Big Dirigible is Lost at Sea; Seaplanes Fail to Hop Off; NC-4 By Flight Joins Mates

Start for Azores Is Expected By Noon or After Today.

HOPE NC-4 WILL BE READY TO START

Battle To Save the Big Blimp Is Waged By One Hundred Men In Vain.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 15.—While the probable loss of the navy dirigible C-5 through a treacherous wind current at St. Johns, N. F., today caused keen disappointment to naval officials here, the failure of the seaplanes NC-1 and NC-3 to get started on the transatlantic flight caused no apprehension.

"It was confidently expected that the planes, possibly accompanied by the NC-4 which arrived at Trepassey bay during the day, would get under way just before sundown tomorrow and reach the Azores some this Saturday afternoon."

The navy department had an official report at a late hour either as to the attempts of the planes at Trepassey to get into the air carrying the maximum quantity of gasoline or as to the arrival there of the NC-4.

TRY TO HOP OFF

TREPASSEY, N. F., May 15.—The navy's two giant seaplanes, NC-1 and NC-2, which have been waiting here for several days for a favorable opportunity to start their transatlantic flight, apparently tried to "hop off" today but failed.

The two seaplanes into today tied down the harbor, their fuel tanks full but never left the water. While no official statement that the pilots intended to start their flight en route to the Azores has been made, it is believed that had the planes been able to take the air they would have attempted the flight.

After crisscrossing the harbor for some time, the dirigible, seen apparently in an effort to lighten their load, shortly afterwards, however, they returned to their moorings.

While the planes were still taxiing about the harbor, the NC-4, which had Thursday dropped out of the initial leg of the transatlantic flight and put into Chatham, Mass., for repairs, arrived. The failure of the NC-1 and NC-3 to start today may mean that the three planes will start together when they attempt to cross the Atlantic.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 15.—Mexican rebel attacks with the troops under Francisco Villa attacked the town of Corralitos May 9 and in the resultant battle inflicted severe losses on federal troops under General Pablo Quiroga, who were hurrying north to the relief of Chihuahua City, which was being menaced by Villistas. General Juan Barragan, chief of staff of the Mexican army, has refused to deny or affirm that the battle at Corralitos was a victory for the rebels but General Quiroga is quoted as reporting that the Villistas were compelled to withdraw.

SEEKS FUNDS TO AID FIGHT FOR BRUNEAU

Twin Falls to Send Delegation to Washington to Further Reclamation

MANY SOLDIERS ARE WAITING FOR OPENING

Come Here From East to Learn Irrigation—Want to Get In On the Project

Petitions were circulated in Twin Falls yesterday to secure funds to send delegates from Twin Falls to Washington to work for the Bruneau and other Idaho irrigation projects. This movement is a result of the meeting Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium at which Congressman Addison T. Smith delivered an address.

Bruneau Is Favored

Reports made by Congressman Smith and received from other sources indicate that the possibilities to secure funds of the Bruneau project are becoming more favorable every day. Secretary Lane made a visit to the project last year and has given it his approval. It is planned to call the project the Franklin K. Lane when it is authorized.

Evidence that returning soldiers, not only from this immediate section, but from eastern points are greatly interested in the Bruneau section is manifested daily at the local employment office.

Soldiers Watch Project

Lieutenant John S. Green, who returned from St. Louis Wednesday night last evening to a Chronicle representative that he had met a dozen service men on the train coming from the east to Twin Falls. Asking them why they were coming here, they all declared that they had heard of the success of the Twin Falls project and of the possibilities of the Bruneau project being opened and that they wished to learn irrigation and to be on the ground floor when Bruneau is opened up.

Lieutenant Green also stated that reclamation had received support from every eastern delegation at the American legion convention and that the efforts made by the western delegations to bring the matter to the front had met with the best of success.

Legislators Plan Bills

Associated Press dispatches received by The Chronicle from Washington indicate that the opening of public lands for soldiers is receiving every consideration. A Washington dispatch says:

Legislation to enable soldiers to make homestead settlements on public lands was agreed upon at a conference today between Secretary Lane and members of the house and senate and will be introduced when congress convenes. The measure will be introduced.

By the Associated Press. HAVANA, Cuba, May 15.—Major General Enoch H. Crowder, who has charge of the work of reviving the election laws of Cuba does not contemplate retiring from the United States army; and, therefore, he says, he has no intention of accepting a position as political adviser in Cuba.

"No Cuban position has ever been offered to me," he said today, "and I would not accept it if it were offered. I expect to return to Washington at an early date to resume my work as judge advocate general."

"I fully expect that the opportunity to appear before the committees in congress respecting the revision of the articles of war will be accorded me. I have no intention whatever of retiring from the army."

WINNIPEG IS PROSTRATED BY STRIKERS

Sixty Unions Join in General Walkout in All Industries

PHONE OPERATORS TO STRIKE TODAY

Bakers, Street Railway Employees, Gas Company, and Light Men Are All Idle

By the Associated Press. WINNIPEG, Man., May 15.—Thirty thousand men and women struck today after metal workers and their employers had failed to adjust their differences, and tonight the city's transportation system and other facilities were tied up. The strikers included city firemen, who were released by emergency men, and the city employees of the gas and water works, who were manned by citizens.

Sixty unions involved. More than 50 unions joined in the strike during the day after the first men were called out at 11 a. m. by the trade and labor council.

Although the police voted to strike, they were ordered by authorities of the strike committee to remain on duty. No violence was reported during the day.

Secretary Robertson of the labor council tonight said that the strikers would not return to work until they obtained all demands.

Twin service was not impeded, although many shops might work. The trainmen are not included in the strike.

Bakers Walk Out

The bakers walked out in the afternoon, and the telephone operators gave notice they would start a sympathetic strike Friday.

The police has remained intact, but there is some apprehension that they may strike.

The railways and switchyards, so far, are not greatly hampered. About 2,000 employees of the Canadian Pacific railroad shops at Wexford, a suburb, obeyed the strike order, but it is assumed that the "Big Five" of combined union engineers, fireman, conductors and switchmen is not included in the strike.

About 1,500 Canadian government employees at Transcona, a suburb, struck today, and came in on an special train.

Telegraph operators at local commercial offices have remained on duty.

Conciliation Fails

Efforts at conciliation by Premier Ross failed at the approval of Mackenzie and Mayor Charles E. Gray of Winnipeg, failed. Messages to Canadian Minister of Labor Robertson at Ottawa, today brought the reply that when conciliation and arbitration were declared and workers refused to respect the governing powers of their organization, the government could do nothing.

His message added that it was regrettable that metal trades employees were not met with the same respect chosen representatives for the purpose of discussing grievances, but Mayor Gray supplemented his message of last night with the information that the employers would agree to arbitration, which the men had declared unacceptable.

Wild West Division Suffers Heavily According to Latest Figures Made Public in Washington

Total casualties of American forces operating in France were 286,844, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, received by The Chronicle last evening. Of this number 43,000 were killed, and 227,112 were wounded.

Only 28 of the wild west division were taken prisoners, according to these figures.

Among the other divisions in which there were many Twin Falls and Idaho men the casualties reported were as follows:

BUFFALO, Wyo., May 15.—Yerdin Earl Mooney, 13-year old, was acquitted of the charge of murdering his aunt, Mrs. Mary Mooney, by a jury in the district court here today. The defendant pleaded self-defense, not only for himself but for his younger brothers and sisters, in killing his aunt.

Summary of International Situation

By the Associated Press. Although the reports of officials which the allied and associated powers are to present to the Austrian delegation, are virtually complete and report that it next Wednesday has been chosen as the day when the austrian arm is to be called before the peace congress, the negotiations may be delayed by reason of the fact that Hungary, where extremely unstable conditions still exist, has failed to appoint delegates to go to Germany.

The council of four Thursday continued discussion of the military items to be embodied in the Austrian compact. These, it is asserted, not only will require demobilization of the Austrian army and present future conscription, but will call for the dismantling of the famous Skoda works, Austria's great armament factories at Vienna and Prague, where the monster howitzers and other big guns used by the Austro-Hungarian armies during the war were made.

claims of Italy with regard to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast, which are still unsettled. While it is reported that the Americans remain opposed to sanctioning the turning over of Fiume to the Italians, another report is to the effect that Mr. Trumbull, chief of the U. S. general peace delegation regarding international labor legislation has been forwarded to the Germans by the council of four. All the other German communications have been referred to peace commissioners.

"Little fish in the brook.
"Little fish in the brook.
Father catch him with a hook
Mother fry him in the pan,
Johnny eat him like a man."

Yes, the fishing season opens Jun. 1, and already Twin Falls husbands are planning on that big catch and promising some beauties to friends. And already Twin Falls wives are discussing their own special way of preparing the fish. And how particular these husbands are about the way their fish are cooked. So, for the sake of the brides and any others who have not yet learned the art of preparing so tempting a dish we give the following directions.

Small fish—is usually pan-broiled. After cleaning well dip the fish in heavily salted milk, roll in fine bread crumbs and broil in a pan over a broiler and a hot fire. The good in-pan broil the pan with bacon dripping, brown the fish quickly on both sides, then cover, lower the heat, and cook until tender. Be careful not to cook too dry.

A Creole receipt for cooking trout, or trout steaks is as follows:
Rent the yolks of 2 eggs into 2 cupsful of sweet milk, and season highly with salt and pepper. Soak the trout steaks in the liquid, remove and roll thickly in the bread crumbs. Fry in very hot grease or bacon fat until brown. Garnish with parsley and serve with tartar sauce.

HARRISON, GOVERNOR OF PHILIPPINES, WEDS

Takes 18-Year-Old Girl as Bride in Spite of Parental Objections.

By the Associated Press.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 15.—Mrs. Mabel Judson Harrison was granted a final decree of divorce in superior court here today from Francis Thurston Harrison, governor general of the Philippines.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Francis Burton Harrison, 45 years old, governor general of the Philippine islands, and Miss Elizabeth Wrenmore, 18 years old, a student at the University of California, at Berkeley, were married at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon here. The Rev. Johnstone Myers, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, officiated. The ring ceremony was used. Only a small party of guests was in attendance.

Archibald Harrison of New York, a brother of the governor general, was best man, and Miss Lorraine Dean of Chicago, a friend of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The bride was given in marriage by Francis George Wrenmore, of the U. S. S. New Mexico, Miss Ethel Handman, best man, and Miss Lorraine Dean of San Francisco, at the University of Washington, represented the bride's mother, Mrs. Clarence E. Wrenmore of Manila.

Among the guests were Mrs. W. G. Emberton of Manila, Mrs. James H. Leask of New York and Captain H. L. Haas of New York. The latter, a friend of the governor general, had charge of arrangements.

The marriage was the culmination of a romance said to have begun a year ago when the governor general met the recent Miss Harrison, at a dance at the palace in Manila. Miss Wrenmore had been a student at the University of Washington and a year ago went to the University of California. She is a daughter of Professor Wrenmore, dean of the college of

The romance met obstacles, however, and one of them caused the marriage ceremony to be performed here instead of at the home of the governor general's mother, Mrs. Constance Cary Harrison, author, in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Wrenmore, at the time of the engagement was announced in New York several months ago, said she would not give her consent to her daughter's marriage to the governor general, who will be 45 years old next December. His age, she said, was the only bar. But the daughter declared she was of legal age and loved the

Palmolive Company Products

My impression regarding the different articles sold by this company is that they prefer to have them retailed at prices that would cause their being bought freely at all times rather than have them sold at extra profit prices most of the time and then special prices for a couple of days "once in a long while."

I have been and still am, selling Palmolive goods at prices that should cause them to be bought freely. To illustrate, my regular price on Palmolive Vanishing Cream is fifty cents a jar and on Palmolive Toilet Powder 25c a box. These are being quoted at 60c and 30c, respectively. The higher prices mentioned are just 20 per cent more than my regular prices.

Palmolive Toilet Soap is sold here in this store at 5c per cake instead of 12 1/2c (two for 25c) or nearly 40 per cent more than I am asking.

A jar of vanishing cream at 50c and a box of talcum powder at 25c and four cakes of toilet soap at 10c (popular prices at which these goods are usually sold) make a total of $1.10, not $1.40 as quoted by some.

If you want to purchase some Palmolive goods, come here and get a jar of Vanishing Cream, a box of Talcum Powder, two cakes of Toilet Soap and two cakes of Bath Soap, all for $1.00 and make a real saving.

Other Toilet Articles At A Saving

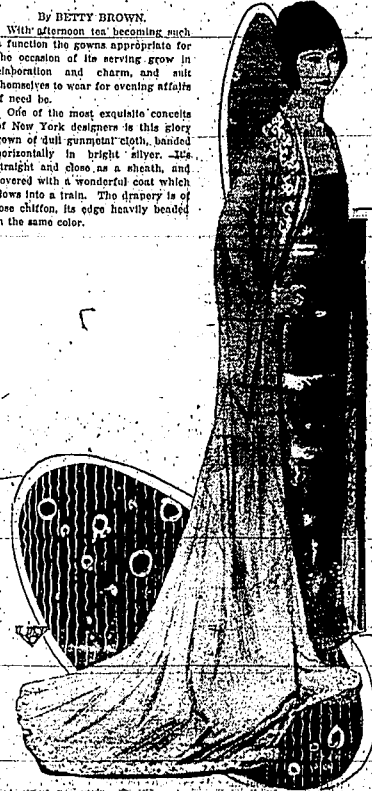

Toilet Paper, (Crepe Finish) 6 rolls for 25c
Toilet Paper, (the 10c kind) 4 rolls for 25c
Toilet Paper, (Fine Tissue, 1000 sheets) 2 rolls for 25c
Privilege is reserved in limit number of lots sold to one customer, as these prices are not for dealers or speculators.

SPARTIANS FAIL TO HOLD LEIPZIG

Last Stronghold of Reds in Germany Captured by Government Troops Under Noeske.

By the Associated Press.—COBLENZ, Tuesday, May 13.—The entrance of the troops of Gustav Noeske, secretary of military affairs in the German government, into Leipzig, the last remaining stronghold of the Spartans in Saxony, was the first time since the signing of the armistice that any military operation had been conducted secretly by the German government forces, according to information reaching third army headquarters.

THE DEFEAT of Noeske's soldiers was such a surprise to the Spartans leaders that the resulting casualties amounted to only two men wounded. Troop movements toward Leipzig began ten days ago, but they were accomplished in such a manner that they attracted no attention, the soldiers themselves believing they were merely being transferred from one garrison to another.

The Americans here express the belief that Noeske's strength has increased the point where he now sees seeking for trouble makers, formerly having had his hands full in mustering volunteers to suppress the Spartans' troubles in Berlin and the Ruhr region. Recently Noeske has been chasing the Spartans and still has a large reserve near Berlin.

Once Saxony is rid of Spartans there will remain only a few Spartans nests in all Germany. Most of the remaining centers are along the eastern front.

I do not think, however, there is any reason to believe that Japan will not fulfill her contract."

BANKER IS NAMED CHURCH MODERATOR

By the Associated Press.—ST. LOUIS, May 15.—Willis Beer, Pasadena, Cal., banker, today was elected moderator of the 121st general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States in session here.

This is the first time in history a layman was chosen to the highest office of the church. Mr. Beer's opponent was the Rev. Dr. Hall Young, an Alaskan missionary.

The election resulted from the first ballot, which gave Mr. Beer 476 votes and Dr. Johnson 216.

Mr. Beer was the only layman named. William J. Bryan, who had been spoken of frequently as a possible contestant, did not arrive in St. Louis until after the election. This precluded him from becoming a candidate as the assembly has never chosen a moderator who was not on the floor at the time of the election.

Mr. Beer is vice president of the New Era movement, which has organized the raising of $25,000,000 for Presbyterian church work, and is the former associate secretary of the board of home missions. For many years he was general secretary of the Christian Endeavor and is a former president of the Occidental college at Los Angeles.

He also is a member of the executive committee of the inter-church world movement, which plans the unification of all Protestant churches. This movement has been denounced by many commissioners at present-day gatherings but commissioners tonight expressed belief that Mr. Beer's election to the moderatorship might bring about indorsement of the movement by the assembly. Mr. Beer tonight refused to discuss the stand he would take on the question.

VICIOUS PUNCHES GIVE WAY TO SMILES

JACK DEMPSEY

By FRED FURBYVILLE.

To meet Jack Dempsey is to like him. He has a personality. He is not highly educated; nor has he a polish which is elite circle. Neither is he roughneck. He has lots of good common sense, doesn't talk rough, is no loud dresser and isn't haughty, but with a look of courteous command, many fighters of his own other days. Jack would attract attention anywhere on the street, but strangers wouldn't know whether he was a football star, a baseball player, a young business-man or a fighter. He dresses well and his clothes look good on him. But they aren't flashy. They may be ratty, but not filthy. Jack is a man of good taste.

FIGHT IS GIVEN OFFICIAL PERMIT

Permit Issued in Toledo Calls For "Twelve Round Contest to a Decision."

By the Associated Press. TOLEDO, May 15.—Official sanction for the heavyweight championship fight between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4 was given by the Toledo boxing commission to day when a permit was issued to Ad Q. Thatcher and his brother, representing the Toledo Athletic club. The permit calling for a 12 round contest to a decision, bears the signatures of Mayor Schreiber, Chief Willard, director of public safety and head of the boxing commission, and the remaining five members.

The actual construction of the arena, which will have a seating capacity of 10,000 persons, was started today. Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, drove the first half dozen spikes in the framework of the structure.

Formal protest against the fight was filed tonight with Mayor Schreiber by the Toledo ministerial union, an organization of two hundred and fifty churches. Copies of the protest were mailed to Governor Cox at Columbus and John F. Mathias, sheriff of Lucas county. These officials were asked to prevent the contest.

The protest said the contest would result in an invasion of "gamblers, slaves and thugs" to Toledo; that it would teach youths to "see red" and that the record public statements of the fighters "justify the expectation that we are to have a gladiatorial contest worthy of the Roman arena of infame memory."

Dempsey had not arrived late tonight.

MATURING PLANS FOR ARMY MEET

List of Athletes Eligible Indicate A Strong Lineup to Cross the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Plans are rapidly being completed for the formation of the team of army athletes to be sent from this country to augment the American entries in the inter-allied games to be held in France June 22 to July 5. The team will include about 200 men and will comprise football after joining the ninth group at Jouviville-le-Pont, near Paris, about a week before the opening of the games.

Owing to lack of time it will not be possible to hold tryouts meets as is customary previous to Olympic games. Instead, every army, student army training corps and amateur athletic union district has been requested to name one or more eligible athletes. A committee of at least 100 will be selected. Private and officers of the army or S. A. T. C. are invited into the army-athletes, regardless of whether they served abroad or have been trained out since the armistice.

The team will travel in a body going and coming and will be in military uniform and under strict military discipline. The final selection will not be made until a few days before the date of sailing and the performance of athletes nominated will be carefully tabulated in college and open meets, the time, distance and physical condition of the athletes being the basis of final selection.

Among the prominent athletes and club athletes eligible are Wesley Cagle, Jr.; Larry Scudler, Ringo Deamond, Nick Glanokopulos, W. H. Morris, Lieutenant Tom Lehn, George Brindley, Carl Bickel, Lieutenant Howard Terry, Tom Campbell, Fred Davis, M. Gustafson, James Henigan, Lieutenant Harold. TWIN FALLS IS FAVORED FOR VETS MEETING

Idaho's Delegation to Legion Gathering Wanted Caucas Held in T. F.

GREEN TO TELL ABOUT ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

Will Attend Service Men's Meeting Tonight to Re-late-What-Was-Done At Session.

Twin Falls is favored by Idaho's delegation which attended the American Legion caucus at St. Louis at the meeting place for the first big reunion of the state organization. This information was given the Chronicle last evening by Lieutenant John S. Green a member of the Idaho delegation.

"Members of the delegation were anxious that Twin Falls be the meeting place of the caucus that will take place for the state's organization," said Mr. Green, "but because of the wish to have that meeting in the latter part of June Taylor Cummings and myself urged upon the delegation to hold it in Boise as the meeting place for the caucus. But from Trombetta's talk to us I feel that the first big reunion can be brought here."

Will Attend Meeting
Lieutenant Green will attend the meeting of the Twin Falls service men's association tonight to relate to them what was done at the St. Louis convention.

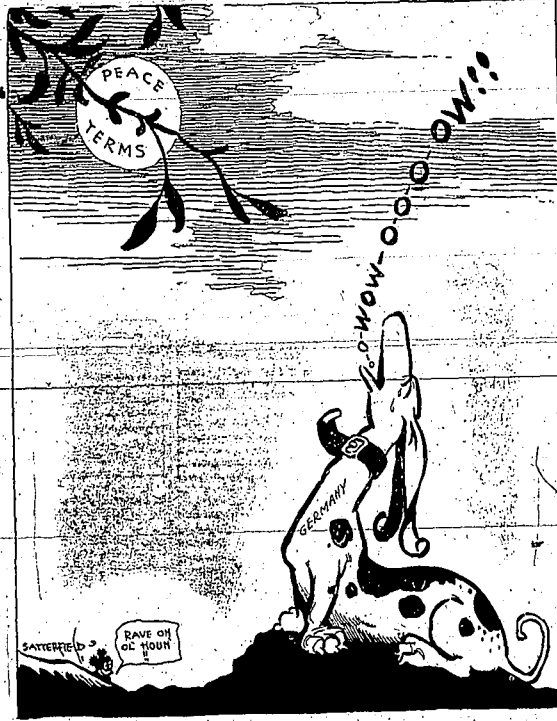

"The American Legion promises to be a great factor in future American life," asserted the Lieutenant. "It will be strictly a non-partisan organization and will not enter politics as a party but it will undoubtedly make its influence felt in politics."

"The principal platform at this time is to fight the Bolsheviki element in the United States. It places itself on record on this subject when the convention resolves to elect a representative of the Soldiers and Sailors council of Seattle as such. He was allowed to attend the convention as an individual soldier, just as any soldier, sailor or marine was allowed to do."

Organization Will Be Free
"Indubitably there will be particular elements trying to obtain a hold on the organization, but from the spirit that prevailed at the meeting in St. Louis it will be the general good that will be thought of primarily rather than that of special interests."

"The fight on the Bolsheviki element itself is a big one but the position of the United States of Ameri-

To preserve the memories and incidents of our nation in the Great War; to incite a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat autocracy of both the class and the masses; to make right the matter of right; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to concrete and earnestly our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

At the meeting tonight among another question that will be considered is that of sending delegates to a convention of service men that has been called at Boise, June 6. This meeting is independent of the meeting that has been called by the legion and is headed by Mark St. John, a Boise newspaper man.

To Select Delegates
The method of selecting delegates to the American Legion convention will also be considered. As delegates to this meeting are to represent the entire county it is not anticipated that any attempt will be made to name the representative from here until other towns of the county have been heard from so that they can have members on the delegation.

The preamble of the constitution of the American Legion declares that it is organized:
"For God and Country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:
"To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of Ameri-

KNOX OPPOSED TO NATIONS LEAGUE

Says It Would Be "National Suicide" for United States to Sign the Covenant.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 15.—"National suicide" would be the effect of America's entrance into the league of nations under the revised covenant, declared Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, former secretary of state and a republican member of the senate foreign relations committee, in a statement issued today.

The senate, Mr. Knox asserted, has power to amend the peace treaty. "The contention that the senate, advice and consent upon such terms as it chooses to impose" he said, "is in my opinion, wholly untenable and contrary to precedent."

Regarding the revised covenant for the league, Mr. Knox made the following statements:

"It is my intention at a covenant time to discuss the revision at some length, with a view to showing, as I claimed in an address delivered in Pittsburgh, on May 2, that the revised draft is more objectionable than the original one, that the changes do not meet the objections so generally made to the original, and that it would be equivalent to national suicide to enter into such a compact, and further, that without authority from the people the treaty making power, nor indeed congress, cannot delegate to any five, nine or other number of representatives of foreign governments, powers that the people have not delegated to them or reserved themselves."

GERMANY BROUGHT HERSELF TROUBLE

Blockade Results Were Naturally to Follow. England's Foreign Policy, Says Maximilian Harden.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Wednesday, May 14.—Germany's blockade troubles were primarily brought upon her by herself, says Maximilian Harden, German free lance, in Die Zukunft. Both Bismarck and Capri had profited such a measure against Germany if she went to war, the writer points out. But he says that it would have been impossible for the blockade to have been imposed if Germany had not refused at the Hague in 1907 to accept the British proposition tending to the abolition of the right of capture and that of prohibited zones on the sea. The men who were at that time directing German policy, Herr Harden continues, were convinced that in case of the outbreak of Anglo-German war the British people, no longer susceptible to agitators, would suffer from famine much before Germany, a country highly developed agriculturally and adjoining Russia, Holland and Denmark.

In these circumstances, therefore, in Herr Harden's opinion, the Germans have no right to complain about the blockade imposed upon them.
