

DEMOCRATS IN STATE STRIVE FOR NEW DEAL

Sentiment Crystallizing in Favor of Winning Ticket as Well as House-cleaning.

SENATOR NUGENT HELD TO BE A HEAVY LOAD

Demand Grows for Entrance of Chief Justice Morgan in the Senatorial Race.

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 19.—Following the meeting of republicans who foregathered here last week for the Lincoln Day banquet and other gatherings, there has been unusual activity on the part of democratic leaders looking to the crystallization of sentiment behind a winning ticket.

Pace Unusual Problems.
Idaho democrats are confronted by unusual problems following the debacle of the last campaign. First the party must be reclaimed from those who supplanted it with socialism and other isms. Sentiment, following the months of meditation, seems to be that it is very well for the Non-Partisan league to fight, that it must build its own political home, and that it has no part in the councils of the democratic party.

Demand Housecleaning.
This sentiment leads to demand for a general housecleaning, and if those who watch such matters are good judges, the feeling is against those who helped divide the party as well as those who rode in on the bumper and blind baggage of the Non-Partisan league.

Nugent Is Attacked.
That Senator Nugent is considered a lion is open to question. He has some time been endeavoring to build a new organization and to re-establish himself in the good will of democrats. But the way is hard. It was Nugent, say old line democrats, who made the deal with Borah and Dubois, and it was Nugent who made it possible for the league to win the democratic ticket. It was Nugent who profited by the alliance with Borah and the league, and it was Nugent who sent Samuels abroad. Hence, these old liners are firm in their opposition to the junior senator, who they assert is but little more than a m-e-l-o to Borah.

Fear His Candidacy.
This element of democracy, however, is not alone looking for another candidate for senator. There are scores of democrats who consider party success above mere matters for present. These men supported Nugent, for they saw the way for a democratic senator in Washington, with the aid of the league. But the results of that election were close, even in an off year, and now they fear for Nugent as a candidate in a presidential year, with his record of ineffectiveness while Borah has been beating the tom-toms in wild agitation.

These men point also to the fact that Nugent received the support of the seven thousand socialists in the state in the off-year, and that with this year he faces the task of gaining that many votes from some other source.

There has been intermittent talk of various candidates for the senate in opposition to Nugent, but until after the republicans held their state convention the matter was political. There was no crystallization of sentiment. But the republicans lost Boise democrats hunting—hunting for a man who can win at the election; who can carry the party standard to victory.

Demand for Morgan.
Within the past few days this sentiment has centered on one man so effectively, so determinedly that it amounts to a party mandate. And now, from all quarters, from all elements who see the political future, there is demand that Hon. William M. Morgan, chief justice of the supreme court, become the party candidate for senator. The swell of the movement is felt in all quarters and among all who take active interest in campaigns.

SOUTH JOINS WEST IN FURTHERING RECLAMATION

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Reclamation of unused lands in the west and south through bond issues, operating similar to the federal farm loan system, would be authorized by a bill introduced today by Senator Fletcher, democrat, Florida. A similar measure will be offered in the house tomorrow by Representative Smith, republican, Idaho.

Under the plan, $20,000,000 worth of bonds would be sold the first year, $20,000,000 the second; $40,000,000 the third and $50,000,000 the fourth year, with a total not exceeding $350,000,000. The measure represents the concert of action of the south and the west for a great national rather than a sectional plan. The southern interests including the governors of states and officials of the Southern Commercial congress met here last month and evolved a bill which the representatives of the west under the chairmanship of Governor Davis of Idaho later approved. Former Governor Spry of Utah has remained in Washington in charge of the legislative program of the west.

The Southern Commercial congress estimated that the program if adopted would make feasible the reclamation of five million. To save million acres of land by the end of the tenth year.

ROOT STARTS FIREWORKS IN THE CAMPAIGN

CHEERED WHEN MAKES AN ATTACK ON WILSON

Pleads for Decentralization of Government So as to Clip President's Power—Favors Amended Treaty.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The opening run of the republican national campaign was fired here tonight in a keynote speech by Eithu Root at the unofficial republican state convention in which he outlined the platform upon which he believed the republicans should go to the polls next November. Mr. Root brought the assembled delegates to their feet for the first time and again in his denunciation of the democratic administration and especially in his references to what he termed the autocratic conduct of President Wilson.

Pulls to Materialize

The much talked of possibility of a vigorous fight by the women delegates to have a member of their sex included in the "big four" who will represent New York in the national convention in Chicago, did not materialize.

The women were apparently satisfied with the appointment of one of their number as one of the delegates at large.

Would Decentralize Power

Decentralization of the president's executive power, ratification of the peace treaty with some amendments, reform of the league of nations convention by a congress of nations at the call of a "republican president immediately after March 4, 1921," limitation of the right to strike, taxation regulations and universal military training.

Senators James W. Wadsworth, Jr., and William M. Calder, Colonel William Boyce Thompson of Yonkers, and Nathaniel L. Miller of Syracuse were selected as the men to be recommended to the state convention tomorrow as delegates at large to the republican national convention in June.

The alternate delegates at large selected include Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore of Yonkers and Charles W. Anderson, prominent negro political leader.

GALVESTON LONGSHOREMEN VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK

GALVESTON, Tex., Feb. 19.—Nine hundred Southern Pacific longshoremen who struck February 4 for 20 cents an hour and $1.20 for overtime, voted here tonight by what was described as an "overwhelming majority" to return to work tomorrow. The old scale of pay to which they will return is 15 cents an hour for regular time and 50 cents for overtime. It was announced tonight by the agent of the Morgan Steamship line that barges placed upon northern bound freight because of the strike would be lifted in a few days.

LOWDEN PLEADS FOR OBEDIENCE TO LAW

By the Associated Press.
MITCHELL, S. D., Feb. 19.—Comparing the destitution of Mexico to the vast wealth of the United States, Governor Frank O. Lowden, minority republican candidate for president at the March primaries declared in a speech here tonight that self-government would be endangered were it not for a strong local and municipal governments.

"Whenever a town permits due and orderly process of government to be interrupted by a mob, that town is no longer an asset but a liability."

Mr. Lowden said "multiply that town by a sufficient number and you have a situation which only an army can handle. No self-governing country was ever ruled successfully by force of arms."

"A nation is secure against foreign foe only when able-bodied men within its borders is willing to put on its country's uniform. A nation is secure against domestic enemies only when every citizen is willing to become a peace officer of his community."

Governor Lowden spoke at three meetings today. A reception planned for Mrs. Lowden was abandoned when she was forced to return to her home in Illinois because of poor health.

Mrs. Lowden will speak in Aberdeen tomorrow afternoon and Huron tomorrow night.

MRS. T. D. CONNER CALLED BY DEATH

Former County Treasurer Dies After Long Illness—Tie Be Buzick at Coffin.

FILED, Feb. 19.—Mrs. T. D. Conner died at 9 o'clock tonight at the Conner home near Ellier, following an illness of several years.

For more than a year Mrs. Conner had been in almost helpless condition, growing gradually weaker until the end came when she tonight lapsed into her eternal sleep.

Mrs. C. G. White, of Colfax, Wash., mother of the deceased, was notified last night by wire of the death of Mrs. Conner. Funeral services will be conducted at the Conner home Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The remains will be taken to Colfax for interment.

Mrs. Conner with her husband came to Twin Falls county from Shoshone county. There Mr. Conner served in many public positions, being mayor of the city of Wallace but a short time before coming to Twin Falls county.

Mrs. Conner, a woman of unusual attainments, served as county treasurer from 1900 until 1904, and could have remained in office indefinitely had she so desired. Mrs. Conner was a sister to Mrs. August Paulson.

DECLARES PHYSICIANS MUST UNWITTING FOR PROTECTION

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—Declaration that the time had come when the medical profession of the United States was forced to untangle to protect its own interests and those of the public, was made here tonight by Dr. Charles A. J. Reed of Cincinnati, formerly president of the American Medical association and of the Pan-American medical congress, in an address before the Los Angeles County Medical association.

"The movement, which is already in Europe, is well under way in many parts of the United States," declared Dr. Reed.

CLAIMS UNION HEADS TRY TO RUN CONGRESS

Stormy Meeting Held When Railroad Employees Meet With Representatives.

DEMAND IS MADE FOR REJECTION OF NEW BILL

Gompers and Other Workers Leaders Declare Measure Undesirable as Cummins Act.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Charged by Representative Sanders, republican of Indiana, that members of congress had been called into "caucus" to be dictated to by union labor, the railroad re-organization bill most broke up an informal conference tonight between congressmen friendly to labor and labor leaders. Mr. Sanders said he had received an invitation to attend a "caucus" at the house office building and that instead an assembly at which his leaders were prepared to give their commands to the legislature.

"I charge that this caucus was called to defeat the railroad bill," he asserted, "in order to force government ownership upon the country." Mr. Sanders bitterly attacked President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, who was nearby, for having "unjustifiably" ultimately insulted the congress.

Turning about to face the murmur of disapprobation which had arisen at his unexpected remarks, Mr. Sanders shook a belligerent forefinger at the labor leaders as he said: "You can't have your own way any more."

Calling May a liar. Immediately Representative Reed, democrat, of New York, arose and declared "the man who will say anything is a liar."

A dozen congressmen present, including Mr. Sanders, jumped to their feet and turmoil reigned until the chairman had called the meeting to order. Representative Reed consented to withdraw his assertion insofar as it might have been construed to include Mr. Sanders.

Denying what he said was the plea of Representative Reed that the meeting of house and labor leaders had been called a "caucus," Mr. Gompers explained that no meeting place could be found other than the nearby caucus in the house office building.

"As for the remarks of Mr. Reed about the stigma I have cast on congress," Gompers said, "I haven't been over complimentary to some members of congress, but some members of congress have been over-complimentary to me. Mr. Gompers read the abstract of a telegram which, he said, called to information conveyed to him by a letter sent out by Alfred P. C. Reed, general counsel of the Associated Railroad Executives, advising railroad officials and attorneys "that only difference between the strike clause in the Cummins bill and the one in the re-drafted measure, was that in the latter, the penalty could be imposed by while in the latter, an 'unlawful method' would be 'unlawfully' affixed, and a court in contempt, brought not by a jury."

"Samuel Gompers," said Representative Reed, "has a great deal of money, and he is a great deal of a liar."

Before Mr. Gompers' request of the chairman, members of the caucus, who had been invited to the meeting, were called to the floor. They were called to the floor by the chairman, who said: "The caucus is now in session."

NATIONAL FINANCES.

It was reassuring to learn from the recent statement of Secretary of the Treasury Houston that the United States government is getting out of its financial hole. Deficits have practically been abolished. There are no more "uncovered maturities." War and post-war expenses have fallen off so that the government is no longer obliged to spend money faster than it comes in, and the sale of war materials has helped. There are tax certificates to the extent of nearly $3,000,000,000 but it is expected these will be paid by the forthcoming income and excess profit taxes.

"The position of the treasury today," says the secretary, "and the future of the market for outstanding issues of liberty bonds and victory notes is very bright." Provided—and here comes a timely warning:

"The whole color of the picture would of course, be changed if congress should embark upon new expenditures on a large scale."

The problem today, he explained, is that of enabling the people to save enough capital to absorb that rather large part of the war issues which is held by the banks, in ownership or as security for loans, and also to absorb the flood of foreign securities with which Europe is now trying to pay its American debts.

Congress fortunately shows a tendency to heed this warning. It will surely do so, for the remainder of the session, if the public continues to uphold the secretary's demand for economy.

HOPE FOR THE PEOPLE.

Our day has come. OUR day. The day for Us, the People. We are to be organized.

The Middle Class union of New York state has been granted a certificate of incorporation. Its chief, or president, or whatever he is, says the union will consist of "that host of refined, intelligent but unorganized individuals who are neither labor unionists, politicians nor capitalists. This body of people is the most powerful in all states, but lacks the force of concerted effort, and will become extinct unless some relief in the shape of organization is afforded."

So We, the People, are to be taken in time and saved from extinction, like the buffalo of the plains or the deer in the national parks. We are even to be given a voice in things, we who have so long "suffered in silence" as this leader expresses it. Maybe we'll have grips and passwords 'n' everything, and a high sign. And then maybe we can get up our nerve to send petitions to the government, or the labor unions—just take our pen in hand, and with a few preliminary flourishes, begin, "We, the People—"

Won't that be great?

A MEMORIAL BELL TOWER.

The Arts club of Washington has under way a plan for a musical peace tower to be erected at the capital to commemorate the victory over imperialism.

While not all the plans are completed as yet for making an appeal to the various states, the matter has had considerable publicity and seems to meet with general approval.

The idea is to have a bell tower constructed with the greatest carillon in the world. Each state is to contribute a bell, as also are the District of Columbia, Alaska, Cuba, the Philippines, Hawaii and Porto Rico, a suite of 54 bells in all.

There is no such bell tower or carillon in this country, though smaller chimes abound. If the plan for this one at Washington is carried out, the music of national hymns played upon it will be one of the most beautiful and inspiring memories which the visitor to the capital will carry away with him.

Each bell is to be engraved with the name of the state donating it. Bills are already before congress to permit the use of metals salvaged in France to be used in the construction of the bells.

Private individuals who have heard of the scheme have offered to guarantee personally the bells from their various states; but it is felt that the public will not wish to be denied the right to contribute to so noble a monument, and so popular subscription will be the means adopted for raising funds.

When the history and significance of the bells in the world in war and peace are considered, little doubt will be felt as to the beauty and appropriateness of the plan.

HANDY WOMEN.

A London dispatch realises that during the war many Englishwomen studied cobbling in order that they might do repair work on the family shoes. Most Americans prefer to patronize the shoe repair shop, but it is customary in some parts of England for the fathers of families to add cobbling to their other duties.

Another of father's jobs, and one well known to American men, is doing their repair work on the house itself. This, too, the English women had to do during the war, and in order to do it effectively they attended "handymen classes" where they learned just how to fix gas burners, mend window sashes and perform similar feats. Here is something American women ought to know and American girls ought to be taught in the schools if they can't learn at home. Not that any one expects the women of the land to go in for plumbing and allied arts all at once. But it might inject a little more expedition and efficiency into the plumbing business as it is now known, if the lady of the house knew exactly what was wrong and could either fix it herself with success, or tell the plumber what was wanted when she had to summon him.

GET READY TO GARDEN.

These are the days in which to make plans for the summer's garden.

If present prognostications are true, there will be little relief from high prices for a good while to come, and the wise man is the one who utilizes all the growing space he has to produce food for his family.

There has been such an advance in back yard gardening during the last few years that helpful suggestions can be found for turning even the most discouraging rubbish heap into a beauty spot and a source of food supply. There are books and pamphlets galore, written by private individuals. Better than any of these are the experiences of yesterdays.

Another injustice in award of medals. A widower with ten children married a widow with ten children, and when things went wrong, instead of presenting him with a croix de guerre, the judge sentenced him to jail on a charge of failure to provide.

"The people must save to avert a panic like that of 1893," says Frederick Gillette, speaker of the house. Hearing this, the people will feel like the man for whom the doctor ordered rest and change. "You get me the change, doc," said he, "and I'll do the rest."

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Sals Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the toxins which are stored up. You'll be a real sick man shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel "rheumatic" twinges, when the weather is bad.

Don't lose more drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This is a railroad re-organization bill to be destructive of the employees' constitutional privileges and liberties tonight called on congress to defeat the measure in its entirety.

CLAIMS UNION HEADS TRY TO CLUB CONGRESS

Representatives of the fifteen railroad unions at the close of an all-day conference, attended by President, Gompers and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, made public a memorial to congress embodying this declaration.

Outline Objections.

"The pending bill deprives citizens employed upon railways of the inviolate right to enjoy gains of their own industry. The returns to capital are fixed upon an arbitrary basis, the rate which the public must pay and wages which labor must receive must be fixed for capital. For these reasons herein set forth and many others we request and respectfully urge that the bill be defeated in its entirety."

During the day conference information was given out that letters of protest against the wage provisions of the bill would be sent to President Wilson and Director General Ames. Later it was decided to make the fight in congress, and intimations were given that if defeated there, the workers then would carry the battle to the White House hoping that the president might veto the legislation.

Claims for Selfish Interests.

The memorial, addressed to the people of the United States as well as to the two houses of congress, declares that the bill in enunciating a principle for taxing the financial returns of investors subverts the principles of American government. This provision, the memorial, holds would constitute "an abandonment of government for the common good, the establishment of government for private interest, special privilege and class benefits."

Provisions of the measure for arbitration of disputes are attacked because of the manner in which the special arbitration boards would be constituted and because of the way in which they would operate. The arbitration boards, including the permanent federal board of nine members, might be so composed, the memorial declares, as to eliminate labor from representation. Procedure of these boards as set forth in the bill, the memorial states, would destroy all discipline and lead to chaos.

While the labor representatives were in session, Director General Hines in conference with a committee of leading railroad executives received a pledge of their co-operation in the establishment of a committee of experts to gather data bearing on the wage problem. The executives expressed a desire that solution of the wage problem be expedited and Mr. Hines said that the time and method of constituting the committee of experts would be recommended to the president as soon as a conference with the railroad union officials could be held.

WILSON QUICKLY ANSWERS COUNCIL

To Be Put on the Cables Today or Saturday—Adheres to Position.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Wilson today prepared and sent to the state department a reply to the contents premier's note on the Adriatic question. It is understood to have retained the position of the American government with a degree of firmity.

Although the president dictated his communication in less than two hours it probably will not be put on the cables before tomorrow night or Saturday.

The original draft as prepared by Mr. Wilson was sent to Acting Secretary Polk for his personal study as he was the head of the American mission when the Adriatic settlement of December 9 was reached at Paris with the consent and approval of the president and is, therefore, thoroughly familiar with all the preliminary negotiations.

After Mr. Polk had completed his examination of the document and it has been put in the usual diplomatic form, it probably will be returned to the White House for final approval before it is dispatched to Ambassador Davis at London for presentation to the premier.

The president is understood to have adhered to the position taken in his note of February 10 in which he informed the allies that if they were to proceed to a settlement of the Adriatic question without the participation of the American government, a situation might be created where the United States might have to consider whether it could become a party to the treaty of Versailles and the Franco-American pact.

A United States Army MAN

THERE is a Canal at Panama, linking two great oceans and carrying the commerce of the world.

For a hundred years and more man dreamed of that Canal. De Lesseps had the dream and failed, and the bones of men and wreck of machines remained to mark his failure.

It seemed a task almost impossible; yet that task was done.

It was done by United States Army men.

In Cuba and Porto Rico yellow fever once claimed victims by thousands.

Yellow fever is no longer a menace in those islands. A great physician and his aids helped the people of those islands to conquer it forever.

And they, too, were
United States Army men.

In the Philippines a new civilization is arising; and its foundations are laid upon the courage and devotion of United States Army men.

You think of the Army as an instrument of war; and well you may; for the record of its men in France and Flanders will live as long as history is written.

But the Army has tasks of peace no less heroic—tasks that mean a safer, and a better world.

It is for those tasks that the Army asks three years of the lives of America's best young men.

To those men the Army promises sturdy health—an asset for their business success in all the years to come.

It offers them opportunity for training in a useful trade. It gives them good food, good clothes and good care. It trains them to responsibility,—it develops character and mind.

It promises them travel, and the knowledge of other lands, that will make them citizens of the world.

The United States Army seeks no inferior applicants. It wants men of whom it can be proud, during their enlistment, and in all the years to come.

Men who will look back twenty, thirty, forty years from now and say:

"Those years were the most valuable of all my years of training.

"They gave me health, and skill, and the capacity for managing men. They gave me a chance to share in giant tasks.

"I am proud of the record of those years, and of what they have meant in my success.

"Proud that I, too, for a little while, was a United States Army man."

JERSEY CITY BANTAM IS BADLY WHIPPED BY WILDE

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 19.—

Jimmy Wilde of England, British flyweight boxing champion, scored a knockout over Mickey Russell, local bantamweight, when the latter's manager acknowledged his fighters' defeat by throwing the towel into the ring in the seventh round. The match was for eight rounds.

The seventh round had gone two minutes and 25 seconds. The terms of the match called for 114 pounds inside and neither boxer tipped the beam, although the champion was still in street attire. The exact weights were not announced.

Russell was battered from one side of the ring to the other in the seventh, but it appeared as though he would be able to last the full eight rounds when his manager threw in the towel. In the previous rounds he received considerable punishment but was not knocked down once. In the fifth he went to the floor when the English title holder shoved him away from a clinch.

ST. PAUL MAN VICTOR IN AMATEUR SKATING RACE

By the Associated Press.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Everett McGowan of St. Paul tonight won by 40 points his second race in the races for the international amateur skating championship which are being held here. His victory in the two mile senior event this afternoon made his capture of the championship almost certain. Joe Moore of Lake Placid, former metropolitan champion who won the senior 440-yard dash and finished third in the two mile race this afternoon, is second in points with a total of 50.

The failure of Charles Jewtraw of Lake Placid, eastern amateur champion to win today, practically eliminated him from the race for the championship. He was displaced by McGowan after a great contest in the two mile race and failed to place in the 440 yard dash. His total points numbered 40. M. Goodman, Winnipeg, Roy McWhirter of Chicago and Ed Horton, Saranac Lake, New York, are tied with 20 points each.

Miss Rose Johnson of Chicago leads for the women's international title with eight points, although she was defeated by Miss E. Dunlap, also of Chicago in the 440 yard dash today. Miss Dunlap established a world record for women of 45.5 seconds in winning the event. She now has a total of 50 points and an excellent chance to overtake the leader in tomorrow's events. Miss Gladys Robinson of Toronto, is third with 30.

WANT DATES FOR OLYMPIC TENNIS TO BE CHANGED

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—American participation in the Olympic games tennis tournament depends upon the willingness of the Belgian International meet authorities to change the dates of the contests. This decision was reached at a conference here today between officers of the United States Lawn Tennis association and members of the American Olympic committee. According to the official program received here yesterday the Olympic tennis is set for August 15 to 23.

After the conference the Belgians were notified by cable that an American team could not take part unless the tournament was played early in July. It was explained that an American team and possibly an Australian team would compete in the English tennis championship at Wimbledon June 20 to 28 and that those as well as an English combination might enter the Antwerp tournament if the date was advanced to July 5. It was further explained that the American championship, at which it is hoped an English and Australian teams will compete, begin at about the same time set for the Olympic tennis.

SAYS KOREA WILL FIGHT TO THE END

People Will Suffer Extermination Rather Than Submit to Japanese Rule.

NIANGHAI.—The Koreans will suffer extermination before they will acquiesce in the rule of Japan declares Haron Kim Ka-chan, formerly one of Korea's older statesmen and officials who has penetrated the Japanese cordon around Korea. He is now one of the members of the little community Korean refugees who have found haven here in China.

"There can be no peace," he said. "The Koreans will never waver. They may not win for many years, but they will never yield."

He declared that the people are endeavoring without rights and without political representation. All special privileges are in the hands of the Japanese, he added, and they control all the sources of wealth and rapacity are acquiring actual ownership of the land. The Korean nation, he said is without a mouthpiece, for he asserted that no Korean newspaper edited by Koreans is permitted to exist and public meetings are wholly forbidden.

"Not more than three people, even for social purposes, may gather and talk together," he said. "All of the schools of the country are under the direction of Japanese teachers and the instruction is given in the Japanese language from Japanese text books."

He said that the history that is taught to children is garbled in such a way as to glorify Japan and discredit Korea.

"In due course," he declared, "has been driving the people out of Korea into Manchuria, at the rate of 100,000 a year. This is because the Japanese have taken control of everything. They operate the railways, the banks, transportation lines, and customs offices and in those city places where there are Korean officials the Japanese adviser is never far distant."

"Even the Japanese pickpocket are favored for they are permitted to solicit fares at existing railway stations and other places from which the Korean Hieokha men are barred. Japanese servants in private homes are empowered to check expenditures in these homes and to forbid any of which they do not approve and the Korean who desires to withdraw money he has deposited in a bank must first obtain permission from the police to do so."

"Since the revolution started," Baron Kim said, "the jails have been filled to overflowing and thousands have been put to the torture. But the people have never wavered and this is why students have thrown themselves upon bayonets with bare hands when police and military turned upon them. The people may die. They will never yield."

Baron Kim, who is 74 years old, came to Shanghai to become a part of the officialdom of a republic that exists only in the hopes and prayers of the people of Korea for the leaders of the revolutionists, with the pattern of a government made up of officials chosen secretly last summer, have grouped themselves together here with Shanghai as their capital. The connection between this government and the people of Korea is a carefully guarded secret, and is a system not unlike the "underground railroad" by which fugitive slaves sought safety in the north in the days of the American civil war. It is effective, however, for the benevolence of the government are swiftly transmitted and are said to be obeyed to the letter by the masses under the Japanese rule in Korea.

Through the decade that has followed the annexation by Japan, Baron Kim has worked for Korea's independence.

He said he escaped with a party from Korea by a perilous march overland by going by the roughest routes through the roughest country and travelling for the most part at night. In their final dash they waded through swamps, crossed rivers in dugouts, hid through days in fields and slashed their way through underbrush where they knew they were safe in China.

Municipal ownership of street railways is to be tried by the English town of Barrow. The system was purchased from private ownership for $481,250.

"KIDNERS" STORY IS MOOT QUESTION

Pollution Alleged to Have Sold Him Was to Get $20,000 From Newberry.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 19.—Whether Milton Oakman, Detroit political leader, was "kidding" or serious when he told Chase S. Osborn, Detroit campaign manager that the Newberry committee promised him $20,000 for his support of the junior Michigan senator, was a moot question after today's testimony in the Newberry election conspiracy trial. The Osborn man, Henry A. Montgomery, said he knew Oakman's reputation as a "kiddler" but "took it seriously enough to report it to Mr. Osborn." The defense did, however, get Montgomery to emphasize that Oakman told him he never got a dollar.

There was other testimony today indicating that not all of the Newberry workers got money for their pains. The grand jury's evidence of Louis Burr, Houghton lumberman, was read from notes and it related he promised he would reimburse for time and expense connected with numerous trips about the copper country. Burr added he never saw the money.

A third such bit came from Willard C. Smith of Grand Rapids, who swore that Charles B. Carpenter, a banker defendant, gave him some Newberry buttons and $10 and told him to "get busy, there is more in sight," but Smith said he got nothing more.

Grand jury testimony by DeWitt Brown brought a $10,000 item to the attention of the jury. He was quoted by Claire Higbee, clerk of the grand jury, as saying that John B. Harris told him that Roger Andrews, Monmouth publisher, had received that amount from the Newberry committee for work in the upper peninsula. Judge Rossiter instructed the jury this gossip could be used only as affecting Brown's knowledge or belief that money was being used. He told them to disregard it as against Harris and Andrews.

CAUSES HEATED DEBATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Bitter partisan debate on the fraud charges against Senator Newberry, republican, Michigan, took up much of the senate time today, as yesterday, precipitated by Senator Sherman, republican, of Illinois, continuing his attack on Henry Ford, the defeated democratic candidate.

While the debate was running its course, Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, called a meeting for Monday of the sub-committee appointed to recount the ballots in the contested election.

Senator Sherman included the members of Mr. Ford's family, the automobile which he manufactures and all his activities in his vigorous attacks. He declared Mr. Ford had furthered his financial and political fortunes by enlisting the services of government.

The Illinois senator was taken sharply to task by Senator Stanley of Kentucky, and Walcott of Delaware, both democrats, who declared he had violated senate decorum, the latter charging that Senator Sherman had been "addressing a jury in Michigan" for which he would have been in contempt of court if done in that state.

SHARP DIFFERENCES ARE DEVELOPED OVER TURKEY

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 19.—Very sharp differences of opinion as to leaving the Turks in possession of Constantinople have arisen between members of the British cabinet, according to the Daily Mail, which says the position of the government in this matter "is no wise easy, although it would be inaccurate to say there is a crisis." Earl Curzon, secretary of state, for foreign affairs, and some of the cabinet ministers strongly support plans formulated by the supreme allied council, but liberals in the cabinet almost without exception oppose the projected agreement. It is stated that a decision will be reached on Monday, and if a majority of the cabinet opposes the plan the council may be asked to reconsider its decision, the newspaper says.

GOVERNMENT MUST HAVE ECONOMIC EYE

Victor Murdock Tells Farmers That Commission to Study Grange Problems.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Back of every basic commodity should give the country gravest concern, Victor Murdock, chairman of the federal trade commission today told the annual conference of the national board of farm organizations.

Explaining to the delegates representing more than 30 agricultural bodies the work of the federal trade commission, Mr. Murdock said it was the "economic eye" of the government to ascertain the facts regarding these movements in order that the public might be protected. The work of the commission in the past has been "almost elementary" said Mr. Murdock, adding that the commission was about to embark on the study of "other and graver problems" affecting the nation's business. Further than that he did not elaborate his statement, which aroused keen interest among the delegates in view of recent investigations into meat packing, coal mining and other primary industries.

About the first act of the conference today was to revive plans for an international farmers congress. A committee was appointed with instructions to communicate at the earliest possible moment with similar organizations in foreign countries. Other committees were chosen to ascertain and report on the methods and present status of the investigation of the federal trade commission in report on the outlook for importation of foreign fertilizers and to examine into the foreign exchange situation as it affects American trade. Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers union, who presided as chairman of the conference, said that while it would be very pleasant to be able to say that "all is well with agriculture and that in the farmers' mind there is no discontent, nothing left to be desired," the facts were that "the farmer is not content or satisfied."

Answers to the recent questionnaire sent out by the postoffice department, he said, came nearer to revealing the truth about agriculture than anything that has received equal publicity in the city press. "The farmers at least organized farmers, from now on will pool their efforts in exploring what in the past has been forbidden ground," said Mr. Barrett. "They will employ trained research workers to investigate conditions affecting agriculture. With trained research publicly an legal talent, farmers need no longer be impotent in dealing with the questions of marketing, distribution and finance."

Practically the entire membership visited Secretary Meredith, of the agriculture department, who has asked the council and co-operation of the national board.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES MAY GET BIG BUMP FROM CARRIERS

By the Associated Press.
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 19.—Two million employees of the United States railroad administration would be entitled to overtime averaging $100 each if a suit against Director General Tamm here today, is successful, according to J. P. Goldstein, counsel for the plaintiff, Joseph P. Pluchowski, a deck hand on a Pennsylvania railroad tug.

Pluchowski claims overtime amounting to $394 for the period between January 1 and September 1, 1918, during which time he worked 22 hours a day "under the exigencies of war." It is contended that he should have received time and a half for the time over, eight hours, under the Adamson act. Counsel for Mr. Tamm asserted that the employees had accepted a bonus in lieu of overtime. Decision was reserved.

TO CONTINUE NAVAL BASE AT HAMPTON ROADS

By the Associated Press.
NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 19.—On assurances from city officials of Norfolk and Portsmouth that an adequate supply of water would be provided for the naval operating base at Hampton Roads, which for several months has suffered from a water shortage, the house naval affairs investigating subcommittee announced today that it would commend continuation of activities at the base.

PRIZE BOAT DRIFTS $10,000.

I. W. W. MAKES AN ATTEMPT AT ALIBI

First Evidence Introduced in Defense of Alleged Grimm Killers.

MONTESANO, Wash., Feb. 19.—Defense of ten industrial workers of the World, charged with the murder of Warren O. Grimm during an armistice day parade at Centrall, Wash., was begun today with the calling of Eugene Barnett, one of the defendants, to the witness stand.

The state had charged and offered testimony in an effort to prove that Barnett, from a window of the Avalon hotel, fired the shot which killed Grimm. Barnett testified that he was not in the Avalon hotel, that he watched the parade from the Roderick hotel on the upper floors of the building, occupied by the I. W. W. hall, and that he had no one with him during the day.

Similar testimony was offered by Mrs. Mary McAllister, proprietress of the hotel, and her husband, J. C. McAllister.

Mrs. McAllister testified that during the parade she heard a whistle blown and saw men start toward the I. W. W. hall and that afterwards she heard shots fired. Barnett's testimony was to the effect that men started toward the hall following a command spoken by some one in the parade.

In outlining his case before calling Barnett to the witness stand, Attorney George W. Vandever simply said he would attempt to prove an alibi in behalf of Barnett, that Loren Roberts, another defendant, was and is insane, and that there was a conspiracy to raid the I. W. W. hall.

At least 40 automobiles are now equipped with Distel wheels.

MORE DANGEROUS THAN DYNAMITE

Don't send your clothes out to be washed. Do them at home and be safe.

In these days of epidemic one should not risk personal and family health by sending garments to irresponsible places.

Germ-laden laundry, returned from doubtful folks, may be more dangerous in your home than dynamite.

Safeguard yourself and family by doing your own laundry the EDEN WAY, in your own home.

Clothes wear longer

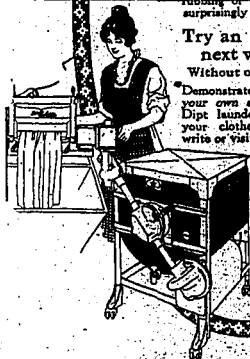

The Eden

Clothes, blankets and linens wear out long before their time if they are scrubbed and rubbed by hand or washed around in poorly designed machinery. Washed by an Eden, they are gently dipped up and down through hot suds in the same ideal way women use to wash a bit of lace or silk. Falling through the bubbling water and soap countless times, they are perfectly cleaned without hard labor, without rubbing or wear-and-tear, and at surprisingly low cost.
