Two hundred service men from every part of Idaho gathered at the Idaho theater at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the first session of the second annual convention of the American Legion, department of Idaho.

Both morning and afternoon train-sides from all parts of southern Idaho yesterday so that when the first session was called to order by Commander E. C. Hoos the greater percentage of posts throughout the state were represented.

Rooms Filled and Paid.
The day was an active one, both for visitors and for local members of the legion. Early yesterday morning
"booms" which had been more or less under cover were brought out into the open by representatives of different sections and the ground work laid for the discussions that will feature the gatherings.

Idaho Falls delegates announced that the southeastern city would ask the convention to select their city as the next meeting place for the legion.

No society had this word been spread around that it was announced that delegates from northern Idaho had agreed to support Kellogg as the next convention city.

Burley Opens Fire.
Burley's campaign to have their city designated as the state headquarters broke forth with a fury on the arrival of large numbers of men from that place. Badges boasting Burley's claims soon appeared while visitors from north and south Idaho were cornered here and there and told of what Burley had to offer.

Several incipient booms for state officers appeared but with one exception there is yet to be any formal announcements of actual candidates. M. P.
Alberts of Payette, a man who has lost both legs as the result of wounds received in France is in the race for state adjutant-general officer. His campaign is being furthered by delegations from all parts of the state.

Headquarters are Opened.
Legion headquarters at the Rogers-son hotel were formally opened early yesterday morning. Nearly 300 men from outlying points were registered during the day.

Badges were distributed to each delegate and alternate. A copy of the American Legion Bulletin containing the program of the occasion also was presented to each delegate.

The convention program was formally opened with the parade which started from in front of the postoffice at 1:30 o'clock.

Parade Is Snappy.
Nearly 400 men participated in this parade. It was one of the most imposing parades that has ever moved through the streets of Twin Falls. Requests to members of the local post that they appear in uniform were answered by a surprisingly large number. With the colors of the local post at the head of the procession the parade moved down Main avenue to the corner of Broadway, then to Society avenue south, back to Main avenue of squads. Reaching Main cept the democratic nomination if offered you."

NAVY WAR READY TO FIGHT-RODMAN

Admiral Takes Direct Issue With Sinn, Charging Breach of Confidence.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Testifying today at his own request before the senate committee investigating the Sinn-Daniels case, Admiral Rodman, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, took direct issue with Admiral Sinn, charging and denying Admiral Rodman denied categori-cally the charge that the navy entered the war without plans or policies;
that it was unprepared to fight or that it was a mistake to attempt to direct naval operations from Washington. The admiral said he appeared through a sense of duty to "regard the soul mate of the navy," the work of which in the war he praised.
Admiral Rodman declared that never in his more than forty years of service had the fleet been in a better state of a readiness than in the spring of 1917. Some types of vessels were lacking, he conceded, notably battle cruisers and scout cruisers, but generally speaking, the navy "was ready to fight."

Without any attempt to avoid personalities, Admiral Rodman characterized as "very ludicrous" the statement of Secretary Daniels, which brought about the present investigation and declared that Sinn committed a breach of confidence in making public "an intimate and confidential conversation which should have been held secret."

He was referring to Admiral Sinn's statement that Admiral Benson had left him just before leaving for London "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes."

UNION'S SPLIT THROWS MANY OUT OF WORK

Switchmen's Strike Started Chicago Is Extended to Many Others.

BROTHERHOODS FURNISH
MEN AS STRIKEBREAKERS

Declare That Advance
Wages Cannot Be Obtained Under Esch-
Cummings Bill.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 7.—An unauthorized strike of railroad employes which started a week ago in the Chicago switching district by the discharge of a vast number of switchmen had spread until it had affected 25 railroads, and in Chicago had thrown more than 50, 000 men out of work, either directly or indirectly.

More than 10,000 union railroad men in Chicago and several hundred at Buffalo and at Chicago, Ill., were on strike. Hundreds of Chicago packing house employees were idle for lack of livestock.

"Two outlaw" organizations, branded by the established brotherhoods as rump unions had sprung up to challenge the efforts of the labor leaders to lead their men.

In the face of this opposition from within the Brotherhood of Engineers, Railway Trainmen, Firemen and Engineers and the Switchmen's union of North America pledged their support to railroad officers in breaking the walkout and to that end union railroad men throughout the country have been urged to report to Chicago to serve as strike breakers.

Managers of 25 roads in the Chicago terminal district affected by the strike, today agreed to give brotherhood officers at least another day in which to restore normal conditions and, through their spokesmen, declared themselves confident that the union would succeed.

Some union leaders voiced the same confidence, but others declared the strike fever was "in the air," that even the most conservative men were quitting work and that the task of keeping the trains moving appeared difficult.

While differences of opinion existed as to how many men had joined the walkout, Charles Riley, vice president of the Chicago Yardsmen's association, which called the original strike, said 14,000 switchmen and 2,500 engineers were on strike, but railroad officials and brotherhood leaders accepted his figures as far too large.

Some line alone open.
W. J. Trust, vice president of the Switchmen's union of North America, said approximately 2,000 of that organization's members had struck, and that the Soo line was the only railroad entering Chicago the union had been able to keep open.

Secretary Snyder of the Railroad Managers association, announced after a conference of road heads today that railroad traffic was being handled.
Sufficient crews to operate about 100 locomotives had been recruited in the Chicago area, he said.

The Brotherhood of Engineers, and the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers had issued a statement that today as a result of the walkout of engineers and firemen on the Chicago and Northwestern and several other railroads.

Law Prohibits Rate.

The Brotherhood of Railway Train-men declared today a statement that the railroads could not grant wage increases demanded by the strikers, because the Cummins-Esch transportation act prohibits increased compensation to employees without approval of the railroad board, to be established by President Wilson.

One of today's developments was the formation of a new "pull" organization, the National Union of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers.

HOPE TO RECLAIM 4 MILLION ACRES

Special Board in Session at Burley Discusses Prospects of More Irrigation

Plans were advanced for the reclamation of over four million acres of land in the Snake river valley at the meeting at Burley Monday, of the special board appointed by the reclamation service and Governor Davis to consider the advisability of irrigating the various tracts of land offered in connection with the proposed American Falls reservoir.

The meeting was well attended by representatives of the different sections of the Snake river valley. All members of the board, I. W. McConniff, F. W. Hanna and James Munni, representing the reclamation service, and W. G. Swendsen, representing the state of Idaho, were present. J. C. Whelan of the Twin Falls South Side project, E. B. Darlington of the Twin Falls North Side, Paul S. A. Bickel and I. D. Perrine of the Bruneau tract, and Myron Swendsen and Mayor Hagleson of Boise presented the advantages of the special plans which provided for practically all of the available land in the Snake river valley.

The board, accompanied by the representatives of the various proposed projects left Burley Monday evening for Shelley, in the upper part of the valley to view the line run by Mr. Bickel for a canal for irrigating approximately half a million acres north of the river between Shelley and Gooding. Mr. Bickel proposes to provide water for this land by means of reservoirs in the mountains near the source of the streams, thus leaving the American Falls reservoir for the Bruneau project.

No definite action on irrigation activities was possible at the meeting and the principal interest attached to it was the bringing out of the latest possibilities of the Snake river valley. No one disavowed the belief that eventually the whole valley will be put under irrigation and that when that time does come the Snake river valley will be an industrial empire in itself. Examination is also to be made for the purpose of determining the feasibility and desirability of constructing a high line canal to divert water from the Snake river at a point near Shelley. The canal would then extend westward to a point near the site of the proposed American Falls dam where it seems probable that the water thus conveyed could during the winter months, when the American Falls reservoir is being filled and the present power plant, be put out of commission, be utilized to generate electric power during the summer months this canal, is found feasible, might be used for the irrigation of certain lands between Shelley and American Falls, and by extending the canal thence westward, should such extension prove feasible, the lands which are now served by pumping in the Twin Falls-North Side project might be served by gravity, and a large annual power expense thus saved to the farmers on this project. In addition, this would serve by gravity the large area of land which has heretofore been known as the proposed Minidoka extension project. This canal, if found feasible, might also be extended still westward to serve arid lands between Minidoka and Milan, and might also be used to convey a supplemental water supply to the unreclaimed lands in the Twin Falls North Side project and the Idaho Irrigation company project as well as other developments.

DEMOCRATIC INCUMBENT LEADS IN KANSAS CITY

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 6.—The results of the mayoralty election here today still were in doubt late tonight, although on the face of unofficial and virtually complete returns, James A. Cowgill democratic incumbent held a slight lead over Matthew A. Foster, the republican candidate. An official count may be necessary, election officials said, to determine the final result.

Democratic leaders late tonight estimated Mayor Cowgill's majority at between 2,000 and 2,500.

Mr. Foster declined to concede his opponent's election.

Republican organization officials say instances of fraud in the voting were numerous.

Police headquarters and election commissioners' headquarters have received many reports that bonafide voters found that their names already had been voted.

ANTI-DRAFT MAYOR VOTED BACK INTO OFFICE

By the Associated Press.

NEW ULM, Minn., April 6.—Dr. L. A. Fritschle, who was ousted from the mayor's office here by Governor Burnquist during the war for alleged pro-German sympathies, was elected mayor again today. Dr. Fritschle presided at an anti-draft meeting here three years ago, which led to his removal by the governor.

STREET CARS TO RESUME THEIR RUNS IN TOLEDO

By the Associated Press.

TOLEDO, O., April 6.—With a working agreement between the Toledo Railway and Light company and its car operators, signed, service which has been suspended by a strike since last Saturday morning will be resumed tomorrow morning at five o'clock.

The announcement was made by Frank H. Coates, president of the traction company, following an order in United States district court which provided for resumption of service as soon as the men could be notified.

Judge John M. Kilts fixed the rate of fare at seven cents and two cents for transfers and the wage scale at 54, 55 and 60 cents.

The car men who struck when council failed to ratify an agreement entered into by the men, the company, and Mayor Cornelius Schreiber, will receive pay for the time they were idle retroactive to April 1st, under the advanced scale.

CLEAN STREETS.

The mayor and commissioners of public works of Middletown, O., have been cleaning the city streets, at the head of a company of volunteers. The regular employees were laid off because there was no money in the treasury to pay them, and the people at a special election refused to vote the necessary funds.

"The streets have got to be cleaned," said the officials, and they have proceeded to clean them. It is a fine object lesson in public service, and a fine lesson for the parsimonious citizen of Middletown. They are to be benefitted in spite of themselves. In the process they may be shamed into playing their part—which is the payment of sufficient taxes for effective municipal housekeeping.

Three reasons for clean streets will readily occur to anyone who thinks the matter over. Three rights are involved that might be called inalienable: The right to health, the right to convenient transportation, and the right not to have to look at ugliness and disorder. These things are worth paying for. In fact, they pay for themselves.

ANOTHER BERLIN LIE.

It seemed incredible that Great Britain should have entered into a secret treaty with Turkey in April, 1919, by which the Turks were to be left in Constantinople and Great Britain was to have Syria, the Dardanelles and various other concessions. The whole thing was flagrantly opposed to the allied principles of war and peace, out of harmony with the Versailles treaty and inconsiderate of the rights of Britain's allies. If true, it would surely have alienated France and the United States.

It is now clear that the alleged "treaty" was meant for that very purpose. It was a piece of propaganda given out at Berlin to sow dissension among the allies. There was no such treaty. The British government has promptly denounced the story.

The incident serves as another reminder of the need of being on guard continually against mischievous German lies, and particularly against efforts to drive a wedge between the two great Anglo-Saxon countries which are now the leaders of civilization, and will remain so if they stand together.

FARM VACATIONS.

The shortage of farm labor is admittedly more serious than ever before. It is going to be difficult for the farmers, at best, to cultivate and harvest their crops this year. There is one ray of cheer, however, and it comes from an unexpected source.

It is the increasing propensity of city men to seek the country for their summer vacation—not as boarders or visitors, but as helpers.

It is said that in New York city applications for vacation work on farms are coming in already at the rate of 1,000 a week. They may naturally be expected to increase as the summer approaches. There is a similar tendency observed in other cities, though in many places no proper machinery exists for bringing the city men and the farmers together. Provision of necessary facilities for registering and distributing these modern vacationists will do a good deal in every farming section to solve the problem of making full use of the land and providing food for the nation.

City people, to be sure, seldom make ideal farm hands. They are likely to be "soft" at the start, and by the time they are hardened to the work their vacation time is about up. It is hard on them, at first, and also hard on the farmers employing them. But they may make up in willingness for what they lack in skill and endurance. At worst, they are better than no help at all.

There is no question of their own benefit. They go back to their regular jobs with new health and vigor, and with more money in their pockets than they started with—a fact quite at variance with the usual experience of vacationists.

MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SOLDIERS.

The war department recently asked the educational institutions of the country to do all they could to establish patriotic scholarships for the benefit of former service men. The request met with immediate and generous response.

From every section of the country have come pledges of full co-operation. Colleges, universities, agricultural schools, state and private institutions and technical schools are all to be found in the list of those ready to serve the former army and navy men in this way:

Here is an idea for the small community which is eager to honor its war veterans. The old-fashioned memorial monument, frequently neither useful nor beautiful, does not seem to fill the bill. And the memorial hall or public building seems too expensive in some cases. Much less than the cost of a fine building would be the sum needed to establish one or two scholarships in some institution of higher learning—say our state university.

Ex-service men could be the first ones to benefit from such a scholarship. But after them would come a long line of young men and women to whom the town would be proud to give this chance for better education. No community is so small or so dead that it has no ambitious boy or girl who would like to go on through school if he could afford it. A scholarship established by the community in honor of the men who represented it in the great war would not only supply the necessary funds for that education, but would also keep fresh before the minds of each new generation of students the great ideals and hopes which inspired the American people in that war.

"Five dollars a day is the minimum which will support a man and his family," the strikers said in a statement today. "Demand they made to the General Managers association were:

BRITISH LEADERS PLED FOR THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

By the Associated Press.
 LONDON, April 7.—Earl Grey, Premier Lloyd George, Admiral Beatty, former Premier Asquith, Lord Robert Cecil and John H. Clynes published an appeal this morning in the London Times for one million pounds sterling "to keep fresh in the minds of the people of this country the spirit and ideals which underlie the covenant of the league of nations. The appeal points out that the league of nations union already has done its educational campaign. It says that a million pounds sounds like a large sum but that if the British people do not support the league of nations with all their might and regularity, the league itself will succumb. "The league help our children, for no human agency can save them from calamities to which those of the latter will appear as the nearest traffic."

FINE DECORATIONS HONOR LEGIONERS

Flags, Pictures, Emblems and Inscriptions Are Displayed at Convention Hall.

Decorations in keeping with the spirit and character of the American Legion convention have been appropriately arranged in the various places of meeting of the legionnaires as well as on the streets of Twin Falls.

Decorations in keeping with the spirit and character of the decorations by hanging American flags along Main and Shawnee streets.

Most elaborate at decorations, however, were those at the Idaho theater, the convention hall. At the extreme rear of the stage was an electrical sign that read "Legion" and below it, "Welcome, Legionnaires." The sign was illuminated by a series of lights.

Complimenting the stage was the top and front of the stage was the motto "For God and Country" and below it, "This is our home." The sign was illuminated by a series of lights.

On the side of the stage with American colors for a background were pictures of President Wilson, Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig and General Pershing.

As a tribute to those who gave their lives for their country was another electrical device which showed a gold star in the center of a red, white and blue circle with the words "To Our Absent Comrades."

American Legion standards were placed about the hall, while on the side walls were the insignias of the 14 branches of the army, placed on red, white and blue.

The Lavering pavilion has been decorated with crepe streamers of legion colors. Back of headquarters desk at the Rogers hotel is a huge American flag.

The decorating committee was composed of A. Wilson, chairman; Kyle Walte, in charge of electrical displays, and D. A. Edwards. The expressions of appreciation are evidence of the quality of their work.

avenue, the formation was changed to that of platoons, marching one block in this manner. Again marching in a column of squads the parade moved from Main avenue to Shawnee and thence to the courthouse steps where a picture was taken of everyone in the affair.

The streets were crowded with citizens who cheered and applauded the marching legionnaires.

The feature was that had been asked by the chamber of commerce committee as a mark of gratification for the large sum subscribed for the entertainment of the visit.

The large turnout showed that the legion members appreciated the work of the chamber of commerce committee.

Convention Sessions Open.
The convention session opened shortly after 5 o'clock. The entire theater was darkened, the orchestra struck up the strains of the national anthem, those in the crowded theater rose and stood at attention, while on the back of the stage was flashed by means of an electrical device, a waving American flag.

At the conclusion of the playing of the national anthem, the delegates raised their hands towards the flag, repeating the American's creed in unison.

Rev. A. G. Bennett, pastor of the local Methodist church, delivered the invocation and the American Legion quartet sang two selections.

Judge John E. Davis welcomed the legionnaires to Twin Falls on behalf of the mayor of the city in a short, yet exceedingly pleasing address. He declared that if the legion maintained the principles upon which it was founded it was destined to prove the greatest force within the country for the next ten years.

Boon Makes Response.
Commander E. C. Boon made response on behalf of the legion. He cited the attitude of the American Legion post at Central. When four of its members had been shot down in cold blood by I. W. W. the legion men surrounded the jail in which the murderers were confined, preventing a lynching by an infuriated mob, as an example of the legion's love and respect for law.

The first business brought before the members—that of the appointment of the committees, disclosed the fact that many sharp contests will develop before the final session Friday.

A tentative program and order of business had been prepared by a sub-committee of the state executive committee, headed by Jay Partha of Boise. This tentative program called for the appointment of committees on credentials, elections, constitution and by-laws, budget and state dues and ritual. Get Straightened Away.

Immediately upon the announcement by Mr. Boon that these were the suggested committees, a motion was presented for the elimination of the election committee. This was carried unanimously. A committee on resolutions was then authorized after much debate as to whether or not the state constitution which was adopted in Boise provided for such a committee. On discovery that such was not the fact the committee was authorized. The committee then killed the proposed ritual committee.

Peterson of Idaho Falls then started the fireworks of the afternoon session. He asked the chairman how many members would be appointed on the committee on credentials. Informed that it was the belief of the commander that there was sufficient in Boise provided for such a committee. On discovery that such was not the fact the committee was authorized. The committee then killed the proposed ritual committee.

Leo Loomis Large.
Immediately Leo Bracken of Twin Falls was on his feet and asked permission to occupy the platform for a short time. He had hardly commenced to speak when he was challenged by C. M. Booth of Pocatello on a point of order. It was the contention of Mr. Booth that the matter of the number of members to be put on the credentials committee was the only topic on which the convention at that moment could discuss. Mr. Bracken assured Mr. Booth he would talk to the point and was allowed to proceed. He then read a letter which had been sent out from Downey, Idaho, by C. O. Hyde, adjutant of Portland post, in which the charge was made that the Twin Falls post was not entitled to the number of delegates to which they would make claim because "they did not have the membership which they claim and that the funds paid an state dues were put up by petty politicians."

Heated discussion continued for some time in which C. W. Booth, C. W. Worthwhile of Boise and others participated. The motion to appoint a committee of 15 was defeated and a motion offered by Emmett of Rhoseland providing for a credentials committee of seven was authorized.

Down to Brass Tactics.
Motion was then made and carried that a committee of three be appointed to provide the order of business for the session.

Commander Boon then announced the appointment of the authorized committees. Those selected were: Credentials: Frank Meek, chairman; C. C. Higgins, C. S. Wilson, Paul Peterson, Kenneth Dawson, David and Jeffries.

Order of business: Harry McDougal, chairman; P. S. Lint and Earl Munyon.
Budget and state dues: John H. McKers, chairman; Leo P. Bracken, C. O. Hyde, John Booth and R. L. Gale.
Resolutions: R. D. Leeper, W. C. Allen, Kendrick Johnson, L. A. Thomas and P. M. Cole.
Constitution and by-laws: M. W. Emmett, J. G. Hagenbach, Mitchell, C. M. Booth and C. L. Delong.
The Twin Falls and Boise members of the committees then asked to be excused from serving until the charges against their posts were investigated. Their requests were granted by the commander.

JOHNSON IN SUPPORT OF PRINCIPLES OF FREE SPEECH.
By the Associated Press.
ASHBURY PARK, N. J., April 6.—Senator William W. Johnson of California, in an address here tonight in the interest of his candidacy for the republican presidential nomination, reiterated that he was supporting the "principles of free speech, free press and the rights of free thought."

"It is to be regretted to say," he said, "that part of the press is intimidated by the big interests and no longer functions as it should in this land."

He referred to the "Michigan press" as the "voice of an awakening people responding to the efforts of a plain ordinary American citizen to present the issues with all the honesty and ability that God has given him. It is the carrying out of an experiment against the powers of infamy and wealth and the result thus far has been of very great degree."

COPENHAGEN, April 6.—Maxim Litvloff, the Bolshevik commissioner here in an interview today expressed disappointment that American traders were showing no desire to make contracts with the Russian delegation in Copenhagen, while British, French and Italian business men are anxious to begin trading.

Litvloff said he believed this was an error. He had interest on the part of American business concerns, but to the indifference of the American government.

CALIFORNIA TO HAVE SEVERAL ELECTIONS

Two Primaries and General Election Provide Much Activity for Politicians

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—California voters face an unusually busy year. There will be three elections, all of which are regarded by party leaders as being of more than ordinary importance. These elections and their dates are:

Presidential primary, May 4.
State primary August 24.

General election, November 2. At the presidential primary the voters will be given an opportunity of balloting for candidates as delegates to the national conventions on one of the three tickets—Republican, Democratic and Prohibition. On the two latter tickets the delegates, of which there are 25, will be unopposed.

The Republican ticket will present a contest between rival delegations pledged to support, respectively, the candidacies at the national convention of United Senator Hiram W. Johnson of San Francisco, and Herbert C. Hoover, of Palo Alto, Cal., former United States food administrator.

The ballots will plainly indicate how each delegation will stand on the matter of a preferred candidate. Thus, the Republican ballot will contain two parallel lines and at the head of each will be a printed line indicating which candidate the delegation favors for the nomination.

LATEST IN SPRING HATS

Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, tonight endorsed New York's harbor strike. "It is true that the eight hour day of the workers is in jeopardy."

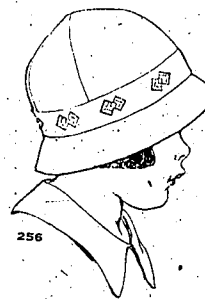

He ridiculed the statement of Strike Leader William Maher that the American Federation of Labor is considering a plan to call out the 6,000,000 union men of the country in sympathy with the harbor men. When told of Maher's assertions, predicting the general walkout, Gompers asked: "Who is Maher?"

Cedar Posts Should be Set NOW

This is cedar post time. Frost is out of the ground and the spring rush of work not yet started. If you wait two or three weeks you will find you have no time for this important work.

By setting new cedar posts now in place of the rotted, broken posts in your fence lines you will save yourself many wearisome trips next summer from your cultivating, irrigating or hay-making to drive stock from fields in which they do not belong. Cedar posts resist the rigors of the most severe weather. They withstand the damaging effects of irrigation water.

The Boise Payette Yard carries Cedar Posts, cut from live trees—every one true, straight and of best quality; round posts for corners. Our cedar posts are axe split and we guarantee them full size and of uniform grade.

FRENCH DOUBT ADVISABILITY OF MOVEMENT

Reaction is Evident When Allies Fail to Comment on Occupation.

BELIEVE HUN TRAPS SUCCESSFULLY SPRUNG

Dollars and Marks Rise on Exchange While Francs Fall Several Points.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, April 7.—Considerable reaction was noticeable today in French public opinion, which was unanimously favorable yesterday regarding the advisability of the occupation of the Rhine cities. Official circles were silent.

The failure of the American ambassador, Hugh C. Wallery, the British ambassador, the Earl of Derby, Baron Matsui, representing Japan and Count Donin-Langre, Italy, to express an opinion concerning Premier Millerand's note is not interpreted as unfavorable, but as merely pointing to the fact that none of them has yet received instructions concerning the attitude of their respective governments on the situation.

The attitude of government officials, however is one of expectancy, and there is even some anxiety regarding the probable course to be adopted by the allied governments.

Great interest is displayed in the meeting of the British cabinet tomorrow and there is much speculation as to Washington's official expression. Banking, financial and business circles are more outspoken; the opinion is freely expressed that intervention would attack and detrimental to French interests.

At the stock exchange today the belief was expressed that the French government fell into a trap cleverly laid by the German government to separate France from her allies by asking for individual French authorization to enter the Rhine district and putting it up to France alone to refuse Germany permission to take military measures.

The dollar rose today to the highest point ever known, 15.55 and the pound sterling to 61.10. The Belgian franc even rose to 1.05. On the other hand French francs decreased to 211 marks, both allied and neutral, which caused the bankers to say "France is going it alone—apparently the wrong way."

The German mark receded 25 cent French francs of five points since Friday.

RESEARCH HAS 30,000.
BERLIN, April 7.—Despatches from Frankfurt reaching Berlin through indirect channels, report an imminent arrival of French troops in that city and at Hanau, Offenbach, Darmstadt and Kassel. It is estimated that the troops already en route amounting to 70,000.

A completely equipped French division of 10,000 men has been assigned to Frankfurt and its arrival is expected in the next few days. The French military authorities reported private quarters in the chief hotels and the local mayor of Frankfurt has been ordered by the commanding French general to facilitate the work of providing necessitous accommodations.

Colored Troops Prevalent.

A dispatch to the Vossische Zeitung reports that Marshal Foch was expected to be in Frankfurt Wednesday.

SIN GERMAN KILLED.
MAYENCE, April 7.—The German ambassador in Frankfurt today had one of his men killed by the French troops. The French troops, on their return from a tour of inspection, "then suddenly an order from Berlin, a certain ferment seized the population. This ferment degenerated into aggression and our soldiers in self-defense were obliged to use their arms. So far as I know we had no losses."

The first day of the occupation of Frankfurt passed without incident. The reception by the population was almost cordial, said General Deimle, the French commander, on his return from a tour of inspection. "Then, suddenly, an order from Berlin, a certain ferment seized the population. This ferment degenerated into aggression and our soldiers in self-defense were obliged to use their arms. So far as I know we had no losses."

SALT LAKE INFANTRY POST WANTS RECRUITS

Receiving a letter from the infantry commander at Fort Douglas, Utah, Recruiting Sergeant Cowley of the local army recruiting station was asked to secure as many recruits for this post as possible. It is said Fort Douglas has considerable advantages for an ambitious young man who possesses ability. The station is a 15 minute electric car journey from the central part of Salt Lake.

Sergeant Cowley said that schools are available at that station, consisting of both elementary and advanced courses. The infantry service is said to be desirable for men wishing to study agriculture, mechanics, auto mechanics, moving picture machine operator or other trades.

A drive will possibly be made in the near future to get recruits for that branch of the service, according to Sergeant Cowley.

JOHNSON HEAD IS AGAIN ENLARGED

Late Michigan Returns Show Overwhelming Disaster for Wood and Lowden.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., April 7.—Less than 100 precincts reported today on Monday's presidential primary and those returns failed to change the standing of any of the candidates or add much to the total which placed Senator Hiram W. Johnson in the lead on the republican ticket and gave Herbert Hoover a 4,400 lead over Gov. Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, for democratic endorsement.

The 600 precincts yet to report are largely in thinly settled rural districts and probably will not be heard from until the official canvass which must be made within 10 days after the election. In some of the missing precincts the ballots were laid away to day to await the canvass.

His latest figures available on the republican candidates were from 1,735 out of 2,421 precincts and gave: Johnson, 128,816; Wood, 83,942; Lowden, 44,157; Hoover, 43,879; Pershing, 11,558; Polakiewicz, 2,917.

The democratic vote, tabulated from 473 precincts, was: Hoover, 17,662; Edwards, 12,192; Meade, 12,441; Palmer, 9,833; Bryan, 11,615.

Former Governor Fred M. Warner was given a plurality by the incomplete returns of 11,604 over his nearest opponent for the nomination for republican national committee. William F. Connolly, incumbent, was unopposed for that office on the democratic ticket.

Al Nelson of Boise was given a well-earned decision over Bill Woodhead of Twin Falls in his main bout of the opening show of the Twin Falls Athletic club.

PURSUCE GEESSE IN PLANE OFF COAST

Wentley Aviator and Mechanician Both Arrested for Dropping Goose With Rifle.

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTIC CITY, April 7.—A flock of geese pursued by a seaplane, from which shots were being fired 7,000 feet in the air, held the attention today of Game Warden P. K. Mitchell. A few minutes later he arrested a seaplane aviator, and his mechanic, Ernest E. Revere, when their plane alighted to pick up a dead goose that had fallen near the warden's pavilion two miles from shore.

Warden Mitchell told United States Commissioner Leach before whom the seamen were arraigned, that Reagin had known his identity, had related to him all the thrills of the sport. Whereupon, the warden said, he informed the aviator he was under arrest for violating a federal game law which carries a penalty of $500 fine and six months in jail.

Reagin, who is said to be the son of a Chicago financier, and his mechanic, each were held in $200 bail for a hearing later.

Caton, who, while enroute to Twin Falls from Anthony, Kansas, was the victim of thieves. It is alleged, at Cheyenne, Wyoming. The car was shipped to this city. The Caton family came by train.

According to C. E. Lind, the machine was taken to a garage and during the night thieves are said to have entered and bound the watchman at these left with the car.

Authorities were notified and a running battle ensued, but the stolen car soon outdistanced the pursuers. The fugitives were later captured owing to a blizzard they encountered.
