AUTOMOBILE SHOW MAKES A SPLENDID DEBUT

CROWDS PRESENT ON FIRST NIGHT OF EXHIBIT EXCEED SANGUINE EXPECTATIONS

Band Makes Excellent Appearance--Troubadours Add to Gaiety Amid Scene in Mammoth Garage

In a blaze of brilliant lights, colorful from the presence of spring's blossoms as from the decorations of the displays, the Twin Falls Chronicle Auto Show opened last night to a crowd far beyond the expectations.

The great Magel building, with its spacious floors, accommodates throngs of people without crowding. Last night there was no jam except for a short time in the evening, but there was constant coming, and always the voice was one of commendation.

Twin Falls received the Show with applause. When the Bush Troubadours opened the evening's bill there was a round of applause. The show had been formally opened in the afternoon with a parade, but it remained for the bright lights of evening, the maze of myriad shadings, and the tuneful touch of the Troubadours to give that spontaneity to applause which was vouchsafed the biggest undertaking in the history of Twin Falls journalism, and the most magnificent showing of Autos Idaho has ever staged.

The Twin Falls dealers' association, brightly alive to the wonderful exhibit the membership of that body has given to the public, enjoyed the satisfaction of knowing that the visitors were appreciative of the marvelous showing made. From all parts of the country people came, and from all of them there were words of praise; praise for the Chronicle and Chronicle enterprise and praise for the dealers of Twin Falls who have given one of the most amazing displays ever shown in Idaho.

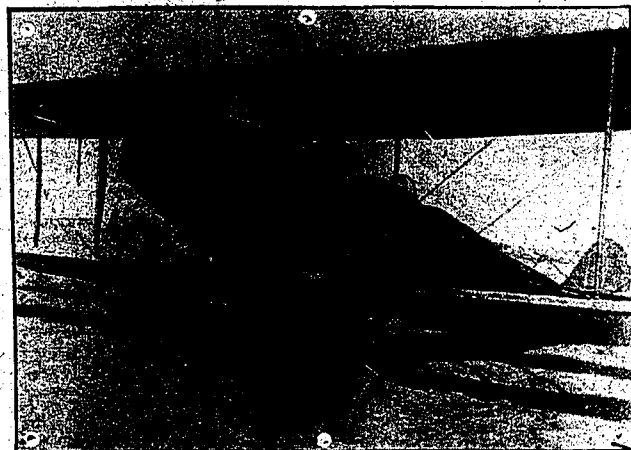

The parade at noon was featured by the appearance of the Twin Falls band, full 29 pieces.

This popular organization, the best of its kind in the history of the state, pride of our people, won round after round of applause on the line of march. Following the band came Mr. R. H. Stevenson, publisher of the Chronicle, and Mr. L. E. Merrill, secretary of the Twin Falls auto dealers' association in a car. Following were other members of the association, a truck carrying the Troubadours, musical instruments, and, despite the threatening weather and light rain, members of the Chamber of Commerce and citizens generally.

Just before the parade started there came up a light shower, and for a few moments it was thought that the parade would have to be postponed. Such, however, proved to be a baseless fear, and the parade went on, even though the Troubadours were compelled to wear heavier wraps than had been planned for them.

After the parade there was a musical program in the conditions of the evening.

Aviator Barker and His Machine

Carrying Adam J. Shubert, of Good, again at the great show which is being held in Twin Falls.

High Barker, one of the most skillful of the aviators now flying, like to him and swung east over Filer to Twin Falls, dropping bundles of bills advertising the Twin Falls Chronicle Automobile Show.

Today Aviator Barker will carry a passenger on a flight east over Kimberly, Hansen, Murtaugh, Burley, Paul, Rupert, Eden, and Hamblin, where Auto Shows advertising will also be dropped, and the populace advised.

All week Aviator Barker will do stunts, flying over Twin Falls, advertising the Auto Show. He will also carry passengers on flights during the day. The hum of the motor will advise the people of Twin Falls that the great man-made bird is in the air. Landing ground has been found east of Twin Falls on the Kimberly road, where crowds will no doubt flock today watching the start of flights, the soaring into air, and the gliding return to earth.

This is Twin Falls first introduction to stunt flying and the innovation will bring out the crowds all eager for a new view of the craft which plays so important a part in the world war.

BRYAN, REED AND JOHNSON HIT COVENANT

Wilson Draws Fire of Trio on Renewed Appeal for Unreserved Ratification.

MEANS PARTY SUICIDE DECLARES MISSOURIAN

President, Broken by Illness, Is Ill-Advised Is Plea of Nebraska Leader in His Statement.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 10.—President Wilson's call to the democratic party to carry the treaty ratification issue into the campaign, drew expressions today from two members of his own party. W. J. Bryan and Senator Reed, of Missouri, and also from Senator Johnson of California leader of the republican irreconcilable group in the senate treaty battle.

Senator Reed, in a statement, declared such a platform would mean for the democratic party of every state north of the Mason and Dixon line and the breaking of the "solid south." Senator Johnson in a statement said he could respect the president's advocacy of unreserved ratification, but he had no respect for "most views which shifted with the varying popular wind."

Bryan, in a statement, declared that he had no respect for the president's demand that the treaty should be accepted exactly as he brought it from Versailles, a "finished scheme of accommodation" to take the issue out of the campaign.

"The president's demand that the treaty should be accepted exactly as he brought it from Versailles is the finest scheme of accommodation I have ever seen," Senator Reed said.

Every member of the senate except Mr. Reed stated, voted for one or more of the Lodge reservations. The president, however, had refused to accept the reservations, and the president's demand that the treaty should be accepted exactly as he brought it from Versailles is the finest scheme of accommodation I have ever seen," Senator Reed said.

Senator Johnson said he had consistently opposed the ratification of the treaty in its original form and with the reservations appended, and added: "The league presented to us was either a good or a bad thing. If it was as good as the president and his associates insisted, it required neither amendment nor reservation. If it was as bad as we insisted, neither amendment nor reservation could make it good."

"The president has consistently maintained his position, and I can respect an adversary of that sort. Those for whom I have no respect in this contest are the men who were with the president when they thought his position was popular during the discussion last year, and who then demanded immediate passage of the league without reservations, or amendment, and who now, with the varying popular wind, embrace the so-called Lodge reservations which they denounced for so long a time."

WILSON IS ILL-ADVISED. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 10.—President Wilson has been denied information "essential to sound judgment and safe leadership," W. J. Bryan said today in a statement commenting on Mr. Wilson's call for the democratic party to carry the fight for ratification of the peace treaty into the presidential campaign.

DANIELS MAKES VIGOROUS ATTACK ON ADMIRAL SIMS

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Daniels launched a vigorous counter-attack against Rear Admiral Sims today when he appeared before the senate investigating committee on the charges made by the officer against the navy department's conduct of the war.

Sweeping criticism of Admiral Sims occupied Mr. Daniels most of the day, devoted to reading a carefully prepared statement. His attack came as a preface to the Sims' charges of failure and lack of cooperation, and he arranged the admiral for pre-British "diplomacy," violation of naval regulations and British claim of the "self-sacrificing and successful efforts" of his fellow officers.

Sims Charges Don't Stand. So far as he dealt today with Admiral Sims' charges that delay by the department had prolonged the war unnecessarily, Secretary Daniels declared the navy's war record stood "untouched today and for all time regardless of criticism."

"As for the American navy's part in the great war," he said, "there are no two opinions at home or abroad." The admiral, Mr. Daniels said, desired to accept the King of England's offer that he become an honorary member of the British admiralty and "write complimentary" when the department declined to allow him to accept. Sims coveted foreign decorations and apparently placed more value on them than on "honors his own government could bestow, Mr. Daniels said.

PLAN TO EXTEND THE STRIKE OF FRENCHMEN. PARIS, May 10.—The French General Federation of Labor announced tonight that the electrical workers would be ordered to strike to strengthen the "walkout on transportation lines, intended to force nationalization of public utilities. Employees of the Metropolitan subways have been ordered to strike tomorrow.

REDS MASSACRE JAP GARRISON IN SIBERIA

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 10.—Details of the massacre at Nikolaevsk, Siberia, of Japanese, American, and British civilians by Bolshevik forces have reached Japan, brought by two refugees, an American and an Armenian, who came over 200 miles of Arctic tundra in the last winter. They reached Alexandrovsk, where the remnants of the Amur river, and the Bolsheviks have been ordered to leave the area.

Early in March, the refugees said, the Bolsheviks had appeared in the vicinity of the Amur river, and occupied Nikolaevsk, making prisoners of the nearly 200 anti-Bolshevik troops. Cutting holes in the thick ice of the river, the Bolsheviks thrust the prisoners under the ice, some civilians being also victims.

The commander of the small Japanese garrison protested, the refugees said, whereupon the Bolshevik commander demanded that he surrender the names of his soldiers. When this was refused the Japanese were attacked and driven into their barracks, which was burned, together with the consulate in which the Japanese consul, his wife and two children, had been staying. Every one in the buildings perished. It is believed that the Japanese force numbered 130 men.

CONNECTICUT GOVERNOR AGAIN SAYS "NO" TO SUFFRAGE

By the Associated Press. HARTFORD, Conn., May 10.—Governor Holcomb, replying to the request made by the "Flying Squadron" of the suffragists representing the league, again declined to call a special session of the Connecticut legislature to act on the woman suffrage amendment. His decision was given in a letter to Miss Katherine Laddington, president of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage association, made public tonight.

Four times previously the governor has refused to summon the legislature to consider the federal suffrage amendment, one occasion being after the republican state convention had passed a resolution calling on Governor Holcomb, a republican, to take action so that Connecticut might be the 36th state to ratify the federal amendment.

HOLCOMB POUND GUILTY. By the Associated Press. MULLEN, Neb., May 10.—A jury in the district court today found Louis G. Holcomb guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Perry Kirkpatrick, a neighbor. Holcomb testified that Kirkpatrick had slandered his wife and that he followed her into the street and

One hundred and fifty representatives of 15 states were expected to attend. According to members of the body the meeting will recommend that efforts be made by farmers to increase production, and will urge that farmers remain on their land.

LODGE TO BE CHAIRMAN, BORAH NEVER MENTIONED

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, May 10.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, republican senate leader and author of the Lodge reservations to the league of nations convention, will sound the keynote of the presidential campaign at the republican national convention in Chicago June 8.

The committee on arrangements today selected Senator Lodge as temporary chairman and voted to recommend to the convention some one else to be chosen permanent chairman to relieve Mr. Lodge of the strain of directing the convention. Four years ago, Senator W. G. Harding of Ohio held the position.

POWER IS LOST IN THE POPPET VALVES

Heads Should Make Perfect Joint With Seat or Waste Efficiency.

When poppet valves do not function properly, due to warped heads and like troubles, bent stems, worn stems, there is considerable falling off in the power developed by the engine and the owner immediately discovers it in the form of poor performance. The time honored method of testing the compression by cranking the engine by hand slowly to determine the relative resistance offered is a fairly satisfactory way of determining compression loss, but does not indicate where that loss exists.

The owner of a car should bear in mind that valve heads work in an extremely hot atmosphere, since the heads are in the combustion chamber and consequently are exposed to the flame of the explosions. They must, therefore, be able to withstand the terrific heat without warping, because if they should warp the effectiveness of the valve to make a perfect joint with its seat would at once be destroyed.

The reason car manufacturers state that "valves are surrounded by adequate water space" is because they wish to show that the valves being properly cooled are not likely to be affected quickly by the heat. In some engines where provision has not been made for the proper cooling of the valves the engines give continual trouble from loss of compression, valves sticking, valves requiring frequent grinding and mistaking due to irregularities in the valve action.

The Cranker Needs A Pull

One man to crank and the other chap to preserve the life of the cranker. That's the rule of flying fields of the army now. The first man gives the propeller a quick twist, and throws himself on the ground. Number two hauls him to safety. It's dangerous at best, even with a small plane.

The only safe way an owner can tell whether a valve head is warped or badly pitted or a stem bent or badly carbonized is to remove the valve, examine it, and measure it. While the compression test is all right to check losses due to poor valve seating it must first be determined that there is no leakage elsewhere, as for example around the cylinder head joint or valve plugs. Much is used, or past poorly fitting pistons or rings, or due to worn cylinders.

After a valve is removed by means of a valve spring compressor permitting the valve stem support to be slipped out, it should first be carefully cleaned by immersion in kerosene, then wiped with a clean cloth. Examine the face of the valve for small black spots. Place the valve upright on a level surface and measure four or five distances from head to plate. This will give you a good check on the trueness of the head. A variation that can be measured with an ordinary rule may be taken as being enough to cause poor valve seating, hence leakage of mixture past the valve when it is closed. A valve with a warped head should be replaced.

Test the stem for straightness. Place the stem on a level plate, while the head of the valve hangs over the edge of the plate. The eye can instantly detect if the stem is not straight. If it is bent a little it may be straightened in a vise. A bent stem may cause the valve to stick open or it also may cause it to return to its seat too slowly. If the valve stem is straight it should be checked for diameter. The best way to do this is first to polish the stem with a piece of emery cloth and then try it in its particular guide. Place it in the guide (when the tappet is all the way down) and, holding one hand on the stem and the other on the head (to force the valve against its seat) for side play. There should be none perceptible. If the valve stem can be shaken in its guide it will allow oil to leak down and air to leak up.

You may notice that there is oil all around the valve springs and the tappets and on the side of the engine on which the valves are located. This oil usually comes out through the valve guides, which, by the way, may themselves be worn. It is possible in some cases where detachable guides are used to install a new guide to fit the worn stem, but where this construction is not used a valve with an oversize stem must be obtained and fitted to the guide. It should be just free enough so it falls to its seat after being lifted about an inch.

At the same time that the valves are tested for the defects mentioned the valve springs should be measured and examined. A weak spring is likely to cause a lot of trouble. Place the spring on a level plate and with the eye notice if it is out of shape or smaller than any of the others. Usually you can stretch and bend the spring as it returns to its normal shape, but where the spring temper is lost bending does prevent the spring from falling into almost any position when in use. If a spring is known to be weak because of weakened metal the best thing to do is to get a new spring or as a temporary measure put a lot of washers under it to compress it still more so as to get a little added pressure.

Bear in mind that a lot of the clicking you hear coming from the engine comes from the valves being loose, slipping in their guides or from the tappets wearing out because of the side thrust on them when struck by the cam.

When the valves are out of the engines and the heads are badly carbonized grinding is resorted to in making the joint between face and seat accurate. In the shape the grinding is a matter of a few minutes because the valve is refaced with a special tool and the valve seat has a new surface cut with a rescutting tool. Then the valve is ground as a sort of finish operation. Without these tools compounding must be used to grind the valve to its seat. Valve grinding compound may be bought at any supply store. A little of it is spread over the face of the valve, the valve placed in its proper position, and a valve grinding tool or screwdriver or brace is used to oscillate the valve until the face and seat are an even gray tone. The valve is removed occasionally to see whether they are finished.

BONUS BILLIONS.

Congress continues to keep the country up in the air on the military bonus question. Just as the public has begun to reconcile itself to some particular program for raising and distributing the money, a new program is announced. Almost every day lately some senator or representative proposes a fresh scheme.

If this were merely substituting one plan for another, without changing the thing fundamentally, the public would not find it at all intolerable. The delay that vexes the service men would only mean, for the general taxpayer putting off the evil day of heavier taxes. But this satisfaction is denied because, the longer the lawmakers ponder on the matter, the larger grows the amount of money they propose to give away.

The bonus of "$1 a day" has risen far above that figure. To it have been added various other forms of benefactions, almost every one of which has admitted merits, but which altogether threatens a grievous burden on the nation's finances. From a mere billion dollars or two, the estimated amount necessary to carry out the latest program for cash bonus, land settlement, insurance, etc., rises to as much as $5,000,000,000 or more.

Along with this goes a continual change of devices for providing the money. Nearly every form of taxation ever devised is proposed in all soberness, even to a percentage tax on all sales and a new excess profits tax, retroactive for the last three years, imposed on incomes that have already been taxed.

Where is it going to end? Congress probably does not know any better than the service men or the public. As the New York World suggests, congress may be capable of appropriating six billion dollars or even 2 billions for bonuses, but congress is not capable of drafting a tax measure to raise this money without prostrating American business and probably defeating its own purpose.

THE PIT THEY DIGGER.

While the railroad switchmen are persisting in their strike and their effort to organize "one big union," great industries of all kinds employing thousands of men are closing down for lack of coal and supplies.

The closing of every such industry means an immediate increase in prices of commodities. It means hard times for everybody. In these hard times the blind and stubborn men who have precipitated them will have to share. It is fortunate that they will. It may teach them a needed lesson. There is a very old fable about the man who fell himself into the pit which he had digged.

If this rash and unnecessary striking business keeps up with its cruel and unfair crippling of industry, it will not be long before jobs of any kind for anybody will be hard to get. The men who think they can dictate working term and wages without any regard to present conditions or future probabilities, and that they have only to strike to secure their ends, will then find themselves under the necessity of seeking at any terms the jobs which they now cast aside.

It is bitter medicine, and as in the case alike will have to stand it; but if it finally cures the disease of indiscriminate striking, and leads to more sensible and humane methods of urging labor demands, it will not have been swallowed in vain.

BONDS AND DEALERS.

An inquisitive soul, having heard tales of varying prices for Liberty bonds, thought he would investigate. He took a $100 third issue, 4 1-4 per cent bond, and offered it for sale at a bank. There he was offered the list price in that day's quotation, which was $90.17. The bank would also redeem the attached interest coupons totalling $7.86, making the entire sum $98.03.

Since his quest was purely for information, he refused this offer, and next presented his bond to a well-known legitimate brokerage firm dealing in such securities. It made the same offer as the bank, with a fee of 50 cents for handling.

Next the investigator visited a cigar store which displayed a price quotation board in its window, but the proprietor would give only $96.57 for the bond with its interest coupons. Thence the quest went on down the line of small dealers and pawnbrokers, the prices offered gradually diminishing, the lowest one being $83, which the pawnbroker claimed was "about the current quotation," though it was in reality $7.17 less than the list price for the bond without coupons. Having learned what he wanted to know, the inquisitive soul went home and put his bond away, safely.

These figures and this experience might be duplicated in almost any community, and amply prove the wisdom of the advice offered by a federal bank official: "Sell Liberty bonds only if necessary, and then deal only with banks or legitimate brokerage concerns."

Five sets of bills were passed twice, in identical form, by both houses of the New York legislature without anybody noticing it. Rather careless of them, but there's something to be said for their speed. Congress finds considerable trouble in getting even the most necessary bills through once.

No, there isn't going to be any "old-fashioned-panic" in the United States; but there's going to be a considerable financial landslide, with quite a few resulting fatalities, if the extravagance and speculation are not stopped soon.

The war department has been expressing appreciation of what American mules did in France during the war. But nobody is expressing much admiration for what human mules have been doing in Washington ever since.

New York's new law legalizing 2 3-4 per cent beer will be all right—if the United States stands for it. Merely a little question of whether the Albany legislature can veto an act of congress.

"What the American people used to spend on liquor they are now spending on sugar," says a disgruntled "wet." Surely booze never cost so much as candy does now!

The "whiskey" sold nowadays is more harmful than whiskey used to be, but it doesn't harm so many people.

Cheer up! Just think of all the money you save on those things you can't afford to buy.

Maybe there are no birds in last year's nest, but the fruit on our hat tree is that of 1919.

MOVIES REPORT MISSION WORK

Three and a Half Reels Disclose the Work Now Being Done in the United States.

By the Associated Press.

DES MOINES, Mo., May 10.—Part of the report of the board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church was presented to the general conference tonight in motion pictures. The anniversary of the board was observed and the report for the quarter ending March 31 was presented.

The report was a combination of animated cartoons presenting tabular figures showing among other things the progress made in the rural church and foreign speaking community, and other kindred branches of work. The picture was shown for the first time.

The address on the anniversary program was delivered by Bishop Adin Leonard of San Francisco. Bishop Charles B. Mitchell of St. Paul, and Edwin Tait Hughes of Boston, Dr. D. D. Forsyth, secretary of the board of home missions, also spoke, outlining briefly the work of the quadriennial and stating that the missionary movement had made possible in new work.

J. Henry Smythe Jr. of New York city, asked and was given permission to address the sub-committee on recreation of the committee on the state of the church, which committee is considering the memorial submitted with reference to the amusement clause of the Methodist discipline. Mr. Smythe denied emphatically that he is here as a representative of the New York dancing masters' association.

Recommendations that every state in the union make compulsory daily reading of the bible in the public schools were contained in resolutions introduced at the general conference session today. They were referred to the committee on education.

Efforts to restore daily bible reading in the schools of Illinois, California and Louisiana were recommended. Alleged conditions in certain towns on the Mexican border were deplored in other resolutions. Places mentioned were Tijuana and Mexicali. The resolutions ask that the president and department of state take such steps as international law permit to make the alleged objectionable conditions impossible. The committee on state of the church will consider the request.

Expulsion of the Turks from continental Europe, and taking of all possible steps to protect Armenians were the requests in resolutions referred to the committee on foreign missions.

Teachers training courses in Methodist Episcopal educational institutions were recommended as a means of relieving the shortage of school teachers. The committee on education was instructed to consider the recommendation and report later.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salt to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of ailments, particularly backache and misery in the kidneys; rheumatism, muscle twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad's Salt from any good pharmacy take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them, to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad's Salt cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and uric organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 10.—Praising the national administration and scoring the two republican senators from Illinois for "obstructing" ratification of the peace treaty, Illinois democrats today elected eight delegates at large to the national convention without instructions, each to have one vote. The delegates named included four men and four women. Two electors at large were chosen. A "wet" plank was defeated 21 to 1. COMPLETE PLANS TO MAKE BIG LOAN TO THE CHINESE

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Organized by the Japanese, announced today by the United States of an international consortium to provide loans to China was announced tonight by the state department.

Withdrawal by Japan of her objections to the consortium, announced last week by The Associated Press, forestalled completion of the negotiations, pending two years. Japan objected to the inclusion of Manchuria and Mongolia in the operation of the financing plan on the ground that she had predominated rights there.

The state department's announcement noted that, each government joining in the consortium had accepted in full the principles laid down in the plan as proposed by the United States.

ADVOCATES FORCE IN CONTROL OF MEXICO

Former Consul General Aspects United States Should Run Government's Economic Affairs

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Franklin D. Lane, former secretary of the interior, and George Agnew Chamberlain, former consul general in Mexico, testified today before the senate committee investigating Mexican affairs. Mr. Lane declared American rights in Mexico were as well founded in justice and deserved as much protection as if they had been established in Pennsylvania or California, while Mr. Chamberlain declared that the attitude of the United States toward Mexico "has been one of accumulating shame for seven years."

"Mexican commercial and official life was sustained with graft from the lowest clerk to the highest cabinet officer," Mr. Chamberlain said, and only a policy of economic control of the country by the United States would re-establish stability. Referring to his resignation, Chamberlain asserted "a self-respecting man couldn't continue to take the money of the United States for hopeless, purposeless service after he knew the things I was forced to learn."

The president, he said, cut the ground out from under the feet of every diplomat and commercial agent the United States had in Mexico, by repeated statements that force would never be used in the country. "The greatest danger now," he added, "is that the United States will be led to treat in some fashion with a new head of affairs in Mexico before we are really decided to deal with the evil."

"The first step in proper policy is that embarked upon by the senate, in refusing to confirm nomination of another ambassador."

"We ought to follow that up, Mexico because it hasn't been able to borrow a cent, is in a sound financial situation internationally. It is the most healthy country in financial resources I have visited which makes the tragedy of its last 100 years under self-determination more glaring. We should offer a loan sufficient to put its finances in shape, bound up with a treaty which would give us direct supervision of its economic affairs."

"The second step should be to withdraw the present recognition unless that was accepted. Still failing acceptance, the third step should be embargo; the fifth, a naval blockade; the fifth, a naval demonstration. Lastly, a military occupation."

"Events are moving fast there now but the essential difficulties will remain under any Mexican administration."

Mr. Chamberlain said President Wilson's "assertion that bigger interests favored intervention was particularly shameful."

"It was the American small farmer and business man who suffered all ways," he added. "The big corporation paid the graft. They could buy the graft, the others had to flee."

formation essential to sound judgment and safe leadership," Mr. Bryan said.

Whether the senate acted wisely or unwisely in the adoption of resolutions, it acted on a constitutional authority as complete as the authority which the same constitution conferred upon the president, he added, and endorsed resolutions by a majority of 18. The 57 senators—34 republicans and 23 democrats, who agreed on the resolutions, he continued, constituted more than two-thirds of the 77 senators who favored ratification, differed on reservations.

Mr. Bryan said that the president asked the democratic party to make campaign on the theory that the assumption of wisdom was with 20 democratic senators, instead of with a majority of the senate, or even a majority of the democrats of the state.

Mr. Bryan urged immediate ratification with reservations already agreed on, leaving the nation to secure any change in the league such changes might be deemed necessary.

In the display booths. Cars came in from Boise, Salt Lake and other points. As rapidly as possible they were placed. Several more are to be placed this morning, so that by the time the show opens this afternoon all the displays will be complete.

Tonight there will be a complete change in the Troubadours' acts. The Hawaiians did not arrive on the train last evening, failing to make connection at Pocatello. They will be here this morning, thus completing the entertaining organization, which already has won the applause of the public.

The Troubadours are not stingy with their music. They responded liberally to the encore, and their program ran happily with the humor of the crowd. People would stop for an act or two, move about among the exhibits and then back for another act or so. The whole crowd was entertained.

The bill tonight will be especially strong; the displays will be complete, and the show will be at its zenith. The piano for the Troubadours was graciously furnished by the Logan Music company, dealers in musical instruments.

We believe Mr. Blue will prove himself immensely valuable in his summer school course with practical problems which confront the Idaho teacher. He proved it will offer work curriculum and organization."

RADICAL SOCIALISTS WANT RED PROGRAM

Chicagoans Declare Proposals Made by Hillquit are Entirely Too Conservative.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 10.—Shouting for the radicalism of German, French, Italian and Russian socialism, the Illinois delegation to the convention of America today attacked "conservative" leaders and their platform demands for popular administration of private property "for the benefit of all."

Following introduction of a "declaration of principles" and a party platform drafted under leadership of Morris Hillquit, the "fighting minority from Chicago" led their state's representatives into what may develop into a party warfare of threatening respect, it was stated tonight.

Louis Brandeis, Samuel H. Hays and William F. Krueger, all of Chicago, the last two under sentence for violation of the war time espionage act, captivated the radical elements' troops today. When the "Hillquit platform" was submitted with the motion that it be adopted, Hays gained the floor amid a tumult. "I don't like this platform," he cried. "It contains nothing but niceties. We have had no opportunity to consider it. Yet Hillquit has the audacity to move its adoption. What are they trying to do? Throw it down our throats?"

Hillquit stated he was following ordinary parliamentary procedure in moving adoption of his committee program, opening the way for debate. He said the program of the independent socialist parties of Germany, France, Italy and Russia had been studied with resultant elimination until the tentative platform submitted had been brought down to its present size and shape "to meet the needs of America in 1920."

Engelhardt, in reply, declared the platform bore "no resemblance to a program of our comrades in Germany and Russia."

The convention finally voted to consider the platform tomorrow. The convention set Thursday afternoon for the nomination of candidates for president and vice president. Eugene V. Debs, now serving 10 years for violation of espionage laws, already has been proclaimed as the party's probable candidate for president.

A movement to induce John L. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania state federation of labor, to accept the nomination of vice president, was started today. Prior to the convention he was quoted as saying he would decline because he wanted to run for congress.

Scott Nearing, formerly professor of economics at the universities of Pennsylvania and Toledo, and Seymour Steadman of Chicago, general counsel of the party, are the leading candidates for vice presidential nomination. Mrs. Kate Richards (Wells) of Kansas City, now serving two years in federal prison, is also mentioned.

The convention voted to send a telegram of greeting to the striking miners of Kansas.

SALES TAX DROPPED FROM BONUS BILL

Also Plan to Reduce Compensation to Be Paid to Men Who Stayed on This Side.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Republican members of the house ways and means committee agreed today to bring in a substitute for the soldier bonus bill with the proposal for one percent tax on sales eliminated as a means of raising necessary funds. Other tax provisions would be extended over three years.

Under the new bill compensation for home service reduced from $1.25 to $1 for each day of service, while payments for foreign service remain at $1.25 a day. Payments would be made for service from April 6, 1917 to July 1, 1919, under the new bill instead of from April 6, 1917 to January 1, 1920, as under the pending measure.

Payments of the cash bonus would begin April 1, 1921, and be continued in 12 quarterly installments. The four options for the cash bonus, home or farm aid, paid up insurance and tuition for education, would have a 40 percent increase in value over the cash bonus under the sub-measure, instead of being determined on a basis of 200 to 30.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Action of the Canadian wheat board in holding the price of Canadian wheat 45 to 40c a bushel had a decided effect on the price of the corn market here. Corn closed firm, 1 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents higher, with July 17 1/2-8 to 17 1/2-8 and September 16 1/2-8 to 16 1/2-8. Oats gained 1 1/2 to 2 1/2-8, and provisions 10c to 15c.

Although as a result of fine weather the corn market showed at the outset a little weakness, the rapidity with which strong commission houses stepped all the offerings led quickly to a pronounced upward turn in values. On the bulge, July and September deliveries climbed to a new price level for the season. In addition to the big advance of Canadian wheat prices, there was further talk of an Argentine embargo on wheat and of a possibility that Australia might have to import wheat before November. Difficulty in obtaining wheat here available for immediate use tended also to strengthen corn prices, and so likewise did the fact that export was commanding the topmost figures yet in the present crop.

Oats were governed by the same factors as corn.

TIME IS HERE TO PAINT THAT CAR

Best Thing to Do is to Do It. Advises Worker in Motor Magazine.

Now that the weather is moderating and spring winds are trying to get up enough courage to blow, perhaps you are steeling out to the garage now and again, speculatively gazing at the dulled and weather beaten surface of your car. Perhaps you are thinking in terms of paint—wondering about fillers, primers, finishing varnishes, brushes and all the other paraphernalia that goes with the general idea of renewing the car's complexion. Perhaps when you are at the office and ought to be thinking of vans and means of selling Jones & Co. ten gross of balpains, your mind simply won't get off the idea of color schemes, varnish removers and pumice stones.

If you are in that state, you might just as well paint the old bus and be done with it. You will continue to work up in the middle of the night with an imaginary paint brush in one hand and a can of pink paint in the other, unless you succumb and live in the realm of paint for a week or so. Get a pair of overalls, seek the good offices of the paint man and purchase the necessary brushes and the cans of paint and go to it, advises Leslie V. Spencer in an article in Motor Life Magazine.

And now a word or two about color combinations and the choosing of those which will not clash. C. C. Phillips, one of our foremost artists, says that a simple and sure color harmony is accomplished by mixing any two colors which react pleasantly upon one another, and then using these same colors as accents against the mixture as a ground. By far the best results may be obtained by using half tones instead of the raw colors. For instance, a limousine might be painted with an exterior coat of blue-gray, while the wheels might be touched with rust and the interior upholstery and fittings a rich, deep purple. Or, the exterior might be russet with blue-gray running gear and orange interior. Observe that the general rules of color combinations have not been violated in these examples.

Mr. Phillips goes on to say that if you wish to have a certain tone, such as dove, fawn or olive, as an all-over shade for your car, find out what colors are used to make that mixture and supply exactly those colors as accents for the wheels and upholstery. In doing this you will never go wrong.

MEX EXECUTIVE BREAKS TRAP OF THE REBELS

Avoids Capture, Says Report
Received From Vera Cruz.

EL PASO HEARS FORMER CHIEFTAIN IS PRISONER

Sonoran Forces Gain All But Three States—Several Federal Generals Are Killed, Is Claim.

By the Associated Press.
VERA CRUZ, May 10.—President Carranza, whose train was stopped at Apizaco by revolutionary forces on Saturday, has succeeded in breaking through the rebel lines and has come 20 miles nearer this city, according to dispatches. Latest reports received here indicate he is standing at bay with 4,000 men, at San Marcos, a railroad junction point 27 miles northwest of Puebla, rebel troops commanded by Generals Hill and Trevino are closing in on him there.

Soldiers mobilized at Oaxaca and Puebla have been sent to San Marcos and three trainloads of other troops have been sent from here to participate in the operation. Troops commanded by General Candido Aguilar, governor of the state of Vera Cruz and son-in-law of President Carranza, have departed here and have gone over to the revolutionists, according to the correspondent of El Dictamen, who accompanied the Aguilar forces in western Vera Cruz.

Dispatches indicate Carranza, when he fled from Mexico City, did not know of the revolutionary movement in this state and had planned to make a stand here at the head of faithful troops in anticipation of a revolution.

EL PASO, Texas, May 10.—All of Mexico except the states of Yucatan, Campeche and Chiapas, and the northern part of the territory of Lower California, is in the hands of the revolutionists, according to a bulletin given out tonight by the local commander.

The bulletin confirmed the report of the capture of President Carranza near Apizaco, Hidalgo, and gave details.

It is also confirmed, the bulletin said, "that Generals Murguía, Urquiza and Barragán, the latter the famous chief of staff of Carranza, were executed."

It is confirmed, too, that General Candido Aguilar, son-in-law of Carranza, and Manuel M. Dieguez, lost their lives in a fight in the state of Vera Cruz in which General Alberto Salinas, nephew of Carranza, commander of the aviation school, was wounded and captured.

Mexico City officially reported for the first time that Carranza, "the chief of the revolution," here, that the chief of the revolution, Carranza, from the capital was captured with him near Apizaco.

"Carranza left Mexico City Friday," the bulletin said. "He was accompanied, besides the generals reported killed, by the official family, including Luis Alvarado, Manuel Arriaga, Berlanga, Ignacio Bonillas, Luis Manuel Rojas, Governor, Ruedo Mague, Manuel Lario Blanco and others and to complete the catastrophe of the Carranza regime he was captured with all his remaining elements at Apizaco."

General Alvarez, Governor of the state of Mexico with all consideration ordering all commanders not to kill nor mistreat any one of his company.

Orders have been issued by Governor Adolfo de la Huerta, executive of the liberal constitutional government, in compliance with his state's rights that all gambling be stopped in all territory controlled by his government, which practically is the whole republic, for only three states had failed to recognize the movement headed by the state of Sonora.

General Ramon Irujo, from Simla, bottled at Matatlan has joined the Sonoran movement, and likewise General de Santiago of Nayarit."

Cosul de Oca in a statement expressed the desire to co-operate with all authorities on both sides of the international boundary for the "welfare of citizens on both sides of the river."

Senator Oca announced that gambling in all parts of the territory controlled by the revolutionists would be stopped, and that he did not believe that the saloons would be allowed to continue to operate for any length of time. The Juárez gambling houses were permanently closed today.

The vice fee of $250 for 10 days bought by the state has been abolished, the consul said.

TWO DEAD FROM STRANGE MIXTURE

Florida Water and Extract of Cinnamon Said to Be Cause of Death.

Both Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cox, of Twin Falls, and Carl Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, are dead from indulging in a strange mixture drunk Sunday. Anderson was taken to the county hospital Sunday afternoon from his home in the Oregon rooming house, and died early in the evening. Cox was removed from his home at 126 English street yesterday morning and died at about 1 o'clock.

They had been drinking Florida water and after it gave out resorted to extract of cinnamon, it is asserted. Both bodies were taken to the Grossman funeral parlors.

A post mortem was held last night at the parlors by Coroner Grossman and the contents removed from each stomach. It will be analyzed this morning by a chemist, it is said.

The father of Carl Anderson is expected to arrive in Twin Falls this noon and take the body to the Utah city for funeral services and burial.

SENATE TENTATIVELY ADOPTS SHIPPING AMENDMENTS

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Without a record vote and virtually without debate, the senate tentatively adopted today committee amendments to the house bill providing for a permanent merchant marine policy. Senator Jones, republican of Washington, in charge of the measure, hopes for its passage before the end of the week.

Among amendments adopted were those providing for a private ownership policy but authorizing the permanent shipping board which the bill creates to sell the merchant fleet unit by the government during the war "as soon as practicable, consistent with good business methods and the objects and purposes to be attained by this act."

COUNCIL LIFTS BAN ON SALT LAKE TILE

Can Be Used in Sewer Work for
Period of One Week—Com-Plains On Sprinkling.

City council last night lifted one week the ban placed against the use of salt lake tile sewer pipes which has been maintained at the request of Plumbing Inspector Murray. The ban was lifted after W. B. Wall, in behalf of the local plumbers, appeared before council stating that inability to secure sewer pipe which passes local specifications has been keeping a large number of people from occupying new homes because sewer lines could not be completed.

Opposition to the use of the salt lake pipe has been led by Mr. Murray for several months in spite of efforts of L. T. Wright and other local dealers to have the ban lifted. At present, there is practically no sewer pipe in Twin Falls.

Council also authorized City Clerk Minnick to order a carload of sewer pipe from Kansas City for distribution among the residents of Twin Falls at a nominal profit. The city has a car on the road now and when it arrives a portion of it will be distributed among both residents and plumbers. The pipe costs the city approximately 18 cents a foot, according to Mr. Minnick, while that sold by plumbers cost the purchaser at least 25 cents a foot.

Complaints registered against the sprinkling—or rather lack of sprinkling—resulted in council instructing City Engineer Borg to immediately put on the second shift as is provided by the city ordinance recently passed. Discussion was had on protest against work being done by the employees of the city on Sunday. Complaint had been made by C. E. Munson and Rev. A. G. Bennett to the working of the crew in front of the Methodist church last Sunday. It was explained that this work was emergency work necessary to protect paving work that is to be done by the church.

The widening of Second street east two blocks will be accomplished at an estimated cost of $400. The property owners must raise the money for the widening of 10 feet.

WATSON CONFESSES KILLED TWO MORE IN IDAHO

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 10.—A total of nine murders of women he had married had been confessed tonight by the man who under the name of James P. Watson, was sentenced today to life imprisonment for the murder of Nina Lee Deloney, according to Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney.

The alleged confessions, according to the district attorney, accounted for nine missing among the 25 or more women the man was said to have married.

Three of the alleged "victims" became known today. They were the wives of Mrs. M. A. Watt of Winnemucca, Nevada, and Mrs. Austin and Eleanor Pradier of Cary, California. The first two were drowned in the Crowsdalen, Idaho, and the last in the Spokane river, Washington, it was said.

In addition the man asserted his true name was Dan Holden and that he had been born of a "respectable" family in Arkansas, where he was reared.

SOCIALISTS SAY NOT GUILTY TO NEAR TREASON CHARGE

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 10.—William Brown Lloyd, wealthy socialist and 25 other alleged members of the communist labor party today pleaded not guilty to charges of conspiracy to advocate overthrow of the government by force after Clarence Darrow, a defense attorney failed to obtain a continuance before Judge Oscar Hebel.

Examination of prospective jurors began, but due to objections to questions asked by Frank Comerford, who is assisting the prosecution, and verbal clashes between opposing counsel, only two jurors had been tentatively accepted by the prosecution.

L. D. Heit, assistant state attorney, announced that two of the men on trial, Charles Clabahan and G. A. Engelmann, would testify for the state, and by agreement of counsel, separate trials would be held for each.

Attorney Comerford said that presentation of the state's case probably would take ten days.

DENTIST FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING OF CAR

Dr. Hupey, dentist, was arrested yesterday afternoon near the railroad station and taken to the county jail charged with being drunk on the street and driving an automobile recklessly. He was fined $50 and costs by Justice of the Peace Mallory.

Dr. Hupey was driving his car on the highway and later turned down towards the station. Owing to his condition the car was wrecked presumably having been driven into a pole. Dr. Hupey is said to be connected with the Parker dentists.

TWO DEATHS ARE CAUSED BY AUTOS

One Car Leaps From Bridge, Other Is Hurled From Road by Larger Car.

Automobile accidents caused the death of two people and serious injury to two others. James M. Bower, 45 years of age, was the first victim. He was instantly killed at midnight Saturday. The second death occurred Sunday afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Mulliken, 55 years of age, was the victim.

Mrs. Bower, a plasterer, who lives on Gem street, with three other persons were in a car when it fell from a bridge about five miles southeast of Twin Falls.

Mrs. Mulliken was in a Ford car with several other persons driving to Burley for a visit with her son when the car in which she was riding was struck by a larger car and turned over.

Passengers in the car with Mr. Bower, his wife, James Odell and wife, were injured excepting Mrs. Odell. It is stated that Mrs. Odell was driving the car on the return from a visit with friends. As the bridge was approached an attempt was made to get a successful crossing but it swerved to one side and turned turtle.

Mrs. Bower was thrown away from the car. The others were pinned under it. James Odell and Mrs. Bower are in the county hospital suffering from hurts received in the accident. The body of Mr. Bower is at the Grossman funeral parlors. Announcements will be made later.

In the Ford in which Mrs. Mulliken was riding were her two daughters, Mrs. Alice Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Prince and son, Bonner. Mulliken, Mrs. Cunningham's two small daughters and Charles Dean, the driver. It was struck suddenly and swerved. Then, when the larger car was passing another blow was given to the Ford which caused it to turn part way around, then fall over and face in the direction it was driving from.

Mrs. Mulliken's death was caused by a broken neck. Her daughter, Mrs. Cunningham, was taken to a Burley hospital. She was reported to be recovering from her injuries the last night. Others received superficial bruises and injuries.

The funeral of Mrs. Mulliken will be held this afternoon from the Grossman chapel. The Rev. Asher H. Brand will officiate. Interment will be in the Twin Falls cemetery.

If you were an ad. writer, what would you say to the people?

If you would like a suggestion I would say tell them the truth.

If there has been a word or a sentence, a paragraph or an entire ad. that I have had printed that has been anything but the truth I do not know of it.

I am wondering if this has had a lot to do with so many that have come to the store during this sale and saying, "We have always traded here with so much confidence; traded with the feeling that the goods were dependable and we were being told the truth."

ROBINSON'S has always been a good place to trade.

ROBINSON'S is still a good place to trade.

ROBINSON'S is a very good place just now to find great bargains during this closing out sale.
