HUNDRED WILL GO TO BURLEY FOR MEETING

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS UNDER DISCUSSION

Will Consider Comprehensive Plan for Storage of Waters of the Snake River.

Wearing badges showing their membership in the Twin Falls chamber of commerce, and filled with enthusiasm, a delegation of more than a hundred Twin Falls boosters leave on the early train this morning for Burley to attend the session of the Idaho reclamation association.

To Be Important.

The meeting is one of the most important in years for this part of Idaho. It will deal with the problems arising from the plans for the conservation of the flood waters of the Snake river, and their diversion to the various projects within the valley of the Snake. The general plans as outlined, briefly comprehends a mammoth reservoir at American Falls and the storage of waters there for projects in the valley below that point.

Careful surveys of the flow of the Snake and its upper tributaries shows that there is sufficient water for all the lands within reach when stored under this system. The first step in the building of the American Falls dam to capacity sufficient for waters for Twin Falls, North Side, Minidoka and adjoining projects. This work will be done by the government, the several projects bearing their share of the cost in proportion as they require and buy additional storage waters.

Will Be Expensive.

Later, when Bureau and other projects desire waters, they will bear the expense necessary for the enlargement of the reservoir by raising the dam to store waters needed.

The plan is a comprehensive one, and has the approval of those who are moved by desire for general reclamation as well as those seeking security on tracts already under cultivation. It has the sanction of the reclamation department of the federal government, the state of Idaho and the Idaho reclamation association.

Chamber of Commerce Meets.

Last evening the reclamation bureau of the Twin Falls chamber of commerce met with the board of directors of this organization, and agreed upon resolutions commending the plan, these to be prepared by a committee consisting of Senator M. J. Sweetley, C. D. Thomas and R. D. King and submitted to the Burley meeting.

WILHELMSTRASSE UNDER GUARD; FEAR UPRISING

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, Jan. 26.—Wilhelmstrasse tonight is barricaded and under guard of numerous troops. A patrol of 15 armed automobiles and a half dozen huge motor trucks loaded with armed troops arrived early in the evening and immediately took up their positions in front of the government building and shut off all traffic from the thoroughfare.

WANT MILITARY MEN TO GET OUT OF THE RACE

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The danger of a country divided into two armed camps, is pointed out by the national democratic party of Mexico, in a manifesto issued in behalf of the candidate for the presidency, General Bonillas, ambassador to the United States. The manifesto, a copy of which was received today, calls upon General Pablo Gonzalez and General Alvaro Obregon, chief candidates, to turn their support to Bonillas as a civilian and thus avoid the armed conflict which the manifesto declares inevitable.

Victory for one faction, the manifesto says, would force the other group to take up arms, and it is declared that one of the chief objects of the revolution was to extirpate the military caste that was imposed upon the country by the Huerta coup.

GIGANTIC CAPRONI BEING BUILT BY ITALIANS

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A giant Caproni being constructed near Milan to carry 100 passengers, was described today by Augustus A. Post, before the state aviation commission. Mr. Post recently returned from Europe, where he was sent by the Aero club to study aviation.

He told of aeronautic advances in England, France, Italy and Belgium, declaring "aviation is much further advanced than in the United States." The Caproni will be ready for trials in a short time, he declared. It is driven by motors which have 3,000 horsepower and is only one of the spacious models of passenger planes being built for extensive air transportation lines in Europe.

WOBBLES ON TRIAL FOR ARMISTICE DAY MURDERS

By the Associated Press. MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 26.—The trial of eleven alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World charged with murder in connection with the armistice day killings at Centralia, Wash., began here today.

The court overruled a motion for a change of venue and also a motion for a severance of trials as affecting Loren Roberts, one of the defendants. It was maintained by defense counsel that Roberts had made statements prejudicial to other defendants.

Monte Brown, one of the elected delegates, said tonight he believed the defeat of Mr. Gompers was due to the influence of the younger men.

"They are progressive," he said, "and believe Mr. Gompers is too conservative."

Volunteers To Be Selected to Supervise Distribution of Food-stuffs in Russian Port City.

By the Associated Press. VLADIVOSTOK, Jan. 26.—A list of American Red Cross workers captured by the Bolsheviks at Kijukinskaya station was received here today. It is as follows:

Dr. W. H. Kingston, Oklahoma; Dr. J. N. Mehill, Japan; Col. Pharmacist W. O. Love, No. 262 West Seventy-seventh street, New York City; and E. H. Charette, Stockton, Calif.

Captains Are Unknown.

News of the capture of the Red Cross men, and of seven American railway engineers was received in consular advices reaching here today. These did not give the date of the capture, nor did they make it clear whether the Americans had been captured by supporters of a local uprising against Admiral Kolchak or by Bolsheviks advancing from Omak.

The advices made no mention of any women Red Cross workers. However, American Consul Ray stated that he had received word from workers and American members of the railway staff, are declared to have reached Irkutsk. The railway men, who included Colonel Blunt, were members of the Stevens commission sent from America to aid in rehabilitating the trans-Siberian railway.

No Word for Month.

Prior to today's advices, no word had been received of Americans near Kijukinskaya, which is a station on the trans-Siberian line near Tashet, for nearly a month.

The American consular officials and Red Cross officials here are taking steps to ascertain exactly what forces made the capture and to open negotiations for the Americans' release.

TO EVACUATE WORKERS

VLADIVOSTOK, Jan. 26.—All American women and many Red Cross workers are to be evacuated from Siberia on the first available transport. It is announced by Red Cross headquarters here.

Three trains bringing Red Cross workers from outlying points are on their way here, the first being due to arrive tomorrow. The second has reached Harbin and the third is at Chita. Included in the 300 persons aboard the trains are 100 women.

Volunteers are being recruited among the male Red Cross personnel here to remain at Vladivostok and supervise distribution among the civilian dollars' worth of supplies. They also are to care for about 900 children sent here from Petrograd. These children were forwarded from European Russia by committee, by their parents, or by peasants' co-operative societies on account of the scarcity of food there. The Americans have cared for them ever since they arrived many months ago.

Must Go Dr. Ford.

MURKOWSKI, Okla., Jan. 26.—The American Red Cross workers captured by the Bolsheviks, reported in advices from Vladivostok, Dr. W. H. Kingston, Oklahoma, is undoubtedly Dr. W. H. Ford of Kingston, Okla. Dr. Claude Thompson, secretary of the Oklahoma state medical society, said tonight, Dr. Ford was according to latest reports in the hands of a Red Cross expedition in Russia.

HOWAT SAYS STRIKE IS NOT AUTHORIZED

Declines Walkout in Kansas Fields Due to Industrial Court Bill.

By the Associated Press. PITTSBURGH, Kan., Jan. 26.—No statement was forthcoming tonight from Alexander Howat, president of district 14 of the United Mine Workers of America, regarding his course relative to the strike of 450 coal miners who refused to work today as a protest against the new industrial court law.

"The strike was not authorized by mine officials of district 14 and has become a result of the miners' opposition to the measure," he said. "I am of the opinion that this opposition is also shared by Kansas labor in general."

Mr. Howat declared that as a consequence of the passage of the industrial court bill, national officials of the United Mine Workers, in a publicity campaign, probably would urge miners to keep out of Kansas, and intimated that many now at work had decided to leave.

INVESTIGATION STARTED.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 26.—Richard J. Hopkins, attorney-general of Kansas, left tonight for Pittsburgh, Kan., to investigate the reported strike of soft coal miners in protest against enactment of the industrial law. "It was stated Mr. Hopkins had instructions to proceed under the criminal provisions of the new law if it had been violated."

Mr. Hopkins stated that he had only manager information regarding the strike and that it was impossible to state what action would be taken under the criminal provisions of the new law would be enforced.

RADICALS TO GO ON TRIAL ON APRIL 5

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Trial of alleged radicals indicated last week will be started April 5, it was agreed tonight by Assistant States Attorney M. E. Barnhart and Lloyd Heath, and attorneys representing members of the communist labor party, fourteen of whom were arraigned today.

Pleas of not guilty to the charge of conspiracy and to advocating overthrow of the government by force were entered.

William Brown Lloyd, millionaire socialist, refused to plead to the indictment at this time. Counsel for Lloyd made a motion to quash the indictments, and this motion was joined in by the others.

ATTEMPT TO RESEAT SOCIALISTS FAILS

Trial To Be Resumed Today—Bar Association Keeps Up Its Fight.

By the Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 26.—A fourth attempt to reseat the five socialist assemblymen, suspended for alleged disloyalty, failed tonight in the lower house and their trial, adjourned last Thursday, will be resumed tomorrow before the assembly judiciary committee.

The New York City Bar association, which has opposed suspension on the ground that it threatened representative government, has not given up its fight.

This was shown tonight when Assemblyman William C. Ames, introduced a memorial from the special committee, headed by Charles E. Hughes, Third Speaker T. C. Sweet, announced that it would not be a public document.

The effort to reseat the socialists came when a resolution, introduced last Monday by Mr. Ames, was read. Simon L. Adler, majority leader, raised the point of order that the resolution was, in effect, an amendment to the original suspending resolution, which was no longer before the house.

Speaker Sweet ruled the point of order was well taken. Mr. Ames appealed, but the assembly, by an overwhelming vote, sustained the speaker.

Counsel for the assembly judiciary committee indicated tonight they would put federal agents on the stand when trial of the five suspended socialist assemblymen, charged with disloyalty, is resumed tomorrow. Committee counsel spent the week-end going over documents in their possession, selecting only those which they considered essential to proving their case. Seven witnesses have been heard and exhibit number more than a score.

PREDICTS 3000 MORE CASES OF INFLUENZA IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Despite the decrease in influenza cases reported today, Health Commissioner Copeland was not optimistic over the situation tonight and predicted that there would be at least 3000 new cases tomorrow.

He expressed the opinion, however, that the death toll would not be materially increased. Today's report showed 1,712 cases as against 2,885 reported yesterday. Another appeal for nurses was issued.

FLU DEATHS TOTAL 106

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Deaths from influenza and pneumonia for the 24-hour period ending at 5 o'clock tonight totaled 106. Influenza caused 84 deaths and pneumonia 22. During the same period 1,118 new cases of influenza were reported and 467 new cases of pneumonia.

TREATY FIGHT IS THROWN ON TO THE FLOOR

Lodge Tells Democrats No Compromise Possible on the Vital Issues.

BI-PARTY MEETING IS BROUGHT TO AN END

"The Gig Is Up," Opinion of McNary, Leader of Mild Reservation Republicans Faction.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The question of peace treaty ratification was flung back to the senate floor with the virtual collapse today of the bi-partisan conference.

The end came with swiftness after Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, had informed democrats that there could be no change in the reservations on the Monroe doctrine and article 10.

Democrats walked out for a conference, agreeing to reply to Senator Lodge early tomorrow.

Hitchcock Gives News.

First news of the break was given by Senator Hitchcock in a statement which broadly intimated that failure of republicans to give ground in an effort to reach a compromise, was due to the threatened revolt of republicans. Both leaders frankly admitted tonight that they could see no hope of agreement. This meant, they said, that the question would be fought out on the floor, beginning probably tomorrow. Senator Hitchcock declined to speculate on the possibility of so much as a resumption of the conference.

Senator Hitchcock's statement said: "When this conference assembled Senator Lodge advised the senators present that he had a resumption of a meeting by certain republican senators and for that reason he had not been able to attend the last conference Friday. He regretted to say that he found it impossible to resume the conference for a compromise except upon the understanding that no change shall be made in the reservation on article 10 or on the Monroe doctrine. The democratic members retired for a private conference and will make their reply to Senator Lodge Tuesday morning at a meeting at 10 o'clock."

Agreement Was in Sight.

"The conference up to the time the meetings were interrupted had tentatively agreed upon the preamble and all sections of the reservations except that relating to article 10, the Monroe doctrine and, on two minor matters and an agreement was apparently consummated on article 10 when adjournment suddenly came, followed by the intervention of the irreconcilable republicans."

Senator Lodge, at first declined to comment on the meeting, saying there was nothing to be given out. After being informed of the Hitchcock statement, however, he said:

"I have only this to say about the committee meeting this morning. That said to the committee that there is a very strong feeling among many senators against any change in the Lodge reservations. Other words were said in substance and that I thought only fair to say now what I have already said in public that there can be no compromise, of principle and that it would be impossible to secure. In my judgment, two-thirds of the senate if any change was attempted would vote against it and thus, relating to article 10 and the Monroe doctrine, I said that was a mere statement of the situation."

Both democrats and republicans professed to see a difference in the situation, as expressed by the two sides. "The fact is," said Senator McNary, republican leader of the mild reservation group and this statement was made on the head of the most significant.

Democratic discussion generally was in the nature of a protest against the failure of the conference to proceed to the point of a vote on the treaty, and the fact that the conference was broken up.

"THE BORDER LEGION" IS VIRILE WESTERN DRAMA

"The Border Legion," a vivid picture of Zane Grey's widely read story, starring Blanche Bates and Robert Donahoe, and featuring the New York newspapers and picturegoers as the most virile drama of the year, will be presented by Goldwyn at the Orpheum theater, beginning today.

It tells the story of Joan Randall (Blanche Bates), a daring girl of the west, who makes her home in a mining camp in the Rockies. She is engaged to wed Jim Cleve, a shiftless prospector. She quarrels with him about his lack of energy and when he returns angrily she gives him back the engagement ring. Jim leaves camp after announcing he will join a band of desperadoes, that has long preyed on the mining camp. When a week passes and Jim fails to return Joan starts out in search of him. On the way she falls into the hands of Jack Kells, leader of the outlaw, border legion. He draws Joan to his shack to hold her for ransom. That night Joan tries to escape and Kells grapples with her. In the scuffle Joan grabs his revolver and shoots Kells. As she is about to flee the wounded bandit pleads with her to remain and nurse him, declaring he loves her. What happens thereafter brings about a climax as thrilling and exciting as it is unusual.

LOCATION FOR ROBBERY SCENE OF HOLDUP

"The Border Legion," Zane Grey's gripping story of the west, was transferred to the screen amid gorgeous mountain scenery, the like of which has never been created by motion picture production. T. Hayes Hunter, producer and director of "The Border Legion" which Goldwyn will present at the Orpheum theater today, spent weeks selecting locations for his big picture.

Many of the earlier scenes of "The Border Legion" had Santa Barbara, Calif., and surroundings as their locale. But the telling scenes in the production were taken in the heart of the Rockies. Among them is the holdup of the pony express, where a band of fifty outlaws swooped down upon a horse of gold, snatched it and makes away with a fortune in mail after killing several messengers.

Strangely enough, Mr. Hunter later learned from a pioneer mountaineer that the site chose for the holdup was the scene of several robberies of its kind during the days of '49 and since.

THE DANGERS IN THE LEAGUE.

The sooner the United States is represented and adequately represented, in the League of Nations, the better. And not necessarily for reasons of sentiment or idealism. In self defense, and in defense of whatever chance of peace there may be left in the world, this country must get into the council of the mighty of this earth.

That is the lesson farseeing person will read between the lines of many European dispatches, especially those telling of the military council of Versailles. That institution, which the French tried vainly to put into the league covenant as the international general staff, has not only been formally adopted while America's eyes were turned homeward to watch the bickering at Washington, but it has been placed under the presidency of Marshal Foch "with extended powers."

Here, then, we may expect to find the real league of nations, a league within the league, and possibly the most pregnant for evil of all the war's aftermath.

Of course, the military council is supposed to exist for the purpose of seeing that Germany behaves herself. She will be punished if she does not please Marshal Foch and his masters. Those masters are England, France and Italy now, with prospects of Greece, Jugo-Slavia, Czechoslovakia and Roumania taking a hand as soon as possible.

This is, indeed, a formidable military alliance, an alliance which rests upon the power of the sword, an alliance that will gain whatever ends it may have to gain to justify its existence by rattling the sabre. How far the alliance will go, how far it can be expected to be the preserver and not the disturber of world peace is a problem.

With half of Europe in a military alliance, the United States is seemingly left outside the breastworks of world affairs, in company with Japan, Germany, Austria and Russia. Other alliances are in process of formation or the ingredients for new amalgams have been brought into more or less close relationship. These private alliances will doubtless be reflected in the politics of the league of nations; and Americans should remind themselves that whether a member or not, the United States is subject to the league when shut-down comes. Read Article XVI again, and read it in the light that the league is in operation and we are not a part of it, nor able to exert any influence upon its deliberations.

Inside the league, we can largely determine its politics, and protect our rights. Outside, we may find the league running amuck—against us.

NO PAUPER IMMIGRANTS FOR HER.

Canada has made a decision about immigration which is worth study by Americans. A temporary order in council bans mechanics, artisans or laborers, skilled or unskilled, who do not possess $250 in money as well as transportation expenses to their destination. Transportation companies have been notified of the order, which will continue until further notice.

American immigration laws were, from the first, designed to encourage the poor ambitious worker. It was no desire of Uncle Sam to shut out a man of power because he lacked cash. But in late years our "easy, unswept hearth" has attracted the undesirable of every nation. Now we are forced to round up and deport many people who would much better never have seen our shores.

The possession of money may be an accident, but this is seldom true. On general principles, the possession of $250 and transportation expenses to a given destination argues that the possessor has had energy enough to earn the money over and above living expenses, and thrift enough to save it, and that he knows enough about the country to have some definite place in mind to go to.

Such restrictions as this might prove the sort of sieve America needs to weed out the idle trouble makers, the men who own nothing and hence have nothing to lose. Men with some kind of stake in life are the kind America wants. She aims to increase that by the vastness of her opportunity. To place too high an estimate upon money is no wish of Uncle Sam's. Industry, ambition and ideals are the mainstay of good Americans. But, after all, in most cases one may take the word of Tennyson's Northern Farmer, that "Work maun, 'a gone to the gettin', wherever money was got."

FACTORY ENGLISH CLASSES.

One form of Americanization work is gaining in popularity and widespread practice is the formation of factory classes for teaching reading, writing and speaking English.

At first only a few factories attempted such work. Now whole cities have united for the purpose of establishing schools in every factory within their limits.

The work is handled differently in different communities. One nationally known factory has divided its alien-language employees in groups. The Lithuanians are taught certain days of the week, the Italians certain other days. One of the big cities supplies all the factory teachers through its public school board. In some cases the worker-pupil is permitted to take his schooling during a daily brief period when he is excused from factory work, although his pay goes on. This usually increases the worker's respect for the Americanization class, although there is discovered occasionally a tendency to look upon this class hour as a chance to slack on work and to get something for nothing. In other places workers are asked to attend night school to get the teaching.

Every factory, at least every community of factories, will have to work out its own best solution. On the whole, however, the factory classes seem to be effective means of spreading interest in speaking and reading English. It is in the factories that they first feel the need for the English language. It is there they draw their pay that Americanization work is most likely to be heeded.

TO MAKE $1 WORTH $10.

America has got rich by developing and has as yet been utilized to an absurdly small extent.

He refers to the creative mental energy of the American people.

"Statistics show," he says, "that all the development of the United States since its founding—its railroads, steamship lines, great manufacturing plants, inventions, works of literature and art—has come from two per cent of the people. Eliminate that two per cent and we would be in the conditions of early colonial days. Double it, and we'd be twice as far as we are. If we can increase that two per cent to 20 per cent, the dollar, instead of being worth 50 cents, will be worth $10. The trouble today is that we are engrossed in the development of things—steel, coal, leather, and so on—and not enough interested in the development of man."

It is a novel argument for better education, as a means of unlocking the penitentiaries of wealth in human brains.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

HAS 3000 PERFECT DEPORTATION CASES

Membership Card in Communist Party All Necessary to Provide Grounds for Exile.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Approximately 3000 of the 8,600 aliens arrested during recent round-ups of radicals use "perfect" cases for deportation as a result of Secretary Wilson's decision that the communist and communist labor parties are revolutionary within the meaning of the deportation law. J. D. Hoover, special assistant to Attorney General Palmer, said today.

Such cases are "perfect" he said, in that it will be necessary only for department of justice agents to present the alien membership card in either party to make out proof of deportation. In cases of the other 500 or 600 aliens whose membership cards were not seized, Mr. Hoover said, it was believed their membership could be proved.

Deportation hearings and the shipment of the "reds" will be pushed, Mr. Hoover declared. A second, a third and as many other "soviet ark" as are necessary will be made ready as convictions proceed, he said, and deportations will not wait for the conclusion of all cases.

While about three-fourths of the aliens taken were Russians, many other nationalities were among the number, including Germans, Austrians, Hungarians, Lithuanians, Letts, Poles and Chinese.

The warrant prepared for the arrest of Louis Martens, "ambassador" of the Russian soviet government, Mr. Hoover said, would be served when Martens was released by the senate sub-committee investigating Bolshevik propaganda.

VIRTUAL EMBARGO PLACED UPON COAL TAR PRODUCTS

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—With amendments which virtually embargo importation of coal tar products and their derivatives, favorable action on the house "destuffs bill" was ordered today by a senate finance sub-committee which has conducted hearings.

As finally agreed upon, the licensing provision contained in the house bill was eliminated and instead the federal tariff commission was given authority to determine what drawbacks are to be admitted.

U.S. TO RECOGNIZE ARMENIAN REPUBLIC

Wallace Tells Ambassador of Plans of American Toward Turkish Treaty.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Jan. 26.—At the afternoon session of the council of ambassadors, which takes place of the supreme council, the American ambassador, Hugh C. Wallace, announced that the United States had decided to recognize the republic of Armenia, the boundaries of which will be defined by the Turkish treaty, and had also considered and approved the scheme, to break up German ships for distribution among the allies.

It had previously been agreed that Italy and France, in consideration of the fact that they were unable to build during the war, should keep five cruisers apiece. Subsequently a provision of the treaty of Versailles was discovered specifying that such vessels must be dismantled. Italy and France, wished to keep them intact, but the council ruled that the provision must be observed.

The next meeting will be held February 2.

COUNCIL TO CALL ELECTION FOR PARK

Would Provide Bond issue of $25,000 for Purchase Land Improvement.

City council last night decided to call a bond election in the near future to vote on providing for the purchase of $25,000 for the purchase and improvement of a park.

The matter, which was brought before council some time ago by the parks and playground bureau of the chamber of commerce was thoroughly discussed last evening. The bond issue will provide that not more than $25,000 shall be spent for a site, while $5,000 or any other additional sum left from the total issue will be used for improvement purposes this year.

Discussion was had at the same time as the question of the park was considered of providing for a $50,000 issue to build a library, but council decided that this was impossible at this time because the city has only $55,000 remaining available for bond purposes under the present valuation.

Council accepted three plans of addition to the city last evening. One was for the Olden addition, another for the Murtagh second addition, and the third for the East Lawn extension.

A petition was presented by residents of the Moorman addition asking council to extend Adams street through a lot in the addition. The petitioners were informed that if they could secure a necessary deed the city would be willing to make the extension. Request was made by other petitioners for a street-light on Poplar avenue. This was referred to the streets and alley committee with power to act.

Leitch & Williams asked council to authorize the extension of a water main from the corner of Buchanan and Heyburn north on Heyburn avenue. They were informed that the extension could be made if paid for by private funds.

Bids will be called for shortly by council on a motor sprinkler. Considerable discussion was had as to the advisability of securing such a sprinkler and it was the opinion of councilmen that the city could eventually pay the cost of the apparatus in savings by the elimination of horse-drawn sprinklers.

Mayor Eldridge, who was absent from the meeting, telephoned that many farmers were hitching horses to telephone poles and asked that council authorize more hitching racks. The best commissioners were ordered to do this.

A Mr. Huff announced that he had recently purchased lot 30, block 57 adjoining the city waterworks warehouse. He asked council to sell him an interest in the east wall to use for the site of a building, but was informed that the city could not do so but might lease the wall. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

YOUNGSTERS GIVE UNIQUE ANSWERS IN EXAMINATION

County Superintendent of Schools Britton Wolfe yesterday began the correcting of examination papers compiled by a large number of pupils throughout the county. As usual, many unique and amusing answers were given to the questions. One Miss declined the adjective "sick" as follows—sick, worse, dead. Another described a judge as a "man to whom people went when they couldn't find a lawyer." In answer to the question, "What is a Bohemian?" one young Miss answered—"I am not certain, but I think it is some sort of a coat."

He was well known by a number of Twin Falls people.

The building will cost approximately $40,000.

STATE FARM BUREAU MEETS FEBRUARY 9

W. F. Alworth and L. W. Coleman Making Preparations to Attend—To Discuss Many Questions.

W. F. Alworth, president of the State and County Farm Bureau associations, and L. W. Coleman, county agent, are making preparations to attending the annual meeting of the Idaho State Farm Bureau association to be held at Boise on February 9 and 10.

Many problems of interest to the county farm bureaus of the state will be brought up for consideration, including the matter of proposed affiliations with the American Federation of Farm Bureaus. This will be the most important problem to be settled at the state meeting. Sentiment favors affiliation with the national organization, but dues in the organization are said to be considered too high by Idaho farm bureau members. Officers for the ensuing year will also be selected for the coming meeting.

START RECLAMATION OF ZUYDER ZEE

Many Thousands of Acres of Fertile Land to Be Ready for Cultivation.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 24.—Work is to begin this year on the reclaiming of the Zuyder Zee, one of the world's greatest engineering projects, by which it is proposed to restore to Holland within 35 years what was once harnessed, but was taken away by the storms of many centuries.

When the work is finished, not only the original land will be restored but many thousands of acres which always have been beneath the sea will be ready for cultivation. According to pre-war estimates the entire work of reclaiming the Zuyder Zee would have cost approximately $18,800,000, but with the increased cost of labor and materials in the past six years, it is now believed the cost will be in excess of $125,000,000. The work will be done and paid for by the state, through special loans, and the state, through rental of the land, reclaimed, expects the scheme to pay for itself within a few years and thereafter yield a handsome revenue. The total amount of land to be reclaimed will be 827 square miles, which will constitute a twelfth province of Holland, capable of supporting a population of 300,000, and wherein several cities of ancient trading fame are expected to be restored to commercial importance.

The engineering work is now well under way.

Centuries ago, at the beginning of the Christian era, when the Romans had their settlements in Holland, much of the space now occupied by the Zuyder Zee was land and the south part of the present sea was a lake called Flevo. Northwest trending, it swept the North Sea, washing away the tract of dry land between the sea and the lake. One large shallow body of water—the Zuyder Zee—was formed.

The towns situated on its banks, through the merchantmen came in to their ports. But as ships became larger and of deeper draft, traffic was diverted to deeper seas, leaving the once famous towns on the Zuyder's shores now fishing villages, which they are now, while Amsterdam's commerce came to her through a canal leading direct to the North Sea.

Dr. A. A. Breckman, of The Hague, who has devoted nearly all his life to the ideal of reclaiming the Zuyder Zee, explained the plans to the Associated Press correspondent. He is now a member of the state council which will carry out the work. "The first thing to do," said Dr. Breckman, "is to construct a gigantic dike to keep out the North Sea. This will be 30 miles long, stretching from Wieringen to the Friesland coast, where the water ranges in depth from 32 to 11 feet. It will be everywhere 15 to 17 feet above the sea level. There will be a double track railway on top of the dike. Its construction will take nine years, and its cost, by pre-war estimates, will be more than $20,000,000.

"The total surface to be reclaimed is 827 square miles. There will remain a lake of 600 square miles, which will act as a reservoir during the periods when, owing to northwestern storms, the waters of the River Yssel and of the canals cannot be emptied into the North Sea. The water of the lake will be let out into the North Sea through five great sluices at the Wieringen end of the dike.

TORPEDO BOATS SOLD.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—Thirteen torpedo boat destroyers of the United States navy here have been sold to be scrapped.

The vessels are the Stewart, Hull, Lawrence, Paul Jones, Berry, Proctor, and others.

Truxton, Bainbridge, Barry, Dale, Decatur, Worden, and Whipple, and are in the basin of the Philadelphia navy yard.

All the destroyers, before the war, were units of the Asiatic, Pacific and Atlantic fleets. During the war they were in active service. The Decatur, it is reported, won two service chevrons.

This is the largest fleet ever purchased from the navy by a private concern. The ships were constructed between 1901 and 1906 and cost the government approximately $250,000 each. The purchase price in the present sale has not been announced, but it is understood to run into several hundred thousand dollars.

The purchasers will have the vessels transported to their property at Bridenbury, Pa., near here, on the Delaware river, where they will be dismantled.

Well, from all reports, How is the goods and he is coming over in good hands—Tom Andrews, veteran sports writer and manager of fighters. California objects to the Carpenter-Dempsey million-dollar spectacle—going to show that California is much like the other states. If the proposed fight was an affair of "sports for sports' sake" there would be little objection, but fight fans are well fed up on the high financing and gambling schemes of the promoters and the managers will feel the public's pulse they will get a distinct shock. And if they don't feel that said pulse and continue on their merry way they will get an even more severe shock when they settle up after the show.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Reports that the car supply in some sections west of here had become more plentiful tended today to ease the corn market. Prices closed heavy at the same as Saturday's finish to 3-4c lower, with May 1-4 to 1-5 3-5 and July 1-2 1-5 to 1-2 1-5. Oats lost 1-8c to 1-5c. In provisions, the outcome ranged from 25c decline to 50 cents advance.

At first, cold wave predictions together with a sharp advance in hog values gave the corn market an upward slant. There was a lack of aggressive buying, however, and the bears were soon able to force a reaction, largely through advices that an increase in the number of cars available at country stations was evident in Iowa and Nebraska. On the other hand, railroad outlets east of here remained closed. Weakness of wheat and rye exercised a further depressing influence on the corn market in the late dealings, and virtually no notice was taken of the fact that the cash visible supply total today was the smallest in 30 years.

Oats were governed by the changes in wheat. Most of the trade was local. In provisions, selling for stockyard interest more than offset hog market upturn. Besides, hard exports showed a falling off.

ENLISTED MEN ARE HONORED SAYS DANIELS

Secretary Submits List of 156 Men Given Medals From Department.

MORE SUCH AWARDS ARE EXPECTED, HE DECLARES

Threatened Democratic Filibuster Halts Hale's Effort To Get Counsel for the Committee.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Secretary Daniels made public a letter to Chairman Hale, of the senate subcommittee investigating naval war decoration awards, transmitting a list of awards made to enlisted men by the secretary, without reference to the Knight medal award board. It consists of 12 awards of distinguished service medals, the only instances, Mr. Daniels said, of such awards to enlisted men, and 144 navy cross awards. Chairman Hale was informed, also, that a list of awards to officers made by direction of the secretary, "without action of the board," was being compiled.

Secretary Daniels said that when the report of the board reached him, he noticed "that out of a half million men in the naval service during the war, only about 118 enlisted men had been recommended for the navy cross and none had been recommended for the distinguished service medal."

"I knew," the letter said, "that there were reports of brave and heroic action by many enlisted men as well as by many officers. I directed a study of these reports and as a result directed that distinguished service medals and navy crosses be awarded."

Mr. Daniels recalled his order asking the entire service personnel to report instances of courage or unusual service, and added:

"Many men whose deeds are yet unreported will be rewarded. No final action would be just without the information and recommendations requested from all officers and men."

Citations accompanying the list of awards show that the medals have been awarded not only to men on ships in the war zone, but also to several members of the naval hospital unit which served with the machine brigade in France.

eratic opposition blocked action today on the resolution introduced by Senator Hale, republican, authorizing employment of legal counsel and clerical assistance, for the subcommittee investigating naval war decorations and the navy's conduct of the war.

Senator Hale, chairman of the subcommittee, late today brought the resolution before the senate for the third time with a request for immediate consideration. A three-hour democratic filibuster, led by Senators Pittman of Nevada, and Walsh of Montana, caused him to withdraw the request with the announcement he would make it again tomorrow.

Secretary Daniels notified Chairman Hale today that it would be more convenient for him to begin his testimony on Friday instead of Thursday and the next session was set for that day.

EXAMINATION ENDED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A special senate naval committee, concluded examination today of Arthur T. Blevins, of the Providence Journal, in connection with charges by John R. Nathan, its editor, that a naval "vice squad" had been ordered by naval officers at Newport to commit nameless practices in an effort to incriminate officers.

Senator King, democrat, Utah, was engaged with another committee, and could not attend. After he has read the evidence of Mr. Nathan, the subcommittee will report to the full committee, which will decide whether to make an investigation.

MARTENS SAYS REDS TO STOP PROFITEERING

Strong Enough in Own Country Now to Whip the World, His Opinion.

CLAIMS TO HAVE LEFT U. S. BOLSHEVISTS ALONE

Government of Soviets Has Plenty of Gold, But Banks Are Without It, says Russian "Envoy."

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Soviet Russia, transformed by assured success of its leadership at home, is no longer fired by the missionary zeal which led its agents and emissaries during the first months of its existence to preach world wide revolution. Ludvig Martens, self-styled ambassador from that country, today told a senate committee.

The Soviet republic at present, Martens said, "does not care what kind of government other people have" and has indulged in general revolutionary propaganda only "when it was on the defensive" and hard pressed by nations which had fought in the field against "the world because it is 'strong enough to whip the world.' It has abandoned, he added, principles first promulgated to the effect that it can be maintained only by destruction of other governments which recognize property rights and capitalist organization.

that circles Mr. Houston is credited with having been willing to accept the treasury portfolio when William O. McAdoo resigned. Before entering the cabinet, Mr. Houston was a close friend of Mr. McAdoo and it is said that as secretary of agriculture has been along on the inside circle of the administration.

Up until today the name of Assistant Secretary Leffingwell was foremost among those being mentioned to succeed Secretary Glass.
