RAILWAY EMPLOYEES PROPOSE TO OUST OWNERS FROM THE CONTROL OF U. S. CARRIERS

Tri-partite Control, Public, Operating Management and Workmen

LABOR'S BILL GIVEN AS CURE FOR H. C. L.

Present Proposal to Congress at Hearing Before Interstate Commerce Committee Wednesday

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Organized labor came out today with the unequivocal, formal demand that private capital be retired from the railroads.

A tri-partite control composed of the public, the operating management and the employees is demanded instead.

Addressed to the American public and signed by the engineers, the firemen, the conductors and the American Federation of Labor, a formal statement was issued announcing this proposal which will be carried before congress Wednesday.

Would Overhaul Profits. "It means," says the statement, "the step by which organized labor passes from demands for wage increases to demands that the system of profits in industry be overhauled."

"This measure sums up in a few words, the proposal of which there have been hints and indications, but which is now laid before the country for the first time. Everywhere in official Washington it is recognized as the most serious and far-reaching proposition the country will be called on to face."

Is "Labor's Bill" Characterizing the proposal as "labor's bill," it is put forth as a remedy for the high cost of living, because the railroads are the key industry of the nation.

Opponents the "genetic co-operation and partnership based on a real community of interest and participation in control," of which President Wilson spoke to congress, and which the statement says, has been ignored by labor and the private owners of the railroads.

To Work for Public. "We ask," it says, "that the railroads of the United States be vested in the public; that those actually engaged in conducting that industry, not from Wall street, but from the railroads and yards and out on the railroads, shall take charge of this service for the public."

Labor's Demands. Briefly, labor's plan demands: That private capital be eliminated from the railroads.

That the private owners receive for their government bonds (with a fixed interest return for every honest dollar that they have invested).

That the tri-partite control, heretofore referred to, be established in corporations which shall lease the roads and in which the public, the operating management and labor shall be represented equally.

That the public, the operators and the wage earners share equally all revenue in excess of the guarantee to private capital, by granting to the operators and the employees one-half the savings which are expected to be made by such a perfected organization, and to the public the other half as consumers, either by increasing service without adding costs or by reducing costs.

"This note originates," will labor, says the statement, "through the president of the brotherhood, through which it may become articulate."

Trainsmen Not Represented. The trainsmen are not represented in the statement because W. G. Linn, president of the brotherhood, was out of the city, but it was said that they join in it.

The Statement. The statement follows: "The hundreds in telegraphed dispatches from Washington, appearing also in the speech of Representative

MOVING DAY IN CHICAGO FOR COLORED FOLKS

Protected by a policeman, this pathetic pair is moving all of its belongings to a safer place because of the rioting between whites and blacks which has resulted in more than a score of deaths and made many negroes homeless.

TWO KILLED IN FREIGHT WRECK

Engineer Dave W. Carr and Brakeman Murvin, both of Paquette, were killed Sunday morning when an eastbound freight left the rails and crashed into a westbound freight which was east bound on the siding at Yale, a small station between Minidoka and Peleeville, on the main line.

Fireman Homer Donham and Engineer Conrad Vance were injured. Donham was badly scalded and Vance received a badly sprained ankle. Carr and Murvin, who were both in the cab, were instantly killed, Murvin receiving a broken back.

The wreck is said to have been caused by the eastbound freight having picked up a rail along the track which jammed in the switch at Yale, lifting the engine from the main track and causing it to leave the rails standing on the side track. The train was going down grade which gave added force to the collision. Murvin had evidently applied the air brake when he saw the impending catastrophe, as it was necessary to break his fingers in order to release his grip on the air valve.

FIRE IN YELLOW PINE CONQUERED

DOHSE, Aug. 4.—The Yellow Pine forest fire in the Thunder mountain region of the public domain which, with its offshoots, is estimated to have destroyed at least 50,000 acres, but and its offshoots are under control, according to word received by forest officials here Monday afternoon. This fire started the latter part of June, and was the largest of the present season on the public domain in Idaho.

Authentic word today from the Nez Perce national forest verified reports that the fire in that reserve are serious. Eleven large blazes are under way on the reserve.

Over 150 men are available for fighting a 12,000 acre fire near Elk City, and a 50,000 acre fire in advancing from the Selway national forest into the Nez Perce. Another fire north of Elk City is threatening to get out of control.

17 NEGROES FACE CHARGES OF MURDER

First Indictments Are Returned in Investigation of This Reign of Terror.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Seventeen negroes were charged with rioting and murder in indictments voted today by a special grand jury investigating race riots, which for five days last week have raged the south side of Chicago in a reign of terror.

While city, county and state authorities combined in seeking causes which led to the rioting in an endeavor to fix responsibility, 6,000 state troops, 3,000 policemen and 1,000 deputies continued to patrol the negro quarter.

Tonight officials reported the rioting quiet and every effort was made to relieve the sufferings of the negroes who have been marooned in the area and who have been unable to go to their work. A number of soup kitchens were opened and quinine was furnished for negroes who wish to return to work.

The police today obtained reports of threatening anonymous letters received by negro families living on the edge of the negro district, in which the negroes were warned to move within two days or their homes would be burned and looted and the negroes killed.

Mrs. Emma Jackson, colored, tonight confessed to assistant state's attorney that she killed Walter Rignall, a white youth, during the rioting last Wednesday night. She said she fired the shot from a window in her home on the south side. Her name will be presented to the grand jury tomorrow.

SHOSHONE BOY WILL BE GIVEN FRENCH WAR CROSS

Citizens of Twin Falls will be given an opportunity to witness one of the impressive ceremonies of the late war Friday afternoon. An Idaho boy, Cecil Halnaworth of Shoshone, will have the French croix de guerre conferred upon him on that day.

Word of the plans to have this event here was received yesterday at the Twin Falls recruiting station from headquarters in Salt Lake. The award will be conferred by Captain Hied of the United States army.

Halnaworth, who lives with his parents on the rural route out of Shoshone, is one of two boys who went into the service when he was thirteen. He was wounded in action and has been hospitalized with his parents since being released from the hospital.

Details of the deed which won for the Shoshone boy the highest honor given by France, could not be learned last evening. Mayor Eldridge and members of the city council, the Twin Falls post of the American Legion and citizens have been asked to be present at the ceremonies, which, under present plans, will be held at the recruiting station on South Shoshone street. The ceremony will take place at 2:30 in the afternoon.

DENIES AIRPLANES WANTONLY BURNED

Former Chief of Air Service Abroad Declares Training of Men Fell Down.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Denial that any aircraft of the A. E. F. was wantonly destroyed was made today by Colonel Mason M. Patrick, former chief of air service abroad, appearing before a house war investigating committee in Idaho.

"That any planes were burned needlessly or wantonly is incorrect," declared Colonel Patrick. "None that it would be economical to keep were destroyed.

Destruction of the machines followed effort to use them, which failure resulted in the salvage as junk of parts. None was offered for sale or destroyed, Colonel Patrick said, until after an inventory had proved their worthlessness.

Colonel Patrick said that when the armistice was signed that the United States had about one-fourth the number of planes on the front that should have been there, considering the size of the front line army. He gave 740 planes as the number of machines actually at the front, of which 513 were built in this country.

Falling down in the training of aviators rather than inability to get planes caused the insufficient force, Colonel Patrick said.

GERMAN HOUSE DEALER CONVICTED TAKING BRIBES. COBLENZ, Saturday, Aug. 2.—Ludwig Sacke, a German house dealer, convicted of attempting to bribe American army officers in connection with the sale of 24,000 horses, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment today and fined 5,000 marks by the superior provincial court.

Army officers said Sacke was merely a go-between and that wealthy Germans in the interior were back of the conspiracy.

Major Joseph Kitzell of Pikeville, Tenn., and Captain Harry Gardner of Washington, D. C., both of the quartermaster's department, testified that Sacke attempted to bribe them.

TOKIO PLANS TO EXPLAIN INTENTIONS

Formal Declaration on Shantung Situation Being Prepared Officials Believe

PROHIBITION SCRAP ENTERS TREATY FIGHT

Representative of Liquor Interest Tries to Have Wilson Lift Ban Against Liquor Industry.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Japan's intentions in the Chinese province of Shantung, where she is given control by the Versailles treaty, soon are to be set forth in a formal declaration from the Tokio government, according to information received today in official circles.

Although the exact nature of the declaration was not foreseen, it was assumed it would follow the lines of the official statement of Japanese statesmen that the province eventually is to be returned to China. In some quarters it was believed Japan might even set a date for the restoration and acknowledge publicly the secret understanding she is said to have with China.

The reported decision of Japan to make known its purposes is believed to be the outgrowth of informal diplomatic conversations between Washington and Tokio, reflecting the American government's desire that all the facts in the case be given to the public. President Wilson has told many senators that a complete exposure of the case would throw a new light on the Shantung problem.

NEWS REACHES CAPITAL

News of the expected development regarding Shantung reached the capital after the foreign relations committee had opened the way to other important disclosures by asking Secretary Lansing to come before it Wednesday to discuss features of the treaty. It is expected the senators will be public and that some of the committee members still want the secretary to tell much of the inside story of how the treaty with its language of nations covenant was drawn up.

With the re-opening of the senate after the week-end recess there was much discussion among senators as to the possible effect of the prohibition items on the ratification fight. The subject became conspicuous through an interview between a representative of the liquor interests and Senator Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska, leader of the pro-treaty forces, at which the former is said to have urged that power be concluded as President

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Recommendations to President Wilson as to how the government should proceed in its efforts to locate the rest of living over expected to result from the cabinet meeting tomorrow of cabinet members and other officials called in conference by Attorney General Palmer.

There still was no indication of what the conference would show the president. Director General of Railroads Hines, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lettingwell, and Chairman Colver of the federal higher figures, approached a committee in private suggestions to the conference, have been engaged in an examination of memoranda, but it was said authoritatively that they also reached no decision as to what steps should be taken.

WILSON IS SHOWING INTEREST IN AFFAIR

Many Senators Declare Ample Law at Hand to Stop Profiteers From Their Machinations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Recommendations to President Wilson as to how the government should proceed in its efforts to locate the rest of living over expected to result from the cabinet meeting tomorrow of cabinet members and other officials called in conference by Attorney General Palmer.

There still was no indication of what the conference would show the president. Director General of Railroads Hines, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lettingwell, and Chairman Colver of the federal higher figures, approached a committee in private suggestions to the conference, have been engaged in an examination of memoranda, but it was said authoritatively that they also reached no decision as to what steps should be taken.

Wilson Shows Interest. That President Wilson was taking a deep interest in the situation was indicated again late today when without announcement he called at the offices of the federal trade commission and held a lengthy conference with Chairman Colver and Commissioner Minkoff. Neither of the two commission members would discuss the subjects brought up at the conference, but admitted that it dealt with phases of the living cost problem.

Attorney General Palmer has announced District Attorney Clyde of Chicago, to report on the progress of investigations which have been under way there. Mr. Clyde's visit was regarded as significant also because an early decision is expected by the attorney general as to whether information furnished to the federal trade commission warrants prosecution of the "big five" packing companies.

High prices and the resulting unrest expressed in strike threats by hundreds of thousands of railroad men occupied much of the time of the conference. Senator Hines asserted that the government guaranteed price of $2.50 a bushel was not responsible for the high cost of bread, declaring that wheat was selling at terminals at 1.25, 0.00, 0.00.

Several senators declared there was little law to punish profiteers. Senator Borah, of Idaho, commented that it would be no feat to find the profiteer, but that he would be "as safe the next four years as the past four." He urged that speculation be checked. Senator Reed proposed efforts to finance and feed Europe.

Chairman Gronna of the senate agricultural committee announced during the day that his committee would meet tomorrow to consider the excessive living cost problem.

INVESTIGATE SUGAR CAPACITY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Investigation by the federal trade commission of the alleged scarcity of sugar in many parts of the country despite the large crop in a number of years was recommended today by the house interstate commerce committee in ordering a favorable report on a resolution by Representative Tinkham, republican, Massachusetts. This resolution calls for an investigation of stocks of sugar on hand throughout the country—and an inquiry into prices.

Representative Igoe, democrat, Missouri, announced tonight that he would attempt tomorrow to have the house consider his resolution for an investigation by the federal trade committee of the high prices being charged for sugar.

CHICAGO THREATENS TO BUY OUT CAR LINES

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(Associated Press)—Action by the city administration to revoke franchises of Chicago's surface and elevated lines and to take over operation of the lines by the municipality was the threat of city officials today after the state public utilities commission had indicated that fares increases would be granted on both systems to meet wage increases. The commission postponed final action on the petitions of the lines for increased rates until tomorrow.

Attorneys for the city contend that the street car companies are bound by contracts to a 5 cent fare.

Lines of seven cents on the surface and eight on the elevated lines are expected to be ordered by the commission.

TOLD THE STORY OF CUSTER MASSACRE

Late Pioneer's Father Carried News of Indian's Killing to the World.

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 4.—Shortly before her death here, Mrs. Elizabeth Countryman Woody, who was one of the first pioneers to New Idaho in Missoula in June, 1870, told some of her reminiscences of the early days. These notes have just been made public. One paragraph reads:

"My father, Horace Countryman, carried the news of Custer's massacre, riding day and night from Columbus, Montana, then Stillwater, to Helena, and that is how it was given to the world, the news being down.

Mrs. Woody was born in Yuba county, California, in 1853. As an infant, her parents returned to New York by way of the Isthmus of Panama, but in 1859 they again headed westward, and crossed the plains in a caravan of 75 wagons, her father serving as captain of the train. There were but 400 women. Of this trip Mrs. Woody writes:

"It was through the mercy of God, and my father's bravery, courage and good judgment, that we reached our destination in safety. The Indians were bad and the train passed through many narrow escapes. Frequently we saw smoldering heaps of what had been less fortunate trains than ours." After a year in California, the family moved to Washoe City, Nevada, whence they went to Lakes Idaho, the present site of Hono. There were but four houses, Mrs. Woody writes. In 1855 they left for Montanan, stopping at Phillipsburg, where Mr. Countryman had preceded them, and was building a mining mill—the Hope mill—which is still standing.

Following a brief residence in Salt Lake City, Mrs. Woody returned to the Lone Star, Mont., with her father in March, 1870. In June she came to Missoula, where she had lived ever since. She was married in 1873 to the late Judge Frank H. Woody.

VOCATIONAL COURSES ARE ANNOUNCED

Announcement Made of Plans to Increase Activities of Pocatello Institution.

Announcement is just made that normal trade courses will be operated in the vocational department of the Idaho Technical Institute in first, machinist trade; second, carpentry; third, bus engine and auto repair; and fourth, commercial dressmaking. To give the machinist course, Wm. Clayton, now chief mechanic with the Idaho Fuel and Sugar company, has been secured. To give the carpentry course, B. E. Newton, for many years a successful carpenter and contractor in Pocatello, and a member of last year's teacher training course conducted under the auspices of the federal government, has been secured. To teach the bus engine and auto repair class, L. A. Jaffe, for several years a practical electrician here for the last five years one of Pocatello's most efficient auto mechanics, a student in the teacher training course conducted at the institute under the auspices of the federal government, has been secured. The members of these classes will probably be limited to fifteen for the first year. No young men under sixteen years of age will be enrolled. Half of the places in these classes will be reserved for out of town boys over the state up to September 10. Members of the classes will spend half of each day in actual productive work on contracts taken over by the school. NEW ARMY BILL IS GIVEN TO CONGRESS

Provides for Calling 600,000 Nineteen Years' Youths to Colors Yearly.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—War department recommendation for a system of universal military training of three months for all eligible youths in their 15th year was presented by Secretary Baker today to the senate and house military committees for their guidance in determining the permanent military policy of the nation.

The proposal is contained in a bill prepared by the general staff of the army at the secretary's direction. Secretary Baker said that General Pershing had not been consulted (the plan was tentative to that extent).

The department's bill calls for a regular army of 21 divisions and necessary auxiliary services, with a peace strength of 510,000 enlisted men, and a war strength of 1,250,000. The reserve to fill the divisions to full strength would be provided through a modified form of the selective service act under which the national army was raised for the war with Germany. For training purposes only youths in their 15th year would be called to the colors for a three month period, to be attached to regular divisions for that time. It is estimated that this would provide an annual class of 600,000 men to be given intensive military instruction, stripped of all vocational or other educational features.

For two years after training the youths would be required to submit certain reports given their addresses, changes in status as to dependents, physical condition, etc. They would receive $1 for each report submitted. In the event of war all men in this status would be called to the colors to fill up the regular divisions and compose the first replacement units.

The bill provides for reorganization of the regular army in substantially the same terms as previously recommended by Secretary Baker when the current army appropriation bill was under consideration.

No mention of the national guard is made in the bill, but in his letter to the committee, chairman, Secretary Baker said he secured that the national defense act would be continued in force, making the guard subject to federalization for war.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Boys glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is "out" or aching; if when you eat soups and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated or nervous, slow, and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning, to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous wastes, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; if you feel before your blood, nerves and sinuses become, loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless except for a marshy twinge, which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorders should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

The Secret of Building Low Cost Houses

The secret is in the planning. In addition to making a home look attractive, every good architect puts forth his best endeavor in keeping down cost.

In planning a home it is very essential to so proportion it that all material will work out to the best advantage. It is a sinful waste to use a 2x6 where a 2x4 will answer every purpose. It is likewise not good economy to use a high grade board where a cheaper one will answer all purposes. The proper understanding of these facts often are the means of saving the home builder hundreds of dollars.

A REALLY GOOD ARCHITECT DOES NOT OVERLOOK ECONOMY

Why waste your building funds with hit and miss methods? In addition to saving your material, which is your money, an architect will put that artistic, finished appearance to your home which is so greatly desired.

The best architectural service in the state is yours for the asking. It is free. Ask us about it.

ICE CREAM FOR ABBYSSINIA.

There has been a mission from Abyssinia visiting the United States in the past few weeks. The members, when about ready to depart, did some shopping in New York for souvenirs of the trip to take home to family and friends.

What led the list of precious articles? Ice cream freezers. One of the members of the party bought not one but three, with directions for making frozen dainties. He then asked for an ice-cream making machine, and was disappointed at finding that this particular department store did not carry them. His ice-machine is probably gleaming in New York, of course, but he seems to have believed that the one store held everything desirable in life.

The dusky gentlemen also bought window screens, toys, linoleum, rug, lawn mower, meat choppers, clothes wringers and other objects particularly American in character. Labor-saving devices for the household seem to have struck them with especial favor.

Yankee ingenuity scores again. Slowly the whole world learns that there is just about as much labor necessary for keeping life in the human body and making that life fairly comfortable and decent. Every hour cut off by a machine which substitutes mechanical invention for arduous drudgery puts the whole world as much to the good.

There is no mechanical and energy in ice-cream. There is comfort and delicious preservation in the ice-cream. There is latitude for the advancement of the race in the lawn mower, the food-chopper and the clothes wringer. Abyssinia will profit by these very modern gifts of princes.

ANNOUNCING WARSHIPS.

A notable precedent has been set in the naming of the ship Tulsa at Hog Island. Instead of being christened with champagne, in the good old style or the bad old style, if you prefer, or with pure water, according to some recent prohibition examples, the vessel's bow was anointed with a bottle of crude Oklahoma petroleum. It may not have been very peculiar. There may even have been a grateful lack of fragrance and beauty in that thick, odorless oil trickling down the freighter's stern side. But it was a unanimous victory, none the less, richly suggestive in possibilities.

A metropolitan paper which finds in any new "dry" manifestation a subject for sarcasm, proposes that hereafter ships bearing Vermont names shall be christened with cans of maple syrup. Mississippi ships with New Orleans molasses and North Carolina ships with pine tar.

But why not? Even such materials may be anointed with a special fitness in time, when long ships have sanctioned them. Surely ships were not always and everywhere christened with champagne. Now times, new customs. There must be innovations, or the world would grow stale. And why not use, in such matters, some product having a distinct and demonstrable relation to the state or city that is honored in the naming of the vessel?

Orange Juice - information of course-might be used for California; elder for New York state buttermilk for Illinois; logberry juice for Oregon; claim juice, perhaps, for Massachusetts; and so on down the list, with guaiac for West Virginia, mineral water for Colorado, and orange juice for Florida.

Idaho will stick to pure water-Idaho in abundance.

A NATIONAL SHOWDOWN.

It is well that the president is going before the country with his program of the peace treaty. It is well, that his opponents in the senate, and the house, are debating the issue. Washington, in the midst of the debate, is the center of the nation's attention. The public is watching the proceedings with interest. The senate, when the argument is over, will accept the verdict.

This appeal was the duty of the president and the senate majority, when once it became evident that they were doubtless. It is the duty of good citizens to play their proper share in the big drama by accepting every opportunity to inform themselves of the merits of the debate, and to make up their minds with as little partisan bias as possible. Party politics has no more business intruding itself in local discussions of the peace pact than it has in Washington. Any speaker, be he president or senator or volunteer from private life, who gratuitously injects parties into the debate should receive the criticism he deserves. Just as deserving of criticism is the hearer or reader who applies the test of party politics to a matter which naturally cuts across party lines and tolerates no taint except that of the broadest and soundest Americanism.

PROMPT ACTION FOR RIOTING.

Even localities entirely free from any present race-rioting cannot afford to dumber the subject lightly as having no interest in them. There is grave reason to believe that the serious riots which have occurred in Washington and Chicago were deliberately fostered by the same agency which engineered the anarchistic and bomb-throwing performances that occurred early in the summer. No community where different races abound in any number can be sure that it is free from the danger of an outbreak.

At the first indication of trouble, the authorities should deal swiftly and decisively with the offenders responsible for street rioting. There is no color should know no favoritism. A rioter is a public offender he should be dealt with as such.

Prompt action when the first sign of rioting appears in the neighborhood, for preventing the spread or recurrence of such outbreaks, is the thing to run to dangerous extremes.

Even the big have their troubles. John D. Rockefeller can remember when his firm got 50 cents a gallon for kerosene, and it only cost him six cents to get it. Now he says it costs him 50 cents to get it, and kerosene is now fifteen cents a gallon.

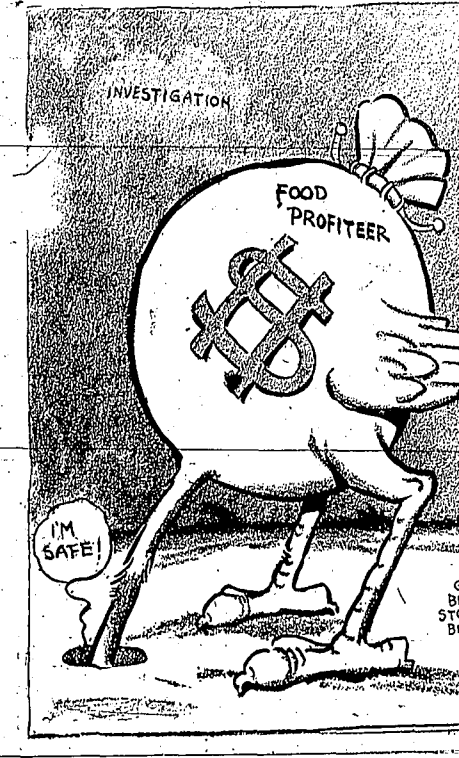

RAILWAY EMPLOYES

Blanton, Texas, that the railroad unions are holding up congress against the government, may as well cease. This appeal is made to the American people direct. It involves the judgment and common sense of public sentiment of all the public which earns its wage or a stipend. We recognize that the only way in which we can exist under the present system is to demand further increases in wages. But we agree with Representative Blanton that this affords but temporary relief. It does not offer a remedy.

To Be Prevented Wednesday. Labor's bill, on the other hand, provides a remedy and asks merely that it become law.

That this role originates with the government, and the labor law has been passed, organizations through which it has become articulated. It is not to benefit labor as labor alone; it is to benefit the consuming public, of which labor at present is the smallest part. The public take over the railroads and establish a tri-partite control between the public, the railway operating management and the employes, the labor organizations of America have established this new policy which enlarges their condition not only as producers, but also as consumers.

It marked the step by which organized labor passes from demands for wages increases to demands that the system of profit in industry be overhauled. Hitherto, during successive wage negotiations and arbitration awards, we have called for provisional settlements only, of question arising out of differences as to wages, hours and conditions of labor. That principle of "jointing" consumption and partnership based upon a real community of interest and participation in control, of which President Wilson has spoken to congress, has been ignored both by labor and by the private owners of the railroads.

What increases have been received during the past few years resulted only in immediately being forwarded by more than proportionate increases in the cost of living. Eachwise in wages has turned out to mean only temporary relief for the "overworked" worker. When the increases have gone around the circle, labor as producer loses the advantage of the new wages through the additional cost it pays as consumers. Moreover, through compound interest taken on those wage increases each cycle becomes an upward spiral of costs which the consuming public vainly reaches to control.

As the major part of the consuming public labor is entitled to representation on the directors of the public railroads. As a producer of capital it is entitled to representation on the directors of the railroads. To capital, which is the fruit of yesterday's labor, we now propose to discharge every just obligation. We demand that the owners of capital, who represent only financial interest as distinguished from operating brains and energy, be retired from management, receiving government bonds with a definite interest rate for every honest dollar that they have invested in the railway industry. We ask that the railroads of the United States be voted in the public; that those actually engaged in conducting that industry, not from Wall street, but from the railroad offices and directly out on the railroad lines, shall take charge of this service for the public.

These represent all the brains, skill and energy that is in the business. They are entitled to that measure of control which is equal to their ability, and their responsibility for operating the transportation properties. These, and then only, will the service be probably for the public, not primarily for profit to speculators and financiers.

As a means for the public to be relieving this end, we ask a law be granted to a corporation created not for profit, but for public service. We ask that this corporation be controlled in the management by an equal representation of the three distinct interests upon which industry is based. The public operating managers and wage earners will be a guarantee both the integrity of the investment, required for the conduct of the industry and that retro which induce it by investing in the public service.

The public as consumers and the operating managers and wage earners as producers having joined in that, at which Secretary Lansing is to appear, will then have equally all earnings in excess of the amount needed to meet the guarantee. This is provided by granting to the wage earners and management one-third of the savings which they produce through their perfected organizations. He the other half to be enjoyed by the consumers, either by charges or by reducing the cost of the service which the machinery then in existence can render. Thus the cost of transportation is automatically reduced exactly in proportion as the earning power of producers under this system cannot be reflected in increased costs, it must be balanced by decreased costs.

Railroads Key Industry. The railroads are the key industry of the nation. They affect at once the price of every necessity. As increased transportation costs are reflected in the increased price of all commodities, so reduction in these costs must be reflected by reduced prices.

Whom could suspect war time prohibition. "Wets" Oppose Treaty. Senator Hitecheck said he told his earlier that the only way a state peace could be established was by ratification of the treaty and remarked that ratification was being opposed by some senators with whom he "wets" had been influential.

Ever since President Wilson made a clear month ago that he considered it impossible to declare demobilization complete and thus make prohibition a temporary measure, many plans had been established, treaty opponents have charged that the liquor interests were being lined up to force ratification. Senator Hitecheck said today, however, that there had been no effort of that sort and none was contemplated.

Mr. Hitecheck said the call from the liquor agent was entirely at the latter's solicitation and that the treaty had been discussed only after the agent had asked him to use his influence with the "wets" to have prohibition suspended. This the senator said he refused to do.

Slurging for Reservations. Although the senate will not meet today, discussion of the high cost of living, Senator Steiwer, Republican, North Dakota, made a speech announcing that he could not vote for the treaty without reservations and Senator Sherman, Illinois, criticized President Wilson for his attitude toward prohibition.

Arrangements were made to have the senate adjourn from tomorrow to Friday so that the committee sessions as producers having joined in that, at which Secretary Lansing is to appear, will then have equally all

DRIS BOXING

BIG FIGHT BREWS OVER MAY'S CASE

Yankee Management to Go to Court to Force Johnson to Let Pitcher Trial.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—One of the bitterest internal fights major league baseball has experienced is expected to follow the developments today in the case of Carl Mays, New York American league pitcher, who was indefinitely suspended by President Dan Johnson of the American league for refusal to pay a fine. The Yankee club officials not only took steps today to begin injunction proceedings against the league president to restrain him from preventing New York using the player, but also issued a statement in which it directly charged that Johnson is interested in the Cleveland club.

After conferences today of the New York owners, Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Lieutenant Colonel Huston and their lawyers, it was stated by Colonel Huston that the preliminary action would be to get out an injunction against Johnson and prevent him from interfering with the New York club's property rights. The club's attorneys also took up the question of instituting a personal damage suit against Johnson and Huston. Mr. Johnson would not see press representatives today, but issued a statement announcing that the special meeting of the American league called for tomorrow had been canceled. The New York owners had informed Johnson that they would not attend the meeting.

BURLEY IS WINNER FROM THE G. T. C.'S

Score of Casual Tragedy is Given to Four—Less of Contest in Twin Falls.

This is a story of a ball game. It may not sound like it, but it is. You might call it a tragedy. Others might call it a comedy. It's about Twin Falls and Burley. Twin Falls played Burley. Burley won. Whole fault? The ball pitched by the ball players and it might not be, but it appears to be more the fault of the city of Twin Falls.

It's history repeating itself. For years Twin Falls was full of "jazz." It outplayed and outlasted and out did not everything else in these new parts with great regularity. But like a champion prize fighter it can no longer afford a ball team. Sunday's tragedy in which the Gray Charbonnet failed endeavored to live up to their name—or names—fell before the Burley "Bunnas." Yes, the Burley "Bunnas." What else could they be but "Bunnas" when they became Twin Falls to come into the league—such easy pickings, you know. Sunday's hero was "Red" Bell. He did the twirling for the G. T. C. (he, that doesn't stand for Get the Gun) and he did well. As for the rest of the contest—well, what is the use to talk about it. The score was 11 to 4—just about the exact difference between the two teams.

Following is the box score which tells the story.

EAGLE BOATS MAKE TRIP TO WHITE SEA

Little Warrenton People Equal to Task—Arrive On Dispatch Duty.

ABOARD U. S. EAGLE BOAT NO. 2 IN WHITE SEA, Aug. 4.—American Eagle boats are now operating the regular service in the Russian waters. Eagle boats Nos. 1, 2 and 3, the first built of this type for the American government, arrived in Archangel after a 6,200 mile run under their own steam from the Atlantic seaboard, according to their officers, have more than made good. Crews of the larger naval vessels are inclined to chaff the Eagle boat men all these craft the "tin hattles" of the navy, but the officers of the Eagles are proud of their seaworthiness and efficiency. The Associated Press correspondent here just made a trip from Archangel to Kora, across the White Sea, aboard the flagship of the "tin hattles" and in this 16-hour run, it stormy weather, the family and the No. 1 had ample opportunity to show their seaworthiness. In Archangel, at this season of the year, the weather has been almost tropical, and the American officers who had expected to find the arctic rigidity even in the sternal daylight days of June, were confronted, instead, with temperatures and humidity that made white duck the prescribed uniform. Two hours out of Archangel, however, at the entrance to the White Sea,

The Eagles ran into a cold gale and snowstorm which set the light craft tossing and rolling and forced the crews quickly into their woolens and oilskins. However, the Eagles kept ploughing along in their courage, as testified in Ken Kuba's note in the story for one of the speed batteries they have yet received. With their two four-inch guns, one three-inch anti-aircraft gun, and one inch anti-airplane battery, the Eagles might be expected to give a good account of themselves, say the officers, against submarines or any abuse the water craft of anything near their size.

The three boats operating in the White Sea are under the command of Lieutenant Commander Norman Scott, U. S. N., whose home is in Indianapolis.

OFFER BIG REWARD FOR BOMB PLACERS

Both Victims of Explosion Are Still in Danger of Dying.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 4.—Rewards offered for a man and woman convicted of placing a bomb which yesterday destroyed the home of Oscar Lawler, father of the young United States aviator, general two pilot totalled $11,500. Mr. and Mrs. Lawler, who were injured by the explosion which followed the explosion still are in critical condition, their physician said.

The city council has under consideration a request from Mayor M. P. Sauer that the city add $10,000 to the rewards already offered.

Dr. T. C. Myers, who is attending Mr. and Mrs. Lawler, said that neither was out of danger. He believed, he said, that both showed slight improvement since their admission to the hospital, but felt it was too early to forecast the termination of either case. He was hopeful for both, he said.

Mrs. Lawler's burns were less serious than those suffered by her husband. The shock of the explosion and bomb, followed by her falling attack when she realized that her little son was cut off from her by flames, added to the seriousness of her condition. She was unconscious until relieved by later assurances that the boy escaped unhurt.

She also received a fracture of left clavicle when her husband dropped her from a second story window. These injuries and other accidents created a condition that has caused her physician much anxiety.

Mr. Lawler was said to be resting easily today and in better frame of mind than yesterday. Physicians were hopeful that despite fearful burns he would make a good recovery. It was said that if he recovered he would be scarred but not seriously disfigured and his eyesight would be unimpaired.

Menstrual urine held which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular rates of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must reduce them like you reduce your bowels.

Removal of the waste and poisons that you feed a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of acidity; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To remove these irritating acids and flush out the kidneys, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then rest and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice and has been used for generations to clean and eliminate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. It is inexpensive, harmless, and does not cause any loss of strength. It is a natural remedy for all kidney and bladder disorders.

SHOPMEN ARE OPPOSED TO WILSON PLAN

President Told That Men Do Not Want Congress to Act Upon Demands.

EXECUTIVE SAYS H. C. L. TO CONTINUE Conditions Are Against Immediate Relief—Conference Also Held With Director Hines.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—President Wilson was told today by H. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway division of the American Federation of Labor, that all railroad employees were opposed to the proposal made to the president by Director General Hines that congress constitute a committee to pass on question of wage increases for the month of August. Jewell said that the men were opposed to the proposal because of the rising cost of living and that it was necessary to get beyond control.

Mr. Jewell was accompanied to the White House by the heads of the six big railway shops, who pointed out to the president that thousands of shopmen were now on an unauthorized strike, and that unless the demands of these men for wage increases, approximating twenty-five per cent, presented last January were granted promptly the situation would get beyond the control of the union officials.

Efforts now are being made by the union leaders to get the strikers to return to work the president was told. It is felt that it is necessary to act to enforce the demands of the shopmen, the president was informed, union officials felt it should be conducted only after a vote by the union membership.

Strikes had to be called to get the shopmen to return to work, Jewell announced. The vote will be taken August 24.

The tip lines, threat, Mr. Jewell declared emphatically that if congress passed the legislation proposed by Director General Hines, "we'll be the ones to stop it so tight that they'll never run."

"No union men could ever be gotten to sit on such an investigating body as contemplated by the director and the president, Mr. Jewell added.

President Wilson, the union official said, listened sympathetically to what the union officials had to say regarding the situation, but appeared to recognize its seriousness, but did not indicate any intention to recede from his attitude that he had no choice but to grant the demands.

H. C. L. to Meet for Years. "President Wilson told us frankly," said Mr. Jewell, "that every session of the cabinet of men working on a plan to bring the country back to normal would be a year of it."

The union officials also conferred with Mr. Hines at his request and informed him also that railroad employees were a unit in opposing his plan for the congress authorized committee.

The director general said he had no other solution, according to Mr. Jewell and intended to allow but not the authority to grant the increases demanded.

points telling of the walkout today of 250,000 employees. He said that a total of 250,000 employees were now on strike and that before Wednesday night seventy-five per cent of the members would be out.

All work in the shops of the Chicago and Northwestern line is being stopped. President Hines said, "they will soon have trouble handling the mail. We hope that officers of our grand lodge are successful in their negotiations at Washington, but we will stand firm on the strike order until our demands have been met."

Mrs. Hayes sailed from New York May 20 on the Chilean mail steamer Jimari. On June 8 in a calm sea the Jimari went aground off Santa Rosa in the north channel of the Passaic river and crew took to the boats and a few hours later encountered a violent storm.

The refugees were finally rescued by the Peruvian ship Magtano, but only to be confronted with a new peril. The Magtano carried a traveling menagerie and the lions, tigers and monkeys were driven frantic by the storm. The larger animals made desperate efforts to break from their cages and their howls added to the horrors of the storm with the monkeys actually did escape and fled, chattering wildly, to all parts of the ship.

Mrs. Hayes arrived here on the Santa Rosa from Valparaiso, Captain W. T. Crowley, commander of the ship, said that 200 persons lost their lives in the storm which raged the port of Valparaiso, July 15. COMING SOON—ANITA STEWART IN "A MIDNIGHT ROMANCE"

Colonel Stanley and Maxwell Car Covers Much of Unmarked Countery Overcoming Handicaps.

After several days in Twin Falls Colonel King Stanley is making preparations to leave here to continue his work of marking untraveled trails.

Colonel Stanley, who has spent 40 years traveling across the continent in various ways, is now making the trip in a Maxwell car, "on the condition" having come from into by way of Paracello.

First crossing the country on horseback, Colonel Stanley then made the trip across on a bicycle, drove on a team back and forth, walked, and now, by way of rail, "on the condition" in a box car another time," as expressed by the traveler.

"Oh, no, I didn't make that trip in a box car the way you think," he said, "but accumulated a trail of cherries from Stockton, California, to New York."

"My new method of traveling will be by airplane. I have already obtained a marlin from the government."

"This trip, with 'Mopsy,' as he called his Maxwell car, was started on a winter. I had that a person could cross the continent with nothing but a car. We did, taking the worst roads we could find, across the deserts, in gumbo, in grass which was water-soaked—and let me tell you that is about the hardest traveling of all, but the old car came through through the country in Florida. There we went on through the bad roads of the south to our destination, completing the trip in seven weeks, traveling 5,221 miles on 275 gallons of gasoline."

Colonel Stanley states that he has marked 221 miles of unmarked trails since he set back. The "Desert Trail," as the Maxwell is known, covered 208 miles in the bad lands of the Dakotas and went over 125 miles of the trail in the Jackson Hole country through which no other vehicle had ever traveled.

"We came down one mountain with a tree tied behind the car to hold it back," he declared.
