Burlison Hands Telegraph and Telephones Back to Companies.

STRIKE IS ORDERED SOUTHEAST CITIES

Telegraphers' Union Head Orders Men Out Immediately in Large Zone.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Telegraph and telephone companies whose lines have been controlled and operated by the Government since August 1, were ordered today to resume immediate operations for their own account by Postmaster General Burlison. The postoffice department, however, under terms of Mr. Burlison's order retained a measure of control of the postal system pending final legislative action by congress.

Charge Against Discrimination

Regulations prohibiting discrimination against wire employees because of union affiliations, maintaining existing rates and charges and insuring companies to keep financial accounts to regular cost settlements and the government are retained in effect under the order issued by the postmaster general.

Mr. Burlison appointed the order with a statement giving the reasons which prompted him to take the action. He asserted the president having recommended the return of the properties to the private interest companies, having indicated that the return of the wires was desirable and that the companies should be permitted to operate through regular channels.

When Powder Lets Go In Pennsylvania Mine Tunnel

WILKESBARRE, Penn., June 5.—Eighty-three dead and fifty others burned and maimed, many of whom will die, as the toll of a disaster in the Williamsport tunnel of the Delaware & Hudson Coal company by the best and scariest of this city early today. Seven bags of black powder, 300 pounds in all, were detonated and the dead and the maimed were literally roasted by the superheated gas flames following the explosion.

Men Going to Work

The tragedy occurred while the men were on their way to work. Owing to their working places being two miles from the mouth of the tunnel the men were riding the trip in a train of fourteen mine cars drawn by an electric motor the powder being carried in two cars in the middle of the train.

The train had penetrated the tunnel about 100 feet when one of the maimed cars, the overhead trolley sagged and touching a steel powder bag formed a short-circuit. In an instant there was a shower of sparks and a flash of light. A great plume of smoke drove by the air in great volumes the helpless men who were huddled closely together in the cars with no possible chance to escape.

Rescue Corps Work

Rescue corps went to work to find the dead and injured were rapidly brought to the surface.

When the rescuers first entered the tunnel they found the dead and dying piled in heaps in the cars and along the tunnel. Bodies of the dead were burned to cinders. Of the dead thirty were found dead in the tunnel and fourteen others succumbed to their injuries at hospital. Only 45 have been identified.

Assistant general manager Buchanan of the Delaware & Hudson Coal company says it is his opinion a steel bar or drill carried by one of the men came in contact with the overhead wire, forming the short circuit. According to the company figures 150 men and boys were being carried by the train.

The council of four is still engaged in efforts to reach a satisfactory conclusion with regard to the counter proposals made by the German peace delegates. It also is working on the clauses of the Austrian peace convention which had not been completed when part of the treaty was handed to the Austrians.

Replies to Paris and to the Council of Four

Replies to Paris and to the Council of Four will be made by the Germans before the end of next week. This probably is due to the complicated nature of the questions under advisement. It is understood the financial clause of the Austrian peace convention has been arranged, but that no sum has been fixed for Austria to pay. This matter, it is said, is to be left to a commission which will decide the amount to be included in payment after an examination into Austria's resources.

Premier Paderewski of Poland

Premier Paderewski of Poland has entered a protest to the peace council against any change being made in the peace terms regarding Silesia. It has been reported the council was considering an alteration of the original conditions.

The Austrian cabinet, it is asserted, is undecided whether to accept the peace terms.

The newspaper continues to declare the terms are unacceptable, and a report coming by way of Copenhagen that the German cabinet has given throughout Austria Friday as an expression of the feeling of the population against the terms.

A delegation of South Africans has called on Premier Lloyd George in Paris, and requested his intervention in their behalf.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 6.—A hollow three-inch shell, used in striking a gas or smoke-like density by day and luminous at night, used to transmit messages from division headquarters, is advanced on secret positions, is another war-time record which has now been made public.

This form of communication was first used by the Germans and afterward adopted by the allies. A sample of the shell—one that was captured from the enemy during the Sicilian drive—was brought home by Vice Admiral Albert Gleaves on his return from France.

According to Admiral Gleaves, the shell has a range of about 2000 yards, and is self-propelling. Its velocity was such as to require 14 seconds to travel that distance, "slow enough" the admiral said, to enable an active man to dodge it, should he see or hear it coming. When it struck it could be readily located by its smoke cloud by day, or its light by night, picked up a cap uncrowded and the message inside delivered to the officer for whom it was intended.

Direct telephone service between Key West and Havana will be a reality by December, according to Colonel Sautesh Behn, who announces that the submarine telephone cable connecting the mainland and Cuba which was planned before the war will be laid within the next few months.

At present the most prominent American and English engineers are working on the scheme, according to Colonel Behn and the laying of the cable will be commenced this year.

The submarine cable from Cuba to Key West, according to Colonel Behn, is but the first leg of a cable telephone system which in time will connect all the Greater Antilles.

"The development of the telephone during the war has made it possible for us to plan now for a submarine telephone cable system which three years ago was not dreamed of," said Colonel Behn. "The first leg of the system from Key West to Havana in itself will be the longest submarine telephone in the world. At present the submarine telephone across the English channel is the longest."

Mr. Behn was president of the Cuban Telephone company when the United States entered the war. He volunteered and was commissioned a captain in the army signal corps. He is connected with banking interests in Cuba.

What are the... How do... cana? What is the... What are the... Americans have been asking all these questions... Uncle Sam has taken the mandate to manage and have Armenia under the league of nations... I will try to answer these and other questions to give Americans an intimate picture of the Armenians and Armenian life...

First, it should be understood that there are two groups of Armenians. The people of the cities, generally speaking, have become westernized, like the Armenians in America or Europe. They wear European clothes. Their manners and customs are the manners and customs of the west. Many of them have been educated in the American schools and colleges of the near east, and speak English fluently.

Dress of the interior Armenians has a distinctly eastern flavor, though it has been gradually compromising with the dress of the Occident. Some women still wear veils which come well up over the chin, but they never cover their faces to the eyes as do many Asiatics and Turkish harem women. The veils are surely coming down and many women have discarded them entirely.

Aside from the western tendencies, style in the interior change almost perceptibly. Grandmother's wedding dress, carefully laid away, might be worn by the grandmother bride, if the Kurds or Turks hadn't stolen or destroyed it by that time.

Favorite these is coffee (simonoon), a soft milk soup and a sharp flavor, reputed to be very healthful. Butter, cheese, eggs and chickens you may find in any Armenian interior home.

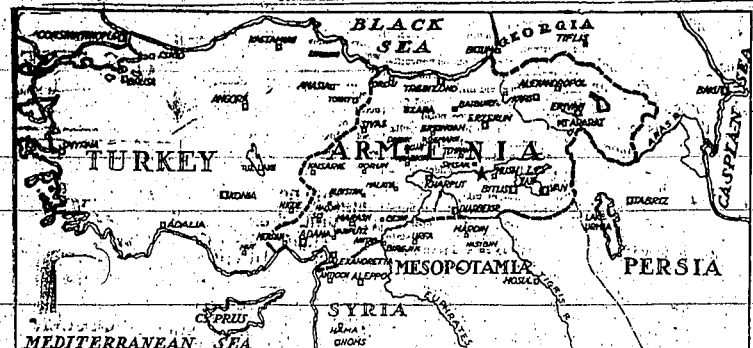

Food here and custom are now becoming there are no refrigerators and no butchers in the small interior villages. The farmers preserve these meats by boiling them in salt water and pressing them into packs.

Hot rice and cream or bread with a thick layer of melted butter and sugar, delights the hungry Armenian not just as it delights the hungry American.

The Armenians are outwardly more metropolitan in their manner toward the west, toward men of accomplishment or science, respect, a superior or worthy of high repute than most Orientals. This manner coming from the Orient, it retained by the Armenian in the cities, and elsewhere to a less marked degree. The people are kind and hospitable, though in the interior, probably the most over-optimistic due to long oppression.

By Professor A. Der Hagopian. Member of the Armenian National Delegation to the Paris Peace conference; Professor for many years at famous American Robert College, Constantinople.

This is the first official map showing the newly defined boundaries of Armenia and was issued under the authority of the Armenian National Delegation at the Paris Peace conference. It shows the cities of Armenia and gives a good idea where the nation is, in relation to Constantinople. The star just west of Lake Van shows the spot where the Armenians plan to build a new capital city.

MEXICAN TROUBLE WILL REACH COURT

Witnesses in Ford-Tribune Case Will Give History of Border Outrages

By the Associated Press. MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., June 6.—Witnesses who came here four weeks ago from Texas and New Mexico to testify for the Chicago Daily Tribune which is being sued by Henry Ford for $1,000,000 damage, today charge 47 lies, and who have been giving evidence, were cheered today by informants that in all probability their testimony would be called for tomorrow.

The border witnesses would be the first called. All have business interests which they say demand their return to their homes. Mr. Kirkland said that a serial story of the Mexican outrages all along the border on American soil would be unfolded by succeeding witnesses beginning with those in the Brownsville, Texas, district, and working west through the Big Bend district and El Paso to Columbus, N. M., the scene of the most serious of the raids. This story, having been told, the details plan to enter Mexico itself with tales of murdered foreigners, robberies and vast properties left while their American owners, in fear of their lives, were refugees in the United States. It is estimated that six weeks will be required to complete the case.

Counsel for the Tribune objected to all of the evidence introduced today, most of it on the grounds of remoteness to the issue on trial. The editorials and the cartoons were introduced by plaintiff to support his charge that the Tribune story was untrue. Mexico to divert supplies from the enemies of Germany, and that specific malice arose in the breasts of the publishers against Mr. Ford because he opposed the use of force in the country south of the Rio Grande.

show that a family relationship between the families of Colonel J. R. McCormick, one of the publishers of the Tribune, and Harold F. McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, and certain property interests induced by the Tribune's Mexican policy. The harvester company gets large quantities of steel used in binder twines, from Yucatan, while the Standard Oil company imports crude oil from another part of the republic.

Judge Tucker said the relationship established seemed very remote. The depositions showed Mrs. Katherine McDill McCormick, mother of Colonel J. R. McCormick, owns 500 shares of Standard Oil stock, and Colonel McCormick has 146 shares.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray. Look young. Prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of letters recommend this ready to use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, after another application or two the natural color is restored and it becomes a thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THE BOND QUESTION.

Voters of Twin Falls will today decide whether or not the city's improvement program will be carried out.

If we desire street improvements, we will support the bond issue at the polls.

The necessity for such improvement is beyond question. There are none who venture opinion that our streets are "good enough."

The only question, then, is one which arises from the plans for improvement as outlined by council. It is quite natural that all could not be pleased. Council may have, and perhaps did, err in some regards. But even so, the necessity for paving is so great that it would seem wise that the present plans be accepted, the bond issue approved by the electorate and work begun as quickly as possible.

Let us not wade through another wet season like those which have gone before.

TO HANDLE THE PANHANDLER.

There is no reason why the hobo should return to American life. He disappeared with the war by going to work. There is work for him today and there will be plenty more later on for there is going to be a greater shortage of labor than the country ever knew.

But the panhandler is trying to come back to panhandling. He is in the streets of the cities and the towns. He is "riding the rattlers." He has his hand out for money or anything he can get without labor.

In Camden, N. J., the mayor encountered three on his way to the city hall. When he got to his office he summoned the chief of police. They went out and rounded up the three and then the vagrants were put to work. For twelve hours they had to labor cleaning the city hall from cellar to cupola. They got their meals and a small amount of pay, but they had to work. When they had given to the city hall the best cleaning it ever had received they were told to go.

They crossed the Delaware in a hurry. And more that show up will be put to work cleaning public buildings, but somehow Camden is panhandlerless, since the word went out by grapevine telegraph of how the hobo is treated.

FIND A HOME.

"Find a Home" is to be the motto under which a group of prominent club women in an eastern city will work this summer and next fall. The homes are for orphan children now in the care of the humane society and living in the institutions provided for such cases.

Experience has shown that children brought up even in the most carefully developed institution in many cases fail to develop the initiative and individualism which they of all children in the world most need.

Aside from this, the ravages of flu and the casualties of war have flooded almost all orphanages beyond their capacity, making outside provision a necessity.

It is the practice of this particular humane society to pay a small sum for the child's board, and to help with its clothing wherever necessary. This makes it possible to interest not only the wealthy but the which should be undertaken gladly and should meet with enthusiastic response.

TEETH.

An animal with 2500 teeth—the duck-billed dinosaur. He lived in Wyoming eight million years ago, stood 45 feet high and looked like a kangaroo. See his petrified skeleton in the American Museum of Natural History next time you visit New York. He will have more visitors after Broadway is dry.

A scientist, addressing an assemblage of long-haired men and short-haired women selects the duck-billed dinosaur as his text. He points out that as man becomes more civilized he has fewer teeth. Eventually he will lose them all. This generation finds its jaws too short—not enough room for the wisdom teeth. Remember when you cut yours?

Cracker-barrel philosophers of small towns used to talk about digging our graves with our teeth. Either by eating too much or neglecting the masticators: Rheumatism, tuberculosis, bad blood, stomach disorders, even insanity—frequently caused by unclean teeth.

English marveled at our doughboys' shining ivories. Tooth brushes are responsible for that—have much to do with the difference between ruddy-cheeked Yanks and sickly cockneys of the London slums. "Born with the Chimes"—and without prophylaxis.

Teach your children to keep their teeth clean. Tell them it will mean less castor oil, more happy play, fewer visits of doctors with bitter medicine. Dental experts, examining school children say 59 per cent of them have diseased teeth and gums, the common cause of "growing pains." Small wonder the bright lad is the exception.

The tooth brush habit is recent. Even as late as 1754 the polished Lord Chesterfield had never heard of one. The fine gentlemen of those days wore wigs and oiled their hair, but had to fumigate their mouths with arquebuse water. Like the period before bath tubs and running water, when the French perfected perfumes, they had to get near each other.

Why do Americans have the best teeth in the world? Why did the dandified Kaiser insist on an American dentist? The Indians taught us.

Dr. Marshall H. Saville of Columbia university digs into ruins, discovers: Long before Columbus was born, even 1500 years ago, the Aztecs had perfected dentistry to an art. They filled cavities, made crowns and bridge-work—Aztec—dudes had conspicuous holes in their teeth filled with inlays of gold or turquoises—as perfect-fitting a job as you could get today. They left records showing that they even used coca, from which cocaine is extracted, as local anaesthetic.

Many centuries later, in 1796, it was an event of much comment when Josiah Flagg—one of the first American dentists—advertised: "Transplants both live and dead Teeth, Sews Up Hare Lips, Extracts Stumps, Lines and plumbs Teeth with virgin gold, Foil or Lead. Fixes gold roofs and Plates and artificial Teeth, greatly assisting the pronunciation and the swallow. Also, chaw-sticks, which are to be sold both wholesale and retail, that they may be more extensively useful. Dr. Flagg has a method to furnish those Ladies and Gentlemen or Children with artificial Teeth, Gold Gums, Roofs or Plates, that are at a distance and cannot attend personally."

Maybe the public is wrong about it, and the peace treaty is a party issue. But the public is still unconvinced.

and a total of 25,000 discovered that 65 to 75 per cent of hens called were unprofitable. It is estimated that there are 225,000 hens in the country and if the same per cent would be unprofitable, 150,000 of these would be unnecessary. Mr. Moore stated yesterday that he has been able to visit a more average set of farm flocks in this county than any where else and that the high average of culls is not surprising.

In speaking of his work just before leaving, Mr. Moore said: "An explanation of the low percentage of culls in Bonneville county as compared with Twin Falls county, I wish to state that I have so far filled but one schedule in Bonneville county. It is natural that in my first work in any section, the best flocks are brought to my attention and the percentage of culls would be comparatively low. This has been true, probably, in both Bonneville and Twin Falls counties."

"But my work has now passed in Twin Falls county beyond that stage. The understanding of the work and the interest in it have become so widespread that I have been called to flocks good, bad and indifferent. These farmers having poor flocks have virtually said, when most of their hens have been culled out as unprofitable, 'I knew these hens were no good. They have never laid many eggs. And I'm going to get a lot of good flocks to animals that produce nothing. I shall get rid of the whole lot of culls. And I'm going to have hens from now on that have egg-producing quality and prove it. Tell me where to get them.'"

"When farmers take this attitude, nothing enrages the poultry industry from becoming the paying proposition it ought to be and can be. No state has better prospects as a poultry producing state than Idaho. It is a young state. When farmers take the same interest in and acquire the same knowledge of poultry that they have for other livestock then the poultry industry will begin to realize the possibilities in it."

near. The full claims of the Jugo-Slavs, it adds, probably will not be met. The paper says that Dalimata will go to Italy, while the Jugo-Slavs will get the port of Sebenico.

The Jugo-Slavs are satisfied with the principle of territorial policy of the "Austrian peace treaty." Mr. Denon, the Czech-Slovak foreign minister, has informed the Temps.
Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, sent a formal letter of protest to the peace conference complaining that the armies of occupation in Germany are arbitrarily protecting and favoring individuals who are attempting to establish a Rhenish republic. The protest adds that the armies are also preventing loyal Germans from manifesting counter feeling.

GERMANS ENTER PROTEST.

BERLIN, June 5.—The German peace delegation yesterday entered a formal protest against alleged French machinations in the Rhine, pointing out the danger of disturbance of the peace negotiations since Germany will be unable to meet her obligations if the Rhine district is lost. Hence, it was declared, the situation must be cleared up before the signing of the peace terms could be contemplated.

FAIRCHILD'S CASE AGAIN TO FRONT.

Frank Guillen was lodged in the county jail last evening by deputies from Burley. The Mexican is charged with a statutory offense against Amy Fairchild, 16 years old, of Burley. Miss Fairchild was arrested as witness in the case.

This step in the action being brought against the Mexican follows the release of the two men last week on a writ of habeas corpus. At the time the men were held it was not definitely known where the Fairchild girl was living, but the Fairchild girl was located in Salt Lake and will appear as a witness against the man.

The case first came to the attention of the authorities when Guillen and the girl, accompanied by another Mexican endeavoring to obtain a marriage license at the recorder's office here. The couple made another attempt to get a license in Burley. Eventually on April 25, the girl disappeared.

Accounts So Tangled That Exact Amount Is Not Known.

AUDITORS DECLARE RECORDS INCOMPLETE

Binder Twine Sold to Various Firms Without Accounting is the Claim.

LANSING, Mich., June 5.—The report of the Detroit Trust company submitted to the legislature today showing a shortage in the accounts of the state prison at Jackson amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars brought demands from legislators that a further investigation be made and the matter placed in the hands of a grand jury.
The trust company which recently completed an audit of the prison accounts, reported the books show a shortage of approximately 1300,000 while the accounts are said to be faulty and so many of them are missing that the amount may be considered larger.
The report states accounts have been juggled to conceal the actual condition of affairs and that much valuable prison property is missing or unaccounted for.
Accounts of the binder twine industry, the trust company reports, show the largest shortage. Thousands of dollars worth of twine, it is said, was sold to firms in various cities without an accounting and records of payments are declared to be so incomplete that the exact loss to the state was not determined.

CANADIAN DEBT IS $220 PER CAPITA

Will Have to Pay $115,000,000 a Year For Interest, Says Financier.

By The Associated Press.
OTTAWA, June 5.—Canada's debt, when expenditures authorized for the current year are made, will aggregate $1,950,000,000, or $220 per capita, Sir Thomas White, minister of finance, announced in the house of commons today.
The interest would be $115,000,000 a year, he said, the expenditure being exclusive of pensions amounting to $25,000,000 to $45,000,000 annually.
A large increase in the income tax will be authorized as one of the measures to meet obligations.
Features of the new tariff proposals include free importations of wheat, wheat flour and potatoes from countries extending a like courtesy to Canada and a substantial reduction on the duties on agricultural implements.

"Houses Roofed With Gold"

"Houses roofed with gold," of which Marco Polo wrote from his travels, is not mythical. On first arriving in Japan I made a journey to Otoko Yama, a central Japan, January 27, 1871, to test the story.
For centuries gold had little more value in Japan than in South America when Balboa sought the Pacific. Even until 1850 gold was worth only four times as much as silver. I found at the Shinto temple, erected 520 A. D., a gilded rain conduit which encircled the whole of the eaves of the roof, but after the long wars only 80 feet or so was left.
Even at the Vienna exposition the solid gold plates on the dolphin from the Nijoyn castle attracted attention. It is historically true that in early Japan there were roofs of gold.—W. G. Griffin to New York Tribune.

Getting Full Value of Flowers. Highly ornamental vases are attractive in themselves but, as flower holders, they may be said to be partial failures, as they do not serve their purpose to the fullest extent. They rather attract attention to themselves, than set off the bloom for which they are designed. A vase of plain material or color, or one on which the design is obscure is more to be desired, as it presents the flowers in their full beauty, and does not distract one's attention. In the same way, a vase of inferior workmanship is a little that blinds with the flowers it holds, is far more attractive than one of contrasting color. Vases that are to be used for all kinds of flowers might better be green, or a dull shade, as this resembles the plant coloring and is not noticeable.

... remarkable thing about the aphids is their partnership with other insects. Many forms of the aphids are fostered and protected from the beginning to the end of their little lives by the industrious ants. This partnership seems to have reached a most perfect form in Zea of the corn root-aphid, and the cornfield ant, and it is usually found that where there are aphids there are ants. Operation of the Ant-Aphid Alliance.

The partnership of ant and aphid in the cornfield ant and the corn root-aphid separates in nearly every section where corn is grown out of the Rocky mountains, especially in some of the corn belt states. The workings of the partnership have been explained to a suburban dairy, with the aphids as the ants' "cow"; the ant directing the enterprise, the aphid doing the work, and the ant getting the profit. The ant is not directly harmful to the corn, but the aphid is. Without the ant, however, the firm would have to go out of business, and that is why the United States department of agriculture tells farmers who want to get rid of the corn root-aphid to get rid of the ant. This same advice applies in the case of certain other forms of root-aphids.

This is how the subterranean dairy works.

In the fall the ants carry the eggs of the aphids to their nests and care for them as they do for their own young. In the spring when the eggs hatch, the ants tunnel along weeds roots and place the helpless aphids on the roots. Soon the aphids begin to give off "honeydew" made from the juices of the plants on which the aphids are resting. The ants dearly love "honeydew," and they tenderly watch over and care for their "cows." The aphids are wholly dependent throughout their life on the ants.

Except Aphids Seized by Ants.

The ants, two or three generations of aphids live entirely on the roots of weeds, but as soon as the newly-planted corn sprouts the ants transfer the aphids to a more succulent corn.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Best Laxative, Uric Acid, Backache or Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must refresh them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poisons, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy; full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uric acid waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before

Grain

CHICAGO, June 5.—Improved crop conditions tended today to give the best a slight advance in the corn market, but led to no aggressive selling. Prices closed unsettled. No net lower to 1/2c advance, with July $1.70 to $1.71, and September $1.59 to $1.61.

Oats—Little to 1/2c to 1c.

Provisions—The outcome ranged from 40c decline to a rise of 27c.

Most of the traders in corn showed a disposition to sell only on bulge and not to buy except on breaks. The result was to hold the market within relatively narrow limits. Friends of lower prices laid chief stress on reports that the crop "is very" although it seemed to be doing "very" although on the other hand, "advice" from other sources was outstanding. Chicago farmers to arrive led to numerous rallies in which an export house led the buying.

Excellent weather and crop reports seem to handicap bulls in the cash market.

Weakness of hog quotations together with the Hoover speech led to a general selling movement but not to a general selling movement. Subsequent recovery in commission houses.

A GRIFTH MARVEL

For the first time in five years Mr. Griffith has wrapped his film around homestead humanity, and has found a niche in the hearts of his patrons, laughable in details and tenacious effect. With his repeated triumph in great productions, many persons have associated Mr. Griffith with tremendous spectacles, thunderous dramas and the grandeur of battle. But in "A Romance of Happy Valley" his genius is engaged in chronicling simple American life, and has accomplished his task with superb accuracy and unrivaled charm.

IF YOU WALK UP WITH A BAD BACK and bowels and tubes in control; if your head is dull or aching, if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated or nervous, asleep and can't get feeling just right, begin "medicating." Drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poison and joining from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous wastes, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you feel before your back, nerves and muscles, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish tinge, which is not unpleasant.

Put two teap and water set on the stove, add one teaspoonful of limestone phosphate and freshening "hot" water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorders should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real branks on the subject shortly.

Borah Charge Starts Trouble.
IDAHO SENATOR
HINTS NEW PARTY
Flays Taft and Casts Fling
About Traveling Expenses of Former President

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 5.—In more than five hours of heated debate today the senate ran the whole scale of issues involved in the peace treaty fight.

Starting with the controversy over publication of the treaty, the discussion drifted to principles of the treaty itself and of the league of nations and before it was finished involved sharp charges of partisanship and politics from both sides of the chamber.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, leader of the friends of the treaty, charged that Chairman Lodge and Senator Borah, of Idaho, had made an attack "of a most scandalous nature" on the president in their statements of the copying of the unpublished treaty in New York.

A searching investigation was demanded by the Nebraska senator. Lodge replied in kind.

Senator Lodge replied there was nothing to report that he would welcome investigation, which should include also the democratic state department.

Senator Borah made a similar statement and then charged that there was "a conduit" between those backing the treaty to deliver copies of the unpublished treaty to Taft and those who possess information as to what is in the treaty.

Tonight Acting Secretary Polk of the state department took a hand in the controversy through issuance of a statement denying a declaration of Senator Lodge during the debate that the state department had told newspaper men financial sections of the treaty were in the hands of financial interests in New York.

Lodge Makes Denial.

"As far as I know," said Mr. Polk in the first formal expression on the subject that has come from the department, "the copies of financial and reparations sections are not in the hands of unauthorized persons."
Months ago it became known that Senator Hitchcock, in asking for an investigation of the channels through which copies of the treaty reached New York, was acting with the backing of the White House. The resolution directing foreign relations committee to investigate was introduced yesterday. It was said authoritatively after he had been requested to do at a White House conference.

This development, together with the statement of Mr. Polk, was taken into account by the senate. The chief of the president and the state department may take a more direct part in the treaty controversy.

No vote was reached during the day on either the Hitchcock resolution or the resolution to accept California, republicans of California, asking the state department for a treaty text. The latter, leaders hope, may be brought to a vote tomorrow, but the Hitchcock feature probably will not come up again until Monday.

Hitchcock Makes Charge.
In calling up his resolution today Senator Hitchcock directed Senators Lodge and Borah had "insinuated broadly" that President Wilson had allowed copies of the treaty to go to New York financial interests. The two senators, he continued, would themselves have asked an investigation had they really made the charge in the public interest.

Senator Lodge denied that he had made any mention of financial interests, and said the copy he saw was shown him in confidence by "a friend" who had no interest in it. He said he had no information as to how the copy reached the country and could not divulge the name of his informant without committing a gross impropriety.

Senator Lodge denied that he had ever suggested President Wilson was responsible for the copies reaching New York, but continued that some of the people at Paris "are thoroughly saturated with business interests in New York." He said Mr. Taft's speeches throughout the country that the former president must know what is in the treaty.

Borah Slaps Taft.
"There is no doubt," asserted the Idaho senator, "between the league to enforce peace and those who possess the information with regard to what is in the treaty."
When the government starts investigation I suspect that he will sell some of republicans accept it as such.

Borah Takes New Party.
"If the democracy endorses the league in 1920," he continued, "and the republicans keep silent, there will be a party that will spring up to stand for American ideals. I am not speaking for any individual along here. I have been through the country and know how strong the sentiment is."
Mr. Borah did not mention in the senate the purpose he announced last night to put a copy of the treaty in the congressional record if it could be secured from New York. He told inquirers, however, that the copy had not arrived.

Referring to Mr. Taft's speaking tour for the league of nations, Mr. Borah said the ex-president constantly was making the statement that the treaty could not be made effective without the league covenant.

"If that is true," continued the Idaho senator, "it presupposes that Mr. Taft knows what is in the treaty."

Senator Hitchcock interrupted to say that Mr. Taft only was asserting that there must be some international power to enforce the peace terms on Germany and to maintain the new nations set up.

"I don't know how you'll do that with the league of nations," replied Mr. Borah. "It has no power to do anything except to super-induce war and bring on war. It is utterly powerless to prevent war."

Senator Borah added that the former president had made a promise to make public opinion so strong that the senate would "be whipped into submission."

Reed Takes a Hand.

"In that connection," interrupted Senator Reed of Missouri, a democratic opponent of the league, "let me call attention to the fact that the chairman of the democratic national committee, accompanied by the secretary to the president, now are touring the country under the claim of calling together the state committees with reference to party affairs, but that in each instance is made in each case to have a ratification of the league by the democratic state committees. This same chairman has even gone further and stated he is the representative of the president in this business."

Senator Borah put into the record a statement by Lord Robert Cecil, calling upon this country to make any necessary "sacrifice" to secure the league. This, he said, was a fair sample of the feeble propaganda flooding the United States, especially from Great Britain.

"We heard a great deal in this country," continued the Idaho senator, "before we went to Versailles, about the freedom of the seas. But we have heard nothing about it since."

MOCATELLO DOKIES TO PUT ON WORK ON 1921

Announcement has been made that Mocatellos Temple, Acom 200, B. G. K. K., is making arrangements for the organization here on June 19. This is one of the features of all gatherings of grand lodge meetings of the Knights of Pythias.

TOURISTS BEGIN TO MAKE THEIR APPEARANCE HERE

Automobile tourists are beginning to make their appearance in Twin Falls. Yesterday a Ford car that had been driven through from Texas was here with a party of four in it. It is anticipated that from now on there will be a larger number of tourists here daily. Council will be requested to designate a lot to be used as a parking ground.

By followed by a nationwide strike within a few days.
"I took the step immediately upon learning that Postmaster General Durleson had ordered wires returned to the companies," Mr. Koenekamp asserted. "Authority for it was extended by a strike vote taken some time ago, which has been held up to see if we could not negotiate a peaceable settlement. It is very likely that the strike will also involve the Postal company, but that cannot be determined yet."

WILL NOT STOP STRIKE.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Return of the wire utilities to private ownership will have no effect on the general strike planned for June 16 unless the private companies restore the policy of collective bargaining, labor leaders announced here today.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING.
ATLANTA, Ga., June 5.—Extension of the strike here of telegraph and telephone employees belonging to the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America to all members of the union employed by the Western Union Telegraph company in the ten southernmost states, had no effect on the local situation and company officials tonight said the walkout order had had no noticeable effect on telephone and telegraph service throughout this section of the country.

P. G. Penville, president of the Atlanta council of the telegraph union, however, asserted dispatches were being received hourly from cities of the southeast showing that members of the union were obeying the order as rapidly as it reached them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Allen returned yesterday afternoon from California where they have been for the past few weeks on their honeymoon.

A Sweeter Story Has Never Been Told On Screen Than
"A Romance of Happy Valley"

This is a D. W. Griffith picture, and Lillian Gish, most charming of screen artists has been given the task of its interpretation. All Griffith pictures draw crowds. This is the most charming picture Griffith ever produced and there will be no advance in price.

D. W. Griffith has now spun a romance around home-grown humanity, and he has found a classic in its folds—a vivid, tense, humorous story of "the folks at home" in our own sunny Southland.

"A Romance of Happy Valley" is a sweet-as-honeysuckle romance of a youth and a maid who lived in the slumbering toll road region of the Mississippi Valley.

D. W. Griffith has painted his characters as if in soft pastels. The sweet, trusting nature of the girl—LILLIAN GISH—he has showed in delicate shades of iridescent pink. The boundless ambition of the boy—Robert Harron—he has touched with fiery red.

The boy's insatiable desire to "make good," to be a "real man" in HER eyes, prompts him to leave home, promising to come back on the 365th day. (Just like a kid, isn't it?). All that remained to remind her of his was an old weather beaten coat he had put on her scarecrow pole.

A PAGE FROM THE BOOK OF LIFE
As ADVERTISED

The year comes and goes. Another year. And another and another, until eight have passed. Then comes the typical Griffith climax. No. You DON'T know what it is. You can't even guess, because D. W. Griffith always gives you something unexpected. He gave it to you in "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," "Hearts of the World," "The Great Love," and "The Greatest Thing in Life." Now come and see the unexpected in "A ROMANCE OF HAPPY VALLEY."
