

TWIN FALLS WILL MEET RUPERT FRIDAY

Boys Hope to Retrieve Defeat Sustained on Floor of Opponents Weeks Ago.

The basketball five of Twin Falls, which feel confident that they will retrieve the defeat they suffered in the last game played in Rupert, Idaho, have wasted little time in the last few days of their preparation and although due credit is given to the boys for their evident desire, they feel that a decisive victory is imminent in a good crowd of spectators are present to give moral support.

A special system of play has been selected for the coming contest which is expected to demoralize the opposition.

The lineup will be as follows, if no changes are necessary later: Guards, Bailey and Taylor; forwards, Kramph and Newman, with latter as center. Hertz, Putzler, Ling and Yokem may be called on at it is expected that the first lineup will start the contest.

The usual wrestling match will be staged by two high school boys and unruly entertainment for the crowd between halves.

URGES FARMERS TO PREPARE CANALS

State Engineer Declares Proper Care Will Prevent Crop Shortage This Year.

BOISE, Feb. 11.—"Farmers should prepare their canals and irrigation systems so that they can utilize what water there will be as soon as it is available," W. G. Swendsen, state reclamation engineer, said today.

"No effort should be spared in preparing to use the water when it can be had. A considerable part of the even shortage of this year could have been avoided if there had not been a loss of water by reason of canals and irrigation systems being in a state of disrepair when the water was available for a few weeks.

"Up to January 1, Idaho was ahead of her schedule for water conservation. Since that time the record hasn't been so good.

"In normal years, the month of February can be counted upon to deliver a heavy snowfall in the mountains. Last year the months of January and February supplied practically all the water that was needed for the season. There should be a fair snowfall this month and in March, and if these early waters are judiciously used it will go a long way toward helping out a situation that might get serious before the summer comes.

Domestic demands have cut into the storage of water on some projects. The domestic demand has been heavy this winter on the project of the Idaho Irrigation company, it is reported.

Grain looks exceptionally good in the upper Snake river country. Commissioner Swendsen reports. The commissioner spent the latter part of last week at Idaho Falls and Rexburg conferring with his deputy for that region, G. Clyde Baldwin, regarding the problems coming up this season in the distribution of water. He met Saturday with the Fremont-Madison Reservoir company to discuss plans concerning the company's reservoir site.

WILL MEET ALL WATER USED ON CITY GARDENS

It will be necessary to practice more economy in regard to watering city gardens and lawns in the future as such water is to be furnished through a meter at a reasonable rate, but sufficient to discourage useless, waste or unnecessary flooding, according to an announcement made by yesterday by city officials.

These measures have come as a result of so much wholesale flooding of streets and alleys last year and John Pilgerim water works superintendent, says that no one will be furnished water for local irrigation of vacant lots, gardens, or lawns except through meters.

the total number of persons to be effected.

At some opportune time some one will draw the names number from the lot and it will be decided each one turn for the inspection. This, says Mr. Murray is a scheme to avoid any feeling of favoritism that might be entertained as to "Who is first."

WOOD ANSWERS BORAH'S QUESTIONS

Favors League of Nations With the Lodge Reservations; He Declares.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—General Leonard Wood, replying today to the request of Senator William E. Borah, for views of republican presidential candidates on the league of nations and the peace treaty, said he believed "that we should accept the league of nations as modified and safeguarded by existing Lodge reservations."

General Wood declared that in his opinion the people at large had indicated they favored the treaty, provided America's rights were fully safeguarded and that he did not believe it necessary to delay consideration for a general election.

The reply made public tonight, follows:

"I believe that we should accept the league of nations as modified and safeguarded by the existing Lodge reservations, reservations which Americanize it and safeguard our treaty rights, reservations which leave America absolutely free and untrammelled to follow the will of her own people in all questions of foreign and domestic policy."

"It is of course at all times favoring the views of the people of the country where it is practicable. However, in view of the fact that the people have clearly indicated—as I see it—that they are in favor of the treaty if our traditional policies, interests and freedom of action are fully safeguarded, it seems unnecessary to delay this most important question for a general election in which their views could hardly be more decisively expressed than they have already been."

"With reference to your question as to my views on the foreign policy of this government, I am in favor of, and shall continue to be in favor of, the well established foreign policy of this government which conserves and promotes the interests of our country. I do not think this treaty with the reservations impairs that policy. It does not entangle us, it leaves us free to exercise our own judgment; it is temporary if we choose to have it so; we can retire on two years' notice."

"One aim of America's foreign policy has always been the promotion of the peace of the world in order to accomplish this end, her people must be free in any situation to stand for righteousness according to their judgment. As an important means to that end, instrumentalities should be created and developed by which, consistently with this freedom, the momentum of the other free and peace loving nations of the world acting concurrently with us, can be added to our efforts."

The money, it was said, will be held by the legion as a trust fund for five years. There are no restrictions as to its use.

SAYS NO DANGER FROM REDS EXIST IN MOVEMENT

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 10.—Pears that commercial exchanges with the Russian co-operative societies would facilitate the outpouring of Bolshevik propaganda were minimized in a statement on behalf of the British government made Saturday by Sir H. James Greenwood, under-secretary for home affairs, before the supreme economic council, it was learned today.

"The democracies of the west are becoming increasingly restive under the continual augmentation of strikes and the shortage of foodstuffs and raw materials for industries," Sir H. said. "The danger incurred by a failure to take all possible steps to ameliorate this situation is far greater than that incurred by allowing the possibility of one of those Bolshevik agents to leave this country."

LENS MINES TO BE UNUSED UNTIL 1921

Will Take Years to Make Property as Goods as Before the Great War.

PARIS — Although all possible efforts to reconstruct the war-shattered mines of Lens have been and are being made, there is no hope that a single ton of coal will be extracted before 1921. In fact, the task of bringing back Lens to its former prosperity is so immense that it is not expected that the town and its mines will return to anything like their former state before 1928 or 1929.

Provided that the work can be carried on without interruption, it will take all 1920 to clear the underground workings of the debris with which they were choked by the Germans. Most of the workings, and all the deeper ones, are flooded.

A plan for drawing off the water has been arranged. The reconstruction and repair of the tubing will be carried out by German workmen, and the cement for the purpose will be brought from Germany. The pumping out of the mines is expected to take at least three years. It is hoped that by next year it will be possible to extract coal from the first galleries which are only 600 feet deep, but it is not expected that the water will be pumped out of the lower workings, that he never did anything against the which run down to 2,250 yards, until 1923 or even 1924.

The railways in the Lens district will not be completely repaired until 1921. Of the 800 workmen's dwellings belong to the miners' society, not a hundred can be repaired. Four hundred concrete huts are to be built in which it is hoped to house the 5,000 workers who will be employed in the clearing of the pits for the next two or three years.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 10.—Lieutenants Harry B. Smith and Harry Brokaw, both of the Ninety-fourth aero squadron, were instantly killed late today when their machines collided 125 feet in mid air and fell at Kelly field. The aviators were in a practice aerial flight in low hanging clouds when their machines collided.

HE GETS THIRTY DAYS.
BOSTON — It hurt the dignity of John Forbes to remove his bid in court. "I stand on my rights," said John. "He couldn't stand on anything else," added the cop. Forbes got thirty days for being liquor up.

PROTEST FRENCH ACTION.

By the Associated Press.

MADRID, Feb. 10.—Muley Haid, former sultan of Morocco, in a statement, protests against the action of the French in transferring his wife and son from Tangier to Rabat. He declares his stay in Spain during the war was merely that of a tourist; he pumped out of the lower workings, that he never did anything against the allies or government in Morocco and that under no circumstances did anybody have the right to interfere with his family.

SWITZERLAND TAKES A CHANCE.

Unhampered by a presidential campaign, untorn by partisan strife, the little public of Switzerland has made, through its legislative body, a quiet and thorough investigation of Article X of the covenant of the League of Nations.

And Switzerland, in the very midst of Europe, a tiny island of peace entirely surrounded by warring peoples, comes to the conclusion that it can profitably afford to become a member of the league. Its federal council, reporting to the general assembly, interprets Article X as meaning exactly what it says, and no more.

The council holds that there is no obligation upon the members of the league unless "a belligerent nation should refuse to withdraw from occupied territory or manifest a desire to make a war of conquest," and even in that case, holds the Swiss council, no hasty war is bound to occur, or the league can then only "give advice, not orders, as to mean by which any nations obligations shall be fulfilled." These suggestions are, as a rule, to take the form of economic reprisals and not war; and if sterner measures are ever suggested, the decision of course rests with our own government—which is to say, with congress. There is nowhere any obligation to "send our boys overseas" every time there is row there, as some opponents of the league have argued.

So Switzerland, with little in the way of resources to bank upon, and without America's splendid isolation from the probable seat of trouble, hemmed in by other nations who are at any time liable to be belligerent—little Switzerland studies the situation and takes a chance.

NOT MERELY A FARMER'S PROBLEM.

In his first formal statement as secretary of agriculture, Edwin T. Meredith says:

"I am surprised that I should have received the number of messages I have, particularly from daily papers, asking what plans I as secretary of agriculture, have to reduce the high cost of living, indicating that the general feeling is that this is essentially an agricultural problem. It is, of course, related to agriculture, but no more than any other lines of activity, and I am tempted to believe that the solution of the problem lies more in the hands of those interested in distribution and non-productive enterprises than in the hands of the farmers of the country."

So far the nation's farmers have responded loyally to demands for increased production. But they have been discouraged by the fact that although they produced plenty of food for other workers, those others have not been increasing the production of clothing, machinery and other goods the farmer needs. If the farmer has occasionally become disgruntled and asked higher returns for his labor, it is only because he has seen everybody else doing the same thing, and usually without producing more to deserve the greater return.

As the secretary further said, it is necessary to work out "methods to quicken and cheapen distribution of farm products, such as better terminal facilities, easier inland waterway transportation, elimination of back-hauling and roundabout routes. While such facilities must be furnished, we find on the contrary there is now being made an assault on the farm loan bank, which gives the farmer money on favorable terms, without commission, without renewal charges, finances him to carry on the fundamental activity of our country, gives him long time that he may plan ahead where necessary."

The farmer should not be made to fight for justice. The business world needs, for its own good as well as the general welfare, to co-operate with the farmer and to develop interest and sympathy for his problems.

BOLSHEVIST BUSINESS.

It may be, as the senate was informed by Mr. Ludwig, etc., Martens, the "soviet ambassador," that the Bolshevik government is full of admiration for the United States, and in token of affection and esteem asks for the privilege of spending half a billion dollars here for supplies. Lenine has the money," he says, and will place orders with American business firms as soon as the way is opened.

It may be that Lenine has some such sum of money, though it doesn't sound reasonable. He stole enough, in one way and another; but according to Herbert Hoover, who has pretty good sources of information, he has spent nearly all of it in keeping his army going and his unproductive factories running. If he has it, and is willing to spend it legitimately in this country, perhaps there is no good reason why American business men should not get it. No taint clings to gold very long; and goodness knows, Russia owes us enough money.

But the business men who have swallowed Martens' fair words and opened their order-books had better wait a bit. So had the government; and from present signs, it will. For it is hinted that in so far as this talk of big, profitable orders for goods is not mere bluff, it represents a fine scheme to make an entering wedge for Bolshevism in this country.

Along with the red gold would come red propaganda. When the factories had turned to making Bolshevik supplies, clever "business agents" would proceed to Bolshevize the factory workers.

(Fear the reds even when bearing gifts!)

And, of course, you realize that if Wilson had consulted the senate, the peace conference would still be waiting for a decision.

The Poles have ceded Teschen to the Czechs in exchange for the privilege of taking something else that doesn't belong to them.

NEW YORK FARM FAST BEING ABANDONED, SAYS EXPERT

By the Associated Press.

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The abandonment of farm life by men and boys during the past year for the city has left more than 24,000 habitable farmhouses in the state vacant, according to estimates made public tonight by Professor G. F. Warren, of Cornell university. His figures were based on a survey of nearly 4,000 representative New York farms which has just been completed by federal and state agricultural authorities.

The survey indicated, he explained, that three men had left the farm for every one returning. He said that about 35,000 men and boys left farming to go into other industries and about 11,000 went from other industries back to the farm making a net loss to the farms of 24,000 persons.

Professor Warren said that the farm abandonment figure explained the scarcity of houses in the cities.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Sir Oliver Lodge was criticized for spiritualistic theories by Professor Joseph Jastrow of the department of psychology of the University of Wisconsin in an address here today for "spreading unwise and unscientific impressions."

"Such impressions," he added, "are a direct menace to the health of mind of the public and I regard them as a social menace."

Professor Jastrow said "our brother scientists from England" are gladly welcome but that he was forced to object to their views "in the interest of public safety."

The Moscow Soviet sent a wireless message asking his captors to spare his life, but the appeal was too late. The Moscow wireless service on January 31 transmitted an extract from an article from the official Bolshevik organ Pravda, which said: "Only a few days ago Supreme Ruler Kolchak was hoisted on his soldiers' bayonets."

KOREANS IN HAWAII ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

By the Associated Press.

HONOLULU, Feb. 8.—Disension in the Korean National association of Hawaii reached a climax here today. In a riot, a police raid on the association's headquarters and the arrest of eight prominent members of the organization.

Trouble began to brew last week when one faction of the association calling itself "reformers" charged that a second element, including several of the organization's officers, was out of harmony with the Korean independence movement. An independence meeting was held, an election called and the old officers ousted.

WILSON GETS R. R. ISSUE FOR SETTLEMENT

Hines would report to the president. While the director-general was said not to have made any final answer to the union leaders, his statement of disagreement with their claims could be considered as a definite answer. The separate grievances and claims of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen were not included by Mr. Hines in the data sent to the White House. W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen, will confer again tomorrow with Mr. Hines.

In a statement tonight, Mr. Lee declared that the government had not succeeded in reducing the cost of living by the campaign begun last summer and he, therefore, felt that he could no longer hold the demands in abeyance.

To Take Final Action.

"I expect to get the written answer of the director-general to the trainmen's request at the next conference with him," said President Lee. "After which the special committee of 20 officers and general chairmen, authorized by the international convention of the brotherhood to handle the subject, will take final action relative to its disposition."

Events leading up to the disagreement between the conference came rapidly. During the course of the day, Mr. Hines conferred with Attorney General Palmer, acquainting him with details of the controversy. The meeting was not to be construed as indicating action by the department of justice, however, Mr. Palmer declared. The attorney general declined to say whether any action was contemplated under the Lever act in event of a strike, saying that the department did not know "where, when or how" action would be needed if any were necessary at all.

Following his conference with Mr. Palmer, the director-general met all members of the union delegation with the exception of representatives of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees who have called a strike for February 17.

The union leaders who, at yesterday's session, had presented a second opinion of their views also held a separate conference at which it was definitely determined to close their case.

Have No More Proposals.

B. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor carried to Mr. Hines notice that the union officials had no further proposals to make and could offer nothing in amplification of the arguments already presented. Jewell also told the director-general the employees' representatives believed that the controversy should go to the president again inasmuch as it was at the request of Mr. Wilson that the original demands had been held in abeyance. Intimation also was given that since it was the sentiment of the union men to employ all methods possible for an amicable settlement they believed a review of the case by the president might provide means for further negotiations should they be necessary.

ANTION ANTICIPATED.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 11.—The railroad administration's decision to lay the wage controversy before President Wilson today had been anticipated at the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers here and according to President Allan C. Barker, holds some hope of averting the strike of more than 300,000 members of that union called for February 17.

It was President Wilson's request, Mr. Barker pointed out, that strike plans formulated last August were held in abeyance while the government tried to lower the cost of living. "Having failed in this," he stated, "the president now is bound to give us the relief we have demanded."

Plans for handling the strike were contemplated here today when the entire country was divided into 16 districts and an officer of the international union placed in charge of each district.

WILL INVOKE LAW.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 11.—Attorney General Richard Hopkins, tonight made public a letter written to Charles E. Armstrong, of Baxter Springs, Kansas, a member of the railroad maintenance of way union, outlining the Kansas industrial court law and defining the state's stand on the strike recently ordered by union officials at Detroit.

In the letter, which was written in response to one from Mr. Armstrong, relative to the court and the proposed strike, the attorney general said: "I very much hope that the officers of your organization will not ask the members of this state to strike. To do so would be in violation of our law by them."

"I am strongly of the opinion that the great majority of the members of your union do not desire to violate the law. Their first allegiance is to the state and government."

"I am compelled to advise you if such a strike is called and the law violated that every power of my department will be used to prosecute the guilty parties."

URGES LEGISLATION.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Legislation by congress and vigorous action by the federal administration to prevent a strike of railway employees until pending wage demands have been fully investigated and impartially arbitrated, were advocated tonight by Samuel O. Dunn, editor of the Railway Age in an address at the banquet of the American Wood Preservers association.

"A strike of any class of railway employees under present conditions would be calamitous as it would be unjustifiable," he said, "and should furnish a powerful argument in favor of legislation prohibiting all strikes on railroads and providing for compulsory arbitration."

ALPINISTS FALL INTO CREVASSES; LOST FOREVER

By the Associated Press. BERN, Switzerland, Feb. 11.—Three Alpinists, Paul Schultess, Heinrich Moser and Habs Pahl, all of Zurich, fell into a glacier crevasse there this afternoon and could offer nothing but their own strength to escape. The men were joined together by a rope so that when one fell into the crevasse he dragged the others with him.

Two guides passing nearby heard the men groaning. A relief expedition was sent out from Pontresina, but today returned and reported it was impossible even to recover the bodies from the crevasse. Undoubtedly the men died as their groans had ceased.

THE FACE OF LINCOLN.

(Contributed.) Did you ever notice that the little line that runs diagonally from the corner of the mouth of a man like Lincoln? Well, as a matter of course the heart's the source of humor. But this hero 100 is the outward sign of it. Not dropped; you understand, or turned up one bit. But so situated as to make the whole grave face say: "Me and you is just folks, set down an' light your pipe. Ain't this a dandy day?" An' if you'll watch along you'll see the same little line is the part of the face where risibilities start. Creepin' up the facial muscles toards the eyes. That finally glow and dance like a man lookin' into Paradise.

WE MENTIONED TO SUCCEED HERRMANN

Newspaper Man and State Senator Have Lead in Place on Baseball Bill Commission.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Major league club owners today met in joint session and received the recommendations of the joint nominating committee for chairman of the National baseball commission to succeed August Herrmann, whose resignation became effective today. Five names were submitted by the committee and final decision was left to residents John Heydler of the National league and B. H. Johnson of the American, who will announce their decision at their discretion.

The names of the men submitted according to club opinion were:

J. Conway Toole, New York.
Judge K. M. Landis, Chicago.
William Edwards, New York.
State Senator J. E. Walker, New York.

Harvey T. Woodruff, sporting editor of Chicago Tribune.
Of the foregoing names, those of Senator Walker and Mr. Woodruff were most prominently mentioned. Referring Chairman Herrmann declared to newspaper men that he favored the selection of Woodruff as his successor because he was of the opinion that a newspaper man was best fitted for the position. A high official in the American league said the name of Judge Landis could be eliminated as the federal judge would not be chosen.

A resolution commending the work of Herrmann as chairman of the commission since its inception was presented and adopted by the 15 club owners. It was largely Mr. Herrmann's efforts that brought about the accord which ended the historic strife between the American and National leagues, the resolution stated, and it also said "it is every baseball owner's duty to honor an active and honorable part, while his keen judgment of situations, his remarkable mastery and memory of details, and untiring energy in forwarding his plans, have been the marvel of his associates."

"We regret the decision of Mr. Herrmann to remain at the head of his club in his own city, has made it impossible for him longer to give his time and attention to the affairs of the commission," the resolution concluded.

A slight increase in admission to the championship games of 1926 also was decided upon at the joint meeting of the two leagues. The seats for unreserved seats in the bleachers, pavilions and grandstand this year will be 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, with tax included. The reserve seat sale will be decided upon by the individual clubs. The allotting of a space in the bleachers for children under 14 years of age, at admission prices of 15 and 25 cents, also was discussed and was left to the various club owners, for a personal decision. Branch Hickey of the St. Louis Nationals, and Charles A. Comiskey, of the Chicago Americans were the champions for the "knot hole game." As the matter now stands it will be impossible for a club owner to allot seats for the youngsters.

THE BOYS IN THE OTHER CAR

While the owners of the American league franchises refused to discuss the "knot of Chicago" which ended the factional fight in the organization, at an early hour today, supporters of the minority faction which included Jacob Ruppert, New York; Harry Frazee, Boston, and Charles Comiskey, Chicago, claimed a victory for their side and asserted that "Johnson's wings had been clipped."

On the other hand, the supporters of Mr. Johnson and his loyal "rivals" Connie Mack, Philadelphia; Frank Navin, Detroit; Phil Ball, St. Louis; Clarke Griffith, Washington and James Dunn, Cleveland, declared that Johnson was victorious in the battle against the "barge" and pointed out the following reasons:

Johnson still remains as president of the American league, despite the declaration of the minority faction that they would oust him from the office.

The dismissal of the three suits filed against Johnson and one against each of the "five loyal club owners" by the New York club.

That Johnson still has his five loyal club owners and will be championed by Clarke Griffith on the arbitration board.

The reinstatement of Carl Mays was said to be automatic, because a suspension as in this players case, is seldom carried over into another season.

The awarding of third place in the American league race for 1919 to the New York club was declared to have been a sportsmanlike move by Frank Navin.

Failure of the major leagues to get in touch with the minor leagues prevented the holding of a joint session at which it was hoped that a new agreement would be reached. The majors, after adjourning their joint session reconvened in the evening to meet the minor league officials, but being informed that they were not present, adjourned to hold a session tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

RICHARDSON PEACE DOVE.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—William Richardson, a Philadelphia stockman, and part owner of the Washington American league baseball club, was said to be the "peace dove" who brought the warring factions of the American league together.

Mr. Richardson addressed the owners before they went into executive session with Dan Johnson, president of the league, it was said and also at the meeting at which Dan Johnson was present. He said that he was neutral in the controversy, urged the club owners to get together and bring the row to a peaceful settlement and to keep the matter out of the courts for the good of the game.

Grain

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Rapid returns in the value of corn today followed a broad commission house demand based largely on belief that supplies here would remain light even though cars were furnished in plenty. The close was unsettled, 21-1/2 to 4-1/2c net higher, with May 130 7-1/2 to 131 and July 121 to 123 1-8. Oats gained 1-1/4 at 1-1/4 to 1-5/8 at 1-3/4c and provisions 10 to 50c.

Regardless of an evident tendency on the part of farmers to hold back grain, the corn market weakened during the first part of the day with a majority of dealers inclined to regard a railroad strike as more bearish than bullish. Besides, gossip was current that there would be modification of orders to give wheat the preference in grain shipments eastward from Chicago. Later, however, the attention of the trade veered to the outright failure of receipts to grow in volume and to indications that the failure would continue as rural shippers were refusing to accept cars tendered. Furthermore, advice at hand described producers as extremely antagonistic because of recent big setbacks in values.

Oats like corn jumped upward after showing temporary weakness. Domestic demand was reported keen, and country offerings meager. Provisions were ruled by the action of grain.

SAYS CIVIL WAR IS RAGING IN IRELAND

British Army of Occupation to Cope With the Sinn Fein.

LONDON—Eight months ago John T. O'Kelly, Sinn Fein representative at the Paris peace conference, told me:

"If the peace conference fails to take up the case of Ireland, there will be a relapse of terror in Ireland that will make English rule impossible."

There is more than this in Ireland today.

Tanks are employed—machine guns—Mills hand grenades—airplanes, bombs, high explosives, artillery.

The weapons which won the great war are being employed in the civil war for war tools.

Such affairs as the attempted slaying of Lord French are more side-lights.

The main war is for weapons. Political leaders are raided, and taken from the continental. Fighting parties are held up, and rifles and guns and ammunition are seized.

Gunshops, shipments of guns and ammunition, private homes and stores for the British forces, are all the objects of attacks which occur with startling regularity and success.

The British army of occupation at that official figures was something more than 40,000 strong. It is more probably nearer twice that number now.

Dublin castle—the military and police headquarters of the British government, has proved itself unable to cope with the Irish at home.

The head of the Royal Irish constabulary—the great police force in Ireland—was recently fired summarily and without trials.

Dublin castle is blamed by many Irish moderates and some Britishers, for the state of affairs in Ireland. Not for stopping the civil war, but for provoking it.

The accusation says Dublin castle is a militarized institution which does not represent British public opinion, but the "war office" idea plus the Orange Ulster viewpoint; and that Dublin castle does all it can to provoke outbreaks in order to justify real martial law in Ireland.

Newspapers—including the Freeman's Journal of Dublin, one of the most moderate nationalist publications that could well be conceived—have been suppressed by the castle.

The right of assemblage is abridged. Curfew laws are enforced in some sections and there is talk of extending it to Dublin. The Irish language is under the ban.

And still the lawlessness and raids continue.

The size of it is that on its "home grounds" the Irish secret organization which directs all the Irish operations to secure arms and make British rule impossible, outplays the British military and police authorities at every turn.

"Lawlessness" in Ireland today is civil war in preparation for greater civil war.

In the face of such conditions Lloyd George—with only a split and quarrelsome coalition behind him—has introduced a home rule bill which, according to the British Warrent press, was certain to be rejected by both Sinn Fein and Ulster before it was read.

It provides a less measure of home rule than the various states of the United States have, and far less than British dominion self-government.

British citizens with Ireland were located out in the middle of the Atlantic instead of right at England's door. But since that is impossible, they wish the government would turn up a strong enough man to deal with the Irish question liberally and with strength and vision, and end it.

DUTCH "GLOBE-WALKER" IS TRYING TO CROSS ANDES

BUENOS AIRES—Carel Dericks, a Dutch "globe-walker," who is traveling afoot from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil to San Francisco, U. S. A., as representative of the Handbell and Annapolis, has arrived here from the Brazilian capital, which he left on October 20.

From here Dericks crosses the continent over the Andes mountains to Santiago, Chile, whence he will make his way north through that country and Central America, Mexico and thence into California. He hopes to arrive in San Francisco before June 1, completing on foot a journey of about 12,000 miles.

For defense while traveling through wild sections he carries a hollow cane containing a rapier. While journeying through Santa Catarina province in Brazil, he was threatened by Botokude Indians, but their hostility was changed to curiosity, he said, by the sudden transformation of his stick into a sword.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TO INVESTIGATE POISON OLIVES

By the Associated Press.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 10.—Federal investigation of the deaths here within the past five days of seven persons, attributed by physicians to poisoning due to the eating of ripe olives, was begun today with the arrival of an inspector for the United States department of agriculture. The inspector and a representative of the United States district attorney conferred during the day with city officials and a representative of an olive packing concern who arrived in Memphis this morning. "All of those who have died were guests at a luncheon here last Thursday at which ripe olives were served."

WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE ANY PUNISHMENT

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 10.—Nimrod J. Reynolds, the 22-year-old confessed burglar, told the authorities today he would plead guilty to any charge based on his confession and would not attempt to escape punishment. He said he entered his criminal career because his young wife was soon to be a mother and he wanted comforts for her. She was 16, he said.

It developed today that Reynolds had been in custody nearly a week but the police suppressed the facts until they had his statement.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL IN SESSION

Balfour Regrets Absence of Americans from the Body—Plans Further Organization.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—The council of the league of nations formally opened its meeting here at noon today. Arthur J. Balfour, representing Great Britain, assumed the chair on the suggestion of Leon Bourgeois, representative of France.

In this speech of welcome to the delegates, Mr. Balfour said there was only one blot on the meeting, and that was that there were eight nations represented instead of nine. He said that it was not desirable to touch on the absence of the United States, but he referred to it in the opening of the original plan of the league.

Mr. Bourgeois in reply, added a word of regret that the nations represented were only eight in number. "As I myself was one of the plenipotentiaries at Versailles, I am sure nobody is now addressing and none of my friends in America will think I am doing wrong in expressing my personal regret that for the moment, at all events, we have not reached our complete number," said Mr. Balfour in his reference to the lack of American representation in the council at the present time. He expressed the opinion that the members of the council would be able to do useful work and that an institution "which carries within itself so many promises for the future may do something towards the consummation which all desire."

The council entrusted M. Bourgeois with organization of the permanent court of international justice provided for by article 14 of the league covenant, and consideration of the proposed list of international jurists invited to form a committee to prepare plans for constitution of the court. Count Quiñones de Leon, Spanish ambassador to France, with consideration of the duties of the league relating to transit, port, waterways and railways; Dr. Gaston da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France, with the constitution of an international body for dealing with health problems; and Baron Koshiro Matsui, Japanese ambassador to France, with the league's guarantee with reference to the Polish minority treaty.

There was little show of public interest in the meeting of the council. Two of the king's scarlet coated marshals were stationed at the entrance of the palace to direct the arrivals. The whole scene contrasted with the crowds of onlookers and forces of gendarmes about the first meeting of the peace conference at Paris.

The Japanese delegate with his suite, was the first to arrive. Other prominent persons attending were President Bryce and the Danish, Swedish and Portuguese ministers. Mr. Bourgeois was interpreted into

French and English. Mr. Balfour with reference to the decision to hold secret sessions explained: "We have concluded that the details of our work cannot advantageously be taken place in public assembly. He declared that, if the work of this council was to be done efficiently, it was desirable and even necessary, that the detailed discussions be carried on with perfect freedom. Mr. Balfour said he believed the members of the council would be ready to announce the results of their deliberations Friday morning."

BARNES SAYS GRONNA HAS ADOPTED WRONG ATTITUDE

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Taking issue with Senator Gronna of North Dakota, who in introducing a bill to repeal the wheat price guarantee act, said that such a guarantee was no longer needed for protection of farmers, Julius H. Barnes, federal wheat director, in a statement tonight said on two days that the measure was introduced certain grades of wheat on the Minneapolis market fell within five cents of the guarantee. Just a few days previous, Mr. Barnes added, the same grades on the same wheat had fallen fifty cents or more per bushel. Mr. Barnes also denied the contention of the North Dakota senator that the wheat guarantee act was enforced so as to prevent wheat prices from rising above the guarantee. No authority exists in the act, the director said, to forbid trading at a higher price.

"What is 100 per cent higher than in 1912 while bread is up 77 per cent," said Mr. Barnes' statement. "Farm products of all kinds average 150 per cent up and with this showing of wheat advance so much above the average, I do not believe the wheat farmer enjoys being continually represented as discontented and greedy for more."

GABY DESLYS, FAMOUS FRENCH ACTRESS, DIES

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 11.—Gaby Deslys, the French actress and dancer, died today.

Gaby Deslys had recently undergone several operations for an infection of the throat. Early in December she was considered to be in a grave condition and her relatives were summoned from America.

The name of Gaby Deslys became known after former King Manuel of Portugal displayed his infatuation for her. That was ten years or more ago. In 1911 she arrived in America and her appearance on the New York stage made her a second visit to America in 1915. She returned to London and Paris the following year.

The throat affection from which the actress suffered is said to have been a complication of influenza.

NATIONALISTS WIN IN TURKISH FIGHT

Force Conservatives One of the Cabinet Before Giving Vote of Confidence.

By the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Tues., Feb. 8.—The nationalist block in the chamber of deputies scored a decided victory over the Sultan's old government Monday. The nationalists forced the resignations of three members of the cabinet whom they considered to be reactionary, thereby giving a vote of confidence in the government.

The cabinet changes followed three weeks of negotiations ending today, when the recognized cabinet appeared before the chamber, and the grand vizier outlined the program which resulted in a favorable vote for the government.

Sofa Bey, former minister at Sofia, replaces Mustafa Rechid Pasha as minister of foreign affairs, while Anzu Bey, governor general of Bursa, replaces Mustafa Effendi as minister of war.

The grand vizier, speaking in the chamber of deputies, said:

"Concerning foreign affairs the armistice constitutes an international pact, the terms of which must be observed by all parties. The imperial government considers itself only bound not to deviate from the armistice stipulations."

"We will exert every effort, to defend, on the principles enunciated by President Wilson, our legitimate and inalienable rights before the conference. We hope that justice will not be disregarded in our case and that our national wishes will be granted."

The grand vizier also outlined a plan of decentralization, giving the local governments larger powers and advocated the employment of foreign experts with sufficient power to insure reforms in the judiciary, the financial departments, public works and police and civil administrations.

PRESBYTERIANS TO ENTER INTER-CHURCH MOVEMENT

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 11.—The Presbyterian church of the United States will enter the world evangelistic campaign of the inter-church world movement "whole heartedly and completely," according to a decision made today by the executive commission of the general assembly.

The assembly also approved budgets for a militant christian campaign of evangelism and education calling for an expenditure of more than $45,000,000. Of this sum $19,828,870 is for the use of the boards, and agencies of the Presbyterian church. This amount is approximately $6,828,970 more than the record budget of a year ago.

AIRMEN FORM THEIR OWN LEGION POST

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—A special post of the American legion which will include in its membership virtually all America's fighting airmen, is being formed by the American Flying club. It was announced here tonight. The post will be dedicated, it was stated, to those "gallant air fighters who lie down their lives in the fight for democracy."

Among the aviators who have already joined the post are Eddie Hickmucker, Major General Charles T. Mencher, director of air service, and Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, chief of military aeronautics.

The delegates were instructed to vote for J. K. L. Hamon of Ardmore for national committee man.

PROTEST PROPOSED RAISE IN CATTLE GRADING FEES

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The California Cattlemen's association telegraphed the California delegation in congress today protesting against a proposed increase in fees for cattle grading in national forests to the basis of sales charged for private lands of similar character on the ground that present abnormal conditions, coupled particularly in California with the fear of drought, make it difficult to ascertain a fair charge.

MARTIN AIRPLANES TO TAKE DESTROYERS PLAC

By the Associated Press.
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 11.—A Martin biplane designed to supplant the torpedo boat destroyers, received an official trial here today and succeeded all requirements of the navy department. The plane carries a torpedo weighing approximately one ton, and can be launched from aboard ship.

The machine had a speed of 113 miles an hour and climbed 4000 feet in six minutes. Specifications call for 103 miles an hour and ascension of 4000 feet in 10 minutes.

ASSUMES ALL LIABILITIES OF LIFE INSURANCE CO

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The Russian soviet government has assumed all liabilities of the New York Life Insurance company in Russia, according to a statement issued today by Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the company.

As part of this action, the soviet government took possession of the company's property in Russia, consisting chiefly of railroad bonds guaranteed by the Russian government and purchased by monies accumulated from premiums paid by Russian policy holders.

WOULD PREVENT STEALING OF AUTO BY FEDERAL LAW

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Establishment of a federal motor registration bureau in the department of justice, with registers in each of the states designed to reduce theft of automobiles is proposed in a bill introduced today by Representative Harold, republican of Oklahoma. No person would be permitted to sell an auto without a certificate from the registrar showing it was his property.

AGAINST WADSWORTH BILL

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Announcing opposition to the Wadsworth army reorganization bill and the Sterling civil service retirement bills on grounds of economy, Senator Norris, republican of Nebraska, told the senate today that the passage of these bills and very many more like them will bring the United States to bankruptcy. He said the government would have to borrow money to put the bills into effect.

ATTEMPTS TO HAVE 5 MEN RESEATED IS FAILURE

By the Associated Press.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Today's session of the investigation before the assembly judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty was marked by two developments. First by Chairman Martin of preliminary motions by the defense to strike out nearly half of the evidence introduced by the state and an ineffectual effort by Assemblyman W. W. Pellott, committee member, to have the body recommend to the assembly dismissal of charges on the ground of insufficient proof.

Mr. Pellott, a New York republican, proposed "dismissal" at an executive session called at his request after the hearing had been adjourned until next Tuesday on motion by the defense. Chairman Martin stated after the meeting that "only an informal discussion" of the proposal had taken place and that it then had been tabled until next Tuesday.

SPANISH SUBVERSIVISTS ARE HAVING A HARD STRUGGLE

By the Associated Press.

MADRID, Tues., Feb. 10.—The small body of Spanish women who favor the franchise for their sex and who are forming for the international women suffrage alliance, congress to be held here in May, is meeting with considerable opposition. It is believed the women will find it difficult to find a hall in which to hold the congress.

The bishop of Madrid, whose opposition takes priority over the government, has not yet given his permission for the use of the Royal Opera house and, according to one of the women organizers, is not likely to give it. Other bishops have denounced the movement, declaring it to be anti-Christian and anti-Roman Catholic.

WHAT HAPPENS TO LOVERS OF FAIRBANKS

Statistics compiled by the Society for the Prevention of Cranks and Crahs have just been published. As a purveyor of joy, Douglas Fairbanks heads the list. "His golden smile is said to have created havoc with Old Man Misery the past year. The Old Man is said to have taken to his haunts in the Tall Timberland and is now attempting to negotiate a peace with Fairbanks, but the latter has handed an ultimatum to his utterly beaten enemy of complete and unadvised surrender, and unless this unconditional surrender is handed in within a period of twenty-four hours Fairbanks threatens to bring up his reserve force of mystery, thrills, tricks and smiles and completely annihilate his enemy. Statistics as compiled by the S. P. of C. show that, as a result of Fairbanks' activities 445,000 souls have crawled out of their shells to donate money to charity; 45,000 forty-five-year-old rheumatics have sat down to breakfast the past year without grumbling; 762,000 tightwads have increased their weekly allowances to their wives; 86,248 misers have reformed; 64,876 poker sharks have taken to shuffling at home evenings with their wives; 52,000 naps have permanently retired from the field of operations; and 17,000,000 adults and children have been made to laugh and grow fat.

We can't all be rail splitters; neither can we all be great statesmen. Abraham Lincoln was both. It is far better for every individual not to strive to be all that the great Emancipator stood for.
