OUTLOOK BRIGHT ON WATER SUPPLY

Reports Indicate That Amount Will Be Stored in Jackson Lake This Spring.

Indications that the water supply for projects in the Snake River valley will be nearly normal this year are evident from the report just received from the superintendent at Jackson Lake reservoir.

The storage in the reservoir on January 31 was 108,250 acre-feet as compared with 282,360 acre-feet on the same date last year, but little snow has melted at Moran, Wyo., near the reservoir, amounted to 2.37 in January, while the total precipitation since September 1, 1919, amounts to 10.01 inches exceeding the average for this period since 1912.

There is more than five feet of snow on Lava Divide, while just six feet at Buffalo Divide. There is just two feet at Moran at the latest report. The snow is compact at most points. The cold dry spell was broken on January 20 and 21 and indications point to more snow at night.

L. W. W. MINERS IN BINGHAM UTAH GO OUT ON STRIKE

By the Associated Press. About 2,000 of the 5,000 men employed at the Bingham mines are said to be affiliated with the L. W. W. union and many more are expected to strike tomorrow when the time limit set for fulfillment of their demands will be up.

A conference of mine owners was held here today to discuss the situation but they refused to divulge what action was taken.

STATISTICS SHOW THAT 10,000,000 PEOPLE ARE SUPERSTITIOUS

A recent bulletin issued by the National Bureau of Research states that more than sixteen million persons of the United States and Canada, ranging in age from 16 to 60 years and of both sexes, fall to follow the dictates of their own minds in deciding the everyday happenings of life, but that they rely on fortune tellers, palmists, mediums, and readers, clairvoyants, phenicologists, astrologists, or others who profess to have power over the human destiny.

The remarkable statement of this research society goes on further to state that in this country alone there is a circulation of ten million Ouija boards. In this mystic little toy, men, women and children place their faith in future happiness and deeds of glory as well as disastrous happenings are attributed to the weird predictions of the Ouija.

Douglas Fairbanks is one of the ten million Ouija enthusiasts included in the findings of the research statistician. When the great question of future happiness, marriage, confronts him in his latest United Artists screen production "When the Clouds Roll By," which will be shown at the Orpheum theater soon, Douglas appeals to the Ouija and strange as it may seem the little felt-footed indicator furnishes the answer in its amazing manner.

1919 HEALTH RECORD.

Very few people have a good word to say for 1919. Just about all the troubles civilization is ever afflicted with seemed to have selected last year as their season of celebration. In one regard, however, it reported to have been a happy year.

The mortality reports for 1919 show that it was a record year for health. The large cities included in the Weekly Health Index issued by the United States Public Health Service had only three deaths as many deaths in 1919 as in 1918. New York and Chicago both report the lowest death rate in their history. A life insurance company with 12,000,000 policyholders reports the mortality among them 10 per cent lower than in 1918, and 17 per cent lower than in 1911.

It is estimated that population figures were simply estimates based on previous census reports. Also, hundreds of thousands of young men were still in national service, and although they were counted in population figures, their mortality records were counted in army and navy casualties and not in those of their home communities. A lower birth rate, too, helps to lessen the accuracy of the figures. Although the 1918 influenza epidemic had abated, it had not died out by any means. Sanitary authorities who based their prophecies on "flu" epidemics of the past anticipated an increase in tuberculosis and other diseases which seems not really to have materialized so seriously as to keep up the mortality rate.

The fact remains that the health record for last year stands as one item to the credit of 1919—and also to the credit of health officials and the people who both reached and practiced common-sense health precautions.

THE SPIRITS WOULD LAUGH.

No doubt the visit to this country of Sir Oliver Lodge, the world's best known advocate of survival after death, will do much to increase the spiritistic vogue in the United States. Sir Oliver Lodge's reputation as a physical scientist adds weight to his sanction of psychic phenomena, although there are no two things further apart than psychics and psychism. It does not necessarily give a man authority to one field merely to admit that he is authority in the other.

That he will add thousands of converts to spiritistic doctrine as a result of his tour without saying there are minds everywhere hungry for some satisfying word from the unseen shore. Lodge is convinced that he has been in communication with that dim land, and that it is not far journey. Death, he believes, is a transition, a mere incident, a moving from the state to another in consciousness—to a state that is in constant touch with the world as we know it.

It seems that most spiritists lack in a sense of humor. At least, they do not apply it as part of their paraphernalia in investigating the evidence of communication with those who have "passed over." All the spirits who have succeeded, according to the investigators, in communicating with the physical world, not only do now convey any adequate, or even important, information, but they never have done the things which would seem most likely to be the work of the spirits.

tion of their state, that they would do—that is, laugh at us.

Yes, really laugh! Because if death is such a slight accident, and the dead are so near to us, "round about us all the time, although unseen," as the spiritists tell us, surely they must be struck by the humor of humanity's age-long fear of death, and equally lengthy and zealous struggle to get into communication with the dead. If the dead know the riddle's answer, and are near enough to see and hear our efforts to solve the everlasting problem of what comes after, surely the first sound from the near but unseen shores would be a laugh—a reassuring laugh of mingled amusement, friendliness and pity.

CHEAPER CLOTHING.

At last there is a prospect of one of the important necessities of life going down. It is woolen clothing. At a time when the public is accustomed to a universal chorus of higher-priced prophecies from merchants and manufacturers, it is relieving to find the American Woolen Association, foretelling a decrease in the price of clothing, and giving convincing reasons for it.

The supply of raw is said to be nearing the normal. That in itself should make a noticeable lowering of the recent prices. More important still, perhaps, is the fact that the manufacturing equipment used so long in making army and navy cloth, constituting two-thirds of the cloth-making capacity of the mills of the country, is now back at work on the normal lines of the trade. The effect of this, the manufacturers say, should be felt very soon—as soon as the new stock reaches the tailors' shelves. Dealers, accordingly, are warned against holding back present stock in hope of higher prices. They may lose rather than gain by "holding on."

There has been, as yet, no authoritative statement of this sort regarding the cotton industry. Cotton manufacturing equipment, like woolen equipment, is now back in the trade, and if sufficient quantities of raw cotton are available, the natural consequence should be a greatly increased production, a relief of the widespread scarcity and a drop in prices.

THE FAMILY TAX BILL.

Congressman Luce, of Massachusetts estimates that federal taxation for the next fiscal year will amount to $550 a family for everybody in the United States.

If he is anywhere near right, it is likely that state and local taxes will bring the total to about $750 a family. That is, the tax bill, direct and indirect, of the hypothetical family." Some will pay thousands of times that much, and others a fraction of it. But no family will escape altogether, and perhaps, the majority will come nearer it than they themselves realize. A good deal of federal taxation is levied in the form of corporation taxes, excess profit taxes, internal revenue taxes and other forms of direct taxation, but it comes out of the family purse just the same.

Two dollars a day paid by the average family in taxes alone! Certainly here is an argument for greater economy in public expenditures and for greater interest in public affairs by the people who pay the bills.

If the presidential candidates could only get together in a grand free-for-all, and fight it out among themselves, what a lot of trouble they would save the country! Still, the public might not like it. The American people dote on political trouble.

Another thing that might be done with that 60,000,000 of left-over whiskey: Save it till it's good and ripe, then sell it by special act of congress, and pay the national debt with the proceeds.

Any town that is disappointed by the census returns need not repine. All it has to do is to explain that quality of citizenship is more important than mere numbers.

FIVE DEATHS RESULT OF INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

Mrs. Laura May Booth and baby were the next victims. Passing away yesterday. Funeral services will be held today.

LEGION CONVENTION TO BE HELD DURING APRIL

Taylor "Dummit" returned yesterday from Boise where he attended the executive committee of the Idaho department of the American Legion. The committee decided that the state convention will be held on April 7, 8 and 9.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The French club will put on a local talent play at the assembly, to be held Wednesday, Feb. 11.

It was announced yesterday that health conditions had improved considerably as affected the attendance at the Twin Falls high school. M. C. Mitchell, principal of that institution said that 60 of those who had been forced to leave their studies on account of sickness, were again enrolled.

Practice is to be resumed again by the high school band and orchestra now that Mr. Bainbridge, their instructor, has recovered from his illness, which had confined him at home for several days.

TWO FINED FOR CRUELTY.

H. C. Crest and C. H. Brown were fined $10 each yesterday by Police Judge Minnick after being found guilty of cruelty to a horse. The complaint was made by Chief Taylor. According to testimony the animal became balky and a chain was tied round its neck and two horses used to drag it from the basement of the new Elks building.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED.

The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon by a small blaze in a house on Second avenue south, adjoining the Hotel Oregon. A small hole was burned in the roof. The building owned by E. M. Lamb is occupied by Mexicans. The cause of the blaze has not been ascertained.

DIEVES OVER HOSE, FINED.

Alton B. Williams was yesterday fined $10 and costs by Police Judge Minnick for driving over a fire hose.

Among those wounded were: J. W. Russell, W. J. Rees, Otto Sharp, Emmett Dozier, Irwin, Gwynn, Emmett Jansinger, Fred Swenson, H. C. Weather, Mrs. E. T. Cross and James Macneil.

Followed in its first attempt to get the prisoner, the mob broke up into small groups which paid hurried visits to all the pawn shops and hardware stores in a quest for firearms. In some stores as many as 50 or 60 revolvers and guns were seized.

Lockets arrest, indictment, trial and sentence to new prison for rapacity in Kentucky. He was arrested last Tuesday night, indicted Friday and was tried, found guilty and sentenced in a few minutes today. Under his sentence he will die in the electric chair March 11.

The little, black girl's body was found mutilated in a corn field last Tuesday morning soon after she had left her home for school. Her head had been crushed in with a stone and her body partially covered up with corn stalks.

Lockets, recently discharged from the army, was suspected and prison were formed immediately to look for him. He was found at the home of a friend six miles from the scene of the murder late that night. Police announced that the negro had confessed to the murder, adding that he "didn't know" why he had killed the girl.

have prepared a re-statement of their case for submission tomorrow to the U. S. court. An effort to discuss the contents but it was understood to be counter to the position to the views of Mr. Hines as thus far laid before the conference.

The conference held only a brief session today for the reason that preparations of the union argument and claims had not been completed. Not all of the workers representatives attended the conference and discussion was limited to some details.

OFFICIALS WITH HINES

Director General Hines was reported tonight to have received recommendations from certain other officials as to the wage demands of the railroad employees to be refused. Mr. Hines' previously announced attitude that no increases could be granted was said to have been held by some of these officials to be proper even though living costs had not come down. The railroad will go back to their owners within less than three weeks and the views given the railroad administration from most government quarters, were that, in fairness to the owners, a general wage increase should not be made on these terms.

The further argument was said to have been advanced that any increases in wages would bring higher freight and passenger rates, and interstate commerce commission officials have declared that the general public would then strenuously protest against the rate increases. Officials have held that if rates can be held at their present level, it will be a check on living costs if not an aid to reducing them.

Neither side in the negotiations would say definitely that tomorrow morning the conference would be productive of a settlement because of the arguments which have been injected from several sources, according to officials. All of these will have to be thrashed out and it was declared the union conference might have further things to say before the government's case is again stated.

Railroad administration officials denied reports that Mr. Hines had asked officials for the railroad corporations to which the roads soon will be returned for an expression as to any changes in wage agreements. The matter was instituted by Mr. Hines and he has been careful, it was explained, to avoid suggestions from the railroad officials because of entanglements to which they might lead.

VIOLATES AGREEMENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Action of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers in calling a strike of its membership was declared by railroad administration officials to be a violation of the union wage agreement. The agreement was said to provide that no strike calls shall be issued without giving the railroad administration 30 days notice. It was declared the railroad administration had received no official information of the union's grievances and the strike call was not only eight days ahead.

URGENT RETENTION OF POSTAL AIRPLANE MAIL SERVICE.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Retention of the postal airplane service for which the house recently provided funds, was urged before the senate postoffice committee today by Second Assistant Postmaster General Praeger. He asked that $3,400,000 be provided for service on routes from New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Detroit, Washington, Cleveland, Toledo, St. Louis, Atlanta, St. Paul and Minneapolis. He also asked other funds for private airplane mail contracts on branch routes.

A powerful mail plane, Mr. Praeger stated, is being developed to carry mail over the mountains to San Francisco, and a new British triplane is to be tried out between Chicago and Omaha.

For the first time in this country snow skis are being used on mail planes. Mr. Praeger stated, to facilitate landings.

NEWBERRY ESTATE HELPED CAMPAIGN

Evidence Introduced - That $350 Debit Was Made Up After Election Was Held.

By the Associated Press.
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 9.—
Senator Truman H. Newberry's correspondence regarding the Gold Star campaign, organized by Thomas J. O'Brien, former ambassador to Japan, and other citizens of Grand Rapids, was introduced as evidence today in the trial of the senator and 122 others on charges of conspiracy in the 1918 election. In addition there was a telegram from Frederick P. Smith, manager of the Newberry estate in Detroit, to Commander Newberry in New York regarding election expense and another of the defendants, was quoted as saying before the general election: "We are going to get a real barrel this time."

The letter which mentioned Ambassador O'Brien were introduced while Claude T. Hamilton, chairman of the Kentucky county republican committee, was on the stand. The defense tried vainly to exclude them because they were written in September, 1919, more than a year after the election.

The first letter, mailed to Washington by Hamilton September 13, 1919,
said that the county committee's budget had been exceeded in the campaign of the year before and that Hamilton "had to put up for the deficiency." It continued, in part:

"We formed the Gold Star club, sending out a letter to each soldier's family in the county. This letter was signed by members who had lost sons or relatives in the war. It had a tremendous influence and was exclusively for the senatorial campaign. The cost was $150 and I would be very glad if you would see that this was refunded."

The letter said that "Ambassador O'Brien, who is now in Washington, was running with this matter, in fact,
he served on the sub-committee,
which put this over."

Senator Newberry replied five days
later:

"It seems that I should not contribute . . . as I subscribed to the state central committee all that the law allows."

He added that he would consult Ambassador O'Brien "and see if some friend can be found" to help. The correspondence indicated that the senator and ambassador did not meet and Hamilton wrote:

"I understand the circumstances and if you wish to make a contribution of $150 to this Gold Star republican committee, I would be very glad to have you do so."

A few days later Hamilton said he received from Detroit a check for $350 signed by the Newberry estate.

"Did you reimburse yourself for the $350?" asked Mr. Day.

"No sir, I put up for a deficit which amounted altogether to $500."

"What did you do with the check?"

"I cashed it."

"Where did the money go?"

"To me."

On cross-examination Hamilton could not remember that the check was signed by Frederick P. Smith, attorney, in fact."

He identified the voucher which he received as chairman of the county committee.

The Smith-Newberry telegram was dated August 3, 1915, and reportedly was sent this morning
the day of close of regular expenses.
Should have said August 27. Circular work, advertising, clerical help, postage and all regular overhead expenses will naturally continue until primary. Have written."

Leo A. Barry of Baraga, formerly of Kallispell, Mont., and several places in British Columbia and the Pacific northwest, drew the longest fire of the defense with his "barrel" testimony. He described the remark to James F. McGregor, a Newberry field agent in northern Michigan.

McGregor said Barry walked into the office of a hotel in Munising some time after the Newberry committee had reported expenditures of $176,000.
In the primary campaign, and said to George Harding: "George, I am going down to New York Friday night to see the commodore."

"Well, Jim," replied Harding, according to the witness, "get more than $176,000."

"Oh, we are going to get a barrel
this time" was Barry's version of Mc-Gregor's reply.

DEMOCRATS IN HOUSE

REBEL; QUIT WILSON

the resolution recording the democrats against universal training.
Speakers did not discriminate between universal training and service
—the latter including the enrollment of the youths into the army—and as finally adopted the resolution as so changed as to declare opposition of both.

Though the debate was held close to the issue before the caucus, frequent references to the president and Secretary Baker were injected into the discussion. Representative Kitchin declared "with all due deference to these officials, he believed there could be no objection to the house stating its position, especially since both officials had "put the party on record" by announcing attitude.

Mr. Kitchin in explanation of the president's stand, told his colleague that Mr. Wilson's illness had "unfortunately" removed the executive from an intimate touch with national affairs and sentiment. In this connection, he read a telegram from Representative Ferris, Oklahoma,
chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committee, declaring the "country is opposed to universal training."

The opinion of Mr. Ferris was cited by Mr. Kitchin as that of one who "knows the feeling of every district in the country," which prompted a response from the floor "Yes, Ferris is running for the senate."

Taking up the attack started by the North Carolina member, Representative Flood declared it was "all right" to talk of waiting for the national convention, but he added that the convention "might get the idea we are for training" by the silence of house members.

Answering both these speeches,
Representative Caldwell declared that every part of the American legion by the action today at Indianapolis had gone on record in favor of universal training. He urged that political expediency favor a declaration of such training, rather than a stand against it. Representative Ol-ney, Massachusetts and Fisher, Tennessee, both democrats of the house military committee, along with Mr.
Caldwell also urged no action at present, but the other democratic committeemen opposed them or remained silent.

More than a score of democrats joined in the debate, but few added substantially to the statement of the leaders in the fight. Some opposition was manifest against universal training on the ground that too many youths would be called from farm and industrial pursuits, curtailing production, which was said to be the cause of unemployment and the cause of universal training.

not confined to the democratic caucus. In the senate, during the day
Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, declared that the system would open the way to a "military oligarchy," while in a formal statement, Senator Gore, democrat, Oklahoma, declared the training would prove
"the end of militarism." Classroom discussion among both democrats and publicans also reflected varying feelings toward the plan, while in the house Representative Kahn, republican, made public a letter from the army recruiting service declaring that more than 150,000 recruits would be needed this year to maintain the army at its authorized strength.

The Seventeen Wilson Men.
Though record votes were taken in the democratic caucus, those were not made public. The 17, however, who voted against declaration of the stand of the house, democrats were understood to have been Representatives Bee, Texas; Caldwell, New York;
Campbell, Pennsylvania; Cantrell,
Kentucky; Carter, Oklahoma; Doremus, Michigan; Dupre, Louisiana;

LEGION FOR TRAINING

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 9.—

The Wadsworth army re-organization bill, carrying a provision for universal military training will be supported by the American legion, with modifications, it was announced tonight at the close of a conference of state commanders of the legion. After an all-day discussion of the bill, National Commander Franklin d'Olier was authorized to appoint a committee to co-operate with the leg-ion's legislative committee and present the suggestions of the conference to congress.

During the session a telegram was sent to the chairman of the caucus of democratic members of the house of representatives in Washington, announcing the legion's support of the bill and this message was supported by several messages from state commanders to representatives of their respective states who were attending the caucus. The telegram to the caucus chairman stated that the conference of state commanders unanimously endorsed the military policy laid down in resolutions passed at the national convention of the legion, which included universal military training and also contained an outline of other provisions which the legion favors for incorporation in the army reorganization bill.

These provisions, classed as modifications, include elimination of control of the military establishment by any exclusive military organization or case, provision for a thorough house cleaning of inefficient officers and methods, preservation of the national guard, democratization of the general staff and insurance of a military system based on democratic and American principles of obligation and opportunity for all. Another change recommended would provide that an appointee to the United States military academy must first have served his initial training period of four months, three years in the national guard or one year in the regular army.

Thomas W. Miller, chairman of the legislative committee, said with Mr.

dell's statement in that the training system
in the Wads worth bill would actually cost but $645,000, including the cost of maintaining regular army.

Make Sure of Your Water Supply This Year

Much water is wasted annually in irrigation ditches and flumes.
During the hot, dry summer this water must be conserved to insure your crop success.
Irrigation experts know the value of wood pipe. With it there is little waste of water.

More Durable Than Iron Pipe

AMERICAN QUALITY wood pipe is made of best grade Washington Yellow Fir and comes in two varieties—machine-banded and continuous stave. This fir has high tensile strength and well-known lasting qualities, and because it is hard it prevents compression of the iron bands into the staves. Either machine-banded or continuous stave may be had in all desirable sizes.

And It's Inexpensive to Install

Wood pipe is not expensive to lay down. For the complete installation it costs less than iron pipe and about the same as ordinary flumes. Stocks of wood pipe will be carried at the following Boise Payette yards: Bliss, Jerome, Twin Falls, Wendell and Weiser. Ask the manager of any Boise Payette yard about wood pipe for irrigation. He will see that you get prompt service.

PROPOSE CHANGES IN BASEBALL RULES

Adopt New Legislation on International Pass, Home Runs and Freak Deliveries.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Chicago occupied the spotlight today in the baseball world as officials of five leagues were here. Two leagues held their annual meetings and the National and American leagues met in an extended session to amend the playing rules.

The American association at its meeting adopted a schedule, while the three I league expanded its circuit from a six to an eight-city league, decided on a schedule of 140 games and re-elected President A. R. Toney for five years.

The rules committee adopted numerous amendments to the playing code and also added a number of changes to the scoring rules which were submitted by the Baseball Writers' association.

Chief among the rules was those relating to the home run, the intent without the ball in his possession, or and legislation regarding the freak deliveries of pitchers.

In all 19 rules were amended and one added.

The addition to the rules, dealing with the intentional pass, which declares it to be illegal for the catcher to step from his box to aid the pitcher in pitching wide to the batsman. This rule was amended and adopted by the rules committee, says:

"It shall be illegal for the catcher to leave his natural position immediately and directly back of the plate for the purpose of aiding the pitcher to intentionally give a base on balls to the batsman. If the catcher shall move out of position prior to the time the ball leaves the pitcher's hand all runners who may be on bases shall be entitled to advance one base."

The rule covering the home run says that when a player knocks the ball into the stands or the crowd on fair ground, he shall be given credit for a home run if he completes the circuit and all runners shall score ahead of him. In passing this rule, the committee argued it would increase the number of home runs a season and also work to the batter's advantage. The rule was amended, says:

"Provided that if a batsman, in the last half of the final inning of any game, hits a home run over the fence or into the stand, all runners on the bases at the time, as well as the batsman, shall be entitled to score, and, in such event, the final score of the game, shall be the total number of runs made."

In explaining this rule, President Heydler of the National league said: "If the score should be nothing to nothing in the final half of the ninth inning and the bases were all occupied and the batsman knocked a ball into the stand, all runners would score and the final score would be 9 to 0."

The amendment dealing with the "balk" reads:

"Any motion to pitch while standing in his position without having the ball in his possession; or regardless of whether he makes any motion to pitch or not, if the pitcher takes a legal position on the rubber and he takes a pitching position off the rubber and fails to deliver the ball to the bat, it shall be called a 'balk.'"

Several additions are also added to this rule, one of which declared that the ball shall be declared "a dead" ball and no play can be made until the runner or runners reach the base or bases they are entitled to.

In dealing with the "dead" ball, the code was amended to read:

"A dead ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the pitcher, not struck at by the batsman, that touches any part of the batsman's person or clothing while he is standing in his position, or (2) a wildly pitched ball which the batsman plainly makes an attempt to dodge to avoid being hit, but which ball accidentally hits his bat."

The fight on the freak deliveries occupied the greater part of the meeting. The board of directors of the American league adopted a rule which legislates such deliveries from the league after the season of 1920.

When the rules committee took up this rule, the National league members declared they thought some club would have more than two spitball pitchers, the number passed upon by the American league. Finally it was agreed to amend the rule as follows:

"At no time during the progress of the game shall the pitcher be allowed to (1) apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball; (2) expectorate either on the ball or his glove; (3) to rub the ball on his glove, person or clothing; or (4) to deface the ball in any manner or to deliver what is called the 'shine' ball, 'spit' ball, mud ball or emery ball. For a violation of this rule the pitcher shall be ordered from the game, and be barred from participation in any championship contest for a period of ten days."

In adopting the foregoing rule against freak deliveries it was understood and agreed that all bonfire spitball pitchers listed by the club owners and presented to the heads of the two major leagues prior to starting of the season, should have only the season of 1920 to use the so-called delivery, after which it will not be permitted in the leagues.

Realizing the importance of recruiting ball players for the big leagues, one of those present presented the argument of a smaller diamond for boys under 16 years of age. His argument was based upon the fact that boys today attempt to play the national game on the regulation diamond and as a result it is impossible to develop.

The committee adopted a rule establishing an official diamond for juniors. The new diamond will be 82 feet between bases and the pitching rubber 60 feet from the plate.

The rules as adopted by the committee will be ratified by the meeting of the National and American leagues tomorrow.

LEONARD BEATS DUNDEE.
JERREY CITY, N. J., Feb. 9.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight boxing champion, outfought Johnny Dundee of New York, in every round of an eight-round bout here tonight. Dundee put up a stiff battle but the champion outpunched him throughout. Leonard weighed 138½ and Dundee 131½.

MCLEAN EXPLAINS DEFEAT.
CHRISTIANIA, Feb. 9.—Robert McLean, of Chicago, who lost the world's ice skating championship yesterday to Oscar Mathiesen, of Christiania, stated today that his mistake in taking the wrong course in the 10,000 metre race, was caused by an official giving an incorrect signal at the curve. McLean and his manager say that moving pictures of the events will prove where the fault lies.

Supporters of McLean claim that his sprint after his momentary stoppage at the outset of the long race when he realized he was on the wrong course, exhausted him. McLean plans to go to Stockholm, where he will try to lower some of the world's records.

"BABE" STILL WANTS CUT.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 9.—"Babe" Ruth announced today that he would attempt to obtain $15,000, of the $25,000 which the Boston Americans are said to have received for his release to the New York Americans. Returning here from the Pacific coast, Ruth said he had no intention of making trouble; that he would sign with the Yankees at the salary agreed on, reported to be $18,000 a year, but that he would endeavor to get a part of his purchase from the Boston club.

EVANS THROWS GILLS.
MITCHELL, S. D., Feb. 9.—Bob Evans of Sioux Falls, a claimant of the South Dakota wrestling championship threw Roy Gills of Sioux City, who claims the same title in Iowa, here tonight in 25 minutes in a one-fall match. Evans won with an arm bar and an arm scissor.

UNREST IS EVIDENT IN FAR EAST; PRINT MAGAZINE.
MUKDEN — Indications of the unrest in the far east is found in the appearance here of a new magazine, edited by Japanese and called Great Asia. The announced purpose of the new publication is to create a pan-Asiatic movement by the formation of an "Asiatic league, the aim of which will be to endeavor to arouse the hundreds of millions of Asia to a sense of the wrongs and injustices they suffer in consequence of the oppression of the white races of Europe and America."

Articles that appear in the current issue of Great Asia are abusive of Great Britain and America. Asiatics are admonished that "if they are to be saved from their thralldom it will not be as the result of the non-Asiatic people, but by the enthusiastic efforts of the yellow races to win their freedom." The articles are printed in Chinese, Japanese, Mongolian, Turki and what is described as Tartar. The league claims a membership at present of 5,800, with branches at Dairen, Calcutta and Constantinople. Its officers are Japanese.

ENGLISH WOMAN GLAD TO BE CALLED A VICTORIAN.
LONDON — "The present-day middle-class girl is being spoiled, she is lazy, restless, pleasure-seeking and egotistical, but a better time than any other woman in the world, but she is never satisfied," accuses a woman writing to the London Daily News over the signature "Victorian."

"The young married woman of today appears to think that she is the only woman who has ever had any domestic difficulties or had to do any work," she writes. "The fact is of course, that she has had a far easier time than women had in my day."

"In those days we didn't grumble, or look upon ourselves as victims. We didn't talk about any 'revolt of housewives,' or 'worry our husbands to death with demands for a better life without the formality of a time. We worked hard and cheerfully. The Democratic reports of this fully, did without luxuries and expensive holidays, and brought up all sorts of excuses for their large families without considering the waste of money and the strain on the nerves."

"The trouble is that the present-day middle-class girl is spoiled. Usually, she dislikes children, and resents having to give up any time looking after them. She would rather play bridge than hear a child's prayers."

"The more I see of young married women today, and the more I hear of their constant grumbling, the more proud I am to be called an old Victorian."

THE BOYS IN THE OTHER CAR

same, hits a home run over the fence or into the stand, all runners on the bases at the time, as well as the batsman, shall be entitled to score, and, in such event, the final score of the game, shall be the total number of runs made."

In explaining this rule, President Heydler of the National league said: "If the score should be nothing to nothing in the final half of the ninth inning and the bases were all occupied and the batsman knocked a ball into the stand, all runners would score and the final score would be 9 to 0."

The amendment dealing with the "balk" reads:

"Any motion to pitch while standing in his position without having the ball in his possession; or regardless of whether he makes any motion to pitch or not, if the pitcher takes a legal position on the rubber and he takes a pitching position off the rubber and fails to deliver the ball to the bat, it shall be called a 'balk.'"

Several additions are also added to this rule, one of which declared that the ball shall be declared "a dead" ball and no play can be made until the runner or runners reach the base or bases they are entitled to.

In dealing with the "dead" ball, the code was amended to read:

"A dead ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the pitcher, not struck at by the batsman, that touches any part of the batsman's person or clothing while he is standing in his position, or (2) a wildly pitched ball which the batsman plainly makes an attempt to dodge to avoid being hit, but which ball accidentally hits his bat."

The fight on the freak deliveries occupied the greater part of the meeting. The board of directors of the American league adopted a rule which legislates such deliveries from the league after the season of 1920.

When the rules committee took up this rule, the National league members declared they thought some club would have more than two spitball pitchers, the number passed upon by the American league. Finally it was agreed to amend the rule as follows:

"At no time during the progress of the game shall the pitcher be allowed to (1) apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball; (2) expectorate either on the ball or his glove; (3) to rub the ball on his glove, person or clothing; or (4) to deface the ball in any manner or to deliver what is called the 'shine' ball, 'spit' ball, mud ball or emery ball. For a violation of this rule the pitcher shall be ordered from the game, and be barred from participation in any championship contest for a period of ten days."

In adopting the foregoing rule against freak deliveries it was understood and agreed that all bonfire spitball pitchers listed by the club owners and presented to the heads of the two major leagues prior to starting of the season, should have only the season of 1920 to use the so-called delivery, after which it will not be permitted in the leagues.

Realizing the importance of recruiting ball players for the big leagues, one of those present presented the argument of a smaller diamond for boys under 16 years of age. His argument was based upon the fact that boys today attempt to play the national game on the regulation diamond and as a result it is impossible to develop.

The committee adopted a rule establishing an official diamond for juniors. The new diamond will be 82 feet between bases and the pitching rubber 60 feet from the plate.

The rules as adopted by the committee will be ratified by the meeting of the National and American leagues tomorrow.

LEONARD BEATS DUNDEE.
JERREY CITY, N. J., Feb. 9.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight boxing champion, outfought Johnny Dundee of New York, in every round of an eight-round bout here tonight. Dundee put up a stiff battle but the champion outpunched him throughout. Leonard weighed 138½ and Dundee 131½.

MCLEAN EXPLAINS DEFEAT.
CHRISTIANIA, Feb. 9.—Robert McLean, of Chicago, who lost the world's ice skating championship yesterday to Oscar Mathiesen, of Christiania, stated today that his mistake in taking the wrong course in the 10,000 metre race, was caused by an official giving an incorrect signal at the curve. McLean and his manager say that moving pictures of the events will prove where the fault lies.

Supporters of McLean claim that his sprint after his momentary stoppage at the outset of the long race when he realized he was on the wrong course, exhausted him. McLean plans to go to Stockholm, where he will try to lower some of the world's records.

"BABE" STILL WANTS CUT.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 9.—"Babe" Ruth announced today that he would attempt to obtain $15,000, of the $25,000 which the Boston Americans are said to have received for his release to the New York Americans. Returning here from the Pacific coast, Ruth said he had no intention of making trouble; that he would sign with the Yankees at the salary agreed on, reported to be $18,000 a year, but that he would endeavor to get a part of his purchase from the Boston club.

UNREST IS EVIDENT IN FAR EAST; PRINT MAGAZINE.
MUKDEN — Indications of the unrest in the far east is found in the appearance here of a new magazine, edited by Japanese and called Great Asia. The announced purpose of the new publication is to create a pan-Asiatic movement by the formation of an "Asiatic league, the aim of which will be to endeavor to arouse the hundreds of millions of Asia to a sense of the wrongs and injustices they suffer in consequence of the oppression of the white races of Europe and America."

Articles that appear in the current issue of Great Asia are abusive of Great Britain and America. Asiatics are admonished that "if they are to be saved from their thralldom it will not be as the result of the non-Asiatic people, but by the enthusiastic efforts of the yellow races to win their freedom." The articles are printed in Chinese, Japanese, Mongolian, Turki and what is described as Tartar. The league claims a membership at present of 5,800, with branches at Dairen, Calcutta and Constantinople. Its officers are Japanese.

LONDON — "The present-day middle-class girl is being spoiled, she is lazy, restless, pleasure-seeking and egotistical, but a better time than any other woman in the world, but she is never satisfied," accuses a woman writing to the London Daily News over the signature "Victorian."

"The young married woman of today appears to think that she is the only woman who has ever had any domestic difficulties or had to do any work," she writes. "The fact is of course, that she has had a far easier time than women had in my day."

"In those days we didn't grumble, or look upon ourselves as victims. We didn't talk about any 'revolt of housewives,' or 'worry our husbands to death with demands for a better life without the formality of a time. We worked hard and cheerfully. The Democratic reports of this fully, did without luxuries and expensive holidays, and brought up all sorts of excuses for their large families without considering the waste of money and the strain on the nerves."

"The trouble is that the present-day middle-class girl is spoiled. Usually, she dislikes children, and resents having to give up any time looking after them. She would rather play bridge than hear a child's prayers."

"The more I see of young married women today, and the more I hear of their constant grumbling, the more proud I am to be called an old Victorian."

TO GO TO CUBA.—The best mothers in London's East Side, the poor district, are Jewish, in the opinion of Dr. Saleeby, chairman of the medical high rate commission, as expressed in an address at University college. Dr. Saleeby added that Irish mothers were not a bad second, and that the English ranked as a very bad third.

He explained that in the case of the Jewish and Irish mothers this was a direct result of race ethics. Bred feeding was virtually universal among Jews; and there was a minimum of that dreadful disease arising from immorality. He declared that infant mortality was not really a medical problem, but a social problem of motherhood and a question of racial morals.

During his address Dr. Saleeby quoted figures showing that despite bad housing, bad sanitation and virtually no child welfare efforts, the infant mortality in western Ireland was only about 25 in 1,000, as compared 125 in 1,000 in Berkshire, England, which has the best equipment for infant welfare in the world.

FIGHT LIQUOR ON TWO LINES IN N. J.

Edwards Seeks to Have Legislature Vindicate the Eighteenth Amendment

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 7.—The battle in New Jersey, led by Governor Edward I. Edwards, for state rights against constitutional prohibition, is being fought along two lines: An effort to induce the legislature to contest the validity of the eighteenth amendment in the United States supreme court and to enact a law providing for the sale in New Jersey of beverages containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Steps necessary to fight the prohibition amendment in the supreme court have been considered in conference between the new governor and the state attorney general. Two bills have been introduced in the legislature, one to permit the sale of beverages with four per cent of alcohol content and the other two per cent.

Governor Edwards was elected on an issue of "personal liberty." He gave a pledge in his campaign to insist that the right of the people of New Jersey to say how they should live. His attempt, to fulfill that pledge, has made this state one of the few remaining battlegrounds for the right of a man to buy a drink and has attracted attention throughout the country.

The governor, in attempting to assert and maintain the sovereign rights of the state against federal prohibition, must first win a legislative controlled by the "republican" party, while he is a democrat. New Jersey not only failed to ratify the federal prohibition amendment, together with Rhode Island and Connecticut, but went further than any other state in the union and its legislature abominably rejected the amendment. The governor has urged the legislature to refrain in its present session from now giving its ratification.

Although Governor Edwards holds liberal personal views concerning the use of intoxicants, his friends say he has not taken a drink of intoxicating liquor in more than thirty years, upon advice of his physician.

Edwards is a man of action rather than an orator, but in his campaign, made an impression in his speeches by directness and frankness. He is considered a staunch party organization man, of more than average business ability; tolerant and loyal; a home-loving man, one whose greatest pleasure in life is playing games with his little grandchildren. His home is in New Jersey. He is 55 years old, president of the First National bank of Jersey City, served for six years as state controller, for which office he established a "pay-as-you-go policy" for New Jersey, and for about one year was state senator. He is married and has one son, Captain Edward I. Edwards, Jr., who served overseas in the war, and a daughter. He is a vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Jersey City.

Peace Treaty Brought Back
Into the Senate for Discussion by Big Vote.

ELIMINATE CLOTURE BY TECHNICAL OPERATION

Referred Back to Foreign Relations Committee—Irreconcilables Remain Irreconcilable.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9. — The peace treaty was formally brought back into the open senate today, but as soon as parliamentary barriers to its consideration had been removed it was put aside again for a period of waiting which the leaders said would last at least a week.

Suspending its rules by a bi-partisan majority of seven to one and virtually without debate, the senate reconsidered in short order the action by which ratification failed on November 19 and then, as a matter of formality, sent the treaty to the foreign relations committee with instructions to report it back at once with the reservations framed by the republicans at the last session of congress.

The committee expects to act tomorrow, but it was announced tonight that Senator Lodge would ask that the report be not taken up for consideration until next week. Urgent legislative matters, it was said, including appropriations and tariff legislation, were expected to occupy the senate's time in the interval.

Follows Agreed Program.
The complicated technical operation of taking the treaty from the floor and recommitting it was accomplished in accordance with a program previously agreed on by republican and democratic leaders.

and with no one but the irreconcilables foes of ratification taking a vote in opposition. The debate was kept strictly to parliamentary questions, and was of short duration, disappointing the largest crowd which has gathered in the senate galleries since the treaty was laid aside in November.

Thirty-four democrats and 29 republicans voted to suspend the senate rules so that the treaty again could be considered, while nine republicans, all of them of the irreconcilable group, voted against. The action was taken on a motion of Senator Lodge after one of the irreconcilables, Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, had blocked suspension of the rules by unanimous consent.

Treaty Goes to Committee.
By acclamation, and again on the motion of the republican leader, the senate then ordered re-consideration of its previous roll call on ratification and sent the treaty to a committee. The latter step, it was explained, was taken to abrogate the cloture which was imposed last session and which Vice President Marshall held must come back into the senate with the treaty.

Only two roll calls were taken, one on the motion to suspend the rules and another on sustaining the vice president when he overruled Senator Norris' point of order against the motion to reconsider the ratification vote. The latter resulted in a count of 62 to 10, the irreconcilables alone refusing to back up the ruling of the chair. Later Senator Norris made a speech bitterly criticizing the parliamentary maneuver by which the treaty's reconsideration was accomplished.

In asking that the committee be instructed to return the republican reservations along with the treaty, Senator Lodge declared the stipulation would bind no one and was requested merely to get the reservations back before the senate for possible revision. When that has been done, the republican leadership is expected to propose modifications agreed on by the disbanded bi-partisan compromise conference, thus opening again the whole field of compromise discussion. In all quarters it was emphasized tonight that the smoothness of the days proceedings was not to be taken as assuring any agreement between the parties on reservations. Although many senators professed to be very hopeful of ratification, it was conceded everywhere that many differences still stood in the way. There were evidences also that the irreconcilable group had plans of its own to magnify these differences as much as possible.

TO BE TRIED FOR INSANITY.
Joe Leonard, who lives at the Waverly hotel, will be given a hearing in probate court this morning on a charge of insanity.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO OPEN SUNDAY SHOWS

Vote of Mayor Eldridge Breaks
Deadlock—Other Business
Before Council.

By the vote of Mayor Eldridge breaking the tie council last night refused to grant the picture shows right to operate on Sunday and refused to call an election to determine the popular will upon the question.

The action was taken after midnight. Early in the evening a compromise was presented to council, and arguments were heard on the question from C. L. Munson for the re-nuancement and from R. H. Stevenson for the original petitioners. Council then tied the matter by overruling other business had been dispatched, when it was brought up for action.

Councilman Breckenridge moved that the petition be rejected. Councilman Channell offered a substitute motion providing that the matter be referred to the people for an expression, the election to be held jointly with the election on the park bond question. This motion was seconded by Councilman Russell. The vote stood a tie, Breckenridge and McMartin voting against the substitute motion and Channell and Russell for it. It was then that Mayor Eldridge voted against the substitute motion, breaking the tie and defeating in effect the prayer of the petition. Councilman Breckenridge maintained that as the petitions did not pray for an election, it was out of order, but contention of those for opening of the play houses was to the effect that the election was after all but a guide to council, and hence in error.

Mr. Munson of the petitioners had agreed to the plan for a call of the election.

L. G. Kirkman appeared before council seeking the closing of all public amusement places because of the number of deaths from influenza during the past few days. Dr. McGinnis, county physician, was called before council and declared that there was no need for such action, asserting that the best public health opinion was against such a plan. Council refused to follow Mr. Kirkman's suggestion.

Two hours were spent by council in discussing the proposed meat inspection ordinance. There was much discussion as to the advisability of combining this work with that of milk inspection. The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Council set date for the bond election for the park on March 23. Council went on record as favoring continuation of federal road work. A letter of approval of this work was forwarded to Idaho's congressional representation.

The city has purchased a five-ton flume truck. Delivery to be made in 60 days.

Announcement was made that the city will commence the work on the Eighth avenue conduit this morning. The conduit will be reinforced concrete.

South Park will be given seven lights on recommendation of the city engineer.

MASTER PLUMBERS ARE DOING THEIR OWN WORK

All plumbers are out in Twin Falls and master plumbers are handling the work themselves with such help as is available outside the union members of the staff.

Some little time since the plumbers at the Swank place struck. Inasmuch as the organization and all master plumbers, the union was advised yesterday that unless men went back to the Swank work, there would be discharged of all union plumbers. The union men refused to return to work for Swank and the result was as stated.

Members of the building trades council are attempting a settlement of the trouble, but up till a late hour last night no adjustment had been made. There is considerable speculation as to the attitude of the other crafts in the building trades as a result of the lockout.

Hudson Also Supreme in Distinction

The Super-Six Has Always Been the Pattern
Car. Its Exclusive Motor for Five Years Has Given It Mastery in Performance and Endurance

It was never sought to develop the Hudson Super-Six as the greatest speed and power car in the world.

It is true that in speed—in hill-climbing—in quick acceleration—no stock car ever matched it. Official records show that. But they are incidental. They were made in tests to prove Hudson endurance.

Surely these great performance qualities are enough to account for Hudson's five years of leadership as the largest selling fine car in the world. Any owner would take pride in a car that none has equalled in any worthwhile performance record.

Yet a large class of Hudson buyers selected it for an altogether different quality.

A Distinctive Design An Exclusive Motor

Thousands chose it with an eye single to its beauty, charm and notable appearance. They hold none can surpass it in distinction. For the Hudson looks its supremacy in every line.

But it is idle to think that those who primarily seek fine appearance in a car, do not value the mechanical superiority of the Hudson Super-Six.

Granted you will never require such great speed, yet Hudson's capacity means less than half load in ordinary driving. It insures absolute freedom from strain.

That extra reserve power means much on hills. It means much in flexibility and in quick response. It saves much changing of gears. It means utter smoothness—due to less vibration, than any other type ever achieved.

That, too, is a matter of record. The official proofs are open to all.

Perfect Mechanism Makes Such Luxury Possible

In the exclusive Super-Six motor vibration is reduced almost to nil. Motor efficiency is increased 80%. Motor power is increased 72%, without added size or cylinders. Endurance is almost doubled. The Super-Six principle would add these advantages to any conventional type, six-cylinder motor. But no other can use it.

Its type gives Hudson every advantage. Why accept a lesser car?

You will find in the Hudson all the beauty and luxury that imagination and skilled workmanship can create.

See How It Leads All Fine Cars

Note how it predominates wherever fine cars are seen. Outside of the clubs, the opera, the theatre; in the fine residence streets and on fashionable boulevards observe how it outnumbers two, three and even four to one, any other make of fine car.

The supply of Hudsons has never been sufficient for the demand. Thousands have waited months for certain wanted models. You can insure yourself against disappointment in delivery only by placing your order well ahead of the time you will require it.
