ALL SATISFIED WITH MEETING AT SAN REMO

Premiers and Foreign Ministers Part With Great Personal Cordiality.

WEEK DARK ONE ALONE FOR "TERRIBLE TURK"

Lloyd George Asserts Gathering One of Most Successful Supreme Council Has Held.

By the Associated Press.

SAN REMO, April 26.—Results of the super-conciliators' ten-day meeting are such that the government and foreign parts seem to consider its completed. The premiers and foreign ministers participated in great personal cordiality and apparently with much more confidence in the near future. France also gains, for, as Paul Hymans, the Belgian foreign minister, remarked today, "French hopes may be reduced, but her realities will be increased," by the fixing of a global sum for Germany to buy.

Huns Will Work Hard.

M. Journe, Belgian minister of reconstruction says if such a sum is agreed upon the Germans will start earnestly to work because heretofore there has been no incentive for them to pay any part of upholding and vaguely enormous liabilities.

The word "invalent" is eschewed by the prime ministers in talking of the treaty of Versailles; the word "interimperial" is coming into use. The British premier, Lloyd, appears content over the council leaving the ultimate question to continue negotiations of direct negotiations with the Jugo-Slavs.

The Belgians are satisfied because they believe the western bloc of powers, Great Britain, France and Belgium, remains as solid as ever against Germany. They also are for the immediate fixing of the amount of Germany's debts.

Greeks Are Pleaseed.

M. Venizelos, the Greek premier, seems pleased over the extension of Greek territories by the addition of Thrace and Smyrna, ancient possessions of the Greek state.

The attitude of the council was conciliatory toward Russia in instructing the executive committee of the supreme economic council to negotiate with the Soviet representative, Kruskin, for commercial arrangements.

The Greeks are happy over Palestine as they wish a national home.

Dark Week for Turks.

The Turks alone may feel that this has been a dark week for them; yet which had been left to Turkey. The French liaison decided on taking no further compunctions in the near east, except Syria. The Turks also still have a chance to receive recognition through the arbitration of President Wilson in the matter of the Armenian boundaries.

The British premier, Lloyd George, feels he has been one of the most successful meetings of the supreme council yet held, one of reasons for the future of Europe and the restoration of economic co-operation.

Two hundred American representatives, drawn from virtually every industry, will be sent for Paris June 6, to participate in meetings preliminary to the first convention of the International Chamber of Commerce.

It was anticipated that from the Paris convention would develop machinery functioning the year around, collecting and disseminating trade information that would do a big prevent unfair competition.

"Problems of international trade may be debated by politicians and statesmen but they must be worked out by business men themselves, upon whom the burden of the world's economic welfare rests," Mr. Fahey said.

Public Ownership to Be Cardinal Feature of Organization's Platform.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 26.—A national committee of the committee of 48, to form a new political party will be formed here July 16 to 17. It was announced today by M. C. Harrison, director of the organization.

The new party, "representing the needs and hopes of average American men and women will conduct an aggressive campaign aimed at both reorganizing old parties and in support of constructive program of economic, social and political progress," an announcement said.

The committee of 48, which adopted the plan and a statement of aims at a convention in St. Louis last June 5, to participate in meetings preliminary to the first convention of the International Chamber of Commerce, declined it was expected that from the Paris convention would develop

FAVOR BONUS TAX ON ALL WAR PROFITS

Insurgent Republicans Join With Democrats to Gain Their Point

OPPOSE MAJORITY PLAN OF ASSESSING SALES

Would Raise $2,000,000,000 to Carry Out Provisions of Bill for Adjusted Compensation.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—A retroactive tax on profits has been definitely agreed on by House democrats and insurgent republicans to raise funds for soldier relief legislation.

Representative Ratney, democrat, H. Doolin, and Johnson, republican, South Dakota, in a statement tonight announced a bill would be introduced tomorrow providing for collection of the tax.

The plan of the republican leaders has not been finally agreed on but the main provision probably will be imposition of a 1 per cent surtax on and insistent republicans to raise funds for soldier relief legislation.

The battle on financing human legislation, although it has been adjourned in the house by a 3 to 2 vote, is likely to bring the two conflicting schemes to a head.

Would Tax on Per Cent.

Under the bill to be submitted tomorrow, an 88 per cent tax will be levied on individual and corporate incomes "over and above the pre-war incomes," with an exemption of $20,000 for individuals and $100,000 for corporations.

In case of an individual, the bill proposes, "the term 'war profits' means the amount by which his average net income for the taxable years 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920, less his average income war profits and excess profits taxes for such years exceed his net income for the taxable year of 1914."

Explaining Methods.

In case of a corporation in existence during the pre-war period, the term "war profits" means the amount by which its average net income for the taxable years 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920, less his average net income war profits and excess profits taxes for such years exceed his net income for the taxable year of 1914.

It seems to me," he added, "that violent socialist propaganda would never be more foolish than now. To speak eloquently, I wouldn't run my head against a stone wall if I were you."

He said a good share of the American people seem lacking in historical perspective and a sense of humor. He believes in free speech, free printing and free assembly, but as St. Paul said, "Be moderate in all things." He was an ardent socialist, I would keep still for a few months."

Judge Anderson suggested that the radicals might well take a leaf from the book of the prohibition advocates. "The eighteenth amendment," he said, "is in many ways the most astounding thing ever done in American politics. It was revolutionary, and you socialists might well take example from the Anti-Sobriety League."

Judge Anderson directed that the cause "must not take any active part in the community party. Give it a vacation for a few months," he said.

The Colvers accepted release on bail under the conditions stipulated by the court.

STRIKE SITUATION IN NEW YORK INVESTIGATED

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Investigation of the railroad strike situation in New York was begun today by representatives of the department of justice at the request of President Wilson.

The inquiry was brought about through a message sent to the president by William V. Morgan, president of the Metropolitan association, protesting against the combination in violation of federal statutes that was threatening commerce.

President Wilson referred the telegram to Attorney General Palmer and to his legal counsel, C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general, to get full information.

The railroad manager announced that the strike had improved that all volunteer crews that have been manning suburban trains had been released from duty. Freight service also had been materially improved.

More Than 100 Delegates to National Conventions to Be Named.

PRIMARIES IN THREE STATES BE HELD TODAY

OHIO, MASSACHUSETTS, NEW JERSEY TO BALLOT

Several Bitter Fights Between Different Republican Candidates—Idaho Convention Tomorrow

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Republican candidates of six states and of Alaska, having a combined representation of 354 of the 51 delegates to the republican national convention, will either hold primaries or state conventions this week to select representatives to the convention in Chicago next June.

Democratic voters also will select their national convention delegates in three states.

Three Primaries Today.

Statewide primaries for both republican and democratic delegates will be held tomorrow in Ohio, Massachusetts and New Jersey. Alaska will hold a state primary Wednesday to select two candidates to the republican national convention.

Republican state conventions will be held in Washington, D. C., and in Alaska. Democratic state conventions will be held in Idaho, Oregon and California.

McCombeth will select four delegates at large and 42 district delegates to each state election. Some of the candidates for the "big four" will not appear on the ballot as the party's presidential candidate although some contenders have expressed individual preferences. Four republican "big four" candidates are running as a group. They are Senator Lodge, Speeker, Gillett of the house, former Senator W. M. Clegg and Edward Ward A. Thurston, former chairman of the republican national committee. All are unpledged, although Senator Lodge has announced that he will present the name of Governor Coolidge to the convention if the governor decides.

All other republican "big four" candidates are: former Governor Samuel W. McCall, who has declared himself in favor of Herbert Hoover; former Lieutenant-Governor Louis A. Frerichs, who has announced he is in favor of "General Wood" with Hoover as second choice; Congressmen John M. Layton and Russell A. Wood.

Walsh Meets "Regulars."

The "regulars" on the democratic ticket is composed of Senator Lodge, Richard H. Long, twice democratic nominee for governor; Judge Edward C. Peeler and D. E. Belmont, former Congressman Joseph E. Potts, the only other democrat to have an anti-administration platform. The candidates have disclosed no specific platforms.

There are several district contests in these parties. The republican contests are between candidates pledged to Wood for vice, or to go unpledged.

EUROPE WANTED U. S. TO ASSUME WORLD'S BURDENS

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The peace treaty and the league of nations got into senate debate today when Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, republican leader, read a press report quoting former President Poincaré of France, André Tardieu, French economist, and others as saying allied diplomats proposed pooling of all bonds of the United States of the financial burden of restoring Germany.

"This presents a serious danger to the United States and the American people," he said.

Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, declared the report was "preposterous" and added that it was "more possible that the United States concluded, would assume debts of other countries than that the senator from Massachusetts would assume my debt."

Senator Lodge declared that a similar program had been given "serious consideration" at the Paris peace conference, but this was denied by Senator Hitchcock.

Senator Hitchcock asserted the league members who did not participate in the war with Germany, could have no voice in arranging belligerents' debts. Mr. Lodge replied that they could vote for amendment of the league to provide for some plan of pooling the war debt.

"If they try to reform the league for that purpose, it only adds to its charm, in my opinion," Senator Lodge

Can You Answer Yes?

Alluring ways to become separated from our earnings confront us on every side. Compared with these the channels of profitable saving are relatively small.

Yet in the business of getting on in life saving is admittedly of far greater importance than earning or spending.

Do you save? Do you save haphazardly? Or do you save and bank consistently?

When you answer yes to the last query you can begin to expect big things of the future.

Any Wheel Which Does Not Pull Equally With the Others Acts as a Brake

Look again at the drawing! You see four factors necessary in keeping the Big Wheel continuous telephone service revolving at the proper speed. This Big Wheel must turn smoothly to grind out its daily grit of 30,800,000 calls over 11,705,747 telephones, of which 7,000,000 are held-over.

Industrial progress depends more each day on the telephone to destroy space, save time and increase the efficiency of every worker in every field.

Therefore, the responsibility of each smaller wheel within the Big Wheel, increases.

It is the duty of the public to pay an adequate fare for adequate service, and to protect the employees supplying the service.

It is the duty of the employees to provide sufficient satisfactory service to the end that the public will pay rates necessary to support the business.

It is the duty of the owners to provide efficient management to operate the property honestly and safely. The management must coordinate the whole effort and conduct the business to the end that:

the public receives sufficient, continuous and efficient service.

the employees receive fair wages and protection against a sudden shutting down of the industry. Their positions must be secure through good and fair management.

the owners who buy shares of stock receive a fair rate of interest on his money invested.

Therefore, the management represents the employees in dealing with the owners and the public.

Just Where and How Is the Money To Be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Interchurch World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done it more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

1 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK AT HOME. A score of them come up with a total of $1,000,000. Five and a half million people in the United States cannot even read and write. This is the reason why we carry forward this vast work of Americanization if the church does not.

2 FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women leave their homes from Church hospitals because of lack of room. The children's homes are filled to overflowing. More must be done to care for these poor children than they can receive.

3 FOR HIGHER EDUCATION OF INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER GRADE. One-half are in institutions founded and maintained by the church. These institutions have had greatest enrollment, largest, but their needs are greater than ever. The needs of larger schools; and you need alumnae to measure the value of their contribution to America.

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget; examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

Every dollar for better America and a better world. When your church calls on you—give—and give with your heart as well as your pocket-book.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

ALLIES REFUSE PLEA OF HUN GOVERNMENT

Will Not Permit Increase in the Number of Troops Allowed
By Treaty,

By the Associated Press.

SAN REMO, April 26.—The text of the common declaration adopted by the allies at the close of the San Remo conference says:

"The allied powers have taken cognizance of the letter of Dr. Guglielmo Cicali of the German delegation in Italy of April 20, transmitting a request from the German minister of war asking that the German government be authorized to retain, namely, 200,000 Inter Alia, 100,000 men as provided for in the Versailles treaty, and affirming that this is in accordance with the allied mandate in order to maintain order."

"The allied powers decline immediately to accept this request, as it would be contrary to the spirit of the peace treaty and even if accepted as such it would fail to meet the most important obligation imposed by the peace treaty and does not accord with disarmament, on which depends the peace of the world. Germany has not fulfilled its engagements, neither preventing the destruction of war industries nor the decrease of its effectiveness, nor for the supplying of coal nor for reparations or the costs of the armies of occupation. It has neither given satisfaction nor made excuse for criminal attacks which several times members of the allied missions in Germany have been the victims of."

"It has taken no steps to determine as was provided for in the protocol of the peace conference the method of the demobilization of the German army in order to make negotiations with the view of fixing the total amount which it must pay, despite the imminent character of a settlement of the sort present in the interests of the parties concerned. It seems to have not even considered how it can meet its obligations when they become due."

"The allies note the difficulties met by the German government and do not seek to impose too narrow an interpretation of the treaty, but they are unanimous in declaring that they cannot tolerate a continuation of these infractions of the treaty of Versailles, that the treaty must be executed and remain as the basis of relations between Germany and the rest of the world, and that the German government must be compelled to make the necessary changes if necessary the formation of an additional Governmental Republic, in order to ensure execution of the treaty. They affirm, however, that they have no intention of encroaching upon part of the German territory."

"At the same time, the allied governments question arising from what the Chinese frontier, as well as the means necessary to ensure its execution, would be more easily effected by exchanges of views between the chiefs of the governments than by note. Thus they decide to assemble the chief of the German government to a short conference with the chief of the allied governments and request that at the convened meeting the German government present to the allied plenipotentiaries and plenipotentiaries of all the subjects mentioned in the foregoing."

"If a satisfactory agreement is arrived at on those points, the allied governments will be willing to discuss with the German representatives any questions which affect the internal order and economic well-being of Germany. But Germany must understand that the unity of the allies for execution of the treaty is as solid as it was for war, and that the only method of taking her place in the world is legally to execute the engagement to which she has subscribed."

ROADS THAT GO SOMEWHERE.

"A curtailed road building schedule, if necessary, but every road that is built to be one that goes somewhere," is suggested as a good motto for highway improvement this year.

Even a little travel over country roads in Idaho should convince the tourist of the sense of this plea: There has been much scattered improvement of roads, each bit good in itself, but too frequently not enough continuous improvement of main arteries to render even one of them usable throughout its length. Since all sorts of engineering and building will be extremely expensive for some time to come there is great need that all plans for road building be carefully considered by competent boards before any such work is begun, and that, so far as possible, the best good of the community as a whole be taken into consideration before a mile of paving is done.

A few complete, well-drained, well-founded and permanently surfaced highways east and west, the same north and south, will do more to advance business in any state than any number of short jobs which merely facilitate traffic between unimportant points.

BOOKS FOR THE BLIND.

There is one avenue for generosity too frequently overlooked in the disbursement of funds for charity or other helpful work. It is the providing of books for the use of the blind.

It costs more to make a book which the blind can use than to print any other kind. For that reason the number of such publications in proportion to the need for them is pitifully low, and although some of the brightest minds in the world sit in the shadow of darkness and books of all kinds and types would be read and appreciated by these people, their reading range is limited to a degree which would drive the ordinary booklover mad.

Great stress is put upon the education, training and development of the blind in these days. They are urged everywhere to take up their lives actively, fit themselves for lucrative occupations and mingle with other people. All of this can be facilitated greatly by means of an adequate supply of reading material, just as any other educational plan is aided and abetted by books.

AMERICA IGNORED.

The triumvirate of allied premiers are going ahead at San Remo to wind up the war in their own way. It is not our way, and not the way of the Paris peace conference, but they are going ahead just the same.

They have started carving Turkey for their own benefit, Britain, France and Italy each taking what she wants or can induce the other two to yield, slicing off a fat piece of territory here and taking a population group there, with small respect for the self-determination of subject nationalities. They are leaving the unspeakable Turks in possession of Constantinople and cutting up Armenia, both in cynical disregard of American wishes.

They will enforce their own conception of the German treaty. They will do likewise with the Italian-Jugo-Slav problem and the Russian problem, and other matters affecting the interests of America and the future of civilization.

There is supposed to be a league of nations to do these things, but the league sleeps while this modern triumvirate rules the world.

"And we cannot say a word. We are stopped from protesting, because the San Remo conference is taking up a task that America has dropped."

The peace treaty, ratified by the allies remains unratified by us. The league set up to enforce the treaty remains ineffective because we refuse to join it. The war has to be liquidated somehow; Germany has to be forced somehow to fulfill her obligations; Turkey has to be disposed of somehow; the whole mess has to be cleared up. Those who have borne the heat and burden of the day and are now bearing the heat and burden of this oppressive twilight have only to suggest these truths and what American, from president to humblest citizen, can answer a word.

America is paying a big price for the deadlock between president and senate which throws away the victory and nullifies the wishes of the nation. It is too late even now to take a stand beside our deserted allies and give the war settlement a trend more accordant with the American ideals?

THE CHILDREN'S FATE

"What is Happening to the Children of Massachusetts?" is the title of a recent publication of the Consumers' League of that state. It is a question which citizens of every state would do well to put to themselves occasionally, and then seek out the facts which will answer it.

In Massachusetts there is a law which requires that before a child can receive an employment certificate, he must have a certificate bearing the signature of a physician who declares that the child has been examined by him and "is in sufficiently sound health and physically able to perform the work indicated." This is a wise provision. But what is happening?

Out of 76,265 children who were granted employment certificates in 54 towns during the three years 1917-1919 not one child was rejected. If this meant that all the working children of those towns were in perfect health and physically fit for the jobs they work at, it would be a splendid record. It quite outshines the results of the army draft physical examinations. Upon investigation, however, it appears that the wise law supposedly governing this situation is not enforced. Physicians frankly admitted to league representatives that they did not have time to give the children careful examinations. In one day the applicants for working certificates filed past the doctor's desk and he signed their cards, merely asking their names and the nature of the work they were going into.

Cases were found in which a child with a weakness or tendency to some particular disease had entered an occupation which hastened the development of that disease. For example, a girl with tubercular throat trouble was permitted to work in a bag factory where she was constantly breathing dust.

The league recommends for its own state, first, enforcement of the law—thorough examinations—and second, knowledge on the part of the physician of the character of the job. It wants also a follow-up system and the raising of the working age from 14 to 16 years.

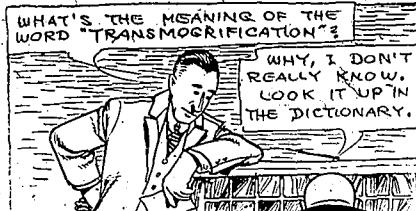

Democracy sometimes cuts queer corners. Czechoslovakia has named Masaryk "president for life," and it seems a fair inference that Masaryk hereafter will do Czechoslovakia's self-determining for it.

If the women take to calico, as the men have taken to overalls, will they also find a plain substitute for summer furs?

Anyway, people are taking more interest in public expenditures since they've felt the war taxes.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT, TRUE

GERARD PLEASED WITH ARMENIAN RECOGNITION

Gerard, Armenian representative to the republican administration.

"The campaign the republicans are waging is the most disgraceful in the history of the country," Governor Cox declared. "They are stirring up strife among the Irish, Italians, Jews and Germans in this country by telling them the democratic administration has not been favorable to them. The cause of unrest lies entirely at the republican door."

By the Associated Press, NEW YORK, April 24.—After his association with the government of Woodrow Wilson, James W. Gerard, chairman of the American committee for the independence of Armenia, said today: "We are asking now for sufficient arms from the United States to equip an army of 50,000 Armenians.

MEAT BLAME LEE
By the Associated Press, COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 24.—The Columbus Archeology and Historical Society, workers who are on strike here, today issued a statement placing the entire blame for the rat infestation on W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and said: "Our duly authorized presidents" deplored at the switch which Lee, they said, had made in the winter.

The statement also vigorously denounced the association of the Columbus archæologists with the strike, saying: "We have no desire to formulate in any way that we have any association with the strike here, notwithstanding the fact that we are positively not the sympathetic with our demands conditions and labor movement look upon us as their leaders." Lee, it was reported, is to be at the convention later May 1, and for which he was quoted the princely salary of $1,200 a month, no charge that if anyone told him W. G. Lee "daren't go down to turn out his union, that nose is W. G. Lee."

The statement says in part: "We have no desire to formulate in any way that we have any association with the strike here, notwithstanding the fact that we are positively not the sympathetic with our demands conditions and labor movement look upon us as their leaders."

CAPITAL REVIEWS SUGAR SITUATION

Another Rise in Prices Predicted—Refiners Say There Was Talk But No Action.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 26.—Representatives of large sugar refiners and department of justice officials conferred here today, but progressed no further than discussion of the "whole sugar situation," they said. The conference will be resumed tomorrow.

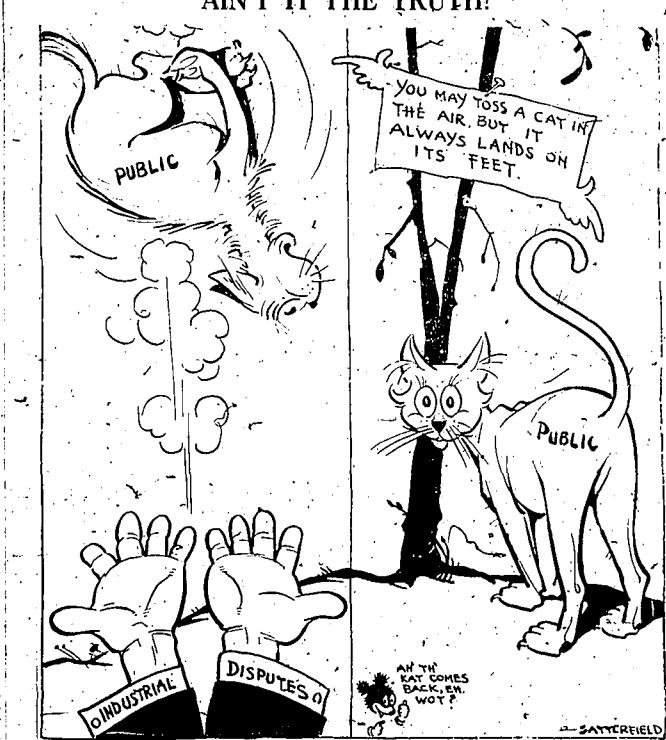

Meanwhile, reports persisted that another rise in sugar prices was in prospect.

Howard Figg, assistant attorney general, and in charge of the price reduction campaign, would not discuss proceedings of the conference. Before it met he said the question of prices would be taken up only in its relation to the obtaining of sufficient sugar stocks to meet the demand. It developed tonight, however, that much of the day's discussion bore on prices.

Refiners in attendance said there had been "much talking but no action." Government officials who attended refused to divulge the subjects debated, nor would they indicate what efforts were under consideration toward halting a further skyrocketing in prices. Refiners declared they could not guarantee adequate supplies without further increases. The abnormal demand for sugar has forced them into hard competition with foreign buyers, they said. Mr. Figg's efforts in connection with the sugar situation have been directed at developing sources of supply which will prove sufficient to meet requirements. He was said to have asked refiners to make a statement of the world's visible supply and form a statement of the amount of their stocks. None of the refiners were said to have even "nominal" supplies. But the amounts held were not disclosed to the public.

PLANTERS MUST EXPLAIN.

NEW ORLEANS, April 26.—United States District Attorney Mooney and four Louisiana sugar planters left here tonight for Washington to appear Thursday before the congressional committee investigating sugar policies in this state and their effect on prices. On the eve of their departure, the American Sugar Refining company announced an advance of one cent for granulated sugar, making the selling price 18½ cents wholesale and 21½ cents retail.

Assistant Secretary Young wrote the committee that only one of the two species of reedwood, the second-grained, was protected within the government parks. Northern California particularly the North Humboldt and Mendocino counties, he said, provide the best specimen of the species.

DENY DISSENTION EXISTS.

LONDON, April 26.—Stories published in France and England asserting there is dissension among members of the supreme council are termed "slanders" and "cruel" in a statement issued by Earl Curzon, British Foreign secretary, and telegraphed to the foreign office from San Remo today.

The foreign office also received an official telegram from the United States saying "rumors of the alleged dissension" repudiated. In America were creating a "deplorable" situation.

Earl Curzon's message said that the British delegation "is at a loss to understand the reports of cleavage and that "there is not the slightest foundation for these slanders."

It added that the reports "seem to us curious when the allies are expending every effort to reach a common agreement."

ESTABLISH NEW NATIONAL PARK IN CALIFORNIA

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Establishment of a new national park in California is to receive a giant endorsement today, it was predicted by the house public lands committee, which endorsed a favorable report on a resolution directing the interior department to investigate and report on the actions made today on the vote cast at last Friday's primary election on delegate to the democratic national convention given to the absence of the official count, which would add a vote that W. J. Bryan will be one of the four delegates at large. Mr. Bryan is approximately 1,500 votes ahead of his closest competitor and the few remaining primaries anticipated are not believed sufficient to change the result.

RIGOLETTO PLEASES A LARGE AUDIENCE

Sonoran Grand Opera Company Will Present "Rigoletto" This Evening.

Presenting Rigoletto, the "Sonora" opera company has made distinctive a large audience and great financial success for a bill of fare at the Rialto theater during its tour.

This is the first presentation of grand opera in Twin Falls and there will be no time to receive the reception which would be given an imported company, the stars of which were but little known in the west. However, opinion may have been divided, the fact is that Twin Falls enjoyed the interpretation of the Verdi production and was sympathetic to the fact that there is demand here for high class musical attractions.

Light shows play and do have their place. They did the public well by the time of exhibition, but make play the better, more dramatic, more effective.

The meeting of the dental society of the Twin Falls district, which was to meet this night at Plaza, was postponed owing to unavoidable reasons. The meeting will be held Monday May 3 at Plaza, it was announced yesterday evening.

Idaho is a picture of popularity; yet its composition is masterful, its style majestic and its harmony charming. It was instantaneous approval when first presented, and its popularity has never waned. That it was approved in Twin Falls and that the presenting company fully met the expectations of those enthusiasts who have had part in bringing it here is a source of great satisfaction, and adds to our pleasure in having it at the theateristic public as well.

There was a portion of an expectant house tonight. The last scene gave rapturous. It requires time for the production which won the master Verdi his distinction as a composer. The rare scenes of the story, the breath of the wild and its range of action are so well known as to need no telling.

GOMPERS ATTACKS PRESENT CONGRESS

Union Leader Says Failure Has Been With Completeness and Abandon.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Russia's charges that the present congress failed the nation "with complete and total abandonment" are made by Senator George J. Gould, president of the American Federation of Labor in the current debate of the American Federation.

American labor got rid of its vice and gained an ardent and courageous ally in the new president, but the nation must give place to a "new Congress."

Mr. Gould asserts that one-half has faded in the peace negotiations, construction and the high cost of living, and that it also "failed us in intelligent comprehension of every question affecting the lives and welfare of one people."

"The sons of the present congress," he added, "were of communism as well as unionism, there had been induced in eagerness to do the wrong things the majority of the railroad men being called a "sliding example."

"The blind and dogged action of the present national council, intelligently with the power, treaty, has brought it impossible for the United States to meet the proper concern in these affairs," said Mr. Gompers after asserting the affairs of the world are the concern of the United States.

"Our own continent there is the same need." For weeks a sensational committee has been going up and down the country gathering testimony to the evident purpose of which can be to injure the mind of those who little and who take much notice. At periods all too frequent the United States is brought to grief with Mexico. It is not difficult to see the evidence of a satanic plot to bring about a conflict at the expense of the people. It is difficult to see the interests which foster the development of such a plot. It is no longer possible to feel with certainty that high-sounding ideals have not been created for the destruction and perdition of the people.

"The republicans national committee has gone to town to support the reelection of someone other than Harry S. Wood. I understand that endorsed Harry, but the position of General Wood remained in doubt following the arrival here of Mr. Heileman and the circulation of reports he would replace Col. William Cooper Proctor, of Cincinnati, as the general president of the convention committee, and director of the election campaign, should Wood be nominated.

Colonel Proctor today announced that he has, I know, come to remain in charge of General Wood's personal election campaign."

The question of republican campaign management was brought to a head last week when national committee and regional party heads objected to the selection of anyone but Haye. Among the most ardent supporters of the chairman are Fred Huntington, national treasurer, and Capt. Victor H. Hintz, in charge of the republican regional headquarters here.

Mr. Huntington announced he would resign unless the committee endorsed Haye. The most ardent supporters of the chairman are Fred Huntington, national treasurer, and Capt. Victor H. Hintz, in charge of the republican regional headquarters here.

The term of office of the national committee of the republican leaders was visibly relaxed following General Wood's announcement today.

The present national committee will not appoint the campaign manager. That will be left to the new committee, but it is expected a majority of the committee will be re-elected.

Other arguments follow in this case that feature regulation before the cow question is more seriously considered and a law passed that they may be removed from the city, said Roberts.

CONGRESS TO START NEWS PRINT INQUIRY

State Department Seeks the Removal of Canadian Restrictions on Import.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Congressional investigation of the paper shortage will be started Wednesday by a subcommittee of the Senate committee on manufacturers headed by Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri.

The committee's plans include inquiry into supplies, distribution and prices.

Pending congressional action against the state department in the paper situation was involved in connection with efforts to secure removal of restrictions on export from Canada of raw materials.

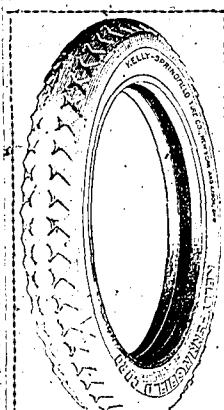

Chairman Porter, of the house foreign affairs committee, accompanied by representatives of the paper industry, conferred with Secretary Coolidge and received assurances that the suggestion of making restrictions the subject of diplomatic correspondence would be given careful consideration.

Publishers of leading papers will be invited to appear before the committee, Senator Reed said, and investigations are being sent to editors in western cities.

"Help the committee complete its investigation and expects to give publishers of all classes of newspaper an opportunity to express their view," Senator Reed said.

An appointment of a commission to seek removal of Canadian embargoes on pulp wood was urged by Senator Underwood, democrat, Alabama, before the house foreign affairs committee. Retaliatory legislation should be enacted, he said, if friendly efforts toward this end were unsuccessful.

"Serious injury will be suffered by our newspapers in a few years if there is no legislation," he said.
