Strain and Worries Have Wrecked President's Health

President Wilson was the picture of health when he arrived in Paris just before Christmas, 1918, for the peace conference. His cheeks were full and firm and his skin had a rosy glow.

At the peace conference Wilson saw more people and worked harder and longer than any other statesman. Upon his return last summer the treaty fight opened in Washington.

Now President Wilson is recovering slowly, but it requires only a comparison of these photographs to show that he has suffered intensely and that a long way from "fit," his face is pinched and thin.

Admiral Fletcher could not admit that because his specific order did not apply, Lieutenant Commander Freeman, escort commander, to hold the convoy together, it was "literally obeyed."

EXPECT LIQUOR CASE DECISIONS APRIL 19

Further Argument on Validity of Constitutional Amendment Presented Yesterday.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 29.—A possibility that the supreme court might pass final judgment on prohibition questions before it by the middle of next month, was seen by some observers today in the announcement that the court recess to be taken after arguments on these cases, probably to renew, would extend to April 19 instead of April 12.

The opinion was expressed that a decision might be rendered immediately when the court reconvenes.

Further arguments on questions touching the validity of the constitutional amendment, and ten enforcement acts, was presented today. They were in connection with the original suit brought by New Jersey as well as appeals from other states and from Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Kentucky and Massachusetts cases have already been argued and will be considered at the same time.

Elliot Root, representing Christian Polgarson, a brewer of Newark, N. J., Attorney General Thomas F. Miller of New Jersey as appellant in the constitutional amendment and Assistant Attorney General William J. Flaherty for the government, addressed the court.

Mr. Root characterized the prohibition amendment as new legislation made under "color of an amendment affecting personal rights. If its validity was upheld, he said, the effect would be that the court recognized in addition to the legislative powers of congress and the states, a third legislative power, enactment of legislation by consent of the four-fifths of the states.

"It is of little consequence," Mr. Root said, "if there be or be not prohibition in this country. It is of vast consequence, however, that your honors now decide rightly and for the good of our country in the future if there are to be any limits to the power of the amendment and where the line of limitation is to be drawn.

"I insist that your honors are not at liberty to put a construction on the power to amend that will overturn the fundamental character of this government unless the language of the article is to plain to admit a question."

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 29.—The scale committees of the bituminous operators and mine workers, in a joint conference today, agreed to make the monetary provisions in the award of the bituminous coal commission as affirmed by the president, effective April 1, and that the mines continue in operation pending the working out of a new agreement.

GLYNES MAKES ATTACK ON TREATMENT OF THE IRISH

LONDON, March 29.—John R. Glynnes, laborite member, in moving a resolution of the Irish bill, referred to the effect on British-American relations of the present system of government in Ireland by imprisonment and deportation without trial. He declared that the bill had not been accepted by a few and approved by none of the labor party. He objected to what he termed the undue tenderness the bill displayed toward Ulster and the proposal to partition Ireland on a religious basis.

Lord Robert Cecil failed to see how the bill would facilitate American opinion if that were the object. He believed, he declared, that the British would get the respect and affection of the American people—not of politicians, or of the people, who govern that strange body, the senate—if she did the right thing from the viewpoint of justice and good administration.

Point of justice and good administration, "and left American opinion to follow and understand what our actions meant." Lord Roberts added that the bill would not restore order in Ireland.

T. P. O'Connor, Irish nationalist, criticized the bill which he described as "a bill for making worse the government in Ireland." In addition, he said, would not enable the government to withdraw a soldier from Ireland. He did not believe there was the slightest possibility of establishing a republic in Ireland.

J. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, defending the bill, appealed to the house to make a supreme effort to settle the problem. He pleaded with the nationalists to win over Ulster to make her one of the proudest ornaments of the parliament of Dublin.

FIFTY NEW HOMES NEEDED IN FILER

Twin Falls City Makes Most Marvelous Growth in History—New Construction Being Pushed.

FILER, March 29.—Not since the early days in the growth of Filer has there been such building activity as is seen here now.

To the right or left, on any street, one sees the golden sheen of new wood, beams the rattle of concrete masons and uncovers the heave of building material.

Not singly and in isolated parts of the city, but in groups and in all portions of the town, new buildings are in course of construction. Each day finds some new buildings completed, each day sees others begun. Fifty new homes in addition to those now in course of construction are to be built, and all of these will fall to meet the demands for shelter for families.

In very truth, Filer is growing as never has before, and as few towns of the size have ever grown.

And the growth is permanent, substantial, and a response to demand from the surrounding country.

Work on the new Masonic block is progressing rapidly. The foundations are in and the floor is now being laid.

This week the rear wing of the Record office was removed and a temporary partition installed. This new block will be one of the most handsome and commodious business edifices in Filer and when completed will house the Record office, the S. C. E. H. Drug Store, an electrical shop and a restaurant.

E. L. Sweet is completing two homes in the northwest part of town, in the new Masonic addition, one of which will be occupied by himself and the other by L. S. Lathrop.

E. H. Hargrave and R. C. Overton, both building contractors, have each recently constructed model homes in the same addition.

Victor Dease has completed the erection of a modern bungalow near the Graybill property, which adds much to the appearance of that portion of town. Across the street, W. A. Shear has made extensive improvements on his property, and added two rooms to his house.

H. H. Schindler has let the contract for a modern home on Yakima avenue opposite the Evangelical church and construction has already commenced.

On Yakima avenue, O. J. Childs has erected a modern six-room bungalow that is almost completed.

Work has commenced on remodeling of the W. P. Shinn property, and when completed it will present an attractive appearance.

C. E. Wilcox is finishing the work on his handsome home in the west part of town. The home is modern throughout and a distinct asset to the town.

J. C. Rehears has completed and is now occupying his large new home which is said to be one of the finest in Filer.

Work on the R. H. Goodenough home at the east part of town is progressing rapidly and the building will be ready for occupancy shortly.

W. J. Schultz has finished the construction of a handsome home near the Childs property on the same block.

Dr. M. J. Goodie is making plans for a new home to be built just east of the furnishing property.

There are many other homes planned to be erected at once and presently there are new homes here that have not been mentioned.

It is known that there are plans afoot for the construction of several business blocks on Main street, the details of which have not been fully developed.

With the extensive amount of residential sidewalk construction that will start soon, the plans under way for the paving of Main street and Yakima avenue, the erection of either a new grade school building, or annex to the present building, with proposals for a sewer system, and extension of the water system, with work already started on the last summer fairway west of town, and the added working facilities, which it will make necessary, there will be a busy place this season.

It is said that at least fifty more new homes are needed here to accommodate the increased housing demand.

Five hundred women, $68.00 and three weeks' time elected a mayor in Columbus, Ohio. How 500 Columbus women in three short weeks fought this machine and beat it, makes one of the most astounding stories that has ever been written.

In case you do not sleep—

Do you suffer from insomnia? Do you lie awake at night afraid you cannot sleep? How long can you live without sleep? What are the actual effects of sleep deprivation? Can it result in semi-insanity? Do you know that insomnia may be due to bad teeth, or poor eyesight or impure blood? The entire subject is handled stimulatingly by H. Adington Bruce in March Good Housekeeping.

What has love to do with the social unrest?

Love can be an element in the social unrest? It may be woven inextricably in the labor problem. For proof, read I. A. R. Wylie's greatest story, "Children of Storm". The love story of Ursula is the story that may happen to any woman today. Her problem could almost become universal overnight.

NEXT YEAR'S SCHOOLS.

Last spring as the school year drew to its close the sentiment in most localities was: "Another year we will have room enough so that our children need not be crowded and kept on relay schedules. We will have plenty of teachers so that classes need not be so large, and the children will have a chance at a fair amount of personal instruction."

Where are most communities now? Right where they left off last spring. There may have been building, but most building schedules fell short of the growth of the school enrollment. There may have been sporadic efforts to meet the teacher situation, but they, too, fell short of what was needed.

If the same old conditions, only magnified, are not to greet the children when they return to school next fall, the preventative measures must begin now. If it is not possible to build the handsome edifice of brick or stone, a building of modern factory type, well-lighted, easily heated, fireproof and quickly constructed, has much to recommend it.

If good teachers and plenty of them are provided, salaries must be sufficient to attract people of the best type. Pleasant homes must be assured to the teachers who come from out of town, and home talent must be encouraged and stimulated—not neglected and overlooked, as is too frequently the case.

All this must be started NOW if the children are not to be subjected to the old difficulties and the tax-payers' money wasted on inefficiency in the same old way.

DYES.

That the fight against the German dye is to continue now that American dye makers have conquered many of the secrets of the color processes used by our former foes, is evidenced by the controversy raging in committee rooms of congress. Whether there shall be an embargo on the importation of German dyes, or the imposition of an extremely high tariff upon the goods, seems to be the crux of the debate.

It is contended that American dye-makers, in many instances, have succeeded in producing colorings equal to the best German product, and that leading textile concerns are about to guarantee the "fastness" of the colors of their products made with American dyes.

The guarantee of fast colors by the fabric maker will do more to promote the popularity of the domestic dyes than all the argument that congress could listen to in a year. Give her a guarantee as to color of the silk or cotton goods she purchases, and the American woman, who has the final word in the premises, will not be interested particularly in what congress may do against the German product.

CHEAPER SEEDS.

One thing, at least, is plentiful and cheap this spring. It is garden seeds. Both the supply and prices of most varieties are more satisfactory than they have been for the last two or three years. This fact is not pleasing in itself, to seed-purchasers, but is conducive to what this country needs more than anything else—an increased food production.

An unfortunate aspect of the situation, however, is that in spite of the lower prices, dealers are selling less seed than they usually do at this time of year. This is explained by the shortage of labors on truck farms, which in large numbers of cases is reducing the cultivated acreage and thus diminishing the seed demand. This fact tends to counteract the good effect of cheaper seeds, so far as production is concerned.

It is clearly the duty as well as the opportunity of the home gardeners to do what they can to make up for the truck garden shrinkage. The high cost of vegetables as well as the low cost of seeds contributes powerfully to that end, and, accordingly a big increase of sales to the home-gardener is reported. This should be the best gardening year on record.

GETTING TO KNOW MEXICO.

The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce recently adopted a resolution urging that the "concrete facts which demonstrate the financial, commercial, political and social progress of the Republic of Mexico" be published by chambers of commerce all over the country for the enlightenment of the American people.

The impression which the general public holds of Mexico is one of confusion, trouble, unstable conditions and total lack of progress or civilization of any sort. Mexico is troublesome enough and backward enough without any exaggeration of the truth. If there are cheering facts known to the chambers of commerce in this country they ought to be made known both in justice to Mexico and for our own good.

The St. Louis chamber of commerce declares that commercial conditions in Mexico are more stable today than they have been for many years. There is more promise of a satisfactory solution of Mexican problems now than any time since the Madero revolution. Our imports from and exports to that country have increased during the past year. Mexico herself has made real progress in agricultural extension and experimental work.

In other words, Mexico is not wholly bad. There are some good and hopeful facts which Americans might study to their own benefit.

THE TROUBLE WITH LIBERTY BONDS.

It is unfortunate that Liberty Bonds remain below par, but it does not follow that it is necessary or wise to raise their market value artificially by raising their interest rate. The secretary of the treasury is very properly opposing congressional suggestions that all the issues be called in by the government and replaced by a new issue paying 5 per cent or more.

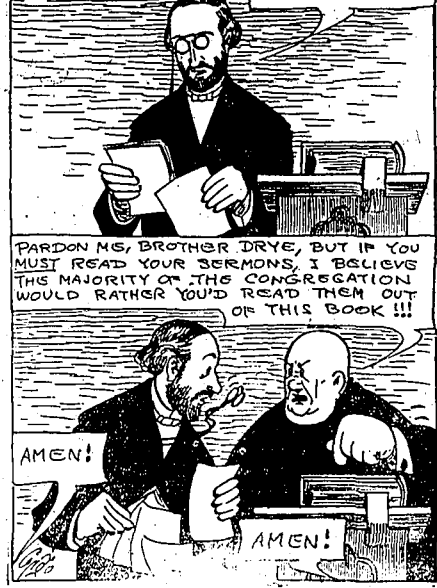

Such a process, as Secretary Houston explains, would impose new burdens on the government at a time when it is already hard pressed to meet obligations. It would require higher taxes from a public weary of taxes. It would upset credits on a vast scale. It would throw the investment market into confusion, interfering with legitimate and desirable purchase of private securities for the purpose of industrial development.

There is nothing wrong with Liberty Bonds. The only trouble is with the people who own them. There is a natural, simple and easy way to bring them back to par. All that is necessary is for the owners to keep them instead of selling them.

What if Mars is wig-wagging us, as some scientists profess to believe? Better pass him up. He may be trying to inveigle us into a war with some of the outlying parts of the solar system. We sternly refuse to meddle with the interplanetary quarrels. Self-determination for planets is our motto.

BIDS ON HIGHWAY OPENED, TOO HIGH

Board to Dispose of Offerings Today. Meet With Chamber of Commerce Committee Today.

Bids for the construction of paved roads in the Twin Falls highway district were opened yesterday. Bidding on their disposal was postponed until this morning at 11 o'clock. All of the bids were said to be much higher than expected.

Contract No. 4 calls for the construction of 12.25 miles of road to the west of Twin Falls. The estimated cost of this work, as reported by Engineer Johnson, exclusive of estimated profits and contingencies, was $240,652.05 for penetration macadam, a class of paving similar to that of the road to the falls. Thomas Owens & Co. were the only bidders on penetration macadam for this work. Their bid was $301,183.25. The Western Construction company offered a bid of $477,704.48 for bituminous concrete, first class and $442,954.48 for bituminous concrete, second class. Road & Payne offered to put in bituminous concrete, first class, for $459,958.58, and bid $425,708.83 for bituminous concrete, second class. $551,557.17; same, second class, $569,807.17. J. C. McGuffee, bituminous concrete, first class, $415,847.84; second class, $394,237.84. Thomas Owen & Co., penetration macadam, $369,445.65.

Announcement was made last night that a meeting will be held this morning between members of a committee appointed by the chamber of commerce and the highway board at which time the terms of payment will be discussed. According to Engineer W. L. Johnson, suggestion has been made for better types of paving than planned and it is for the purpose of discussing the situation that the meeting will be held this morning.

DEATHS TOLL IN TORNADO IS PLACED AT 161

veloped in southern Arizona and Nevada. This combination, Professor Cox said, resulted in a rainey mixture which formed eddies and caused a tornado.

EMERGES FROM WRECKAGE.
TOLEDO, Ohio, March 29.—Genoa, Raab's Corners and Swanton began tonight to emerge from the wreckage caused by the cyclone there late Sunday night. Two were killed and 34 seriously injured at Genoa. At Raab's Corners four met death and more than a score hurt. More than a score were injured at Swanton.

At Raab's Corners, a hamlet, almost every building was leveled while the western section of Genoa was demolished. At Swanton practically every building was marked in some manner by the storm.

Members of the American Legion post were, guarding the ruins of the 20 or more homes demolished.

Relief measures are being taken and a fund has been started at Genoa to build new homes for the victims. The section of the town destroyed was occupied by the poorer classes.

Some weird antics were played by the storm at Genoa. At the home of Don Bell, principal of the high school, a two-month-old boy, sleeping with its parents was lifted from the bed and thrown across the room on a pillow, depositing him so easily that he was not awakened.

Alto Steinman, whose home was blown off its foundation, was sitting in the living room with one of his children in his lap. His wife was in another room with the other child. The house was thrown back 20 feet. There was little shock, however, and no one was scratched. The furniture was not even moved out of place.

The home of Hiram Johnson was swept away. His wife was carried across the street, where her body was found in a mass of wreckage, a neighbor's former home. Johnson is in a serious condition.

PROPERTY DAMAGE HEAVY.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 29.—Latest reports from the storm-swept areas of northern Indiana place the number of dead from Sunday's tornado at 36. Hundreds of persons were injured in ten counties and property damage will total hundreds of thousands of dollars. Many persons have not been accounted for.

Two additions to the death list came from Adams county, where no reports of deaths had been reported. Eleven dead were reported in Allen county, in which Fort Wayne is located, 11 were reported killed in Jay county, one in Steuben county, one in Montgomery county and 10 from Union City, in Randolph county.

Full reports from many rural districts have not been received. Relief work is being carried on by local organizations in towns or cities nearest the devastated rural districts. Temporary reconstruction work in some sections was begun today. Several counties in which no loss of life was reported, suffered heavy property damage.

CUT DOWN DEATH LIST.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 29.—Revised reports tonight from storm-swept sections of Georgia and Alabama cut down the death list to 55. La Grange, Ga., 26 persons were killed. Eleven were killed at Alexander City, Ala., 10 at West Point, Ga., five at Arcadia, Ala., and one each at Monroe and Miller, Ga., and Cedar Springs, Ala.

The number of injured was large. The funeral of one of the slain was estimated at $500,000 with that at West Point said to be "hundreds of thousands." An far east as Washington, Ga., the storm caused damage estimated at $200,000.

SAYS BLOW ON HEAD CAUSE OF DEATH OF AGED WOMAN

By the Associated Press.

DEADWOOD, S. D., March 29.—A forest fire blew on the left side of the head in the only thing that could have caused the death of the 74-year-old Mrs. Hilda Neamy, Dr. G. C. Faris, a Denver dentist, testified today at the trial of Mrs. and Mrs. George Searle, charged with her murder.

Mrs. Neamy's body was found in the furnace of her late home at Lead. The defense contends she crawled into the furnace in an effort to avoid destruction. Mrs. Neamy was Mrs. Searle's mother.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS MUST BE IN POLITICS

Cannot be Otherwise "Until the American People Themselves Decide It," Says Johnson.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The league of nations must become a political issue and continue as such "until the American people themselves decide it," says a speaker who declared "will be respected by some of the men who have been making the struggle at Washington in the last nine months." Senator Hiram Johnson of California, declared in an address last night.

Assuring the United States "wants to remain neutral," Senator Johnson attacked the league of nations as a mere instrument tending to cause war instead of preventing them. He assailed articles ten, which guaranteed the integrity of league members from external aggression, even in the case of a revolution which Wilson had declared "out the heart of the covenant," and added: "We in the senate replied to him that if that cut the heart out of the covenant, we will cut the heart out of this covenant."

"My brand of Americanism," he continued, "repels any suggestion of interference in a civil, abhorrent, concrete illustration of what the league of nations will mean to America down the generations, and of what lies behind all the smooth diplomatic phrases, all the flowery pretended idealism which describes a compact that binds us to do nothing to ward off a treaty that will keep us out of war. 'The Americanism in which I believe, and which I preach,' would maintain America as the arbiter of her own destiny. It would hold this republic inviolate against the wiles of European and Asiatic diplomacy and would refuse to make the republic a treaty that will keep us out of war."

Senator Johnson urged the necessity of "decentralizing from the administration those great war powers accorded it for the purpose of success in war," thereby removing "that great autonomy in this country, in one man."

SHETLER IS AGAIN SAVED BY WRIT

Oregon Deputy Halted at Mountain Home by Action of Court Here.

For the second time, E. L. Shetler has been saved from extradition for trial in Oregon by a writ of habeas corpus. The well driller who is charged with grand larceny was in custody of an Oregon deputy sheriff and was on his way west in an automobile when halted by the writ, issued in the district court at the instance of Hathwell & Chapman, attorneys for Shetler.

The deputy, armed with proper extradition documents, took charge of Shetler early Sunday morning and began the trip to Oregon in an automobile at a good speed but was not able to cross the line before being halted by the action of the court. Authorities held up the party at Mountain Home and Shetler was delivered into the custody of the sheriff there and is now awaiting the hearing of bond for his temporary release from custody.

Arrangements have been made for a hearing on the writ of habeas corpus at Shoshone at which Judge J. P. Ensign will preside.

president will be in New England while the democratic national convention is in session in San Francisco, although congress from all indications now will nominally be in session but actually will be transmitting no business by gentlemen's agreement between the leaders. There have been some hints that the president might receive the much expected official announcement as to whether he wants a third term, for presentation at the convention, and if that be true, he probably would prepare his letter at the summer White House. The usual staff of secretaries, clerks, stenographers and secret service men will accompany the president. Special telephone and telegraph wires will be installed, and to all practical purposes the White House will be in Wood's Hole after June 15.

IS PICTURESQUE SPOT.

WOODS HOLE, Mass., March 29.—Residents here, when informed President Wilson was to spend the summer at Juniper Point, the home of Charles H. Crane, said that from the standpoint of seclusion and picturesqueness, he could not have made a better choice. The 150-acre estate covers the entire point, which is the southwest tip of Cape Cod. A Japanese garden is a feature. There are golf links, tennis courts and a small beach.

Mr. Crane's "cottage" contains 20 rooms. On the estate are two other houses. One has been occupied for three summers by Secretary Houston of the treasury department.

The summer season at Woods Hole as a rule is a quiet one socially. Activities center principally about the marine biological laboratory.

There is a golf course not far from the village.

Thirty years ago President Grover Cleveland spent many days each summer fishing in Buzzard's bay.

CHAMBER TO VOTE ON AMERICAN PLAN

Questionnaires to Be Mailed Out to Members Today, Decision of Meeting.

Questionnaires will today be mailed out to members of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, requesting their opinion of expression of the membership on the question of approval of the American plan. Next Monday night the executive board will canvass this expression, and upon the result of the vote will determine whether or not the American plan will be endorsed by that body.

Last night at a called meeting of the members of the chamber, the matter came up for discussion, and a motion was adopted approving the plan of the board to submit the question to the membership, and setting a date for canvassing the vote. Following this, a motion prevailed endorsing the American plan, the endorsement being from the membership present. Standing vote was taken, the vote being 59 to 5.

The meeting reached a vote only after a prolonged discussion. The board of directors had refused to endorse the American plan, but instead had decided to submit the matter to the membership of the chamber in the form of a questionnaire. Many of those present at the meeting last night desired that the body take the matter from the board and directly endorse the American plan. Others felt that there not being a majority of the membership present, it would be better to let the question go to the executive board through the questionnaire, the board to be in honor bound to act in accord with the majority will as expressed in the replies thereto. The final result was approval of the questionnaire plan, following which the expression of those present was taken showing a vote 59 to 2 for endorsement of the American plan.

The meeting decided to entertain the visiting Salt Lake wholesale men here next month in the best way possible, and the president was authorized to name a committee to handle the entire matter. This committee will be headed by President Asher H. Wilson today.

A committee from the local American Legion Post sought the assistance of the chamber in the matter of closing business houses on the day of the opening of the state convention of the legion in Twin Falls. By unanimous vote, the meeting decided to throw its influence in favor of closing all places of business in Twin Falls the afternoon of the first day of the convention, and to also ask the school board to give the student body a half holiday that day, so that the parade may be enjoyed.

"I gave the Red Cross representative a telegram which I figured was about the amount it would cost to send the cable, said Mr. Thorne. "She took my name and address and told me that if that if the amount was not sufficient it would be all right but that if the amount was too large a rebate would be made. The matter passed out of my mind, but not out of the mind of the Red Cross representative."

Live Stock

CHICAGO, March 29.—Hogs, 2,000; 19,000 higher than Saturday's average; bulk $14.00@15.40; top $16.00. Heavy $14.10@15.25; medium $14.75@15.00; light $15.25@15.65; light light $15.60@15.50; heavy packing sows, smooth, $13.15@13.75; packing sows, rough, $12.60@13.15; pigs, $13.50@15.50.

Cattle 1,000. Trade too erratic to warrant detailed quotations.

Sheep 10,000; mostly directed to packers; not enough sales to make prices. On account of an embargo resulting from a strike of stockyard employees, no livestock is expected to arrive in Chicago tomorrow.

Grain

CHICAGO, March 29.—Corn averaged higher price today mainly as a result of scantiness of the stock in hand here. The close was unsettled, 3-8c net lower to 1 5/8c advance, with May 15c 7/8 to 15c and July 15 1/2 to 15c 1/4. Oats lost 1-8c to 2-3c and provisions 2c at 7c.

Absence of selling pressure characterized the corn market from the beginning today. Very service had been crippled by the tornado and with business confined almost entirely to Chicago traders the prevailing spirit was one of caution. In view of the small issues here the fact that receipts this morning gave no indication of any important increase of the crop movement tended noticeably to strengthen values. So too did continued export demand for rice and wheat, but after today the latter market considered the capital out of reports that a big oats industry had reduced its output 50 per cent owing to lack of export call for its product. Oats were depressed by stoppage of European inquiry, as well as by shipping preference given to corn.

All first provisions showed strength in connection with a stockyard employee strike that threatened to interrupt packing house work. Later though, values were left almost entirely without support.

RUSSIAN VOLUNTEER ARMY DISAPPEARS

Presence of Green Forces, Describes From Factions, Worry to Denkin.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 28.—General Baron Wrangel, commander of the volunteer army in south Russia, has come across the Black sea from the Novorossisk region and is now on Prinkipol island in the sea of Marmara. He visited Constantinople before proceeding to Prinkipol. The Russian volunteer army has virtually disappeared.

General Denkin, the anti-Bolshevik leader in southern Russia, and his general staff have been at Novorossisk since March 14. The Cossack force still number about six thousand. All of the foreign missions have evacuated Ekaterinodar, in Ciscaucasia, near the eastern coast of the Black sea and a short distance from Novorossisk, but apparently there is no organized Bolshevik force within forty miles of the city, although scattered bands are making trouble by interfering with the communications.

It is a significant fact that the finest cars in America are equipped with KELLY-SPRINGFIELD TIRES.

today from Novorossisk any that a considerable number of detachments of the Green army, made up chiefly of deserters from the other armies, are within one mile of Novorossisk. Their presence is causing great uneasiness, as it is feared it may bring about an uprising at any hour, which would cause Novorossisk to fall of its own weight as you the case at Odessa.

The extremely low Bolshevik advance toward Ekaterinodar is attributed here chiefly to the typhus, which is said to be worse among the Bolsheviks than among the Cossacks. Typhus, an important railway junction northwest of Ekaterinodar, has not yet been taken by the Bolsheviks.

The Dagestan government in the Caucasus is dominated by Mohammedans, who are so outraged at the seizure by the Cossacks of their lands that they are reported to have made an agreement not to oppose the Bolsheviks, and certainly still prevail as to what will be the attitude of the Azerbaijan government to the Bolshevik movement toward Persia, but it is rumored in Constantinople that the Turkish nationalists have influenced Azerbaijan in favor of the Bolsheviks.

PROGRAM FOR LEGION MEET ANNOUNCED

BUSINESS HOUSES WILL CLOSE ON FIRST DRAV

Funds to Finance Affair Will Be Solicited From Business Men by Citizens Committee Today.

Prizes of $75, $50 and $25 will be awarded to posts other than Twin Falls who will participate in the parade in the coming state convention of the American Legion. This decision was made yesterday by the executive committee of the American Legion in conference with the members of the committee on arrangements for the convention. The outside post having the largest number present in uniform will be given $75, the second largest number present will be given $50 and the third $25.

E. H. Lindley, president of the state university, will be the principal speaker at the convention. This announcement was made yesterday by John C. Thorge, chairman of the sub-committee on printing, programs and publicity. Dr. Lindley is said to be one of the best speakers in the state. He has appeared in Twin Falls several times. The subject of his address will be "The American Standard."

In a conference between Jack Thorge, chairman of the executive committee, A. Wilson Peck, general chairman, and D. Harold McGrath of the printing, program and publicity committee, yesterday the program for the three days' convention was drafted. Combined with the features arranged by the entertainment committee are those of the business session as arranged by the state university.

LEGION WILL HAVE AUXILIARY SOON

Women to Organize at Meeting at Parish Hall—Plan Entertainment of Visiting Women.

Mrs. C. Siggins, one of the leaders of the organization work of the women's auxiliary to the American Legion post here, has received many inquiries regarding the plans which are being made for the meeting tomorrow afternoon at Parish hall.

At this meeting mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of Legion men will definitely establish themselves as auxiliaries of the legionnaires.

A large number of women relatives of legion men are expected to be in Twin Falls at the time of the state convention, April 7, 8 and 9. It is because of the work of women who are eligible for membership in the auxiliary in Twin Falls to both in the entertainment of visiting women that it is desired that the work of organization be completed as thoroughly and quickly as possible.

The meeting tomorrow will be held at 7:30 o'clock and will be open to all women of the legion, and all women eligible to membership in the auxiliary, which includes wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of legion men as well as the same relatives of all men and women who were in the service, either in the army or navy, any time between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, and who died in line of duty or after honorable discharge and prior to Nov. 11, 1918.

MISS WOLFE TO SPEAK.

Miss Edith Wolfe, county superintendent of schools, left yesterday afternoon for Spokane to attend the teachers' association meeting there.

COUNCIL HAS LITTLE TO DO; MUCH TALK

Unable to Reach Decision on Election of Cross-walks—Hard to Get Quorum.

If taking lots of time to a job spells a job done, well then the business of the city, transacted by the municipal council yesterday, has not been accomplished in a superlative degree. There was not much to do and it took a long time to do it.

The question of cost for debating cross-walks at street intersections, together with the placing of boxes for mail carriers and over a drain crosswalk, were the only items that the council ever considered. The last order passed, was passed upon last night by Special Building Engineer W. L. Hoffedtz and discussed at great length by the mayor and members of the council. Nothing of a definitive character came out of the debate except that the cost, as it now appears, is more than the city wants, or really can bear. The new estimates place the excess cost, over and above former estimates, and also above available resources, at about $10,000.

Council admitted that this is too great a burden after considering all angles of the question last night, and recommended that the entire matter be laid over another week for further perusal and scrutiny by Mr. Hoffedtz, with a view to "whittling down" so that the expenditures required will come within the amount in the interim fund for this purpose.

One of the striking features of the council session was the failure of a quorum, until one of the aldermen could be brought over from some other business. Alderman J. S. Russell was absent on account of illness.

J. T. Chapman submitted a plan of a ten and one-half acre tract, lying on the east side of Blue Lakes boulevard, immediately south of the railroad track. Mr. Chapman has made a subdivision of 50 lots out of the tract, but had not laid out the streets and other thoroughfares in conformity with streets commission other portions of the city. The plan, as submitted, was rejected, but recommendations offered by the city engineer, concurred in by the members of the administrative board, were accepted cheerfully by Mr. Chapman, who said he would make such changes as would be acceptable to the city.

An open ditch was the center of a storm of protest by a delegation of residents on Sixth avenue north, in blocks 29 and 30. Protestants lodged vigorous objection to the existence of a newly deepened ditch designed by the paving engineer to carry storm and flood waters from the end of the storm sewer to a western outlet. The ditch was declared a menace to safety and health, and threats of dire things were made by at least one member of the protesting delegation. After considerable consideration and forensic discussion the protestants were advised that the sewer would be amply provided. The block was divided in half blocks from the end of the enclosed drain to Addison avenue and is said to be from three to five feet in depth.

There will be no raise in the pay of city firemen this fiscal year. The administration decided that in a definite budget for next year, however, will be considered when the council drafts its expense budget for the coming fiscal period. Chief W. R. Worrell was called into meeting and explained why he had not endorsed the petition presented two weeks ago by the city firemen, asking for an increase. He said he had not endorsed the petition, knowing there was no money in the fund to cover advances in wages. Figures were submitted showing rates of firemen's pay in Boise and Pocatello.

In the former place the schedule runs from $110 to $150 per month, according to the status of the employee. In Pocatello the rates are from $140 to $200. Twin Falls firemen are paid from $110 to $145.

Dr. W. A. Faloon, city meat and milk inspector, was called upon to discuss the proposal to employ an assistant inspector. His reply is this: He hopes to have charge of milk and dairy inspections. Dr. Faloon said he was unable to look after all the work in the incorporated departments alone, and Mayor Eldridge was vested with authority to seek out the right man for the right place.

During a discussion of the general pest question following disposal of the milk question, Dr. Faloon stated that 25 percent of hogs slaughtered in Twin Falls abattoirs are seriously affected with tuberculosis. He told of having condemned three carcasses out of four brought in from one nearby farm. He said that the other about two percent of the best slaughtered are infected. The quality of beef offered in Twin Falls for sale is only of fair quality. There is no prime beef slaughtered here, he declared.

A short ordinance, ordering the vacation of an alley 15 feet wide, which is 155 feet long, was read and passed. The alley passes through certain lots owned by J. I. Benoit.

Plans were decided upon for obtaining depositions of witnesses in water damage suits through attorneys in cities where the witnesses are located. The company supplying the water mains will be asked to aid in gathering this testimony. This action saves the city attorney a trip to Birmingham, Alabama, and other southern places. He may have to go to Salt Lake in quest of evidence.

There were a few bills to be passed upon, and in this connection council ordered back to business houses all bills not submitted on the city's own invoice blanks.
