GERMANS SEE DISASTER IN TREATY TERMS

Willing to Make Concessions to Enter the League of Nations.

COVERING NOTE IS VIGOROUS PROTEST

Lloyd George Declares the Teutons Will Sign Either in Versailles or in Berlin.

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, May 30.—Germany is willing to agree to the proposed stipulations regarding her military, aerial and naval forces contained in the draft of the peace treaty, provided that she is permitted to enter the league of nations on an equal footing immediately upon the signing of peace and particularly that she be permitted to share in the complete equality and reciprocity of all nations in the economic domain.

The covering note presented to the peace conference by the German delegation says:

"We came to Versailles expecting to receive a peace proposal framed according to the agreed basis. We had a firm resolve to do everything in our power to fulfill the heavy obligations assumed by us. We are shocked when we read in that document the demands which the victorious might of our opponents had not forth. The more we studied the 'spirit of the treaty' the more we were convinced of the impossibility of carrying it out. The demands in this treaty go beyond the strength of the German people."

"In accordance with President Wilson's fourteen points, he territory ought to be restored to Germany without a plebiscite of all male and female subjects over 20 years of age, voting secretly, and no plebiscite taken until all troops are removed from the disputed territory, which should be placed under the authority of neutral arbiters."

The note declares that people must not be transferred from one sovereignty to another for the sake of time, but instead of giving up European territory for the sake of time, and also offers to supply Belgium with timber also repeats that the offer previously made regarding the Sarre valley and declares that the French mines will be completely restored in ten years."

MAN TAKES SHORT-CUT FALLS INTO DAM; DROWNS
Melvin Lowe was drowned yesterday when he fell from a pipe line into the Murchison dam.

Lowe was working for a man by the name of Dyer who was going after horses on the opposite side of the dam. Lowe's pipe line was a short cut for the dam.

Dr. H. N. Lipo of Twin Falls was called but the man was dead when he arrived there. The body was brought to Twin Falls last evening and is at the Grossman undertaking parlors.

INDIAN WINS MARATHON
LOS ANGELES, May 30.—William Anni an Indian, entered from the Sherman institute near Riverside, Cal., today won the marathon from Los Angeles to Ocean Beach, a run of 34 1/2 miles, in 1 hour, 37 minutes. W. J. Churchill, Olympic club, San Francisco, was second in 1 hour, 58 minutes.

So the People May Know

In The Chronicle of May 23 there appeared a news story from Pocatello stating in effect that there was a split in the democratic party at that place relative to the organization of a newspaper corporation and that one faction favored the removal of a Twin Falls plant to Pocatello. The news story mentioned the name of no Twin Falls newspaper.

That evening there appeared on the first page of the Times in large type across three columns, a statement under the caption "So the People May Know."

In this statement the Times asserts that it will not be removed to Pocatello and in toto denies interest in the Pocatello situation. There was marvel at this bold statement, since the Pocatello story had not mentioned the name of the Times or Mr. Denton, its publisher.

The reason now seems to be apparent. Mr. Denton is interested in the Pocatello situation, and the Times was in error when it denied such interest. Mr. Denton in PERSON was in Pocatello this week, endeavoring to make the deal. Witness in this issue of The Chronicle a news story from Pocatello and a reproduction from the Pocatello Tribune.

It is not known whether or not Mr. Denton plans to move the Times to Pocatello. But if he is not to move the Times to Pocatello, there is naturally aroused the inquiry as to who is to finance the new venture.

Will the Nonpartisan League support and maintain two papers, one in Pocatello and one in Twin Falls?

Will Mr. Denton be at the head of both?

Or will the Times be moved to Pocatello? Mr. Denton or Mr. McKelg might advise, "So the People May Know."

NAVY TO BEGIN RUSH RECRUITING

Captain Leigh Explains to House Naval Committee Necessity for This Measure After Peace

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 30.—To prevent the navy from being left in a crippled condition when the peace treaty is signed automatically releasing 150,000 men from service, the navy department is planning to wage an intensive recruiting campaign as soon as congress has passed how large a navy will be authorized.

Captain Leigh, chief of the bureau of navigation, today explained to the house naval committee that when peace is declared only 125,000 men would be left. He declared, "entirely insufficient" and would leave the navy in a "dangerously crippled condition."

Congress may be asked, Captain Leigh said, to provide for a two-year term of enlistment to stimulate recruiting and also to pass legislation permitting the retention of a larger percentage of the naval reserve than the 10 per cent now allowed.

Summary of the International Situation

By the Associated Press. As a result of President Wilson's observance of Memorial Day, Friday is peace conference week. It is the president's theory that the matter will be settled through an address over the graves of the soldiers, in the Sarre country, by Yonid, time to receive a visit from Premier Orlando and to discuss with him the details of the Armistice question, the settlement of which, it is asserted, is approaching final shape. The council of four did not meet.

Three new notes were handed to the peace conference by the Germans today, the first referring to German property in allied countries, another to the Turkish public debt and the third to the Redoubt question, which relates to Brazilian coffee, seized by Germany during the war.

VILLA LOSES 2-DAY FIGHT TO FEDERALS

Engagement Takes Place at Santa Andreas, Near Chihuahua.

CARRANZA IS PUSHING TROOPS TO THE NORTH

United States Government Had Previously Warned Carranza of the Rebellion.

By The Associated Press. EL PASO, Tex., May 30.—Colonel J. G. Escobar, in command of the Juarez forces, late today, gave out a telegram from General J. A. Castro of Chihuahua City announcing the defeat of a Villa force at Santa Andreas, 45 miles to the southwest. The battle, according to the message, began Tuesday morning and lasted twenty-four hours, the Villa troops, commanded by Martin Lopez, losing one-half of their forces. The federals were under command of General Petronilo Hernandez. The message gave no details of the number of men engaged.

Villa Concentrates Troops. Military headquarters at Juarez declined to give any information concerning conditions at Chihuahua City when which point a large force of Villa troops is reported concentrated. Captain General Andres G. Garcia today issued a statement denying reports that Chihuahua City was in danger of attack. He said a large force of Villa troops had been sighted near the town, but the railroad could not be repaired.

Troops Left Regularly. He also denied reports of disaffection in the Juarez garrison, which, he said, consisted of 2500 well disciplined soldiers all of whom were receiving their pay regularly and were in advance. This latter statement was in reply to reports that soldiers brought from Casas Grandes Thursday had mutinied on account of not receiving their pay.

Revolutionists to Meet. JUAREZ, Mexico, May 30.—There will be a meeting of all the revolutionary leaders in Mexico and Central America at the camp of General Carreras, insurgent leader in the state of Nuevo Leon, on the border between that state and Coahuila tomorrow for the purpose of organizing the movement against Carranza.

VILLA THREATENS AMERICANS. EL PASO, Texas, May 30.—"If the administration at Washington let Carranza troops pass through the United States to Mexico, neither I nor any one else will be able to hold my own."

General Angeles and I shall do all in our power, but my man know that President Wilson, when I was in power in Mexico, treated me as a friend; sent General Scott to visit me and loaded me with honors and, as soon as we were calm, he set out to violate the neutrality laws and bring in soldiers to attack my destruction. I will not be responsible for the lives and property of Americans in Chihuahua."

The statement was made by an American who left France and arrived here on one of the last trains from Chihuahua.

It is claimed that there are 8000 federal troops at Santa Rosalia, south of Chihuahua City, which came from General Dizon's force in Juarez.

General Bowen, deputy clerk of the district court, yesterday morning received a telegram intended for Clarence Bowen, who just returned from France. Mr. Bowen was unable to locate his namesake last evening. The telegram contained information concerning the armistice of the middle of Clarence Bowen, that he should know about.

WIRE MEN OF NATION PLAN TO WALK OUT

Sympathetic Strike for Monday Is Threatened by Telegraphers.

Hundred Discharged at Atlanta, Ga., Must Be Re-instated, Declare the Union Leaders.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—According to announcement here by P. H. McDowell, chairman of the legislative committee of the Washington district council, President E. J. Koenigman of the International Telegraphers union tonight sanctioned an ultimatum sent today to officials of the American Telephone and Telegraph and other wire companies of Atlanta, Ga., in which a nation-wide strike of members of the telegraphers and electrical union workers is threatened unless a number of telephone operators recently discharged in Atlanta and vicinity are reinstated by noon Monday.

The strike, which would at the start involve more than 80,000 commercial telegraphers and telephone workers throughout the country, it was said, would be called as a protest against some of the companies in discharging about 110 girls at Atlanta, Ga., as operators because they had affiliated with the Commercial Telegraphers union. It would become effective at 3 p. m. Monday.

The companies affected would include the Postal, Western Union, leased wires of press associations and all telephone companies who employ members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Commercial Telegraphers union. It further was said that, after the strike would spread to the field of Railway Telegraphers, the membership of which numbers about 800,000 men and to other organizations which work in conjunction with the telephone and telegraph service.

Members of the unions say the action of the companies in discharging the Atlanta operators is in direct violation of legislation passed by Postmaster General Burleson and that the strike is justified as a "show-down."

WORK STOPS IN TORONTO; 8000 STRIKE

First Day of Walkout Passes Quickly; Building Suspends.

WINNIPEG WORKERS PARADE STREETS

Jeer at Nonunion Laborers Labor Minister Says the Move Is Bolsheviki.

By the Associated Press. TORONTO, May 30.—Scarcely a ripple of excitement marked the first day of the sympathetic strike called here to aid metal workers who are demanding a 44-hour week higher wages and improved conditions. Shortly before midnight it was said the strikers numbered between 7,500 and 8,000; that nearly 200 factories were closed; and that construction of about forty buildings was halted.

A convention of organized labor has been called for tomorrow night when the question of calling out more unions will be decided.

Great interest is being taken in the strike by the student railwaymen's union toward the sympathetic railwaymen when the carmen meet tomorrow night.

STURGIS PARADE STREETS. WINNIPEG, Man., May 30.—3,500 workers for the first time since a general walkout, paraded the business district, jeering non-union workers, but offering no violence. Officials of the railway brotherhood are acting as mediators in an effort to bring about settlement.

Because of the possibility of an agreement between the metal workers and their employers, municipal authorities made no effort today to operate street cars. Dismissal of employees who refused to sign the anti-sympathetic strike pledge was left for decision at a meeting of the city council tomorrow.

Robertson, federal minister of labor, today sent the following message to the mayors of Fort Williams and Port Arthur Ontario.

"It is currently reported that a joint meeting of Fort Williams and Port Arthur trade councils has been called for this afternoon for the purpose of taking sympathetic action with Winnipeg workmen now on strike."

"After carefully going into the whole situation here since last Wednesday, I am fully convinced that a general strike at Winnipeg deserves no sympathy from organized labor outside. The underlying motive in calling the strike is, in my opinion, purely selfish and is a blow at international trade unions and in support of the big union movement and with the probable intention of seeking to overthrow constitutional affairs and government both as to federal, provincial and municipal affairs."

REFUSE TO VOTE. WINNIPEG, May 30.—Executive officials of the railway brotherhood, who are now on strike, today notified them that they are prohibited from taking a vote on the question of striking in sympathy with the Winnipeg unions unless such action is formally approved by the International Brotherhood. Sharp action will be taken if the Winnipeg tradesmen attempt to violate this order, the letter stated.

PUBLIC SERVICES ORDERLY. EDMONTON, Alta., May 30.—All public services in Edmonton today were operating normally and all civic employees were back at their work. It was reported that about 25 unions were still on strike.

DENTON TRIES TO MAKE DEAL IN POCATELLO

Democrats in Gate City Are Still Unable to Agree on Policy.

EACH FACTION IS BEHIND NEWSPAPER

Denton Attempts to Line Up Backers—Visits Pocatello and Addresses Meeting.

By the Associated Press. POCATELLO, May 30.—The fight between the old line democrats and the element affiliating with and controlled by the Non-partisan league has yet to run its course. So far, neither element has been able to bring about coordination of purpose and plan. As a result, the newspaper situation is somewhat in doubt.

The radical or Non-partisan element has for some time been angling for a Twin Falls and Nampa alliance which now seems to have been matured, for Dan Denton, publisher of the Consolidated Twin Falls Times and Non-partisan Journal, has been here for several days endeavoring to line up backers.

Denton addressed a meeting of newspaper supporters Thursday night. He urges a combination with a local printing firm and his friends here, say he would like to see the Twin Falls paper in Pocatello.

"Some details of the undertaking are a whole, and the difficulties encountered by the two branches of the local democracy will be seen from the following which appeared in the Pocatello Tribune of last evening:

"A public meeting of local industrialists was last night held in the city council chambers for the purpose of newspaper propositions that have been afloat of late."

"A committee to work for the financial support of the proposed Pocatello Bee was appointed. This committee makes a report before the next meeting of the interested parties, announced for Wednesday evening of next week at the hotel chambers."

"Dan Denton of the Twin Falls Times, a Democratic newspaper, addressed the meeting attended by 15 persons. In his address he made various recommendations for the organization of a new work on the plan of forming a local 'JOB FIGHTING' unit with the proposed paper."

"Mayor Whitaker thought he wanted a co-operative newspaper, stipulating in the articles that no one could own or be the editor of the Pocatello Bee. A Cummings, who was vigorously attacked by Van Johnson, representing the Central Labor Council and in his speech he said: 'If a Cummings might be a lawyer, but he does not own or be the editor of the Pocatello Bee. Cummings' activity is forming the newspaper."

"An attack was waged last night upon the character of E. M. Hunsicker, editor of the Twin Falls Pocatello Times. The attack was made by Mr. Denton of the Twin Falls Times, who was in litigation with Hunsicker in the district court over financial matters. He formerly worked for Mr. Denton as editor of the Twin Falls News, and is up for retrial on a statutory charge."

LAST TOUCHES IN CLEANING.

When the loud sound of carpet beating have died away a bit and the furniture is aired and dusted and is turned to its proper place there are yet a few points of cleaning to interest the really good housewife.

For instance, after all possible dust is removed from the rugs and carpets and they are returned to the place the colors may still look a bit dull and far from the pristine freshness desired. Then the thing to do is to give them a genuine washing, first on the floor, and guaranteed to restore their color and cleanliness. Use a stiff brush, and go over the whole surface with 7. mixtures made as follows: Mix 2 quarts of water with 1 ounce of pure white soap jelly, 2 ounces of gasoline, and 1 ounce of turpentine. Mix well; add 2 ounces of wood alcohol. Open the windows and let dry quickly. To wash the glass windows in the room, pour a little of the mixture in a pan; just enough to moisten the brush, and when the liquid is dirty throw away and pour in fresh. Keep the windows open till the carpet dries.

To clean velvet, furpile, nork a mixture of 1 and 1-2 gallons of water and 1 pint of salt. Add 1-2 teaspoonful of ammonia, and scrub the furniture with a medium stiff brush dipping while it is on the floor.

The linoleum in the kitchen of bathroom may be freshened by washing with equal parts of milk and water, and when dried, given a rubbing with a flannel cloth dipped in boiled linseed oil.

To clean highly polished furniture try washing with a soft flannel cloth dipped in warm water containing a little mild white soap jelly and 1 teaspoonful of turpentine to the quart of water.

Polish and dry with a very soft flannel or silk cloth.

MEXICANS TELL OF GIRLS RESIDENCE

Mystery Over Disappearance of Young Hurley Woman is Clarified.

Two Mexicans were lodged in the county jail yesterday afternoon by Deputy Smith of Turley. The men were arrested as being accessories to the alleged crime of kidnaping a 17-year-old girl by the name of Pauline, to secure a marriage license to marry a Mexican. As a result of the arrest the whereabouts of the Pauline girl which has been unknown for some time, has been ascertained. She is in Salt Lake.

The girl's love affair first came into prominence several weeks ago when County Clerk C. S. Higgins refused to issue a marriage license for her wedding to the Mexican. This news was first published in The Chronicle. Later the girl, with the aid of several Mexicans was able to get married, the ceremony being performed at her home in Buhl.

The girl and the Mexican disappeared. A station which was started and recently California newspapers carried a story that it was believed that she was being carried off into Mexico by bandits and that a posse was sent after her. Reports were that the affair might assume an international aspect.

With the arrest of the Mexicans yesterday the whereabouts of the Pauline children woman was ascertained. She will be brought here from Salt Lake today.

Charges of kidnapping will be made against the two men arrested yesterday.

WATERING SALMON TRACT.

Work of watering the Salmon tract is now under progress, according to reports reaching Twin Falls yesterday. Conditions on the tract look better than they have for years.

By MARGUERITE EDWARDS.

June, 1919, seems destined to put the vote into the hands of American women—just too late to make it of much effect in the national elections of November, 1920.

Why? Because to become effective, the suffrage amendment to this constitution must be ratified by thirty-six state legislatures.

The last biennial session of the majority of state legislatures convened in January, 1919, and adjourned a few weeks later—the next month too late to let the ladies in on choosing the next president.

In order to ratify the amendment in time for the 1920 elections at least six state governors would have to summon the legislatures in special session.

The chances are that that will not be done. As a result the women in the 23 states already enjoying full or partial enfranchisement as a result of state action will be the only ones to participate in the next national election.

TUNNELING THE WORLD

Edgland seems to be going tunnel-mad. There never used to be any great amount of enthusiasm over there for the "Tuppenny Tube" of London; but now everybody all at once is talking about digging railroad tunnels everywhere.

The Channel tunnel has started it. That long-discussed project is actually being undertaken, and it is expected that England and France will have direct railroad communication by the summer of 1923.

It is proposed to tunnel the Bosphorus, so as to provide direct railroad connection with the Orient. It would be possible then to go through from London to Bagdad, or indeed from London to Bombay.

Another plan contemplates the tunneling of the Irish sea. That would bind England and Ireland more closely together, and would make Ireland a "quick entry door" for Americans bound for England or the Continent.

There is another plan for tunneling the Strait of Gibraltar, thus giving direct railroad connection between Europe and Africa. Spain favors the project.

Most interesting of all Americans who suggest put forward by a writer in the London Daily Graphic, is a tunnel under Bering Strait, that would link Asia with Alaska, completing the long chain and making it possible for passengers or freight to travel by rail from Europe to America or indeed from almost any part of any other continent, with the exception of Australia.

SCHOOLSHIP FUND.

The senior class of one public high school is giving a play and supper to raise money for a scholarship fund for the school.

There was no feature of all the many war activities more valuable than the interest and enthusiasm in all sorts of patriotic measures aroused in the public school children of America. These children of all ages and grades did an incredible amount of helpful work in spreading American propaganda, in the sale of stamps and in raising funds for all sorts of war demands. The schools came in contact with the public and public aid, fair as never before in all their history.

It is pleasing to think that all this young enthusiasm is to be turned now to the problems of Americanization and of education which is the foundation.

The public schools should be so financed by public funds that there is no necessity for private contributions but many a sore-hearted boy or girl has been unable to attend high school because of insufficient school funds and lack of money at home. A scholarship fund expressly to care for such cases as in the valuable in the public school as in the college, where it is far more frequently provided.

The class which is devoting its energies to so unselfish and patriotic an undertaking deserves honorable mention.

The Tagelblatt of Berlin says, Germany made a mistake in the time she chose for her week of mourning. She should have begun August 1, 1914. Somebody in Germany has told the truth.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Best! Buy Gray Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready to use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application of two its natural color is restored and it becomes a thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation, or prevention of disease.

War Garden Victorious

SMALL HOME GARDEN, MARION, INDIANA

By JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN.

It is now a truism to say that America is the wealthiest and most powerful nation of earth. We Americans, each all our individual and collective faults, are truly a great people. Sometimes we are so great that we have forgotten ourselves.

When we entered the war we were the best fed people on earth and had been for generations. An incidental proof of this is that the American soldier established Europe with a new physical type, the result of favorable conditions of life and adequate food.

But when we entered the war, at the mere suggestion of the necessity that faced us, the 110,000,000 of us curbed our appetites, denied ourselves sodas, put ourselves on rations and started in penitence to conserve food—and struck to it the necessity was past. It was a most astonishing spectacle.

Not only that, but millions of us voluntarily started in to make gardens and raise food. Many of these voluntary gardeners hardly knew a spade from a hoe; some probably thought that potatoes grow in the grocery store. Certainly lots of these gardeners had no land. But it made no difference. The American people went to gardening.

It's too soon for us to boast of the hold of a book in this war rationing and this war gardening has done in winning the war, feeding the world and benefiting the American people. But anyone interested in getting a first glimpse at what this gardening has done for us should get hold of a book just out, "The War Garden Victorious," by Charles Lathrop Pack. It is not for sale, but it is being distributed to libraries, and to organizations and individuals identified with war garden work.

MRS. THOS. EDWARDS & CO. BURLING, OHIO

Mr. Pack wishing to do a war work which was actually necessary, which was essentially practical and which would certainly aid in making the war successful, conceived the idea in March, 1917, of inspiring the people of the United States to plant war gardens in order to increase the supply of food without the use of land already cultivated.

He thereupon organized the national war garden committee. It was not a federal government body, though it was endorsed by the administration, and the quartermaster general's office cooperated with it at soldiers' camps.

CHARLES LATHROP PACK

Thus there in the social as well as the domestic life, Community gardening, for instance, is practically the only method by which all available garden space may be put to work, by which labor may be most efficiently employed, by which economy in purchasing power may be best exercised and by which it is possible to secure exact supervision. But these things are material. There is a value beyond them, which one finds recorded here, the value of the community spirit as it marks the increasing solidarity of society.

A like value is also recorded in this volume in its description of the gardens established by many large corporations and industrial and transportation concerns for their employees, resulting in a feeling of fellowship not previously existing between capital and labor.

The illustrations truly illustrate the text. The series of striking posters used in the publicity campaign are reproduced in color. There are 61 full-page illustrations in half tone, many of which are exceedingly interesting. The small button garden in Hartford which is shown here, with it is not especially pictorial, but was selected because it is a war garden typical of hundreds of thousands seen the country over—and, let us hope, long to be seen.

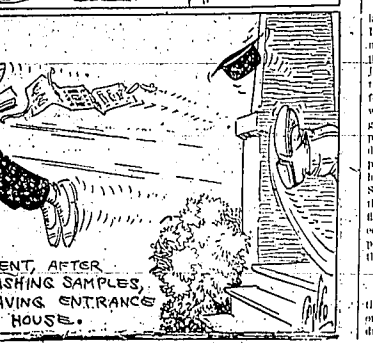

Victory Garden a Fixture.

Mr. Pack predicts that the war garden—now the victory garden—is a fixture. The food conditions of the world will make it necessary for many years, and during that time the value of gardening will have become so apparent that the movement will continue until it has become a fixed habit and firmly implanted in the lives of the people.

Herein lies the tremendous importance of the United States school garden army, which already has a membership of nearly 4,000,000. For the mobilization of the school children (the logical agency was the United States Bureau of Education of the department of the interior. P. E. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Charles W. Elliot, Massachusetts; Dr. Irving Fisher, Yale university, Connecticut; Fred H. Coff, Ohio; John Hays Hammond, Massachusetts; Walter Harrison, Virginia; Elyon T. Herrick, Ohio; President John Gray Hill, New Jersey; President Woodrow Wilson, Illinois; Mr. John Dickinson Sherman, chairman of the conservation department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Illinois; Capt. J. B. White, Missouri; Hon. James Wilson, former secretary of agriculture, Iowa; Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carl Voorhees (for the year 1917); P. B. Hildate, executive secretary, who was also executive secretary of the American Forestry association, with the conservation department of which the commission was affiliated; and Norman O. McLeod, associate secretary. Mrs. Sherman also was appointed by the department of the interior a special assistant director, in charge of women's organizations of the United States school garden army, with which the commission was in close co-operation.

Secretary Lane's special message to the school garden army contains this forceful paragraph: "The boys and girls who come from the gardens of 1918, the garden army officers who assist in keeping the garden efficient, and the teachers who direct the work, will render a patriotic service to be compared only to that of the men who won the war." Mrs. Sherman says: "In the opinion of the 2,000,000 members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs there is no other one subject that will give the physical, mental and moral development to the child that may come from learning to produce food from the soil. We also believe that gardening for children is a part of the school education of a child; that it ranks in importance with reading, writing and arithmetic, and that the schools are the only agency equipped to handle the subject in a comprehensive and adequate manner." The National Council of Women with 20 national organizations is unanimous in its support of gardening for children under school direction.

Co-operation Wins Victory.

Some people might think a book of record and reference on war gardens must necessarily be dull reading. This one, first, it's good reading. Any man or woman can get patriotic life out of it besides learning a lot. Mr. Pack is not laboring under the delusion that his national war garden commission was the whole thing. He knows it was the loyal co-operation of the people that made the war garden such a successful success.

Mr. Pack also appreciates what the press of the country did for the movement. He knows that all the purpose, all the enthusiasm, all the ability of those in charge of the commission's activities have been the result of effort-vanished on the desert air of indifference had not the American press got behind the movement with all its power. The closing chapter is devoted to an illuminating account of the tremendous enthusiasm with which the American daily and periodical press responded to the opportunity and how the publicity material was prepared and distributed.

"The printed word, the most powerful force known to civilization, made war gardens possible. In no other way could they have been made to multiply so rapidly in all parts of the land. From the printer's ink to pens and pencils, to the long jump; but the newspapers and magazines made that jump along with the others, which they made for Liberty Loan, the Red Cross, and various other war-work movements. How much of a debt of gratitude the nation owes to it! It surely will probably never be able to realize fully, but it does know that without their wholehearted support and their loyal assistance it would never have been able to arouse the people of the United States as a whole to the strenuous efforts which they exerted to back up the government and the fighting forces. No note of appreciation to the writers of the country could be overgenerous in its praise or too liberal in its expression of heartfelt thanks for their substantial aid."

War Garden Commission.

That the world faced a deficit in food and that there existed an emergency which could be met only by the raising of more food, was apparent during the early months of 1917.

"Put the slacker land to work" was the first slogan of the commission. War gardens are essentially family-pool institutions. But big business caught the spirit of the hour and capitalized the millions of numbers and the best by the tens of thousands by establishing community gardens financed by it and worked by its employees. The railroads went big business one better; the children of the nation put it over both of these; "daylight savings" gave them all a chance to take time by the forelock; while preserving kettles, canning clubs and dehydrating plants all contributed their several shares in the saving of the fruits of the national endeavor."

Results Are Amazing.

The results were amazing. The 1917 war gardens numbered approximately 3,500,000, and their food products are estimated at $350,000,000. The 1918 reports show 5,280,000 gardens and food products of $528,000,000. The first season 500,000,000 quarts of vegetables and fruits were canned; by 1918 the number increased to 1,450,000,000 quarts. This, of course, is but a small part of the story. It needs such a book as this to show us how many other things there are to the story; as for instance, the releasing of "many kinds of labor" and the lessening of railroad congestion. The book gives an interesting picture of a mighty host, many millions strong, gaining new strength and rejuvenated health by handling the hoe, and getting exercise as good as golf and tennis, more profitable than either and more patriotic than both. The gardens they tilled ranged, from a neglected, weed-matted, rubbish-littered "vicinal lot" to a city park. The boys at Camp Dix went over the top as gardeners at home before they put their opportunities to go over the top as crusaders in the glorious cause of human liberty abroad.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Twin Falls 5, Paul 0.
Filer 2, Buhl 2.
Rupert 5, Burley 3.

Twin Falls went into undisputed possession of first place in the South Idaho league yesterday when it defeated Paul in a good game at the latter place by a score of 5 to 0.

The game at Paul was played in a terrific dust storm that necessitated the calling of the game at the end of the seventh frame. The wind helped the pitchers so that hits were at a minimum, in fact, Thompson of Twin Falls got away with a no-hit, no-run game. He pitched a splendid ball throughout, the big fellow having everything on the sphere. But one ball got to the outfield, a high fly which Hart easily nabbed.

Twin Falls garnered four hits, two of them being credited to Thompson, while Hart and Neuman each beat out a bunt for a safety. This all figured in the scoring.

Paul had a new battery, two imported men from Salt Lake's trolley league. Groechner is the pitcher, while Scott did the catching.

Following is the lineup of the two teams.

Twin Falls—Singleton rf, Demman 3b, Bell cf, Patton c, Thompson p, Whiteel 2b, Watson ss, Neuman 1b, Hart lf.

Paul—Moneur ss, Blackman rf, Hoff cf, Scott c, Campbell 1b, Lundy, lb, Saker lf, Tucker—2b—Groechner p.

FILER MAULS BUHL.
BUHL, May 30.—Filer waltzed into fourth place in the South Idaho league today when it set Buhl back by the score of 22 to 2. The local team was outclassed throughout and had no chance against the heavy-hitting visitors.

RUPERT BEATS BURLEY.
Burley, May 30.—In a well played game on the local diamond this afternoon Rupert went into a tie for second place in the league race when it defeated Burley by a 5 to 3 score. Cold wintry weather kept down the speed shown in past games by both organizations.

DECORATE GRAVES IN ENGLAND.
LONDON, May 30.—The graves of 1,582 United States soldiers and sailors were decorated today in many parts of the United Kingdom. American flags were placed above them by army and navy officials and on each was placed a wreath by representatives of the Knights of Columbus. In each cemetery there were impressive services conducted by the local clergy, large numbers of the townspeople turning out to pay tribute to the Americans.

HE REFUSES TO GET OLD

By Roy Groves.
Like a "two-ton" shell or tender athletes stay with us just so long and then they either become history or a hois in 'the ground." But such is not the case of Norman E. Brookes, for he lit the fuse to championship tennis and has been firing around in that atmosphere for 15 years and hasn't exploded yet. We can't say right off the racket how old he is but he must be all of 45 and when a man plays tennis at 45 he is a trifle beyond the fusing point and dangerous to handle without insurance.

AUSTRIAN TREATY IS BUT SKELETON

Numerous Sections Left Blank, Particularly Those Fixing Southern Frontier—Much Work Yet.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, May 30.—A summary of the skeleton of the Austrian treaty submitted to the smaller nations Thursday for examination is remarkable chiefly for its omissions and reservations. Butcher headings after subject headings followed, rather than by a non-committal display of blank space, or by the statement: "This clause reserved."

This applies particularly to definition of the southern frontier, the reparations clauses and the question of Italian rights under the political clauses. The greater part of the summary, in fact, is devoted to those clauses which are practically identical with the German treaty.

The new clauses are chiefly those dealing with the frontier, the reparations and the internal affairs of the new states and of Austria itself. Under the latter heading is found protection of racial minorities in the new states, against which it is understood the representatives of the new states may address a protest to the council of four and also suit for a revision of the financial clauses, particularly that part regarding the new states to compensate Austria for public property.

Austria also is bound by the treaty to respect the rights and privileges of racial minorities to what is left to her of her ancient domains including the right to use their own language, although Austria is expressly authorized to restrict the teaching of German obligatory.

The treaty will consist of a preamble and fourteen parts, the preamble and section on embodying the consent of the league of nations, as in the treaty with Germany.

Part two deals with "Soldiers." That with Czecho-Slovakia follows practically the old Bohemian frontier, although with the reservation of a possibility of making minor changes there.

As regards the western frontier, the treaty with Poland, which is the question of the union of Westphalia with Silesia, having apparently been dropped, despite the protests already undertaken in the province of Westphalia, the southern frontier of Austria is determined in the treaty.

Part three contains political clauses including also some of the reserved geographical provisions, and clauses establishing mixed commissions to determine their limits. The sections regarding the future of the Danube, the Adriatic and Czecho-Slovakia, Jugoslavia, Poland, Hungary and Rumania. Here are found the stipulations for the protection of racial minorities, which so far as the treaty in Austria is concerned, are to be established by "bill of rights" as part of the Austrian constitution.

ESCAPE OF LUXEMBOURG MURDERER CAUSES SENSATION

By the Associated Press.

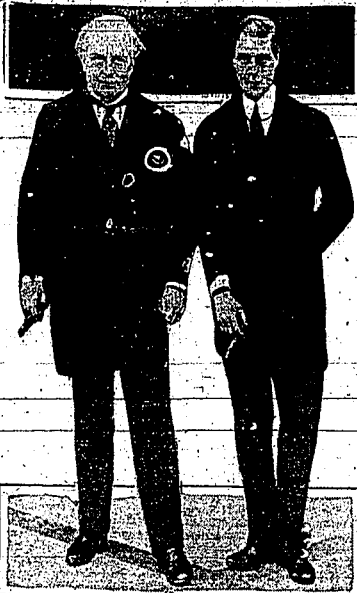

DUBLIN, Thursday, May 29.—A sensation has been caused by the statement published by the Independent newspaper of Dublin that Lieutenant Vogel, who was convicted of the murder of Rosa Luxemburg, the radical socialist leader and who recently escaped from prison, has been released under a false order and was now at the German legation in Holland, awaiting the next steamer to Argentina. The statement led to an immediate official investigation and the government has issued a declaration that it will proceed independently against all participating in Vogel's flight.

VETERANS THREE WARS IN PARADE

New York Pays Homage to Soldier Dead With Flagrant Symbolism of National Conflicts.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 30.—New York today paid grateful homage to veterans of three wars—best figures in the blue and the gray who were last glory in the days of 41, men in the prime of life, who shouldered guns in the clash with Spain, and youngsters who experienced the awful horrors of modern war in beating back the German hordes in Flanders and France.

Thousands reviewed in the columns which lined up Riverside drive. "Thin" things' ranks of blue, growing ever thinner through the years, showed today how inevitably age must give way to youth before the attacks of time. Many had fought with others in the civil war, for outnumbered men of the blue, as members of the American legion, turning out in full force, marched proudly, even reverently, over their own wars.

Governor Smith, Mayor Hylan and Major General John F. O'Rourke reviewed the parade at Ninetieth street, which lined up Riverside drive. Preceded by mounted police and soldiers, hallow and marines, the veterans of American wars began their march up the drive at 12nd street.

Following the parade veterans were held in various parts of the city, the chief being those at the soldiers and sailors monument as at Grant's tomb.

An impressive ceremony was held in Bowling green, where flowers were strewn on 12 mounds of earth, marked by wooden crosses, symbolic of the thousands of American graves in Flanders fields.

In Battery park, Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes of the Roman Catholic diocese of New York celebrated military high mass.
