JOHNSON AND BORAH START THEIR TRIP

Open Fire on Wilson Speeches in Address to Chicago Crowds.

CALIFORNIAN CHEERED AS NEXT PRESIDENT

Idaho Senator Declares that Plea for Quick Action Is Not Warranted by Facts.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Crowds tonight in this besieged the auditorium theater where republican senators began their western speaking tour in answer to President Wilson's demands for unconditional acceptance or total rejection of the peace treaty and leaders of national convention before a clock, the hour for opening the speaking, the theater was filled and thousands of persons were left in the streets.

Crowd Cheers Johnson. The crowd outside was led into repeated cheering by a man who shouted that Senator Johnson would be the next president. The cheering, however, seemed about equally vigorous at mention of Senators Borah and McCormick.

While the throngs stormed about the various entrances after the doors had been closed by the police, a party was led by a soldier in uniform blowing a bug along in cheerful banter. Several hundred persons were in line with banners bearing such inscriptions as "welcome to the men who are bringing our boys back from Siberia" and "we want our boys back from Siberia."

Inside the vast theater the crowd applauded and cheered in shrill voices. Senator Johnson spoke first; then Senator Borah. Both were wildly cheered and there were occasional comments from the crowds.

Don't Know What It Means. "No two men who wrote that treaty can agree now as to what it means," said Senator Borah, amid laughter. "We in the senate want to be sure that treaty, if that is possible. The president says that it's a treaty and we, well, in 1918 he said we must elect him for he would keep us out of war. A few months later we were in war. I don't believe much in prophets."

"I don't want to go into a league at all personally, but I don't make the issue. Now, I am particularly anxious to find a way out of it if we must go in. That is what the senate wants to do now—a reservation which will prove a method of withdrawal. "Do any of you want to make the league that you can't get out of?" All over the hall there were cries of "no, no."

BELGIAN CARDINAL GUEST OF GIBBONS

Famous Prelate Blesses People of Baltimore in Unique Ceremony. By the Associated Press. BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 10.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, was welcomed to Baltimore this afternoon by a throng which filled the streets from the railroad station to the residence of Cardinal Gibbons whose quest he will be until next Wednesday.

Standing on the steps of Cardinal Gibbons' residence he blessed the people of the city, an unusual event in religious annals in this country. Company B of the 17th infantry from Camp Meade escorted the visitor from the station.

Cardinal Mercier came down the steps of his car, smiling, moving quickly, more like an athlete than a man of 68. Arms Enclosed One Another. In the station the two aged cardinals greeted each other cheek to cheek and exchanged the kiss of peace. Cardinal Mercier, tall and stately, bent low and Cardinal Gibbons raised his hand and their arms were about each other's shoulders.

A large chorus greeted the Belgian primate at the station with the singing of "O God, Our Father in Heaven." Cardinal Mercier with Cardinal Gibbons remained themselves to a battery of "magni men" and once Cardinal Gibbons with fatherly solicitude sought to hurry his guest away from the station, but the camera men made a great clamor and they stood still for another moment. Armed men stood in the front seats of the automobiles. Along the route children knelt as the cars slowly rolled by, and at the gate of the cardinal's house, a mass of brilliant colors, stood boys and girls, with flags and a company of boy scouts from one of the parishes. Cheers for Visitor. After the visitor had blessed the throng Cardinal Gibbons lustily called for the people to cheer and this was done with a will. Then he by boys and girls from the parochial schools the crowd roared forth in the strains of "My Country, My Country."

WILSON GLAD TO MEET THE COMMONERS

Tells Small Town People that He Is Confident that the Treaty Will Be Ratified.

AMERICA MUST LEAD WORLD, REITERATES

Completes Plans for Visit to Coeur d'Alene and for the Review of Seattle Fleet.

ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Sept. 10.—To a crowd which surrounded his private car today at Mandan, N. D., President Wilson declared a week of travel in the heart of the country had convinced him that the nation stands together for an international guarantee of peace.

I am glad to get and see the folks, he said, "to feel the touch of their hands and know, as I have come to know, how the nation stands together in the common purpose to complete what the folks who elected me started with them over the sea. "We may think that they finished the job, but they will tell you they did not; that unless we see to it that peace is made, secure they will have the job to do over again. In the meantime, they will rest under a constant apprehension that we may have to sacrifice the flower of our youth again."

In Looking Ahead. "The whole country has made up its mind that that shall not happen; and presently after a reasonable time is allowed for unnecessary debate, we will get out this peace of death and unite the whole force and influence of the United States to steady the world in peace. And it will be the proudest thing and the finest thing that America ever did. She was born to do these things and now she is going to do them."

The speech was cheered by the crowd which included many Indians. A woman called out: "Where is Mrs. Wilson?" And the others took up the cry persistently until the first lady of the land appeared. There were cheers for her and the president as the train pulled out.

At a number of other stops during the day Mr. Wilson came out on the rear platform to shake hands. The only stop speech during the day was at Blainiere, the state capital, during a two-hour noon stop and for the first time since he left Washington a week ago there was no night address.

The presidential special picked up a second engine here today as it began to climb into the Rockies on one of the longest continuous pulls of its ten thousand miles' journey. The next scheduled stop after Blainiere was at Billings, Mont., where the president will speak tomorrow morning. Tomorrow night he will address a meeting at Helena, Mont. The short speech at Mandan was the second the president has made from the rear platform since the trip began. Following the advice of his physician, Dr. Cary C. Gifford, Mr. Wilson has saved his voice for the larger meetings and has taken precautions after his no-nonsense to take cold.

STEEL STRIKE SET FOR SEPTEMBER 22

Union Orders Men Out in Spite of Wilson's Appeal to Await Labor Conference in October.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Hearings of the request of President Wilson that they take no action pending the coming industrial conference, representatives of organized workers in the steel industry later today called a strike effectively September 22, to compel recognition of their unions and of the principle of collective bargaining by the United States Steel corporation.

Twenty-four unions represented on the executive council of the 24 unions participated among the workers made known their decision in an announcement issued after they had requested the president by telegraph for a "share definite statement" as to the possibility of arranging a conference with steel corporation officials and after they had received a reply from the president asking that they withhold action until after the industrial conference.

Statement Leaks Out. The president's telegram was not made public by the steel union leaders but its content became known in Washington tonight through press dispatches. In their statement the executive council merely said they had not been advised about the affairs of the president have been any more successful than the efforts of the men."

Refused to Speculate. "Union officials tonight firmly refused to indicate in any statement regarding the extent of the strike, though a declaration attributed to Judge Gary of the steel corporation, that the steel workers were not more than 10 per cent organized, was ridiculed as erroneous. The steel corporation was said to employ about 250,000 persons and the entire industry nearly 400,000. In some places, it was said, the men are 55 per cent organized, and at virtually all mills, organizers have been active for weeks and will be working to obtain recruits for the union."

Men Are Organized. This campaign of organization, union officials said, had been opposed vigorously by the mill owners, who were said to have adopted every possible method to defeat it. Claims were made that at least 100,000 men in the Pittsburgh district, 100 in the Chicago district and 50,000 in scattered areas, employed by "independents" as well as by the steel corporation had been brought into the union and would answer the call for discipline. In view of this, union officials said, the strike would have wide ramifications by its effect on other industries.

Evidence of the bitterness existing in the relations between the unions and the steel mills was seen in all those made in the statement by the unions heads announcing the strike. Seven union members and organizers, the statement said, had been killed recently by the "armed guards and thugs" employed by the companies.

RENTERIA KILLED BY U. S. CAPTAIN

By the Associated Press. MEXICO, Tex., Sept. 10.—Gregorio Renteria, brother of Jesus Renteria, the bandit leader who held Lieutenant Harold Petersen and Paul Davis for ransom in Mexico, was shot and killed by Captain Leonard Staines last week, according to the report just brought here from the river station. According to our version of the shooting, Renteria told Mexicans in San Antonio, Chihuahua, opposite Cuernavaca, he was planning to cross the Rio Grande and "get two Americans."

Captain Matlack went to investigate, according to this story when he saw Renteria draw his rifle and Matlack killed him. A report also was received here that General Antonio Ramirez's troops captured eight Villa rebels, 40 horses and saddles near Piedra Amarra, on September 8.

DENY THAT THEY HAVE MADE PRICE COMBINE

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Anthracite coal operators today denied the senate interstate commerce subcommittee investigating coal prices that they had entered into an agreement among themselves to fix coal prices.

THREE MORE ARE DEAD IN POLICE RIOT

Mob Uncontrollable Although Guardsmen Charge them Repeatedly.

GAMBLERS OPENLY PLAY "NIGGER GOLF"

Metropolitan Officers Refuse to Patrol Section—Are Suspended and Then Join the Union.

By the Associated Press. BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 10.—Two men and a boy were killed tonight in turbulent outbreaks growing out of the police strike. There were numerous injuries of a minor nature to members of mobs, police officers and state guardsmen. Disturbances were in the vicinity of Cooley Square and South Boston. Cavalrymen charged the crowds and a machine gun was used, one man being killed and several wounded by its fire. At a late hour the mob was still uncontrollable. Property damage was slight compared to that inflicted by the wild rampage of hoodlums last night.

So fierce was the resistance of the angry crowd to the efforts of the guardsmen to prevent a mobbed order that guns were leveled and the machine gun was put in position. All sorts of missiles were hurled at the guardsmen. A shower of stones endangered the machine gun crew who were ordered to fire. One man was killed and several wounded.

Give Way to Police. BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Boston was under military rule tonight. After 24 hours of lawlessness such as the city has never before experienced, a sense of security was brought about by the appearance in the streets of 5,000 soldiers under orders to restore order and protect life and property at any cost.

A troop of state guard cavalry, dashed at full speed in company, front with drawn sabres, cleared Sealey and Adams squares tonight of thousands who had jammed those places since early today. Both squares had been the scenes of intermittent rioting and the police officers were small groups of loyal police officers were maintaining a semblance of order with the greatest difficulty.

Gambler Are Dispersed. Gangs of gamblers who have infested Avery street were driven out at the point of bayonet by a company of state guardsmen tonight. There were fifteen "die games" in progress, with about 2,000 participants and spectators. At double quick time the soldiers drove the crowd before them and then stationed guards, closing the section.

Private Carl Mead of the first troop, state cavalry, when driving the crowd out of Cooley square tonight was hit on the head with a bottle and knocked from his horse. He was taken to police headquarters unconscious. Fifty-three members of the metropolitan police force who have been on emergency duty during the strike and who were ordered to patrol Sealey square tonight refused and were immediately suspended. They marched in a body to headquarters of the policemen's union at Fall hall and look out applications of membership.

The threat that sympathetic strikers would be declared by the city from street car men, telephone operators and electrical workers and other organized bodies affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, was not lightly regarded. Accordingly Governor Cahill's order to the mayor tonight that he should take supplementary the state guard by an appeal to the president for regulars. CAN ISSUE GOLD BOND. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 10.—The Kansas State Bank and Trust Co. company was today granted a certificate to issue $1,000,000 of prior lien mortgage 6 per cent gold bonds by the Kansas public utilities commission.

MEX PROPAGANDA BEING DISCOVERED

Sources of Stories That Intervention Is Contemplated Being Reached By Committee.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Intervention... that determined efforts are being made to force the United States to intervene in Mexico...

Edward L. Doherty, head of the Mexican Petroleum company, was called before the committee late in the day and related the history of oil development in Mexico.

From McDonald, the committee secured the first definite information about the League of Free Nations association and its subsidiary organization, the Mexican committee.

McDonald explained that the association's Mexican committee was disorganizing without charge to new owners "and statements of actual conditions in Mexico" and that it will study the situation with the idea of forming a "Mexican party at once economically sound and socially justifiable."

WOOD IS OPPOSED TO A LARGE ARMY

Declares 225,000 Men Are Sufficient to Present News of Country.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A regular army of 225,000 to 300,000 coupled with a system of universal military training that would provide an organized reserve is ample for the present needs of the country, Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the central department, declared today before the senate military committee.

The central department commander also favored an independent air service, but did not approve creation of a cabinet office to head the department. The main point in preparation of the army was to see that adequate equipment for 4,000,000 reserves was on hand, he said, adding "that was where we fell down in this war."

that it filled up all vacancies, leaving nothing for new men in war time and depriving such men of a stimulus to get work.

Upping his six months training period, General Wood asserted: "To send soldiers to war without training is to double your dead." Later, he said, however, that experience ought show that the period could be shortened and Chairman Wadsworth pointed out that the department proposed executive military training while General Wood had urged vocational training as well.

INVESTIGATION OF CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS IS URGED

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Investigation of the business methods of clothing manufacturers throughout the United States by a committee of retailers was ordered today by delegates in the convention of the National Retail Clothiers' association.

This allegation tended on the part of 176 manufacturers, the retailers say, to force upon the consumer a material price of clothing and thereby place an additional burden on the consumer.

J. J. Phoenix, of Delavan, Wis., told the delegates that there was no possibility of clothing being cheaper during the coming year.

INQUIRY MADE TO HARASS PACKERS

Wyoming Wool Grower Declares Trade Commission Had Authority.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Findings of the federal trade commission in its investigation of the meat packing industry were directed and controlled, not only in the investigation itself, but in the recommendations of the commission, for regulation an embolled in the Kenyon and Kendrick bills, Dr. J. M. Wilson, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association, charged in a statement filed today with the senate agricultural committee.

The controlling influence, Dr. Wilson's statement added, was exercised "by a small number of men" in the American Livestock association, chiefly in the association's market committee. "I have been a member of the executive committee of the association for several years, and did not approve this plan," Dr. Wilson said, "and I think the facts are now due to congress, the public, and protect the great mass of producers who are not in sympathy with the movement."

LENNROT SAYS HIS RAILROAD PLAN IS ONLY WORKABLE ONE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Continued operations of railroads as at present will result in bankruptcy or "play-high" rates Senator Lennrot, republican, Wisconsin, today warned the house commerce committee considering the railroad reorganization project. He urged his plan for a national railroads corporation and unification of the roads, with an operating board chosen from the interstate-commerce commission, state commissions, business men, farmers, employes and consumers.

"The Linnrot plan is absolutely impossible," asserted the Wisconsin senator, who added that the Cummins plan also would not do.

Senator Harrison, democrat, a member of the committee, suggested that investigators should be employed to determine whether or not the consumers has been given the benefit of recently reduced meat prices noted in the wholesale and livestock markets.

Henry Veeder, J. P. Lightfoot and W. M. Borders, attorneys for Swift & Company, Wilson & Company, and Morris & Company, respectively, thereupon, promised every assistance to the committee if it would undertake such a proceeding, and urged that it be extended to an audit of the accounts of the packers. Mr. Veeder said that he had no doubt but that the American & Company and Cudahy Company would extend the same offer.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

This is the season when county fairs come to their full fruition, and happy is the community which has one in its midst...

A well planned county fair, besides being a source of amusement and interest, may have great educational value.

At the fair are exhibited the best results of advanced agricultural methods, of stock raising, vegetables, fruits and meats preserved according to the most scientific formulas.

At most fairs this year there will be trophies from the battlefields, weapons of offense and defense, to recall to the mind the terror and actuality of the great conflict through which the world has just passed.

Take it all in all, the county fair this year will be more valuable and more interesting than ever before.

NOT EASY TO CURE.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has been called the "aristocracy of labor." Its membership is intelligent and powerful, and according to the generally accepted notion, is highly paid.

"The average monthly income of an engineer," he said, "is $200, and he spends $40 to $60 of that away from home."

These facts will bear thinking about, quite aside from any practical bearing they may have on particular wage controversy.

If reservations are necessary, it's best to put them down in black and white. Americans don't want to sign that treaty with any mental reservations.

Railroad labor put in its thumb and pulled out a Plumb. Or did it put in its spoon and pull out a prune?

'FRUIT IN GILEAD.

Is the last bottle empty? Call up the fruit dealer and ask him to send a dozen Durians around. He will not have any, but it might be possible to create a demand and start a supply.

The Durian is a fruit native to the Malayan archipelago, and known as far back as Confucius, who said of it, "The Durian gives life to the loins, and makes the old young."

A few have been imported to southern California, and now the residents there are making an effort to renew the supply.

If the importation of this inebriating fruit is carried on upon any large scale, the drunkards will not be the only ones to rejoice.

THE SAFE VACATION.

Anyone who has returned sound and whole from a vacation in the woods will tremble to think what he escaped, when he buys the new pamphlet issued by the U. S. Public Health Service, gruesomely entitled "The Safe Vacation."

"Sanitary conditions are more important than golf links or ball rooms," warns the little counselor. It also gives a list of bandages, drugs and other contents of the bathroom medicine cabinet which should be taken along.

If you camp out, you must trench around your tent, build a wooden floor, screen your cook tent, and then, being exhausted, lie down to pleasant dreams of what you might have had if you were not upon the safe vacation.

Upon the safe vacation you carry remedies for bullet wounds, for poison ivy and for chigger bites, and on any and all occasions you send for the doctor.

Perhaps it is just as well that the book did not come out until most people had had their vacations. If they get it now and read it promptly it will be possible to forget most of it by the time vacation time comes around once more, and the vacationist can start off unsafe as always, but happy.

Some people have difficulty in understanding what "capitalism" is. Karl Marx wrote a book about it that weighed five pounds, without giving the man in the street much light on the subject.

Which type of girls did the soldiers like? Well, here is a list: Tall, short, medium; blond, brunet, medium; fat, thin, medium; old, young, medium; rich, poor, medium; good, bad, medium. Not a boy liked any other type.

Keep your teeth fit for duty, counsels a health item. That's a good, conservative bit of advice. The time may come when you can use them again.

What will happen when the schoolkids' union insists upon taking over and operating the schoolroom?

Vacation would be more pleasant had they no "return-to-work" clause at the end.

TAMMITY URGES CALMNESS IN STEEL SITUATION

By the Associated Press. ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Sept. 10.—President Wilson today through Secretary Tammity, telegraphed Louis Brownlow, president of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia, asking him to postpone action against the police of Washington, D. C., who recently joined a union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and who were ordered to stop their affiliation by order under pain of dismissal, until after the forthcoming industrial conference in Washington.

At the same time Secretary Tammity telegraphed to the American Federation of Labor, urging the steel men likewise to postpone their threatened action until the industrial conference in field.

The two telegrams follow: "Honorable Louis Brownlow, commissioner of the District of Columbia, Washington, D. C.:

"The president suggests the great advisability of postponing any issue regarding the police situation until after another telegram to Samuel Gompers, urging the steel men likewise to postpone their threatened action until the industrial conference in field.

"Honorable Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Washington, D. C.:

"The difficulty of arranging any present satisfactory mediation with regard to the steel situation the president desires to urge upon the steel men through your wisdom and desirability of postponing action of any kind until after the forthcoming industrial conference in Washington.

Killing Off Predatory Wild Animals

By John D. Sherman

A PROTECTED CHAPTER

TRAPERS OF THE WARRIOR

COYOTE IN A TRAP

ONE OF MILLIONS

WHILE the appropriations for the department of agriculture were under consideration in the house the following memorial from New Mexico was read:

"Whereas, we believe that the work of exterminating predatory wild animals and range-destroying rodents carried on under the direction of the biological survey during the past few years has been very successful, and that under the thorough organization and efficient plans of that bureau this work will be largely finished, if not entirely removed, provided the different states will heartily co-operate with the federal government in its plan of work; and

"Whereas at the present time the funds appropriated by congress for this purpose are wholly inadequate to meet the real requirements of the biological survey in carrying on this work, and on that account the results obtained are not satisfactory in most sections of the West; and

"Whereas it is our belief that the present laws of the states should be repealed, and in their stead the various states should, through their several legislatures, enact laws appropriating sufficient money to equal the amount to be expended by the federal government in the different states, and that such state appropriations should be expended under the direction of the biological survey, to be handled in conjunction with the funds appropriated by congress; therefore be it

"Resolved by the New Mexican Cattle and Horse Growers' association, in convention assembled at Albuquerque, N. M., March 25, and 27, 1919, that we urge congress to appropriate the additional sum of $300,000 for immediate use in the extermination of predatory wild animals and range-destroying rodents, and that we petition the various states to make appropriations at least equal to the amount expended by the federal government. In the various states, said money, both federal and state, to be expended under the direction of the biological survey."

This question of predatory wild animals and rodents—which are also predatory animals in the true sense of the word, inasmuch as they raid and pillage the crops and the herds of man in many parts of the West. The case of New Mexico is typical; so the remarks of Representative Hernandez of New Mexico concerning the situation are of interest. He said in part:

"One of the serious problems confronting those engaged in promoting increased production of food crops and meat animals was the tremendous damage to growing crops and to range grasses caused by prairie dogs and other rodents, and the loss of cattle, sheep, and poultry from wild animals. Investigations by the United States biological survey show that the annual losses in the United States from predatory wild animals amounted to several hundred million dollars, and the loss from rodents is probably greater. The annual loss in New Mexico was variously estimated at from fifteen to twenty-five million dollars. The method used by the biological survey has been perfected by years of investigation and experimenting and is very successful. The 'kill' of prairie dogs is generally from 85 to 95 per cent by the use of poisoned oats. This is followed up the work by using poisoned rodent-bait and later by using fumigants, such as bisulphide of carbon, with which, if carefully and thoroughly used, a good start has been made.

"The biological survey had co-operative arrangements in several states for exterminating rodents and predatory wild animals, and in every case the results are such more satisfactory and less expensive than under the bounty system. I have before me now a partial report made by the man in charge of this work in the southwestern part of the country through the council of defense of the state of New Mexico.

"In the spring of 1918 the government of the state authorized the use of $25,000 from the fund known as our state war fund, and under an agreement covering the plan for the co-operative work was executed. Under this agreement $10,000 of this amount, in conjunction with an equal amount by the department of agriculture, was set aside and applied in reducing losses in live stock due to predatory wild animals, and increased force of hunters was placed in the field, trapping was resorted to by this experiment; the results have been very satisfactory.

"State hunters have a total of 1,072 days, at a cost of $5,741.44. They have taken 342 coyotes, 124 bob cats, 14 gray wolves, 5 predatory bears, including 3 grizzlies. The average cost of animals in June was $88.57; in July, $8.72; August, $5.55. The government operations in the state during the same periods cost $9,225.70, and resulted in the killing of 417 coyotes, 77 bob cats, 41 gray wolves, 13 mountain lions, 2 bears. No reasonable estimate of damage inflicted by predatory animals that has been advanced can show anything other than the return on this investment of a very high rate of interest. The estimate generally accepted—and is conservative, indeed, in view of the present high value of live stock—is that each gray wolf destroys annually $1,000 worth of live stock; each mountain lion, $500; each coyote and bob cat, $50 worth; predatory bears usually are rated in the same class with wolves. On this basis the saving represented in this co-operative work is nearly nine times the amount of expenditure. Thus you will observe that the estimated saving to the people of the nation, you might state, is $131,500, at a cost of about $20,000."

While the facts presented by the New Mexican representative are not clearly grasped, they afford a glimpse of the situation that prevails practically all over the far West, and the whole nation is interested, too, as Mr. Pennington said in closing:

"We are all interested in this history. We have one word—$20,000,000—of $25,000,000 pounds—to the cities of Philadelphia and Boston, so that those merchants can have that product, which will increase the employment of their people. We send our best wishes to the American people are interested in that. There was a time when the people did not care how many animals were destroyed by predatory beasts because meat was plentiful. But since meat has become all the way from $10 to $15, instead of from $1.50 to $2.50, we urge that the department give us experts in co-operation with our own activities for the extermination of these pests."

It is true that predatory wild animals, like the mountain lion and wolf, are expensive. The biological survey is emphatic in its statement that the average gray wolf kills $1,000 worth of live stock a year, and a mountain lion $500 worth. The coyote kills, in the smaller prairie wolf, rivals his big cousin in destruction. The biological survey claims to have reduced the population of New Mexico by 200 individuals in three years.

Incidentally, naturalists and sportsmen will be interested in the statement by the biological survey that in the recent mountain region bears have been very destructive. The survey uses these words:

"During the recent grazing season bears killed approximately 125 head of valuable cattle in the Pecos region. Similar damage in the black range and in the Mogollon mountain made it evident that a total of at least 250 head of cattle as well as a large number of sheep were killed by bears. These facts are worthy of consideration, in view of the general and concerted efforts now under way on the part of sportsmen to enact legislation that will prevent trapping of bears or hunting them with the aid of dogs."

Naturalists and big game hunters hold that bears seldom kill big game or stock, and that when individual bears get the stock-killing habit it is an acquired taste. Big game hunters holding these views have been active in promoting state legislation for the protection of grizzly and black bears, which otherwise are doomed to speedy extermination except in the national parks, which are wild life sanctuaries.

They yearn against prairie dogs, chipmunks and other rodents is less exciting, but there is much more money at stake. In New Mexico in four summer months co-operative work in exterminating prairie dogs was conducted over 652,000 acres of infested land, 8,403 landowners assisting in the work. "An average of over 80 per cent of the prairie dogs was killed. On the untreated land the total loss of the crop, or at least a 50 per cent loss, often occurred as a result of prairie-dog infestation. It is estimated that the crop saving effected by prairie-dog control amounts to approximately $500,000.

Multiply this by a dozen or more—the number of states doing the same kind of work—and the size of the job is apparent.

A new angle to the situation is the recent public announcement that prairie dogs are good eating and that various towns in the infested areas are going to put them on the bill of fare.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

REVOLUTIONARY LEADERS IN HONDURAS ARE VICTORIOUS

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Revolutionary leaders in Honduras have won a complete victory and forced President Bertrand to leave the country. The state department was advised today by the American legation at Tegucigalpa, capital of the Central American republic.

President Bertrand, the department advises said, had left the capital for the port of Amoyaca to take passage on the steamer San Jose for the United States while the rebel leaders have agreed on a truce to insure freedom of voting in the election to be held next month. Several members of Bertrand's cabinet also have resigned, the legation reported.

Couldn't Hurt That Toad

There are many surprising stories about toads, observes Philip Hales, editor of the "As the World Was" column in the New York Herald. Here is one of them taken from a book containing the laws and crimes of men in North Carolina, England. In 1774 a stone was thrown at a toad in the city of Philadelphia, and the man who did it was punished in 1781 for playing on a bangle before a bridegroom on a Sunday. Among the women, Elizabeth Mills was brought into court for scolding and drying fish on the lord's day.

cell of lime and stone, to fit it snugly, and plastering to prevent the admission of air. Sixteen years afterward a gap was made in the wall so that crabs could pass through. The toad was found alive. Terrible at first, it was soon driven so that it made its way to a pile of stones and disappeared. There were cruel men in North Carolina, Mr. Thomas Anderson

REDS NOT IN SOX CLASS, KID GLEASON

Will Hit His Path on Williams' and Clotte to Set Down Moran's Outfit.

By FRED TURBYVILLE.

"The series this year, providing the Sox and Reds participate, should be pretty near an even money bet, don't you think, Gleason?" "And you should have seen the expression on the Kid's face when the question was put. His reply was quiet and forcible.

"Given money? I should say not. I'm no more afraid of the Cincinnati Reds than I am of any other team in the American league. It is no even money bet. The Sox should win the series easily.

"The American league as a whole has had the edge and there's no apparent reason why the Sox doesn't hold good in this series."

"But don't you think Pat Moran has an exceptionally good team?" "Yes, Moran has a good team," said the Kid, "but we've got a better one."

"But we've had them in two games last spring? They'll be easy for us this fall."

"How about your pitching strength?" was the next one put to the Kid.

"I'm not worrying about the pitching," he said. "It looks as if Clete and Williams would be plenty for the Reds and I think Bill James will probably be able to pitch one game against the Reds."

"It all depends on the arrangement of the series. It may be that I can use Clete and Williams in the first two games and then come right back with the same pitchers in the next two if there is sufficient time between for them to rest."

"I really can see that Kid Gleason is rather cocky in his attitude toward the world series. He's been that way for several weeks now."

It is hard to see where some of the big league writers have gotten their material for stories recently

PERSHING LEADER IN BIG PAGEANT

Planned At Splendid Outburst in New York When Heroes of Great War Parade.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Over a five mile "Pershing" highway General Pershing led his famous First division down Fifth avenue today to the wild shouts of 2,000,000 proud countrymen. It was the last great review of the world for New York and it was a fitting climax to a long series of military spectacles.

Hours Are scarce. The commander of America's armies shared honors with the battle-scarred veterans who won undying fame on the fields of France. For all of them it was one of life's most memorable days. As he rode down the avenue the stern lines of the leader's face relaxed in the most familiar Pershing smile and when he dismounted in the Washington Square at the head of his march surrounded by his staff, he exclaimed: "It was the most enthusiastic and patriotic outburst I have ever seen."

Kisses "Casey" Miss. The commander made but one stop on the march and that was at St. Patrick's cathedral to change horses. He dismounted amidst a crowd of girls representing the Knights of Columbus eager to be the first to hand him flowers. Upon the back of the victor he implanted a kiss while she blushed happily.

Seated on a private stand in front of the cathedral were Cardinal Mercier and a throng of church dignitaries. Pershing paused to welcome to America the heroic old man who had so proudly reeled the cream invaders. The cardinal's clothes rang out in hymns of victory and "The Star Spangled Banner" as the two world figures clasped hands.

"I love America with all my heart and greet you as one of the world's great soldiers," was the greeting of DeGism's prime minister the soldier saluted.

Patrick J. Hayes, archbishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of New York and chaplain general of the army to night, extended the blessing of God to General Pershing at the city's dinner of welcome to him.

"May I say," began the archbishop reverently, "you the going to be blessed by God. And when the day shall fall when you are called 'home' may God give you the reward you so richly deserve."

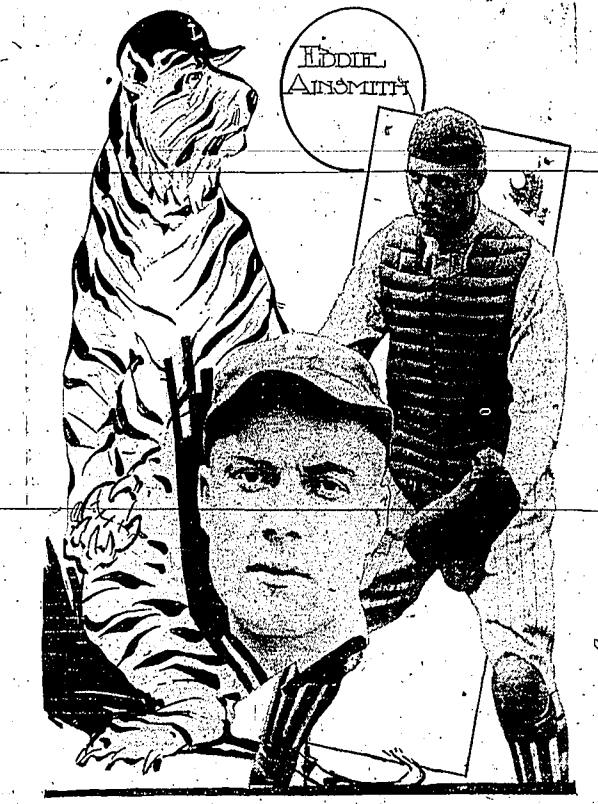

"I feel joyful that the blessing of God himself is for you, General Pershing and I feel tonight the souls of those boys over there, looking up and offering their prayers for you, General Pershing."

"I bring you the blessing of religion and as chaplain general of the army in the name of more than 2,000 priests, ministers and rabbis—chaplains—say that you have them their chance to build up the souls of the boys."

at 5 o'clock. The Oregon which will be the reviewing ship, then will proceed to Puget Sound and take part for the ceremony. Afterward the party will dine at the Hippodrome but the president will make no address until he speaks in the evening at the arena. At Bismarck today the president spoke at the city auditorium, the smallest hall at which he has appeared during his trip. It holds about 1,500 and was filled. So soldiers were the local officials to guard against overcrowding and confusion that once the president was inside they locked the doors and refused to open them for any purpose whatever until the address was over. As a result the chief of police of Bismarck, Edmund W. Starling, the assistant chief of the secret service with the president's party, and the chairman of the local committee on arrangements were among those absent from the meeting.

STORMS WREAK GREAT HAVOC ON COAST LOWER CALIFORNIA

By the Associated Press. KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 10.—Lower Florida was paralyzed today as a result of the violent hurricane that passed over that section last night.

Not a house in the city escaped damage. Three hundred and twenty frame buildings practically were wrecked, two church edifices were wrecked and five retail stores tipped over. The damage is estimated at more than two million dollars.

Shipping off the coast met with disaster. Several small vessels were sunk and others were driven to the reefs. Tonight a high wind and rough sea prevented rescue work.

In the little town of Goulds, near Miami, eight buildings were destroyed totally and thirteen were partially demolished. The hurricane cut a swath through the pine forest from Hialeah bay and struck the village with terrific force. Only one house was left standing in Marathon, a small village.

Although the property damage was enormous not a single fatality has been reported.

RAIN MARS THE PARADE OF VETERANS OF MANY COUNTRIES

By the Associated Press. COLLEGE, O., Sept. 10.—Torrents of rain temporarily marred the annual parade of the Grand Army of the Republic here today. But it was only temporary. No sooner had the skies cleared than jubile notes began to resound from every corner and soon the streets were alive with the blue clad veterans who had taken refuge in stores and other business places. Ranks which had been broken were soon formed and again the march was taken up. For the first time soldiers of the world war, Spanish-American and Mexican of Civil war. Boys of the Rain-bow and Buckeye divisions rubbed shoulders with those of a score of other divisions representing the war veterans.

SWALLOWS TOOTHPICK; HIS LOST VOICE IS RETURNED

By the Associated Press. SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Sept. 10.—Swallowing a small piece of toothpick was a blessing in disguise for Donald Cullings of Sioux City. The toothpick lodged in Cullings' throat while he was at dinner last night. He coughed violently, choked and nearly strangled before the bit of wood was dislodged from his throat. Just after a raw attack springing the St. Mitchell drive, had returned. Cullings was gassed at St. Mitchell, September 12, 1918. Since that time he had been forced to speak only in a husky whisper.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Evidence that the American Can Company "monopolized" war department contracts during the early period of the war and secured prices "far in excess of those quoted by 'independent' can manufacturers 'excluded' from the business has been brought out in testimony before the special houses sub-committee investigating expenditures in the war department. TREATY FIGHT TO START ON MONDAY

Judge Announces That Debate Will Commence Then—Continuously Before Senate.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The German "peace" treaty amendments to the league of nations covenant, with reservations, was reported to the senate today by the foreign relations committee, a majority of whose members opposed ratification in the form submitted by President Wilson.

Immediately after it was presented by Chairman Lodge, two months to the day, from the time the president laid it before the senate, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, ranking democratic member of the committee, announced that the minority report, urging ratification without amendment or reservations, would be filed tomorrow.

The fight over ratification will begin Monday, Chairman Lodge announcing that the treaty would be taken up then and kept continuously before the senate. First will come the effort to amend the treaty, and then the fight for reservations, mild or strong. Leaders of the administration forces continued to predict today that the treaty with the league covenant would be ratified in its original form.

Republican leaders declared, however, that if put to a vote now the treaty would be rejected by the senate. Efforts to reach some agreement on the question of reservations meanwhile are being made.

The formal report of the majority was presented with as little formality as if it had been a bill to carry on the routine work of the government. There was a larger attendance on the floor than usual, however, indicating the interest in the forthcoming battle.

Kenyon Is Bitter. On the heels of his presentation, Senator Kenyon, republican, Iowa, in whose state President Wilson made an address in support of the league covenant, launched a bitter attack upon it and declared the covenant could never be adopted as it now stands. The big crowd in the galleries broke forth into an applause as the Iowa senator concluded, one woman standing up and waving an umbrella in great excitement. There were many references to the treaty in later debate, and tomorrow Senator Harding of Ohio, a republican member of the foreign relations committee will speak against ratification.

Straight Lines Govern Fall Modes

One dominating characteristic of the newest Coats for Fall and Winter is set-in sleeves. Oft-times shoulders and armholes effect kimona-like lines. But in all cases the effect is generally pleasing.

Most of the smartest Coats have bells; but a number are without. Almost all garments have huge adjustable collars of fur or self fabric.

Admirably adapted to general utility wear are the models simple in development. They are minus trimmings other than fancy stitching or buttons.

Duveltyns, velours, cords and silvertones are shown. Long-wearing silk linings and trimmings assure comfortable warmth.
