

SEDITION BILL
ATTACKED ON HOUSE FLOOR

Palmer Charged with "Side-Stepping" Issue After Asking It.

COMPERS BLAMED FOR PRESENT OPPOSITION

Republicans Charged by Democrats With Fear of Losing Union Vote in Drive Against Measure.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Attacks on pending anti-sedition bills not only continued today before the House rules committee, but spread to the floor of the house. Republicans and Democrats joined in opposition to the measure which was in turn defended by members of both parties.

Republican members of the rules committee at the resumption of hearings on the Sterling and Graham bills charged that Attorney General Palmer had "side-stepped" the issue of sedition for additional legislation to prosecute radicals. Representatives of Illinois, one of the republican members of the committee, after charging that the attorney general had developed "a plain case of conscious evasion," charged that tomorrow he would offer a motion requesting Mr. Palmer to appear before the committee.

Davey Bill Has Favorite.
The attorney general in a statement made today, denied that he ever "side-stepped" his support for either the Sterling or Graham bills and said that the measure introduced by Representative Davey of Ohio, embodied his ideas on such legislation.

Attacks on the bills in the house were made by Representatives Towne, republican, Wisconsin; and Middleton, democrat, Alabama, the latter declaring "that industrial unrest might be converted into political unrest by such measures." Representative Burke, republican, Pennsylvania, broke into the debate to say that the Pennsylvania state constitution was "strictly to the point" in that it prohibited "even two or three workers meeting in a hall."

Compers Is Blamed.
The forces in the house favoring the measure were led by Representative Huxed, republican, New York, who, however, objected to the first two sections of the Graham bill, and Representative Blanton of Texas, democrat, who declared the republican steering committee had favored the proposed anti-sedition bills, they were opposed by organized labor and Mr. Compers came with a veiled threat to the republican party.

"The biggest autocracy in this country is that which stopped this bill," declared the Texas representative, adding that if members of the committee would vote their own judgment they would pass the measure and let Mr. Compers go to hell.

In testimony before the rules committee, John D. Moore of New York said that the democrats could capitalize on the anti-sedition bill, and that the republican-controlled congress passed the pending bill as "nobody wants additional legislation."

Filled With Jokers.
Swinburne Hale, a former army officer, told the committee the Graham bill was "filled with jokers." Hundreds of letters and telegrams protesting against the bill including a letter from John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, have been received. Chairman Campbell of the rules committee announced today.

CARRANZA CALLS ELECTION FOR OBITUARY GOVERNOR

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Jan. 23.—President Carranza has called a Chihuahua state election for May on a day to be announced, later, to vote upon a governor and full state ticket. Since the government of Abraham Gonzalez went into office in 1912, that state has been under military rule.

In discussing the election call, Mexico City newspaper commented that only a few scattered bands of Villistas remain in the mountain fastnesses and these are being driven by numbers rapidly to surrender.

KANSAS ESTABLISHES
INDUSTRIAL COURT

By the Associated Press.
TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 23.—Industrial legislation, said by many to be revolutionary in character was completed in Kansas today when the legislature enacted a bill establishing in the state a court of industrial relations having jurisdiction over essential industries. Invested with a public interest. The bill, which was signed today by Governor H. J. Allen, affects food, clothing, fuel and transportation, prohibits strikes or lockouts in these industries, and provides severe penalties for conspiracy to promote strikes or to interfere with production. It also provides that the court can fix wages and settle industrial disputes in these industries and serve as a court of arbitration to consider disputes or other industries not listed as essential. It was passed by large majorities in both houses.

The legislation is the outgrowth of the recent nationwide strike of soft coal miners which caused the mines in Kansas to be placed under a state receivership and operated with volunteer miners under the protection of the state and federal troops.

AUSTRALIAN YIELD OF
WHEAT IS DECREASED

By the Associated Press.
ROME, Jan. 23.—In its bulletin for January the International Institute of Agriculture says the prospective yield of wheat in the tropics of Australia will be 12,600,000 quintals against 22,000,000 quintals last year. But it is pointed out that Australia possesses stocks of wheat from previous harvests amounting to 18,000,000 quintals. Normal yearly consumption in Australia is 10,000,000 quintals.

The area under wheat cultivation in Argentina indicates a decrease of 12 per cent as compared with previous years. Argentina also has a considerable remainder from previous wheat crops in stock and process of shipment.

Regarding the autumn sowing for the 1920 wheat crop of the northern hemisphere, the bulletin says the most notable feature is the large decrease in the area under wheat and rye in America. According to the bulletin, the wheat and rye crops of December, 1919, was about normal.

Autumn sowing of wheat is reported favorable in Italy, Japan and Morocco, while in Great Britain and Belgium the outlook is about the average. Owing to the severe frost in the early autumn only 25 per cent of the usual wheat area was sown in Rumania at the end of 1919.

RADICAL'S WIVES ARE TO BE SENT TO RUSSIA

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Wives and children of radical allies sent to Russia on the army transport Buford today are expected to be sent to leave the United States for ever, since the lifting of the blockade of that country.

Application for the sailing of a "woman's ship" carrying medicine and milk for the children of Russia was made to the state department by the American women's emergency committee, Miss Helen Todd, chairman of the committee, said today that the state department and Anthony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration, had given her assurance of their cooperation in arranging safe passage for the stranded families of the deportees in this ship.

The expenses of the women, Miss Todd said, would be defrayed by the committee.

INFLUENZA CLAIMS 31
VICTIMS; PNEUMONIA 45

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Influenza cases reported for the first week by more than the number yesterday, but pneumonia cases showed a sharp increase. Influenza cases reported totaled 2,190. Deaths numbered 31. Pneumonia cases numbered 331 with 45 deaths.

Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson today made a vigorous appeal against Congressman Babst's move to set aside temporarily the prohibition amendment to permit the use of whiskey for treatment of influenza and pneumonia patients.

"Alcohol is one of the greatest preservatives," he said, "and for pneumonia, influenza, and other diseases, it is the only remedy. It does not cause in any manner in fighting either one of the diseases."

NEW ANGLE IS ADDED TO THE PEACE FIGHT

Irreconcilables Issue, Ultimatum to Lodge That Further Compromise Impossible.

REPUBLICAN PARTY'S
LEADERSHIP THREATENED

Bi-Partisan Conference Not Held Because of Other Gathering—Still Have Some Hope.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Protest by a large group of influential republican senators against further compromise on reservations to the peace treaty today gave the compromise negotiations a severe setback and senators declared involved future solidarity of the republican party not only in the senate but in the nation.

Eight republican senators, headed by Senator Johnson of California, and claiming to represent other senators, called Republican Leader Lodge into conference and delivered what was declared to be an ultimatum against proposed compromises of the informal bi-partisan committee of senate leaders.

Some of the senators in the conference with Senator Lodge declared that the rejection of the peace treaty would affect the republican leadership and unity in the senate while one, Senator Sherman of Illinois, stated that the conference "had no social purpose" but the republican leadership would support "unqualified" reservations.

Prevents Bi-Partisan Meet.
The conference with Senator Lodge which lasted nearly three hours, prevented the scheduled session of the bi-partisan committee. This committee will meet again tomorrow, but with the compromise prospects shown into confusion by today's developments. Democrats interested in the compromise negotiations to limit expressed concern over the effect of events at the resultant possibility of success.

The movement of protest against compromising the Lodge reservations was almost coincident with a visit to Senator Lodge by Senator McNary, who consulted with several "mild reservation" republicans, including Senator McCumber of North Dakota, McNary of Oregon, Kellogg of Minnesota and Colt of Rhode Island. Mr. Taft urged compromise strongly and during his visit declared that a compromise with the Lodge reservation in article 10 of the league of nations covenant would not "kill" the treaty because he asserted other provisions would make for world peace and cause resort rarely to article 10.

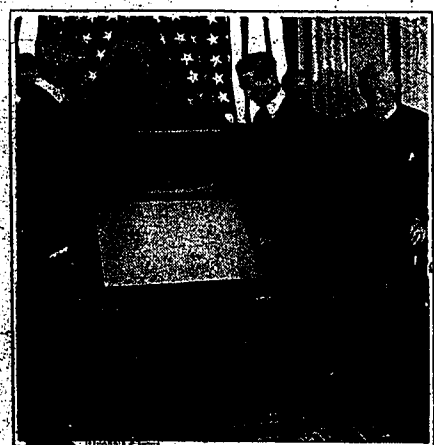

Another offset of the opposition to compromise was a speech in senate by Senator Ashurst (democrat, Arizona), in favor of immediate ratification. Mr. Ashurst charged both republicans and democrats with "delaying ratification by playing partisan politics" while the world waits for action. Sentiment is rising, the senator declared, for an independent presidential candidate because of the senate delay.

In Spirited Discussion.
The conference of republicans with Senator Lodge today was held in Senator Johnson's office and attended by Senators Borah, Knox of Pennsylvania; Poindexter, Washington, and Sherman and McCormick of Illinois; Bradstreet of Connecticut and Moses of New Hampshire. After two hours spent with Mr. Lodge, Senator New voted last November was ratified in the senate. Mr. Ashurst was sitting with Mr. Lodge on the leaders' committee negotiating with the democratic committee, was called in, and about another hour spent in spirited discussion.

Although all of the senators who voted last November against ratification of the treaty are counted among its bitterest foes, one of them present declared tonight that they count on support of 18 votes or enough to prevent ratification, if their protest against modifying the Lodge reservations is not heeded.

MEXICANS REFUSE TO AID AMERICANS

More Testimony Introduced of Carranza Knowledge of Plan of San Diego.

By the Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 23.—County sheriffs, officers of the ranger service, customs collectors and district attorneys testified before the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation today that they had not succeeded in obtaining from the Mexican authorities any cooperation in the prevention of border raids. The declarations of these witnesses was supported by that of others who added to the committee's record details of numerous attacks made by Mexicans during the "border war" of 1915-1916.

Testimony corroborative of charges that Carranza and other Mexican officials were aware of and encouraged the leaders who were operating under the "plan of San Diego" was given, and a few of those who had taken part in the running down of the raiding bands were heard. One of the sheriffs who testified was Octavio Guerra, a naturalized Mexican of Starr county. He told of a confession made to him by one of the raiders whom he captured in which he was informed Carranza soldiers were in fact the raiders and that their movements were directed by Carranza officials.

Documentary evidence to the same effect was presented: It was the attested confession of a Mexican prisoner and had been made a part of a report rendered by Captain Anderson, then commanding troop A, 12th cavalry. The prisoner had signed the statement saying his detachment was a small army unit commanded by a major of the regular establishment and that after they had been marched some distance north of the Rio Grande he had halted them and read to them his orders. They were that they were to assist in recovering land taken by the United States from Mexico. The major, the prisoner added, had added that Carranza had so ordered.

GRAND JURY INDICTS
SHIPPING MANAGER

Chain Captain Blain Received Secret Commissions From Equipment Company.

By the Associated Press.
SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 23.—Capt. John F. Blain was indicted here today by a federal grand jury which has been investigating alleged fraud in the war-time construction of ships for the United States shipping board. As district manager of the shipping board, Captain Blain, during the war, directed the government's gigantic steel shipbuilding program in Oregon and Washington.

The indictment charges Captain Blain received secret commissions from the Stewart Davis and Equipment Company, New York City, on sales the company made to the shipping board while he was district manager. The commissions, it was charged, totaled approximately sixteen thousand dollars.

Two indictments were returned against Captain Blain. Both covered the same charge.

More indictments may be returned as a result of the grand jury's investigation of alleged fraud accounts.

This is only the beginning, one said. Today's indictments come as the climax of a series of investigations congressmen and government agents have been making of Pacific coast ship yards. Captain Blain has been representing the Stewart company here since he resigned as district manager April 1, 1919.

Captain Blain has been prominent in north Pacific shipping circles for years as a steamship manager and company official.

At one time Captain Blain was United States inspector of hulls at Boston, Mass., his home.

While Captain Blain was district manager here, the yards under his control delivered to the shipping board in the United States, according to local records. For a time Captain Blain also was director of the wood ship building yards in Oregon and Washington.

COAL STRIKE COMMISSION
SETS DATES FOR HEARINGS

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The coal strike settlement commission today decided to begin investigation of miners' wages and cost prices in the fields outside the central competitive field, beginning February 4.

The dates for hearing miners and operators of the outlying fields have been set as follows:

February 4, Michigan, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

February 9, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Washington.

MILNE KICKS TURK OUT.
PARIS, Jan. 23.—A Havas dispatch from Constantinople says: "Owing to a report by General Milne on repeated infractions of clauses of the armistice, the allied high commissioners in Constantinople sent a note to the Ottoman government complaining against the attitude of the minister of war, General Dismal Pasha, and his staff. As a result, Dismal and his staff resigned."

Desires That This Country Furnish Money—Pan-American Conference Ends.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Recommendation that proposed relief for Europe from the United States be furnished through the medium of loans to the countries of South and Central America, the proceeds of which would be used to pay the debts of those countries to Europe in the form of foodstuffs and other necessities was considered tonight by many delegates to the second Pan-American financial congress as the outstanding conclusion of the congress which closed its sessions today.

Would Be Middlemen.

The European relief recommendation, presented to the congress by Dr. Jose Luis Tejada, was embodied in a series of 18 resolutions setting forth the conclusions reached at the week's meeting. Dr. Tejada and other delegates pointed out that as Europe acts as the financial intermediary between the Latin-American countries and the United States, it was asserted, would confer a double benefit, by allowing the Latin-American countries to act as the "middlemen" in proposed relief measures. The existing exchange rates would work to the advantage of all concerned, Dr. Tejada said, and at least one billion dollars could be made immediately available to Europe through the plan.

The congress at its closing session heard addresses by W. F. Harding, governor of the United States federal reserve board, and by Dr. Enrique Noriega Sobral of the Mexican delegation.

Three Make Reservations.
The recommendations of the congress, to which Bolivia, Brazil and Venezuela noted reservations dealing for the most part with amplifications of certain articles or recommendations, changes in wording, were set forth in a statement tonight as follows:

That the name of the international high commission be changed to "the Inter-American high commission," the better to indicate its constituency and sphere of work.

That the report of the transportation committee, recommending increased freight and passenger ocean service to South America be transmitted to the United States shipping board for study and action, and that the recommendations dealing with railroad transportation, postal and telegraph facilities be sent to the Inter-American high commission for action.

That the legislation of certain states of this country be so modified as to permit operation of branches of Latin-American banks within their jurisdiction, under proper regulation, so as to secure equality of treatment.

That the Inter-American commission study possibility of securing uniformity and equality of treatment in laws regulating foreign corporations in Latin America.

That there be developed increased use of acceptance for the purpose of financial transactions, involving the uniformity and equality of treatment in laws regulating foreign corporations in Latin America.

That the Inter-American commission be asked to study the possibility of an international fund, which might be established by several South American countries, for the purpose of assisting the Latin-American countries in their financial difficulties.

EXCURSION TO NATION MEETING

Chamber of Commerce Hopes to Have
125 Twin Falls People Attend
Conference.

Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce directors last evening decided to organize an excursion to attend the reclamation association meeting in Burley Tuesday, and for this purpose the reclamation bureau will name committees to canvass the city Monday for the purpose of securing 125 citizens to make the trip. The party will go on the regular morning train, but will return on a special train after the conclusion of the banquet.

The agitation in Boise against the Bruneau project, which has not died out with time as was hoped, but which has grown in virulence with the passing of time, has had the effect of solidifying the entire country on the Twin Falls, Minidoka, North Side and adjoining tracts, where the injustice of the Boise propaganda is thoroughly understood.

Because of this situation, it is the feeling of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce that a large delegation of Twin Falls men of affairs should make the trip, and for this purpose special efforts will be made by committees Monday.

CALLS SPECIAL MEETING.

E. S. Johnson, chairman of the roads and bridge bureau of the chamber of commerce, has called a special executive meeting of his entire bureau and others interested in national road appropriation matters.

New Christian College at Stony Brook

STONY BROOK AFTER DARK

BY DR. J. W. CARSON

EDUCATION for poor boys is the plan of a new Christian college to be opened in the fall of 1920, according to announcement by Dr. John F. Carson, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, N. Y., and president of the Stony Brook assembly, a Presbyterian institution which is to Long Island what Northfield is to Massachusetts. The college is to be erected on the grounds of the assembly at Stony Brook, Long Island, and the plan is to support it by endowments from individuals and benevolent organizations.

Dr. Carson says that the time is ripe for the foundation of a high-grade college for ambitious youth who are precluded by lack of means from attending existing institutions, and he further says that the needs of the age demand that such a college for poor boys should be a Christian institution. Therefore one of the essential studies at the Stony Brook college will be that of the Bible, in which lessons the student will receive examinations and marks the same as in secular studies.

Construction of the necessary college buildings will be begun at once. These will contain class and lecture rooms and study halls, and existing buildings at Stony Brook will be utilized for college purposes until they are outgrown. These include a large auditorium which has been used for summer conferences and is suitable for a college auditorium. The two established hotels on the Stony Brook grounds, Johnston Hall and Hopkins hall, will be used as dormitories for the boys.

Stony Brook already represents an investment of $200,000. The assembly, controlling it, is a Presbyterian body, but it has intended to make the Stony Brook college a denominational institution. Indeed many of the summer conferences of the Stony Brook assembly have from the inception been interdenominational.

Stony Brook's benevolent and educational purposes have won substantial support from philanthropic people. Hopkins hall, one of the two large well-appointed modern hotels on the grounds, is the gift of Ferdinand T. Hopkins of Katonah, N. Y., whose portrait adorns the wall over the huge fireplace in the central hall. Johnston hall is the gift of Robert Johnston of St. Louis. There has just been added to the equipment of Stony Brook a large portion of the magnificent library of the late Judge Jesse A. Lamoreaux of Ballston-Spa, N. Y., who made Stony Brook one of the residuary legatees of his large fortune.

Stony Brook was founded in the midst of the native woods of Long Island on high land whose climate will doubtless appeal to the youth attending the college, as it has appealed to the throngs that have attended the summer conferences. These conferences have demonstrated Stony Brook's success through several summers, and the officers deemed it prudent to dil-the investment of equipment. This was one of their first reasons for seriously considering the establishment of a college.

Dr. Carson, the head of the institution, is an enthusiast for the far-reaching, civilizing effects accomplished by such institutions as Stony Brook. He had a practical hand in the beginnings at Northfield, where he used to sweep out the college of Mrs. Dwight L. Moody, and also at Winona Lake, Ind., where he was so early on the ground that he had to sleep in an old corn crib pending the construction of new buildings.

Dr. Carson is a forceful and aggressive Christian minister who firmly believes that the success of the nation depends upon the American people's getting back to the simple, trusting faith of the fathers and in the undiluted Gospel of Christ.

Disinterested evangelists have had their share in the development of Stony Brook, among them Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, in whose memory there was recently dedicated a beautiful parkway leading from the Stony Brook railroad station to the auditorium. This parkway is the gift of Doctor Chapman's widow.

The Stony Brook assembly not only holds its kind of the heights, but has also acquired a considerable extent of shore front on Long Island Sound not far from the village. This is an old community of unspoiled inhabitants who have never made an attempt at modernizing at the expense of their hundreds of summer visitors. The neighborhood abounds in historic landmarks, and one of the finest examples of colonial architecture in the United States is the Presbyterian church at Smithtown, which is in a state of preservation.

The Presbyterian church is accustomed to fervent family discussions concerning the second coming of Christ, as a result of which two schools of thought have arisen, one called the pre-millennialists and the other the post-millennialists. From some who have misunderstood the facts a notion has gone abroad that Stony Brook was partial to cultivating one of these schools. Doctor Carson emphatically denies that Stony Brook is committed to either the "Pre" or the "Post." He insists that Stony Brook is a place for the open mind and free speech, and he now plans to establish its additional function as a place for free education.

Personal gain for individuals has no share in the promotion of Stony Brook. The institution has its definite Christian aims for education and Gospel evangelization, stated in its charter, and if the institution at any time departs from its original program its property legally reverts to the boards of the Presbyterian church in the United States.

The platform of principles on which Stony Brook assembly was founded and which is the basis of its articles of incorporation is as follows:

1. The divine inspiration, integrity and authority of the Bible.
2. The deity of our Lord Jesus Christ.
3. The need and efficacy of the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ for the redemption of the world.
4. The presence and power of the Holy Spirit in the work of redemption.
5. The divine institution and mission of the church.
6. The broad and binding obligation resting upon the church for the evangelization of the world.
7. The consummation of the Kingdom in the appearing of the glory of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Dr. David G. Wiley, New York city, vice-president of the Stony Brook assembly, and other officers are: Walter J. Freeland, New York city, executive secretary; Roy M. Barbrooklyn, treasurer; Rev. Edward J. Humston, New York city, executive secretary.

Passers-By

How many tales of human weal and woe, of glory and of humiliation, could be told by those beings whom in passing we regard not! Unvalued as they are by us, how many as good as ourselves repose upon them the affections of bounteous hearts, and would not want them for any earthly compensation. Every one of these persons in all probability, retains in his bosom the cherished recollections of early happy days, spent in some scene which "they never forget, though there they are forgotten," with friends and fellows who, though now far removed in distance and in fortune, are never to be given up by the heart. Every one of these individuals, in all probability, nurses still deeper in the recesses of feeling the remembrance of that chapter of romance in the life of every man, an early earnest attachment, conceived in the fervor of youth, and sustained by the slightest thought of self, and for the time purifying and elevating the character far above its ordinary standard.—Robert Southey.

LEGION TO AID IN INSURANCE CASES

National Commander Calls Attention to Duties of Officers of Local Posts.

Officials of the Twin Falls post of the American legion have received a communication from Franklin D. Miller, national commander. With regard to the service the legion has undertaken to render ex-service men.

"At each of the 7,000 local posts of the American legion throughout the country, is a war risk officer," says the communication, "containing in this regard with the state organizations and that at national headquarters in Indianapolis."

"These local post officers have been instructed to take up with various government bureaus in Washington, or branch offices, any cases with regard to ex-service men that may be brought to their attention calling for governmental action. Such cases as they deem worthy of the advice of the state war risk officer are forwarded to him. Where the case cannot be handled by state department officers, it is forwarded to state headquarters, and may in turn be submitted to national headquarters for attention, where the headquarters service is required. Thousands of these difficult or extraordinary cases involving questions of law and procedure or delayed cases are received at national headquarters daily."

"Most of these appeals consist of various claims against the government growing out of a man's service in the army, navy or marine corps. They relate for the most part to compensation, allotments, liberty loan bonds, vocational training and bonuses."

"In a period of two months, for example, national headquarters has been instrumental in collecting for ex-service men $16,650 in liberty loan bonds and $15,700 in allotments and allowances."

Charles F. Sheridan, in charge of the service division at national headquarters, and formerly connected with war risk insurance bureau at Washington, is in charge of this branch of the service. His intimate knowledge of the workings of various governmental bureaus in Washington enables him to render with the utmost dispatch this service to the many ex-service men wishing to appeal their cases to the war department."

TO ASSUME CHARGE OF M. E. CHOIR

Wood Leaves Baptist Congregation for New Work—New Pipe Organ Overlaid.

Announcement has been made that Leonard Wood, for several months head of the Baptist church choir, has accepted the position of choir-master of the Methodist church. He will take charge on February 8.

It has also been announced that a $12,000 pipe organ has been ordered for the church.

It is the plan of Mr. Wood to enlarge the choir to 150 voices, to organize a series of mixed quartets, men's quartets and women's quartets, young people's choir and Sunbeam choir. The orchestra, which will also be under his management, will be made larger.

Work will be started soon for an organist candidate.

At the installation of the new organ a fitting musical program will be given.

TO SEEK SENTIMENT ON REINSTATING NEBRASKA

By the Associated Press.
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 23.—Chancellor Samuel Avery and Regent E. P. Brown, of the University of Nebraska, left today on a tour of colleges in the Missouri valley, conference to discuss the athletic situation and sound the college heads on the question of reinstating Nebraska in the conference, from which the Lincoln school resigned last fall. The first stop will be at Manhattan, Kansas. From there the chancellor and regent will go to Lawrence, and they may extend their trip to Columbia, Mo. A later visit to Ames and Des Moines, Iowa, is also possible. An intimation has been received in athletic circles here that Nebraska will be readmitted to the conference at the next meeting if formal application is made.

WEL INVESTIGATION ATTACK ON BRUNEAU

Twins Falls Post American Legion Aroused by Attitude of the Boise Legion.

Attacks made on the proposed BrunEAU project by Mayor Eagleston of Boise, followed by condemnation of the project by the post of the American Legion at Boise because returned service men will not be given preferential rights will be investigated by the Twin Falls post of the American Legion. The matter will probably be the subject of discussion at the next regular meeting of the local post.

Refusal of the state reclamation department to approve the Sunnyside project in which Mayor Eagleston is said to be interested is given as the reason for the Boise Legion's attack on the BrunEAU project, according to legion men of Twin Falls who have been studying the situation.

Several months ago the Twin Falls post of the American legion adopted resolutions indorsing the so-called Morgan bill under which service men could receive certain sums of money. During the discussion of this resolution the sentiment of the Twin Falls post seemed to be against giving returned men preferential rights in projects developed by private capital, and it is said an effort will be made to put the post on record at the next meeting.

SKINNER SITE IS AGAIN FAVORED

Chamber of Commerce Bureau Votes Unanimously in Favor of First Offer.

Following a visit to several recently offered sites yesterday morning, the bureau of parks and playgrounds of the chamber of commerce yesterday decided unanimously that the St. John Skinner place was still the best offer made. This place will cost approximately $18,500.

The matter of bringing about a bond election to cover the expense of buying the place will be taken up and urged by the bureau at the regular meeting of the city council next Monday night.

The Skinner place is located within an eighth of a mile of large city water mains; is only one-fourth of a mile from the city limits and is agreed by the bureau to be the most desirable site which can be made to improve all the features of a general park, playground, aviation landing field, athletic field and swimming and skating pool, according to the committee.

SOCIALISTS SEEK FUND.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Leading socialists meeting today at the Grand school of social science, completed plans for a four-day drive to raise $20,000 for the defense of the five members of their party suspended by the assembly and being tried at Albany on charges of disloyalty.

The drive will last from January 27 to 1. The chief gathering will be in Madison Square Garden January 28, when it was announced "three United States senators" would speak. "Real names were not made public."

Wonderful Caves

Some of the most wonderful strange cave formations in the world are found in the caves of West Australia, an American woman (traveler) writes to the New York Sun. She described her visits to the Yallagup, Mammoth and Lake caves on that continent. (Says) hundreds of people, including children, have visited the caves. The caves are filled with stalagmites and stalactites. In the Mammoth cave, she says, there is a regular jewelry store, and in the Yallagup cave, she says, there is a regular butcher shop and a draper's store, with the stock displayed consisting of limestone and stalagmites.

Long Glides

What is believed to be the world's record for gliding with a dead motor was accomplished at Tinton, N. Y., in a "Cotton-Mare" motorless glider. This machine, flown to the lake of Cayuga lake, a distance of 85 miles, and having attained a height of 17,500 feet, the pilot, who on his motor was glided to Tinton, at which point he still had 6,000 feet altitude. If his glider had been continued it is estimated that an additional 15 miles could have been covered, making a total of 100 miles without the aid of his motor. The longest gliding record previously recorded was that of Captain (now Major) according to a record book, was made by a glider pilot, who on his motor was glided to Tinton, at which point he still had 6,000 feet altitude. If his glider had been continued it is estimated that an additional 15 miles could have been covered, making a total of 100 miles without the aid of his motor.

THE BURLEY MEETING.

The Chamber of Commerce has undertaken to organize the business men of Twin Falls to attend the meeting of the reclamation association in Burley Tuesday, providing a special train for their return that night at the conclusion of the banquet.

There is wisdom in this action. Aside from our acute interest in the matters to be discussed at the meeting, there is the additional incentive growing out of the desire for closer co-operation with the business men of our neighboring city. Burley is a growing city, envied much as is Twin Falls. The future of Burley, like the future of Twin Falls, Buhl and Rupert, depend upon further reclamation of arid lands. No development of this sort but will be of substantial benefit to all these cities, and it is important that a close fellowship be established and maintained, to the end that the vicious propaganda emanating from Boise may be counteracted.

The plan of Chamber of Commerce committee is to send a delegation to the Burley meeting of 125 men of affairs of Twin Falls. There should be no trouble to secure this number, and there will be none provided other matters do not interfere. There is no more important matter coming before the people of our community, and there should be a delegation which, by weight of numbers, will impress upon the meeting the interest which Twin Falls is taking in the Bruneau project in particular and reclamation subjects in general.

TESTING OUT.

In these Saharan days wood alcohol is at its worst. It is doing its best to make business for the florist. An ounce or two of that stuff will make a man see four-tailed green elephants.

And so the deadly-in-earnest and the comic jester have come to the front with tests for the stuff. One man advises carrying around a copper wire. Under his system you open the bottle as usual. Then you heat the copper wire red hot. Insert it in the bottle and into the liquid. If when withdrawn the hot wire gives an odor of formaldehyde, cork the bottle and go no further. For that is wood alcohol.

Another fellow who warns the world against wood alcohol advises prospective drinkers to carry a live guinea pig in one's pocket. Before imbibing allow the animal to lap up a few drops he suggests, and if a pleased expression comes over the pig's face one may drink without fear. If the beastie dies, leave the liquid alone! Guinea pigs are surely coming to a place in the sun.

PEACE-TIME LIBRARY SERVICE.

A million books sent overseas by the war library service have come back from the war. But these books are not to be demobilized. They are to be divided into small libraries and placed on United States merchant ships, in coast guard stations and lighthouses.

Often during the campaigns for books and funds for the war work of the American Library Association, selfish and over-cautious persons asked what was to become of the books after the war ended.

They feared that the volumes might be sold and the money devoted to some purpose of which they might not approve. Some feared that the books might be given to unworthy and uninterested people. Surely no one, however, will wish to find fault with this disposition of a million of them.

It is quite likely that some of the books which really reached soldiers overseas were worn out, lost or accidentally destroyed. But if they served to lighten the weariness or homesickness of any soldiers their loss is more than compensated for by their service. For the books that survived the perils of war, nothing better can be planned than continued service where they are really needed.

WHILE THE SAVING'S GOOD.

"The clock is likely to strike 12 in the fall of this year or the spring of the next. The next period of depression won't be from over production or banking conditions, as in the past, but the thief will come in another way.

"The present period of prosperity will be brought to a close through psychological or spiritual reasons. More and more people are slacking on the oars of production. Some mornings we shall find everybody slacking at once."

This is the prediction of Roger Babson, financial expert, founder and president of the Babson statistical organization, which plots curves of business conditions as they occur, and from these curves the past is able to predict the future.

The whole country being forewarned, could, of course, avert the period of depression if it would—by capacity production beginning right now and running along until the danger is past. But if the country as a whole will not do this, if it prefers to idle and waste and buy with extravagant luxury, instead of working and saving and buying with comfortable good sense, the individual citizen may still be forewarned and have his umbrella ready for the rainy days to come.

Just now, dollars are plentiful and goods are scant. The wise move would be to sit down as many dollars as possible.

Say what you will about the natural cussedness of the Missouri mule, you've got to admit that he's 100 per cent American. The American mules driven by German teamsters at Coblenz have refused to obey any command given in German.

"Mexico is full of Red propaganda," says a traveler. Mexico is also full of red pepper and tobacco and chile con carne, and we can stand it all if Mexico can.

Mexican communists claim there were 30,000 Americans in Mexico who dodged the draft. There may have been 30,000, but not Americans.

A cable says that the election of a French president is "chiefly social and gastronomical." In America it is financial and gaseoties.

Some alienist says that insane people can't stand jazz music. No wonder. In most cases, that's probably what drove them crazy.

A national election is for the purpose of deciding whether we shall have an old or new set of chair-polishers in Washington.

In short, the charge against the Reds in America is that they have less than one-half of one per cent of Americanism.

Investigation of the Ford-Newberry election will be an effort to learn whether it was an election or a purchase.

MAXIMUM INTEREST RATE AGREED UPON

Amount Approved by Reserve Board
Approved By Bankers.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Recommendations to banks and trust companies by all federal reserve districts that no rate in excess of 2-4 per cent be paid on not and available daily balances, were made in resolutions adopted today at a meeting here of representatives of the 12 federal reserve districts.

"The action was taken in order to conform to the approval expressed by the federal reserve board, through Governor Harding of the action of the New York clearing house in adopting 2-4 per cent as its maximum rate."

The conference, which was presided over by James B. Forgan of the First National bank of Chicago, followed a meeting in Washington January 6 of bankers representing clearing-house associations, called by the federal reserve board, at which final action on the question of interest rates on bank balances was postponed until the Chicago meeting.

"In making the recommendations today the conference declared: 'It is the opinion of this conference that the federal reserve board should be free to establish its rate of discount without reference to any clearing-house regulations as to the payment of interest.'"

"This view was expressed at the Washington meeting by Governor Harding, who appealed to the bankers not to make a scramble for deposits" by advancing interest rates on balances and protested against a tendency to turn deposits into investment funds.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for Twin Falls County, Thomas H. Irwin, plaintiff, vs. C. W. Parks, W. L. Cherry, C. Vere Parks, and C. W. Parks, Administrators of the Estate of Agnes E. Parks, Deceased, defendants.

The state of Idaho sends greetings to W. L. Cherry, one of the above named defendants.

LATEST METHOD FOR SECURING BUYERS AT BIG PUBLIC SALES

If you have attended many public sales on the Twin Falls tract, you have noticed there is a great deal of difference in the spirit of the crowd. Sometimes the bidding will be eager and snappy; other times it will be slow and there will be no bidding at all. Have you thought of this? You have if you expect to put on a sale. Results depend upon the size of the crowd. It is not the curious who make good bidders. How was the crowd brought out? You don't leave your right in the middle of the road and go to a fence post to read a sale bill, do you? Then don't expect the other fellow to do it. Put an advertisement in the newspaper, then regardless of the weather, the fellow you want to reach reads your announcement while seated at his fireside. If he is a prospective buyer you'll have him at your sale. One extra buyer often pays the entire expense of the sale, and it's a poor advertisement that would pull their buyers. An advertisement in The Chronicle reaches the people you are after. Bills may be a necessity, but the advertisement is the thing that does the business. Don't think of having a sale without using advertising space in The Chronicle.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ORDER OF SALE OF SOME REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE SHOULD NOT BE MADE.

In the Probate Court of Twin Falls County, State of Idaho.

In the Matter of the Estate of Sam Hardy, Deceased.

Phil Hardy, the administrator of the estate of Sam Hardy, deceased, having presented to this court and filed herein his verified petition in due form of law praying for an order for the sale of all the real property and all the personal property of the said Sam Hardy, deceased, for the purposes therein set forth, and it appearing to the court that said petition is in due form and that it is for the benefit and best interest of the estate and those interested therein to sell the whole of the real estate, and that it is necessary to sell the whole of the personal property to pay the debts outstanding against said Sam Hardy, and the said debts and charges of administration.

It is therefore hereby ORDERED by this court that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, appear before said court on Thursday, the 15th day of February, 1929, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the court room of said court in the said City and County of Twin Falls, to show cause why an order should not be granted to said administrator to sell the whole of the real estate, and the whole of the personal estate of said deceased at either a public or private sale as said administrator shall judge to be most beneficial for the estate and that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said City and County of Twin Falls.

The following is a description of the real estate and personal property hereinbefore referred to and which is sought to be sold under said petition:

ATTACKS PALMER'S WAR ON RADICALS

United States Attorney Declares He Is Forced to Quit Office "On Principle"

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—Francis B. Kane, United States attorney for eastern Pennsylvania, who tendered his resignation yesterday, did so, he said today, for a principle.
In his letter to the president, he said:
"I am obliged to take this step because I feel out of sympathy with the anti-radical policies of Mr. Palmer and his methods of carrying them out."
Mr. Kane also sent a letter to Attorney General Palmer, disagreeing with Mr. Palmer's statement that there does not seem to be any question of policy involved in the raids.
"It is one thing to show an alien coming into this country by administrative methods, but it is quite another to deprive a man who has been in the country a long time, and who perhaps has a wife and children here, of what we are accustomed to think of as constitutional rights," wrote Mr. Kane.
"In the present raids we appear to be attempting to repress a political party. It has a platform, it has a which is highly objectionable to me and you. So much so that you but call it a political party, and hold it open meetings and discuss its platform. We ought not to do this. It is a law which we are absolutely compelled to do so in order to enforce the law. For by such methods we will drive underground and make dangerous what was not dangerous before."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Attorney General Palmer replying tonight to a letter from Francis B. Kane, United States attorney for eastern Pennsylvania, on account of disagreements with the policy of the department of justice, charged the attorney with an "apparent misconception of the duties of the department of justice in the enforcement of the law."

That reason, Mr. Palmer wrote, Attorney Kane, that he was "bound to say that your resignation seems to me to be quite the proper step for you to take."

Attorney General Palmer, in his letter, said the entire staff of America early in 1919 was with disapproval, caused by certain elements within the organization, which caused recourse to mass action as the means to obtain the reforms considered necessary by the "plain people" which was contrary to the "highly intelligent" and "orderly" which advocate the obtaining of reforms through the ballot and by political action.

"This disapproval in the ranks of the socialist party," he continued, "resulted on September 1, 1919, in the creation of two organizations, known as the 'Communist Party of America' and the 'Communist Labor Party.' Immediately upon the formation of these two organizations, a program and manifesto were adopted by these parties, based upon the manifesto of the Third International, adopted at Moscow."

It was because, Mr. Palmer wrote, of the adoption of this manifesto by the Communist parties in the United States as their program of action, and because of these parties' evident desire to make the industrial workers in this country "more general and militant" that the raids were conducted.

RESERVE DECISION ON MAYA CASE

Johnson's Attorneys Contend Maya Claims of Financial Worries Unfounded

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The appellate division of the supreme court reserved decision today on an appeal of Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the American league, and of the St. Louis and Cleveland Americans from an injunction issued by Supreme Court Justice Wagner which restrains them from interfering with Carl W. Maya continuing as a Yankee pitcher, pending the final outcome of a suit brought against them by the New York club.

In arguing the latest phase of the dispute case involving Maya who, while playing with the Boston Americans, walked off the field in Chicago, was suspended by Mr. Johnson and later was re-instated by the league directors, counsel for the appellants, belittled the claim that Maya had violated his Boston contract willingly before his sale to the Yankees. It is claimed in Maya's behalf that he was hit with a ball and also was suffering from private worries, one being a fire which destroyed his wedding presents and baseball trophies.

Appellants' counsel contended that if the case did not state Maya had been hit by a ball and that his house had been burned in the spring, while the Chicago incident occurred in July. Counsel then quoted Maya as saying to certain sporting writers:
"I am certain that it will be impossible for me to preserve my confidence in my behalf as a ball player and stay with the Red Sox as the team is now handled."

Affected Leadership.
Except for brief statements from Senators Lodge and Johnson and a lengthy statement from Senator Sherman, few of the senators participating in the conference would talk for publication. Mr. Lodge said the senators who called him to the meeting represented "a large group of senators who want no change in the Lodge reservations. Senator Johnson declared that the Lodge reservations were sold by Mr. Lodge to be the irreducible minimum. Others in the meeting stated privately that the question of a treaty compromise on 'Republican solidarity and leadership' in the senate and in the country" was discussed.

"Were there any threats to bolt the republican leadership of the party?" was asked of one of the republican conferees.
"I would rather not answer that question," came a hesitant reply. "Party solidarity is threatened; that is all I care to say."
Senator Johnson was asked regarding reports widely circulated in Senate lobby gossip that a declaration had been made of a third party movement and a "bolt" from republican senate leadership if the Lodge reservations are modified, and the California senator replied:
"I suppose I have, such a thought."

Senator Lodge said the meeting was to give information to senators present regarding the compromise negotiations with the democratic committee.
"They represent a large body of senators who want no change in the Lodge reservations," said Mr. Lodge as he smilingly crowded his way through newspaper correspondents waiting outside the conference room. To the suggestion that all of those present except himself and Senator New are identified with the treaty's foes, Mr. Lodge answered:
"We must present the question to all sides. That was understood in underwriting the negotiations with the democrats. We republicans, in meeting the democratic leaders, represent nobody but ourselves. Anything we do is tentative and must be referred to senators. Those present today wanted to know what we had done."

Beyond this Senator Lodge declined to comment other than to state that another bi-partisan meeting of the leaders committee would be held tomorrow. Other senators in today's council, however, stated that no textual drafts of proposed compromise reservations were considered.
The principal protest of the eight senators to Mr. Lodge and Mr. New it was stated, was against holding any compromise negotiations whatever against the democrats, and secondly against any change in the Lodge reservations. This view was outlined in Senator Johnson's statement after the conference broke up.

"After months of debate and declaration," said Senator Johnson, "the senate agreed to a set of reservations which represent a compromise. It was admitted by everybody that these reservations, called the Lodge reservations, were the very limit that should be done for the protection of America. In the language of Senator Lodge they constituted 'the irreducible minimum.' Personally, I am unable to see how there can be any compromise upon the least possible protection to American to European reservations which are 'the irreducible minimum,' in safeguarding American institutions. To me there can be no compromise with American honor, or American protection."

LEAGUE MEETING OF MUCH IMPORTANCE

Hedley Believes New Committee Chairman Will Be Selected Then

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—On his return from the west today, John Hedley, president of the National league, announced that the baseball meetings to be held in Chicago next month will be among the most important sessions ever held in the history of the sport.

Meeting of the joint rules committee has been called for February 9. On February 10, the National and American leagues will hold their respective league meetings. On February 11, the National and American leagues will hold their joint meetings and on February 12 the major league committee, which hopes to enter into a new working agreement with the minors.

Hedley said he believed a new committee chairman will be named at the joint major league conference on February 11.

That virtually the entire New York American league club is dissatisfied with contract sent them last December, was admitted today by Colonel T. J. Hutton, vice president of the Yankees, and Miller Huggins, manager of the team. Contracts were sent to the New York players on December 26 last, and so far not one of them has returned signed. The club has blue men under contract, but they all have hold-over contracts.
"The difference between our players and the club however, are not serious and they can be adjusted," said Hutton. "While I admit few players are satisfied with what we have sent them, we have only one pronounced hold-out on the club."

REFUSE TO SURRENDER EX-KAISER

Entente Informed Holland Cannot Be Party to Peace Pact.

SAYS LAND ALWAYS REFUGE FOR VANQUISHED

"We Cannot Betray Faith of Those Who Confide in Us," Says Note in Reply to Entente.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Jan. 27.—The demand of the entente powers that Holland deliver up to them former Emperor William of Germany that he may be tried "for a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties" has been refused by Holland.

Not Party to Treaty.

In a note delivered this afternoon to the foreign office by the Dutch minister, Holland takes the ground that the Dutch government is not a party to the peace treaty which condemned William Hohenzollern, and that it cannot recognize as an international duty the necessity to associate itself with "this act of high international policy of the powers."

It declares also that the constituent laws of the country always ground for refuge for the vanquished in international conflicts, will not permit the government to defer to the wishes of the entente by withdrawing from the former emperor the benefit of its laws and tradition. The declaration made that the people of The Netherlands cannot betray the faith of those who have confided themselves to Holland's free institutions.

The Dutch's Reply.
Following is the reply of The Netherlands government to the entente: "By verbal note, dated January 15, 1916, given to the envoy of the queen at Paris, the powers, referring to article 227 of the treaty of Versailles, demand that the government of Holland give trial, under the laws of the Netherlands, to the former emperor of Germany, under the terms of article 228 of the treaty of peace, have been obliged to deliver him.

"In citing as premeditated violations of international treaties, as well as a systematic disregard of the most sacred rules of the rights of man, a number of acts committed during the war by German authority, the powers place the responsibility, at least nominally, upon the former emperor. "They express the opinion that Holland would not fulfill her international duty if she refused to associate herself with them within the limits of her ability to pursue or at least not to impede, the punishment of crimes committed."

Emphasizes Character.
"They emphasize the special character of their demands, which contemplate not a juridical accusation but an act of high international policy and they make an appeal to Holland's report of law and love of justice not to enter with her moral authority violation by Germany of the essential principles of the solidarity of the nations.

"The queen has the honor to observe, first, that obligations which, for Germany, could have resulted from article 228 of the treaty of peace, cannot serve to determine the duty of Holland, which is not a party to the treaty.

"The government of the queen, moved by impracticable reasons, cannot view the question raised by the demands of the powers except from the point of view of its own duty. It was absolutely unconnected with the origin of the war and has maintained, and got without difficulty, its neutrality to the end. It finds itself then face to face with facts of the war in a position different from that of the other powers.

Cannot Associate Self.

"It rejects with energy, all suspicion of wishing to cover with its sovereign right and its moral authority, violations of the essential principles of the solidarity of nations; but it cannot recognize an international policy of the powers.

"If in the future, there should be instituted by the Society of Nations an international jurisdiction competent to judge in case of war needs, qualified as crimes and submitted to its jurisdiction by statute ante-dating the acts committed, it would be fit for Holland to associate herself with the new regime.

"The government of the queen cannot admit in the present case, any other duty than that imposed upon it by the laws of the kingdom and national tradition.

"Now, neither the constituent laws of the kingdom, which are based upon the principles of law universally recognized, nor a respectable secular tradition which has made this country always a ground for refuge for the vanquished in international conflicts, permit the government of Holland to defer to the desire of the powers by withdrawing from the former emperor for the benefit of its laws and this tradition.

"Justice and national honor, of which respect is a sacred duty, oppose this. The Netherlands people moved by the sentiments to which in history the world has done justice, could not betray the faith of those who have confided themselves to their free institutions.

"The government of the queen is pleased to believe that the powers will recognize the good grounds of these considerations, which rise above any consideration of personalities that they could not reasonably give rise to wrong interpretations."

BUHL AND BURLEY HAVE "JACK" FOR BALL TEAMS

Twin Falls baseball fans who have been urging a good team this year will now renew their efforts as a result of word reaching here last night from Buhl and Burley. Buhl has been secured since the end of the season and during the past week more than $6000 was raised for the team and it is expected that this amount will be increased to the $7000 mark within the next week.

Burley also has been active in the treasury for the coming year.

BUILDING TRADES UNION MAY DO CONTRASTING

By the Associated Press.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 27.—Entry of the building trades unions of this city into the contracting business here next spring unless local contractors meet demands for wage increases of $1 a day in the building crafts was discussed by labor leaders here today. M. J. Dunn, president of the state federation of brick masons, and Fred W. Greene, vice president of the state federation of labor, were among those declaring funds and executive ability would be available for such a program.

RAILROAD AND INTERURBAN TRAFFIC ARE BLOCKED

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 27.—A blinding blizzard, sweeping the cities from Milwaukee to Kenosha on Lake Michigan's western shore tonight, completely demoralized railroad and interurban traffic and blocked highways with huge drifts, practically isolating some of the smaller cities and villages.

Service on an interurban line was discontinued, and all trains to and from Chicago were delayed many hours in their battles with the snow.

SAYS STATE BANKS BEING OPPRESSED

Congressman Asks Federal Reserve Agents Bringing Disaster to Smaller Institutions.
By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Complaints from state bankers against methods of officials of the regional banks of the federal reserve system are being received daily by members of congress. Representative Reavis, republican, Nebraska, declared today in the house, charging that "agents and employees of the regional banks have started on a policy of oppression toward state banks that can work only disaster."

Mr. Reavis said the trouble arises in a large measure through a difference in the systems with reference to the charging of exchange on checks. Representative Garner, democrat, Texas, said he also had protested from state bankers, and Reavis rejoined that it was "almost universal complaint among members of congress."

Inquiry to the federal reserve board, Reavis added, was answered with "just the ordinary stereotype reply that the matter would be looked into."

"Officers of a federal reserve bank," said Reavis, "have collected as high as $41,000 in checks against a small bank in a small town and men have gone to that bank in an automobile and demanded cash on the checks in legal tender. This is an oppression that is likely to close the bank. It amounts almost to a conspiracy that would close a bank and monopoly ought to be prosecuted for that sort of conduct."

LARGE CLASS INITIATED INTO KNIGHTS PYTHIAS

Twenty-five equities were raised last night to knighthood by Buhl degree team for Twin Falls lodge Knights of Pythias, following which refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed.

Between fifty and a hundred visiting knights were present, while the turn-out of members of the local lodge was a record, the hall being filled.

Twin Falls lodge is having a wonderful influx of new members, the life of the lodge having been revived to an extent not known in its history. Interest is intense; meetings are largely attended, the degree work is being interpreted with dramatic effect and the whole spirit of the lodge enthused.

There is now enough work ahead of the degree teams to keep them busy for the rest of the season, including a membership of the lodge close to two hundred. The lodge has been the before the present officers aspire the membership will exceed 300.

DUCHESS OF WESTMINSTER TAKES SECOND HUSBAND

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—Announcement was made today of the marriage of the duchess of Westminster and Capt. James Fitzpatrick Lewis. The time and place of the ceremony were not disclosed.

Captain Lewis formerly was a member of the air force and is about 30 years of age. He met the duchess at her hospital in France.

The duchess formerly was Constance Edwina, daughter of William Cornwallis-West. She married Hugh Richard Arthur Grosvenor, second duke of Westminster in 1901. They signed a separation agreement in 1914 and a decree of divorce was granted to the duchess in June, 1915. On December 19 the decree was made absolute.

BURLEY IS VICTOR IN FAST BASKETBALL GAME

In one of the fastest, hardest fought games ever played on the local floor, the Burley basketball team last night defeated the Twin Falls team by a score of 25 to 19. At the end of the first half the score stood 13 to 11 in favor of Burley, while Burley made 12 and Twin Falls eight in the last half. Taylor, Neuman and Carter, were the stars for Twin Falls, while Canine and Johnson starred for Burley. Burley made most of its points on long shots.

Following the baseball game, Jake Irwin won a wrestling match from Freyre Meates. The boys had wrestled only a little more than one minute of 12 minutes scheduled when Irwin pinned Meates's shoulders to the mat.

DEATH FOLLOWING DRINKING EXTRACTS

J. R. Grubb Is Victim of Jamaica Ginger and Other "Drugs"

J. R. Grubb, 59 years of age, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Snow yesterday morning, following attack of delirium tremens. Grubb is said to have been mixing Jamaica ginger, and other extracts, consuming a considerable quantity of the beverage.

Grubb's body was taken to the Dr. With undertaking parlors. After an investigation officials decided that an inquest would not be necessary.

The decedent was attended by Dr. W. F. Pike, who pronounced the cause of death as due to alcoholism. At first it was suspected that the man might have taken some potent drug, but Dr. Pike pronounced an examination proved his suspicion unfounded. Funeral arrangements have not been made. The dead man is survived by a son in Buhl as well as daughter.
