BIG FOUR DELEGATION DEFEATS JOHNSON'S CANDIDATE IN THE NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, April 6.—Incomplete returns from New York city and scattering returns from other parts of the state late tonight indicated the defeat of William M. Bennett running against the regular republican organization and the election of an unopposed delegation to the republican national convention. Early returns gave the "big four" a lead of nearly three to one over Bennett.

Bennett entered the race as a supporter of the regular party, and Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, after an unofficial state convention of the republicans had selected Nathan L. Miller, J. W. Wadsworth, Jr., William M. Calder, and William Boyce Thompson to go as an unopposed delegation.

The "big four" to the democratic national convention, Gov. Alfred E. Smith, Elizabeth Marbury, Harriet May Mills and Louis E. Desobcker, ran without opposition.

Two hundred sixty-six election districts out of 5,571 in the city gave: Miller, 56,441; Wadsworth, 54,629; Calder, 52,098; Thompson, 54,875; Bennett, 20,081.

While the voting generally was light there were sharp contests in each of the eight, thirteen, nineteen, in the eleven, fourteen, nineteen, twenty-first districts, in Manhattan, and in four up-state districts, in all of which Johnson candidates opposed the regular organization candidates. In the seventeenth district in Manhattan the contest was between Herbert Hoover's candidacy were in the race.

Later returns indicated the organization candidates had polled substantial majorities over the Johnson adherents in all districts. The Hoover candidates in the seventeenth district, Dr. Duffer, former chairman of the republican national committee, were defeated by more than two to one by Herbert Parsons, national committeeman, and Albert J. Berwin.

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, and Charles D. Hilles, former chairman of the republican national committee, were elected from the Nineteenth congressional district, Manhattan, by a vote of more than three to one over Joseph Behlitt and Theodore T. Taylor, Johnson supporters.

Dr. Duffer's campaign was energetically supported by his daughter, Miss Sarah Huyter Butler, who made a house to house canvass of voters. In the third election district, Dr. Duffer's home district, he and Mr. Hilles polled 119 of a total of 132 votes cast.

The "big four" delegates were selected at a recent unofficial convention of the republican party and Bennett entered the race for a place on the delegation.

Returns from 676 election precincts out of 5,571 in the city gave the organization ticket the following vote:

Nathan L. Miller, 12,945; J. W. Wadsworth, Jr., 12,945; William M. Calder, 12,164; William B. Thompson, 12,164.

LOST AUTO FOUND HANGING ON WALL

Machine Stolen Sunday Night Located Near Rock Canyon Bridge

How his car got from where he parked it in front of the Lind garage on Second avenue east Sunday night to a precarious position on a rock over the rock-out wall overlooking the Black creek canyon bridge is a mystery to Roy Russell, but he has his car again, somewhat damaged, but better than no car at all.

An all night search by the owner and officers from the sheriff's office followed the discovery of the lost Sunday night but no trace was found of the missing car. A driver coming in from the country Monday reported having seen a car hanging over the rock near Black creek bridge and upon investigation it was discovered that the machine was Russell's. The location of the car leads to the belief that it was driven either by an amateur or a drunken person.

FIGHT COSTS HAM AND JOLLY $25 EACH

Frank Ham and Bryan Jolly were fined $5 each in the city court yesterday. Ham was struck on the face by Jolly, causing the blood to flow, say the police. The disturbance was caused over a loan of $2 given to Ham by a brother-in-law of Jolly's. The money was returned and satisfaction given but the latter deemed it necessary to create further disturbance and approaching Ham is alleged to have struck Ham on the head. When the trial ended it is said that Jolly asked the court what the court would charge him if he went out and administered a severe beating to Ham. He was ordered from the courtroom.

CONSCRIPTING LABOR.

Registration and mobilization of workers, or those who ought to be workers, on much the same principle as the United States registered and mobilized its male citizens for military duty in the recent war, is being worked out in Russia. Every male from 16 to 50, and every female from 16 to 45, must be registered. Failure to register will render delinquents liable to internment in concentration camps. The workers are to be assigned to duty chiefly in the mines, on railroad construction and in the iron and steel mills.

The experiment will be watched interestedly, not to say eagerly, by all the governments of the world. So far as is known now, this effort on the part of the soviet Russia is the first attempt at such conscription for purposes of peace. It is a natural evolution of Russia's communistic form of government, a real fruition of the Bolshevik principles. Whether it will work in concrete application remains to be seen. If Lenin shall succeed in putting over this most drastic experiment in industrial revolution, he will have proved his ability as a leader, and, as a result of it, he will undoubtedly be able to prolong his mastery over the country he now holds in his undisputed power.

There is something drastically autocratic about such a proceeding as conscription of labor in time of peace as to make the world gape at its audacity. Not even in the Russia of the czars, nor Germany of the Hohenzollerns, could such things be attempted with any hope of success. Only in an autocracy more autocratic than the rule of Nicholas could it even be suggested.

THE KAISER IS SAFE.

The Allies have given up the attempt to get possession of the late Kaiser Wilhelm and put him on trial for war crimes. Holland stands fast in her refusal to surrender him, and the allied governments submit, apparently with great reluctance.

Perhaps, after all, it is just as well. It would have made a dramatic spectacle if Wilhelm had been arraigned at London or Paris. In his trial the guilt, not only of a man, but a dynasty, a ruling class and a whole nation would have been epitomized. It might have been like the trial of Warren Hastings, on a bigger scale. It would have assigned responsibility, if not punishment, and made a lasting lesson to spread on the pages of history.

But, however, strong the moral right of the allies to arraign Wilhelm, their legal right has never been clearly demonstrated. The British were not at all sure of their ground; neither were the American authorities. It is well to disregard law at the close of a war fought to sustain law. More important still was the question of Holland's right to protect the accused. It may be worth a considerable sacrifice to sustain the old right of political asylum, which Holland invoked in this case, and which has played so vital a part in human freedom and in the history of our own country.

Moreover, the world has lost interest in the criminal figurehead of the big war. The imperial autocrat who sought to rule the world has changed to a dull, pudgy, broken old prisoner sawing wood at Amersfoort. Life has moved past him. There are other, newer, larger problems waiting solution. It is the living, not the dead, the future, not the past, that the powers dominating civilization must deal with now.

SHAME OR HONOR?

"Peace by resolution" may become necessary as a last resort. Such a solution, however, is tolerable only on condition that all possible efforts made in accordance with established custom and tradition have failed. Has it come yet to the alternative of peace by resolution, or nothing?

The procedure proposed at present by congress, whether necessary or not, is inevitably attended by shame and humiliation. It means making peace by subterfuge, it means begging Germany to agree to terms which the United States as victor in the war, should impose upon Germany without question, and gives Germany a chance to throw those terms in our face. There is additional shame in the fact that the resolution asks Germany, in making this separate peace with us, to acknowledge the force of the terms imposed by the treaty of Versailles—which the United States congress has refused to ratify.

We approach Germany as if Germany were an equal in this negotiation, we seek to utilize the benefits of the Versailles treaty while evading its responsibilities, and thus we invite the contempt of our enemies, our allies and the whole world.

Added to these moral considerations is the legal objection, made by many constitutional authorities, that peace negotiations are properly originated not by the legislative, but by the executive department, and also the practical difficulty that for whatever reasons, the president is sure to oppose any such resolution.

The vast majority of Americans want to make peace by the regular and self-respecting procedure of ratifying, with a few reservations, the treaty made at Versailles by the powers that defeated Germany, and ratified already without reservation by everyone but the United States. The treaty is in the hands of the president. He can return it to the senate for action at any time. Even now it is probable that ratification could be obtained if the president would meet the senate half way on the reservation question.

For present expediency and the honor of the country this should be done. If the president on his part then felt that the reservations adopted were too drastic, they might properly inject into the national campaign the question of notifying them hereafter so as to strengthen American participation in the League of Nations.

AN ARMY OF GARDENERS.

The United School Garden Army is planning a more extensive campaign during 1920 than at any time during its comparatively brief history.

During the war this army of boys and girls numbered a million. They produced food crops yielding an average net return of $18 per gardener. That may sound small as the financial return of a season's labor, but when it is multiplied by millions—there were 2,500,000 gardeners last summer, and the number is to be greatly increased this year—it is found to total a very respectable amount.

There is another side to the school gardening which would make it worth while, even though the financial returns are smaller. That is the educational value and its health and recreational features in cities. The director of the United States School Garden Army expresses it thus:

"The instinctive interests of hunting and capture, collection, caring for living, growing plants and animals, must go undeveloped or be turned into channels that often conflict with man-made laws. If biological structures and interests are of value, they should be conserved to city children. School gardening admits of the widest kind of correlation with other studies. There is no school subject from which more real knowledge may be gained of science, of art, of life's relations than from dealing with living, growing plants."

Everyone who can take an active part in furthering school garden work should at least stand on the side lines and cheer as the army gardeners march by.

HOT FIGHT FEATURES DEMOCRATIC MEET

Woman Chosen Delegate by Acclamation in Spite of Efforts to Withdraw.

By the Associated Press. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 6.—Fred H. Lynch of St. Paul, democratic national committeeman, was elected a delegate at large to the national convention of the party after a lengthy and active session of the democratic convention here today. Chosen with him were A. G. Weiss, Duluth; H. D. Haley, Minneapolis, chairman of the state central committee, and Mrs. Peter Olson of Cloquet. They and the 20 district delegates will go unopposed to the San Francisco convention.

Mrs. Olson was chosen by acclamation after she had attempted to withdraw her name in favor of Mr. Weiss, both party leaders hailing from the eighth congressional district. Several delegates protested against her action. The debate was marked by an attack upon Lynch by Frank Ray, Fairmount, Minn., editor and former chairman of the state central committee. He demanded that Mrs. Olson renounce a commitment to the general education, and added: "I do not like to see a man come here from New York and delegate to this convention." The Minnesota delegation will go to the San Francisco convention not only unopposed, but free to vote as they please as individuals. The anti-race, a time-honored institution of the party, was attacked and beaten at the convention.

By its platform, the convention endorsed the Wilson administration, declared the republican leaders in the United States senate had "imposed" the treaty of Versailles and went on record as endorsing national prohibition. The resolutions also declared that the democratic party was entitled to credit of enfranchising the women of the United States.

NEW LAWS AGAINST RENT PROFITEERING

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 6.—Nearly 1,000 evicted tenants were assisted by courts today under new laws against rent profiteering. In most cases either the landlords agreed to delay eviction until the tenants whose rent had been raised, could find other apartments, or the magistrates annually granted stays of eviction varying from one to six months.

Many courts could handle nothing but rent cases, streets in front of some courts were blocked and police reserves were called to handle the crowds, for whole families went to court, with carriages and all.

A sample tenant's story was that of a woman whose rent had been increased $7 to $37 a month for a six room apartment and then jumped to $65. The latter sum she could not pay and she was ordered out. She received permission to stay in the apartment at the last rent she paid until she could find another home.

Plans were made today for 200 lawyers to give free legal aid to tenants with district boards similar to those that acted on draft cases during the war.

PRISON BRUTALITIES UNKNOWN TO HARTS

Brigadier General, Who Was in Charge of Paris District Troops Before Committee.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—The claim of responsibility for prison brutalities alleged to have occurred in the Paris district while under the jurisdiction of Brigadier General W. W. Harts, former commander of American troops in the French capital, declared today before a house investigating committee that he was entirely satisfied with his record at this post.

General Harts said that while on duty showing the military police the "strong arm" methods in making arrests were reported to him, about 10 cases of brutalities were reported among the ten thousand arrests made during the four months period he was in command.

Chairman Johnson of the committee expressed opinion that the committee could be filled with specific brutality. General March, chief of staff, and other high army officers the chairman said, had admitted there were holes for the charges now before the committee.

To General Harts' statement that if the alleged conditions had existed he didn't know of them, Mr. Johnson replied:

"That's just it. If you didn't know, between North and South Germany. France hopes to throttle the German empire and cause her political disintegration."

Herr Mueller asserted that, besides adding the apertures, the French action certainly would swell the number of those who declare that, since France is more than ever bent upon achieving Germany's complete annihilation, Germany will be compelled to prepare for a death struggle.

"If the allied governments, if the decent opinion of mankind should utterly tolerate this act of French aggression," concluded the chamberlain, "then the occupation of Frankfurt will mark the beginning of an era of international anarchy the like of which the world has never before witnessed."

REQUEST SENDING TROOPS.

BERLIN, April 6.—The German note dealing with conditions in the Ruhr district, which was handed to the respective chanceries in Berlin, began by stating that grave reports received of sanguinary fighting in the Rhine-Westphalian region in the middle of March caused the German government to request permission of the allies to send a limited number of troops to the temporarily menaced zone. The German government at the same time offered guarantee for the due withdrawal of these troops.

The French government replied that it could comply only if allied troops occupied Frankfurt, Hanau, Wiesbaden, Dieburg and Darmstadt for the same period and in equal length, as the German troops were in excess of the limit already permitted.

"Setting aside the serious objections to further occupation of German territory," the German government stated, "it cannot consent to the allied troops entering the places named, in the event that such German troops as were employed had not left the fifty kilometre zone within a fixed period to be determined by the German representative."

On this note, the allied governments had declared they agreed in principle to this. The British government and the French premier made declarations to this effect, and the French government then sought proof that could not be furnished by the fifty kilometre zone without the entry of troops.

Economic Life Menaced.

The note argues that the highly disrupting news, which had immediately arrived since, left no doubt that the speedy restoration of peace and order was impossible without temporary military intervention, and concludes that the position was so critical that not only the welfare of the population of these regions, but the entire economic life of Germany was seriously menaced. Communists and social revolutionists, the note said, were engaged in the entire pacific life, and were indulging in requisitions and plundered and threatened life and activity.

The note further says that the agreements accepted by the newly formed executive and central councils with a view to restoring law and order were useless because the insurgents who concluded them no longer had power to carry them out. The German government is of the opinion that it proved to the allied governments that the systematic restoration of law and order by the troops could not be delayed a single hour.

"The German government," adds the note, "is responsible for the lives and liberties of its countrymen. It therefore believes that it should no longer await the formal consent of the allied governments to the entry of German troops, but further retard the advance of the troops."

AMERICAN COMMISSION QUIT.

CHICAGO, April 6.—It was learned today at the office of Pierpont B. Noyes, American Rhineland commissioner and representative of the state department in the American occupied area, that several days ago Mr. Noyes formally disassociated himself from any action the high commission might take, involving it directly or indirectly in a possible French advance into disoccupied territory. It was also stated at the office that Mr. Noyes had notified Washington of his action.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 6.—Between 15,000 and 18,000 packing house workers were thrown out of employment today by the unauthorized strike of switchmen in the Chicago switching district, and further suspension of activities was predicted by packing officials.

Receipts today at the stockyards totaled 100 cars. The United States bureau of markets reported tomorrow's receipts would be 84 cars.

A. P. Whitney, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, announced that approximately 1,000 union switchmen from other cities had arrived to take the place of strikers and that an additional 1,000 were on the way. Another 24 hours, he said, would see an end to the walk out, which had largely halted freight movement.

While the Chicago yardmen's union, which culled the strike, claimed 14,000 men were out, railroad officers placed the number tide at 2,500. Union leaders said 150 switchmen in the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad yards joined the walkout today.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen tonight ordered all strikers members to return to work Thursday or suffer expulsion from the union.

The Brotherhood ultimatum said the strikers were misled by false representations of the situation at Washington. It pointed out that 15 national organizations had agreed to adjust pending wage disputes through the labor board created by the Cummins-Esch act and that under this act the roads can grant increases until they were passed on by the board. The strike was declared not only "unauthorized" but illegal.

VLADIVOSTOK NOW OCCUPIED BY JAPS

City to Be Policed Until Conditions Are Stabilized and Measles Removed.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—Official dispatches telling of the occupation of Vladivostok by Japanese were received today by the state department from the American consulate.

The dispatches summarized the situation as follows:
"The lines of the Japanese troops were gradually extended to cover the hills commanding Vladivostok during the latter part of March, the Japanese flag was raised over Tiger hill, from which control of the railway station was possible, on April 1; fortifications were prepared; on April 2,

Japanese demands were presented to the provisional government of Vladivostok; and the occupation of the city began at 10 o'clock, Vladivostok time, April 4, when Japanese troops moved in at the railway station and general exchange of shots between the Japanese and the provisional forces.

"Up to 11 o'clock this morning no Americans had been injured. Most of the Russian troops who were at Vladivostok escaped into the hills. Approximately 100 Koreans are reported to have been arrested. "The department's information is that the following notice, constituting part of an announcement published in the official gazette at Tokyo on March 31, regarding Japanese troops in Siberia, made public by the state department on April 2, was posted in various parts of the city of Vladivostok:

"The imperial Japanese government takes occasion to declare its intention that when political conditions in the country contiguous to or neighboring on Japan have become stable, and all menace to Manchuria and Korea have been removed; when the life and property of Imperial subjects have been secured, and when the freedom of traffic and communication has been guaranteed, it will then withdraw its military forces from all parts of Siberia at the earliest moment opportune after the conclusion of the repatriation of the Czechoslovak army."

ALEXANDER SAYS LANSING PROPOSAL IS UNSOUND

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—Proposals by former Secretary Lansing that all foreign trade promotion activities of the department—of commerce be taken over by the state department, was declared today by Secretary Alexander to be contrary to the sentiment of business interests of the country and unsupported by "sound argument." Mr. Alexander, in a formal statement expressed "keen regret" that Mr. Lansing, while serving as secretary of state, "saw fit to write to senators and representatives recommending the transfer of functions without frankly taking it over with me."

Expressing belief that all duplication between the two departments in the foreign field could be prevented by close co-operation, Mr. Alexander asserted, the "special advantage of having trade promotion carried on by a business department" should be preserved.

SHIMMY JOINT RAIDED BY NEW YORK POLICE

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 5.—Police to-night raided Peter's restaurant on the upper west side, arrested the proprietor and three employees and announced they had seized a large quantity of liquor.

The restaurant was one of five places named by Rev. John R. Stinson of Cavalry Baptist church, in a sermon Sunday, as a "vice resort" where "liquor was served freely and the shimmy, shake" was danced openly. Five hundred patrons were thrown into a panic by the raid and many rushed to waiting taxicabs and hurried away without their hats and coats.

The raid was made over the head of Police Inspector Dominick Henry of the "tenderloin" district, who is under investigation by a "vice grand jury on charges preferred by Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith. Inspector Thomas McDonald, in charge of the police "vice squad" and the four detectives who made the arrests, reported they entered the restaurant and ordered whiskey, which they said they were served at $1.50 a drink.

While the inspector and the detectives were drinking a cordon of police was thrown about the building and a patrol wagon backed up to the entrance.

Through the police cordon the patrons, the majority of whom were in formal dress, were allowed to escape into the crowd that had gathered in the street.

Fighting Hunger

Hunger is never more than a few days away from the American people.

The coal strike showed us what a narrow margin the country goes on, even in a non-perishable necessity which can be stored.

Swift & Company is engaged in the business of fighting hunger.

From coast to coast, from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, the lines of defense are drawn—packing plants at strategic points; branch houses in four hundred towns and cities; hundreds of car routes; thousands of refrigerator cars; tens of thousands of loyal men and women expert in their work.

Day by day, hour by hour ceaselessly, this fight, your fight, goes on. Yet so smoothly, surely and victoriously that you, unaware how close hunger always is, are as certain each night of tomorrow's meat as you are of tomorrow's sun.

And so economically is this done that the cost to you for this service is less than three cents a pound of meat sold. The profit, shared in by more than 30,000 shareholders whose money makes the victory possible is only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products.

If hunger did not make it necessary for us to fight this fight in the best possible way for all concerned, the competition of hundreds of other packers, large and small, would compel us.

COMMITTEE WOULD CALL WAR AT END

Majority Report Contains Provision for Nine-Hour Debate.

COUNTRY WANTS RELIEF FROM UNCERTAINTY

War Laws Still in Force and Constitutional Rights Are Still Suspended.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—The majority report of the house committee on foreign relations, recommending adoption of the resolution declaring the state of war with Germany at an end, was introduced today by Chairman Porter, accompanied by a special rule providing for nine hours debate under which it will be taken up in the house Thursday. The minority report, prepared by Representative Ploud of Virginia, ranking democratic member of the committee, will be introduced tomorrow.

There was some debate in the house today on the peace matter during which it was indicated that the democrats would vote almost solidly against the resolution. Representative Venable, democrat, Mississippi, attacked the constitutional power of congress to take such action, characterizing it as an attempted usurpation of the treaty making functions, while Representative Mondell, republican, Idaho, asserted that as congress had the power to create a condition of war it had the power to end it.

Hostilities Ended.

The majority report recited a number of authorities on international law to support the committee's contention that there were "no hostilities" by treaty, by consent and satisfaction of the president and the treaty making power of congress. It also recited that it is evident that there is no intention of continuing them.

It has become "the plain duty of congress," to declare "the admitted facts" that the war with Germany was ended, the report said.

"There has been," it continued, "a complete cessation of hostilities on both sides, without any intention of continuing them. Congress is clearly exercising powers which are within its constitutional rights in recognizing and declaring that the war is at an end. As by the resolution of April 6, 1917, congress officially recognized the fact that war had been thrust upon us, so now it becomes the duty of congress to give official recognition to the fact that the war is ended. Moreover, the general welfare of the United States imperatively demands that all uncertainty upon this subject shall cease, and that the extraordinary war powers of the government shall be vacated and set aside.

Laws Now Unjustified.

"The laws conferring extraordinary powers upon the president for the duration of the war are still in full force and effect and constitutional rights are still suspended. Many of these laws are extremely drastic and could be justified only as war necessities; but since the war has, in fact, long since ceased, the justification for these laws no longer exists.

"The effect of this resolution on all of the war legislation will be precisely by the effect that the ratification and proclamation of the treaty would have had. Laws that were to be in force for the period of the war would have ceased with the president's proclamation; under this resolution they will cease with the date of its passage. On the other hand, laws that were to continue in effect for a time after the ratification and proclamation of the treaty of peace will continue in effect for the same time after the passage of this resolution. The resolution, therefore, has no effect upon the existing laws other than the effect that the ratification and proclamation of the treaty would have had."

PAVOR SUNDAY THEATERS.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 6.—Grand Island voters today decided in favor of Sunday theaters and amusements by a vote of 263 to 563. Proposals for the issuance of bonds for a city ice plant and the purchase of a public school athletic park were given an equally large majority.

JOHNSON HIGH; WOOD SECOND IN MICHIGAN

Edwards, New Jersey, Governor, Trails in the Democratic Ballot.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, April 6.—The relative position of the republican candidates for presidential preference in Michigan was definitely established by the unchanged late tonight with returns received from 1,645 precincts out of the state total of 2,421. Senator Johnson W. Johnson of California, who has maintained a lead practically all the way, had a total of 124,727 votes, 34,341 ahead of Governor Wood Johnson's nearest opponent, had 81,294.

Governor Lowden of Illinois received 43,965 and Herbert Hoover 40,208. No late tabulations were available for General Pershing and Senator Miles Poindexter who received in early reports 5,512 and 504, respectively.

Herbert Hoover, whose name also appeared on the democratic ticket, was leading in returns from 1,472 precincts with a total of 17,662. Governor Edwards of New Jersey had a total of 12,196 and the other democrats stood: Bryan 11,686; McAdoo 10,231; Palmer 7,570.

Only a few precincts had reported on the socialist vote. Eugene V. Debs was the unopposed candidate.

DETROIT, Mich., April 6.—Returns from 1428 precincts out of 2,421 in the state on which republican and democratic candidates showed little change early tonight in the race between Senator Hiram W. Johnson and Major General Edmund Wood for the republican presidential endorsement of Michigan voters, while Governor Edwards of New Jersey fared ahead of Herbert Hoover on the democratic ballot.

The totals for the leaders were:
Republican: Johnson 117,466; Wood 73,222.

Governor Lowden's total was 38,808 and the republican vote for Hoover, whose name appeared on both republican and democratic tickets, was 37,529. Late tabulations were not available on General Pershing and Senator Miles Poindexter, who had received early today 5,512 and 504, respectively.

On the democratic ticket, William G. McAdoo's total was 34,767 with William J. Bryan receiving 28,987. Last reports on Attorney General Palmer gave 6,950. Few returns were available from the socialist primary in which Eugene V. Debs was unopposed for presidential endorsement.

While Senator Johnson's greatest strength was shown in Wayne county (Detroit), he had, on the face of the incomplete returns, carried six of the 12 congressional districts and was trailing closely behind Wood in the remaining seven which compromise for the most part sections General Wood's supporters were expected to show a comfortable margin.

Governor Edwards' support came chiefly from Wayne county, although he polled a comparatively heavy vote in Saginaw, Kent, Ingham, Oakland and St. Joseph counties, not populous districts. Hoover's democratic support came proportionately from rural and city precincts.

Former Governor Fred M. Warner was leading Owen Myers, former mayor of Detroit, for the nomination for republican national committee by about 6,900 votes. William E. Connolly was unopposed for the democratic nomination.

SINN FEINERS WRECK FURNITURE IN JAIL

DUBLIN, April 6.—There have been riots in Mount Joy prison, where nearly 100 Sinn Fein prisoners are on hunger strike. They demanded better treatment and receiving an unsatisfactory answer, smashed the furniture in the cells and broke down a wall between the cells. It was rebuilt but they tore it down again. The men are now manacled with their hands behind their backs, and a strong military guard has been installed within the prison.

Income tax officials returning to duty today after the holidays had no place in which to work as a result of the Easter riots. An official described the exploit as a master stroke, saying: "It may take nine months to catch up with the damage."

Not all the income tax papers were destroyed. Some were carried off, and there is a story from the prisoners of an amused audience listening to the reading of a letter among the captured papers, in which a local wealthy farmer tried to persuade the authorities that his income did not exceed 700 pounds sterling yearly.

SAYS PALMER ELECTION WOULD MEAN PARTY SUICIDE.

MACON, Ga., April 6.—Speaking in his own behalf as a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, Senator Hiram W. Johnson declared tonight that the nomination of Attorney General Palmer "would mean party suicide."

"I have about decided that I am the most available candidate for the position," said Senator Smith, who announced that he would "invade the position," said Senator Smith, who announced that he would "invade Pennsylvania and make a personal campaign against Mr. Palmer."

WARREN SUCCEEDS DEMRINE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 6.—General Wrangel, commander of the volunteer army of Russia, has been appointed to relieve General Denikin as commander of the anti-Bolshevik forces in the north of Russia.

Denikin's former chief of staff, General Romanovskiy, was murdered tonight in the Russian embassy here shortly after his arrival in Constantinople. There is no clue to the murder.

SOCIALIST IS AGAIN ELECTED IN MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—Mayor D. W. Hoan, socialist, today was elected to his third successive term as chief executive of Milwaukee over (Clifton) Williams, Non-partisan, according to returns from 150 precincts out of 192. These give Hoan 32,232 and Williams 26,840. Polling observers in general who analyzed the returns say the total figures will show the socialist candidate elected by approximately 2,500 majority.

Up to a late hour tonight, returns from the delegates election to the national political conventions were received from only a few scattering precincts, the figures indicating little or nothing either way in the contest for republican delegates, that being the only contest. Democrats, prohibitionists and socialists have no opposition.

TROUBLE IN PALESTINE.

LONDON, April 6.—There are grave rumors current in Cairo regarding the situation in Palestine, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from the Egyptian capital.

The dispatch asserts that all permits to Palestine have been recalled and that the troops are being recalled to their stations on the western bank of the Suez canal. No letters are arriving from Palestine.
