NAVY SEAPLANE NC-4 COMPLETES FIRST FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC; IS TO JOURNEY ON TO PLYMOUTH

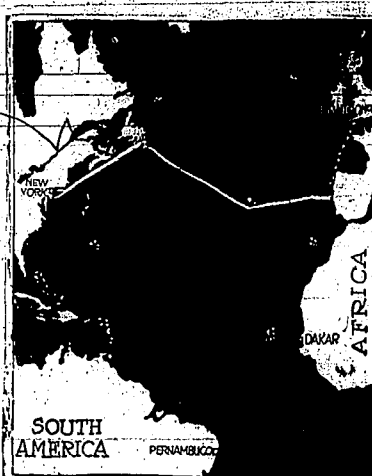

Blazes Way of First Air Trail to the Eastern Hemisphere.

COVERS 800 MILES UNDER TEN HOURS

Flying Time From New Foundland to Lisbon Is 26 Hours and 41 Minutes.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 27.—Blazing the way of the first air trail from the western to the eastern hemisphere, the United States navy seaplane NC-4, under Lieutenant Commander Cushing Read, swept into the harbor at Lisbon, Portugal, today, at 4:03 p. m. Washington time, the first airship of any kind to have crossed the Atlantic ocean under its own power and through its natural element.

ROUTE TAKEN BY NC-4

The course followed, by Lieutenant Commander Read and his crew in their flight from America to Europe is depicted above by the white line. The NC-4 first flew from Rockaway Beach, N. Y., to St. Johns, N. F. From there the ship made its way to the Azores whose position can be plainly seen in the illustration—thence to Portugal.

At the first opportunity, the biplane will continue to Plymouth, 775 nautical miles to the north. Possibly Commander Read can start tomorrow. To the navy department, however, it makes little difference, so long as it completes the journey. The great object of all the effort lavished on the undertaking—navigation of a seaplane across the Atlantic though the air—has been accomplished. "The first of the kind," it was reached a new plane and the United States navy had the way.

Naval officials emphasized that the long delay at the Azores was due to the weather and to no want of skill on the part of the crew, for the failure of the carefully planned flight of the department to guide the flyers to their destination. The 14 destroyers strung from Ponta Delgada to Lisbon reported the NC-4 in flight progressed. The plane was never out of its course and there was no moment when officials in Washington did not know to within a few miles where it was in the air.

To maintain adequate communication for this stage of the journey the destroyers stuck to their posts after the flying boat had passed relaying back to Ponta Delgada reports from ships farther seaward. The chain was not broken until after the plane was safely moored for the night near the cruiser Rochester at Lisbon.

For the next few hundred miles of his epoch-making journey, Commander Read and his crew will be within sight of the Portuguese or Spanish coasts in the sweep northward. Skirting the coast of Cape Finisterre, they will head out across the bay of Biscay to sight Brest, the first western port of France, thence directly to Plymouth. "The destroyers that will guide them across the bay were already in position, tonight provided with the flares and bombs that have made the trip safe thus far except for the one that forced the other two machines of the seaplane division, the NC-1 and NC-2, out of the flight after they had safely negotiated virtually the entire distance from New Foundland to the Azores."

Uses His Old Crew. Commander Read had with him on the flight to the Azores the same crew as left New Foundland on the NC-4, May 16. Lieutenant E. B. Stone, of the coast guard, and W. E. Hinton were the pilots, with Ensign R. C. Rood as radio operator, and Chief Machinist Mate E. B. Rhodes as reserve pilot engineer. The crew was the "old hand" by which the crews of the NC-1 and NC-2 who had preceded them on a destroyer.

The chart of the flight shows how the winds helped her along. At times Commander Read's ship apparently was whirling through the air at a 60-knot clip; again her speed fell off to less than 10, only to pick up again as she reached the zone of influence of other breezes. Probably the machine overtook and passed winds that had stirred the waters about Ponta Delgada the day before, preventing an earlier start.

Report Comes From Brest. Official word of the arrival of the

AERO CLUB GIVES ITS ROYAL WELCOME

Intrepid Airmen Ready for Another Attempt if the Sopwith Company Is Willing.

By The Associated Press. LONDON, May 27.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander Mackenzie Grievy, were given a demonstrative reception on their arrival in London, tonight, from northern Scotland, where they were landed Monday morning.

A forenoon of the great welcome that the aviators were to receive came during the afternoon when Mrs. Zaver went to the railroad station to proceed to Grantham to meet her husband. The throng about the station loudly cheered the plucky little woman who never gave up confidence that her husband ultimately would be rescued.

Arriving in London, headed by an Australian band and a body of Australian troops, Hawker and Grievy passed through the densely packed streets on the way to the Aero club in the procession were the mayor and

UPHOLD RIGHT TO SELL BANK BONDS

Efforts to Halt On Non-Partisan Plans in North Dakota Are Futile.

By The Associated Press. BISMARCK, May 27.—The $2,000,000 issue for capital for the bank of North Dakota was upheld today in an opinion given by Attorney General Langer at the request of Secretary of State Hall. Governor Frazier and State Treasurer Olson already had signed $1,000,000 worth of bonds, when Hall refused to affix his signature, holding that the constitutional bonding limit of the state would be exceeded. Langer's opinion stated the indebtedness of the state at present did not affect the present issue.

Toronto Defers Action and Senator Robertson of Telegraphers' Union Says Willing to Help Scheme.

By The Associated Press. SASKATOON, Sask., May 27.—In sympathy with the Winnipeg strikers a general strike of organized labor in Saskatoon was put into effect today. Of the twenty-three unions here the central strike committee announced thirteen had voted for the strike, four against, two had not voted and four had not reported their votes. It was announced that the local strikers would insist upon reinstatement of all men at the conclusion of the strike without discrimination.

BORAH ET AL MUST VOTE ON CHAIRMANSHIP

Democrats Would Block Plans for Voting on Whole Committees.

PROGRESSIVES ARE ROUTED BY VOTE

Had Chance to Make Speeches—Now in Line for Big Slate.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 27.—Election by the senate tomorrow of Senators Borah, Tompkins and Warren Wyoming, as chairman of the finance and appropriations committees, respectively, is regarded certain as a result of the open conference today of republican senators. Borah, it is noted. The progressives led by Senator Borah, Idaho, were routed by a vote of 34 to 8, in their effort to supplant Senator Penrose and in private statements later agreed that their fight would not be taken to the senate floor.

Republican Leader Lodge plans to present in the senate tomorrow the republican committee assignments with every prospect of a solid vote of the republican majority for their adoption.

Will Urgo Roll Call. The committee nominations are the main business, but the republican plan of holding a separate vote for chairmanships was the chief topic of opposition of the democrats, who were held to be prepared to demand separate votes on the chairmanships so as to require the progressives to record themselves squarely on Senator Penrose and Warren.

Two Were Absent. Those supporting Senator Borah's motion in the conference to supplant Mr. Penrose were, Capper, Kansas; Cummins, Iowa; McNary, California; Hendon, Iowa; Leavelle, Wisconsin; McCormick, Illinois; McNary, Oregon; and Borah. Senators Kellor of Minnesota and Norris of Nebraska, who have opposed Senator Penrose were absent.

SOLDIERS GO ON STAND FOR FORD

Declare They Secured Old President After Return From Mexico in 1917.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., May 27.—Thirteen former soldiers' testimonies today to testify for Henry Ford in his $100,000 campaign against the Chicago Daily Tribune's Judge Tucker's court today. Their testimony was in refutation of charges made in the body of the hated libelous editorial headed "Ford is an assassin." The editorial stated Mr. Ford would not pay his employees who went with the national guard, the Mexican border, would not do for their dependents, nor hold the positions open for them until they returned.

Those who testified today all had been in Mr. Ford's employ when the national guard was mobilized in all all joined the colors and all testified that they were reinstated in their positions or better ones without discrimination when they returned.

LIVED UP TO MOTTO. LONDON, May 27.—British papers are telling the story of a soldier's tank which lived up to the motto on it: "The only good Hun is a dead Hun." The tank, owned by a private, had this inscription on it and was sent by a New York syndicate to be sold for $50,000. German soldiers captured it in one day and destroyed it by unobtainable machine gun rays.

HUN DEMANDS SEEK TO SAVE ALL HOLDINGS

Fleet, Cables, Coal Fields, Merchant Bottoms, All Are Wanted.

WOULD BUILD SHIPS FOR THOSE DESTROYED

But Allies Must Finance Them While the Work Is Being Put Through.

By The Associated Press. PARIS, May 27.—A Berlin dispatch received in Paris gives in some detail the counter proposals to the peace treaty which were agreed on at the last conference of the Germans at Spa.

Concerning the Sarre region, Germany will ask France to give up her territorial pretensions to this region and permit economic control over all the coal output there.

World Safeguard Fleet. It is proposed that the German fleet be transferred to an international trust, managed by the Germans and controlled by the league of nations. The trust would be given the mercantile fleets of all the other maritime nations and every nation would be represented in the central administration in a manner corresponding to the nation's tonnage. Germany announces her readiness to hand over fifty per cent of her mercantile fleet.

World Replica Ships. Besides in conformity with the proposition made by the former director of the Hamburg-American line, Germany will pledge herself to build at her own expense, in her own dockyards and by her own workmen the number of ships necessary to compensate for the diminution in the world's tonnage due to Germany's submarine warfare. In return Germany will ask to be allowed large credits for the payment for raw materials required to carry out the undertaking and to be allowed to receive payment some of her own raw or manufactured goods.

As regards the cable lines, Germany will suggest a system of internationalization which would prevent Germany from participating in the general traffic of nations.

Talk of Other Wars. Concerning territorial questions in the east of Europe the counter proposal

LEVYAC'S DOG SAVES HUNTER MAULLED BY BEAR

PAWSON, May 21.—Bob Levac has had an escape from a grizzly bear that all the Yukon country is talking about. Levac came around the corner of a cabin and met bruin face to face with out time to shoot. The bear reached out and scooped the 130-pound Levac over with one blow of his paw. Levac played possum and bruin mauled him about, rolled him over and over in the snow, nipped him with his teeth and then picked him up by his clothing and shook him like a rat. All this time Levac feigned death. Levac's dog, watching his chance, slipped in and snapped at the heels of the bear until it turned and gave chase. Then Levac snaked away to safety, but the dog was killed. Levac had to travel 24 miles by dog team to Mayo to have his injuries dressed.

"GIVE BACK OUR SHIPS" IS HAMBURG NEWSPAPER CRY

HAMBURG, May 27.—"Give us back our ships. We didn't know you were going to keep them." That is the cry of the Hamburg Nachrichten. "The English got these ships of ours by a mean device," it says. "We thought they were only to be 'interred,' and that in a neutral port. But the English claim that we have surrendered them for good." Let every honest German join in the cry, "Give us back our ships." Their return must be one of the conditions of peace.

JURORS GLIMPSE ROUTINE OF PLANT

Fort-Tyburn Libel Suit Starts Long Interrogation of Witnesses Laying Foundation.

By the Associated Press. MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., May 26.—Witnesses for Henry Ford, who is suing the Chicago Daily Tribune for $1,000,000 damages on a charge of libel, gave glimpses of the routine of the Ford plant today. Opening testimony was along the lines of refutation of the assertion of the Tribune's alleged libelous editorial that at the time the national guard was called out for Mexican border service, Mr. Ford would not hold his employees jobs open for them while absent.

The witnesses were John J. Henkel, head of the employment department; Harry Schmers, his assistant, and Norman M. Baker, a foreman. Baker said he served with the national guard during the copper strike in upper Michigan in 1912; answered the call for Mexican service in 1916 and he had entered the annual Michigan guard campments. He testified during his military service he was always regulated and never discriminated against.

The substance of the testimony of the witnesses was that for years it has been the Ford policy to restate men who ceased employment for sea-

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Yours are the only ones to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Every-body uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you sprinkled your hair, as it does if so naturally and evenly. You cannot see a speck or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking no small strain at a time; by applying the gray hair disappears and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LANSING UNABLE TO ASSIST IRISH

Remarks Attributed to American Delegation Give Offense to British—Bars Way to DeValera.

By The Associated Press. PARIS, May 27.—The efforts of former Governor Durno of Illinois, Frank P. Walsh and Michael F. Ryan, representing Irish societies in the United States to secure safe conducts for Edward De Valera, Arthur Griffith and Count Plunkett to come to Paris to present the Irish case to the peace conference, ended today with a written communication from Secretary of State Lansing to Mr. Walsh. After acknowledging the original request, Secretary Lansing says:

Try to Favor Delegates.
"I immediately took steps to acquaint myself with the facts of the case which transpired before the matter was brought to my attention by your letter. I am informed that when the question of approaching the British authorities with a view to procuring the safe conducts in question was first considered, great efforts were made in an informal way to bring you into friendly touch with the British representatives here, although owing to the nature of the case it was not possible to treat the matter officially. The British authorities having consented that you and your colleagues should visit England and Ireland, although your passports were only good for France, every facility was given to you to take the journey. Before you returned, however, reports were received of certain utterances made by you and your colleagues during your visit to Ireland.

Give Deep Offense.
"These utterances, whatever they may have been, gave, as I am informed, a deep offense to those persons with whom you were dealing. Consequently, it has seemed useless to make any further effort in connection with the requests which you desire to make.

"In view of the situation thus created, I regret to inform you that the American government is unable to make further effort on their part connected with this matter would be futile and therefore unwise."

Walsh Makes Reply.
In reply Mr. Walsh wrote Secretary Lansing a letter, declaring that the Irish delegation had not authorized any one to make an effort to bring its members into friendly relations with the British representatives in Paris or elsewhere, and adding: "We also beg to advise you that at no time in Paris or elsewhere have we sought to deal privately or unofficially with any persons relative to the purpose of our mission."

Asks Wilson to Intervene.
Mr. Walsh's letter then reproduces a letter submitted to the state department previously to obtaining of passports in which the object of the visit to Paris was stated and recited the fact that on arrival he addressed a letter to President Wilson asking the president to secure safe conduct for De Valera and the others.

"The letter goes on to say that after an interview with President Wilson the matter was taken up with Colonel House, through whom the same request was made.

Oppose Secret Treaties.
"The implication in your letter," says Mr. Walsh, "that any person was acting unofficially, privately or secretly is therefore erroneous. Attempts of negotiations on behalf of Ireland in such fashion would not only be violative of our instructions but objectionable to the principle to which we steadfastly adhere, with multitudes of our fellow citizens that a just and permanent peace can only be procured through covenants openly arrived at. The letter concludes with a request for the names of the persons offended by the utterances of the delegation in Ireland and denies that the delegation made utterances not strictly in conformity with the purpose stated in the application for passports.

Is Woman's Brain Equal to Man's?

What Professor H. S. Woodworth, Psychologist at Columbia University, found when he tried army special tests on students.
"When we came to try the army mental tests on our college students, the men came out a trifle better than the women, but one must bear in mind the fact that the subjects were most of them men's specialties. Generally, the girls came out better than the boys when they take mental tests in school, such as memory tests, those for quickness in the cancellation tests, those to denote quickness in picking out a detail.

THE GIFT OF THE FLYERS.

The men first to fly across the Atlantic gave something far more precious to mankind than the mere proof that this feat is possible. They renewed in the heart of the whole world the idea of courage and imagination. Even if neither American nor American, Briton nor Frenchman, had successfully negotiated the trip, still the effort would have been more than worth while. For something as the big planes rose from the earth, the spirits of men lifted with them and their thoughts went up and out into the world of infinite possibilities. Even the prosaic, stay-at-home folk will turn back to craning their necks daily to watch a new light in their eyes, and a new yearning of their shoulders, because the flyers have listened to imagination's whisper that perhaps the impossible is possible after all, and have had the courage and go and see—and prove it.

DROPPED EGGS.

Hereafter when the hungry customer walks into the restaurant and orders "dropped eggs" it is more than likely that his order will be filled not only in the ordinary sense but in solid fact as well, for the latest stunt of the aerial circus post man was to drop a crate of eggs from his airplane while 700 feet above the earth, and speed at the rate of 70 miles an hour. Furthermore, the eggs landed upon the proper spot, and not one of them was broken. The explanation? A brand new effect in parachutes, which was attached to the crate, opened successfully and warded the eggs as lightly to the earth as if each one was the feather which some part of every egg was destined never to become. This stunt must not be held in too light esteem. It marks an epoch in air flight. For if a crate of eggs can be swung out from a speeding plane and land unbroken, it will be but a brief space of time until man will emulate the egg and swing off into space just as the albatross passes over his back yard and drop to earth as lightly as a snowflake before the wondering eyes of his children. These children will no longer flatter their noses against the window pane watching for father to come along the street, but rather they will expect to see him drop in from the sky.

BELOGIANS KING COMING.

It has been announced apparently from a trustworthy source that the king and queen of Belgium will visit the United States next fall. This may be the age of democracy, but there is hardly anyone who could be more welcome in democratic America than these representatives born-and-bred royalty. Of course this is partly because all the world still feels a tinge of romance in the bottom of its heart at the thought of royal personages. But it is even more because this king and queen have borne themselves through these last trying years in accordance with the fundamental ideas of kindly behavior. They suffered danger and privation, they "stood by" like the faithful ones of old, and did all they could to relieve the sufferings of their subjects when they could have used their rank as an excuse for escape. To such royalty as this America will joyfully open her doors and extend the hospitality of her heart.

NO MEN TO MARRY.

June, the month of weddings, finds England and France facing a serious problem in the shortage of marriageable age. The young women of England at an age when they would be most likely to be marrying outnumber the men of similar age two to one. In France 58 per cent of the men between the ages of 20 and 31, the flower of bridegroomhood are dead. This is no matter for light mirth, for time-honored jokes about old maids and like frivolous comment. It is truly a terrible situation as regards human happiness and the continuance of the race in England and France. A natural suggestion has been that these girls emigrate in great numbers to the United States and Canada where the war has not taken such heavy toll of the men. This suggestion has met with some opposition—on this side of the water, the girls of America apparently dreading lest their chances for happy matrimony be less with an influx of willing brides from abroad. But after all, why not welcome those girls? Marriage is largely a matter of selection; and if American Henry wants American Elizabeth, not all the Marys in Britain or Maries in France can stop him. Perhaps the marriageable men of America with the best women of Europe is only part of that burden-bearing which has fallen to America's lot.

NAVY SEAPLANE

plane at Lisbon reached the navy department—first through a dispatch from Brazil, France, sent by Rear Admiral Latham, and then by the American naval forces in French waters. The message was received at the Otter Cliffs, Maine station, and relayed to Washington. Inquisitively Secretary Daniels called the commanding officer of the department to Commander Road and sent a cable to President Wilson telling him that American naval aviators had been the first to cross the Atlantic. "Congratulations, Commander Road!" The message to Commander Road follows: "The entire navy congratulates you and your fellow aviators on your epochal flight. The ocean has been spanned and the daring aviators of the American navy goes the honor of making the first trans-Atlantic flight. We are all intensely proud of your achievement and thankful that it has been accomplished without mishap to any of the daring aviators who left our shores on the first air journey to Europe. To all of them and to you, all honor be due." The cablegram to President Wilson said: "I know you will be delighted to learn naval aviators first to cross Atlantic." Secretary Daniels said today no definite plans for further trans-oceanic flights had been made. He explained that the first trip was the beginning of a series of experiments in the distance flying and that very probably after defects in naval aircraft had been corrected, another squadron of seaplanes would be based across the Atlantic. He said he had not decided whether to attempt the attempt to fly back to the United States or be "knocked down" at Plymouth and shipped back to America.

TO GET NEAR IN MUSKIEAN.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The first seaplane to cross the Atlantic probably will be deposited in the Smithsonian Institution for permanent exhibition as one of the nation's most valuable historic relics. It will be placed in the national museum and take its place with the first heavier-than-air flying machine ever flown in this country, the first steam locomotive, the first cotton gin, the first typewriter, and other famous "firsts."

WILL CONTINUE TRAINING.

It was necessary, Mr. Daniels said, to keep up the navy's record as to training in Great Britain, France and Italy. He added, were waiting on the United States. "The secretary touched upon almost every feature of the navy's work in the war and will continue his testimony tomorrow." There has been no change, he said, respecting a division of the fleet, half of which will be known as the Atlantic and the other half as the Pacific, with two of the best admirals in command of each. The division will be made up of dreadnaughts and ships of every type, he said.

URGES SHEEP DIPPING.

Dr. J. R. Adams, director of animal industry for the state department of agriculture was a visitor in Twin Falls yesterday conferring with J. A. Little, sheep inspector for this section. After the conference Mr. Little issued a notice to the effect that every small farm flock or large sheep owner be watchful for the appearance of scab. It was stated that many times a lamb which was suffering with scab was picked up and put in a flock, resulting in the entire flock being afflicted. In such cases an animal is picked up it is advisable to segregate it, according to Mr. Little.

ABANDON BIG NAVAL PLANS SAYS DANIELS

Entire 1918 and 1919 Programs to Be Wiped Off Slate.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS SAFEGUARDS AMERICA

Other Nations Would Undertake to Keep Pace With America in Building.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 27.—The policy of the navy department for a fleet "second to none in the world" has been temporarily abandoned. Secretary Daniels, appearing before the house naval affairs committee today to outline the needs of his department for the next fiscal year recommended that the entire 1918 three year building program of ten battleships and ten battle cruisers be abandoned, saying that the trend of the world towards universal peace and the operation of the proposed league of nations made competition for supremacy of the seas no longer necessary. Abandoning Past Programs. "The naval secretary asserted that as the United States had taken a foremost part in promoting the league of nations plan, it would be this nation's duty to show faith in the covenant by refusing to authorize further large additions to the sea force. Work on the 1918 program, which was completed as soon as possible, but the 1919 program, which it is estimated would involve an expenditure of more than a billion dollars, should be "wiped off the slate." "There can be no half way ground," he said. "Either we must have the league to safeguard the interests of every nation, or the biggest navy in the world."

REASON FOR CHANGING PLAN.

The reason for the change of policy, Secretary Daniels said that when he appeared before the committee last December and urged additional ship construction, the associated governments had not been completely satisfied with a league of nations plan and conditions made it necessary that the United States should not be caught again as unprepared as it was at the outbreak of the war.

OTHER WOULD FOLLOW.

Mr. Daniels said if the United States did not launch new building programs other nations would follow; the example and change their naval plans accordingly. Great Britain, France and Italy, he added, were waiting on the United States. "The secretary touched upon almost every feature of the navy's work in the war and will continue his testimony tomorrow."

Red Leaders Grow Panicky Stricken As Mobs Become Stronger.

AMERICAN FORCES BEST BOLSHIEVSKI

Kolchak Regime to Be Recognized if It Can Restore Order in the Stricken Land.

By the Associated Press. STOCKHOLM, May 27.—The sound of a heavy bombardment has been directed from Petrograd and Kronstadt, according to advices received from Moscow. The advance report a panic among the Bolshevik leaders in Petrograd, a number of whom, it is asserted have fled to safe funds. Petrograd according to the report is in the hands of Chibrikov, Lait and Finlay's role, who are said to have mastered the soviet authorities after heavy street fighting. Workmen are patrolling the workmen's districts to prevent the Chinese from pillaging. The Bolsheviks have demanded the city, threatening to execute the Bourgeois class if they are compelled to leave the former capital. Americans Hopeful Reds. VLADIVOSTOK, May 27.—(Monday)—Sunday morning two companies of American troops were moved against Kropotkin village, where it had been reported the Bolsheviks were mobilizing with the intention of securing the railroad near Gletok. The Americans were fired upon from the hills beyond the village but suffered no casualties. A dozen members of the red contingent were killed, including a staff officer. Three were captured. The other two hundred were in the firing line. The American morale was high. The American command is taking full measure for the protection of the railway and the operation of all trains necessary.

TO RECOGNIZE KOLCHAK.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, May 27.—The council of four and Japan have offered Admiral Kolchak, head of the Omak government, money and supplies to maintain the Russian government in power. It promises to hold elections for a constituent assembly as soon as it reaches Moscow, or, if conditions are too disturbed to hold elections to convene the former constituent assembly. The provision also carries with it the necessity for Kolchak to recognize the independence of Poland and Finland, and to come to an amicable arrangement with other existing governments in Russia regarding the future status within or without the future Russian plan.

JAPAN ADVANCES.

The council of four secured the adherence of Japan to the new program which was the alternative to Omak. Recognizing that the disturbed conditions in Russia at the time of the arrival of Kolchak's army in Moscow may prevent the holding of general elections, the signatories suggest in that case the alternative of recognizing the former constituent assembly elected under the Kerensky regime. To Be Member of League. The Pan-Russian government is also to become a member of the League of nations, to which any disputes regarding frontiers or relations with Poland and Finland are to be submitted. Under the proposed agreement Kolchak shall promise to recognize the autonomy of the various governments established within the confines of old Russia. Any disputes with these governments are to be referred to the league of nations.

RECOGNITION OF THE RUSSIAN GOVT.

Recognition of the Russian foreign debt was also a condition of the proposal. The solution of the debt problem will be left to the constituent assembly. The proposal of far as can be ascertained, is not one of actual formal recognition, but it is virtually equivalent to it. WHEAT OUTLOOK IS EXCELLENT. Reports received from all parts of the county at the farm bureau indicate a bumper crop of wheat. The yield will be the best in the history of the county. Wheat sown on ground that does not measure up to the standard of the ground of the county compares favorably with that on the best ground, according to these reports. Some acres are getting water at the land, but this is the exception rather than the rule. FILES DISCHARGE PAPERS. Arthur D. Scott and Paul Rowers took yesterday afternoon the discharge papers with the county recorder. Mr. Taber is one of the alternates selected to represent Twin Falls at the meeting of the American Legion.

Sole Survivor and He Must Watch His Step

By FRED TURBYVILLE.

With the passing of Germany, Scheuer, our old friend and Nick Altrock of the Washington Nationals is the sole survivor of the top specialists in the big leagues. And while Nick at times acts a little stiff and dignified he is still funny and gets a lot of laughs.

One thing about Nick's personality—they laugh at him and with him. Morris Ackerman, round fish and grand uncle, was once a contributor to a big daily, but he could never get on the good side of his managing editor.

"Dog gone it," said Morris, "I wish that fellow would laugh with me instead of at me."

Ban Johnson, who thought the game was getting undignified with Scheuer and Altrock making fun back of the umpire and jazing on the bench, once uttered a gem—"So now Nick does his fun-making before the game starts."

DEMPESEY WORKS IN COOL OF THE DAY

Challenger Will Gradually Take On Heat, Preparatory for Hot Weather Scamp.

By the Associated Press.

TOLEDO, May 27.—Blistering rays of sun beat down on Jack Dempsey's training camp today and caused his handlers to again send him through his paces during the cool hours of the morning.

Trainer DeForest sent Dempsey through his "rigorous" workout. The challenge lasted six rounds, four fast, five seasons with Bill Tera, and two with Terry Keller, a light-heavyweight. Keller boxed the second and fifth round to give Tate a rest. Dempsey was on top of Tate from the start and the fight never received a punching that he did not anticipate. One right hand appeared nearly lifted him off his feet.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, plans to gradually switch his progress hours of working so that he will become hardened to the heat of mid-day. Kearns realizes that when Dempsey and Willard get into the ring July 4, the day may be burning hot and that Dempsey will be obliged to stand up under the heat.

MADAMINE TRAVERSE COMING IN NEW FASHION

Local lovers of good motion pictures are to have the pleasure of seeing Madeline Travers, the beautiful Willam Fox Star, in the near future. Miss Travers will be at the Idaho theater today and tomorrow in a play called "Dancing in Sola." This is a story in which a woman returns to a man the same kind of brutal treatment he has accorded her family. This man, a broker, goes Robert Dunlop to invest his fortune in oil stocks and she works out satisfactorily.

Miss Travers, whose ability as an emotional actress is well known, is said to give a very fine portrayal in the character of the woman who is seeking human justice through human vengeance.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sprague and family leave this morning for a three-month visit with relatives at LeRoy, New York.

URGENT NECESSITY FOR RETRENCHMENT

Representatives See Another Big Loan Issue Unless Caution Is Employed in Congress

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Necessity for sharply reducing appropriations for government expenditures was urged upon the house today by Representative Foss, Ohio, and "Red" Heber of Pennsylvania. Mr. Foss declared that unless radical retrenchments were made the government would have to go to the people for another large loan.

Mr. Moore, articulating the policy of the house appropriation committees in reporting appropriations bills, which failed in the last session without conducting careful hearings to determine whether reductions could be made.

Mr. Foss said the deficit the country probably would have to face at the end of the next fiscal year will amount to nearly $11,000,000,000.

Mr. Heber said the money obtained from the victory loan was spent before it was received, he said.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BURN

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains for minutes and inflames, causing a burning, stinging sensation, or setting up irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very painful; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control the urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days.

This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which make them act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here, you have a splendid effervescent lithia water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Interest In Question of Regulation In Twin Falls Since Appointment of "Cop."

With the addition of a traffic "cop" on its main stem to Twin Falls official force, there has been much discussion of the best method of solving the problem of congestion abating here.

At the next meeting of council a traffic ordinance will probably be introduced.

The Chronicle has just received a list of rules and regulations formulated by a New York City traffic expert who has made a careful study of street accidents to motorists.

Here are the rules formulated by the traffic expert:

There are a few rules that children can observe that will decrease the number of accidents, but the motorist must never feel that the responsibility is entirely on the child's shoulders.

Look in both directions before stopping off the sidewalk. The left is most important, because all traffic should be coming from that direction.

When more than one child is crossing the street, hold hands tightly, don't run, and don't separate. The driver can miss you if you become confused, providing you stay together, but if you step separate, one of you is almost sure to be struck.

If a car is standing at the corner or moving slowly some distance away, look the driver in the eye to make sure that he sees you and to learn what he is going to do. Don't look at the front of the car. Look at the driver.

When the streets are slippery, don't take a chance in crossing just because a car is moving slowly.

Don't read letters or books when crossing the street. Don't talk to your

BAPTISTS INDORSE PROPOSED LEAGUE

Churchmen Go On Record As Favoring Proposal As Allocated in Paris Covenant.

By the Associated Press. DENVER, Colo., May 27.—What is said to be the most notable meeting of the northern Baptist convention came to an end tonight with an inspirational service at the municipal auditorium. Tomorrow the 1,768 delegates and 498 visitors will be guests of the Denver Hotel club on a trip through the Denver mountain parks.

Among the resolutions adopted by the covenant before adjournment today was one endorsing the Paris covenant of the league of nations. The resolution says:

"Resolved, that we express our gratitude to God for the return of peace, that we recognize in the Paris covenant of the league of nations a great step in the advance of a Christian civilization, and that we urge every people to use their utmost influence to secure its ratification."

Tonight's meeting was addressed by Rev. W. S. Abernathy of Missouri, Rev. Charles Helm Jopps of Pennsylvania, and A. Barber, president of Rochester Theological Seminary, New York. In the afternoon Rev. James H. Franklin, D. D., foreign secretary of the American Baptist foreign missionary society, delivered an address on the reconstruction work needed among the churches of France. He recently returned from an investigation of needs in the devastated area of France and Belgium.

The league of nations will not end war, Rev. Abernathy told the convention. "There is but one remedy," he said, "and that is society reconstructed according to God's plan. We have been living together these untold generations and do not yet know how to live together peacefully. We never have honestly tried God's plan. Society will be reconstructed only when individuals here and there and everywhere accept Christ's leadership and obey his will."

Summary of the International Situation

By The Associated Press. Germany's counter proposals to the peace treaty comprising a volume of goodly propositions are in readiness for presentation to the peace conference. No official announcement has as yet been made for the time when Count von Brockdorff Runtze will make Germany's final plea for the amendment of some of the conditions of the treaty which are declared to be too severe for fulfillment, but for the time cannot be expected beyond noon of Thursday when the limit for reply expires.

Late dispatches from Berlin indicate that the German document is to contain manifold representations and arguments for a lessening of the severity of terms, not alone from the financial and economic standpoint, but also will regard to disarmament, both on land and sea, but with a plan for maintaining under the league of nations war craft and merchant shipping of the world's nations. Territorial relinquishments also are to be argued against.

Prussia is to witness the receipt by the Austrians of the terms of the peace treaty that has been formulated for the former emperor of the Hapsburgs. The plea of the chief of the Austrian delegation for haste by the allies in making known their terms probably is responsible for Friday having been chosen as the day for the Austrians to appear before the peace congress, it previously having been believed that the ceremony would not take place until next week.

In anticipation of the possibility of a declination on the part of the Germans to sign the peace treaty, Marshal Foch, the commander in chief of the allied and associated armies has made a further inspection of the occupied areas in the west and its general vicinity and reported his observations to Minister of War Clemenceau. The handling of American and British marines at Danzig probably indicates that another step to meet any emergency has been taken.

The question whether the German plenipotentiaries will affix their signatures to the document is still a moot one in Germany. Confirmation has been received of the report that the allied and associated powers are to lend aid in supplies and money to Admiral Kolchak, the anti-Bolshevik leader in Russia, conditional upon the establishment of a constituent assembly and a lawful government in his country. A report from Viborg is to the effect that the soviet authorities in Petrograd have been overthrown. There is confirmation of the report.
