

SENATE VOTES SYMPATHY TO IRISH CAUSE

Unexpected Movement Ends in Adoption of Reservation Favoring Erin.

RATIFICATION VOTE TO BE TAKEN TODAY

Indications Still Point to Second Rejection of Peace Pact, Forcing It Into Campaign.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 18.—Proceeding under forced draft to reach a final ratification vote on the peace treaty tomorrow, the senate broke from control of the republican leaders today and unexpectedly swept into the republican reservation program a declaration of sympathy for self-government in Ireland.

The proposal won out in committee of the whole, by a vote of 45 to 16 after an all-day debate. On a necessary second vote this action was confirmed 45 to 35.

During the debate democratic leaders supported the reservation and the managers on the republican side opposed it because it included a general declaration that this nation adhered to the principle of self-determination of peoples. On the first roll call 21 democrats and 17 republicans, including the irreconcilable foe of the treaty, voted for ratification, while 20 republicans and 18 democrats were recorded in the negative.

Revel of the Irish question prolonged into the night the senate's task of putting into final form the resolution of ratification upon which it is planned to bring a vote tomorrow. One after another a long list of miscellaneous reservations were voted down with the leaders bent on completing their task before adjournment.

The outcome of the ratification vote was not generally regarded as having been influenced by the day's developments, though a number of republicans counted off to vote to ratify, including Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, party leader, expressed bitter disapproval of the Irish reservation at its final form. On all sides the prediction was made that the treaty would fail to receive the necessary two-thirds though some senators thought that on a second roll call, which probably will be taken before the attempt to ratify is given up, enough democrats to put it through would win the majority.

The text of the Irish reservation as introduced by Senator Gerry, democrat of Rhode Island, and adopted by the senate, follows: "In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany, the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice, adopted by the senate June 6, 1919, and declares that when self-government is attained by Ireland, a consummation, it is hoped to be at hand, it should promptly be admitted as a member of the league of nations."

The Roll Call.

The roll call on the Gerry resolution follows: For adoption: Republicans, Borah, Brandegee, Capper, Colt, Curtis, France, Fredenburgh, Granger, Johnson, (California), Jones, Washington, J. P. McLean, McNary, Moore, Norrish, (Ireland) and Watson—17. Democrats: Ashurst, Gerry, Hiram, Hendrick, Henderson, Hitchcock, Kendrick, Kirby, McKellar, Nugent, Phelan, Pittman, Randall, Reed, Sheppard, Shields, Smith, (Maryland), Smith, (South Carolina), Walsh, (Massachusetts), and Walsh, (Montana)—21.

Total for adoption—38. Against adoption: Republicans: Ball, Calder, Cummins, Dillingham, Edge, Eklund, Hale, Harding, Kellough, Kenyon, Leonard, Lodge, New, Park, Phillips, Spencer, Sterling, Townsend and Wadsworth. Total 20. Democrats: Heckman, Dial, Gay, Fletcher, Jones, (New Mexico), King, Myers, Pomeroine, Robinson, Smith, (Georgia), Swanson, Thomas, (Iowa)—21.

TELLS NEEDS FOR RADIO NEWS SERVICE

Government Agent Asserts United States "Played For Sucker" by Other Nations.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 18.—Charges that four or five great nations had "subsidized news agencies" in order to play their political game throughout the world were made here today by Walter S. Rogers of Washington, in charge of government transmission of news to foreign countries during the war.

Urging enactment of a bill which would permit the navy department to use its radio service for transmission of press matter and commercial messages, Mr. Rogers declared that on the whole question of communication the United States was "babe in the woods" and was being played for a sucker every day.

Representative White, republican, Maine, said he believed the committee was unanimous in the view that congress ought to permit naval stations on the Pacific to transmit American news to the Orient at prices to be fixed by the navy department. In this connection Mr. Rogers told the committee that in leading to Shanghai it was cheaper to send via London than across the Pacific.

"If you make the rate across the Pacific cheaper it will bring down the London-Shanghai price," he said. "France has direct wires to China and is sending French news. All American news passes over foreign lines, which are under certain censorship restrictions. Also in spreading the trade goods to South America it is well to remember that newspapers there which formerly got their news from Paris, now get it from press associations in this country. This has been a wonderful service, particularly in establishing close and more friendly relations. The interchange of news is vitally important, but news sells goods and the prestige of the United States depends upon delivery of news which correctly sets forth the American ideals."

Emil M. Scholz, representing an American newspaper printed in Japan, said his paper would not be able to obtain news direct from this country unless the Pacific radio rate was reduced.

D., March 18.—It returns available today from last Tuesday's primaries gave Gunder Olson, regular republican candidate for national committeeman, 3,200 votes, and Ole H. PALMER ASKS FOR BIG SUMS.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 18.—Attorney General Palmer today asked congress for $2,500,000 for the bureau of investigation, $300,000 for the enforcement of prohibition and $600,000 for the employment of special attorneys.

SIMS FAILS TO OFFER REMEDY FOR FAULTS

Declares He Can Not Do So Until Investigation Is Completed.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 18.—Responsibility for conditions which prompted Rear Admiral Sims to indict the navy department's conduct of the war can be determined only on full investigation of his charges, the chief investigating committee, concluding his direct testimony.

For this reason, Admiral Sims said, he had no "well founded" recommendations to make as to the remedies. Until further investigation disclosed whether the errors and mistakes he, his charges were due to faulty organization or inefficient personnel, he added, he would not attempt to formulate remedial proposals.

Cross-examination of Admiral Sims was postponed until Monday on request of Senator Pittman, Nevada, and Tamm, Florida, democratic members of the committee. Senator Pittman said he had requested the postponement that he might have time to read Admiral Sims' testimony.

"To point out violations of well known and generally accepted principles of warfare such as have been shown by my testimony is in itself to suggest the remedy which is obviously to avoid such violations in the future," said Admiral Sims in closing his statement. Previously he had summarized in thirteen specific counts the charges he made against the navy department and emphasized strongly his reiterated assertion that he did not desire that any of his testimony be understood as charging responsibility for the conditions he criticized to any individual. His own knowledge of conditions in the department during the war was too limited to warrant any such accusation, he declared.

Captain Horace Lanning, now commander of the destroyers force in the Atlantic and assistant chief of naval operations and acting chief of the bureau of navigation during the war, has been called by the committee to testify following the cross-examination of Admiral Sims.

BOLSHEVIKI PLANNING UPRISING IN ALASKA

By the Associated Press. CINCINNATI, March 18.—The Times today quotes a Russian Bolshevik radio dispatch issued since the Berlin coup as saying, in connection with propaganda of the Bolsheviks in Alaska: "It is announced that the population of Alaska is preparing to separate from the United States and organize a soviet government."

PUTS PLAN INTO EFFECT.

CINCINNATI, March 18.—Arthur Nash, president of the A. NEWBERRY CASE IS GIVEN TO THE JURY

Eighty-nine Possible Verdicts Are Outlined by Judge.

By the Associated Press. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 18.—Twelve men were today given the fate of Senator Truman H. Newberry and 84 other Michigan political leaders, who for eight weeks have been on trial charged with conspiracy to "steal" state and federal election laws, and to defraud donors in a scheme to defraud contributors to Newberry's 1918 campaign fund.

Less than an hour after the jury retired they were excused for the night by Judge Sessions and told not to discuss the case again until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Eighty-nine possible verdicts were outlined by the court in its instructions, as possible findings. With only two counts left in the indictment, the jury might return verdicts of guilty or not guilty, on either or both of the counts, as to all the defendants.

But if the verdicts were to be individual, it would be necessary to make a return on each of the 85. "If you are satisfied that Truman H. Newberry, at or about the time he became a candidate," said the court, "was informed that his campaign would require the expenditure of more than the law allowed, and yet with such knowledge became a candidate, and thereafter, by advice or conduct, actively took part in the use of an unlawful sum, you will be warranted in finding that he did violate the corrupt practices act."

The court said that "conspiracy" was not difficult to understand and defined it under federal law as being an agreement between two or more persons to commit an offense against the United States. He said that the government was not bound to establish a conspiracy and that neither the intent to form one nor the conspiracy itself need be proven as such.

Criminal intent is one of the essential elements of a conspiracy, Judge Sessions said, but he held that the government was not bound to show that the accused men knew they were violating a law.

"Unlawful acts cannot be justified by innocent intent," said the court. The court said the jury would be warranted in finding that the conspiracy existed if they were satisfied that some of the respondents planned to procure the nomination and election of Newberry by the use of a sum in excess of $3,750, and that there was a definite understanding that Newberry himself should take part in the conspiracy and did so.

"The uncontradicted evidence shows that there was a very extensive organization perfected for the purpose of procuring the election of Truman H. Newberry," the court added. "It is also established that a large sum of money was raised in excess of the amount the law permitted to be used or expended, was used and expended."

OWENS OUTLINES THE PLANKS OF PLATFORM

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 18.—Senator Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma, a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, speaking before the National Press club tonight, outlined his plan for the campaign in a political profession of faith.

"I believe," he said, "in constitutional government; in the preservation of law and order; in the immediate removal of the causes of unrest; in the establishment of an adequate mechanism to protect the rights of labor, capital and the public in industrial disputes; in the freedom of speech and of the press; in popular government; in the political, economic and moral equality of men and women; in prohibition; in the conservation of our natural resources; especially of human life; in a constant effort to reduce the living cost of living by eliminating wastefulness; in the reduction of profits on turn over, by paying living wages; in lowering interest rates; in the direct stimulation of production and distribution; in the repeal of excess profits laws which favor the consumer and impede business; and, by way of summing up, I believe in the economic efficiency of government; in the establishment of a budget system and a campaign against waste and extravagance; I believe in protecting the American citizen at home and abroad."

DUTCH CRITICISE DUTCH FOR FAVORING KAISER

By the Associated Press.

THE HAGUE, March 18.—(The Dutch government was taken to task for what was declared its tendency towards the former German emperor in a debate in the second chamber of parliament today when the premier announced a decree limiting Count Hohenzollern's movements and his pledge not to mix in politics.

Deputy Schipper, socialist, said he was dissatisfied with the premier's answer as a mere slight increase in the "safety" of Count Hohenzollern was not enough and Count Hohenzollern's pledge not sufficient.

Deputy van Rooyen, communist, declared the government's policy of silence had strengthened the general belief that the former emperor came from Holland originally with Holland's silence and Count Hohenzollern, he said, had been permitted to live the quiet, easy life of a retired country gentleman, with a motor car at his disposal in which he could cross the frontier at any time he saw fit. Other deputies took a similar stand, some wanting to know how long the Hohenzollerns would be allowed to stay in Holland.

SAYS EXISTING GRAIN STANDARDS HURTS FARMERS

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Existing grain standards in the three years in which they have been in force "have cost the spring wheat growers sixty million dollars," according to H. N. Owen, of Minneapolis, who is here with a delegation from the northwest to urge modification of the rules. Secretary Merrell will receive the delegation tomorrow. Mr. Owen said, adding that if the recommendations are granted they will be satisfactory to the spring wheat growers.

AUTO DEALERS SELECT PLACES FOR BIG SHOW

Every Available Spot on Second Floor Gone—Half on Lower Section.

GOOD NATURED BANTER FEATURES THE DRAWING

Tractor and Accessory Men Also Select Sites to Display Wares to Big Crowds.

Every available space on the second floor of the big Magel garage building was taken yesterday afternoon at the allotment drawing for the Chronicle Auto Show. More than half the spaces on the ground floor also went. This heavy demand for space at the opening of the allotment indicates that all space will be disposed of before many hours. Applications from a distance have been withheld pending definite action on the part of local dealers, and indications are that there will be few if any standees left when the local men get through.

Tractor Men Interested. Tractor men have taken keen interest in the show. They will be located largely on the ground floor. Their displays will be marvels of attractiveness, and will add greatly to the interest in the show.

Choice of spaces yesterday afternoon drew most all the auto and tractor men of the city to the new Magel garage.

Easy Gists First Choice. The drawing was held in lively humor. There was a lot of good humored banter before the men began to draw their numbers from the hat. There were 12 in the drawing, and 12 numbers were placed in the hat and shaken up. Then in order the names of the firms were called, and the representative drew a number. George Easley, of the Western Auto company, Ford distributors, was fourth to step up to the drawing. George pulled out number one. There was a good humored roar about the Ford getting first choice, but George knew the bang and was right back with response in kind. George notified his exhibition in three spaces to the very front and opposite the entrance. He has room for a splendid display, and it is a bet that the big cars will go some if they outshine him.

Browning Second Choice. The Browning Automobile company drew second choice, and laid the foundation for a display in three spaces which will be the most conspicuous of the firm's favorites in unusual fashion.

The W. E. Smith Motor company was third, picked four spaces in a block in the center, second floor. This display will be one of the features of the show. The Barrett Auto company as fourth choice located between the Western Auto and the Browning. Barrett proposes to show some of the others that he can lay out a display out of the ordinary. He is blamed proud of the car he sells, and wants everyone to know it, too.

Ed Johnson drew number five. For need in his life Ed had to take time to figure. He had laid over and over again before he drew his number that there was but little choice of spaces, and the others had agreed with him. So when it was Ed's turn to pick, the gang felt that he would act promptly. But Ed was as shy as an old maid, and took a lot of time to select his place. But the bunch handed it to him when he did make selection. He picked out a berth of three spaces opposite the head of the stairs, which will be in full view of everyone climbing to the second floor and that will be some display, believe us.

Flood Brothers, of Kimberly, were happy with sixth choice. The senior, if not the best looking member of the firm, was on hand looking after arrangements, and he hung out quickly his preference for two spaces in the corner adjoining the W. E. Smith Motor company. Old Louis Stomach drew seventh place for Reynolds Brothers, and found that no one was tied on a claim for two spaces.

UNION MEN PULLED OFF OF TWO JOBS

Quit Because: Unorganized Workers Are On Same Work—Others Take Places.

Union men have been pulled off two jobs in Twin Falls within the past few days. Because of the fact that non-union laborers were at work on common labor on the building, twelve common laborers, members of the union, were called off the new high school addition. For more than a week these men had been working side by side with non-union men. Other men have taken the places of those who left their jobs.

Members of the union working on the eighth avenue improvement have been working alongside non-union men, but so far these men have not been called off by the building trades council.

Because a non-union plumber went onto the local hospital work, masons, carpenters, painters and wire men were all called off. Other men are to take the places of the men who were called off the work.

HOLD DIVORCE TO BLAME FOR DOUBLE KILLING

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, March 16. A verdict that Mrs. Ruth Randall killed Clifford M. Blyer, wealthy advertising man, and then committed suicide was returned today by a coroner's jury.

NORTH IDAHO POSTS DISCUSS BONUSES

Peur d'Alene Legionnaires Payor plan Giving Choice of Cash or Land Aid.

Members of the Twin Falls post of the American Legion have received word from acquaintances in northern Idaho that much interest is being manifested there concerning preferential rights on land and other bonus propaganda.

The Kootenai post at Coeur d'Alene had a warm session at its last meeting over the discussion of bonus legislation. The post went on record as favoring a combination relief measure which would give former service men a choice as to cash bonus or aid in obtaining land or homes. Such a measure was favored by the Twin Falls post at its meeting two weeks ago, and while at the last meeting the members went on record as individually preferring some form of land or home aid the local post is said to be in line with the Coeur d'Alene post as to making a choice possible.

Dwight Leeper and James Evident were chosen as delegates to represent Coeur d'Alene post at the state convention here April 7, 8 and 9. Leeper is well known in Twin Falls by residents who formerly lived in the northern part of the state. Leeper is city attorney for Coeur d'Alene.

THE AUTO SHOW.

As plans are perfected for the Auto Show in Twin Falls, it becomes more and more apparent that this will be the largest exhibition of motor propelled vehicles that has ever been held in the state.

Yesterday, when the drawing was held for the allotment of space, almost every auto dealer in the city was on hand, and when the results were checked up, it was found that every available space on the second floor had been bought, and over half of the space on the ground floor.

Tractor men, accessory dealers and outside men were on hand either in person or by agent, waiting for the end of the drawing in order that they might be allotted any available space remaining. Most of these were accommodated, with the result that there remains but very little space yet for disposal.

This indicates in a small way the interest shown in the enterprise—an interest which is state wide and which gives assurance for a solid week of thronged streets, thronged merchandise houses and in general a thronged city.

It is a big undertaking, a big work for the community. And there has been no passing the hat.

It is a Chronicle enterprise, and The Chronicle never does anything by halves.

MOVING ICE.

The river's melting from its winter's sleep had been arrested by a belated cold wave. The river valley for miles was filled with heaped-up masses of ice, great slabs thrown on each other in gigantic confusion. There came, a few days of warm sun and brisk winds up the valley. One moment the mass lay there, blinking its blues and whites and muddy streaks against the sun, apparently permanent and immovable. The next moment the whole mass was alive, moving quietly, slowly at first, but ever gaining in speed and power.

The heretofore unbroken fields of smooth ice in the broad basin at the river's mouth began to be torn, ground up into huge chunks like the others. Masses a foot and a half thick, hundreds of square feet in area, were lifted and separated from the fields as easily and quietly as a man lifts the flap of an envelope with a paper knife. One moment there was a smooth, broad white field. The next moment there was a churning mass of ice grinding its way through the river's mouth into open water.

As quietly as it had begun, the movement stopped, balked by a stronger field beyond than any yet encountered. A few hours later, pushed by the mounting pressure of the current behind, aided by melting sun and driving wind, this, too, would break, and a brown, swift stream be flowing between its banks.

The people who were watching it were disappointed when the movement stopped. They joked a bit about "giving it a start with a good stout pole." They had work to do and could not remain to see the final break-up. But nature took no account of human engagements or curiosity. She took her calm and impressive time.

There was force and pressure on a scale which dazed the imagination. But there was no fuss, no ferment, no impatience. There was only the calmness, the quiet, of stupendous forces moving to great ends.

Isn't it futile to fuss and get into a ferment about human affairs? Why be forever throwing silly little bricks and sticks, trying to hurry on the forces of the universe? With quiet and patience and steady pressure the great forces carry themselves and all things moving to their destined fulfillment.

TOYS FOR CHILDREN.

When the war shut out German-made toys from this country, American manufacturers discovered a new and rich field for their industry. Recently a toy fair was held in New York City, at which some 200 manufacturers had exhibits. The fair showed how swiftly the industry had developed; but it showed also a lack of simplicity and an overemphasis—characteristically American—on size and showiness.

There were stuffed animals of every sort, including some more than life-sized and costing more than $100 apiece. There were fearfully expensive dolls that could be made to give a very presentable imitation of walking and talking. There was a modern version of the beloved "music box" of a former generation. The new musical toy is a huge affair—something like a hurdy-gurdy and capable of playing phonograph records.

These things are all very well, and no doubt show the unlimited possibilities of American industrial and inventive genius. But are they toys? Could any normal American child get half as much fun out of a huge, unwieldy stuffed animal which cost his parents $100, as he could with a small, durable beast which could be dragged about with him all day and taken to bed at night?

Magnificence and costliness are not the qualities which a child loves in his toys. They make neither for genuine enjoyment nor for educational advantage. There is a more serious criticism against them. They develop in the child false standards of value and pleasure which, if carried over to grown-up days, take a great deal of the joy out of life.

American toy manufacturers would serve themselves just as well, and perform a greater service for the children of the land if they would devote their energies to producing simple, durable toys which can be handled and played with; which the child can comprehend and become wholly familiar with.

NEIGHBORS' DAY.

Just before former secretary Franklin P. Lane retired from office he issued a call to state governors and influential organizations to attend a conference in Washington during the week of March 22 and arrange for the celebration of Flag Day next June as "Neighbors' Day."

Mr. Lane feels that the people of the United States are drifting away from neighborliness—that we are not keeping up our community life as we should.

Neighbors' Day should appeal to the hearts of the American people which are at bottom sound and fine and have never lost a love for the old-fashioned virtues. It should not be a difficult matter to arouse an interest in neighborliness where it has seemingly disappeared. It is not really dead in any American community, whether congested or wide-scattered; it is just sleeping, drugged with hurry and pressure involved in making a living.

In community of interest there is public safety and individual security. A common cause, a common interest, is the strongest bond which can hold people together, be it in the family or the world outside.

The idea of Neighbors' Day is worthy of the good citizen who suggested it, and it should be the occasion of bringing the good citizens of all communities more closely together. And while we are waiting for the day itself, we get in practice by trying a little plain, old-fashioned neighborly every day.

The hen lays the Easter egg, mother colors it, Willie eats it, and the Bunny gets the credit for it.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

who had squatted in the early moments. If Cuthbert ever prayed in his life, it was that the boys overlook those two spaces. And they did, to his everlasting delight.

Gordon Davis Auto company, next in line, got three of their spaces between the Reynolds allotment and that of the Johnson Automobile Sales company—and located the fourth on the ground floor. Now, never mind about that separation. These two boys will wake up to find that this new contending firm will be there with equal displays and that someone must go to outguess them.

Wright's Selection by Proxy. Let Wright was present by proxy, and space is held for him subject to his approval. The boys wanted him to have every consideration for the big game for the grand and son of the house. He will be located on the ground floor.

Big Ed Merrill, jolly head of the auto company which bears his name, drew number ten. But he, too, had been camping on a claim he had squatted upon, and found himself located in his old desire, right at the head of the parade. And he will make that a beauty spot which will attract every passer, you may bet.

Get a Center Choice. The Alpha Auto Supply company looked solemn when it found itself unable to secure four spaces on the second floor. But this solemnity was not more than skin deep, for what this enterprising contender for public favor really wanted was a center show place, and this was won on the ground floor, very soon center, thumped. And there this shibboleth will be during the week of liberty and business.

Oil Company to Display. Wendell Allen, for the Allen Oil company, got by in-twelfth place, with a nook and a lot of wall space, just what he wanted. And he promises a showing which will be a real attraction to the eye.

W. E. Cuthbert will show, stands in auto painting in a space adjoining that held by the Allen Oil company, and J. W. Bearup, veteran in the realm of tractor salesmanship, will display a machine which for size and power will make them all look twice. There are yet but a few spaces. Accessory men and tractor salesmen will want them, but they must act quickly. First come, first served, from here in.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region or a burning or stinging of the salts from any good doctor here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days

FRECKLE-FACE

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Many get an ounce of Othine, double strength from your druggist and a few applications will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion.

The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles. Adv. by C. C. Siggins.

ATTENTION VERSUS SERVICE

If defined correctly and given its full value in deeds rather than in word, there probably is no word in the English language that means so much as the word "Service." Unfortunately, the word has become so habitual in its use by so many firms and individuals as well that its real value in meaning has greatly deteriorated by its misuse by those who have formed the "Service Saying" habit, but failing utterly to live up to its true meaning. The kind of Service rendered by this or any other store must be measured by the ATTENTION you receive in making a purchase, adjustment. If there is any to be made, and above all else is to be given the greatest ATTENTION to the quality of merchandise if complete satisfaction is to be expected. Call it what you will, the one main desire of this store is to give its patrons that kind of ATTENTION which makes for permanency a satisfied customer. Anything short of this must result in dissatisfaction, which no store can afford to have.

Signed,
C. E. BOOTH.

JUMMINS ATTACKS 'SMELLING' ACTIVITY

Democratic Chairman Declares $2,000,000 Wasted by Committee.

By the Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 18.

Financial expenditures of $2,000,000 of "smelling" committees were harshly attacked by the republican party in congress by Hon. S. C. Conplinger, chairman of the democratic national committee, in an address made tonight at a dinner attended by eminent leaders of Kentucky. "The committee, chairman Cummings aid, were appointed to ascertain whether there had been any graft in the conduct of the world war but instead of ascertaining that this was the case, as was ever fought in the history of civilization."

"The finger of scorn does not point to one single democratic official in all of broad America," added Mr.

Jummings. "I want to remind you that it does not take the months of time which captured the Spanish-American war to indulge in the luxury of crimi-nalism. What is there in this war to compare with the typhoid-infested camps of the war of 1898, when it was in this war to compare with the paper-soiled show business of 1898, and what is there in this war to

"We have fought a great war for a great cause and we have had a leadership which has carried America to greater heights of glory and power and splendor and honor than she has ever known before in her entire history."

"The republicans have been in control of the senate and the house for nearly months," the chairman continued. "They want in under false pretenses. They outlined an elaborate program of reconstruction that looked very well in the newspapers. They have not only delayed and indefinitely postponed the peace of the world, but interfered with American commerce and brought the rate of exchange tumbling down to a point hitherto unknown, but aside from railroad legislation of doubtful value, they have not passed one single constructive act.

"Had a democratic congress been elected, or a congress in sympathy with the president, the treaty of peace would long ago have been ratified, innumerable avenues of trade and commerce would have been opened to us, and we would have taken on new and glorious work."
