

WILL SEEK A SOLUTION OF BIG PROBLEMS

Conference of World's Leading Commercial Figures Is Called. WOULD BRING UNIVERSE OUT OF PRESENT CHAOS

Inflation and Continued Rise of Prices and Governmental Expenditures Must Stop.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—A call for one of the greatest international conferences of commercial and financial figures ever assembled, in an effort to find a remedy for the financial and commercial chaos in which the world has been left by the war, was issued here today following the meeting of a coterie of nationally known financiers.

Appeal Made in Europe.
The appeal was issued simultaneously with similar proclamations put forth in Great Britain, France, Ireland, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway. In each case the documents were signed by business financial, political and educational leaders of their respective countries. In the case of the European countries, the appeal was addressed to the respective governments. In the United States, the chamber of commerce of the United States was asked to arrange the preliminaries of the conference while the appeal was addressed jointly to that body, the American government and the reparations commission in Paris.

Welcome Hun Delegates.
While Germany and Austria were not included in the original call, it was announced that delegates from these countries would be invited to attend the conference. "To sum up the document," says the official announcement of the conference, "it is a call to the people to return to pre-war standards of reason—an appeal to the reparations commission for wise moderation as to the best business policy for all concerned—an appeal to government to arrest inflation and to ease the burden by increasing their revenue rather than by increasing their debts, an appeal to the people to work and save, an appeal to leaders of commerce and finance to get together in order to study the problems diplomatically and take it up as a business proposition, relying on independent action rather than government intervention.

Governments can be relied upon, however, to remove as rapidly as possible the obstacles that impede such a course.

Many Prominent Men Sign.
Among the prominent American signatories are J. P. Morgan, Herbert Hoover, Frank A. Vanderlip, Samuel Rea, Philadelphia; George M. Reynolds Chicago; Arthur T. Hadley, president Yale University; William H. Taft, Harry S. Truman, president University of Washington; Daniel Willard, Baltimore; Fred J. Wade, St. Louis; Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; Julius H. Barnes, president of the Erie corporation; and Cleveland H. Dodge, a Harlan, Nebraska; Darwin P. Kinsley, James A. Sullivan and William F. Wells Morgan, all of New York.

In addition to the European countries who have united in the movement, the chamber of commerce of the United States is asked to invite delegates from Japan, the other countries of Europe and the principal exporting countries of South America.

Must Stop Inflation.
"The war has left to conquer and conquer alike the problem of finding means effectively to arrest and counteract the continuous growth in the volume of outstanding money and the consequent inflation," continues the statement "and its concomitant, the constant increase of prices.

"A decrease of excessive consumption and an increase of production and taxation are recognized as the most hopeful and only remedies. Inflation is promptly applied, the depreciation of money, it is to be feared, will continue; wiping out the savings of the past and leading to gradual but persistent spreading of bankruptcy and anarchy in Europe.

"The social and economic future of every country depends upon an elimination of inflation."

ARRANGE FOR TRIAL OF FIVE SOCIALISTS

Another Effort to Be Made Reciprocal Action Uncovering New York Assemblymen

By the Associated Press.
ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 14.—While the assembly judiciary committee today was setting the stage for the trial here next Tuesday of the five socialist assemblymen suspended at the opening of the legislature, it became known that another effort to have the lower house rescind its action and repeat the five is being planned for Monday night's session.

After the committee had adopted rules under which the trial will be held and had requested Attorney General Newton to conduct its case, employing whatever additional counsel he might desire, Assemblyman William C. Ames, republican of New York, announced that on the eve of the first public hearing he would introduce proceedings to have the suspended members restored to their seats.

A similar motion to reconsider, introduced last Monday night, was rejected 71 to 41.

Louis M. Martin, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, tonight sent formal notice of the opening of the trial to the five suspended members—Louis Waldman, August Claessens, Samuel A. Dewitt, Samuel Orr, and Charles Solomon, all of Greater New York.

Thaddeus C. Sweet, speaker of the assembly, who launched the ousting movement, tonight made public a letter from United States Senator Miles Alexander, republican of Washington, approving the action taken by the assembly.

AMERICANS KILLED IN CLASH WITH SEMENOFF

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a clash with an armored train of General Semenov's Cossack army, between Lake Balkal and Verkhneudinsk in the province of Trans-Baikalia, according to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Harbin. The Americans were reported to have captured the train.

Details of the brush between the Americans and the Semenov forces are unavailable.

Other clashes are reported between the Czech-Slovaks and General Semenov's troops.

A Moscow wireless dispatch says the majority of the Cossacks in the Amur region and also the Burians and the Kirghizes of the Trans-Baikalia region have repudiated the massacre of General Semenov and repudiated his representatives.

SAYS CABINET IS NOW GREAT POWER

Kenyon Would Have Presidential Nominee Disclose Possible Appointment Before Election

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Declaring cabinet officers have developed great powers in government, Senator Kenyon (republican of Iowa), announced tonight that he would endeavor to have a plank inserted in the 1920 platform of the republican party, requiring the presidential nominee to make public his proposed cabinet appointments thirty days before the election.

"This would give us more representative government in the cabinet," said Mr. Kenyon. "for the people would, in a measure, be voting for cabinet officers. At least that would enter into the election."

"If men are to secure cabinet positions because of heavy campaign contributions, let the public know. If somebody is to be appointed to a cabinet position who has no special fitness for the position but has been able to deliver a substantial body of delegates to the successful candidate, that, likewise, is a matter of public concern. If men are to be appointed to the cabinet merely on the ground of personal friendship for the nominee or because they may resemble in appearance cabinet officers in the days of Grant, let us know that also.

"The cabinet positions have grown into positions of tremendous power. Why should the voter not know before he votes who are to be the members of the cabinet?"

WILL HEAR PLEA OF MURDERER

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—Furlison was given his evening by Federal Judge Mowbray to present in his court tomorrow application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Alphonse B. Cole, under sentence to be electrocuted Friday next in the state penitentiary.

PRICE IS REDUCED

In order that the public may have the full benefit of the Illinois aid in The Chronicle, and for the purpose of popularizing this department of the paper, the price has been cut in half. Hereafter the price will be but one cent per word per insertion, 25 cents minimum charge per insertion. However, at this price it will be impossible to book and bill these small amounts, and cash must in all cases accompany the order.

STUDENT VOTE FAVORS PACT IN SOME FORM

SENATE AWAITS RESULT OF DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

Renewed Efforts to Reach Agreement Will Be Made When Minority Has Selected Its Leader.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Supporters of ratification of the peace treaty by compromise maintained their lead tonight in returns from 275 colleges and universities on the intercollegiate treaty referendum. Out of a total of 92,242 votes cast by the students and faculty, 32,894 students and 5,612 professors and teachers voted in favor of compromise. The next highest vote was for ratification without amendment, which totaled 25,869 students and 3,946 teachers. Only 9,500 votes were cast for rejection of the treaty in any form and 17,442 abstention with the Lodge reservations.

DEPEND ON LEADER SELECTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Further and more determined efforts to bring about ratification of the peace treaty is expected to follow selection tomorrow by democratic senators of a leader to succeed the late Senator Martin of Virginia.

Senatorial conferences today were devoted almost exclusively to the leadership race between Senator Hittcock of Nebraska, administration leader in the treaty contest, and Senator Underwood of Alabama, former democratic leader in the house. The democratic meet in caucus tomorrow morning before the senate convenes to make the choice, with an extremely close contest in prospect.

Managers of the Hittcock and Underwood campaigns, while both claiming victory, agreed tonight that the democratic membership was very evenly divided and that one vote might decide the contest.

Effect of the democratic leadership election on the treaty is predicated on variant positions taken recently by Senators Hittcock and Underwood on ratification. Although both have urged unreserved ratification, Senator Underwood declared several times that, if unable to secure ratification without reservations, he was prepared to support ratification of partial ratification excluding the league of nations covenant and leaving it to settlement in the fall elections. Senator Hittcock has opposed such a course. Another factor is the authorship of Senator Underwood of the pending motion for appointment of a senate committee on conciliation.

Would Hurt Treaty Fight

Supporters of Senator Hittcock have been urging his election as an endorsement of his ex-officio minority leadership during the illness and death of Senator Martin.

They also have emphasized that his defeat might be construed as repudiation of the administration policy as regards the treaty and might have a harmful effect on future action.

In behalf of Senator Underwood, it has been pointed out that his election would or could be regarded as repudiation of the treaty management, either of Mr. Hittcock or the administration. The Alabama senator's friends have insisted that the treaty is a temporary issue which should not be a factor in election of a permanent leader, and have emphasized that Mr. Hittcock is a ranking committee member of the foreign relations committee, would continue in charge of the treaty and also of all other questions of foreign relations coming before the senate even should Mr. Underwood be chosen leader.

Another argument has hinged on geographical considerations. Mr. Hittcock being from the middle west and Mr. Underwood from the "solid south."

COMPLETE PLANS FOR DECORATION INQUIRY

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A list of 15 admirals, headed by Rear Admiral William S. Sims, was submitted to Secretary Daniels today by Senator Hale, of Maine, chairman of the senate naval subcommittee on investigation of navy decoration awards with the request that the officers be summoned to appear before the committee which will hold its first meeting Friday. Included in the list are four admirals: William S. Benson, retired, head of the special board on naval operations; Austin M. Knight, retired, head of the special board on naval awards; Charles J. Badger, retired, general board, and Henry T. Mayo, former commander of the Atlantic fleet. In addition, the committee requested the appearance of Major General George Barnett, commanding the marine corps, and of all bureau chiefs.

Admiral Sims, who recently wrote Secretary Daniels, "an inquiry" into the "accuracy" of action in changing recommendations for war honors, made by commanding officers, and refusing the Distinguished Service Medal, awarded him, announced the list of awards stand as scheduled. Will be the first of the officers to testify before the subcommittee at Friday's hearings.

Secretary Daniels announced today that he had received another letter of a "highly controversial" nature from Admiral Sims. The secretary said he had not read the letter carefully and would not make it public until he had done so, but that a cursory examination of its contents had convinced him that it contained serious criticism of the navy's conduct of certain phases of the war.

PERSHING AGAIN WARNS AGAINST BOLSHEVISTS

By the Associated Press.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 14.—Among his old neighbors and the friends he made while stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, General John J. Pershing, struck tonight at Bolshevism in an address here today. "If we cannot convert these reds, we can at least deport them," the general declared.

The speech was made at a dinner introducing the annual convention of the Cheyenne of Wyoming, held at the Hotel Pershing in an address here today. "If we cannot convert these reds, we can at least deport them," the general declared.

"The time has come for America," said General Pershing, "to take full note of these anarchistic tendencies and prevent them from growing. Every one living under the protection of the American flag should be compelled to learn the English language and something concerning our laws and customs. Until we awaken to the danger of Bolshevism, our danger will be continually on the increase. We must take action at once."

Wyoming people turned out in great numbers to greet General Pershing. Every part of the state was represented.

Tenat General Pershing was a guest at a reception and dinner at the capital. He will inspect Fort D. A. Russell tomorrow morning. In the afternoon he will speak to the Wyoming Wool Growers association. Tomorrow night General Pershing will be entertaining a group of boxing boys at the fort and will leave for Salt Lake City.

JUDGE BOTHWELL AGAIN ATTORNEY FOR CANAL CO.

Judge James H. Bothwell was yesterday selected as attorney for the Twin Falls Canal company by the directors. Judge Bothwell has been attorney for the Canal company for an extended period, having handled many of its important cases. His selection for the ensuing year will be received with approval throughout the entire district.

RECRUITING SHIP AGROUND OFF FLORIDA COAST

By the Associated Press.
MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 14.—An unidentified United States recruiting ship, carrying 260 recruits, enroute from New York to Pensacola was aground tonight off Elliott's key, according to reports from the crew of the ship, which arrived here today. The ship was not believed to be in immediate danger.

MARA TO MAKE PRELIMINARY PLANS FOR CONVENTION

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Chairman Munnings of the Democratic national committee today designated George F. Mara of Bridgeport, Conn., as representative in making preliminary arrangements for the annual convention of the party, to be held in San Francisco beginning June 15.

EVIDENCE CARRANZAS MURDERED TWO VICTIMS

American Legion Ordered To Get Out, Says Veteran—Two of Its Members Have Been Arrested.

By the Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 14.—Stories of terrible cruelty, unredressed murders and devastation of properties were given the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation, by men in close touch with conditions in Mexico. T. M. McBoe, a cattleman from a border town; James J. Britt, a lawyer from Tampico, and George E. Dalalock, once head of what was the largest colony of American farmers in Mexico and who now is operating a small grocery store here, were the witnesses. The effect of their testimony was to strengthen the claims of witnesses heard in Washington that the insecurity of American life and property in Mexico is growing greater.

Worth More in Argentine.
Britt, who reminded the committee that he is not employed by any oil company, asserted that American life "was worth more in the Argentine than it is today in the country about Tampico." He entered the United States only two days ago. He is one of the many who have fled from the horrors of the Mexican Revolution. He was killed in the old fields December 30. The three had dined together Christmas day.

Britt appeared confident that the men were killed by Carranza soldiers. "They were killed by Carranza soldiers," he said, "and the bullets we took from their bodies were those used by the government soldiers and not by the bandits. Moreover, Boles, after he had been brought to the ground by a bullet in his ankle, had been attacked from behind by a man with a machete. The blade had been thrust far into his body, turned downward and then up again. The rebels in that part of the country do not carry machetes. The soldiers do."

Planned to Kill Paymaster.
His theory that the killing was done by soldiers was further supported by telling the committee that the paymaster of one of the oil companies, who resembled Roney, received permission about the same time the two had left to carry a certain amount of money into the oil fields. This information was transmitted by a Canadian, Britt claimed, and those who killed Roney and Boles believed they were killing the paymaster.

He told the committee the Americans stood guard over the bodies until an autopsy could be held. "We had one experience of neglecting that phase of such a case," he said, "when James Wallace was shot. I know for a fact that he was not a drinking man, and yet the claim set up by the Mexicans was that he was drunk. And this is what had happened. They had poured tequila into his mouth and over his face after he was dead in order that the odor might support their claim."

Britt, who was a soldier in the tank corps of the American army in France, confirmed to the committee the recommendation that be attributed to Secretary of Finance Louis C. Howe, that members of the American Legion in Tampico should be deported. The membership, he said, was nearly 400.

"What are you going to do?" asked the chairman. "Are you going to get out?"

"We won't get out if the United States government stays behind us," he answered.

Four of the members of the American Legion are Mexicans who served with the American army. Britt said that since he left Tampico they have been arrested.

TAKE FIRST AND SECOND AWARDS

Twin Falls County. Dicklow Seed Wheat Exhibits Best at Pocatello Seed Show.

Twin Falls county captured both first and second prizes on exhibits of Dicklow wheat seed at the Pocatello seed show, according to word received here yesterday. First prize was won by Carl Irwin of Kimberly, while the exhibit of J. B. Barnhart of Kimberly was awarded second money. The first prize was valued at $50.

Twin Falls has long been the leading producer of Dicklow wheat. Constant efforts have resulted in the elimination of much inferior seed in this section and as a result the average yield per acre has been increased from year to year.

To a recent bulletin published by the department of agriculture figures were quoted showing the success of Dicklow wheat in this section. The Twin Falls county has several other entries at the seed show on which it is anticipated that prizes will be secured.

ROCK CRUSHER IS STARTED GRINDING

First of Output To Be Used for Construction of Vault for Idaho State Bank.

The rock crusher of the Twin Falls highway district started operations yesterday. Outside of a few minor adjustments the plant is expected to run almost continuously until sufficient rock is crushed to meet the needs of the highway district and Twin Falls city for the year.

The first crushed rock to be turned out by the plant will be used for the construction of the vault of the Idaho state bank, following which work will start on the crushing of rock for the paving of the streets of Twin Falls.

The plant has been ready for operation for some time, but work has been delayed on account of the non-arrival of a motor. The motor arrived last week and was installed immediately and yesterday the crusher started grinding out rock.

Enough rock has been blasted out of the quarries to run the plant for some time. Next month the largest blast attempted will be shot and it is expected that "enough rock" will be loosened to run the balance of the season.

PRESENT VIEWS UPON PENN GARRIER BILLS

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Views of members of manufacturers' organizations in 13 states on pending railroad legislation were presented today by a delegation of business men to Senator Cummins and Representative Esch, authors of the senate and house railroad bills, respectively.

While endorsing most of the provisions of the house bill, except the labor clause, the manufacturers declared in a statement that a "fundamental plan" must be added to the house measure if private operation is to be successful.

The manufacturers favored the essential features of section 4 of the senate bill dealing with a division of railroad earnings and endorsed the rate making rules of the bill. They also advocated the establishment of adequate safeguards against possible interruption of transportation service, which they believed was contained in the senate bill provisions for compulsory arbitration of disputes.

TENNIS FANS WANT TO BUILD COURTS

Meeting Friday Night Will Discuss Means of Furthering Game Here.

Invitations have been issued to all tennis enthusiasts to meet at the rooms of the chamber of commerce Friday night to talk over tennis plans for the coming season. The most important question to be discussed will be the construction of suitable courts for the local tennis fans. At present Twin Falls is without tennis courts and plans will be made Friday night for the construction of several courts. Plans for a tournament between Twin Falls and other cities of the county and southern Idaho will be discussed. Buhl has a tennis organization and are already planning on next season's playing. It is expected that representatives from nearby cities will attend Friday's tennis meeting to help with the organization of the local club and for the planning of a tournament.

PERVERTED PSYCHOLOGY.

"An experiment in psychology" is a cheap and easy explanation for the much-discussed gallows display given by a Chicago sheriff who forced 200 prisoners to witness the execution of a murderer. Only those of hasty intolerance for human frailty condone this brutal exhibition; the world of thoughtful people condemns it as barbarous and useless. But for the fact that the official's motive was good, the action should result in his dismissal. He thought to deter these prisoners from murder by showing them the destined end of slayers.

Prison authorities, legislators and people generally seldom seem to realize how little punishment prevents crime, and how much less, therefore, mere fear of punishment works toward morality. It has never been proved that the certainty of punishment for the taking of life decreased the number of murders. There are no more homicides committed in states which have abolished capital punishment than in those which still hang or electrocute the perpetrators of such crimes.

A sheriff ought to know that a display of brutality cannot be expected to produce aversion to crime. The lynchings in the South demonstrate that most clearly. That hanging party may only have given the criminal minds among his 200 witnesses a new urge to murder; for, after all, what was his jail hanging to them but a legalized lynching bee, with actual, tagged criminals making up the howling mob, instead of the potential criminals who comprise the usual law-breaking mob of lynchers?

No doubt the man on the gallows got his deserts; but, so far as the object lesson is concerned, he was hanged to make a prison holiday.

THE TEACHER CROP.

The school-teacher problem is an old story, but its seriousness has not yet been realized. Any community facing the double difficulty of more pupils and fewer teachers may rest assured that almost every other community in America is in the same predicament. And the reason is the same in nearly every case. Secretary Lane reports that last year more than 143,000 school teachers left their schools for other employment—because the other employment paid them more.

To make matters worse, these were not the poorest teachers; they can hardly be called average teachers; they were probably better teachers than those left behind for it is the exceptionally able teachers who are most likely to be offered good salaries elsewhere.

Thus, in one year, about 25 per cent of the best teachers in America were taken out of the public schools.

The ability, the training, the devotion represented by those lost teachers could not be replaced in a year, even if by some miracle salaries everywhere were raised, all at once, as high as they ought to be. It takes years to make a good teacher. The leaving of old teachers is really not the worst part of it. Far more ominous is the lack of material for recruiting. The only schools not taxed to capacity now are the normal training schools. High school students and public school pupils no longer look forward to teaching as a desirable calling. The morale of the profession has been lowered, and the whole attitude of the community, from top to bottom, will have to be changed before teaching regains its old prestige and efficiency.

SURPLUS PORK.

One of the arguments offered for the extension of further credits to Europe is that this is the only way of furnishing a market for a big "pork surplus" left on the hands of the meat producers of the West. This surplus is said to aggregate 1,600,000,000 pounds. It was intended for exportation, and now the pork raisers of several western states are said to be facing big losses because Europe, lacking money and credit, is unable to buy it.

This situation will probably strike most Americans, especially in the cities, as peculiar. The average consumer has not been aware at all of the accumulation of any such vast pork reserve as this. He has been paying, generally, what seemed like famine prices for pork, just as he has for many other things whose scarcity is indisputable, though it was known that the number of hogs in the country had increased. If this story of an "export surplus" is true, it must mean that the domestic scarcity, with its accompanying high prices, was due simply to the holding out of nearly 1,000,000 tons of pork for the foreign market.

The American consumer is probably not so selfish as to grudge the hungrier foreigner that pork, if the latter is able to buy it. But when the foreigner cannot buy it, and when the pork is stacked up in this country, either in storage or on the hoof, in such enormous quantities, the public naturally wonders why it is not thrown into the American market. At prices a little lower than those now prevailing, Americans will eat all the pork they are offered, and the producers need lose nothing.

DISCOURAGING NEW LAWS.

Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, in his message to the legislature, says that the state "is less in need of new laws than ever before," and advises the law-makers that they "can display no greater wisdom than by resisting proposals for needless legislation."

This is advice of a sort seldom given, and still less seldom followed. It is said often enough that present-day America suffers from "too much legislation," and yet the crop continues to multiply at an ever-increasing rate. Legislative bodies generally seem to think that they are not doing their duty unless they are enacting laws, and the output is judged by quantity rather than quality.

Some new laws, of course, are needed nearly all the time, to meet new and more complex conditions. Massachusetts is indeed to be envied just now if, as the governor declares, "the problems of reconstruction have been solved" in that state. But certain it is that all legislatures would do well to act habitually on the principle advocated by Governor Coolidge, practicing a masterly self-restraint, and turning out as little legislation as possible rather than as much as possible. This recommendation applies no less to the national congress—though the latter has erred lately in signs of omission more than commission.

Garvan's statement that Reds planned control of American labor is surprising. We thought they were planning control of loafing.

Honest, we could save a lot of time and expense by adding a department of investigation of our system of government.

The world's affairs and the country's good may wait. Congress must have its little fling at petty politics.

KEARNS WANTS TO PLEAD CASE BEFORE THE LEGION

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14.—Jack Kearna, manager for Jack Dempsey, announced tonight that he had telegraphed the national commander of the American legion in Indianapolis asking for an opportunity for the heavy weight champion to appear before the supreme council at that body and give testimony as to his record during the war.

Kearna's action follows adoption by various posts of the American legion of resolutions condemning Dempsey as a "slacker" and "draft dodger."

Leather Scarce Demand Great

There is no relief yet in sight for the leather wearing people of the world—the supply is less than the demand. World-wide shortage of leather boosts the price, for each bidder realizes the call for leather must be satisfied. America imports 25 per cent of her kid skins, 45 per cent of her calf skins, and 50 per cent of her sole leather.

The public can help if it will purchase B and C grade leather instead of A grade as is nationally called for now. This leather may not be as fine or finished, but it has good wear in it. Try a pair of our side leather boots for Misses and Women —Price $6.50 in black and $7.75 in brown. Sizes 2 1/2 to 7, and learn what utility there is in heavier side leathers.

A Drop in the Bucket

Every householder's expenses are divided into a number of items; food, rent, clothing, fuel and light, house-furnishings, insurance, education and amusements, sickness—and the telephone.

Of all those items of expense, the telephone bill is one of the least, being a very small per cent of the total cost.

For a trifling sum at most you have constantly at your command millions of dollars worth of property and the service of skilled workers.

In business the cost of the telephone is frequently an even smaller proportion of the overhead expense, than in the household.

It only needs an emergency to bring it home to any subscriber that the telephone is worth many times its cost.

In the face of today's high costs the telephone is a bargain; and a daily economy for every subscriber.

AMERICA'S AID TO EUROPE SUFFICIENT

Eugene Meyer Jr., Says Credit Can No Longer Be Given With out Collateral.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Sharp exception to the views of Sir George Fahs on possibilities of assistance for Europe, by the United States was taken today by Eugene Meyer Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, at a luncheon of the American Manufacturers' Export association. His address followed one by the British economist who reiterated his opinion that it was the duty of America to give Europe enormous credits to aid in rehabilitation. The penalty, Sir George said, would be loss of foreign trade.

"Sometimes," said Mr. Meyer,
"when I listen to the discussions of the subject from the other side, in which we are told what we should do, and what we haven't done, what we must do, I wonder if it is realized what we have done. Not only have we loaned from the United States government out of the funds collected from Liberty loans and taxes, $2,350,- 000,000, but we have sold practically all of it on credit about $700,000,000 worth of our goods—food supplies, machinery, motor vehicles—sent to Europe for purposes of our army and auxiliary organizations. This does not represent a cost to this country of $700,000,000, but a sum largely in excess of that. Our grain corporation has sold some grain on credit and our merchants have granted considerable sums of credit in the aggregate and our investors have bought a total of a large amount of securities during 1919.

"I don't think I can be accused of lack of sympathy with the needs of international trade nor with the needs of Europe, but I do feel that the people of Europe have had such a reliance on this reliance which we have met so bountifully and so generously,
that they are deluded into the idea that this is a country with no limit to its resources of material, money and credit.
"When Sir George Fahs speaks of our surplus goods I would like to see them tabulated. There is a shortage of almost everything in the world that we produce today.
"It takes more than lenders, it takes borrowers to do business. And the borrowers must come to this country with sound business propositions.
"I think the borrowers must consider their needs and come to the market place, whether it be here or abroad, with propositions that can be found acceptable and sound business.
Whether our sympathies may be, I believe that it is more in the interest of the borrowing countries of the needy countries, to consider these things, except in cases where it is a question of pure relief, on a sound business basis. I feel that at this time we are placing perhaps too much reliance on the magic word
credit.
"I do not say that this is not a time for the use of credit, but I do say, and the money markets and the investment markets the world over show it, it is time when we must begin to use it with more care than we have during the war. We could afford to take risks then that we must cease taking now. We must look forward to the time when our balance of trade will be balanced in other ways than by money.
"Sir George said that one of the purposes of his visit to the United States was "to ask you to assist those starving people of Vienna to get through this particular time."
"The body of Austria has been cut away from the rest," he said, "and for the moment the head must be maintained because there is no connection with the body. I am sure you, the American people, with your great heart, are going to help those helpless women and children at Vienna and that you will not allow them to starve. But apart from Austria, I am not here to ask for gifts. I am here, to tell you that we shall be able and ready to pay for everything you send us.

UNITED STATES WILL BE REPRESENTED AT REGATTA
By the Associated Press.
BOSTON, Jan. 14.—The United States probably will be represented at the Henley rowing regatta in England next summer by a crew from the Yale Boat club of this city, but the selection of June 30 to July 1 as dates for the meeting, which was announced today, is expected to restrict American entries.
Yale and Harvard universities, it was learned today, have had under consideration a proposal to send their various eight crews to compete for the Grand Challenge cup, now held at Harvard as a result of the victory of a Crimson crew at Henley in 1914.
With the annual Yale-Harvard regatta to be held at New London June 8, however, selection of June 30 as the opening Henley date, was said by Harvard rowing authorities to make it doubtful whether either university would be represented.

SHOE PRODUCTION MORE NORMAL THAN EVER BEFORE
By the Associated Press.
BOSTON, Jan. 13.—Shoe factories in the United States and Canada are producing more nearly a normal output than at any time during the last three years. L. H. Simons of Philadelphia, said in an address today before the National Shoe Retailers' association. The two countries he added are probably the only places in the world adequately supplied with leather shoes.
Mr. Simons said demand was centering mainly on the best grades of leather regardless of price.
Harry I. Thayer, president of the New England Shoe and Leather association, predicted that in March or April leather would probably bring higher prices than those existing.

ELKORO MINE LEADS NEVADA IN PRODUCTION

Jarbridge Property's Output of Gold Proves Possibilities of Camp.

TO BE BUSY PLACE DURING THIS YEAR

Several Properties To Be Opened Up—Much New Machinery Has Been Ordered.

JARBIDGE, Jan. 14.—The report of Victor C. Heikes of the United States geological survey, department of the interior, contains the statement that the Elkoro mine at Jarbridge was the largest producer of gold in the state of Nevada during the year 1919.
Also that the mines of the state paid dividends amounting to $3,227,188
during eleven months.
Surprise to Many.
The fact that the Elkoro mine leads in gold production in the state no doubt comes as a surprise to a great many people who have little knowledge of the great possibilities of this wonderful camp. But to those who are familiar with the numerous veins that have been found, and opened up, showing values running from a few dollars up to thousands per ton, this information simply proves that the possibilities of this camp are as great, if not greater than any mining district in the state of Nevada. It has been claimed by many of the prospectors in the camp, some of whom have followed prospecting and mining all their lives, that there are more than a dozen places in the camp that could be made producing mines if capital could be secured to open them up.
The Long Mike mine, from which the Elkoro company has obtained the values in the past year has never been considered above a fair average as far as surface indications, formation of veins, or its geological location is concerned, it being situated on the outside edge of the gold-bearing zone, as shown by the various leads and veins that have been discovered to the east and south of it, many of which show larger veins, and higher values.

To Be Busy Place
The camp will be a very busy place during the coming year as several of the properties will be opened up, and the production of gold is bound to be increased considerably. Two companies in the Crater district will be actively operating as both have been financed, and are ready to commence extensive operations as soon as the snow conditions will admit the hauling of machinery and supplies to the mines. One of them, the Jarbridge-Dahl Mining company has already purchased their compressor and other machinery, and the pole line is already in place and ready to receive the wire for the transmission of the power to operate with.
The Indian Camp group was purchased last week by parties who intend to open up the property in the spring. Deals are pending on two other properties in the camp, which when closed, will mean renewed activity, and from the present outlook the camp will be a lively place when all the operations that are planned for the coming year are going full swing.

WOULD ERRECT NEW PLACES TO STORE ARMY EXPLOSIVES
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Thousands of tons of high explosives now in temporary storage along the eastern seaboard, would be moved to storage houses to be erected some distance from Savannah, Ill., Sparta, Wis., and Ogden, Utah under plans outlined today by army ordnance officers to the house appropriations committee.

An appropriation of $12,000,000 for constructing the storage houses, was asked by officers.
Residents of Baltimore, Perth
Amboy, Norfolk, Charleston and other eastern cities, where the war reserve supply of powder is stored, are insisting that the war department remove it for the sake of safety.

NEW JURY UNABLE TO DECIDE MURDER DEGREE

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 14.—
The jury in the case of Harry New, charged with the murder of Freda Lester, was still early tonight deadlocked with apparently little chance of reaching an agreement, according to the statement of Foreman R. G.
Klingerman. Deliberations began yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock with war basis. President Hickey said.

a rest from 10:45 o'clock last night
to early this morning.
The foreman reported to Superior Judge Gavin W. Calk at 3 o'clock this afternoon that the jurors were divided as to whether New was guilty of second degree murder or massachusetts. Juror Evan Lewis asked the court for further instructions on the distinction between the two crimes but was refused. Judge Calk said his original instructions were complete and there was nothing to be added. He then ordered the jury to resume its deliberations.

RE-ELECTION OF HICKEY AS HEAD OF A.A. IS ASSURED

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Re-election of Thomas J. Hickey as president of the American association seemed assured tonight with the arrival of the ash-oremen for their annual meeting tomorrow. President Hickey has served a three-year term and probably will be re-elected.
The game will be retired to a bystander yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock with war basis. President Hickey said.

for first time of fashions, new alluring whims, read the January Harper's Bazar

One of the most advanced models in the January Bazar.

FEMININITY—in its happiest expression

THIS is the new note that Parisian fashion is sounding. Although gorgeous colors are used lavishly the accent still remains on black and white alluringly combined in scores of new ways. Femininity is modifying the severity of cut, wrap and sport clothes—and even more, it is making itself felt in gaily frilled afternoon frocks of sheer laces, organzas, real laces and lovely hued chiffons.

You will find the very first sketches to appear in this country in the seeking to have the court review the recent canal election.

Sustains Judge Bothwell.

The court held that the contention of Judge James B. Bothwell, attorney for the defendants in the action, that the plaintiffs had failed to disclose, who if anyone had cast illegal votes at the election, for whom such votes were cast and whether or not those voting were bona fide stockholders of record on the books at least ten days prior to the election. The petitioners were given ten days within which to file an amended complaint.

It was the contention of Judge Bothwell that the petition which was prepared by Attorney Turner K. Hackman was hazy in its contentions and for that reason there was no cause of action. It is this contention that Judge Babcock has upheld in his decision.

It will be necessary for the petitioners to amend the petition stating who were illegal voters at the election. If the issue is ever to be brought to trial.

The order sustaining the demurrer follows:

The demurrer of defendants, Twin Falls Canal Company, a corporation, Claude Brown, J. H. Barker, P. A. Kennedy and Ivan G. Lincoln, came on regularly for argument before the court sitting at Twin Falls, Idaho, on Monday, Jan. 12, 1920, plaintiffs appearing by their counsel, T. K. Hackman, Esquire, and said defendants by their counsel, James B. Bothwell, Esq., whereupon, after argument of counsel, the Court took the same under advisement and the Court now being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby ordered that the said demurrer be, and the same hereby is, sustained as to Paragraph III, thereof, to-wit: that the petition is uncertain in that it cannot be determined therefrom who petitioners claim cast illegal votes, or for whom said votes were cast, nor whether or not those voting were bona fide stockholders holding stock in their own name on the books of the corporation at least ten days prior to the election; and it is further ordered, that said demurrer be, and the same hereby is, denied and overruled to paragraph I and II thereof, and that the plaintiffs be given ten days in which to file amended petition.

Dated at Twin Falls, Idaho,

this 14th day of January, A. D. 1920

(Signed) District Judge

LETS CUT THROUGH LINE OF BOLSHIEVICK ROAD

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A dispatch from this date of January 13, received by the Lithuanian legation here, says through the capture of Kovno, the railway between Dvinsk and Moscow was cut. The Bolshevik forces at Kovno were thereby separated from their northern front, leaving the Lithuanians on the Moscow railway the only avenue of retreat for the soviet forces.

SUIT OF GOVERNMENT AGAINST OIL COMPANY DISMISSED

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 14.—The suit of the United States government against the Trans-Continental Oil company and five officials of the concern, in which it was alleged that the firm had charged unjust and unreasonable prices for fuel oil was ordered dismissed today by the district attorney.

HOOVER CANDIDATE ONLY IF DRAFTED

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Herbert Hoover was declared tonight by Julius Barnes, his close associate and friend, to be a "progressive republican" who "will never allow himself to be a candidate for high office, nor allow his friends to make an effort in his behalf, unless there shall come such indisputable evidence of such spontaneous and universal popular demand that it will overwhelm his present resolution not to enter politics."

Mr. Barnes, who is director of the United States Wheat corporation, was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the National Wholesale Drygoods association.

Referring to reports that Mr. Hoover might be a democratic presidential candidate, Mr. Barnes said: "As a life long republican, I am reassured to believe that only one conceivable development could place him on the democratic ticket, in spite of all that has appeared in the recent press. I believe that could come about only if over-confidence in their own political prospects blinds the republican party to adopt a non-progressive platform and to nominate candidates of reaction."

"With his intense earnestness of purpose and his sincere desire to further the social progress of our people by the preservation of equal opportunity, it is conceivable that the liberal minded voters of all parties may then instinctively demand such leadership as his for the expression of rightful social and political ideals."

LEGION TEAM IS PRACTISING HARD

Plan to Be in Fine Shape for Game With Oakley Friday Night.

Strenuous practice has been the main item in the drill schedule of the basket ball team of the local post American legion, in preparation for the coming contest with Oakley Friday night. Every night the local boys have at it and those who have watched the team go through its paces proclaim them easy victors in the Oakley game. The boys are working like veterans and are expected to win not only the Oakley game, but the legion championship of the season.

Members from the Oakley camp show the Oakleyites in fine fettle for the game. They have also been putting in some hard stiff practices and are reported to be in excellent shape. The probable lineup for the Twin Falls Legionnaires will be Newman and Henders, forwards; Bennett, center; and Kleffner and Chapman, guards.

WORK PROGRESSING ON REMODELING OF BUILDING

Work of remodeling the building formerly occupied by the Skeels-Wiley drug store, for the Idaho State bank is progressing. A large new vault will be installed immediately, the work coming from the Twin Falls highway bridge's plant which is now in operation.

FLYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP ARRANGEMENTS NOT MADE

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 14.—George Blomer, of Port Wayne, Ind., manager for Frankie Mason, announced here tonight that a boxing bout for the flyweight championship of the world between Mason and Jimmy Wilde, reported from Milwaukee, had not been closed. Blomer is negotiating with promoter Al Thatcher to stage the match here.

Blomer declared that the only point agreed upon between himself and the Milwaukee promoter, was the matter of weight.

Mason is scheduled for a 12-round bout with Carl Tremaine here tomorrow night, but was taken ill today and may not be able to appear. A boxing commission physician said tonight that Mason has a slight attack of influenza.

READY TO EXAMINE FACTS AT ISSUE

President's Commission for Settling Coal Strike Ready to Proceed With Examination.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A third day of argument before President Willard's commission for settling the coal strike is today in progress. It is practically ready tonight to proceed to the examination of the facts at issue between the miners and their employers.

Thrust six spokesmen for the United Mine Workers of America finished the preliminary statement of the case for the union today, and Ralph Crews, counsel for the operators in the central competitive district, likewise completed the general statement in opposition. Operators in the central district will have one day of argument, which will be made at the beginning of tomorrow's session, by Phil H. Penna, of Terre Haute, Ind., and there, after the commission will begin consideration of testimony and documentary evidence.

Frank Forsyth, of the Illinois miners' union, in closing for the miners, estimated the advance in living costs since 1914 in Illinois mining centers at from 110 to 175 per cent. Yearly earnings of miners in Illinois, however, he said, had increased only from $7,000 in 1914 to $11,000 in 1918. In the light of these figures he said, the miners' claim for a 60 per cent increase in wages and 30 hour week was justified.

John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, gave out a statement explaining the 30 hour week demand as an endeavor by the miners to distribute their work throughout the year. Geological survey estimates, Lewis said, showed that the weekly operations of mines for the 30 hours would supply all the coal the country needed.

Attorney Crews opened for the operators with the declaration that the 60 per cent wage increase was the real issue before the commission. It stamped the 60 per cent increase demand as fraught with "staggering consequences."

Likewise discussing the 30 hour week, Crews said that it was an incorrect economic theory which made the miners' leaders believe that such a system could be maintained.

injection of inflation, adds the situation, it must be taken that the burden placed upon Germany—while necessarily far heavier than that carried by other countries, does not excite the limit of highest practical taxation or destroy the power of production.

Must Not Foster Revolt.
"Willingsness on the part of Germany to pay her just debts must not be converted into a spirit of despair and revolt," the statement warns. If such a thing is threatened, the reparations commission is advised to extend the period of installments which Germany must pay.

Recognizing that the tremendous financial outlay required to rehabilitate the world's economic losses through the war is to great for a single country, the signatories suggest that money be supplied chiefly by those countries where trade balances and rates of exchange are the most favorable.

Long term credits are recognized as desirable only when absolutely necessary to restore productivity, and then reduced to a minimum. Assistance should be given, as far as possible, in a form which leaves national and international trade free from restrictive government control. In the signatories opinion, while loans should be sought in the lending countries on such terms as to attack the savings of individuals, otherwise inflation would be encouraged.

Borrowing countries are advised to offer the best obtainable securities, and to give such debts first rank among their liabilities, with special securities set aside for interest payments and amortization.

Germany and Austria, it is suggested, should assign import and export duties payable on a gold basis, while countries entitled to receipts from Germany should offer first charge on such collections.

BASKET BALL TEAM LEAVES ON ITS FIRST BIG TRIP

The Twin Falls high school basket ball team will leave today for its first big trip of the year. Tomorrow evening, the team will play Turpet, Friday evening Gooding, and Shoshone on Saturday evening. The following will make the trip: Newman, Yochum and King, forwards; Carter and L. King, centers; Faglar, Taylor and Bailey, guards. Krongle and Hertz will be unable to make the trip because of injuries.

PRESIDENT WRITES LETTER THANKING ENGLISH TOWN

By the Associated Press.
CARLISLE, Eng., Jan. 14.—At a meeting of the city council the mayor of Carlisle read a letter from President Wilson acknowledging the receipt of a cable presented to him by the city of Carlisle, which was not ready for delivery in December of 1918 when the president visited this town, the old home of his mother and when he was made a citizen.

APPROVE BIG BUDGET FOR AID OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 14.—A budget of $104,000,000 for 1920 was approved tonight by the foreign missions board of the Protestant churches of the United States and Canada. Action followed an address by Dr. Robert H. Stock, who urged extension of the mission fields throughout the world. The sum of $2,000,000 is for work in new fields.

ARMOUR COMPANY TAKES STEPS TO DISSOLVE

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The directors of Armour and Company, packers, today took initial steps to segregate its leather and tanning properties in the Armour Leather company, now forming. This was a move toward separating subsidiary business of the company in compliance with the agreement with the government.

The first subscription to the stock of the Armour Leather company will be offered to preferred stockholders of Armour and company of record on February 2. The directors today ordered the stock books closed from February 2 to February 10. Holders of Armour's 10 per cent debentures convert their bonds into seven per cent preferred stock, will be entitled to subscribe for the stock of the leather company.

In the 18 months since the issue of the debentures, approximately $24,000,000 have been converted into stock. Prior to the next interest date of the debentures June 15, when they may be called at par, the company may consider redeeming and paying off the debentures then outstanding. It was announced.

The subscription price and the purchase of the new stock was not announced.

TO BRING MAN FROM PEN TO TESTIFY IN CLARK CASE

At the request of Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Stephan, District Judge Babcock yesterday issued an order instructing the warden of the state penitentiary to produce B. F. Nichols, who was recently sent there on a charge of grand larceny. Several other names were indorsed on the complaint against Clark who will go on trial next Monday.

CASES OF MYSTERIOUS MALADY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 14.—One hundred cases of the mysterious intestinal malady which has made its appearance in a number of communities of the southwest have been reported in Bryan county, Okla., according to information received tonight by the state board of health.

INDEPENDENTS BLAMED FOR BERLIN DISORDERS

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The conservative and liberal press converge in attaching the blame for Tuesday's crash, as to the independents and communists who caused the mobs to gather in the streets. Prevention for the shooting, it is declared by unimpeachable eyewitnesses, came from the leaders of the mobs. Editorial criticism is directed against the authorities for not providing adequate troops in view of the constantly augmenting crowds which assembled in the early hours of the afternoon. Only a single chain of guards was assigned to defend the west portal of the Reichstag building which was the objective of the attack.
