

ANXIOUSLY AWAITING TO HEAR OF THE RETURN OF THE KIDNAPPED AVIATORS

Couriers Reported to Have Reached Bandits' Rendezvous

LANDING WAS MADE ON AMERICAN SIDE

Mother of Lieutenant Davis Is Prostrated - Father Is Ready to Pay Ransom to Cowboys.

MARFA, Tex., Aug. 18.—Aviators H. G. Peterson and Paul H. Davis, held prisoners by Mexican bandits near Candelaria, Texas, are expected to reach the border tomorrow. It was said by army officers here tonight. Couriers sent to the bandit camp last night are reported to have reached the camp informing the bandits the $15,000 ransom would be paid.

On American side. Other developments today were reported that the aviators were landed on the American side after making a forced landing, and a statement that General Manuel Dieguez, at Chihuahua City, had ordered General Antonio Trujillo to leave Ojinaga at once with a force of German soldiers in pursuit of the bandits who captured the Americans.

Heard cries for help. The report that the Americans landed on the American side came from Captain Hatley, Fifth cavalry, in charge of the border patrol near Pilgrimage, just four Mexican miles from the school of an airplane flying low on the day the aviators disappeared and later heard cries for help. This he said to have occurred near Porvenir, 15 miles from Pilgrimage. The Mexicans said they did not investigate the cries for help.

Officers' Investigation. Colonel George T. Langhorne, district commander here, tonight ordered an investigation of this report and soldiers will be sent to Porvenir to locate the downed airplane, he said. Army officials believe only a few Mexicans were involved in the capture of the aviators.

Officers Ask Confident. Army officers were confident tonight that the two aviators were unharmed and that they believe they would be released tomorrow, following the payment of the $15,000 ransom today. The aviators carried no arms when captured. The rendezvous in believed to be near the border.

Telegram to Colonel Langhorne today said Lieutenant Davis' mother, at Strathmore, California, was prostrated. The colonel also was informed that Warren B. Davis, father of the aviator, was ready to reimburse the cowboys who yesterday raised the $15,000 ransom.

WAITING ANXIOUSLY.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 18.—Assurances were anxiously awaited along the border tonight of the safety of Lieutenants Paul H. Davis and Harold G. Peterson, held by Mexican bandits for $15,000 ransom.

Ransom Money Ready. The payment of the money, authorized by the United States government was expected to be made late today to an agent of the bandits at or near Candelaria, Texas. The two aviators are being held prisoners south of the Mexican border opposite Candelaria. It was stated, but what arrangements had been made to follow the payment of the ransom fund at Candelaria or how soon the officers might be expected at the border was not announced.

Banker Takes the Cash. The money was taken to Candelaria today by H. M. Fennell, vice president of the Marfa bank, under a United States army escort. The money fund was raised last night at a cowboy camp meeting in the Big Bend district, but the subscriptions will be returned to the donors. It was announced following receipt of authorization today from Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the southern department, to foot the ransom bill.

KILLS 1; WOUNDS 2; HIMSELF SHOT

By the Associated Press. LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 18.—After a hand-to-hand and overpowering, two armed deputy sheriffs during a fight in which he too was shot, Langley, a former of Cortland, staggered into a general store at that place late tonight and shot Justice of the peace Chris Pfeiffer through the heart. Langley was noted for lynching only through pleadings of conservative citizens. Langley was recently arrested by state agents with 105 gallons of home made whiskey in his possession. He was taken to the Nebraska jail for safekeeping.

DECLARES IDAHO ROADS TERRIBLE

"Idaho can lay claim to having the poorest roads between Indiana and the most adjoining state," declared Dr. H. B. Lester, who with his wife, stopped at the Twin Falls city tourist grounds last evening. The Lesteris are going to Portland.

"If I thought I would have to travel much farther over such roads as I came over today from Honolulu here, I would sell the car and make the rest of the trip by train," declared Dr. Lester.

Tom Matthey of McGill, Nevada, and wife and daughter formed another party staying at the grounds. "They are going to Spokane," Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dowling of Portland, who are on their way from Portland to Chicago, also complained of road conditions, declaring that the only good piece of road that they had struck in Idaho was between Tropic and Boise.

CONGRESS IS URGED TO QUICKER ACTION

Senator Walsh Charges That Time Is Being Wasted in Fight on Living Costs.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Quicker action by congress in the campaign to reduce the cost of living was urged today on senator and house. Senator Walsh declared high prices were at the bottom of all unrest and charged that congress was wasting time "when something should have been done already in response to President Wilson's recommendation. Mayors of New Jersey cities appearing before the house agricultural committee said action was needed at once to stop the rising scale of prices. Regulation of imports was one means suggested. The amendment recommending the food control act will be considered tomorrow by the committee and probably reported to the house.

Rate of surplus army food began today at Chicago centers throughout the country. Definite reports were not available, but it was believed that orders had been received for many millions of pounds of canned meats, beans and other staples, to be sent out by parcel post.

Plans in congress were expected to go as far as to enter into a resolution calling for the federal trade commission to begin immediate inquiry into the "increase in the price of shoes."

MANAGERS ARE NOW READY TO MEET ACTORS

Give First Indications That They Will Confer With Performers.

FOUR MORE HOUSES ARE MADE DARK

Two Thousand of Those Who Have Walked Out in Unique Parade on Broadway.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Three important developments were reported tonight in the labor dispute of the Actors' Equity association and Producing Managers' Protective association.

For the first time since the strike was called the managers indicated a willingness to attend a conference at which representatives of the Equity would be present.

Four More Go Dark. Four more Broadway productions went into total eclipse, closed by the sympathetic strike of stage hands and musicians.

Plans for appealing the stagehands' and musicians' strike to the bitter undisturbed vandilvils and burlesque houses were reported to be under way at headquarters of the stage hands and the musicians unions.

The conference of actors and managers was suggested by Eugene V. Wente and Avery Hopwood, playwrights, who sent messages to the hostile committee asking appointment of representatives to confer with them.

The producing managers agreed immediately and named George M. Cohen, "DAVID" Holman, "Winchell" Smith and Arthur Hopkins as their representatives, declaring they would be ready to enter conference at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

It was announced by the organization's state president, John G. Mahay.

PALMER APPEALS TO "FAIR PRICE" MEN

Declares His Department Will Prosecute All Who Sell Above the List.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Attorney General Palmer, addressing the fair price committee here tonight, appealed for aid in sending to jail "unconscientious profiteers" in the necessities of life. He said he had come from Washington to give instructions for conducting the campaign here for fair prices because "New York is the natural center of this movement and the eyes of the nation are fixed upon it."

"The prices set by the fair price committee will be accepted as standard," said Mr. Palmer, "and charges in excess of those prices will be prima facie evidence of profiteering."

"I am trying to have congress pass a law which will make profiteering a crime. It is not now a crime unless two or more persons combine to do it. Hoarding, however, already is a crime. I want the penalty for profiteering the same as for hoarding; a maximum fine of $5000 and two years in prison."

"Fair price committee are to meet this high cost of living situation. In general these committees are to fix local fair prices to the seller and to the public, and while there is nothing 'legal' about them, it is the community judgment that will count and that will be reflected in a jury box—and we will get them there by a jury."

Even if the committee cannot actually cut prices down, Mr. Palmer said, he felt their action would keep them from advancing.

"While food prices are up wages cannot be reduced and while wages are advancing it is hard to lower food prices steady for a while, the reform will come naturally," he declared.

He went on to say he believed a large part of the high cost of living is due to unconscientious dealers who have taken advantage of abnormal economic conditions to gouge the public.

EIGHTEEN ARE DEAD; RESULT OF EXPLOSION

Coal Mine in Colorado Is Scene of Disaster—Four Bodies Are Recovered.

Forty in the Stope When Blast Comes

Await Word of the Fate of Those in the Property.

By the Associated Press. TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 18.—Eighteen men are believed dead, buried under the debris of an explosion at 11 o'clock tonight in the Oakview mine of the Oakdale Coal Company near La Veta, Colo. At 7:30 o'clock tonight four bodies were recovered by rescue crews.

Fumes from the gas explosion tonight filled the mine and several rescuers were overcome and were revived with difficulty. Owing to the wrecked condition of the mine and to the fact that the explosion was very much more extensive than a fire, it was considered doubtful whether the full death list could be learned tonight.

Approximately 40 men were in the mine when the explosion occurred, including Fire Boss William Christy. Ten men escaped from the mine through the main shaft after the explosion and ten others made their way to the surface through an adjoining mine, William Davis, a miner, one of those overcome by the explosion, recovered sufficiently to make his way to the surface.

An explosion occurred about a mile and a half in the workings of the mine. Tenfully Await News.

Tonight fearful throngs of women and children, relatives of the missing men, eagerly waited at the mine for word from the rescue crew. Voluntary rescue crews came from the Wagoner and Trinidad districts and mine officials said the rescue attempts would be continued all night.

ENDORSES PLUM PLAN OPERATING RAILROADS

Representatives of the British Labor Party to Tour America for the New Political Cult.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Initial steps in the organization of a national labor party were taken today at a conference of representatives of labor organizations of several states. A temporary executive committee was named to issue a call for delegates to a national convention to be held in Chicago in November and to act a definite date.

To Hold Convention. "Duncan McDonald, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor and the chairman of the state labor party, who presided at the conference, said that the party expected to have between 2,500 and 3,000 delegates at the convention."

A constitution and platform will be formulated at the national convention, it was announced, and a decision as to what candidates will be entered in the 1920 campaign also will be made.

The basis for Representatives of the labor party to the convention are decided today. One delegate to each central labor body, of which there are 700 in the United States, and one delegate for every 500 members of all labor party groups, and all local unions.

"The new party will represent the six million members of organized labor in the United States and will have cooperation of Non-Partisan leagues and farmers' organizations in various states," said Robert M. Buck, editor of the official newspaper of the Illinois labor party.

Endorse Plum Plan. The delegates unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing the Plum plan for operation of the railroads of the country, an advertisement for the recent committee hearing in Washington.

The conference delegates also named national lecture bureau committee to make arrangements for the tour of Arthur Henderson, secretary of the British labor party who will come to Chicago to lecture in October. It was announced that Mr. Henderson would tour the country giving lectures on the workings of the British party.

The conference finished its work tonight.

Included in his program were six addresses which the prince delivered and replied for several visits to military hospitals where he met and chatted with the maimed, the laying of two cornerstone, inspection of several groups of honor, a formal luncheon and a dinner and a great popular reception.

Last evening the prince boarded the steamer Dragon and sailed at 10:30 for Charlottetown.

THE VISION

We have all read the story of Micheal Angelo, who in passing a rough block of granite by the roadside could see nothing but the outline of an angel imprisoned therein. His artistic vision could penetrate through the rough outer surfaces and behold the rounded outline of a completed masterpiece. It required months of patient toil on his part, however, to chip away the imperfections and reveal to the ordinary eye the beautiful prisoner which his art alone could release.

And so it is with homes.

To the unthinking a pile of lumber, or a lumber yard, only means a conglomerate mass of more or less necessary ugliness. To the lumberman with a soul, to the architect with a vision, or the builder with an inborn pride of achievement, to all of these this unsightly pile today merely conceals the beautiful completed home of tomorrow.

Let us prepare for you that home of your vision.

The Denon Oriental. At a dinner in Edinburgh, says E. V. Lewis, Baron Kitchener, principal of Tokyo university, was a guest. An Englishman present told the story of a Scotsman who went to his death's door with a melting tooth and was asked if he would like to get a rubber hat or a comb, but should like to have his money first. Everybody laughed but the baron. A Scotsman attempted to explain the joke as to the alleged folly of his cure for the baron's tooth. Impassive, others roared, but the baron said, "I do not understand." "Gentlemen," he said, "you do not understand what I do not understand." His listeners gave rapt attention. "What I do not understand," he went on, "is not why the Scotsman said what he did, but how any Scotsman should not know, at any time, without having to count it, how much money he has in his pocket?" The laugh was on the basis of the "Denon" oriental.—From Outlook.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER Wash the poisons and toxins from your system before putting more food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowels pores do. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly a ounce of waste material must be carried out and the body must be kept free of material not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which absorb such only nourishment to sustain the body. A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of red hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash out the poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, lungs and bowels; this cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

FORMAL BUSINESS STANDARDS.

Ordinary times there is little disposition to scrutinize the profits made by pros, manufacturers, middlemen, wholesalers and retailers. It is assumed that competition will take care of prices, and in general any branch of any industry is barely entitled to whatever extra profit can be made through special ability and industry.

In this disturbed situation, there is little disposition to endure the piling up of fire by clever men out of the necessities of people. It is time for an abandonment of profits rather than an abnormal swelling of profits.

THE BOW AND ARROW.

At a time the little boy who killed his father by accident lived in Brooklyn, N. Y. One of them had a cap pistol and one had an arrow made of old umbrella string. They played cowboy and Indian and had a lot of fun. Then, getting a little too excited, one of them shot his arrow directly at his friend, calling out to it to the same moment to duck. He did not duck quite quick enough, and he died.

FIRE PREVENTION.

Twin Falls, Minn., has a fire warden who looks after business when it comes to fire prevention. He has been making personal inspections to find out where inflammable materials have been allowed to collect and has issued warnings to property holders that must be cleaned up at once.

Early arrests will follow failure to clean up.

Special safety exits and fire escapes on buildings make it possible today for human beings to escape uninjured from burning buildings. There is one thing better than escape from fire, and that is prevention of the fire in the first place.

Office buildings, schools, apartment houses and other structures in big cities are now built fireproof. There are chemical devices for putting out small local fires in a building as soon as they are discovered. But buildings in the small towns are not so well protected.

Rubbish is allowed to collect in alleys and in vacant lots, in yards back of public buildings and private houses. Ricketty old sheds and piles of refuse are as real a menace to the town as they ever were to the big cities in former days.

It would be a good plan to look to back alleys, storerooms and basements before fall. Clean out the waste paper and rags, provide safe containers for such things or remove them entirely. Teach caution and fire prevention to old and young alike.

LIGHTING THE SKY.

Twenty-two airplanes starting from Long Island to the Pacific coast will have their path lighted by enormous searchlights all the way. The lights are to go ahead during the daytime so they may be at the proper point to give their assistance at nightfall.

The searchlight unit will have a wireless outfit. More than 100 men are in the company engaged in this work, with 22 officers and a kitchen with a serving capacity of 220 is with them.

It may seem rather cumbersome to take the transcontinental flight with so much terrestrial impedimenta, but this means keeping on the safe side in a new field where, after all, little is really known as yet of the possibilities.

The slowness, the apparently fussy details which attend such an expedition correspond to the chain of naval ships which held the path for the seaplane venture. They may seem less "sporting" than blind jumps into the unknown.

Whatever any citizen may think about the principle of universal military training, or the intrinsic merits of the plan submitted to congress, there is one impressive fact about the situation.

For the first time in American history, the nation has the facilities for such training.

Nearly everything is ready at hand. There are the cantonments created to train troops for the big war, most of which will be useless unless they are devoted to this purpose, and will have to be sold at a loss. There are huge stores of rifles, uniforms and various army equipment.

There is, moreover, a generally friendly attitude toward army training, a receptiveness of military ideas and a disposition to submit to public service despite inconvenience or hardships which has not existed in this country for half a century.

Manifestly, if the United States is ever to undertake universal training, this is the time to do it.

GERMANY PLANS A TRADE WAR IN RUSSIA

This is the third and concluding article by Richard Spillane on "Trade With Germany," dealing especially with Germany's financial outlook and her ability to pay—Editor.

By RICHARD SPILLANE

The question has been asked as to how Germany, with all her expenditures on war, her colossal internal debt, the unproductive industries she must pay and the colossal loss made in going to finance herself through the long period of recovery. It is not going to be an easy task. Neither is it impossible. One thing that must be considered first is that the fact situation today is better than in the expression of money there has been one of the most remarkable changes in the last five years in all the history of the world. Money is equivalent only to its purchasing power. Broadly speaking the pound sterling, the dollar, the franc and the mark are worth today only one-half of what they were before the war, hereof a billion pounds, or a billion dollars or a billion marks means today only what half a billion meant five years ago.

Hopes to Develop New Markets to Take the Place of Those Lost in War.

French. In regard to coal she is not so badly situated, having many mines which when her transportation facilities are improved she will be able to distribute. In her full needs. In fact the fact situation today is better than that of Great Britain and the declaration is made that she expects by next fall to be able to lay steel down in South America at a lower price than the United States. This does not seem possible, but the statement is made on the authority of high financial circles.

Germany has two great assets, a half of what they were before the war, hereof a billion pounds, or a billion dollars or a billion marks means today only what half a billion meant five years ago. The ability of Germany to meet her obligations and at the same time the proper depends solely on her power to produce. Therein you have two elements to consider, the material world is there such a sense of discipline. No and the human. In material effect where in there such a sense of discipline Germany has been weakened or such a faithful regard to discipline by the loss of the steel, iron and coal. The same fidelity to order and systems of Lorraine and some of the iron evidenced before and during the push beds of Alsace. The iron war is manifested today. The losses here in action for there are no losses stand apparently solid. The financial basis on the continent than that of the country are in a few strong the same basis but Germany has other lands. Through the centralizing that er from producers and can draw an amount before the war the Big Four Sweden for what she requires or, possibly the Deutsche Bank, the Disconto bank, buy to some extent from the Gieselschaft, the Dresdner and the (Germany)—control the bulk of the financing of German paper written without the country. Whatever may be said in derogation of the Germans no one has doubted the high ability of the German banker. Our federal reserve system is taken from a German model and we might learn much from them in other branches of financing. Her internal debt will not trouble Germany particularly. This amounts to 46 billions of dollars. It probably never will be held in abundance until the indemnity is paid.

Feels Loss of Merchant Marine. Germany will suffer much through the loss of her merchant marine and through the lesser part she will play in international banking work in the insurance field. Her ships brought a fine profit to her directly and, indirectly, in prestige which helps since but it was through her banks and her insurance companies that she was able to aid her manufacturers and merchants by substituting them of what the suppliers of civil nations were doing.

It is in the announced program of the Germans to enter upon a big scheme of shipbuilding. They have a large opportunity in their field. Their goods ships and there are few better yards in the world than those they have on the Baltic. They are certain obligations to supply a certain amount of tonnage to the allies for five years. This will not trouble them if they can control the central situation, which at present, seems likely to result, to type in goods, in hardware, railroad supplies and other things they are far better fitted for production than any other country in Europe.

Despite the big indemnities and the lowering internal debt the credit of Germany probably is far better off now than it was in 1914. The situation would seem at first, without Germany practically has no foreign debt outside of her indemnity obligations. The low loans she negotiated here early in the war were trifling. There is little doubt of an expansion of credit for whatever she wishes to borrow to cover her purchases in America.

However much feeling there may be in the world against Germany it is realized that Germany must be made a "going concern" and must prosper in order to pay what she owes. As to her ability to pay an international banker has expressed doubt for a country had, his great power of production, together with an orderly people can do wonders.

HOLD PERSHABLES TOO LONG. COLUMBIUS, O., Aug. 16.—(Intern.)—By state inspectors that various of perishable products in some (tho cities are being held as long as ten days before unloading, often resulting in waste through decay. Governor Cox today asked Railroad Director Hovey to fix a time limit of 24 hours or other proper and reasonable time within which such cars must be unloaded.

PRaises WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

F. F. Johnson, Who Will Be State Treasurer in Campaign, Declares It Splendid Organization.

F. F. Johnson, vice president of the Bank of National Bank, who has accepted the trusteeship of the Idaho Salvation Army home society campaign September 22 to 29, has words of praise for the work of the army. In the following he gave a strong endorsement to the work of the organization.

I am pleased to advise you, that after careful consideration, I have decided to accept the position of state treasurer for the coming campaign. I have appreciated the good work of the Salvation Army, with which I have been in close touch since coming to Idaho. The wonderful results that have been attained here, by the representatives of the army, coupled with the fine record which they made during the late war, caused me to realize that it is a distinct honor to be selected as your state treasurer, in a campaign for a good cause.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS DEMAND ATTENTION

Germany Excesses Problem of Solving New Corps of Diplomats and Assistants.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—(Reorganization of the foreign office will begin soon but it cannot be expected to move very swiftly since the newcomers must take some time to become acquainted with their new work, says the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung. "Already one new minister, an under secretary, a political director and a personal reporter have undertaken their new duties at the foreign office. The system will be altered so that one individual will control all relations with one given country whereas now political, commercial and technical relations were handled separately. There are about fifty diplomatic positions to be filled besides countries in relation with the present system. The rank which diplomats abroad will take is still uncertain and it is considered probably that many countries will appoint charge d'affaires, an example which Germany must follow. The Albanians hope that the general consuls at Vercalis, Trieste, Salonica, after leaving the state service, will become business directors of the Imperial Association of German Industry.

LONDON SEES CHANCE TO SELL AUTOMOBILES TO AMERICANS

LONDON, July 28.—In the last 11 years England has sold only 581 automobiles in the United States, the value of which was $2,152,241, while the United States has sold 12,500 automobiles in England, the value of which was $56,710,011, says the Board of Trade Journal.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Like a Glass of Salt to Each Kidney. H. A. G. Blakes Kidney Pills.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the urea acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish in action and cause all sorts of troubles, particularly headache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, indigestion, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Kid Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acid in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder disorders. Kid Salts cannot injure anyone; make a delicious effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women find new and pleasant, keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

TO TALK OVER TREATY TERMS WITH WILSON

Conference to Be Held Today Is Unparalleled in America.

WILL QUIZ PRESIDENT ON ALL PROVISIONS

Millard Tells Senate Committee Japan Will Hang Onto Shantung Grants.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—A conference in some respects unparalleled in American history, President Wilson will talk over the peace negotiations and the treaty with the senate foreign relations committee tomorrow at the White House.

By virtue of extraordinary plans to inform the public of every word that is spoken, the meeting will have the aspect of an open forum discussion at which the whole nation can look on.

As head of the American peace delegation and one of the three principals who formulated the world settlement at Versailles, the president is to be asked the meaning and purpose of provisions of the league of nations covenant, the reasons behind the decision to give Japan control in Shantung province, just what the United States is to take by reconstruction, and many other questions raised in senate consideration of the treaty.

Whether Mr. Wilson will answer questions put to him, or will consider that some of the information he received at the peace table should be held in confidence as a matter of national policy, remains confidential. But the committee means to give him the opportunity, if he chooses to tell the whole of the facts they lay before the treaty.

Mr. Millard gave it up as personal and based on twenty years' experience with big eastern states, that Japan never would leave Shantung until she was confronted with a "superior force." Asked whether he Form Organization to Urge Consideration of Public Domain Changes by Congress.

By the Associated Press. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 18.—Adoption of a resolution memorializing congress to cede the public lands to the states and the formation of an organization to urge this action in Washington were two important moves made by the governors of western states, who concluded a two days conference on the public domain question today. Governor O. A. Larrazolo of New Mexico was elected permanent chairman of the League of Public Land States, the name adopted for the new organization. Vice-Chairman of Utah was elected Governor Thomas E. Campbell, and Edward D. Bennett, chairman of the earlier settlement board of New Mexico, secretary.

The resolution was presented by Governor Larrazolo, who has been the head of the movement which resulted in the public land states conference and will be the basis of a memorial which will be sent to congress. It covers Larrazolo's production summary adopted at the closing session, follows: "Whereas, governmental records show that the public land states possess 225,000,000 or more acres of unreserved and unappropriated public lands and,

"Whereas, reservation and exemption from taxation of such large bodies of lands in the respective states by the federal government seriously impede and retard in their efforts toward full development of natural resources and internal improvement; and,

"Whereas, the public land states are now facing the most important problem in their history, and it is in their best interests to have the public lands returned to their respective boundaries to greater advantage to the people, we therefore resolve, That it is the sense of this convention that congress be urged and requested to cede all unreserved and unappropriated public lands to the states wherein the same are respectively located."

The governors will leave Thursday evening, Aug. 21, for a three day trip to Yellowstone park, returning to Salt Lake Monday morning, from here to return to their homes or to the Pacific coast on pleasure trips.
