FIRE SPREADS IN BIG TIMBER OF MONTANA

Agitators Induce Men to Leave Work of Fighting Flames

TWENTY-FOUR MEN QUIT THEIR POSTS

Thousands of Acres of Valuable Timber Being Destroyed—No Rain in Sight

By the Associated Press. SPOKANE, Wash., July 19.—Happily spreading forest fires in northern Idaho, western Montana and eastern Washington covering many thousand acres of cut-over and virgin timber and near the reported almost hourly caused much concern today to the federal forest service officials.

Appeals for men to fight the forest fires have been made and every man who could qualify for the arduous work of fighting the fires in the mountainous regions of three states were employed. They were sent without delay to the end of the railroad and then by trails to the scenes of the fires.

Agitators Cause Trouble. The forest service was handicapped in fighting the fire on Battlement creek, north of Missoula, Mont., by agitators urging the fire fighters to strike for fourteen hours pay for 12 hours work. Twenty-four men quit fighting the fire in response to the agitator's appeal.

The town of Newport, Wash., was fighting tonight a fire that had covered 30 acres and was a mile from the town's limits. The wind, however, was blowing away from the town and little fear was felt that the fire would reach Newport. Other towns threatened by the flames were Heron, St. Louis and Alton, Mont.

New fires were reported in the forest service almost hourly. One of the fire services near Boise, Idaho, had burned 410 acres of private timber before a report of it had been received by the federal forest service officials. Near Heron, Mont., a fire covering 3,000 acres, was controlled by 25 men.

Forest fires were also reported in the Snake river valley in central Washington and in the Herman creek forest in Oregon, 40 miles east of Portland, where 1,400 acres had been burned over.

SOUTH IDAHO EXPECTED. BOISE, Ida., July 19.—Forty-four forest fires are known to be burning in south Idaho, the largest of which is burning on a front 25 miles in length in the Plummer location country of Blaine, Idaho.

PEACE MAKERS ENDEAVOR TO SAVE FACE OF THE PARTISANS

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Although administration leaders both in executive and senate circles discount the possibility of President Wilson accepting any reservations in the ratification of the peace treaty, administration senators continue firm in their claim that they will have the votes to pass the treaty without change, consequently they do not care to discuss what might happen if they failed to muster them.

WILSON FIRM IN HIS STAND FOR COVENANT

Reservation Clauses Would Mean Re-Negotiation With Other Powers.

SENATORS SEEK SAFE HARBOR FROM STORM

Peace Makers Endeavor to Frame Reservations to Save Face of the Partisans

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Although administration leaders both in executive and senate circles discount the possibility of President Wilson accepting any reservations in the ratification of the peace treaty, administration senators continue firm in their claim that they will have the votes to pass the treaty without change, consequently they do not care to discuss what might happen if they failed to muster them.

Seek Military Ground. Meanwhile the republicans who fear the longer the Wilson bill has been told the president reservations will have to be made, are working on plans which they feel will be acceptable.

It is thought that there is no chance of making any effort to sound out the senate or senate in a similar manner, as has been reported, some of the main channels of the entire committee in Washington are being used.

Suggest Reservations. The arguments among the republicans seem to range around a tentative list of reservations which might be outlined in this way: That nothing in the article shall be construed to obligate the United States to enter the war without a declaration of war by congress.

That nothing in the covenant shall in any way limit the president's power to suspend the operation of any law in the event of a national emergency.

That if it is ascertained that in accepting the covenant the United States does not infringe on the sovereign rights of any nation.

That nothing in the covenant shall be construed to obligate the United States to enter the war without a declaration of war by congress.

LONDON CELEBRATES END OF GREAT WAR

High Officials of England See Veterans Pass in Review—Pershing Leads the Parade.

LONDON, July 19.—Land, sea and air forces of the British empire and her allies were represented today in the triumphal victory parade to mark the end of the war.

The parade was witnessed such a celebration since the late Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee in 1897. Hugs of flags of the allies followed in the review.

King George, from a seat on the reviewing stand, was seen through a colonnade of ornate white pylons reaching for more than a half mile to the admiralty arch. The troops marched past the reviewing stand to the music of drums of military bands.

The Americans led the procession. They were followed by the French, the British, the Belgians, the Canadians, the Poles, the Czechs, the Serbs, the Greeks, the Italians, the Rumanians, the Japanese, the Americans, the British, the Belgians, the Canadians, the Poles, the Czechs, the Serbs, the Greeks, the Italians, the Rumanians, the Japanese.

BIG FLEET ON WAY TO HOME IN THE WEST

Fighting Craft Moves Out Majestically From Hampton Roads

TO HAVE BASE AT PUGET SOUND, WASH.

Many Other Units Are to Join Rodman's Armada Before It Is Finally Complete

OLD POINT COMFORT, July 19.—The Pacific fleet was well on its way tonight on the first leg of its long voyage to the west coast.

None of the pomp and ceremony which marked the departure of the which was in 1907, attended the sailing of the armada under Admiral Rodman. That is being reserved for the entrance of the ships into the Golden Gate about the middle of August when President Wilson is expected to arrive there.

Ships Weigh Anchor. The super-dreadnaughts and swift destroyers weighed anchors at 8:30 a. m. and turned their bows seaward on a voyage that is to furnish the first real test for the Pacific fleet and carry to the people of the Pacific seaboard the first great fleet assigned to their defense.

Swinging out of the capes, the fleet turned southward in crushing formation with the six super-dreadnaughts, which with two others are to form the backbone of the Pacific naval defense, steaming within a triangular screen made by fifty destroyers. In that formation the ships will remain until the end of the first leg of the voyage at San Diego.

PUBLISHER KILLED BY DEATH MYSTERY. CLEVELAND, O., July 19.—Daniel J. Kelly, publisher of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, was killed by a bullet which struck him in the back of the head while he was walking in Lakewood, O., about 11 p. m. last night.

FRENCH-PRETENDER OPPOSES A REVOLT

Urges His Followers to Maintain Sacred Union in Work of Reconstruction.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, July 19.—Prince Louis Philippe, duke of Orleans and pretender to the throne of France, has written a letter to his supporters, in which he urges them to maintain their sacred union in the work of reconstruction and to oppose any attempt at revolution.

The duke of Orleans refers to the refusal of the French government and the allies to allow him to fight for France and says he does not confide in the people. The profound sorrow caused to him by this exile from the battle front, after his hard exile from France, in order that no danger may develop therefrom, adding:

"One more hatred in the breast of France will cure nothing in my heart."

After recalling his injunction to his followers at the beginning of the war to join in a sacred union to work and fight for France first of all, the letter traces the program for the future, which "victory opens for France" as follows:

Respect of their old activity in the devastated regions, revival of agricultural industry, reestablishment of national production to new instruments and new methods; just reparation for labor; revision of the military laws; administrative reform through decentralization and organization; a regional system of government; revision of the financial system and the maintenance of order in the face of revolutionary agitation.

In conclusion the duke says: "My first instructions to rally to the sacred union must be continued. I ask you to remain in the front-rank of the good agents of the country and write no resignation, but first of all serve France."

MEXICANS ATTACK AMERICAN SAILORS

Situation Develops Which Threatens Relations With Republic to South of the Gnarly

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 19.—The most serious of the recently growing fits of attacks on Americans in Mexico came to light today.

A boat load of American sailors from the U. S. S. Cheyenne were held up in the Tamulco river delta within nine miles of Tampico, and the sailors robbed. The American flag was flying from the boat.

Closely resembling the attacks on American sailors which led to the occupation of Vera Cruz in 1914, the state department did not hesitate to regard it as a grave affair and dispatched urgent representations to the Carranza government and Tampico authorities.

Although the sailors were fishing, they were on official duty bringing in fish for their own use and the American flag flying from the boat denoted it was an official business.

A preliminary report of the attack, reaching the navy department July 7, did not go to the state department until today. No explanation was made for the delay. Today Secretary Daniels asked for a fuller report.

The incident is regarded as most serious and charged with possibilities because the Carranza forces are in full control of the Tampico district and because it comes in the climax to a long series of recent attacks on Americans, all of which have been made the subject of increasingly urgent representations to the Carranza government.

Since President Wilson returned from the peace conference he has turned his attention a great deal to the Mexican situation. Various reports have been circulating that the American government's policy had undergone a change, but there has been no official indication or announcement.

It is known that the American troops along the border have a new set of orders, which is evidenced by the prompt manner in which they crossed into Juarez and cleaned up the fighting there when it began at El Paso. The extent to which the military establishment has been prepared to meet a situation in Mexico has not fully been disclosed, but there are indications that the government is taking measures to be prepared for any eventualities into which it may be forced.

It was an incident in 1914, which brought about the occupation of Vera Cruz. A boat from one of Admiral Mayo's ships was detained, a paymaster was arrested and killed, and at other times messengers from the ship were ignored ashore. General Hurler refused to negotiate and save the American flag and the occupation of Vera Cruz followed.

Officials see in the incident of July 6 the makings of a more serious situation.

PUBLIC MARKET IS PROVING SUCCESS

Twin Falls public market, which began in a small way several weeks ago, is growing.

Yesterday the market was kept open throughout the entire day while several garden truck growers gathered at the place. In addition farmers from outlying points brought in vegetables.

That the market in expanding is evidence from the appearance of other farm goods besides vegetables. Broilers were sold at the market yesterday.

To economize in the use of gas-coal for gas ranges has been indicated in which the heat of each burner can be confined to an opening above it or divided among two or more openings.

EXILE IN HUNLAND TO RETURN TO HOME

15-Year-Old Lad Forced to Stay in Germany During the World War.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, July 19.—After six years of detention in Germany, a young boy, Herbert Seidel, reached Paris today on his way to Fort Bliss, Texas, where he will join his mother and sister. The boy had been living with his grandmother in Saxony. He has forgotten the English language, but is still a loyal American and anxious to go to the United States.

Herbert is the son of Color Sergeant Carl Seidel, who is with the 14th American brigade in France. Sergeant Seidel asked the American Red Cross to repatriate his son and after months of negotiations through Brigadier General George H. Harries, of the inter-allied commission for the repatriation of war-prisoners at Berlin, the German government consented to permit the child to leave after the presentation of papers establishing the fact that he was born in the United States.

Lieutenant George Dunagan of the American peace commission staff brought the boy from Berlin to Paris and turned him over to the Red Cross which will send the lad to the United States immediately.

The boy was wearing a German army cap and a suit made from his mother's discarded garments. He could not read enough to eat in Germany, but showed great enthusiasm over American chocolate.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Wheat.—Wheat strongly developed in the corn market today owing largely to sharp turns in foreign exchange rates and to reports of irreparable damage to the oats crop. The close was unsettled, 3/4c to 1 1/2c net higher, with September, $1.90 1/2, to $1.90 3/4 and December, $1.61 1/2, to $1.61 3/4. Oats finished 7/8c, No. 2 1/2c, and provisions varying from 10c decline to 30c advance. Until the last hour pessimistic views for economic conditions tended to keep sentiment bearish in regard to corn, and so likewise did the time weather. Declines, however led to an improvement in demand for shipping demand, with consequent buying on the part of shorts and commission houses. At this juncture, the fact that sterling exchange had risen to 144.4, after having gone as low as 142.56, gave an advantage to the bull. Meanwhile, the oats market was declining rapidly, and throughout the rest of the day the fact became more and more evident that for at least the time being corn had been overvalued. Indefinitely unfavorable crop advised led to buying of oats on a broad scale, with consequent buying for oats were out of time received but little attention. Provisions analyzed with corn. Labor difficulties at the stock yards had only a transient bearish effect.

"FIRST PERIOD" WILL CLOSE 10 O'CLOCK MONDAY NIGHT

Tomorrow (Monday) night at 10 o'clock—not one minute later—marks the close of the "first period" in the Chronicle's $175,000 Pulse Grand Prize Drive. After this time the second period will be in effect which means a material increase in the voting power of subscriptions—while the third and last period will be in effect on Monday night.

Your Last Chance
Never again during this campaign will it be possible to receive an equal vote on subscription as between now and tomorrow night at 10 o'clock. This is your last and final. It will pay every candidate to collect in every promise for subscriptions "later on" and get the full The Chronicle office before tomorrow night.

The race thus far is a very close one. When it is considered that just a few subscriptions represent the difference between the leaders, it can be seen that whoever secures the greatest number of subscriptions during these next few hours will undoubtedly forge to the front and be a probable winner in the end.

Of course the long term subscriptions count fastest in the way of accumulating votes. Two five-year subscriptions with the extra votes based on each $24 "club" will obtain about 320,000 votes if turned in before tomorrow night. Contestants should make every effort to "speed" their long term subscriptions whenever possible.

Grand Will Win
The crucial test in the midmonth prize affair is now at hand. In just a few more days some one of the leaders will be presented with a beautiful Pulse touring car worth $175 for the efforts they are putting forth right now. As the close of the battle stands today, it can be any one of the workers.

But right now is the time to "club" your prizes to make reasonably certain of the prize you most desire. Your fate is in your hands. You can win or lose between now and tomorrow night at 10. It's all up to you now.

To Out of Town Candidates
In order that candidates living a distance from Twin Falls may have a reasonable opportunity to work right up to the closing hour of the "fateful first period" as those residents near the city, all subscriptions that are MAILED in any postoffice anywhere before 10 tomorrow night will be accepted and the full votes for that subscription counted. They are received at the Chronicle office till Tuesday or Wednesday.

It is highly probable that every candidate may have the same opportunity of securing an equal number of votes in this last contest in any matter where he or she may reside.

Understand simply mail your subscriptions in YOUR postoffice on Monday evening and they will be given the advantage of "first period" votes.

HANSEN BRIDGE IS FORMALLY ACCEPTED

Structure Is Now Through Open to Use of the Public.

There is a bridge now accepted yesterday by the committee after a trip on inspection during the afternoon. Following the acceptance of the bridge it was thrown open to the public. Work on the bridge was practically completed, some final odds and ends being necessary before the contractors will leave. It is anticipated that the bridge company will be able to leave Tuesday.

Plans for the final payment of the bridge have not yet been made pending a visit to the site to receive the amount due from the state.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS HEAR DELEGATE VISIT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—This is the greatest pleasure extended to me since I have been in the United States," said Ernest F. Starvo, "president of the Irish republic," said in addressing tonight wounded soldiers from Letterman general hospital at the Red Cross house, Presidio.

"In your fight for liberty everywhere we felt that you entered our country—were fighting for our cause as well as your own. But the people of India, Egypt, Korea and Ireland are in the same straits as in the past. You soldiers returned to a free country in contrast to some Irish soldiers who entered the army to fight for liberty of their country and returned home to find they had been cheated."

PLAN AIRPLANE FLIGHT AROUND RIM OF COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, July 19.—An airplane flight around the rim of the United States, for a distance of 7,800 miles, will be started from Washington Monday by Lieutenant Colonel R. S. Harst, commanding officer of the 1st Cavalry division.

He will fly in an army bombing plane, in the interests of recruiting and route charting, the army air service announced. A day he accompanied by two reserve pilots, Lieutenants Ernest F. Starvo and Letha A. Smith, and Mechanic Sergeant John Harst, 31. The trip will take the party across 31 states.

As at present planned, the flight will include San Antonio, Texas, San Diego, California, and Seattle, Wash. The trip is the longest yet attempted by American airmen.

WINS AUTO DERBY RACE

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 19.—Tommy Milton won the Independence derby automobile race of 112 1/2 miles on the speedway today. In the final heat of 22 1/2 miles he averaged 101 miles an hour, the time being 12:22:75. Dave Lewis finished second in 13:27:98. I. P. Fetterman was third, time 13:31:20.

How to Jump Into First Place.

On each 2-year subscription to The Chronicle or approximately its equivalent in shorter term orders, 40,000 votes are allowed—providing same is received at the campaign department before 10 o'clock next Monday night, July 21.

Then, in addition to that, 50,000 SPECIAL EXTRA votes are allowed on every "club" of $24.00 lumped in.

Therefore, two 2-year subscriptions (amounting to $24.00 in business) means 130,000 votes!

It can readily be seen by glancing at the vote totals below that just a few such subscriptions for any candidate would furnish a new leader in the race; in fact, an ENTIRELY NEW CANDIDATE what at this time has no votes at all, could, by a little enthusiastic action on the part of themselves and friends, climb to the top of the list and thereby acquire the leadership for the big prize automobile.

And, when one takes into consideration the value of the prizes to be awarded and the short time the competition is in force, they are well worth any effort they might take to secure.
