLACE TO LIVE!

We believe it is the BEST place to live.

And we believe that under the glorious folds of the banner of Americanism—a unit for the defense of the institution of our fathers, instilled with the enthusiasm of real democracy, our city will keep on growing each year a STILL BETTER PLACE TO LIVE—a still happier and more fortunate community.

Never in its history has Twin Falls had the golden chance now offered it for intensified prosperity and for reaching achievement of its civic ideals.

BECAUSE—never in its history have the citizens been joined together in such firm and public-spirited bonds of patriotism as those created by the past two years of war.

NOW—we believe it is the time to begin harvesting the fruits of this war-exaggerated spirit of MUTUAL MUNICIPAL ALLEGIANCE.

The great Liberty loan campaign, the war chest, and allied war rallies, all our big celebrations and patriotic rallies, this whole era of intensive public speaking, community organization, mutual co-operation, and common self-sacrifice for a common cause—these things have resulted in an unprecedented outpouring of high-minded civic enthusiasm.

They have vitalized and dramatized for us our city's heart and soul.

Shall all this enthusiasm be mere froth, to be blown away in the first light zephyr of peacetime?

Shall it not rather be crystallized AT ONCE AND FOREVER, into an intense and universal civic loyalty—a deepening faith in our city which will soon prove to be Twin Falls' richest asset?

The answer rests in the daily thoughts and deeds of each and all of us.

Let us start right now—while the power of our war-activated community spirit is still strong within us—to boost our home town and our home town's institutions; to come to join for our own local industries; to put our own merchants and our own banks; to own by our schools, churches and charities.

The greater wealth, the greater happiness, the greater well-being of each of us individually, and of all collectively, is the aim.

A city united, self-reliant, secure in its growing prosperity, will be the new result.

Let this, then, be our creed—

To know our city, to believe in it, to stick to it, to work for it, to be loyal to it today, and to rally to every policy looking toward its betterment tomorrow.

For we believe that only as Mr. You-and-I recognize our essential solidarity, our common allegiance not only to the INSTITUTIONS OF THIS COMMUNITY in which we have chosen to live—only thus can we realize to the full in our own lives and homes the blessings of peace and prosperity, the ideals of social service and democracy for which the war was fought and won.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

The Victory loan started off with a rush suggesting the appropriateness of its name. The early reports are full of the spirit of victory. There is every indication that the public not only considers the loan a veritable celebration of the military victory but is determined to make the loan campaign itself a victory ranking with that which we won in France.

City after city filled up and passed its funds in the first day or two of the drive. Other cities are now rolling up subscriptions at a rate insuring prompt fulfillment of their part. It is no longer, if it ever was, a question whether the loan will be taken. It is a question whether communities and individuals will get as much out of the loan as they want, because the supply of bonds of this issue is limited to a total of $4,500,000,000.

The way the public has risen to this opportunity speaks well for American patriotism, American thrift and American business foresight. The loan might succeed on the score of patriotic duty alone. It might succeed because American public has the money in bank, pocket and pay envelope to buy the securities. It might succeed because the public realizes that success of the loan is necessary to being on the period of prosperity the country is waiting for.

With all three of these powerful reasons co-operating, the success is bound to be overwhelming.

There should be, however, no slacking of effort merely because of assurance that the loan is being put over satisfactorily. Let the work continue and the subscriptions roll up. If there is a great over-subscription, all the better! That will make the campaign the more satisfactory as a celebration of victory, and the spirit of confidence it will bring is just what is wanted to set American business on its feet.

GOOD SENSE FROM KANSAS.

The governor of Kansas, in a recent letter written in reply to an appeal for his support of a certain policy, expressed sentiments commingling common sense and patriotism in a manner worth repeating. Parts of his letter is as follows:

"I am unable to agree to assist any body of men to trade upon the misery of this world for their own enrichment. This is a peculiar hour because of the waste of energy engaged in destruction and the devastation of the war, half the population of the world has suffered from under-production. Much of the suffering still endures.

"That any body or group of men should, so suddenly after the conclusion of the war and while the world is still grappling with the tremendous shortage of staple commodities, begin a deliberate organization to retard production, is unpeppable. It is one of those distressing incidents which show how easily men in their greed forget the lessons which should have been learned along this pathway of suffering and common sacrifice."

The occasion for the message is of less importance than the message itself. The hour is indeed peculiar. Nothing but the strictest observance of the highest principles of patriotism and humanity can restore the world to normal. Governor Allen's ringing words merit a wider hearing than has his intention when he wrote them.

LOWER SPEED A GOOD THING.

The enforced quiet of these months following the war is a good thing for America. Even the mild slump in business and incomes has its beneficial side, since a little experience of times below normal will make normal times assume their real value in public mind.

From the time the war began until the last munition and war supply contract was cancelled the whole country worked at a tension far above normal. While it is true that much was learned about shortening processes while increasing output, the pressure was enormous. Now that the pressure has subsided, it will do us all good to lower our speed limit.

Emergency methods, whether it be in business or education, are excellent for emergencies, but continued after the emergency has passed they tend to lower the standard of the output and of the worker. The result is weakness.

We may chafe at a period of inactivity, but it is exactly what we need to enable us to get the blood out of our eyes and the heat out of our veins and to see business and education, wages and prices, all in their true relation to a sound, normal standard of living.

LONDON FOGS ARE DOOMED.

Some scientist is always taking the romance out of the world. Now it is the engineers who propose to venture the fog which for centuries have made old London famous.

These fog experts say, are large Englishman does on his dear, (anular incoherence) so "expanding" the fog in the next resort.

To do this it is proposed to install a system of sucking pipes and conduits which will draw in the smoky air and rob it of its fumes and dirt before expelling it again; it is done by the big factory smoke consummation.

Artists may deplore the lifting of London's grey cloak. But surrounding cities will rejoice and there is many a phase of London life which will benefit distinctly by being laid bare to the light of day.

AMERICAN IMMORTALS WIN HONORS IN FRANCE

ALAN LOUIS EGGERS, Sergeant, 41st Co., 174th Infantry, Distinguished Service Cross for gallant and heroic bravery displayed in aiding comrades in distress near Catolot, France, September 29, 1918, won the Distinguished Service Cross for Sergeant Eggers. Becoming separated from their platoon by a smoke haze, Sergeant Eggers, Sergeant John G. Latham and Corporal Thomas E. O'Shea took cover in a shell hole well within the enemy's lines. Upon hearing a call for help from an American tank, which had become disabled, thirty yards from them, the three soldiers left their shelter and started toward the tank, under heavy fire from German machine guns and trench mortars. In crossing the swamp area, Corporal O'Shea was mortally wounded but his companions undeterred, proceeded to the tank, rescued a wounded officer, and assisted two soldiers to cover in the sap of a nearby trench. Sergeant Eggers and Sergeant Latham then returned to the tank in the face of the enemy's fire. Sergeant O'Shea's gun and took it back to where the wounded men were, keeping off the enemy all day by the effective use of the gun, and later bringing it, with the wounded men, back to our lines under cover of darkness. Sergeant Eggers' home is 112 Summit avenue, Summit, New Jersey.

HAY W. REEVES, Corporal, 90th Company, Sixth Marines. Corporal Reeves, whose home is with his mother, Lee W. Reeves, 3789 Chamoun avenue, East San Diego, Cal., was decorated for an act of conspicuous intrepidity in action with the enemy near Blanc Mont, France, October 3, 1918. During a bitterly contested hand grenade fight, Corporal Reeves threw a grenade into the midst of five of his comrades. Without hesitation he rushed forward and picked it up, hurling it into the trench. The grenade exploded a few yards from his hand, wounding him severely, but his act averted injury to all of his comrades.

J. HUNTER WICKERSHAM, Second Lieutenant, 353rd Infantry. For conspicuous gallantry, resulting in his death, near Limy, France, September 12, 1918. Lieutenant Wickersham was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Advancing with his platoon during the St. Mihiel offensive, Lieutenant Wickersham was severely wounded in four places by the bursting of a high explosive shell. Before receiving any aid for himself, he ordered the wounds of his comrades, who were wounded at the same time. He then ordered and accompanied the further advance of his platoon, although weakened by the loss of blood. His right hand and arm being disabled by a wound, he continued to fire his revolver with his left hand until, exhausted by the loss of blood, he fell and died from his wounds before aid could be administered. Lieutenant Wickersham's home address is 414 Colfax Boulevard, Denver, Colo.

RAY C. DICKOP, First Lieutenant, 127th Infantry. Lieutenant Dickop (deceased), was decorated for extraordinary bravery in action in the attack on Fismes, France, in August of 1918. On reaching Cheselles farm, he was shot in the head, body and legs. Although fatally wounded when orders came for another assault, he saved the command "charge" to his company and let the assault until he fell dead. Miss Lora Schiller, his aunt, lives at West Bend, Wis.

GEORGE G. MCURTURY, Captain, 808th Infantry. Captain McMurtury received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action at Charlevaux in the Forest d'Argonne, France, October 2 to 3, 1918. Captain McMurtury commanded a battalion which was cut off and surrounded by the enemy. He was pinned to the "knee" by shrapnel on October 4, and suffering great pain, continued throughout the entire period to encourage his officers and men with a resolute optimism that continued largely toward preventing panic and disorder among the troops who were without food, cut off from communication with our lines October 4, during a heavy barrage, he personally directed and supervised moving of the wounded to shelter. October 5, he was wounded in the shoulder by a German grenade, but continued personally to organize and direct the development of the attack was fought. He continued to direct and command his troops, refusing relief and personally led his men out of the position after assistance arrived, before permitting himself to be taken to the hospital, October 8. During the period the successful defense of the position was due largely to his efforts. His wife is at 22 East 70th street, New York.

HERMAN DAVIS.

Private Company I, 114th Infantry. Private Davis, whose home is with his mother at Big Lake, Ark., was the Distinguished Service Cross for unusual bravery in action at Argonneville farm, France, October 10, 1918. While acting as company runner Private Davis single-handedly attacked a German machine gun nest which was harassing the left flank of the company and preventing its advance. He killed four of the enemy and captured the gun, thus allowing the company to continue forward.

CHARLES D. PRIEST.

Chaplain, 358th Infantry. Chaplain Priest (deceased) was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action—First—Chaplain Priest, September 29, 1918. Chaplain Priest disregarded personal danger by going six hundred yards beyond the front line, and with the aid of a soldier, carrying back a wounded man to a shelter. Captain Priest's home was at 130—North—Lansdale street, Chicago, Ill.

Stories of personal bravery that would be almost unbelievable were they not told in official reports are disclosed by the war department's records of the awards of the Distinguished Service Cross to members of the American Expeditionary forces.

Following are a few of the official reports that have been selected by General Pershing's own staff as presenting most striking instances of gallantry on the part of American soldiers under fire.

MILFIRE STOCK DRIVE TO CROSS STATE OF IDAHO

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 26. —A stock driveway of approximately a mile in width and running irregularly from the Arizona border through Utah and Idaho, has just been opened by the field division of the general federal land office. It would be the longest stock driveway in the world.

The driveway is said to be the first definite application of the stock driveway law passed by congress in December, 1916, and will be used this year for the first time. It is probably that the driveway will be used as a highway for thousands of head of stock annually.

Carnival of Track and Field Sports Develops Stars of the First Magnitude.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—Chicago universities, Cornell and Pennsylvania won the principal relay races honors at the twenty-fifth annual carnival of track and field sports which ended today. The one-mile relay championship of America was captured by the University of Pennsylvania in a heart breaking finish, with Nebraska second, Cornell third and Missouri fourth—in a field of eight starters.

The two-mile national relay title was won by Chicago by eight yards in a nip and tuck race with Harvard in which the other teams did not seriously figure.

Cornell finished in the four-mile relay championship.

The south-Atlantic one-mile relay championship, the University of Pennsylvania first year men capturing the one mile freshman relay event.

The eight starters in the mile national championship were Cornell, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania state, Massachusetts Technology, Pittsburg and Nebraska. Cornell led in the first and second relays with Nebraska and Missouri in short distance behind.

Pennsylvania moved into first place in the third quarters with Cornell close behind. Nebraska led the final relay, with Michigan punning came rapidly to the front and finished a fine race, second only to Pennsylvania.

Iowa state, with Merriam running led at the end of the first mile in the four mile championship and was displaced by Princeton which led at the end of the second and third miles. Furman and Penn State were running. Iowa gradually dropped back with Cornell moved up from third position in the first two miles to second place. McDermott of the Ithaca team, finished Dresser, the distance champion, a good fend and the latter increased it, finished without showing any distress.

Sol Butler, the negro star of Duquesne college, won the honors in the 100 yard event, capturing both the hundred yard dash and the running broad jump. He made a leap of 23 feet, one half inch, in the broad jump and ran the hundred yards in 10 3/4 seconds, with a strong wind against him.

MANY MATTERS FOR COUNCIL TO DECIDE

Meeting Monday Night to be Most Important of Present Organization's Term.

Monday night's meeting of the city council promises to be the most important of any that the present body has held. Protests against the paving program will be heard at this time, while the vote of the last election will be canvassed and many matters of importance will be settled in order to make way for the incoming council a week later.

If there are no protests against the paving program council will set a date for its election, on the bond issue.

Much interest is being shown by bonding houses in the forthcoming election, according to City Clerk Minick. Already a dozen bonding houses have made inquiries as to the size of the bond issue and its terms.

Your Wash Day

If you do your own washing
It means getting up early, with dread in your heart for the long, hard day ahead of you... A day full of the meanest kind... og... drudgery... and back-breaking toil—a hasty lunch—and you finish at 4 or 5 o'clock with tired feet and an aching body.

If you employ a laundress
Think of the uncertainty of whether she is coming or not—scrumping on the wash for fear she will be dissatisfied—meals to get for... an... extra person—waste of soap and abuse of clothes—with only partly clean clothes as a recompense.

If you employ servants
The constant strain of keeping them satisfied—the extra cost if they do washing—and oftimes extra help to assist them—the loss... of... time from other duties.

If you send it out
The unnecessary wear and tear of your clothes coming in contact with germ-laden clothes from some other home—careless handling in an unsanitary wash room—the excessive cost.

Let us bring an EDEN WASHER up to your place and demonstrate it.
