Action Taken In Attempt to Avoid Clash With Forces Being Rushed to That City.

By the Associated Press. ROME, April 28.—Great enthusiasm was aroused at a meeting here today when it was announced that the Italian council of Fiume had handed over all the powers of the state and the municipality to a representative of the Italian government...

Speaking today concerning the controversy over the demands of the Italians Baron Sonnino said: "All Italians must unite in their support of the government which represents a country which is united and which will win."

Former Foreign Minister Tittori also discussed the situation saying: "The negotiations at Paris were interrupted and the Italian parliament has been convoked only because President Wilson expressed before the world doubt that the Italian people do not represent the will of their people."

These two statements seem fairly to give a keynote to the situation at Fiume.

Dealing with the situation today the Messenger says: "Premier Orlando and Baron Sonnino have not definitely withdrawn from the conference but have simply suspended the participation in it."

Society INTERPAGE Fashions

Women of Twin Falls prefer pur, pleasing clothes for utility and not for fashions sake alone.

Western women find that the new light skirt is not the utility skirt in the word that goes forth from the fashion magazines.

"There is no real need in the lives of the healthy western woman for the new light skirt," said the head of the coach and suit department in one of Twin Falls fashionable shops, "although there will be a great number of women who will accept the new degree of fashion for fashion's sake only. The skirt most sold is one not too narrow to be a hindrance nor too wide as to be cumbersome, but one coming from the yard to half to two yards in width.

"This is the utility skirt. The street suits have a decided tendency to be very narrow and sometimes the skirt will creep in.

The woman of the rich season has the unusually narrow skirt nor can the business woman afford to be bound by it, nor is it possible for the athletic girl to hobble around in the same skirt.

"Dinner gowns are extremely scant and the dancing frock is only wide enough to allow freedom of movement.

"It is to be hoped that a sensible American skirt—a medium-length and width will soon enter the field to suit.

Mrs. Vera Ames was hostess at an appropriate little party for a few of her friends last Sunday evening. The evening was spent with music and games. The invited guests were Mrs. Alice Dwight, Mrs. and Mrs. F. W. Williams, Mrs. L. T. Wright, Mrs. and Mrs. Meritt Bailey, Wendell Allen, Gerald Harlow and Carl Painter.

A special meeting of the Primrose Sewing Society will be held at the O. O. F. hall this evening at 7:30.

The Twentieth Century club will hold its next meeting of the club year at the Moose hall this afternoon at 8:30.

Invitations have been issued for a given o'clock dinner to be given Wednesday evening at the Rogerson, by the Bickel, teachers, who have taught all the one year at the Bickel school under other Bickel teachers.

One of the most charming dinner parties was the seven o'clock dinner given by the Misses Doris and Elizabeth Cox last Saturday evening for a few members of the visiting girls' baseball team.

After the dinner the evening was spent in dancing. Covers were laid out in the music list included, Misses Wright and Beatrice Cox, Mrs. Aetna Agard, Arnold Cobbley, Jimmy Noel, David Williams and Mark Wilkins.

The second night in the series of annual Blossom parties given by Mrs. H. B. Bickel closed happily.

Under a canopy of marvelous foliage and bloom of the fruit trees, many with their insurance friends of the Primrose gathered to rejoice in the coming of spring.

The pleasant time between Twin Falls and the ranch was filled with joy all during the day. Sunday opened the series and Wednesday was the close but in that time the cautions of the grand old Bonanza ran with the border of majestic mountains will have made deep in the hearts of the Twin Falls guests, leaving a beautiful and lasting impression.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Yeomanettes are doomed to become but a remembered dream—a dream of fair women.

They are threatened with extinction because the naval appropriations bill of next attack of filibustering in the senate.

The passage of the bill appropriating a few festive millions was highly necessary to renovate chic but worn chin straps, provide nut sundae and otherwise sustain naval dainties till July 1st in the day upon which even the sea, that has a slight affection with the yeomanettes, is expected to wear a sunless aspect.

It is the day when funeral Gobs will drop gobs of sorrow and chunks of grief into the dreary sea.

For it is the day when the present appropriation for yeomen will dribble "definitely out to the last drop."

The weeping and wailing of the many at the loss of the "bulle cougars" will be more loud and heart rending than the groans of the wets of July 1.

The question that is being asked—who are the Yeomanettes going to do without the "dove-tail" "bulle cougars" of congress will allow the yeomen of the skirt wearing grades to be called upon to go to do without the Yeomanettes?

Whether the passage of the naval appropriation bill at the extra session of congress will allow the yeomen of the skirt wearing grades to be called upon to go to do without the Yeomanettes?

It does the navy will quickly avail itself of the privilege because of the very important place the girls have made for themselves in the service.

But one thing the navy has been quite firm about. It will not enlist girls for service afloat. Land duty alone is allowed the sex.

"You see we have no navy boudoirs aboard a battleship," explain naval officials, "so it would be quite impossible to take them cruising."

To offset the discrimination against the sex not one yeomanette has had to undergo court-martial. There were balanced by the question—what is the case which would have resulted if any going to do without the Yeomanettes?

There have been such heinous offenses as the wearing of French flaps when low heels were ordered; of congress will allow the yeomen of the skirt wearing grades to be called upon to go to do without the Yeomanettes?

But after gazing upon the offending yeomanette with chin strap patently quivering, the court can do more than bestow an apology from.

arrangements for the forthcoming grade birds. The nearest show is now held at Boise with a result that the showing of birds from this section is limited. It is believed by those posing the exhibition that more interest can be aroused in the industry if a show can be held here.

"Comrades in Service"

Great Organization to Be Composed of American Veterans of Great War, Is Being Formed in France.

By LLOYD ALLEN.
Special Staff Correspondent.

PARIS.—"Comrades in Service" has been adopted as the official name for the two and a half million strong organization that will take its place in American affairs as the ultimate successor to the G. I. Republic and the United Confederate Veterans.

"Comrades in Service," in brief, will be the name of the soldier's organization that is being formed here in France by the American expatriate forces, the democratic army that put up the great war, the American land that turned the tide at Chateau Tubbry and the Forest of Argonne, the army soldiers of St. Mihiel and Verdun, and thereby gave the Huns their knockout blow.

Throughout the length and breadth of France the first chapters of the new society have been organized by members of the American expatriate force, with assistance of the chaplain-bureau of general headquarters. Four welfare organizations have aided the work, the Young Men's Christian Association, the American Legion, the Knights of Columbus and the Salvation Army. In principle, Comrades in Service is strictly apolitical and nonsectarian. Its program now taking shape is to attract the men, as well as the men enrolled, as well as the attitude that service to the American government or humanity will not end with demobilization, but that each soldier must have the right to live during the war days in America, or wherever he happens to be located, plenty of opportunity to serve his fellow man in the days of peace.

As a name "Comrades in Service" received its first official recognition when President Wilson, here in Paris for the peace conference, attended the first meeting of the organization held in the Palace de Glace early in January. The palace is a big magnificent pavilion specially erected for the benefit of American soldiers on leave, or stationed in Paris. Thousands of Americans in uniform visit the place every night. Entertainments are held here, programs resembling the old-fashioned home town production, featuring American performers, either professional or amateur. Audiences of 5,000 turn out for the boxing exhibitions.

It was Dr. O. D. Foster of the Y. M. C. A. who first suggested the name of the organization. He got the idea one day in America while riding through Gary, Ind., on a train. On one of the stations a squad of soldiers were being demobilized from a box car into an army truck.

In the squad was a negro driver, several white men of athletic American ancestry and a couple of negroes. "Here are comrades in the service of America," Doctor Foster thought. The best part of the phrase stuck in his mind because it fitted perfectly the plan he had been considering for forming a bond between soldiers' organizations.

Every Company to Organize. By the time the last regiments leave France, it is believed that every company will have the nucleus of an organization affiliated with the society. Much organization work has already been accomplished by the soldiers themselves and by the welfare workers who are earnestly pushing the idea.

Overcoming sectional prejudices is one of the main aims of Comrades in Service. Taking up the patriotic work of the Grand Army of the Republic in the northern states and the United Confederate Veterans in the South is another plank in the platform. In America we can expect to add one more, possibly two national days of celebration to our calendar of festive days. One is the day which will probably be known as Armistice Day, and April 6—the anniversary of the declaration of war against Germany. On these days, as well as July 4, Comrades in Service will hold their own observances of the date. They are the men who made good in the business of crisscrossing France, maintaining the men who suffered and won glory at the front. It is on the date for Comrades in Service to make Armistice Day and July Fourth, at least, two red letter days in their own program.

Think we are well under way for the establishment of a national American imaginable devoted to the interests of comrades in service. Men in the ranks of the American expatriate force are mapping out the magazine's program believe a large section of the publication should be devoted to a history of the various divisions that formed the American expatriate force, or remained in the American camps prevented from taking a more active part in the war by the sudden collapse of Germany.

Here in France, Comrades in Service is beginning its actual existence as a series of soldier's clubs, with the men electing their own officers and taking large part in forming the program of their individual chapters.

General Convention Planned. Delegates to a general convention, for instance, to be held in Paris for the purpose of completing organization on a large scale, are chosen from the various units scattered through France. By the time the convention is called it is the plan to have organization work completed in all of the army groups with the possible exception of the army of occupation along the German frontier.

In a great many ways the business of starting Comrades in Service as an active force in the American army can be considered as a kind of reconditioning activity. It is a kind of conditioning that between active service and return to civilian life.

Incidentally, a program of education has been launched here by the army officers and welfare workers as a stepping stone toward the time when the soldier bids the army goodbye. During the war days the soldiers were concerned principally with training problems, and were not able to keep abreast of the news of the day, partly because they had enough to do learning to become soldiers; and partly because they had small opportunities to read the daily paper and current news.

Now that demobilization is loomed ahead as the next big milestone on the soldier's program he is acquiring information on such subjects as "The League of Nations," "Universal Military Training," and kindred important problems of the day. All of the welfare groups—the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the Knights of Columbus—are assisting in whatever manner they can in this educational campaign.

Upgraded to Inform Soldiers. "I have seen a number of soldiers who were well informed on such subjects as the League of Nations, and kindred important problems of the day. All of the welfare groups—the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the Knights of Columbus—are assisting in whatever manner they can in this educational campaign.

THREE BIG PLANES DRAVE THE ATLANTIC

Navy Department Names Crews to Attempt Flight to Some Point in Europe.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 22.—The navy department announced tonight the personnel of the aviation crew—five men to a plane—who will attempt early next month to cross the Atlantic in three huge hydro-airplanes. Commander J. H. Towers, Lieut. Com. G. C. Read, and Lieut. Com. P. N. L. Bellinger will be the plane commanders, with the first named in general charge of the expedition.

The ships, the NC-1, NC-2 and NC-3, after a flight from their home station at Hooksett Point on Long Island to a base established by the navy off the New Foundland coast, will not touch in an attempt to reach a European destination not yet made public. It is generally believed that the planes will touch at the Azores and again off the Portuguese coast, then resuming the air cruise to the British Isles.

No land stops will be made. Whether the planes will await a resumption of the flight, an erection of appliances to haul the craft out of the water would reduce much time and entail heavy expense.

The planes, only one of which is now in operation, have a span of 125 feet and are driven by four high compression Liberty motors. The 1,100 mile flight to New Foundland will not be considered part of the ocean voyage, will be taken in easy stages.

The ships' crews, the commander included, would include a commanding officer, navigator, two pilots and a radio officer. In addition a reserve pilot will board each plane for the trip to New Foundland, to assist in adjusting minor defects in the mechanism. If any occur, and to meet an emergency such as illness among the regular crew.

In addition to the commanders, Commander Towers announced the personnel of the expedition is as follows: Crew No. 1—Pilot, Commander H. C. Dickson; pilot, Lieutenant J. H. Com. H. A. Lavender; engineer, Machinist L. R. Moore; reserve pilot engineer, Lieutenant D. Rhodes.

Crew No. 2—Pilot, Lieutenant W. H. Brown; pilot, Lieutenant W. H. H. Smith; navigator, Gordon H. C. Riddle; engineer, Chief Specialist, Mechanical E. J. Howard; reserve pilot engineer, Lieutenant J. L. Drees.

Crew No. 3—Pilot, Lieutenant E. T. Martin; radio operator, Lieutenant H. T. Kansas City; Chief Machinist, Machinist Mate C. J. Hester; reserve pilot engineer, Machinist E. Christensen.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 22.—The navy has subscribed $823,472.50 to the Victory loan, the treasury announced tonight. This is 18.66 per cent of total subscription by districts and percentages of district quotas are as follows:

District	Subs.	Per C.
St. Louis	$2,302,000	35.4
Chicago	172,952,000	28.0
Phoenix	20,710,000	24.1
Minneapolis	6,345,000	21.6
Kansas City	41,856,000	21.3
Cleveland	15,520,000	21.2
Houston	28,250,000	18.2
Philadelphia	56,820,000	16.1
New York	201,000,000	14.8
Jullias	11,352,000	13.9
San Francisco	33,720,000	10.8
Atlanta	6,244,000	8.4

The proportion of the loan already subscribed is a fraction of a percent greater than that raised at the corresponding time of the fourth loan campaign, although the amount is about $200,000,000 less, since the total of the fourth loan was greater.

This looks rather discouraging to the Victory Liberty Loan," said the treasury's daily review, "and the moral support connected with the subscription is that some of the remote districts are slow in reporting their sale to headquarters. This is particularly true in the Atlanta district."

BRITAIN IS NAMED LEAGUE SECRETARY

Sir Eric Drummond Chosen and Announcement Made After Adoption of Covenant. By the Associated Press. PARIS, April 22.—Announcement was made today of the appointment of Sir Eric Drummond to be secretary general of the newly adopted and approved League of Nations.

Sir Eric Drummond has been private secretary to A. J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary, since December, 1916. Previously he had served Sir Edward Grey (now viscount) Gray in the same capacity while Sir Edward was foreign secretary. From March, 1912, to June, 1916, he was private secretary to Herbert S. Asquith, then the British premier.

Sir Eric was born on August 17, 1874, a son of the eighth Viscount Strathmore, and is a tall, thin, well, concrete colored, good looking man. He became a clerk in the foreign office in 1900 and from 1905 to 1908 was public secretary to Lord Fitzmaurice, parliamentary under secretary of state for foreign affairs and continued under various under secretaries until 1912 when he became private secretary to Premier Asquith.

Sir Eric accompanied Foreign Minister Balfour to the United States in 1917 as a member of a British high commission.

In 1904 Sir Eric was married to Angela Marjorie, youngest daughter of the eleventh Baron Horries. They have two daughters and one son. Captain Maldivin Drummond, who married the widow of Marshal Field J. of Chicago, is a distant relative of Sir Eric.

COMING—RESTING EASY

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 22.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who was injured yesterday when a Broadway surface car collided with a taxicab in which he was riding, was feeling well tonight according to a bulletin issued by his physicians, and his condition was said to be "favorable."

The physician added, however, that because of his advanced years his fractured ribs and other injuries "may prove fatal."

High Costs Affect Operation Greater Revenues Required

Changes in Telephone Rates—1913 to 1918 Compared with Changes in Wages and Prices

SINCE 1913 there has been a steady increase in the price of all commodities and the products of industry, which has not been reflected in a corresponding increase in telephone rates. In order to meet the past and present high cost of telephone operation, a revenue in just proportion to the expense must be secured.

The reason is simple. The cost of telephone operation has steadily advanced both because of the increased cost of material and the increased living cost of employees. The consumer has realized the necessity of paying more for rent, for food, for clothing and for transportation. The telephone industry has been affected by the same conditions which have produced higher prices in all of the necessities of life.

Between 1913 and 1918, commodity prices advanced 112%, wages advanced 72% and Telephone rates the country over advanced only 4%. Adequate rates are needed if the service is to be maintained efficiently and on a comprehensive scale, so as to meet the increasing demands of the public.

This company is operating its telephone property under the direction of the Postmaster-General by the United States Government and must secure sufficient revenue to cover the cost of rendering the service.

QUEER VALLEY IN ALASKA

Thousands of Small Volcanoes Bend Steam into the Air, Farming One of the Main Occupations.

A wonderful valley, called the "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" is in Alaska, but was not discovered until recently by an expedition sent out by the National Geographic Society. The valley was working part of the Katmai pass, when the leader, Robert Y. Grieg, saw a puff of steam rising in the distance. Wondering what it could be, he climbed a rise of ground; and from there he saw a wonderful sight. Down the long valley were thousands of little volcanoes, sending their clouds of steam into the air. The valley, which all stretched into one great cloud, rising out the forest of oaks.

Some of the volcanoes observed had been some months, through which they were pouring; down others it seemed as though the gases escaped from every pore of the earth. A writer in the Youth's Companion, commenting on Mr. Grieg's description of the valley in the National Geographic Magazine, says it is evident that the valley runs northwest, under Katmai pass, of the mountain which is the barrier up through the volcano of this queer valley of a thousand smokes. Just as many small fountains show on the surface of an old boiler that has been in a single puncture of the lower layer of rubber.

AVOID THE WANDERLUST.

No rolling stone ever slides down the shimmering rainbow path plume into the creek of gold! It only jumps aimlessly downward, the slave of an external force—gravitation. DON'T be a rolling stone. There's plenty of room at the top. And the TOP is just where the rolling stone here arrives. YOU are wanted at the top.

Mr. Clifton, Mr. Worker, YOU! Job is to STICK to your job—to climb to the highest place in it you can fill. And the range of the ladder you must climb are HERE, in your HOME-TOWN, in the organization of which you have long been a part, among the fellow workers with whom you have so long associated.

Don't fall for the lure of SOMEWHERE ELSE. Don't chase some well of the wisp Eldorado in a far away promised land. There is no better pay in any other city than in Twin Falls—YOUR CITY!

HERE—in your own home town—in your Eldorado. HERE and NOW is your rainbow gulf. This is your city of opportunity. This is the town that has a thousand fortunes. Let it make yours!

Life and work are much the same the country over. The only difference is that as we are concerned, between Twin Falls and any other city, is that here is OUR home, and here are OUR friends.

Any man who can make good else, can make good all the more surely here, where the foundations of his success have already been laid.

In his own home town any loyal, hard-working citizen is master of his future; his property is certain.

But the victim of Wanderlust is never the best of uncertainty? He who follows at the beck and call of the Far Away, only winds up far and away from his own best interests. He is pulled—like the rolling stone—by a fatal force outside himself. And he lands, in the end, like the rolling stone, in some far-off, hollow far-land down the slopes of Mt. Prosperity, than the point which he started.

Don't let even your thoughts be the slaves of wanderlust. Keep them fastly here at home, intent on your own city's welfare.

And stick in person to your city. Grow with your city. Prosper with Twin Falls. BOOST Twin Falls.

PLUME AND DALMATIA

What are the facts about Plume and Dalmatia, for the sake of which Italy has seemed willing to defy the allies and wreck the peace settlement? The city of Plume proper is predominantly Italian. Its population is officially given as consisting of 15,400 Slavs and 24,500 Italians. It is, as these figures show, a small city. But this census ignores the industrial suburb of Sissak, across a narrow river, as much a part of Plume as Cambridge, Jr. of Boston. It has 16,700 Slavs and 7,500 Italians, other outlying territory that will naturally go along with Plume when the boundaries are drawn is so overwhelming, by Slavs that the demand for Plume amounts to a demand for the annexation of 100,000 Slavs to 30,000 Italians. Incidentally, therefore, the Italian claim is not at all convincing. The legal claim is no more convincing. Plume was not promised to Italy even in the secret treaty with Britain, France and Russia of which so much has been made. It was promised to Croatia, which is now a part of the new Jugoslav nation. The legal claim to Dalmatia is somewhat better, based on this treaty: Italy was promised certain islands and parts of the Dalmatian coast

Her recent demands, however, have been for all Dalmatia, the whole eastern side of the Adriatic, with all the islands, coast and much of the hinterland. In that area, according to official figures, there are over less than 15,000 Italians, and 610,000 Slavs. It is clear enough where the principle of "self-determination of peoples" would leave Italy in this case.

As a matter of fact, the Italian claim to Plume and Dalmatia has very little to do with the "irredentist" movement for which she entered the war. They are largely an after-thought. She wants Plume chiefly as a means of controlling the foreign commerce to the northeast of the Adriatic. It would help her in the commercial exploitation of Jugoslav, Bohemia and Hungary. She wants Dalmatia ostensibly for strategic reasons. Just why Italy feels it necessary to have that doing, is not clear. A few naval bases scattered along the coast would apparently give her all the protection she needs. Experts have shown that the Dalmatian coast as a whole would be a source of weakness rather than strength to Italy, because she cannot defend it. And there is no question of the moral right of Jugoslavia—the union of Serbia and other South Slav nations—to this territory, whether racially, commercially or strategically.

SAULTS THE FLAG.

According to one observing young member lately returned from France, the people of this country are already becoming careless in the matter of respectful salutation to the flag when it goes by.

It is a great pity if this is true. That flag means more today than ever before since first it swept the breeze, and that must be a well-centered and a selfish heart which can turn back so soon to its own immediate small concerns and forget what the flag said to every one of us less than a year ago. For it is only six months since American lids were flying under it.

Perhaps it is only the reversion to the old, busy indifference which is like some family affliction, strong and deep; but seldom manifested in acts, or loving work.

But after all, love, whether it be domestic or patriotic, is kept alive by the simple observance of loving salutation.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

Throughout the country communities are preparing to hear the reports of soldier-delegates to the convention called for next week in St. Louis for the organization of the National Soldiers' association.

Idaho cities are falling into line. They are arranging through commercial clubs and other bodies to bear this expense.

The soldiers are anxious to attend—particularly Idaho soldiers. They desire that the national body emphasize the need of the heroic men for the reclamation of lands.

Pronouncement by the convention in St. Louis would do more to influence our national congress than dozens of delegations sent to Washington. Idaho soldier boys can put through such a resolution.

In these circumstances, it is important that Twin Falls hear the expense of her delegation. And, since the commercial club has been suspended by the Rotary club, it is fitting that this last named body should take it upon itself to finance this movement.

Here is a real opportunity for the Rotary club.

in order to carry out the provisions of the covenant. You will notice that the covenant specifies that the first secretary general shall be chosen by this conference. It also provides that the choice of the four member states who are to be added to the five great powers on the council, is left to this conference.
Nominates Sir Eric
I move therefore, that the first secretary general of the council shall be the honorable Sir James Eric Drummond, and second, that until the council has been formed, Sir Eric Drummond be the first secretary general of the league to be represented on the council. In accordance with article 4 of the covenant, representatives of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, France, Greece and Spain shall be members; and, third, that the powers to be represented on the council of the league of nations are requested to name representatives who shall form a committee of three to prepare plans for the organization of the league and for the establishment of the seat of the league and to make arrangements and to prepare the agenda for the first meeting of the council. The committee is to report both to the council and to the assembly of the league.

"I think it not necessary to call your attention to other matters we have previously discussed—the capital significance of this covenant; the hopes which are entertained as to the effect it will have upon studying the affairs of the world and the obvious necessity that there should be a concert of the free nations of world to maintain justice in international relations, the relations between people and between the nations of the world.

Makes Mendon Corrected.
"Mr. Baron Mackinnon will pardon me for introducing a matter which I have hitherto overlooked. It is necessary for me to propose the alteration of several words in the first line of article 4. Let me say that in a social sense of the treaty of which this covenant will form a part, certain duties are assigned to the council of the league of nations. In some instances it is provided that the action shall be taken by a majority vote; it is therefore necessary to make the covenant conform with the other portions of the treaty by adding these words. I will read the first line and add the words:
"Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant, or in the present treaty, and I subscribe the action 'or by the terms of this treaty.'
"With this addition I move the adoption of the covenant."

V. LOAN NEED SHOWN IN NEW WAR FIGURES

"America's Munitions," by Major Crowell, Tells Story of U. S. Effort.

There is a good reason for thought for Victor Crowell's book, "America's Munitions," in the following excerpt from "AMERICA'S MUNITIONS" just issued by Major Benedict Crowell, Asst. Sec. of War.
The estimated cost of the munitions required to equip our first five million men was between $120,000,000 and $130,000,000. Since 1917 and April 6th, 1917, ALL Appropriations of Congress were but $24,000,000, including five wars and the pensions resulting from the war years. The total cost of the ordnance effort to equip our first five million men amounted to $120 for every hour since the birth of this country.

There was never a shortage of smokeless powder.
Over 2,500,000 shoulder rifles were produced in the 19 months of our participation in the war—more than either England or France produced during that period. The average monthly production during July-August and September, 1918, was as follows:
France 40,500
England 112,521
U. S. A. 233,552

Over three billion rounds of small arms ammunition were produced and our speed before the armistice was twice that of France and 10% greater than England's.
Our production of machine guns during the period from April 6, 1917, to Nov. 11, 1918, was slightly more than England's and slightly less than France's. At the end of the war our rate was twice that of France and three times as great as England's.

In connection with 75-millimeter shells, 4,250,000 high explosive shells, 500,000 gas shells and 7,250,000 shrapnel had been produced completely by November 11, 1918. A total of 8,250,000 rounds of 75-millimeter ammunition were fired by American Artillerymen. 8,000,000 rounds had been shipped.

THE BACK AND FRONT OF IT

Back
Back of the Victory Loan stands the treasury of the United States—the vast wealth of a great and powerful nation. That makes it safe.
Back of the Victory Loan is the call of duty. That makes it patriotic.
Back of the Victory Loan is Government interest. That makes it a good investment.
Front
We are musing out about fifteen thousand men a day; and at this rate it will take ten months to demobilize the army.
It will cost over three billion dollars to bring the boys back and feed and care for them until they are home.
That gives us an idea of the size of the job.

QUARRY SITES ARE SOUGHT BY BOARD

Highway Commissioners Inspect Various Places With Experienced Rock Man From Calif.

In company with P. A. Kallbaugh, an expert rock-crusher man from California, the members of the Twin Falls highway board yesterday inspected three proposed quarry sites. While it has not yet been definitely decided by the highway board to quarry its own rock in the building of the highways in this section this procedure has been advocated by W. I. Johnson, the highway engineer, and on his suggestion Mr. Kallbaugh was sent for in order to decide which would be the best place to do the work. The highway board will probably make a decision on Thursday afternoon.

The sites visited yesterday were in different parts of the district. One of them is east of Twin Falls, the other west and the third north of the city.

If the highway district decides to make its own road, the best method possible will be used, according to Mr. Johnson. One large and one or two small crushers will be used. It is planned to crush from 500 to 800 yards of rock each day. This can be done with from eight to 20 men, according to the engineer who stated that in his recent trip he found that in some places 10 men were getting out a tremendous amount of small rock while in other places 30 men were only making 200 yards of the road foundation each day.

ABANDONS CONTROL

dicted the canvas of a strike vote. The land wire system under government control was under the direction of the wire control board with First Assistant Postmaster General Koons in charge. The cable lines have been under the direct control of Koons, Assistant president of the Western Union company.

Proceedings involving the right of the postmaster general to take over control of both the cable and land line systems are now pending in the court here. It is believed that the proposed prompt return of the cable systems will render a decision by the court unnecessary. Arguments in cases arising from the postmaster general's order imposing restrictions are to be heard by the court next Monday. The cases resulted in appeals from South Dakota and Massachusetts court decrees, although similar actions have been brought in about 21 states.

Your Wash Day

If you do your own washing
It means getting up early, with dread in your heart for the long, hard day ahead of you... A day full of the meanest kind, og, drudgery, and back-breaking toil—a hasty lunch—and you finish at 4 or 5 o'clock with tired feet and an aching body.

If you employ a laundress
(Think of the uncertainty of whether she is coming or not—scrumping on the wash for fear she will be dissatisfied—meals to get for, an, extra person—waste of soap and abuse of clothes—with only partly clean clothes as a recompense.

If you employ servants
The constant strain of keeping them satisfied—the extra cost if they do washing and oftentimes extra help to assist them—the loss of time from other duties.

If you send it out
The unnecessary wear and tear of your clothes coming in contact with germ-laden clothes from some other home—careless handling in an unsanitary wash room—the excessive cost.
Let us bring an EDEN WASHER up to your place and demonstrate it.

LEONARD HAMMERS RITCHIE TO ROPES

Referee - Saves Prison Boy From Knockout—Miske Wins Over Brennan, Moon Over Erlic.

By the Associated Press. NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Willie Ritchie of San Francisco, was saved by the referee from a knockout at the hands of Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, forty seconds before the end of the eighth and final round of a bout here tonight. Ritchie was on the ropes when the match was stopped.

Leonard had the better of every round with the exception of the third in which Ritchie was effective. Right hand blows to the body but went to his corner himself with nose bleeding from a hard fight. Ritchie tried to carry the fighting to his opponent but when he let up Leonard kept right after him, giving him no rest.

Leonard sent Ritchie down for a count of nine in the second with a right uppercut. This second after he rose, the ball ring sat on the ropes.

In the fourth Leonard landed several hard lefts and rights. Ritchie appeared all in but came back in the fifth trying to force the pace.

Leonard took the aggressive in the sixth and staggered his opponent in the seventh when he landed a right cross to the stomach followed by a right cross to the jaw. Leonard went a cross right and left but Ritchie again came back for more.

the jaw sent Ritchie down for a count of nine for the second time in the contest. As he rose Leonard jumped at him with right and left and anxious to 'send a decisive blow across before the final bell rang but the referee interfered as Ritchie was hanging off the rope.

ZBYSCKO WINS IN BOUT WITH LEWIS

Plus Stranger With Side Tack and Jolly Secon—Thy 2,1-0—Tollups Tack 2,1-0

CHICAGO, April 28.—Wladek Zbyzsko, the Pole, defeated Ed (Stranger) Lewis of Kentucky for the second time in two months in a fifteen wrestling match here tonight. Zbyzsko pinned Lewis down after two hours 14 minutes and 2 seconds with a side roll and a jolly secon.

Lewis was 'the aggressor' throughout the match and got five head locks on his opponent. One of them held for two minutes and 40 seconds. The fall came when Lewis leaped several feet across the mat in an effort to clamp the Pole's head again.

Zbyzsko ducked however, and the mat went into a side roll which ended in Zbyzsko downsing Lewis with a body seconers. It was decided that one fall should decide the match if no fall came when Lewis leaped.

Zbyzsko is claiming the world's heavyweight wrestling title and it was said a match between him and Earl (Oldack) probably would be held in July or as soon as 'Oldack returns from France where he is with the American expeditionary force.

Four halling men tried to rob his box office, but were driven away by police.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Table-Proof of Salt If Back Hurts or Blinded

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they quit sluggish, the eliminator tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have aching pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediments, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, rheumatism, acute stomitis or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jax Salt; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt, reguloid from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jax Salt is inexpensive and cannot injure; make a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

WELL TRAINED BALLPLAYERS BACK FROM ARMY ASSURE A WONDERFUL YEAR FOR SOUTH IDAHO BASEBALL LEAGUE

Assurances that the coming season will be a most successful one for the South Idaho baseball league, were made last night when visiting managers from the five outside teams reported that enthusiasm was rampant throughout the territory. Several men who are returning to their homes each day were more than enthusiastic to get into the game and from appearances of their work on the diamond this year the ball fans of the territory will be more than repaid for support given to the league.

Present at the meeting last night were delegates from every town in the circuit. The recently admitted members of the association, Buhl and Paul, were both present with great enthusiasm. Buhl was represented by H. G. Holly, while Paul had three fans on hand, A. W. Golden, Frank Adams and James Davis. The resignation of President Ash-down of Burley, was presented and accepted. E. C. Haines of Rupert being elected in his place.

The constitution and by-laws were approved. Each team is required to put up a bond of $100 to guarantee the finishing of the season. The bond must be in the hands of the president on May 1.

HIGH PRICES HOLD WITHOUT REASON

Chief, Statistician Chamber of Commerce Says American Shippers Cannot Transport Surplus Wheat

By the Associated Press. ST. LOUIS, April 28.—High prices continue without the slightest reason under the sun, A. W. Douglas, of St. Louis, chief statistician of the chamber of commerce of the United States, told the representatives of a thousand American trade organizations in a convention here tonight.

He added that there had already been some decline and declared that if the law of supply and demand were given freedom of operation the decline would continue until a normal level was reached.

Then, in touching on transportation and its effect on business, he brought the delegates to their feet in a burst of applause when he declared that the "unfortunate state which transportation had fallen under" was a case of incompetence and extravagance.

Speaking before the national councilors of the chamber, Mr. Douglas pointed to the government estimate of $30,000,000 worth of wheat which he declared there would be more grain available for export than our ships could move and added that there is more livestock in the country than ever before.

The national councilors adopted a resolution advocating a budget system for the government and recommending that the chamber carry on a campaign in behalf of the project in all parts of the country.

In its annual report the committee of statistics and standards criticized the method of the department of agriculture in preparing estimates of the final yield of growing crops and recommended that congress be urged to provide more liberal appropriation for the department. The report stated that the most reliable private estimates are based on a comparison of the growing crop with the final yields of the preceding year "and on some intelligent attempt to forecast the effect of possible weather happenings before the final harvest." The report also stated that the department gives results "entirely more uniform and in fairly close accord with theoretical facts."

TO PREVENT PEDDLERS AND PARASIT FROM WEARING HAT

Colonel Wood, Cuts Upon Police Chiefs to Prevent "Cooties" Hiring Soldiers in Uniform.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Police chiefs of cities of the country were appealed to today by Colonel Arthur Woods, special assistant to the secretary of war in charge of the employment of discharged soldiers, to aid the government in preventing peddlers and street fakirs from wearing the uniform of the army or navy.

In a letter sent to the police chiefs, Colonel Woods said he believed that many, if not most, of the men in uniform who were peddling in the streets never entered the service. Employees who hire men in uniform to peddle for them were denounced by Colonel Woods as "cooties" who do it simply to play on the public sympathy which the uniform arouses.

STRATEGIC POINT ON WHITE SEA IS LOST TO BOLSHIEVIK

HELSINGFORS, Sunday, April 27.—The newspapers today reported that Finnish volunteers on Saturday captured the town of Lotnipolito on the White sea. The town is an important strategic point and is the junction of many roads and the railway between Petrograd and the Murman coast, which is now closed to the Bolsheviks. It is assumed that the Bolshevik torpedo boat flotilla at Lotnipolito was unable to escape owing to the ice.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY
She Keeps Her Locks Dark and Glossy With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so slowly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application of two, your hair becomes naturally darker, softer and lustrous.

Gray, faded hair, though no disease, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look young again. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
