LEAGUE SUPPORTERS DISCUSS FEATURES

Wilson Displeased With Shaming Provision but Believes Japan Will Yield Territory Later.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 10.—The peace treaty with its league of nations covenant was laid before the senate by President Wilson today in an address accounting to the country for his part in the negotiations at Versailles.

The league, declared the president, was born of the conviction of practical statesmen that an international concert had become a world necessity to end the old order and guarantee civilization. He asserted that it is a treaty which would lock up the world for America for leadership, and added that while the treaty might not be exactly as the American delegation would have written it, no vital principle had been sacrificed by the necessary compromise.

SENATE MEMBERS' PRESIDENT

The senate, already divided in a bitter fight over the league proposal, received the president with cheers and listened to his words in grave silence. When he had concluded there was another burst of cheering which he had passed on to the senate. Wilson had gone to his capital office, where he talked for an hour with senators who wished to ask about specific features of the treaty or of the negotiations. In these conferences the president discussed freely such subjects as the disarmament committee, the German indemnities and Irish treaty.

Entered No Controversy. In his address, however, there was no direct reference to many of the questions around which senate debate has centered, the president declaring he could not construe details of the treaty in a short address. He did not directly mention the Monroe doctrine, Shantung or the obligations assumed under article 10 of the league covenant, nor did he allude to the proposal to write reservations into the constitution. He expressed a hope that he would be given an opportunity to discuss details later, either with the whole senate or the foreign relations committee.

Offers His Services. "My services and the information I possess," said Mr. Wilson, "will be at your disposal and at the disposal of your committee for foreign relations at any time, either informally or in session, as you prefer, and I hope that you will not hesitate to make use of them."

American Isolation, the president asserted, was ended twenty years ago when the war with Spain put the nation in partial control of Cuba and the Philippines.

"But we have not exploited them," he continued. "We have been their friends and have sought to serve them. There can be no question of our ceasing to be a world power. The only question is whether we can reverse the moral leadership that is offered us, whether we shall accept or reject the confidence of the world."

"The stage is set, the destiny disclosed. It is come about by no plan of our conceiving, but by the hand of God who has led us into this way. We cannot turn back. We can only go forward, with lifted eyes and freshened spirit, to world the covenant."

World Needs Covenant. Alluding to the skepticism with which the plan for a league of nations first was received, the president said that as the peace negotiations proceeded it became apparent to all the delegates that such a concert was a practical necessity, demanded by "all the peoples of the world." For the United States to reject it, he declared, would "break the heart of the world." Pointing out that many compromises were necessary to secure the support

GERMAN TROOPS CARRY OFF STOCK

PARIS, Wednesday, July 9.—The German delegation at Versailles was requested today by the peace conference to draw the attention of the German government to the fact that German troops who are withdrawing from the west bank of the Ystun river, in accordance with the treaty, are carrying off with them the stock and furniture from farms.

WETS CLINGING TO HOPE FOR BREWS

Time for Demobilization of Army Better to Be Specified, Liquor Lobby Urges in Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Because of its bearing on the rate of war-time prohibition, President Wilson's view on demobilization of the army would depend upon the speed with which Germany executed the military terms of the treaty and with which the pact was ratified by the various nations, was widely discussed today in congressional and other circles.

Prohibition advocates expressed the opinion that demobilization probably would not be completed before the country became dry by constitutional amendment next January. 10. They said Germany had from one to four months in which to carry out the military terms; that the president believed American troops should be maintained on the Rhine during that time and that in all probability the men there could not be brought home and "muzzed" out much before the first of May.

"Those favoring the repeal of war-time prohibition insist that it affects demobilization and has not given up hope, however, as they believe prohibition might be declared complete when the army had been reduced to the 325,000 men authorized in the new army appropriation bill. Plans of the war department now are to bring the army within this figure in September.

Consideration of legislation for the enforcement of both war-time and constitutional prohibition was resumed today in the house while the speaker, Secretary Baker, was engaged on the principal features of an enforcement measure to be laid later before the full committee and after approval to be submitted to the senate.

This senate sub-committee was said to favor a bill less drastic than that being considered in the house but agreed on a definition of intoxicating beverages as those containing more than one half of one per cent alcohol. Committee members said recommendation would be made for a prohibition commissioner, under the department of justice, to enforce the law.

WILL TO HAVE AMERICAN CENTER OF LABOR ALLIANCE

NEW YORK, July 10.—Efforts will be made by the American labor movement to have the United States selected as the seat of a new international federation of trade unions, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, announced tonight at the time of his departure to attend the congress. Regarding the Mexican situation, Mr. Gompers said: "To my mind, it would be the gravest wrong which could be inflicted upon the people of the United States as well as upon the people of Mexico if the Jingo spirit which now seems to be in the course of manufacture should drive us into things like a conflict with the people of Mexico."

ERRATIC FRENCH AGE MEETS DEATH

Crashes to Earth in Effort to Avoid Collision With Other Machines.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, July 10.—Sub-Lieutenant Jean Navarre, who was one of the first aces among the French aviators during the war, and who was withdrawn from the service because of his eccentric escapades, fell while flying in the vicinity of Versailles this afternoon and died soon after in a military hospital.

He was about to land at the airfield at Villacoublay when, in trying to avoid a collision with other machines, his airplane crashed.

Navarre was officially credited with bringing down 12 enemy airplanes although the Paris newspapers credited him with the destruction of nineteen enemy machines.

He was awarded several decorations by the French government for his exploits. In April, 1917, after his imprisonment from the service he was arrested and placed in a military prison charged with having run down several policemen of Paris with his airplane.

WIND HELPS GREAT BLIMP ON ITS WAY

R-34 Over 1000 Miles From Mineola When Last Reported.

DIRIGIBLE TRAVELS 60 MILES PER HOUR

Sends Messages of Thanks to Men in America—May Reach Scotland Saturday.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 10.—Aided by a wind that sometimes reached a velocity of nearly 40 miles an hour, the British dirigible R-34 tonight was well out over the Atlantic on the return trip to East Fortune, Scotland, after a stay of 88 hours in America. The last message from the airship, received late today by the post department, gave her position at Bar Harbor, Me., and more than 1,000 miles from Mineola, Long Island, from which she started last night.

Good Sixty Miles An Hour.

The dirigible, according to wireless reports, averaged more than 60 miles an hour for the first fifteen hours of the return flight and at times the speed reached between 75 and 80 miles an hour. The dirigible thus was making better time than at any period of the flight to this side of the Atlantic and if weather conditions remain favorable, naval officers here believe the R-34 will see British shores early Saturday.

The first word heard from the R-34 after the dirigible left American shores this morning was a radio message sent at 4 a. m. giving the ship's position at 130 miles east from Long Island. Direct communication was maintained with the navy department thereafter. At 10 a. m. a message said the dirigible was then making a good 55 knots an hour, equivalent to about 64 mile miles. An hour later the R-34 signalled that the wind was becoming stronger and that

BRYAN OPPOSES FRENCH ALLIANCE

Former Secretary of State, Favors League of Nations but Objects to Other Compact.

By the Associated Press. BOSTON, July 10.—Endorsement of the league of nations and opposition to a treaty placing the United States to go to the aid of France in case of unprovoked assault upon that nation by Germany was voiced today by William Jennings Bryan, former secretary of state, who is here today. "I am not in favor of an alliance with any country," he said in an interview. "An alliance would discredit the league of nations. It would preclude a lack of faith in the effectiveness of the league and would be a destructive force working from within against the perpetuity of the league."

Read, commander of the NC-4 in the pioneer air passage of the Atlantic, was presented today with the gold medal of the Aero Club of America, at a luncheon given in honor of the commanders of the three planes which took part in the historic flight. PRESIDENT OF IRELAND HERO OF GATHERING

Wildly Greeted by Cheering Thousands in Madison Square Garden

DENOUNCES LEAGUE AS FAVORING THE BRITISH

"Irishmen Want Their Country, and It Is Rightfully Theirs," Asserts Sinn Fein Leader.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 10.—An enormous crowd attended a meeting tonight in Madison Square Garden under the auspices of the Friends of Irish Freedom at which Eamon De Valera, "president of the Irish republic" was the chief speaker.

Twelve thousand men, women and children forced their way into the garden before the doors were closed under orders from Fire Chief Kenlon, several overflow meetings were held from the hotel to the streets nearby.

In the garden bugles and fife and drum corps were scattered throughout the big hall. American flags and the green, white and orange of the "Irish republic" floated side by side from the balconies.

When DeValera was introduced wild cheering burst forth from noses, balconies and floor, members of the audience jumping to their feet and waving flags and hats vigorously. The orator lasted only 15 minutes. The uproar was heard outside and the cheering was taken up in the streets.

Explains the Meeting. It was Mr. De Valera's first public address in this city. Supreme Court Justice Oliver F. Coleman presided.

With the Irish president, seated next Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois, Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City and Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia, who recently returned from France, the orator, on behalf of the Irish Americans, attacked the league hearing at the recent conference for delegates representing the "Irish republic."

Justice Coleman said the purpose of the meeting was threefold: To pay honor to the president of the "Irish republic"; to welcome home the "Irish American colonists"; and to protest against the proposed league of nations, which he only an attempt to force the world into a nothing more than an Anglo-American alliance.

Bellamy Breaks Loose. Medium broke loose when Mr. De Valera, flanked by standard bearers carrying the flag of the United States and "Irish republic" advanced to the front of the platform to speak. Chides of "De Valera De Valera!" thronged across the auditorium.

"That is New York's recognition of the Irish republic," he said. "The Irish fathers of the Irish republic were Orangemen, or rather were protestants," continued the speaker. "I have not forgotten that the idea of this republic was founded in the north and I am certain that England's interfering hands were taken away from the appearance of division would disappear. And when I mention Belfast, it will be now, I am sure to New York, to tell you that in that city there are more Irish nationalists than in Cork."

Want Their Country. "Irishmen want their country," it is rightfully and lawfully theirs.

"Irishmen want their freedom; freedom to live their own lives; to be their own men; freedom to stand along their own lines; freedom to express their own national individuality; freedom to trade, art and literature; freedom to raise their own standards; freedom to live their own lives; freedom to come out upon the world into the big world to share in its activities, to act and be acted upon and to contribute their quota to human achievement."

"At the last, freedom from the famous libel spread by the organized official propaganda of the league government in order to hide the nature of their role in Ireland. Out in the open of the people's eyes; freedom to come out upon the world into the big world to share in its activities, to act and be acted upon and to contribute their quota to human achievement."

43 MORE ARRESTS MADE IN BISBEE

I. W. W. Act As Complainers In Swearing Out Warrants In Deportation Cases.

By the Associated Press.
BISBEE, Ariz., July 10.—Thirty-three additional prominent Hispanics were arrested late today for alleged participation in the deportation cases of July 12, 1917. The total arrests to date are 41. All have given bail of $2,000 each. Several defendants were arrested on two or more counts, separate bond being required for each count. The preliminary hearing for the eight arrested yesterday has been set for July 11; those arrested today for July 12, before Judge W. C. Archer, justice of the peace, at Douglas. Fifty more arrests are expected in the next three days, according to a statement issued by Assistant County Attorney Roark.

"It is not unlikely," said Attorney Roark, that further arrests will be delayed until the opening of the trial, of those already arrested is determined due to the expense. It is possible that these first cases will be used in later cases. Another factor entering into it is the long delay that is due to the fact that the time for each defendant's hearing in justice court (not counting postponements) will occupy one day each. When the cases reach the superior court, it will be months before the date of trial is definitely ascertained and exactly anticipated.

Several of the most prominent defendants for whom warrants are in the hands of the sheriff, including J. C. Greenwood, general manager of the Arizona and California Mining company, Gerald Robinson, chief consulting engineer Copper Queen Mining company, Dr. Sign, chairman state dental board, and other town.

J. P. Chace, complaining witness in two charges, has served a term in the Arizona state penitentiary for murder. Pete Cogola and J. P. Holman, other complainants, are members of the I. W. W. Citizens arrested include mechanics, miners, merchants, bankers, councilmen, doctors and heads of corporations.

LINER TEARS INTO ICEBERG HEAD-ON

Gramplan Saved From Fate of Titanic by Striking Bow on Instead of Glancing.

By the Associated Press.
ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 10.—Two men were killed and two injured when the Allan liner Gramplan, Montreal for Liverpool, collided with an iceberg off Cape Race last night. The steamship with 750 passengers and a crew of 250, arrived here this morning for repairs.

The killed and injured were stewards who were asleep in the bow of the ship when she struck. Virtually all the passengers were awake but, although there were more than 500 women and children aboard, there was no panic.

That the Gramplan did not suffer the fate of the Titanic, with considerable loss of life, is believed to have been due to the decision of the captain to strike the iceberg bow on instead of glancing along her side.

The liner, which was carrying 750 passengers, encountered in the fog 45 miles off Cape Race in the early evening.

The entire fore part of the ship was smashed in above the water line, the stern being driven back nearly 40 feet, but she was undamaged below the water line.

RAIN IS SAID TO CROPS ON TRACT

Reports Indicate Plant Life Freshened—But Slight Moisture on the Summit Region.

Intermittent rain and thunder showers which started yesterday noon and continued throughout the afternoon and evening will be of general benefit to the crops here.

This is the general feeling among observers who have been studying the situation. While the rain was not of sufficient intensity to thoroughly soak the ground as desired, it will freshen crops now in.

It is generally hoped that the rain reports will continue for several weeks. July is usually a month of rain in this section and if the average is maintained the shortage of water will not be as keenly felt.

While the rain was general in the immediate vicinity of Twin Falls and for most of Mullanagh and west to beyond Filer in other sections it was only of a sufficient amount to lay the dust, according to word received by C. F. Green of the telephone company.

The reports from Hollister were to the effect that the amount of moisture was slight and would be of little benefit, aside from laying the dust. The same reports were obtained from the north side.

FISHING INDUSTRY TIED BY STRIKES

All Ships Except Those Operated by United States Shipping Board Affected by Walk-out.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 10.—A strike of marine firemen, oilers and water tenders was called today along the entire north Atlantic and Mexican gulf coasts from Galveston, Tex., at Portland, Me. The strike leaders assert that the entire fishing industry and all privately owned vessels will be tied up by the walk-out. The strikers demand an increase of fifteen dollars a month in wages and closed shops.

The strike is effective against all ships except those operated by the United States shipping board, and three delegates have been chosen to go to Washington to confer tomorrow with the board. The leaders claim the shipping board has given a tentative acceptance to their demands, but that if the agreement is not carried out the federal boats also will be tied up. A sympathetic strike has been declared by the Fishermen's Union of the Atlantic which, according to its president, John H. Polan, has 12,000 members. The combined number of those on strike, according to their leaders, is 25,000. They say that there are 150 ships in New York harbor affected and that others will be tied up as soon as they arrive in port.

Secretary Oscar Carlson of the Fishermen's Union said the men were ordered out yesterday because the American Steamship Association had refused to treat with the union in any way or to recognize it.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thorne left Wednesday evening for Chicago where they will remain until Saturday.

Miss Hazel Bishop and Miss Eva McDonald left Wednesday evening for Dahl where they will remain until Saturday.

TWO-CENT POSTAGE.

The war rates on first-class mail matter have now been lowered, and letters may be mailed for two cents as of now, as formerly. Postcards are likewise reduced from two cents to the old one-cent rate.

It may seem a trivial thing. Many people say they care little what the letter rate is—they spend so small a part in their income on postage. But it is no trifling to the government. That extra cent on letters and postcards increased the postoffice revenues $120,000,000 in less than two years.

You paid it. Everybody paid it. Though some naturally paid more than others. It bore with special weight on a business concern that use the mails freely for correspondence and advertising.

It resulted in some useful improvements and reforms, such as stopping the wasteful old practice of always sending receipts for small payments, even when they are made by checks, which, when endorsed, are good enough receipts for anybody. It also stopped the cluttering of mails with some useless correspondence. But in the main, it was a tax on intelligence and thus a tax on communication and thus a tax on intelligence and constructive business. So it is well established.

The government still needs money. It can raise it better in some other way.

NO OIL FIREWORKS IN LEAGUE

It stipulating terms are resorted to in case of the peace treaty, it will be the first time in the history of the country that such a thing has been done. In all previous cases the senate has been left to the work of accepting or rejecting the proposed terms without a direct appeal to popular opinion.

It is perhaps a good thing that this most important treaty in the world's history should be presented directly to the people. The people are vitally concerned in all of its provisions, and they are the real judges.

There is one great danger, however, in this public appeal, and that is that crafty political purposes may be hidden under eloquent and stirring language, and people may be led by fiery and catching speech to make false decisions. This has been done in many a campaign on less important issues.

To guard against this it is most desirable that men of clear views and purposes should be chosen to present arguments for or against the treaty, including the league of nations, and that audiences should be on guard against applause, misleading oratory. The man who cannot back his statements with clear, concise reasons understandable to the plain people should be driven from the platform.

Great issues are at stake, and it is a pity that party politics can enter. If every voter will make an earnest effort to inform himself on the league of nations, which is of course the stumbling point, and will subscribe to no argument which is not manifestly free from party of personal prejudice, a minimum of harm will be done by the mere speech-jugglers.

ASKS THAT AMERICA STABILIZE MEXICO

Great Britain and France Suffer From Carranza Government's Failure to Pay Debts.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Renewed representations on the Mexican situation have been made to the American government by Great Britain and France. It was learned today at the state department. For several months these countries have been urging upon the United States the desirability of putting Mexico on her feet so that she might resume the payment on her national and other debts and afford adequate protection to foreign lives and property.

British citizens are holders of a considerable amount of Mexican bonds, both national and railway, while the French have extensive investments in the banks which it has been charged were looted by the government under the guise of obtaining loans.

Nationals of both countries also hold extensive interests in oil properties.

It was said many French citizens of moderate means had invested their savings in Mexican bonds, on which they had received no interest for six years and the French government was reported as particularly anxious that these investments be protected.

State department officials gave no indication that there had been any change of the American government's attitude toward Mexico. It was said that continued and increasing pressure was being brought to bear on the Carranza government for the protection of American lives and interests there, and that Mexico also had been informed of the new representations made by Great Britain and France.

Strong westerly winds were predicted over the western Atlantic as far east as the 49th meridian and probably much farther.

How to Jump Into First Place.

On each 2-year subscription to The Chronicle or approximately its equivalent in shorter term orders, 40,000 votes are allowed—providing same is received at the campaign department before 9 o'clock Monday night, July 21.

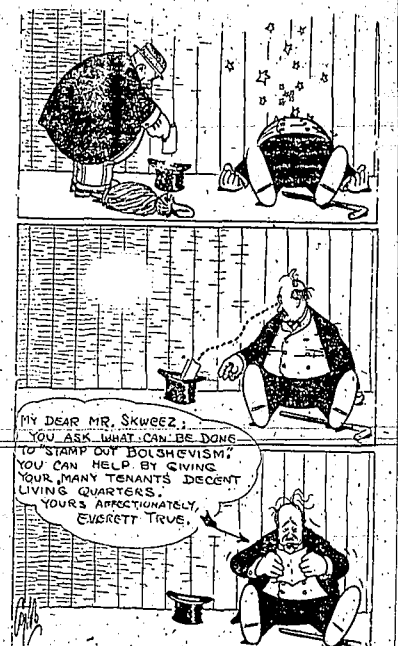

Then, in addition to that, 50,000 SPECIAL EX-TRA votes are allowed on every "club" of $24.00 turned in.

Therefore, two 2-year subscriptions (amounting to $24.00 in business) means 130,000 votes.

It can readily be seen by glancing at the vote totals above that just a few such subscriptions for any candidate would furnish a new leader in the race; in fact, an ENTIRELY NEW CANDIDATE what at this time has no votes at all, could, by a little enthusiastic action on the part of themselves and friends, climb to the top of the list and thereby acquire the leadership for the big prize automobile.

And, when one takes into consideration the value of the prizes to be awarded and the short time the competition is in force, they are well worth any effort they might take to secure.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Batters Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared, and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Give your kidneys clean water to keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity.

Drink lots of water—you can't get too much. In 24 hours the body obtains from 1500 gallons of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

GOVERNMENT HOLDS BACK DEVELOPMENT

Governor of Utah Argues Policy Providing for More Indians Than Exist.

By the Associated Press. SALT LAKE CITY, July 10.—The government's policy of restoring water rights and land for Indians in Utah, was strongly reworded today by Governor Simon Bamberger in a speech before the Rocky Mountain Coal Mining Institute. He declared that the development of some of the west's most valuable resources was being hampered because the "government is holding water rights and lands intended for the care of 5,000 Indians when not more than 2,000 exist."

Governor Bamberger's remarks came at the conclusion of an address of welcome to the coal mine operators and are said to have been due to a recent trip through the Uinta hills in Utah in which section, he said, some of the greatest resources of the nation are being allowed to lie dormant because the lands and water rights are reserved "for Indians who died fifty years ago."

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks have internally now instead of heating their system with drugs. "What an inside habit you say? Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles of you could but live these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women, to wit, immediately upon arising in the morning drink a glass of hot water with a tablespoonful of limestone phosphoric acid. It is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liberate and the liver free of impurities of the previous day's waste, your bile and indigestible material left over in the body which, if not eliminated every day becomes food for the millions of bacteria which, infect the bowels of the quick result in poison and toxemia which are absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, constipation, stomach troubles, kidney misery, impure blood and rheumatism and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next but who simply cannot get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of Limestone phosphoric acid from the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening, so hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

FORD'S SON NEVER WORE THE UNIFORM

On Witness Stand Young Man Tells of Never Having Entered United States Army.

By the Associated Press.

DETROIT, July 10.—The 25-year-old president of the largest automobile company in the world, son of Henry Ford, who, having been characterized as an anarchist by the Chicago Daily Tribune, in a charge of libel, appeared as a witness in Judge Tucker's court today.

Other witnesses were Colonel R. R. McCormick, president of the Tribune Company, and Ernest G. Lieblich, general secretary to Henry Ford.

Mr. Ford's testimony dealt mainly with a financial statement of the Ford Motor company which was put into the record over objections of counsel for the plaintiff to show, Attorney E. C. Stevenson, for the Tribune, said, that the "profit sharing" plan inaugurated by the company in 1914 "was mere humbug."

Attorney Stevenson, in examining the witness, said: "Have you been in Detroit continuously since 1914, except as business called you away, or pleasure?"

"Yes."

"You are not a member of the national guard?"

"No."

"Nor any other organization."

"No sir."

A financial statement of the earnings of the company in 1914 was identified by the witness. His testimony showed that in 1913, the Ford company started with $50,000 in cash and Mr. Ford's model of a cheap automobile. A $150,000 corporation was founded, Mr. Ford holding 51 per cent of the stock. In 1914 the financial statement showed the net profits were $19,000 for $1,000,000 in sales.

Attorney Alfred Lucking, of counsel for Ford, objected to discussion of the financial statement as irrelevant and Mr. Stevenson replied:

"They have been making a great deal of their so-called educational or occupational program, and the division of profits. My purpose is to show that on $50,000, the actual capital invested, the company earned $30,000,000 in 1914, and that therefore to call what they give employees profit sharing is mere humbug."

Mr. Lucking entered another objection, stating that plaintiff was willing to admit prosperity.

"Opposing counsel has said that there were plenty of profits. Well, that is not so," said Mr. Lucking. "The profit sharing plan of 1914 practically doubled the incomes of employees. Mr. Ford gave them more than the Tribune ever gave, or other employees, and is now setting an example to the world."

The explanation was allowed to proceed, witness referring to the statement and giving sales, costs and other minutes of the financial report.

YEGGS CRACK SAFE IN THE FILER P.O.

Get Away With $90 in Stamps and a Few Dollars in Pennies—Work of Amateur.

Safe crackers broke into the strong box of the Filer postoffice early Thursday morning, finding approximately $90 in stamps and a few dollars in pennies. The work was evidently that of amateurs, according to the sheriff's office.

No one heard the explosion. The deed was discovered early yesterday morning when the postoffice force appeared on the scene.

A dragnet had been spread throughout the county and surrounding territory in an effort to locate the thieves. This is the most serious of several burglaries that have taken place in the past few days and is evidently the work of men who came in here during the time of the round-up, but who were unable to pull off anything big while the big time was going on, in the belief of the authorities.

wanted in the rain to cheer the president when he arrived and departed. Many members of the house crowded into the rear of the senate chamber and most of the members of the cabinet were seated near the vice president's desk.

Reads Address Slowly.

Spoken from the same platform where, thirty months ago, he announced the world with his first declaration for a league of nations, the president read his address slowly and in a clear, quiet voice. His manuscript, typewritten on small paper, he held in his left hand, and he frequently consulted his utterances with an occasional gesture. Before him on the vice president's desk lay the treaty, brought by him in person from Versailles.

There was no attempt at oratory. The applause interrupted the address. Many senators were in his seat, and all listened attentively. Afterward his supporters were unopposed in their praise for the president's words, while those opposed either declined to comment or declared they did not enter into unsatisfactory generalities.

TREATY IS LAID

Results Near Test.

"The treaty, as a result, is not exactly what we would have written. It is probably not what any one of the national delegates would have written. But results were worked out which are the whole best test. I think that it will be found from the compromises which were accepted as inevitable no where cut to the heart of any principle."

Senate Visited President.

In disregard of precedent, the senate received the address in open session and afterward ordered that the treaty be published in the Congressional Record and in a public document. The galleries were overflowing and crowds unable to gain admission.

to a definite indomitably, the president was reported to have said, was reached over his protest. He was quoted as saying he consented to the indeterminate plan to help Premier Lloyd George over domestic objections.

He said the question of Fiume was not mentioned.

Reservation Not Needed.

Regarding the proposed reservation under which the senate would declare the nation could not enter under article 10 without a year declaration by congress, Mr. Wilson was reported to have declared such a declaration unnecessary. He was quoted as saying that the constitutional inability of the United States to make war without congressional declaration was one of the reasons why the league could be authorized only to "advise" as to the steps to be taken.

Was Short One.

In all the president's visit to the capitol occupied less than two hours. Arriving shortly after noon, he went to his office adjoining the senate chamber and at 12:15 was escorted to the vice president's desk by the five members of the foreign relations committee. The applause following his appearance had continued for two minutes, when Vice President Marshall stepped forward for order and the president began speaking.

The address lasted 22 minutes and at its conclusion, while the senate and galleries stood and applauded, he was escorted from the chamber by the specially designated foreign relations members. He left for the white house at 1:45 p. m.

Mrs. Wilson and the president's daughter, Miss Margaret Wilson, were in the gallery during the address. The French ambassador, Jules J. Jusserand, dean of the diplomatic corps, had the unusual privilege of a seat by the president's right side and many other foreign diplomats were in the diplomatic gallery.

After the president finished speaking the senate adjourned until Monday, when the ratification debate will begin. The foreign relations committee also will meet Monday to begin consideration of the treaty.

WE ARE VICTORS YOU SWINE! FRENCH TELL THE GERMANS

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, July 10.—Seven French soldiers attached to entente mission were accused of insulting a pedestrian last night and were threatened by a crowd.

When a French sergeant declared: "We are the victors, you swine," the crowd closed in and the French soldiers were forced to hurry to a police station for protection.

Comment on Speech.

The president's address, said Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, "read to me outside had yet with sufficient distinctness, some of the intricate difficulties of the treaty, the problems with which the peace conference was called upon to deal, making compromise essential to any result except chaos" and was "an exposition of rather why a league is necessary than a justification which perhaps no one expected at this time."

Senator Pomeroy, democrat, Ohio, said the president's message showed "very clearly the necessity for linking up with the treaty of peace the covenants for the league of nations."

Senators Brandegee, republican, Connecticut, characterized the address as "a soap bubble of oratory and scuff of phrases."

Senator Norah, republican, Nebraska, said the address contained "glittering generalities," and failed to clear up Article 10 or the Lansing question.

"Soothing, mollifying and uninforming," was the comment of Senator McCormick, republican, Illinois. "Mr. Wilson characterized himself as referring to the immortal Shantus affair."

Speaker Gillett, republican, Floor Leader, and other leaders in the senate did not hear the president's address.

Chimp Clark, democrat, floor leader, said: "It was a very fine speech."

Former Speaker Joseph Cannon said French has prophesied the end of war in vain, and that it is "possible" President Wilson's prophesies may not be any more substantial in results.

Mrs. F. Clark of Ilogson invited to Twin Falls yesterday for the days shopping.

The money is necessary to meet the increase of cost of labor and materials, the commission informed Mr. Curry.

THE VIGOR OF Swift & Company Continues Only Because of Service

The only "control" over the packing industry is the "control" that gathers about the ability to do a necessary job in the best way.

Swift & Company has reached a leading place in the industry because the size and character of the job of providing a nation's meat require the wide and thorough organization, the experience and devotion to duty, found in an institution like Swift & Company.

The moment Swift & Company ceases to perform its functions of usefulness with the greatest efficiency and satisfaction to the people, its position in the industry will vanish.
