SENATE HAS PACT

IS PASTERED WITH CHANGES BY COMMITTEE

"Strong" Reservations and Amendments Basis of Ratification Resolution.

REFUSE TO GUARANTEE TERRITORIAL CHANGES

Demands Unconditional Right to Withdraw From the League—Sole Judge of Doctrine.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The senate foreign relations committee late today finished its work on the peace treaty with Germany and after adopting four reservations to the league of nations covenant, ordered the treaty reported to the senate with about two score amendments previously incorporated.

The treaty now passes so far as the United States is concerned, into its final stage—that of open consideration by the senate for ratification or rejection. Committee action was deferred on the special treaty to protect France as on other treaties submitted.

Chairman Lodge will return the treaty to the senate with a formal majority late next week. A minority report by the democrats opposing both amendments and reservations is to be filed within three days thereafter and it is expected that actual consideration of the treaty will begin about September 15. Weeks of debate, before the final vote, are expected. The first contest will be over the committee's amendments, with firm and decisive struggle over the reservations, which the resolution provides must be specifically accepted by three of the four great powers—France, Japan, Italy and Great Britain.

Conclusion of the committee's work, which has taken nearly two months—came somewhat unexpectedly today at a special executive session of three hours stormy debate.

The Four Reservations.

The four reservations which were sponsored by Chairman Lodge and written into a resolution providing for conditional ratification of the treaty, provide: First, for "unconditional" withdrawal of the United States from the league.

Second, refusal of this nation to assume any foreign territorial guarantees under article 10 of the league or mandates without action by congress.

Third, exclusive action by the United States on democratic affairs, and Fourth, interpretation of the Monroe doctrine solely by this nation.

Party lineup shattered.

On all reservations the party lineup of the committee was shattered. Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, voted with the democrats in opposition to those dealing with article 10 and the withdrawal provision, but joined his colleagues in supporting those provisions affecting the Monroe doctrine and democratic affairs.

Without a Second Vote. The ratification resolution and reservations were then introduced. Resolution of Ratification. Resolved (two-thirds of the senators present concurring there-

By the Associated Press. SACHRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 4.—A letter to the Sacramento Bee dated Peking, China, July 31, and published today, says:

The boycott instituted by the Chinese against the Japanese because of the Shantung controversy, is going on as strong as ever; though three months have passed. The published returns of exports from Japan to China show a decided decrease. In some lines the reduction has been as much as 50 per cent. Already the Japanese government has sent Mr. Yoshizawa, formerly first secretary at Peking on a mission to Shantung and to explain what object lies behind his mission to no known effect.

The recent student agitation, which began in May with the burning of the house of Tao Ju Lin and the beating of Chian Chung Hsing, late minister in Japan, was a wonderful thing—nothing the most remarkable incident since the revolution in 1911. The two officials named are of the five prominent officials of China who are openly charged as being agents of Japan.

This agitation was responsible for the discontinuance of the pro-Japanese beginning and continuance of the boycott, the establishment of numerous new industries, the awakening of the illiterate and mercantile classes and the shaky positions of the military.

Mr. James Potter, late United States ambassador to Italy spent some time in Peking and the Yangtze valley this year and has expressed his views in the Japan Advertiser where he wanted the Japanese of the mis-trust which they have raised against them among all peoples."

ASKS CRITICS TO PRODUCE A BETTER PACT

Arbitration Will Keep "War on the Outsiders" a "Last Resort."

URGES PEOPLE TO FORGET PARTIES

Small Nations Can Secure Justice Before League—Explains Shantung Provision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—"Put up or shut up," was the advice given opponents of the league of nations by President Wilson here tonight in the second of his ten thousand mile tour of the United States. "If the critics of the league have something better to suggest," said the president, "I hope they will hold their convention and do it now."

He said the league opponents could not hope to defeat the program except by offering something better.

President Wilson said no one believed the league of nations would make all wars impossible, but that he expected it to make war "impossible." The economic and arbitration sections of the covenant, he asserted, would "keep war on the outskirts and make it only a last resort."

Opponents of the league of nations, he said, should not only see out of twenty-six articles of the covenant. The articles which would make war improbable had been overlooked.

Calling on opponents of the league of nations to present a "better program" for peace, President Wilson declared it is a case of put up or shut up.

The president said his speaking trip was partly to point out, how "absolutely ignorant" of the contents of the covenant some of these were who opposed the league.

"If they read the English language at all," he said, "they do not understand it as I do."

The president said he wanted to forget and wanted the people to forget they were republicans or democrats.

"I am an American," he declared, "and a champion of the rights which America believes in."

Crowd Cheers Talk. At this the crowd cheered and there was another outburst of cheering when he declared he had "not the slightest doubt" that the verdict of the people would be for the league.

Some delegations, the president said, came to the Paris conference with causes which were not considered properly within the scope of the peace conference. In that connection he pointed out that under article 11 any threat of war could be investigated by the league.

"At present," said he, "we have to mind our own business, but under the covenant and the league we can mind other people's business."

There was not an oppressed people anywhere, he said, that could not get attention for its case under the league. He did not mention any oppressed people by that name but many of his hearers remarked that they thought he spoke of the case of Ireland.

Referring to the Shantung settlement, the president pointed out that Japan repeatedly had promised to return the peninsula to China. He did not say into the subject at length, however, but mentioned it in emphasizing that the covenant would refuse to recognize the "validity" of secret treaties.

The president said he could locate the members of the country in the face of peace, because he had kept his promise to do all he could to prevent any more war.

"This league," he said, "is the only conceivable arrangement which will prevent our sending our men abroad to die for nothing."

The President's Speech. The text of President Wilson's speech follows: "My fellow citizens: So great a

PLAN AIR ROUTE TO RIO DE JANEIRO

First Flight of Aerial Levitation to Be Made Some Time This Fall.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Twenty-man expedition... to be... from... to Rio de Janeiro some time this fall, according to an announcement here. Owners of the aerial levitation intend, if the initial voyage is successful, to maintain a regular four-day service between the two points. The aircraft, it is said, will be... via Lisbon, Sierra Leone (West Africa), and then across the Atlantic to Rio de Janeiro. The return trip will be made by way of the same points. Sir Woodman Birchall, is reported to have booked three berths for the flight—for himself, his wife and a friend. The price of these tickets was $5,000 each. The ship is known as the H-80. It has a gross capacity of 1,250,000 cubic feet, more than half the size of the famous H-24. She is considered the most perfectly constructed streamline type of airship and has a speed of 60 miles per hour. She is 525 feet in length. Passengers' living quarters are situated on top of the hull and consist of cabins of sleeping berths, a roof garden and a shelter deck. There is an observation car below the hull which is connected with the living quarters by means of a passenger lift through the middle of the craft. In connection with the progress of aeronautics in England, it is interesting to note that announcement is made by the air ministry of the opening next February of a Royal Air Force cadet college for the training of the permanently commissioned officers of the Royal Air Force. Only 50 cadets will be admitted to the opening class of the college. Examinations will be held in November. Candidates must be between seventeen and one-half and nineteen years of age upon entering the school. A two-years course is prescribed. Compulsory examinations will govern admission.

URGE MEN TO GIVE OUT STRAIGHT DOPE

Frederick Remond to Visitors to Big Fleet Discouraged in Editorial. WITH THE PACIFIC FLEET, SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—"Passing out the Dope" is the title of an editorial in the last edition of the "Gunney Bulletin," issued aboard the New Mexico, flagship of the Pacific fleet. It gives suggestions for the treatment of civilian visitors aboard ship. It follows in part: "Ever since we have been on the west coast we have been thronged almost daily with visitors curious to get a glimpse of life in the navy. Many of them have never been on board a man-of-war as big and modern as the New Mexico, and, of course, they are going to ask questions to which, to us, the answers seem apparent. "Think a minute, though: There has been a day when the use of a ship was just as strange and new to us and we asked exactly similar questions. "Of course, the temptation to give a fool reply is strong, but, fortunately, few of us have succumbed to that temptation. However, such statements have been heard as the following: "Now they shells (referring to the anti-marine shells in the five-inch gun armament) are for target practice, because the bullet nose make a bigger hole in the target and it is easier to count the scores, and others just as foolish. "That may be funny, but it is not true. As we said, incidents like that are rare, but they should not occur at all. "The sole reason this navy of ours has for its existence is to protect the United States and its people, and, as the expense of our existence falls on the people they have a right to know the truth about us. We are a form of national insurance and the nation should know as much about us as it does of the fire and life insurance. So take a little care in answering our visitors' questions and send them away satisfied that they are efficiently insured."

DO YOU KNOW

That, the Canadian Pacific irrigated farms are selling at $50 per A. with $5 per A. cash and 20 years on the balance? That, the interest is only 2 per cent per annum for the first two years where improvement work is done, and 6 per cent from then on? That, the altitude is 2400 feet to 2500 feet (1400 feet lower than Twin Falls) and the average annual rainfall is 17 inches? That, the Dominion government controls all water rights in Canada and guarantees two acre feet for this particular tract? That, the water is measured and delivered on your land and not three or four miles up the ditch? That, this body of rich land lies down the Bow River valley about 100 miles southeast of Calgary and only 120 miles from the U. S. line? That, wheat, oats, barley, field peas, beans, alfalfa, clover, hops and all grasses do as well there as in Southern Idaho? That, the C. P. R. will loan you $2000 for improvements on same terms as land? That, there is no tax on personal property or improvements and only thirty to forty dollars tax on 160 acres? That, the Province of Alberta embraces 162,755,200 acres and supports a population of less than half a million? That, you should join one of our parties, spend a week's time and $75, and investigate this proposition?

The Moral Risk

When the time comes to seek credit, a bank will want to know what you ARE as well as what you HAVE. That's where the moral hazard comes in. And you can't establish credit over night. Rather, it is a matter of becoming KNOWN at your bank, of establishing confidence by the way in which you have kept your account, regardless of the amount you have to your credit. Get acquainted—that's the first thing. Then develop that acquaintance into friendship. It will stand you in splendid stead when the time comes. # WANT COMMISSION TO FIX R.R. RATES

Senator Underwood Advocates Plan for Governing Carriage Commissions in This Country.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Establishment of a governmental commission or board with powers to fix railroad rates and transportation rates was advocated in the Senate today by Senator Underwood of Alabama, a democratic member of the Interstate commerce committee.

Without disclosing whether he favored the Interstate commerce commission as the proposed tribunal on discussing the Committee bill plan to discussing the Commission in the Senate today by Senator Underwood said the interests of the public, of capital and of railroad employees require such a plan.

"Men will not strike," said the Alabama senator, "against the just decisions of the government. After a fair determination of the controversy by an impartial tribunal, public sentiment will force the contending parties to accept the verdict rendered as final. It must be done in the interest of the men involved, the industry of the people, and the peace of the nation."

The tribunal he proposed, Senator

Underwood continued, "must have the authority and power to protect the rights of the whole people against the recurrence of strikes and lock-outs."

"There is but one way out, in my judgment," he continued, "and that is to appoint a tribunal with the power to adjust these matters, which has the authority and power to protect the rights of the whole people against the recurrence of strikes and lock-outs."

"If you want a final and just solution of such a controversy you are practically driven to leaving the decision to a governmental commission that has full and ample opportunity to investigate the rates of wages, the carrying power of the transportation companies, the cost of living, the burden that rests on the shipping public, and to determine. First, what is a fair, just and living wage for the men; second, how far this charge can be placed on the capital of the corporation without breaking it down; third, how far an increased charge for labor, interest or supplies can be handed down to the public without doing injustice to the shipper and traveler, and without becoming a mortice to the development of industry."

"It is essential that the board or commission that is given the power to adjust the wage scale of the men must also have the power to reflect its findings in the rates charged for the transportation of persons and property over the railroads."

WILSON LAUGHS AT IDEA OF RUNNING NEXT YEAR

By the Associated Press.
ON BOARD THE GREAT SPECIAL TRAIN, Sept. 4.—When the train stopped for a few minutes at Danvers, N. J., a number of Red Cross workers and some town folk were at the station and the president came out on the platform of the car. He greeted the small crowd and chatted with the Red Cross workers for a moment.

An elderly, gray haired man got in conversation with the president just before the train pulled out of Danvers.

"I wish you succeed on your trip," he said. "It means a great deal to me. I lost two boys in the war and have only one left. I am looking to you to prevent future wars so we won't have to fight."

Another man in the crowd reminded the president that Danvers had voted against him in the last presidential election, but would be for him in 1920.

"Oh, no," replied the president, laughing and blushing his cheeks.

SCHOOLS CONTINUE TO SHOW INCREASE

New Addition to Be Provided—Two More Teachers Added to the System.

Growth of the Twin Falls schools, beyond expectations of the most optimistic resident a year ago, is evinced in the report made by Superintendent H. H. Yesterday. He stated that at least 100 more children have entered the schools since the first day.

As a result of the congestion two other teachers have been secured, Mrs. Meredith Jones and Mrs. Ann Hill being placed in the Washington building.

Today Mr. Blue will organize an addition to the present system, in order to provide room at the present school buildings for overflow in many of the grades. Just what rooms will be secured for this addition has not yet been ascertained by Mr. Blue. Mrs. D. Harold McGrath will be in charge of these grades.

Yesterday members of the seventh and eighth grades at the Washington school were transferred to the Lincoln and Bleckle schools to provide room for 45 fifth and sixth grade children who have been held in the auditorium at the Washington because of lack of room for them elsewhere.

The growth in the grade schools is rivaled by that in the high schools. An example; Mr. Bug stated that 87 pupils had registered yesterday in the chemistry classes.

NATION-WIDE EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN IS PLANNED

By the Associated Press.
LAKE GENEVA, Wis., Sept. 4.—Delegates to the conference of the Presbyterian New Era movement today considered plans for a nationwide evangelistic campaign after listening to stirring addresses.

Rev. Joseph H. Vance, D. D., Detroit, Mich., said that to christianize America was the mission of the church. He said that the "Trotsky and Lenin crowd" would soon be swept aside; that their doctrine was all "bluff"; that soon their rule of loot would end and the people would be following the cross of Christ. Even the social agitator, Vance said, in their inner hearts realized that christianity alone could rebuild the world as they themselves would like to have it established for their children to grow up in.

Dr. Vance said that christianity could only conquer a world through a unified church. He said the average church did not have its whole membership sufficiently active.

Rev. William C. Cover, D. D., of Chicago said that the Christianizing of America could only be accomplished through a leadership inspired by a moral passion kindled by devotion to Jesus Christ. That was the supreme qualification for competent leadership.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get clogged, become congested and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges; torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all signs of blood disorders.

"Four family pills keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will thank you. This famous salt is made from the finest art of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so as no longer irritate, thus ending bladder disorders."

Jad Salts is harmless; it expurges; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SOCIALISTS STAND FOR SOVIET PLAN

National Party Also Favors Internationalism in Germany and Austria.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—In a declaration of principles adopted today the national-socialist party unanimously endorsed the soviet republic of Russia and the international socialist movement and condemned the league of nations.

The delegates jumped to their feet and cheered for several minutes when the paragraph was read approving the soviet republic of Russia. The document compared the Russian revolution with the American revolution of 1776. The manifesto adopted read in part as follows:

"We declare our solidarity with the workers of Russia in establishing their soviet republic and we endorse the socialism of Germany, Austria and Hungary in their struggle for freedom. We condemn the counter revolution in Russia backed by the czarists and the entente nations in an effort to destroy the soviet republic.

"We approve industrial as well as political action in the struggle for the emancipation of the working class. We condemn the league of nations as the black international of capitalists. It is the conscious alliance of the capitalists of all nations against the workers of all nations.

"We demand the immediate lifting of the international and inhuman blockade of Russia.

"We urge the workers of the United States to do all in their power to restore and maintain our civil rights to the end that the transition from capitalism to socialism may be effected without resorting to the drastic measures made necessary by autocratic despotism.

"Long Live International Socialism." A committee of seven was named to prepare a standing party platform and a new working program.

William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Industrial Workers of the World, recently released from the Leavenworth penitentiary pending the appeal of his case, was invited to address the convention of the communist labor party today, but he sent a letter declining and explaining that the time was not opportune for him to deliver public speeches.

IS PLASTERED WITH CHANGES BY COMMITTEE

In that the senate advise and consent to the ratification of a treaty of peace with Germany, signed by the plenipotentiaries of the United States and Germany and by the plenipotentiaries of the twenty-seven allied and associated powers at Versailles, June 28th, 1919, with the following reservations and understandings to be made a part and condition of such ratification, which modification is not to take effect or bind the United States until the said following reservations and understandings have been accepted as a part of and a condition of said instrument of ratification by at least three of the (one principal allied and associated powers, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan.

Interests Right to Withdraw. 1. The United States reserves to itself the unconditional right to withdraw from the league of nations upon the notice provided in article 1 of said treaty of peace with Germany.

Want's Accept Mandatories. That the United States agrees to accept under the provisions of article 10, or under any other article, any obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in the controversies between other nations members of the league or not, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States in such controversies, or to adopt economic measures, for the protection of any other country, whether a member of the league or not, against external aggression or for the purpose of coercing any other country, or for the purpose of intervention in the internal conflicts of other countries, which may arise in any other country, and no mandate shall be accepted by the United States under article 22, part 1, of the treaty of peace with Germany, except by action of congress of the United States.

Decide Own Domestic Questions.

3. The United States reserves to itself exclusively the right to decide what questions are within its domestic jurisdiction and declares that all domestic and political questions relating to its affairs, including immigration, commerce, and all other domestic questions, and all other domestic questions, are solely within the jurisdiction of the United States and are not under this treaty submitted in any way either to arbitration or to the consideration of the council of nations, or to the decision or recommendation of any other power.

4. The United States declines to submit for arbitration or inquiry by the assembly or the council of the league of nations, provided for in article 10, or under any other article, any question which in the judgment of the United States depends upon or relates to its long established policy, commonly known as the Monroe doctrine; and doctrine to be interpreted by the United States alone and is hereby declared to be wholly outside the jurisdiction of said league of nations and entirely unaffected by any provision contained in the said treaty of peace with Germany.

Reservation of the "Strong."

The reservations were offered by Chairman Lodge and were regarded as representing the views of the republicans advocating domestic reservations. It was announced Senator McCumber would offer a substitute ratification resolution in the senate providing views of the so-called "mild" reservationists. Senator Lodge said the reservations were the composite work only of republican senators advocating "strong" reservations.

Has Forty Amendments.

The treaty as amended and incorporating about forty amendments adopted recently by the majority is reported for the senate's deliberation. The amendments, briefly provided: For return of Shantung to China under the amendment of Senator Lodge to substitute "China" for "Japan" in the Shantung section.

For withdrawal of the United States from representation on the non-nuclear international commission. This amendment was by Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, and involves about 15 textual changes.

For limitation of the authority of American representatives on the very strict conclusions to be without direction of their government, except on shipping questions. For equal voting power in the league council and assembly of the United States and Great Britain.

For a prohibition against British colonies voting in league deliberations on questions between Great Britain and the United States.

Doesn't Press One Amendment.

Senator Fall did not press his amendment proposing elimination of the provision for an international labor body.

Adoption of the reservations today was strenuously contested by democratic committeemen except Senator Shields. "The latter," it was said, declared emphatically for reservations.

Born Is Absent.

The vote on adoption of the reservations was 10 to 7, on that affecting the territorial guarantees and mandates, and 11 to 6 on those dealing with domestic questions and the Monroe doctrine. Senators Borah, republican, Idaho, and Smith, democrat, Arizona, were not present, but gave proxies.

On the withdrawal reservation the vote was as follows:

For adoption: Senators Lodge, Borah, Brandegee, Fall, Knox, Harding, Johnson, New and Moses, republicans; and Shields, democrat; against: Senators McCumber, republican, and Hitchcock, Williams, Swanson, Pomerene, Smith and Pittman, democrats.

Johnson John McCumber.

A clause in the original reservation presented by Senator Lodge providing the United States may withdraw from the league unconditionally within six months instead of at the end of two years as provided in the treaty, was eliminated 9 to 8, with the republican majority and Senator Shields voting to strike out the time limitation and Senator McCumber and Johnson joining six democrats in opposing its elimination.

On the reservation concerning territorial guarantees and mandates, all 10 republicans, except Senator McCumber, voted for its adoption and Senator Shields withheld his vote. Senator McCumber and the six democrats voted in the negative.

All 10 republicans, including Mr. McCumber and Senator Shields voted for the reservations as to domestic affairs and the Monroe doctrine with the six democrats again in opposition. No vote was taken on the provision requiring acceptance of the reservation by Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan.

Amendments to Be Rejected.

Following the committee's action democratic leaders reiterated predictions that all of the amendments would be rejected by the senate, but refrained from predictions of probable disposition of the reservations.

Chairman Lodge said tonight that he would require several days to draft the majority report and that probably he would be unable to actually submit the treaty to the senate before the middle or latter part of next week.

After the majority report is filed the committee, provided that the democratic minority shall have three days to file their report. Actual senate deliberations on the treaty, section by section as provided by the constitution, are not expected to begin, therefore, before about 10 days.

WASHINGTON 5-3; PHILLY 2-4. PHILADELPHIA Sept. 4.—Philadelphia and Washington broke even on today's doubleheader and on the four game series. Walter Johnson held the home side to four hits and seven runs, five to two, while Naylor held the visitors safe in all but one inning of the second game and the Athletics hammered Harper in the closing inning for a 6 to 3 victory. The win, purchased from Vince of the Tigers league, made his debut with the Athletics in the first game. He pitched effectively at times, but could not field hits and was in continual trouble on this account. Scores: Washington..... 3 14 0 Philadelphia..... 7 4 0

RECORD: R. H. E. St. Louis..... 0 6 1 Detroit..... 2 4 1 Batteries: Maple and Seeverdt; Leonard and Altmith.

SOX HAVE PENNANT ICED MID GLEASON SWEARS SO

By FRED PURDYVILLE. "Detroit's gone, Cleveland's pitchers are easy for us, Jimmy Burk has a good ball team but is too far away, and the rest of the league doesn't worry us in the least." The speaker is Kid Gleason, leader of the leading White Sox of Chicago. "My team is in the ship now—better than it has been all season. White and Cletto are at their best," he continued.

"Last time you went out I had seven men in straps and yet see what you did. We'll do lots better this time."

"There's nothing to it now. There's no chance for us to lose."

"It's the American league flag and they'd the world's championship."

There is nothing to disprove his assertions. Cleveland tried to beat Eddie Cletto, his pitching ace. A week day crowd of 21,000 fans roared for the Indians. The Indians performed spectacularly in the field. All the breaks were theirs. Slim Caldwell pitched a beautiful game for seven innings. And then—the inevitable crash.

You can't hold the White Sox down. Eddie Cletto probably is the coolest pitcher in the game today. The loser he picks the better he goes. It was his 25th victory and he seemed to have as much speed in the eighth and ninth innings as Walter Johnson used.

CALIFORNIA STAR WINS FIRST HONORS

Stokes Match From Tilden in Straight Sets—Solo Survivor of 128 Starters.

By the Associated Press. CALIFORNIA, Sept. 4.—California is again supreme as the home of the world's greatest tennis player for the season of 1919. On the courts of the West Side club here this afternoon William M. Johnston of San Francisco defeated William F. Tilden II, of Philadelphia, in straight sets in the final match for the national turf singles championship.

In eliminating the lowering Philadelphia, by scores of 6-4, 6-4, 6-3, Johnston placed himself upon a tennis pinnacle seldom reached by regular winners. With Tilden he was the solo survivor of 128 players who began the struggle for the title on August 25. This field contained the famous Australian team, winners of the English championships at Wimbledon, as well as American players conquerors in the A. E. F. tournaments abroad. Thus Johnston's victory this afternoon stamps him unquestionably as the best player competing in the game in any part of the world this year.

Destitute and forgotten, Thimonnier died in 1857, when 64 years old. No one has ever given him any aid or encouragement.

ASK CRITICS TO PRODUCE A BETTER PACT

company as this tempts me to make a speech (laughter and applause), and yet I want to say to you that I have not come here to make a speech, in the ordinary sense of that term.

"I have come upon this subject because, indeed, I have come to report to you upon the work which the representatives of the United States attempted to do at the conference of peace, on the other side of the sea, because I realize, my fellow citizens, by my colleagues and I, the task we attempted over there were your servants. We went there with a distinct errand, which it was our duty to perform in the spirit which you have displayed in the prosecution of the war and in concluding the purposes and objects of that war.

"I was in the city of Columbus this afternoon, where I was endeavoring to explain to a body of our fellow citizens there just what it was that the treaty of peace contained, for I must frankly admit that in my opinion it specifically that I have heard in debate upon the treaty of peace, it would be impossible for me to form a definite conception of what that instrument means.

"If this war has to be fought over again that all our high hopes and purposes have been disappointed, we did not go into this war merely to beat all purposes such as Germany entertained.

"Belgium is a lesson. We are presently my fellow countrymen, to have the very greatest measure of welfare on this side of the sea the agent and king of the Belgians (applauds). And I, for one, am perfectly sure that we are going to make it clear to them that we have not forgotten the violation of Belgium, that we have not forgotten the intolerable wrongs that were put upon that suffering people. I have seen their devastated country. Where it was not actually laid in ruins, every factory was gutted of its contents; all the machinery by which it would be possible for man to get work again was taken away, and those parts of the machinery that they could not take away were destroyed by experts who knew how to destroy them.

"Belgium was a very successful competitor of Germany in some lines of manufacture, and the German armies were sent there to see to it that that competition was put to a stop. Their purpose was to crush the independent action of that little kingdom—not merely to use it as a bulwark against which to attack France. And when they got into France they not only fought the armies of France, but they put the goal miles of France out of commission, so that it will be a decade or more before France can supply herself with coal from her accustomed sources.

"You have heard a great deal about article 10 of the covenant of the league of nations. Article 10 speaks the conscience of the world. Article 10 is the whole business, for that article says that the members of this league—and that is intended to be all the great nations of the world—engage to resist and preserve against all external aggression the territorial integrity and political independence of the nations concerned. That promise is necessary in order to prevent this sort of war recurring and we are absolutely discredited if we fought this war and then neglect the essential purpose against it.

"other state will be allowed to enter it, body to remember, so far as this or no one of it citizens will be allowed to leave it. It will be hermetically sealed by the united action of the most powerful nations in the world, and if I need not tell you that compared with the league of nations, the importance of the democratic party, and the importance of the republican party, is absolutely negligible.

"I want you to notice another interesting point that has never been discussed upon in connection with the league of nations. I am now reading upon delicate ground and I must express myself with caution. There were a good many delegations that visited Paris waiting to be heard by the peace conference, who ought to be addressed to the view of the world. But we had to point out to them that they did not happen, unfortunately, to come within the area of settlement, that their questions were not questions which were necessarily being brought to the attention of the league of nations.

"I know not tell you that I speak with knowledge of the purpose of the men with whom the men representing America were associated at the peace table. Everyone I consulted with came there with the same idea, that the strong had taken advantage of the weak, and that the only way to stop war was to band ourselves together to protect the weak.

such a settlement and obtain from her the promise, which she gave, that she would not take advantage of those portions of the treaty but would remain without qualification, the sovereignty which Germany had enjoyed in Shantung province to the republic of China. We have his repeated assurances since then that Japan intends to fulfill those promises in absolute good faith. But my present point is that there stood at the very gate of that settlement, a secret treaty between Japan and two of the great powers engaged in this war on our side. We could not ask them to disregard those promises. This war had been fought, in part, because of the refusal to observe the fidelity which involved in a promise, in a failure to regard the fairness of treaties and the covenant of the league of nations provides that no secret treaty shall have any validity.

"That article 11, let me say, is the favorite article in the treaty so far as I am concerned. It says that every matter which is likely to affect the peace of the world is to be brought to the attention of the league of nations, so that it shall be the friendly right of any nation to call attention to the league, to anything that is likely to affect the peace of the world, upon which the peace of the world depends, whether the matter immediately concerns the nation drawing attention to it or not. In other words, at present we have to mind our own business. Under the covenant of the league of nations, we can mind other people's business and anything that reflects the peace of the world, whether we are parties to it or not, can, by our delegates, be brought to the attention of mankind.

"There is not an oppressed people in the world which cannot, henceforth, get a hearing at that forum. And you know, my fellow citizens, that a hearing will mean, if the cause of those people is just, the one thing which those who have reason to dread, have most reason to dread, is publicity and discussion, because if you are challenged to give a reason why you are doing a wrong thing, it has to be an exceedingly good reason and if you give a bad reason you cause judgment and the opinion of mankind goes against you.

"There is another thing in this covenant, which was one of a number of difficulties that we tell you that what is right, and may God keep us in the covenant that we have formed."

"I am making this journey as an American, and as a champion of the rights which America believes in and I need not tell you that compared with the importance of America's importance of the democratic party, and the importance of the republican party, is absolutely negligible.

"You would think to hear some mon discuss this covenant that it is an arrangement for sending men abroad again just as soon as possible. It is the only conceivable arrangement that is arranged for war, for battle. The men abroad again, very soon. (Applauds). And if I may use a very common expression, I would say if it is not to be this arrangement, what arrangement do you suggest to secure the peace of the world? It is a case of peace it is to be.

"Opposition is not going to save the world; negotiations are not going to construct the policies of mankind. A great plan is the only thing that can defeat a great plan. The only triumph that is in this world are the ideas that are organized for battle. The only thing that equals an organized program is a better program.

"If this is not the way to secure peace, I beg that the way may be pointed out. If we must repeat this way, then I beg that before I am sent to ask Germany to make a new kind of peace with us I should be given specific instructions as to what kind of peace it is to be.

Hold Their Convention Soon. "If the gentlemen who don't like what was done in Paris think they can do something better I beg that they will convene convention soon and do it now. They cannot in conference of good faith deprive us of this great work of peace without substituting some other that is better.

"And so, my fellow citizens, I look forward with profound gratification to their well planned convention which much longer be delayed when the American people can say to their fellows in all parts of the world, 'we are the friends of liberty; we have joined with the rest of mankind in securing the guarantees of liberty; we stand with the eternal champions of what is right, and may God keep us in the covenant that we have formed.'"

"It was recanting by fellow citizens the circumstances which began the terrible conflict that has just been concluded.

"I am speaking these circumstances, my fellow citizens, because I want to point out to you what apparently has escaped the attention of some of the critics of the league of nations that the heart of the league of nations does not lie in any of the portions which have been discussed in public debate.

"The great bulk of the provisions of that covenant contained these engagements and promises on the part of the states which undertook to become members of it, that in case of disputes which they go to war without first having either submitted the question to arbitration—in which case they agree to abide by the result, or having submitted the question to judgment by the tribunal of the league of nations, in which case they will not go to war until three months after the council has announced its opinion upon the subject under discussion.

"So that the heart of the covenant of the league is that the nations should not go to war for six months after the council has announced its opinion upon the subject under discussion. My fellow citizens, if there had been nine days in which to bring to bear the opinion of the world, the judgment of mankind upon the purposes of these governments, they never would have dared to execute those purposes.

"I am not arguing the thing with you, my fellow citizens, as if I had any doubt of what the verdict of the American people would be. I haven't, Paris. I need not tell you that the alibi of doubt, I just wanted the every man in these discussions, we have the pleasure of pointing out to you how absolutely ignorant of the underpinnings that had never been made public before; none understood it that embraced the whole self.
