

BOLSHEVISM SPREADING ITS TENTACLES IN U. S. BECAUSE OF UNRATIFIED COVENANT

Nothing Can Be Done Until the Senate Approves Pact, Declares President

SHANTUNG PROVISION AN AID TO CHINA

Will Mean Hearing Before the League That Will Require Japan to Fulfill Its Promises

By the Associated Press. DES MOINES, Sept. 6.—A possibility that Bolshevism may spread in the United States unless the peace treaty is ratified promptly was suggested by President Wilson in an address here tonight.

The whole world was watching uneasily, he said, while the poison which had wrecked Russia was spreading among peoples who did not yet know what guarantees there were to be for liberty in the new world order.

Defines Shantung Provision. Mr. Wilson denouncing the Shantung provision of the treaty and said the league covenant section referring to the Monroe doctrine had been inserted to "give the Monroe doctrine right of way in the western hemisphere."

"The world is waiting," said the president, "to see, not whether we will take the lead, but whether we will take the lead."

Opponents of the league, the president asserted, were saying "yes, we made a great promise to the world, but it will cost too much to redeem it."

People His Bosses. "They are my bosses," he said, "I have come out on this journey not to fight anybody, but to report to you."

"The only thing that can be accomplished," he said, "is delay. The ultimate outcome will be the triumphant acceptance of the treaty and the league."

"The world is desperately in need of the settled conditions of peace," said the president, "and it cannot wait much longer."

looked for leadership and which it thought would be the last that would ask the world to wait.

"The world is not a nation," I suppose that it is difficult for any one who has not had some touch of the hot passion on the other side of the sea to realize how all the passions that have been smoldering for ages have been uncooled and released by the tragedy of this war.

"And now all of this is released and uncovered, and men glare at one another and say, 'now, we are free, and what shall you do with our freedom?'"

Disorder Spreads Rapidly. "All the impulses of mankind are thrown out on the air and reach to the ends of the earth, and quietly, upon steamships, silently under the cover of the postal service, with the ease of the airplane and the language of the telegraph, all the suggestions of disorder are spread through the world."

"The world is waiting," said the president, "to see, not whether we will take the lead, but whether we will take the lead."

CARRANZA ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE GENSURE GERMAN CONDITIONS ARE NEAR NORMAL

Foreign American Herald for Tampico to Sign Affidavit Assuming All Responsibilities

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Apparently convinced that the United States is in earnest in demanding proper treatment of Americans in Mexico, the Carranza government has adopted a novel expedient in an attempt to relieve itself of responsibilities.

Americans going to the Tampico region hereafter will be compelled to sign a formal release of the Mexican government's responsibility for what may happen to them.

"The condition raises a peculiar situation for under international law a government may refuse to permit a citizen to go to a region where it may not be prepared to guarantee their safety."

"Americans going to the Tampico region are being asked to make oath to such an affidavit as follows: 'I understand under oath, deposes and says that he has been warned that the Tampico oil region is a dangerous district on account of the activities of bandits operating in said region; that department, by reason of the business of employe, is on his way to that region, and travels at his own risk. That in case some accident might happen to him, hereby he formally renounces the right that he or his heirs might have to present a claim to the Mexican government, either directly or through any other channel.'

This affidavit is not only required of workmen who are American citizens, but also of American citizens in the United States holding passports from the state department authorizing them to visit the Tampico region.

FIGHTING MINERS TO RETURN HOME IRISH FIGHT FOR HEARING IS DISCLOSED

Union President Induce Men to Stop March on West Virginia Coal Mines

By the Associated Press. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 6.—C. P. Keeney, president of the United Mine Workers of America, of district No. 17, in a telephone conversation with Governor Corawell tonight stated that the 4,500 miners camped at Duwellville should cut off the invasion of Logan county and would return to their homes on a special train tomorrow.

Following this information from President Keeney, Governor Corawell said that the same night the federal troops be called out. At the conference today, the governor informed Keeney that he had been in communication with Secretary of War Baker and Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the central department; that he could get federal troops to Logan before the arrival of the miners, and he warned that the marchers would proceed at their own peril.

The miners decide to proceed if they think it probable federal troops will be called out.

It was learned tonight that another party of men has been proceeding into Logan county by way of Cabell creek and that they are about 12 miles southeast of Madison in Boone county. Efforts are being made by the mine workers officials to stop further progress of this group.

At the end of their day's march, which covered about 25 miles, the miners, unaccustomed to hiking, were weary and footsore. Many were carrying their shoes and trading along barfooted. They carried their rifles on their shoulders, while provisions were transported in wagons.

After the passage of the men through Parkersburg, Governor Corawell said that when they passed Mullens he would ask for two regiments of federal troops.

The original force was estimated at 500 men but recruits were enlisted all along the route and tonight President Keeney estimated the army to be of an approximate strength of 1,500 men.

Story of Wilson's Conversation With Walsh and Dunne Given to Committee

INTEMPERATE TALKS BY DUO DENOUNCED

President Tells Erin Representatives Their Speeches in Ireland Hurt the Cause

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—While private negotiations proceeded today between senators favoring "strong" or "mild" reservations to the German peace treaty, the foreign relations committee received a report of the Irish question at Paris last June between President Wilson and Frank P. Walsh and former Governor Dunne of Illinois, who sought to secure a hearing before the peace conference for the Irish nationalists.

The report was transmitted by the Irish national bureau, representing recent committee hearings.

It said Mr. Wilson declined to use his influence to get a hearing for the Irish representatives, declaring that Walsh, Walsh and Dunne, by intemperate speeches in Ireland, had made it impossible.

Treaties in existence, the present also was represented as having declared, impeded his efforts to procure self-determination for subject peoples.

No meeting of the committee was held today, the memorandum, made by Walsh and Dunne after their conference with the president, being submitted informally, and there was little discussion of the treaty in the senate.

Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, making the only address. He called attention to the statement of the president in his St. Louis speech that Japan's secret treaties with the allies were made to induce her to enter the war. The Nebraska senator said the treaties were made two years later.

"Hisself Oppose 'Strong'." The group of republican senators advocating "mild" reservations, conferred during the day and were said to have agreed to oppose the committee reservations, particularly that relating to article 10 of the league of nations covenant.

The Irish memorandum, described in notes on the conference between President Wilson and Messrs. Walsh and Dunne made by the latter afterward, teemed with sharp exchanges regarding the peace conference.

Mr. Walsh, in a letter, referred to discussions in the British parliament of the efforts to secure a conduct to Paris for Eamon De Valera and other Irish nationalists, and the president was represented as replying:

"Now, Walsh, if it is your intention to go back to America and try to pry me in hand, I am going to say when I go back that we were well on the way of getting Mr. De Valera and his associates over here; we were well on the way, when you made it so difficult that we could not do it; that it was you gentlemen who kicked over the apple cart."

"The president, the memorandum declared, said he had not assumed with Lloyd George, the question of aiding the De Valera mission and Mr. Walsh asked the president to give him a hearing."

MAIL FOR A. E. F. IN SIBERIA OFTEN LOST

Lack of Knowledge of Geographic Causes Letters to Be Sent to Archangel, Russia.

Vladivostok, Sept. 6.—Hundreds of letters intended for American soldiers in Siberia have gone astray because of incorrect addresses, according to S. A. Chas, United States postal agent in Siberia, who was sent here with the American Expeditionary Force to look after the mail for the doughboys. Many letters intended for Siberia were sent to Archangel when American troops were there, and many letters intended for Archangel were sent to Vladivostok.

The correct address for letters to Siberia is: Name, unit, A. E. F., Siberia, via San Francisco. Writing the unit to which the soldier belongs in the addresses saves at least 24 hours in delivery of mail upon reaching the A. E. F. base in Siberia. Mail addressed to units is delivered from the ship at Vladivostok without being readdressed.

tributed at the main United States postoffice here. All the big trans-Pacific liners are used for carrying mail to Japan and thence to Siberia, and some ships make the trip direct from Vladivostok to America. "The soldiers in Siberia are a long way from home and every letter from America makes the stay here that much easier," says the United States postal agent, who urges that more letters be written. Three American postoffices have been established in Siberia at American troop centers. One is Shkotovo, 25 miles northwest of Vladivostok, another is at Spasskoe, 150 miles north and the third is at Verkhine Volok, 1,704 miles northwest of Vladivostok. These postoffices are for use of the A. E. F., the American Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. and the Russian Railway Service corps. American civilians in Siberia obtain their mail through the Russian postoffice.

MIGHT BE A LOT WORSE

"What are your laughing about? "Now that peace is here I'm thinking about the poor guys who got married to escape the draft." Judge.

Happiness was thrust upon them through the pores of their COLD FEET. The only way to atonement for this class is to surround themselves with the four sturdy walls of a BOISE PAYETTE HOUSE, and by its association rear a family of boys and girls who will fear NO DRAFT, atmospheric or otherwise.

There is just naturally something about a B-P house conducive to sturdiness of character, longevity, elimination of wrinkles and worry. In fact, all B.P. house owners soon acquire a dignified and prosperous appearance. They wear the smile that never comes off.

EVERYBODY CLAIMS TO BE THE VICTOR

White Blazes on Broadway With Theatricals and Managers Both Satisfied.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—New York's "great white way" blazed forth to the thirty days' war between theatricals and managers which ended early today. Many of the closed theaters were unable to arrange for a reopening tonight, but all announced that performances would be resumed early next week.

According to the claims of the various parties to the war, it ended in a victory for everybody. The Actors' Equity association and the Chorus Equity association were to announce that they had gained recognition; the managers pointed with pride to the fact that provisions for an "open shop" was included in the treaty of peace, and the Actors' Fidelity league, which supported the managers, proclaimed its satisfaction that it was recognized.

The entertainments arranged by the Equity are part of their program for raising funds for the strikers and otherwise demonstrating their independence of managers will continue for a short time. It was announced, because of the season made the theaters in which they are given.

WILLA GETS ARMS FROM U. S. CHARGE

Former Member of Intelligence Bureau Accused of Smuggling Arms to Mexican Bandits.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Between $17,000,000 and $20,000,000 worth of goods are smuggled annually across the Mexican border, more than twice the amount which are sent and returned, according to a statement issued here today by the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, quoting Dr. P. B. Altendorf, fourth member of the United States military intelligence department, an authority.

Responsibility for the "devilries" of Villa and other bandits was placed by Altendorf at the door of American manufacturers of arms and ammunition who "got their hands in hand with the smugglers." Incidentally he declared that a renegade American was responsible for the attack on American troops at Carrizal in June, 1916, when two American officers and 14 men were killed and 2 wounded. Dr. Altendorf said that the Mexicans who made the attack were short of ammunition at the time, but obtained supplies through the renegade who he claimed, smuggled $150,000 worth of arms and ammunition to the attack.

"Villa smuggled over 60 per cent of his munitions," Dr. Altendorf said. "If the rest of his supplies were cut off he would be forced out of business for he could hardly keep going on the 40 per cent he buys from Carranzal."

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, also we have backache and dull pains in the kidney region, nervous headaches, rheumatic twinges, livid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, make a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts in business; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

SPENDING FOR SHOW

Why is it that stores seem filled today, more than ever before, with flimsy, flashy articles, instead of the more useful, durable things that formerly made up the bulk of their stock?

According to a dry goods writer who discussed business conditions with the Retail Credit Men's National association in the recent convention at St. Paul, it is because the public demands that sort of thing.

"Men who used to wear cotton shirts and overalls and women who used to buy wash dresses," he reports, "now want silk shirts and georgette dresses. Women, in dress goods, want the sheer materials—light, flimsy stuff, with lots of style.

"A credit manager of stores in Louisville, Ky., Rockford, Ill., and St. Paul tells me that girls working for the railroads are buying dresses costing $100 to $150. While a $100 dress of today would, doubtless, have been bought two or three years ago for $60 or $70, these same girls or their older sisters felt, in those days, that they were doing very well indeed if they bought a $30 or $40 dress."

This demand, he explains, has its effect on the store buyers. They naturally load up with such stock. Then the minority who want the more modest, substantial goods find it hard to get them.

This is indeed a severe arraignment of public taste. It is well known that the rich have been squandering their war profits as lightly as they were gathered. That sort of extravagance, however, is not so serious a matter, except for the envy and imitation it invites. The really serious thing is for the general public, which is never particularly well off, to insist on having things for show, rather than use, and squandering the money to get them at a time when the world is full of bitter need and it is desirable, above everything else, to get down to a sound, reasonable basis of living.

What we need is the production and distribution of necessities, not of luxuries. It is not only the money spent on flimsy goods that is wasted. The human energy used in making them and selling them is wasted. And the world at present has no energy to spare.

AIR SLEEPERS.

A transportation company recently organized to run air liners between New York and San Francisco has been blazing the trail with one of its 26-passenger planes. It landed one day recently with half its passengers fast asleep.

It might be supposed that there would be little incentive to sleep on an airplane, especially on one's first trip. But the passengers on these planes say the contrary is true. The cabins are big and comfortable. The machines ride more smoothly than a Pullman car. The novice soon comes to feel a sense of security. The scenery, beautiful as it may be, becomes rather monotonous in time. The growling and whirring of the propellers tend to make one drowsy.

Still more overpowering is the soporific effect of the air. Fresh air always tends to make one sleepy, as any automobile rider or ocean traveler can testify. It seems to operate more strongly in the higher levels, where the air is purer.

A French scientist declares that there is, in fresh air, a positive substance whose nature is to induce sleep, and hopes that some day it may be extracted and used as medicine. In the meantime, it will be made possible to get this medicine in doses of any desired strength simply by taking passage on an air liner. Half of the ships on this transcontinental line are to be fitted up with sleeping accommodations. We may soon have doctors prescribing air voyages for insomnia.

TEACHERS NEED GOOD HOMES

There are to be more teachers in almost every school district, and they are to be better paid. With the promise of higher salaries it has not proved difficult to get the teachers. Now a new problem arises. Where shall these teachers live?

In Twin Falls the problem is so acute that the superintendent has appealed to the public through the daily papers, asking that persons who possibly can take the teachers into their homes shall register at school headquarters.

No teacher who lives in a dark, uncomfortable place and who is furnished with food of inferior quality can do as good work as the one more fortunately situated. And it may be that many a difference between teacher and pupil which reaches serious proportions might have been avoided had the teacher come to her work from a cheerful place and a good breakfast.

Teachers are human. They are affected by exactly the same things which affect the rest of the human race. Yet in their hands lies a task requiring the finest tact, the greatest ability and an almost superhuman patience.

No class, then, needs more than the teacher the surroundings which shall increase rather than detract from mental, spiritual and physical well-being. Any community which has for its goal the best possible education for its children will not overlook the importance of comfortable home life for the teacher.

THE STREET CAR BEGGAR

A new type of beggar is announced. He plies his vocation in streets cars. He gets aboard and pays his fare just like any other passenger. Then, when his fellow passengers have comfortably settled down to reading their papers or scanning the ads over their heads or discussing things in general, he starts around soliciting.

Passengers are used to digging into their pockets on street cars, and they seem to do it automatically, when the beggar strikes them, just as they would for the conductor. There is something in the publicity of such a place, too. One hates to act stingy in the presence of other people. It is harder to ignore the mendicant standing in the aisle, at one's elbow, with others looking on, than to push past him contemptuously in the street. So he reaps his harvest, often getting 50 cents to a dollar on one trip. Conductors are likely to be nonplussed, hardly daring to put off the car a man who has paid his fare.

"It pays to start something new," boasts one of these enterprising fellows. The trolley companies and the police ought to start something new wherever the pest appears.

President Wilson picked a poor time to interest the country in the league of nations, for all they're thinking of now is the coming row between the two older leagues—the American and the National.

One little boy with an outlay of four dollars for seeds and a little elbow grease and enthusiasm raised vegetables enough this summer to clear $267. Will the profiteer chasers get him, too?

After all the worry and hullabaloo over the high cost of living, labor troubles and what-not, there's nothing like a good baseball game for real excitement.

It must be a relief to the president, after having spent so much time in a war-torn Europe, to get a trip through God's country.

AMERICANS TREAT WOUNDED SLOVENES

Modern Hospital Is Used Injured in the Recent Fighting Near Bucharest.

BUCHAREST, Sept. 6.—Romanian and Hungarian wounded in the recent fighting around Budapest have been treated in an American mobile hospital of the most modern type—the last word in war hospitals for use in the field with a rapidly moving army. The type of mobile hospitals being used is that known as the "autogit." It is a hospital on wheels—eighteen huge automobile trucks equipped with everything needed for wartime medicine and surgery. There are automobile operating rooms, automobile sterilizing equipment, an automobile laboratory, a pure-water machine with ice-making attachment, an X-ray car, electric light plant, steam-heating plant, a blacksmith's repair shop and a complete tent hospital which can be set up anywhere in about two hours so as to accommodate more than 400 wounded men.

The hospital is a gift from the American Red Cross to Queen Marie of Rumania. It arrived here about a fortnight ago, and is now being used for the first time under the command of Major J. B. Hayes, of Chicago, a physician attached to the American Red Cross command in the Balkans. It was built by the Red Cross for use on the west front but did not arrive in Europe until after the armistice.

SAYS BILL ALMOST HUSTLED WHEN HE FLEED GERMANY

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, Sept. 6.—The total amount of cash former Emperor William had on his person when he fled to Holland was 650,000 marks, according to a statement made by Albert G. Suedekum, Prussian minister of finance.

Dr. Suedekum also declared that a careful investigation had failed to indicate that the former German imperial family had capital "planted" abroad. The minister added that he expected shortly to announce a "proposed plan of settlement of the Hohenzollern family's financial affairs.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, "brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You simply get a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of hair disappearances, and after another of ailments.

IRISH FIGHT FOR HEARING IS DISCLOSED

The president, according to the document, replied:

"There is no use in discussing that. I don't know what the British government would say, and I have said all that I can say on the subject.

Must Avoid Troop Movements.
"I want you gentlemen to understand that our position is this: That we are dealing officially with these governments. You would not want us to make representations or engage in an effort that might involve the sending of troops into Europe, and I know that our people would not want that. What I am saying to you is that we cannot, and under no circumstances could we have at any time since we have been here, do anything in this matter of an official nature, but I want to say to you that I have the deepest sympathy for Ireland and her cause. I know I speak for others when I say that all we could do unofficially we have been doing and will do."

Wilson Tells 'Problems.'
Regarding the president's offer to translate his announced principle of self-determination of peoples into the peace treaty, Mr. Walsh, according to the memorandum, quoted from the president's addresses, saying millions of people relied on them. In reply the president said, "the statement contains:

"You have touched on the great metaphysical tragedy of today. My words have raised hope in the hearts of millions of people. It is my wish that I have that; but could you imagine that you could revolutionize the world at once, could you imagine that these people could come into that at once?"

Mr. Walsh replied:
"I can imagine them. If anyone denied it, attempting to come into it at once, if it were wanted in the once where they expected they were to have it come and to have it settled definitely once and for all."

"When I gave utterance to those words," the president's reported reply, "I said them without the knowledge that nationalities existed, which are coming to us day after day. Of course, Ireland's case, from the point of view of the population, from the point of view of the struggle it has made, from the point of interest that it has excited in the world, and especially among our people, whom I am anxious to serve, is the outstanding case of a small nationality. You do not know and you cannot appreciate, the anxieties that I have experienced as the result of these many millions of people having their hopes raised by what I have said. For instance, time after time I raise a question here in regard to these principles and I am met with the statement that Great Britain or France or some of the other countries have entered into a solemn treaty obligation. I tell them that it was not in accord with justice and humanity; and then they tell me that the breaking of treaties is what has brought on the greater part of the wars that have been waged in the world."

"No one knows the feelings that are made of me while I am meeting with these people and discussing these things, and as these things that have been said here go over and over in my mind I feel it more profoundly. It distresses me. But I believe, as you gentlemen do, in Divine Providence and I am in His hands, and I don't care what happens to me individually. I believe these things and I know that countless millions of other people believe them."

On Next Day.
In ending the conference, the president was quoted as saying of his mission to Paris:

"I did not succeed in getting all I came after. I should say that there was a great deal—no, billions put it this way—there were a lot of things I hoped for but did not get."

The Moral Risk

When the time comes to seek credit, a bank will want to know what you ARE as well as what you HAVE.

That's where the moral hazard comes in. And you can't establish credit over night. Rather, it is a matter of becoming KNOWN at your bank, of establishing confidence by the way in which you have kept your account, regardless of the amount you have to your credit.

Get acquainted—that's the first thing. Then develop that acquaintance into friendship. It will stand you in splendid stead when the time comes. Remembering also, that this bank offers you a complete banking service.

we accomplish nothing for China. On the contrary, we stay out of the only coalition of nations in which we can be of service to China.

It is only a handful of men who are trying to defeat the treaty or to prevent the league. The great majority in official bodies and out of any scrutiny is as it is perfectly legitimate that they should scrutinize it. It is not if it is necessary that they should qualify it in any way, and my knowledge of their conscience, my knowledge of their public principle, makes me certain that they will honor our treaty with China.

"No my fellow citizens, you have got to make up your minds," because, after all, it is you who are going to make up the minds of this country. I do not owe a report or the slightest responsibility to anybody but you. I mean you and the millions besides you, thoughtful, responsible American men and women all over this country. They are my bosses, and I am mighty glad to be their servant."

Discussing the Shantung settlement Mr. Wilson said he did not like the settlement "any better than you did, but that England and France have bound themselves without any qualifications to see to it that Japan get the German right there and that "the most that could be got out of it" was the Japanese promise that she would give up "every item" of "overseas" which Germany had otherwise have enjoyed in that province, and that they would retain.

A Humorous Story. "Remember, if I may illustrate a very great thing with a very trivial thing, I had two acquaintances who were very much addicted to profanity. Their friends were distressed about it. It subordinated a rich vocabulary which they might otherwise have cultivated, and so we induced them to agree that they never would swear inside the corporate limits, that if they wanted to swear, they would go out of town. The first time the passion of anger came upon them, they rather sheepishly got in a street car and went out of town to swear, and by the time they got out of town they did not want to swear.

"And that very homely illustration illustrates in my mind the value of discussion. Let me remind you that every fighting nation in the world is going to belong to this league, because we are going to belong to it, and the fighting nations make this solemn engagement with each other, that they will not resort to war in case of any controversy until they have submitted the question at issue to arbitration. I have submitted it to discussion by the council of the league."

BUILDING ACTIVITY REACHES HIGH MARK

Banner Year in Construction Operations Indicated East of the Missouri River.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—There was an increase of 25 per cent last month in building activity in the territory north of the Ohio and east of the Missouri rivers over the average for August of the five years previous to 1913 and the figures for contract awards during the current year up to September indicate a banner year in construction operations, according to a review made public today by the F. W. Dodge company. Building contracts awarded in August, 1919, totaled $1,000,000,000, an increase over the corresponding period referred to in 1913 per cent under the total for July, 1919.

Industrial construction was the largest single item with residential and mercantile ranking next, about evenly divided. Public works ranked third, while school, church and theatre building took fourth place.

The crest of the building wave was reached in July, it is stated, but delays in operation, due to labor troubles, shortages of materials and other causes, occurred and actual construction has yet to arrive at the maximum volume. The building season, it is added, probably will be prolonged as far toward the close of the year as weather conditions will permit.

The total amount involved in contracts awarded during the first eight months of the year was $1,555,489,500, which is greater than any sum recorded for the same period of any previous year.
