THOMAS SAYS STRIKE NEAR TO CIVIL WAR

Unrest Planned Before European Contest Declares Colorado Selon

ADDS TO BURDEN OF GREAT MASS OF PEOPLE

Investigation of Kenyon Committee to Start Today—Fitzpatrick as First Witness.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Arrangements were complete tonight for the beginning tomorrow of the senate labor committee's investigation of the nation-wide steel strike. Chairman Kenyon announced receipt of assurances from John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the strikers' organization committee, that he would be on hand to present the unions' side of the controversy.

Almost Civil War. While members of the committee were engaged in making final plans for the hearing, Senator Thomas, democrat, Colorado, in an address on the floor of the senate criticized the strike in bitter terms, declaring it had been called on the "filmmaker's excuse," that its principal object was "to disturb and bedevil industrial conditions" and that the participation of hundreds of thousands of men in a strike throughout the country "becomes almost civil war."

Primary object of the senate investigation, Senator Kenyon said today, will be the setting forth before the public of the real causes and objects of the strike. Fitzpatrick, as well as Chairman Gary, of the United States Steel corporation, who is to appear Wednesday, according to Senator Kenyon's plan of procedure, first will be asked for a detailed statement and then be subjected to cross-examination by all members of the committee. It is hoped to complete the inquiry and return a report to the senate within a fortnight.

To Gather All Facts. Senator Kenyon holds the hope that in the investigation, in the enlightenment of the public, may affect the result of the strike. The committee intends to learn, from both sides of the dispute, exactly how many men and plants are affected, how many steel employees are union men and how many non-union, what per cent remain "loyal," what collateral unions and industries are involved and what conditions immediately led to the strike. Committee members also are much interested in learning what per cent of the strikers are foreign born.

It was also stated today by members of the committee that it is proposed to investigate the failure of negotiations to avert the strike—why it was not postponed at President Wilson's request and why Judge Gary refused to deal with the strike organizations. Relations of the leaders to the strikers' personnel also are to be inquired into.

Fitzpatrick's telegram to Senator Kenyon today indicated that he would be accompanied by other representatives of the strikers. Testimony of all other witnesses may be deferred, however, after Fitzpatrick's appearance until Judge Gary is heard.

CALIFORNIA RESORT IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 24.—Thousand Flies, a resort in the San Bernardino mountains, 15 miles north of this city, was burning at 2 o'clock tonight, according to a telephone message received here from Skyland. The flames destroying Thousand Flies were plainly visible at Skyland, it was said.

FOREST FIRES SPREADING. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24.—One of three disastrous fires in the Angeles national forest was being held out, but the Arroyo Seco, above Pasadena, Cal., but two others were spreading according to announcement made today at the office of the forest service here.

PLACERVILLE ENDANGERED. PLACERVILLE, one of the oldest incorporated cities in California and the center of an extensive mining district, was threatened for a time today with destruction from forest fires that virgally encircled the city. Burning was started and the fire it was thought would soon be under control.

DRIVE FAILS TO GO OVER TOP YESTERDAY

Unable to find many of the business men and others in when they called yesterday, the committees from the Elks lodge and American Legion failed in their effort to go over the top in the Salvation Army drive.

The drive will be continued today and until the quota is raised. Response from returned service men was in excess of that from those who remained at home. The boys were not urged, and in many cases they offered more than was accepted by members of the committee.

They experienced the benefits of the Salvation Army workers—often under shell fire. Now they may not be in the hub of the organization. Their liberality put to shame the puny efforts of some of those asked for contributions.

GET AWAY WITH MUCH GOODS AT PRESIDIO IS CHARGE

By the Associated Press. SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24.—Warriors charging the theft of goods from Presidio warehouses here, estimated by army intelligence department authorities as being worth in excess of $50,000 were sworn out by United States Commissioner Thomas H. Hensher and Jacob K. Johnson of San Francisco and Upton J. Maher of Berkeley, civilians employed at the Presidio.

The missing goods included blankets, clothing and mechanical supplies, according to the authorities.

DOOM STARTED FOR MERRIDITH AS HEAD OF THE CLUBS

By the Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24.—Pan-Americanism occupied a prominent part of today's session of the World's Agricultural Clubs of the World in convention here.

Arthur G. Newmeyer of New Orleans, withdrew his name as a candidate for the presidency of the organization, and a boom was launched immediately for E. T. Meredith of Des Moines.

MANY PERSONS WOUNDED IN TROUBLE AT SAARBRUCKEN

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, Sept. 24.—In an encounter at Saarbrücken between British and French soldiers many persons on both sides were wounded, according to a dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger. One hundred Frenchmen participated in the conflict. Numerous Germans have been arrested for having attacked the Frenchmen.

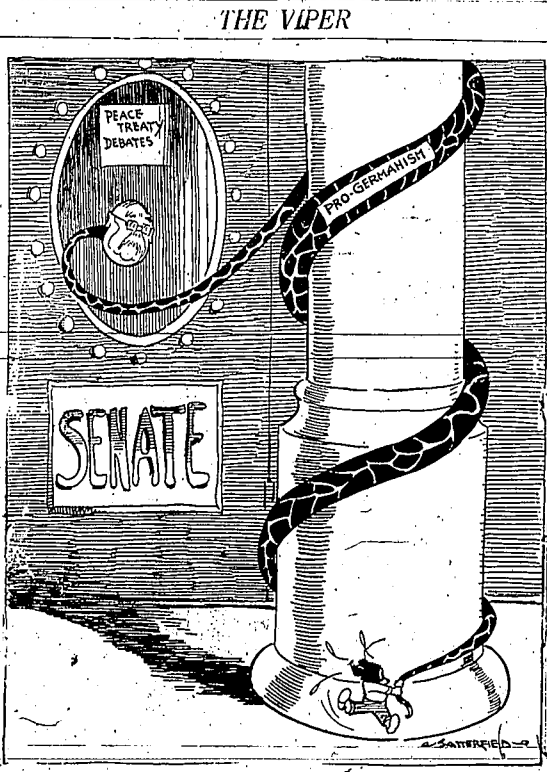

"KEEP OUT" SAYS SIGN ON JAIL, CANT KEEP 'EM IN

CALENICO, Cal., Sept. 24.—Calenico's city jail has a sign over its front door which reads: "Keep Out."

Chief of Police Baucher, however, says he has a hard time keeping any one in, since the last prisoner left after cutting a hole in the wall and crossing the Mexican line into Mexico.

WANT TO MAKE TRIP AGAINST LEAGUE THROUGHOUT ARIZ.

By the Associated Press. PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 24.—Senator James H. Jones, democrat, made a tour of Arizona, speaking against the ratification of the peace treaty and the covenant of the league of nations.

BIG FIVE MADE BIG PROFITS DURING WAR

Firms' Increase Nearly Three Times That Made During Pre-War Period.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Despite licensing and other restrictions imposed on the "big five" packers during the war, the firms' profits from two and a quarter to three times as great as during pre-war years, the federal trade commission found during its investigation of the packing industry, as set forth in a report to President Wilson under date of June 28, 1918.

The report, which was not made public, when submitted, Food Administrator Hoover having requested it be withheld, reached the senate today in reply to a request under a non-resolution introduced by Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, accompanying it were copies of letters sent by Mr. Hoover to the president objecting to the committee's conclusions and asserting that no "useful purpose is being served by public ventilation of inter-departmental disagreements as to governmental policy."

At Senator Norris' request, all the documents were referred to the agricultural committee which is now considering legislation providing for federal regulation of the meat industry.

The commission in its report criticized the packers maximum profits as being "unreasonably high" and asserted that the food administration's plan of regulation makes impossible adequate safeguards to the interest of the public.

THREATEN TO TE UP AIR BRITISH HALFWAYS

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 24.—By a curious coincidence, on the day Sir Eric Geddes had formally taken up his new duties as minister of transportation the government was confronted by an ultimatum threatening stoppage of the whole railway system of the country, unless a basis for the standardization of the two men's wages is to be settled to the men's satisfaction.

PRESSMEN IN WEST WILL NOT WORK FOR PUBLISHERS

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A storm of cheering greeted announcement at a mass meeting today of New York Printing Pressmen's union No. 1, "one of the big six," that publishers who carried out threats to move their plants to other parts of the country would find that union pressmen in Chicago, St. Louis and other cities would refuse to work for them.

Doubt as to America's Ratification of Treaty Causes Debate.

LEAGUE COULD EXIST WITHOUT UNITED STATES

Clemenceau Declares that Political Guarantees Are Given by Other Methods Than Proposed Covenant.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 24.—In an explanation to the chamber of deputies today, Premier Clemenceau, after declaring that the league of nations could exist even though rejected by the United States senate, asserted that it was precisely because the French felt that the league of nations was an insufficient guarantee for some reason to come that the protective treaty of alliance between France, Great Britain and the United States were drawn up.

Occupies Entire Debate. The possibility of non-ratification of the peace treaty and the covenant of the league of nations, by the United States senate, the consequences in such event, to the guarantee for the future of France, and the question whether the league could exist without the United States, as a member, occupied the entire afternoon's debate.

The vote in the United States senate yesterday, postponing consideration of one of the amendments, is regarded as significant, and caused surprise in the French chamber. Louis Barthou repeatedly asked the government for explanations.

Andre Tardieu and M. Flehon, foreign minister, replied, but the chamber was not satisfied. Premier Clemenceau then declared that even in the event of the United States senate not voting for the league of nations covenant, the league could exist. The treaties constituting a protective alliance between France, Great American Headquarters on Board Cruiser Pittsburgh—Officers Tell of Occupied Areas.

ALLIES ARE BARRED FROM FIUME AREAS

By the Associated Press. TRIEST, Monday, Sept. 22.—Strict are the regulations at Fiume that it is impossible for even the allied commanders to enter or leave the town.

American headquarters has been established on board the cruiser Pittsburgh, under command of Rear Admiral Andrews, which is anchored at Ansanon, on the bay of Fiume, five miles northwest of the town of Fiume. The American consul and all the American residents in Fiume have been taken aboard the flagship. A British torpedo boat destroyer lies at anchor alongside the Pittsburgh. The French warships up to the present have remained outside of Fiume harbor. The French troops still remain on the Fiume wharves, sleeping in the sheds. The fight with the men of Fiume has been taken aboard the flagship. A British torpedo boat destroyer lies at anchor alongside the Pittsburgh. The French warships up to the present have remained outside of Fiume harbor. The French troops still remain on the Fiume wharves, sleeping in the sheds. The fight with the men of Fiume has been taken aboard the flagship.

It is estimated that the population of Fiume and the Piave army and navy have four weeks on which to subsist for enough food. An occasional Italian boat arrives in the harbor bearing foodstuffs, which are unloaded in spite of the blockade. A British tramp steamer under Lieutenant Cole arrived in Triest this afternoon from Fiume to unload a cargo of meat for the Americans on board the cruiser Pittsburgh. The steamer is under command of Rear Admiral Andrews.

"The first knowledge we had of D'Annunzio's exploit," said Lieutenant Cole, "was when the men on the torpedo boat destroyer Cardiff saw a long column of troops, headed by D'Annunzio, marching into the Piazza Dante in Fiume. They then decided to the governor's palace and held the British soldiers on guard there that they were unnecessary and that D'Annunzio's troops would take care of the town. The British torpedo steamer marched into barracks."

The allied commanders then held a council and it was decided to leave Fiume and the handling of the D'Annunzio force to the Italian command. The British withdrew the next morning, while the French took up barracks on the wharves. After the allied troops left the town their flags were hoisted down.

REPORT MAY BE HINDRI. WASHINGTON, September 24.—Deportation warrants were issued today by the bureau of immigration for about 15 natives of Italy who were convicted at San Francisco for violation of American neutrality prior to the United States entry into the war. Some of them are still serving sentences.

ISSUE USUAL CONFLICTING STATEMENTS

Strike Leaders Claim 15,000 More Men Have Left Their Posts.

BOTH SIDES HAVE MEN CANVASSING WAVING

Production Continues to Be Paralyzed in Mahoning Valley—Go Back at Canton.

By the Associated Press. The third day of the great steel strike passed without either side having made any apparent material gains. Last night attention was being focused on Washington where the inquiry into the industrial struggle by the senate labor committee is open today.

Usual Conflicting Claims. From their respective headquarters, industrial leaders and directors of the strike issued their usual conflicting statements, which "are still in doubt the exact number of workers who have walked out. William Z. Foster, secretary of the strikers' national committee, claimed that, in the various steel centers, 15,000 more men had abandoned their posts, bringing the total to 247,000. But, in the crucial Pittsburgh district, officials of the United States Steel corporation and several "independents" asserted that the stream of labor had turned and was flowing into the mills.

Managers Take Offense. According to reports from Pittsburgh, where union labor leaders held a general parley to consider conduct of the strike, managers of the plants are seeking now to take the offensive. Not content with merely holding what forces remain with them, they are said to be trying to induce wavering strikers to return. On the other hand the unions' recruiting forces are not inactive, as shown by the fact that organizers from the mine workers' union have been called to reinforce agents of the steelworkers' union "enrolling non-union workers."

Situation Is Clouded. As in Pittsburgh the situation in Chicago also was clouded by conflicting reports. The industry in that section, though crippled by the closing of many plants, was by no means dead yet, and company officials claimed additions had been made to the reduced forces with which they were continuing operation.

In the Youngstown district, where advances were claimed by the strikers, the strike spread yesterday to neighboring plants, two of which were closed, as was the Youngstown Pressed Steel company. Analysis of production in the Mahoning valley, caused by illness of 4,000 workers, continues, every plant being closed.

Yield to Return to Work. From Canton, Ohio, came the announcement by the general manager of the Canton Sheet Steel company that his men numbering 1,200, had voted to return to work.

In the Colorado district, plants of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company in Pueblo, which closed Monday, remained closed, and according to officials will make no effort to operate until the strike is over.

Yesterday was marked by a sharp decrease in violence. Although rioting occurred in Cleveland, order reigned in Buffalo, New York and Pittsburgh, Newcastle and Farrell, Pa., the storm centers Tuesday.

CATHOLIC GATHERING HOLDS FIRST MEETING, WASHINGTON

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The greatest gathering of the Catholic hierarchy and clergy of America since the plenary meeting of 1894 in Baltimore attended the opening session at Catholic university today of the conference called by James Cardinal Gibbons to lay plans for greater unity in the work of the church. The self-sacrificing service of American Catholics during the war, both at home and abroad, was praised by Cardinal Morone, who expressed the appreciation of the church and the people of Belgium.

COMPERS OPPOSES ANTI-STRIKE PLAN

Declares That Congress Should Not Pass This Portion of Cummins' Bill.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Declaring that Judge E. M. Clegg, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, had said "in a flippant and autocratic fashion" with labor representatives, Senator Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in summing up before the senate interstate commerce committee organized labor's opposition to the anti-strike section of the Cummins' railroad bill, said the steel strike was an example of the necessity for the use of the strike by labor unions.

Appearance of Mr. Compers before the senate committee came at the end of the second day of continued attack by labor leaders against the provision of the Cummins bill which would make striking railroad men conspirators against commerce and liable to fine and imprisonment.

"When employers say there is nothing to talk over," said the labor chief, "when they refuse to meet representatives of labor, when they refuse to meet representatives of government, how else is there to convince them but a strike. Look at the steel strike now. That was the position they took. A letter to him from me last June is still unanswered."

"A committee to see him was created with the word that he had nothing to discuss with them. He treated us in a flippant and autocratic fashion. The strike is now on, much to my regret, because I wanted to see it delayed until after the president's industrial conference."

"But if you knew conditions in districts the United States Steel corporation controls you would understand. Murder, assault, arrest of men, prohibition of meetings on rented ground, workers dispersed or threatened and detective corps employed by the company. A woman murdered in cold blood and the detective who did it concealed on bond of $250, while men arrested in the meetings were held in 1919 jail."

"Where's that?" a committee member interrupted him.

"At McKeesport, Pa.," Mr. Compers rejoined, "that's the sort of thing we have to meet in guiding labor organizations. We've labor and we'll continue to do our best, we men in the labor movement, to keep things going. But if you take from us our last effective form of appeal for necessary change, as this bill does, what chance is on your head and not on ours?"

CHARGES COMPANIES CAUSE OF TROUBLE

Carrazza Declares That Officers Established Outside of Country Give Wrong News.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 24.—Study of President Carranza's message to congress on September 1 brings into prominence several sections of the address which were overshadowed at first.

One of the largest sections was contributed by the department of commerce and industry which has charge of petroleum and mining matters. Lengthy reference is made to the differences of opinion existing between the Mexican government and the petroleum companies as to their respective rights and the direct charge is made that a group of disinterested companies has established "an office outside Mexico for the special purpose of spreading false and exaggerated statements concerning the policies of the Mexican government in relation to petroleum."

Not all petroleum companies are open to this charge, says the message.

"A new banking law providing for a bank of issue and materially changing the entire financial system will soon be submitted to congress according to the message.

According to a statement prepared by the department of the treasury the government in the past 12 months has received revenues totaling 135,301,000 pesos and it is estimated that total revenues for the year will aggregate 162,000,000 pesos. Estimate up the first nine months of the year indicate a gain over a similar period last year of more than 15,000,000 pesos.

"The campaign against the enemies of order has continued with success," says a portion of the message directed with the department of war, "and assurance can be given that only a few unimportant groups of bandits are operating in some states of the republic. They are constantly being hunted and beaten by federal forces and their auxiliaries."

Members of congress showed most interest in that part of the message dealing with the relations with the United States. When the president alluded to Mexico's unwillingness to join the League of Nations and her determination not to recognize the Mexican, deserting, senators and deputies applauded loudly.

There is every evidence that the present congress intends to take some definite stand on the petroleum question. The senate has before it a report by its special committee which recommends vital amendments to article 27, under which the petroleum industry would be nationalized. The authors of this report, Juan N. Prieta and Adalberto Itin have announced they are going to push the measure with vigor. Meanwhile President Carranza has announced that he is going to let congress deliberate the matter as it will.

Carrazza Declares That Officers Established Outside of Country Give Wrong News.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 24.—Study of President Carranza's message to congress on September 1 brings into prominence several sections of the address which were overshadowed at first.

One of the largest sections was contributed by the department of commerce and industry which has charge of petroleum and mining matters. Lengthy reference is made to the differences of opinion existing between the Mexican government and the petroleum companies as to their respective rights and the direct charge is made that a group of disinterested companies has established "an office outside Mexico for the special purpose of spreading false and exaggerated statements concerning the policies of the Mexican government in relation to petroleum."

Not all petroleum companies are open to this charge, says the message.

"A new banking law providing for a bank of issue and materially changing the entire financial system will soon be submitted to congress according to the message.

According to a statement prepared by the department of the treasury the government in the past 12 months has received revenues totaling 135,301,000 pesos and it is estimated that total revenues for the year will aggregate 162,000,000 pesos. Estimate up the first nine months of the year indicate a gain over a similar period last year of more than 15,000,000 pesos.

"The campaign against the enemies of order has continued with success," says a portion of the message directed with the department of war, "and assurance can be given that only a few unimportant groups of bandits are operating in some states of the republic. They are constantly being hunted and beaten by federal forces and their auxiliaries."

Members of congress showed most interest in that part of the message dealing with the relations with the United States. When the president alluded to Mexico's unwillingness to join the League of Nations and her determination not to recognize the Mexican, deserting, senators and deputies applauded loudly.

There is every evidence that the present congress intends to take some definite stand on the petroleum question. SHAH OF PERSIA NOT TO BE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

LONDON, Sept. 23.—An announcement that the Shah of Persia is on his way to visit London brought indignation in the newspapers that the government would accord him an enthusiastic welcome and all the pomp and pageantry of the visit of that other Shah in Victorian days would be repeated. All this is now of an avowed nature. The Shah is quite unoffensive.

It is considered improbable that the Shah is traveling with more than a few attendants. He is said to be simple in his tastes and cannot afford to follow the tastes of his father who was accompanied by a brilliant staff of more than 50 persons. White in London he will likely be housed in the Persian legation.

The recent agreement by which England became an important factor in Persian affairs makes the visit doubly important to the government. Later the Shah will visit the United States.

TREATY WORK ALL ON THE OUTSIDE

Conference Take Place Between Republicans to Decide Procedure to Be Followed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Most of the work on the peace treaty today was carried on outside the senate chamber.

While Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey was delivering a two-hour attack on the treaty and its league of nations covenant, republicans were trying to reach an agreement respecting the method of dealing with the amendment by Senator Johnson, republican, California, equating the voting power of the United States and Great Britain in the league assembly.

The Johnson amendment has been laid aside to be taken up at an indefinite date, but there were scores of rumors concerning possible procedure and one persistent report was that Senator Johnson might insist upon calling it up at any moment. Some league advocates put forth the claim that enough promises had been obtained from republicans to make certain its defeat, largely because of the argument that its adoption might necessitate reopening of the whole question of peace negotiations, with Germany.

There were no positive statements from leaders of either side but there were more informal conferences than usual, with the promise that almost anything might happen on the floor to disturb the routine proceedings.

Under the motion adopted by the senate Tuesday when republicans took hold of the handling of the treaty, a number of amendments by Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, which would relieve the United States from service on foreign commissions created by the treaty will be the order of business Friday. The business, however, will be mainly speechmaking for no vote is expected until next week.

Senator New, republican, Indiana, expected to speak today but at the last moment he announced that he would not speak until tomorrow. Senator Smith, democrat, Maryland, also gave notice that he would discuss the treaty tomorrow, and Senator Cummins, republican, Iowa, has prepared and addressed and hopes to deliver it this week.

Which the galleries applauded at the conclusion of Senator Frelinghuysen's speech, Vice President Marshall instructed the doorkeepers to eject in future those who disobeyed the rules of the senate which prohibits demonstration by visitors.

THE BOY IN THE MOB.

In reports of the recent riots in Boston and similarly from other points in the country where there have been disturbances, the statement is made that the offending rioters are mostly boys.

It is difficult often for the authorities to deal with street uprisings just for this reason. In the forefront of every mob are boys so young that hesitation is felt in applying the stern measures of suppression which could be dealt out without mercy were the mob composed of the older men who started the trouble. But even a mob composed largely of young boys can do infinite damage, and by its lawless excitement extend the mob spirit far and wide.

The boys are not really to blame. The blame rests with the older individual who brings violence to his cause or preaches violence to others. The boy goes headlong because he is a boy. He has not the judgment to weigh the evidence or realize the danger.

Wherever street brawling occurs it must be broken up first, and unhappily, if it has attained such proportions that armed attack is necessary, this means must be employed. If in the course of such action young boys are maimed or lose their lives it is to be deplored, but the public safety is the first consideration.

When the trouble subsides, however, the instigators of such rioting should be sought out and punished, not only for their own acts but for the effect of their example upon the youth of the community. For, as the Washington Star point out:

"Their corruption of youth is a greater and graver offense than their violation of specific laws. For the boy of this day becomes the man of a later day; and if when a boy he is incited to violence and grows up in such an atmosphere he exhibits his vicious training as long as he lives. And the men who start him on his career become responsible for him and his misdeeds, however spread out and numerous during the years."

HOUSEWIVES LOWER PRICES.

It is reported from Dallas, Tex., that prices have really been dropping in that city. Meats have gone down 5 to 10 cents a pound in price; articles of clothing have dropped 10 to 25 per cent.

This pleasing decline in the H. C. L. in Dallas is due to the efforts of the Housewives' Chamber of Commerce. That organization has already more than 5000 members and is campaigning for 10,000. All those women are pledged to refrain from purchasing unduly high-priced food and clothing. They pledge themselves also not to patronize any merchant who has been found, through honest investigation, to be profiteering.

This cooperative effort ought to be of interest to women in other communities. In all this price discussion there have been a few just charges against the consumer, and particularly against the housewife. She has not always been willing to take the trouble to look for moderately priced goods, to shun the profiteer and to reward with her patronage the merchant who is doing his best to deal fairly and honestly with his customers.

The Dallas women do not advocate anything so drastic as an actual boycott. They have simply gotten together to discuss the common sense methods of reducing their household expenditures, and are staying together to carry out those methods.

NO MORE "GOBS."

An order has been issued to all naval recruiting stations that the term "Gobs" shall no longer be applied to the boys of the navy. In his order Secretary Daniels designates the name as "ugly."

Maybe it is an ugly name when one considers the appearance of the sailors as they swing down the streets or assemble on the decks of their ships for drill. But it is a wholesome, boyish name for all that, a plain and unadorned name even as the sailor is a plain and unadorned servant of his country, not afraid of anything and handy with his fists.

How the name originated has not been made plain. Possibly some one seeing the hosts of boys lining up at the recruiting stations or on drill exclaimed, "Oh, my! What gobs of boys!" "Slathers" and "gobs" are colloquial in some parts of this country for quantity or numbers.

One hesitates to think what "pretty" names the sailors may be tempted to give themselves as a result of the order, or by what refined titles their rivals in the army may designate them. But "orders is orders," and all the sailor can do in public, whatever he says in private, is to touch his cap with a respectful "Aye, aye, sir!" Still, those Gobs were a fine lot, now weren't they?

BETTER COMMUNICATION.

One more successful radio experiment has been made and has been hailed as an important factor in future coast defense and naval warfare. Telephone and telegraph communication was established between a hydroplane, flying nearly 2000 feet in the air, and a submarine several fathoms under water.

The experiment was performed off New London, Conn., over—and in, to be quite accurate—Long Island sound. The delegates to the annual convention of the Edison Society of Electrical Engineers were witnesses.

This is a very interesting development, and one that will undoubtedly prove of great value in case of war. In peace time, too, there will probably be many uses for such communication.

The ordinary person, however, whose temper has been somewhat injured by the modern telephone service and whose recent experience with telegrams has been painful, may be pardoned for sighing over the rapid advances and new inventions in communication methods. He would be willing to forego communication between airplanes and undersea craft if only he might be assured of getting the number he calls over the telephone the same day he calls it.

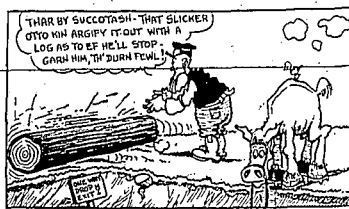

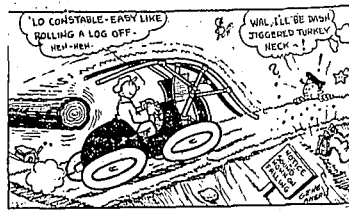

There is a species of fly, scientists announce, which should not be swatted, as it destroys plant lice. This useful fly is distinguished by yellow and black bands on its body, but our advice to the insect would be to keep out of the kitchen.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy—and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

WILSON WINS SAN FRANCISCO CROWDS

Scandal in San Francisco All for the League of Nations Since President Hated Critics.

By ERNEST J. HOPKINS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Woodrow Wilson has conquered Senator Hiram Johnson's own home town it is now necessary.

After the president's two-day visit and three speeches analyzing the peace treaty and League of Nations, it is unmitigable that the president has converted a surprising number of doubters or lukewarm supporters into ardent champions of immediate ratification.

In the city that was regarded by the president's advisors as the crucial test of his tour, the question, "What do you think of Wilson?" meets everywhere the answer:

"Great stuff! Had my doubt previously about Shantung and Britain's six votes, but he settled these points. His opponents haven't a thing to offer."

Many added:

"Hiram Johnson is all right, but he is in the wrong at this time."

California probably favored the League of Nations from the outset. A newspaper poll covering several picture theaters showed three to one for the league. The Commercial Club, a statewide civic organization, by postcard ballot endorsed the treaty 182 to 106, and the League of Nations, 154 to 248. A prominent republican confidentially admitted to me that public sentiment, originally 50 per cent for the league, was still 60 per cent for it—this from an opponent and before Wilson's visit, remember.

Yet the cards were all stacked to give the president a hot time here. A big night meeting attended by 20,000 was packed by several hundred intentional disturbers, who shouted down Mayor Rollin M. Chanaman, Chester Howell, and kept the president standing 15 minutes before permitting him to speak.

Wilson conquered that crowd and made it cut out of his hand. What accompanying newspaper men termed the best speech of his entire tour was his answer to the outburst.

The president had picked San Francisco as the strategic point to handle the Irish issue. Local Irish labor leaders had wired him four questions on Ireland, apparently believing Wilson's policy was to withdraw completely. He was not in town an hour before a strong answer was issued. This had an overwhelming effect.

I asked "Andy" Gallagher, prominent labor leader, city supervisor, progressive republican, what of the president's reply had on Irish sentiment. Gallagher responded:

"There is no question, Irish opposition and criticism have been softened. Personally I find the replies weak and not specific enough. But by getting a few slaps in the right direction he has secured a certain result. No question the president is a very, very clever man."

President Wilson stepped into a queery topay-turvey political mix-up here. The biggest men in the "Johnson for president" camp, are progressives and pro-treaty, almost unanimously. Wilson's main meeting was presided over by Chester, Howell, progressive republican editor and Johnson's closest friend. Of twelve vice presidents at this meeting, 10 were republicans and Johnson, progressive. As an important Johnson-for-president leader put the case to me:

"The best thing we can hope for is that the League-of-Nations issue will be ancient history by next summer. The people love Hiram, but do not associate with his aim for impossible national goals."

Johnson would have faced an interesting task if he hadn't abandoned his extension of his speaking tour to California.

"Here are some summaries of sentiments:

"The president hasn't changed my conviction, but he intensified it. His arguments are invincible. If the great experiment isn't tried now, there's no chance left after another huge war. Over fifty men today have said the same thing to me," said Justice William Lawlor, progressive and Johnson supporter.

"Wilson was fair, sincere and definite. He showed me America will not be outvoted in the league council and that the league is the way to solve the Shantung and Irish questions. Business men are satisfied, and I have talked with many," said George Bradley, official in the California Fruit Growers' association.

"Unpleasant here on elsewhere, may be disregarded. Wilson has the right end of it. Labor understands the difficulties in the way of a perfect treaty, but realizes the present document is a long step in the right direction," said George Tracy, secretary of the typographical union.

"President Wilson had an overwhelming triumph. He faced a crowd agitated and in part hostile, and he conquered, delighted and informed. Next day 1500 business men, mostly republicans, gave him unanimous applause and cheers. We must have the League of Nations to save posterly from repeating the horrors of this war," said Raphael Woll, department store owner and leader in the French colony.

"Plans and Shantung cannot remain permanently bad, and we must have the League of Nations to re-adjust them. That is what you say give me life for," said James H. Wilkin, writer and veteran republican leader.

CHICAGO 6; ST. LOUIS 5. CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Chicago today won the American league pennant by defeating St. Louis 6 to 5. Chicago played an uphill game and it rested with little John Kerr to put the local club through. Kerr started the ninth inning fully with a strike to left. Lubeck followed with a single in the same direction, and McMillin walked, filling the bases. Weaver fled to Jacobson and Kerr scored after the catch, tying the score. Jackson then hit to right center and sent Lubeck home with a run which gave Chicago the right to meet Cincinnati October 1 for the championship of the world.

The visitors made their run by punching hits off Cleoite. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 5 13 1 Chicago 6 14 0 Batteries: Bohron and Serech; Cleoite, Kerr and Schalk.

THE SOX IS A FINE, WELL BALANCED TEAM--EVERS

By JOHN E. EVERS. If there is any American league team that I should know something about it's the White Sox. I certainly have had plenty of experience with that aggregation. In past years I have against them in five city series and one world series. That's when I was with the Cubs, and the only time we trimmed the Sox was in 1905 and 1908. They are a tough bunch to beat.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Buyers overreached themselves in the corn market today. After a lively advance had been secured, an attempt to realize profits found support lacking. Word that the Inland Steel company had threatened to shut down for six months was partly responsible for subsequent development of selling pressure. The market closed heavy, 1/4c to 3/8c net lower, with December $1.25 to $1.27 1/2 and May $1.23 1/2 to $1.24 1/2. Corn traders liberally stocked to the buying side during the first half of the day and based their operations primarily on the fact that receipts were small and offerings not plentiful. Meanwhile gossip that producers were systematically curtailing shipments continued to be the generally accepted reason for the slowness of the crop movement and for an assumption that minimum receipts in future would be prolonged. Mid-season efforts however, to reap some immediate advantage for holders disclosed that the market was in a decidedly overbought condition. Exaggerated versions of the inland steel company's ultimatum to strikers then became current and the early advance of the corn market was much more than wiped out. One over governed by corn, Eastern demand was very low. Talk of some revival of foreign call helped to strengthen positions.

RESERVATION WOULD REJECT PEACE TREATY

Change Proposed in Article 10 Would Make Renegotiation Necessary.

LEAGUE NOT TO BE SUPER-GOVERNMENT

Withdrawal Objection Is Another 'Bugaboo' Which Has Been Dispelled, Asserts Wilson.

CHYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 24.—Reading again the proposed reservation to article 10 of the league covenant, President Wilson declared in an address here today that should any such reservation be adopted he would "be obliged as chief executive to regard it as a rejection of the treaty."

The president added that rejection of the treaty would mean negotiation of a separate peace with Germany, and asserted that such a negotiation could not change a single item of the peace settlement.

British and Economic Rights.—Recalling Japan's promise to return to China all sovereign rights in Shantung, the president said the only thing retained by the Tokyo government would be economic rights such as other nations hold. He said the United States had no right to doubt that promise. He characterized as "empty noise" the professions of friendship for China made by those who want the treaty to fail.

Turning to the league covenant, the president said the question of whether the head of the league covenant was to be cut out soon must come to a "show-down." It would mean the violation of the whole plan, he asserted, if the nation were to adopt reservations to article 10 as proposed in the senate.

No Super-Government.—One by one, said he, the other objections to the covenant had been disposed of. To all "candid minds," he asserted, it now was apparent that the Monroe doctrine was fully protected, that there was no super-government set up, and that no danger was to be feared from the "speaking parts" given to the British dominions in the league assembly. The withdrawal objection, he added, was another "bugaboo" that had been dispelled.

Thus, continued Mr. Wilson, the whole discussion had settled down upon article 10, under which the members agree to preserve one another's territorial integrity against external aggression. It is developed that cut at the "top-root of war" because nearly all wars started from aggression against those unable to defend themselves.

The reservation read by the president was the same that he had before his audience last night at the Salt Lake City tabernacle. By its provisions, the United States would assume no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity and other nations unless congress should so decide.

Honesty Fairly Ours.—"It is as though you said you will not join the league now," said he, "but may join from time to time. We won't promise anything but from time to time we may co-operate."

"The thing is unworthy and ridiculous. It means the rejection of the treaty—putting it down. The issue is final. We can't avoid it. We've got to make the decision now and once made, there can be no turning back."

Unless the United States went into the league now, he predicted, it would lose its full responsibility it would have to come in later with Germany.

Britain and the United States, he added, were not dependent upon the league. They would come into force, said France would be protected.

During the course of Mr. Tardieu's speech, M. Barthou interrupted and demanded an immediate reply as to what situation France would be placed in should the United States not ratify. He added that it was through his influence that he had refrained from asking this question before, and he wished still hoped that the senate would finally bring the discussion and reach its conclusion. But now this seemed hopeless, "for the question must be settled immediately, as American ratification was about to occur at all."

Satisfied U. S. to Ratify.—M. Tardieu declared that he personally was satisfied that the United States senate would ratify the treaty. M. Barthou countered, saying that he was far from satisfied in citing the vote of 413 to 49 on Senator Lodge's motion for postponement as "a fair warning of the ultimate fate of the pact."

M. Fiehon's reply that "legally speaking" the league could exist without American participation brought retort from M. Barthou that what France wanted was political guarantees, not legal guarantees. He asserted that the government must face the issue immediately.

LEGAL GAMBLING IS DEAD IN LEADVILLE

Devises Valued At $7000 Are Pulled On City Dump and Burned.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 24.—That the gambling rags of Leadville are a thing of the past, at least those for the legal phase of gaming, of the goodness of chance are concerned, was demonstrated here this week when gaming paraphernalia, consisting principally of roulette wheels and valued conservatively at $7,000, were carted into the city dump and burned by deputy sheriffs and their rounds. The destruction of the big pile of gaming apparatus came about as the result of a court order issued following the spectacular raid conducted here on August 16.

One roulette wheel destroyed by the officers was valued at about $2,500. It was originally a single table but had been converted into a double one. The numbers on the original table were inlaid with mother pearl, ebony, ironwood, mahogany, teakwood and rosewood. The wheel was made of mahogany and ebony and all points and metal parts of solid silver. The ball used on this wheel was solid ivory. The addition consisted of an ordinary, cheaply-constructed table with the numbers painted on heavy oil cloth. An interesting feature in connection with this particular roulette was that it could be controlled by the house. The control was of the double type—that is, it could be manipulated either by the croupier or operator or by someone located in an adjacent room. Whether this feature was ever used could not be determined.

Other articles destroyed in the fire included card tables, faro tables, playing cards, poker chips and faro boxes.

BERMAN BOY MAY BE GIVEN MOTHER

Taken to Germany by Stepfather, Lad May Be Brought Back to States.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Joseph Fringer, a 13-year-old Chicago boy, who was taken to Germany in 1914 by his father, in 1914, may be restored to his mother in the Illinois city, as a result of his adoption as a mascot by one of the American units at Coblenz. The boy's mother is Mrs. Emma Fringer of 33 Dearborn street, South Chicago.

He was brought by American military police the other day to the office of Captain Paul E. Peck, formerly dean of Grinnell college, Grinnell, Iowa, and now head of the home service work of the American Red Cross in Europe. Captain Peck learned that in 1910 the boy's father died and the mother remarried. Early in 1914 the stepfather, George Fringer, took the boy from Chicago to Germany. When cause the war, the stepfather entered the German army and was killed. For a time the boy made his home with relatives in Berlin and then drifted to Coblenz where he attached himself to one of the regiments. The stepfather helped him in writing a letter to his mother who responded immediately urging him to come back to her at once.

When the regiment left for America several unsuccessful efforts were made by his soldier friends to smuggle the boy aboard the transport, but each time he was detected and sent ashore. Finally he was sent back to Paris. The Red Cross took up the boy's case with the American Passport Bureau and he has secured proof of identity that will enable the boy to start for home and mother shortly.
