PACKER METHODS AIRED IN SENATE

Agricultural Committee Hears Case and One of Efforts Upon Other Business.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Debate on the Senate floor today centered on the question of packers, their methods and the control of the preparation and supply of foodstuffs. Several amendments were made in a measure to amend the National Food and Drug Administration bill which provides for the control of packers and the supervision of their methods and the control of the preparation and supply of foodstuffs.

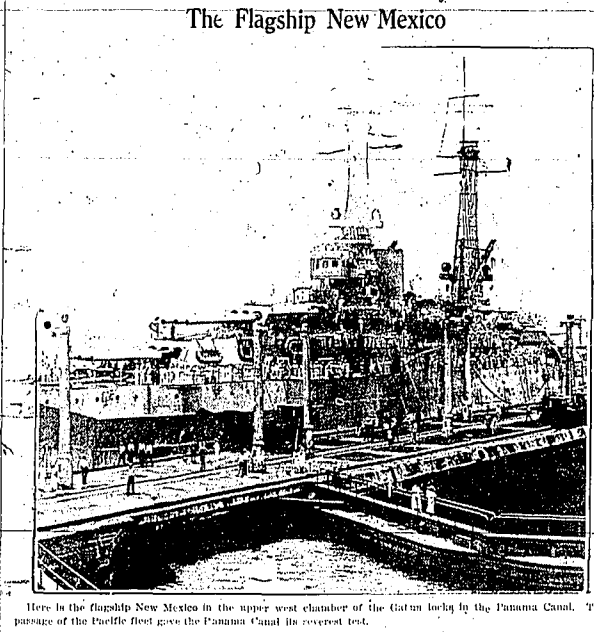

Henry W. Lynch, representing California and their association in California and Arizona, led the defense, while on the other side of the floor, Mr. H. H. Hanes of Jacksonville, Fla., spoke for the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association. Mr. Lynch made a direct and unqualified attack upon the packers and all their activities.

The packers' growth and strength, Mr. Hanes asserted, was due not to their efficiency, but to their financial power and their control of refrigerator car service, which gives them the privilege of a common carrier without a common carrier's responsibility.

"They now have 75 per cent of the wholesale grocery business in the United States and are now beginning to move toward monopoly," the wholesale grocers' interest in the situation, he said, paralleled that of the public, because the temporary policy of the packers in under-selling jobbers of food commodities would be abandoned whenever they attained practical monopoly.

Mr. Lynch simply said that "the packing industry represents the selling end of the whole retail business. When you demand or hammer that into this bill does it hurt?"

Mr. Hanes dealt at considerable length with the refrigerator business, which he classed as "strange cars, which he classed as "strange" business on wheels, rendering an exclusive service, at prices cheaper than railroad service can be rendered others, and more speedy.

When Senator McNary, Oregon, asked for a method of giving equal access to the distribution facilities, Mr. Hanes said it could be done easily. "The packers ought to be required to sell their cars to a corporation organized as a common carrier," he said, "adding bonds in exchange. Then the rates could be made sufficient on that line to render a profit and the company could operate them as efficiently as the packers."

"In the handling of the foodstuffs," he said, "the packers acquire ownership of factories and even forests, the wholesaler's profit if they wish in order to undersell."

"Then they only deal in those grocery lines in which the gross profit is made," he added. "They won't handle salt, sugar, or flour. They make immense purchases of a certain product in a territory where it is plentiful and sell it in territories where the price is higher. There are only scalpers in many of these products, speculating getting in and out when the market falls down."

The afternoon was spent with current events. Fourteen members were present.

The Penelope club gave a charming (one-course) luncheon at the Rogers hotel yesterday noon honoring Mrs. Frank Rudolph, who is leaving tomorrow for a new home in Portland. VOLCANIC PEAKS BELCH IN ALASKA

Region of Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes Is Black With Withered Ashes.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 21.—Volcanic peaks in the far southwestern corner of Alaska are in eruption this morning. Mount Katmai, the greatest of a party of scientists sent by the National Geographic society to study Mount Katmai, is a greatest of Alaska's smoking mountains, and its "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes." Persons who have recently returned from the volcanic country to the westward said Shishaldin Peak, an Unalak Island, in the Aleutian chain, was in eruption recently. They also reported it was believed Mount Pavlof, on the southwestern Alaskan mainland, also had erupted as the snow about the summit was red black.

When the party of scientists left Anchorage Alaska, on their way to the Katmai country, they said they believed there was little likelihood of an eruption this summer and declared they were certain there was absolutely no danger attached to the investigation. Katmai's last big "blow" off was in June, 1912.

The party of twenty-six scientists is headed by Professor Robert A. Griggs of the University of Ohio, and others are from Carnegie Institute.

They are planning to make observations of the historical, historical and geological effects of the 1912 eruption. In 1913 Professor Griggs headed a party of scientists to Katmai and returned with the announcement that the crater was the largest on the globe and that near Katmai lay a great valley whose floor was dotted with thousands of mouths vomiting gray vapory gas and smoke. This valley, Professor Griggs named "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes."

Congress recently set aside "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" as national property, and it is believed that some day it will be a second Yellowstone paper field. Steam rising from the volcanic country will eventually take the place of the present smoking vents.

Professor Griggs and his party expect to remain in the Katmai district until the middle of September. Until they return nothing probably will be heard from them as there is no direct means of communication. Mrs. Griggs and her children, accompanied the professor to Kodiak, an island near Katmai, and will remain there during the summer waiting for him to return.

Moving pictures of the smoking mountain and valley are to be brought back by the party.

HOOVER DECLIGRES JOSEPH MUST GO

Says Hungarian People Are Aroused Over Presumption of Renouant of Hapsburgs.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Aug. 21.—Herbert Hoover, head of the international relief organization, who has just returned from a two weeks' trip through central Europe, told American correspondents today that it is imperative that decisive diplomatic action be taken immediately to displace Archduke Joseph as head of the Hungarian government and to give Hungary a chance to establish a popular government.

The new countries of central Europe, Mr. Hoover said, are terrorized by the tolerance shown toward the setting up of the Hapsburg government in Hungary.

Mr. Hoover, who left Vienna Monday night, appeared today before the supreme council.

In discussing the Hungarian situation with newspaper men, Mr. Hoover asserted that Archduke Joseph's resignation can be forced within two days if the supreme council takes a firm stand, but that bloodshed will result if such action is postponed for a month.

The British statesman can prevent the restoration of the Hapsburgs, Mr. Hoover said, by refusing to recognize or deal with such a government. It is beyond the endurance of any civilized American, he said, to see his government tolerate the restoration of the Hapsburgs as the United States entered the war to banish from the world that for which the Hapsburgs and the Hohenzollerns stood.

The Hunnians, he said, still are requisitioning Hungarian food, only yesterday, he said, the Hunnians, under the eyes of American officials, seized eight truckloads of medical supplies and food destined for the children's hospitals of Budapest.

MUCK TAKES LEAVE IN BITTER MOOD

Former Symphony Orchestra Leader With Son-in-Law of Louis Swift Flees for Denmark.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Count James Mfinota, son-in-law of Louis F. Swift, the Chicago packer, and Dr. Karl Muck, former leader of the Boston symphony orchestra, both of whom were interned during the war as enemy aliens, sailed from here today for Copenhagen on the Scandinavian-American liner Frederick VIII.

Asserting that he was an American and not a German, but that he sailed for Denmark "a man without a flag or country," Dr. Muck arrived at the pier with his wife only a short time before the hour of departure. He was accompanied by an operative of the department of justice, whose duty it was to see that the musician landed the liner.

Artist Christy and the New Bride

This picture of Howard Chandler Christy and his bride, who was five years his model and posed for in any of his war posters, was taken just before they started on their honeymoon.

This done, the secret police seized the vessel, to make sure that the Muck did not leave it within the three-mile limit.

On stepping aboard the Frederick VIII, Dr. Muck denied his identity until a fellow passenger with whom he was acquainted threw his arms around his neck and kissed him.

Dr. Muck was in a bitter mood today he took his departure from the land in which he had been applauded.

He left the United States, he declared, with no regrets "as the country is being controlled by sentiment which closely borders on mob rule." He denounced newspapers, which, he said, had attacked his Americanism on a story circulated by "jealous rivals" and praised "some people in the musical world who stuck by me." These, he said, were the only persons he cared for.

The orchestra which once he had led was "in thing of the past," he declared. Twenty-nine German born members had been interned, he said, and he doubted if the group of musicians could ever again be brought together. As for himself, he said, he did not know what plans he would make on arriving in Denmark.

Count Mfinota was arrested in Chicago on November 28, 1915, charged with pro-German activities, which he denied. Held for investigation, he was taken in charge by the department of justice on a presidential warrant on May 14, 1918. A few days later he was subjected an enemy alien and interned an appeal later being dismissed.

SEEK PROTECTION FROM RY. STRIKES

Reorganization Program Hearing Before Congress Brings Out Additional Suggestions.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The railroad reorganization program should include legislation to assure the public sufficient facilities and service for its needs, and also to protect it from strikes, the house interstate commerce committee was told today by witnesses at the hearing.

At present, Thom, counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, declared the fundamental need of proposed legislation for return of the roads to private operation was creation of a federal transportation board, charged with general oversight from the viewpoint of public interests of the country's transportation needs, and Charles Pies, Chicago, representing the Illinois Manufacturers' association, urged that rail employees be compelled to waive the right of strike when accepting employment.

"We do not propose to put this board superior to the interstate commerce commission," declared Mr. Thom, who argued that its findings would give the commission the aid of recommendations of an independent public body as to what is in the public interest. Through the board, Mr. Thom said, a definite rule for rate making could be established, for the amount certified to the interstate commerce commission would be accepted as correct unless disproved.

Mr. Pies, in presenting the recommendations of the Illinois manufacturers, said that in denying the right of strikes to the rail employees provision should be made for an arbitration board whose findings would be subject only to final appeal to the interstate commerce commission.

Great Lakes shippers, Mr. Pies added, feared that the interstate commerce commission's control of water rates would violate of the Esch-Chandler bill would arrange development of water traffic because it was believed that the success of water rates depended on their elasticity.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the ureic acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, cold stomach, constipation, torpid liver, shrunken spleen, bladder and urinary troubles.

This moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jod Salts from any good pharmacist, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acid in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jod Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

MEXICO MUST CHOOSE

Mexico stands at the parting of the ways.
"Manana" has been her repeated answer to the time-long wooing of Brutal and Peaceful Peon.
The red flame of banditry, thinly disguised as political revolution, has flared to being, died down, only to break out again.
With surly defiance and blatant assertions of national honor and integrity, she is voided all outside efforts to aid her.
Again and again she "would give her swer tomorrow"—Manana!
But for her, tomorrow has become today.
The decision must be made.
The choice lies before her.
Will it be the road leading downward to the darkness and the red hell of war?
Or will it be the highway up into the alms of light and the happy pursuits of peace?
She must choose, and choose quickly.
Banditry?
Decency?
Which?

RAPIDLY MADE HISTORY

It used to be that our grandfathers and and mothers monopolized the conversation when it came to comparing present days with the past.
They had to go back to Civil war times and pioneer experiences when they brought mellow pictures for our envy and delight.
Now any adult can recall a period so radically different from this that it seems to be another age. The century is young, and look what has happened since young men and women of this generation were youngsters!
It wouldn't do to attempt a list of the amazing changes, from national prohibition to trans-Atlantic flights; from wireless telephones to the actors' strike.
Memory, the great artist, is overwhelmed with dramatic material.
The whirl and flare of modern existence make us gasp. When will history in the making slacken its speed?
Why, there are high school youths in Twin Falls who can recall when fat, juicy watermelons were ten cents apiece!
There are debutantes who remember Walter Wellman was laughed at for opposing to fly over the ocean!
There are men in their twenties who attended movies when every film depicted a wild chase and neck-breaking tumbles.
The feelings of old folk must be hurt when children can hark back to conditions a world so much slower, easier and less exciting than the one we now inhabit.

TRADE SUCCESS ABROAD

American commercial activity in Europe is said to be advancing on a large scale. Exports are steadily increasing, and in so far as those exports consist not of commodities particularly needed here, but of machinery and other products which can be spared, and are calculated to create a profitable and permanent foreign demand, the American public receives with the manufacturers.
The secret of present success in the foreign field is said to consist mainly in the prompt delivery of goods and the long credit given. The American exporters are beating the Germans at their own game.

It is gratifying to learn that our exporters at last are profiting by the lessons so long preached in vain. They might have won the foreign markets long ago, for a much greater extent, if they had studied and ministered to special foreign demands as they are doing now.

LAUGH CURE FOR THE EASY MARK

The government saves the American public a billion dollars a year by enforcement of the laws prohibiting the use of the mails for fraudulent purposes. If it were merely a matter of enforcing laws many hundreds of thousands more might be saved. The real remedy, however, lies in public education.
As long as the average human being is so willing to be caught and so eager to fall for every new wife of the swindler, he will step into every trap set for him. Whether the crook uses handsomely embossed stationery as evidence of reputable position and prosperity, or whether he simply appeals to the common desire to get something for nothing, he continues to catch his thousands of dupes. At the same time he injures the business of legitimate mail order enterprises and honest advertisers.

There is one ray of hope. Green goods and gold bricks have about disappeared from the swindler's market. The public was ridiculed and laughed out of the habit of purchasing gold bricks. The jokesters and comic cartoonists may be said to have assisted the authorities in ridding us of that particular pest. Perhaps if a great, nation-wide laugh could be started and directed against the foolish ones who are caught by the mail order frauds, these too would be put out of business by a slump in trade. The kind of man who "bites" for these things usually hates worse to be laughed at than to be fleeced.

ALMOST FUNNY

The doings of our courts and legislatures sometimes are funny, on the surface, but most of the jokes that are pulled by judges, lawyers senators, congressmen and state representatives are about the highest pitched comedy the people enjoy.
Now it isn't the fault of courts in Massachusetts that presently they will be called upon to determine whether or not it is a crime to play golf on Sunday.
Someone digs up an ancient law, the police are urged to do their duty and the Massachusetts Golf association is preparing to defend its sport by carrying a test case to the highest court.
The police co-operate by making the same arrests in as gentlemanly manner as possible.

But what about the citizens of the commonwealth? The taxpayers who can think of a number of things that might rightfully be brought to the attention of the authorities?
If ever there were solid problems for the laws to solve, it is now.
And yet the folly of using the costly machinery of courts for silly by-play seemingly can't be checked.

The courts can't be blamed, lawyers can't be blamed, litigants themselves are not always at fault in such matters, but a strange habit of mind exists somewhere.
Can't we, as a people, cure ourselves of the spasms of childishness that absorb so much of the energies and the resources of government?

NATURAL LAWS

Senator Reed says that it is foolish to attempt to do anything to remedy the high cost of living; that it is caused by the operation of natural laws. Measures intended to better conditions are dangerous, the senator insists, because they "disturb the natural economic tendencies."
If we let "natural laws" have their way, without attempting to better conditions, civilization might as well throw up the job.

Jones is named as defendant because he is president of the concern.

QUICK CHARGE ROUTS

HORDE FROM HIDING

As indicated by the fresh tracks, they scattered like quail, and it was difficult to follow them because of the faint tracks.

The fight with the bandits in the fortified blackhouse started as soon as the American troops commenced to search the place, fire being opened by the Mexicans from loop holes. The troops returned the fire.

"Four bodies were found. Two of the bandits escaped. They are still being pursued. These two latter outlaws are believed to have been members of Renteria's gang, but the aviators could not identify them."

The men who held them were desperate financiers, known on both sides of the river.

Captain Matlack will return to his troops in Mexico tomorrow. He held a brief conference with General Dickman and Colonel George T. Langhorne, commander of the 10th Cavalry district, tonight.

DIKEMAN TO REMAIN

MARFA, Tex., Aug. 21—Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the southern department, announced tonight that he would remain here tomorrow in order to go over the details of the big battle fought with Colonel George T. Langhorne. General Dickman's original plan to return to San Antonio tonight had been announced earlier in the day, prior to his arrival here.

A conference of the commanding officers of the department and of the district with aviation officers and others was held here today regarding the situation south of the border. It was not announced whether General Dickman would proceed to the border field bases tomorrow.

Without Information

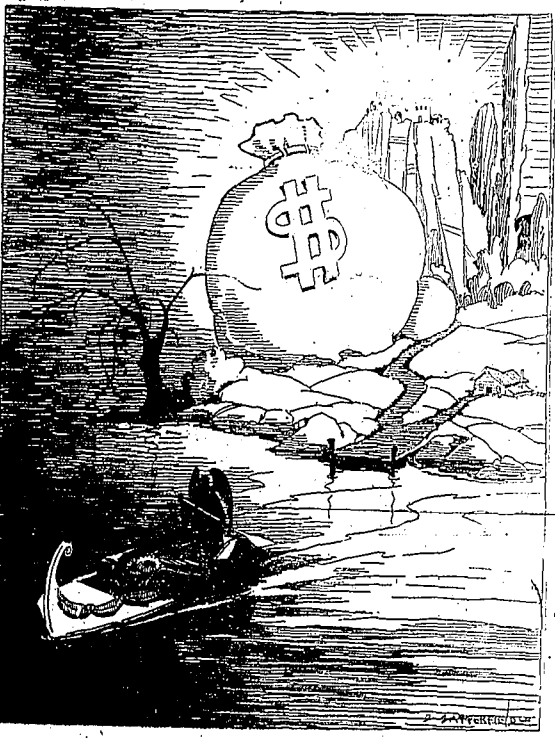

There was little definite information about the movement of American troops pursuing bandits in the interior of Mexico. At the end of the day of their withdrawal, they are believed to have penetrated far into the Ojiguin district. The exact location continues to be withheld for military reasons. No reports of the expedition were received at military headquarters during the day.

Adjutant General James A. Harney of Texas today telegraphed Colonel Langhorne that his entire force is at his disposal for scouting and other duties in Mexico. Captain Jerry Harney, commander of the 10th Cavalry, is being sent to the river today to make an inspection for a report to the adjutant general.

Troops Drive Fast

The cavalry troops have penetrated so far into the interior that it has become necessary to send money to the com-mandates in the field so that they may purchase supplies along the line of communication by getting too long to transport provisions to the troops. Airplanes will provide commanders with funds for these purchases for the Americans have orders to pay for everything obtained in Mexico.

"Thought of a telegram from General Alamo, Mexico, whose command includes the Ojiguin district, by General Antonio Primedia, commander of that district stating that American troops were wholly within their rights in pursuing bandits in accordance with the treaty of 1882, relieved fear that there would be a clash between the United States and American troops pursuing bandits. Telegram is announced.

The receipt of this telegram from General Diegues, who is stationed at Chihuahua City, was announced by the Mexican officials. It was after it had been shown by American airplane to General Primedia, in the field near Cuchillo Papalo.

The treaty of 1882, cited at the time of the Pershing expedition into Mexico, as interpreted here, permits Mexican troops to come into the United States in pursuit of bandits who might cross to the American side from Mexico. The treaty is said to have originated at the time when American and Mexican troops were pursuing the Apache leader, Geronimo, back and forth between the two countries while the Indians were committing wholesale depredations.

ASKED FOR WITHDRAWAL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—Immediate withdrawal of the American troops now on the trail of bandits in northern Mexico was asked today by Mexican Ambassador Bonillas, who called at the state department to present a formal protest from the Mexican government. The text of the protest was not made public and officials would not discuss it further than to say that no reply had been made.

At the war department it was said that no detailed reports on the operations of the American forces had been received from Major General Dickman, commanding the southern department. "The troops now are well into Mexico and army officers hope that before returning they will clean out bandits from the stretch of territory twenty miles south of the border where they are operating."

Exact No Reply

Whether a reply to the Mexican protest will be sent has not been announced. Such protests have been made before without drawing a response, officials regarding them as having been submitted largely for the record.

The American forces went into Mexico on a "hot trail," seek out the bandits who held the American army aviators, Lieutenants Davis and Peterson, for ransom and it was indicated tonight that the Mexican protest would hasten their withdrawal.

Early notices to the state department are keeping officials here informed as to the state of public opinion in Mexico as reflected in the newspapers of Mexico. One newspaper today showed a general belief in the capital that failure to solve the petroleum problem is an important factor in the present strained relations between Mexico and the United States.

The Universal is quoted as saying that official opinion in Mexico demands a complete change in the cab-change his plans. General Dickman denied that he intended to order the troops out of Mexico at once. "There is nothing to such a report," he said.

While no official announcement was made it is understood that cooperation will be given the Americans by Carranza's troops. General Diegues' message to General Primedia, Ojiguin, commander, saying that American troops had right to follow bandits under the treaty of 1882, this understanding made the prospect of the punitive expedition less difficult.

The action of Mexican federal troops today by General Alamo, Mexico, followed by the troops in the pursuit of the bandits was considered evidence of a friendly attitude.

General Alamo, Mexico, followed by the troops in the pursuit of the bandits was considered evidence of a friendly attitude.

Because of the comparatively small number of U. S. cavalry troops with the expedition the fact that these troops were with the column was not considered a liability. One of the reasons for this was the fact that the expedition was led by the 10th Cavalry, under the command of General Primedia, Mexico, who is a well-known aviator. Another reason was the fact that the expedition was led by the 10th Cavalry, under the command of General Primedia, Mexico, who is a well-known aviator.

WELCO TO THE YANKS

MARFA, Aug. 21—Arrangements were made tonight for a banquet to the border tomorrow morning to carry 100 pounds of cheese, tobacco, cigarettes, smoking tobacco and chewing gum for the American soldiers across the border. This was done at the request of commanders of the punitive expedition, who said the men were out of tobacco and were anxious to get chewing gum to relieve their thirst on the long, dry marches.

Establishment of a landing post in Mexico for the aviators is being planned so that the aviators may land their material of getting to Presidio, Texas, to night.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

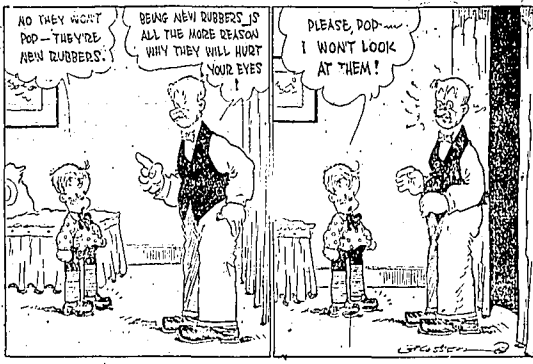

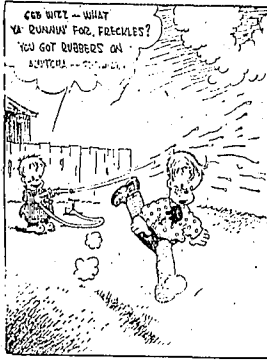

Dr. Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage and Sulphur, properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Therefore, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by getting at my drug store for "Woods' Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you are tinting your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray application is done, you are becoming beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Woods' Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, prevention or prevention of disease, and after another trial of disease.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach. Says inside-bathing makes any one look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed. Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowels pores do. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which absorb not only nourishment to sustain the body. A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels thus cleaning, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate is sold by Huls at a drug store but is sufficient to make any one an enthusiast on inside bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull aching head or others who have "bilious attacks," have "burned toppers," had "stomach nastiness," had "stomach nastiness," have "yellow complexion," acid stomach or constipation, are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

TWO AVIATORS DISAPPEAR IN MEXICAN RAID

Lieut. Waterhouse, Idaho Boy, in Charge of the Missing Aircraft.

DUE IN SAN DIEGO WEDNESDAY EVENING

United States Forces Are Making Careful Search Over the Territory Covered.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 21.—Colonel A. J. Harlan, commanding the army aviation forces at Rockwell field, North Island, announced tonight that two aviators from the Ninth new squadron with base here, had been missing since 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They are Second Lieutenants Frederick B. Waterhouse of Weber, Ida., and C. H. Connelly of San Diego.

Waterhouse in Charge.

The two aviators, Lieutenant Waterhouse acting as pilot and Lieutenant Connelly as observer on border patrol work, started from Yuma, Ariz., to San Diego at 11:35 a. m. yesterday.

Colonel Harlan said his conclusion was that the aviators had been forced to make a landing, possibly below the Mexican line, near Jacumba, in San Diego county.

Fifteen machines were sent out from North Island today to try to find the missing flyers, but all returned without having found a trace of them. Han Into Storm.

Lieutenant Waterhouse and Connelly were in a de Havilland machine with a 400 horse-power Liberty motor. They left North Island Tuesday morning. Near Yuma they ran into a severe storm which damaged the propeller of the airplane. Word of the accident was sent here and a new propeller was sent out by auto truck from North Island. The repairs having been made, the machine went on to San Diego and started on the return trip yesterday. The aviators were due here at about 4 p. m. yesterday.

The region south of Jacumba in which the aviators were assumed to have made a forced landing is excellently broken covered by dense growth of chaparral and almost wholly uninhabited.

FAIL TO FIND AVIATORS

EL CENTRO, Cal., Aug. 21.—A thorough search of a strip two miles wide on both sides of the international boundary between California and San Diego will be made for Lieutenant Waterhouse, an aviator from Rockwell field on border patrol work, who disappeared yesterday, according to an announcement made today by Lieutenants G. W. Parry and C. T. McLaughlin, who arrived here from San Diego, they said to conduct the search.

After spending several hours here, refueling and taking on water, the airplane departed late today. Waterhouse, they said, was last seen at Jacumba several miles west of here about 5:30 last night. No trace of his machine has been found.

The searching officers could give no explanation for Waterhouse's disappearance. They declared they would make a thorough search south of Jacumba in Lower California.

MEXICANS SCOUR COUNTRY

CALIFORNIA, Cal., Aug. 21.—All available soldiers in the Mexican zone at Mexical, Lower California, were sent to the interior tonight to search for the missing aviators. SUGAR PRICE TO BE FIXED AT 11 CENTS License Control Is Established by Federal Food Administration.

PRICE TO BE UNIFORM FROM COAST TO COAST

Past Profiteering Is to Be Forgotten if Retailers Will Now Obey the Order.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Average control of sugar prices was resumed today by the government through an agreement reached between the department of justice and the food administration that license will be revoked by the latter when it is shown dealers have been profiteering.

Price Is 11 Cents

Sugar should reach the consumer at approximately 11 cents a pound, it was announced, based on the ownership of the entire domestic and Cuban crop by the United States sugar trust, which admits that it is now retreating 728 cents a pound. Refiners are under contract with the board to sell at nine cents, less two cents discount for cash, wholesalers and jobbers are allowed a maximum of 66 cents per ton, which includes a profit of one to one-half cents per pound, making a fair price 11 cents, except in cases where dealers have purchased at an "irregular" price.

With the heavy agricultural campaign a commitment for extension of the powers of the food control act before it, the house tonight prepared to take action tomorrow on the amendment and thereby adhere to its embargo step toward limiting sugar prices. The amendment, which has a first successful reading by a unanimous vote, includes a provision giving the food control act, and its enforcement, with the control exercised over sugar, officials believe, will do much to reduce the price of sugar.

Wants But Fair Price

"The desire is to secure a fair price for the consumer," said Attorney General Palmer in announcing resignation of sugar control, "and we do not intend to pursue a wholesale policy of recommending the cancellation of the license. Where trade adjusts itself to a fair price for the future, past transactions, unless flagrant, will not ordinarily be made the basis of a recommendation by this department for the cancellation of the license."

SENATE PLODS WAY THROUGH DAY OF WORDS

Hair Trigger Distinctions and Human Vanity Grow More Visible.

TREATY IS SECONDARY TO POMP OF SOLONS

Races of All Hemispheres Are to Be Given Their Say Before the Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The compromise proposal to have the non-entangling treaty, but keep them separate from the ratification itself was put aside indefinitely after democratic leaders had declined to assume responsibility for it and republicans of all shades of opinion had given notice they could not accept it.

Among the republicans the development was interpreted as meaning that action never would be sought on the proposal in its present form, and democratic leaders generally said they had no plans for bringing it to a vote.

Two New Issues

Meanwhile, a White House announcement and an executive action of the foreign relations committee brought to the surface again two other issues of the treaty fight.

Breakdown of Wilson's reply to a suggestion that he might not let the treaty on a peace basis by declaring the war at an end, announced that he not only considered himself powerless to take such a step, but considered a peace declaration either by himself or Congress to be a violation of the treaty.

That the foreign relations committee got into another argument over prompt committee action on the treaty which ended by a resolution, without a record vote, to continue its hearings to receive the cases of the Irish, Greek, Egyptian, Lithuanian, Ukrainian, Estonian and Latvian races.

Plan Not Sponsored.

In every democratic quarter, including the White House, it was indicated that the compromise proposal presented yesterday in a resolution by Senator Pittman of Nevada, a democrat of the committee, was not officially sponsored by the president though it followed generally his suggestion to the committee Tuesday regarding reservations.

Senator Pittman issued a statement saying the president had no knowledge of the resolution and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the administration leader, indicated that in no sense was the move inspired by the administration. There was no formal expression from the White House.

Pittman Seeks Expedient.

In his statement, Mr. Pittman said his idea in presenting the measure was to expedite action on the treaty. He insisted that he would ask for action later.

Republican leaders say they were ready for a vote today if the demagogue wanted to bring the Pittman resolution in a roll call.

President Wilson's announcement of his stand against a peace declaration was made in a letter to Senator Fish, republican, New Mexico, replying to a list of questions submitted by the latter. At the same time Mr. Wilson explained the treaty provision turning over the German colonies to the five principal powers by saying it vested only a trusteeship over the colonies and that it was not intended to be a permanent arrangement.

when we got to Eden there would be a fight.

The man at the garage gave me the gasoline and as I stood up to put the machine back down over the front seat I tripped upon the sidewalk. The garage man got his gun and the deputies were called. I told them that the man had $200 of my money and the story. The Twin Falls sheriff was called and the deputies brought me back to the Hansen bridge where we met Mr. Sprague and DeHornum, who brought us to Twin Falls.

Boy Is a Freak.

Investigation by the sheriff's office disclosed that Anita had been in trouble before, being arrested on a charge of assault upon a sheep herder at Bull. He was released because the sheep herder could not furnish any witnesses of the affair. Investigation also disclosed that the lad had not been working at Bull Lake.

Anita is a mild appearing youth of a rather nervous disposition. He told members of the sheriff's force that he got the money from Starr because he knew Starr had it and that he wanted to take a trip to the east. He appeared to have no family or social acquaintance in court at any trial in the morning," he declared.

Anita will be arraigned before Probate Judge Duvall this morning on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

SPEND TWO YEARS ARRANGING TOUR

Duane and Wiley, Australian Champion Swimmers, Boat to East-Persevere in Efforts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Fanny Durack and Mima Wylie, the Australian world's champion swimmers, who recently left Chicago to participate in swimming meets in many parts of the country, tried for two years to arrange the tour they have at last started.

The unsuccessful attempt of William Frankel in 1917 to obtain authorization of the Amateur Athletic Union for the trip was duplicated last year by George Dowling, whose proposal to accompany the young women as a guardian and manager failed of approval. Fears were expressed last attempt would be made to capitalize the talents of the swimmers. The tour finally was arranged through the efforts of Frederick Hudson, former much correspondence and telegraphing to New York.

Prior to their final appearance in the United States at Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash., it was announced the swimmers will participate in a national event at Annapolis, where they fly from San Francisco, and Los Angeles, California.

Miss Durack has held all women's swimming records from 50 yards to the mile. Her record for the 50 yards has been tied by Olga Defoor at 29 seconds. She has a record of 19 4-5 seconds, a half second better than the best American record, for 75 yards. Her other records are: 100 yards, 1:06; 220 yards, 2:57; quarter mile, 6:17; half mile, 12:57; mile, 25:08.

The record for the 100 yard breast stroke, 1:25, is held by Miss Wylie. She is a former holder of the records.
