CALL ASSEMBLY TO NAME PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT

Some Progress Is Made in the Restoration of Communication Lines Below the Border.

(By the Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Texas, May 15.—Revolutionary forces attacking President Carranza's convoy near El Paso, have captured all the money, archives and valuables Carranza took with him on his flight from Mexico City according to a message received by revolutionary agents here tonight from General Alvaro Obregón at Mexico City.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Venustiano Carranza, constitutional president of Mexico, was pictured today by Alvaro Obregón, who forced him to flee from the capital a week ago, as a fugitive in the mountains somewhere between Mexico City and Vera Cruz.

San Mateo reports on the fight near San Mateo between the revolutionary forces and a few loyal detachments of Carranza's army were lacking. San Mateo's dispatch from Vera Cruz also told of Carranza's escape through the revolutionary lines, apparently setting at rest all reports of the deposed leader's surrender.

Attack Is Not Precipitous.

There were indications that the revolutionists' attack had been planned, and, due to it, was believed, to Obregón's orders. Obregón had sent a messenger to Carranza to offer him safe conduct to leave the country if he desired to surrender, and strict injunction was placed on the revolutionary officers not to injure the aged president if he was captured.

Obregón's report said Carranza, accompanied by a small escort, was making for the surrounding mountains, but that he was being pursued.

Mexican Counter Revolt.

While American officials regard the escape of Carranza as the possible basis for a counter uprising, the belief that he would be able to avail himself of the opportunity was not widely expressed.

A greater possible menace to the revolutionary government, it was said, appeared to lie in the adjustment between the revolutionary leaders, Venustiano Carranza, Adolfo de Huerta, Antonio Villarreal, Manuel Palacios and Obregón.

To Name President.

A clear understanding on this hardly could be expected before May 24, the date announced for the convening of the special session of congress.

Temporary Annoyance

Because of the extreme shortage of newspaper, The Chronicle this morning is less in size than usual for a Sunday edition. This is but a temporary annoyance, due to failure of a shipment of paper to reach Twin Falls. It will be made up before the forthcoming Sunday issue.

THE PUBLISHER.

OMAHA STORES TAKE CRACK AT H. C. L.

By the Associated Press.
OMAHA, Neb., May 15.—Three large stores tonight announced flat reductions of 20 per cent on their stock. One of the concerns is a department store, another a clothing store and the third specializes in ready-to-wear apparel. Advertisements of two of the stores said the purpose is "to help lower the cost of living," and "to put a stop to backward buying."

Several stores already had announced reductions ranging as high as 50 per cent on silk goods.

FRENCH AND BRITISH ARE NEAR AGREEMENT

By the Associated Press.
HYTHE, England, May 15.—No negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily; no decisions have been arrived at, but the conference will be resumed tomorrow and important decisions are expected then.

An announcement was made tonight by Lord Riddell, spokesman of the British government, after adjournment at 4:30 o'clock tonight.

The French government and the British ministers to consider certain points in the peace treaty.

Early in the day it was announced that the conference would end tonight but delay was caused by the French government's proposal.

The French version of the receipt of these proposals this morning was that they had been agreed upon; the English version that they were provisional proposals.

The financial advisers were chiefly in evidence in the afternoon.

The members of the French delegation declared they had no doubt their proposals would be adopted tomorrow for fixing the amount of the German indemnity and a speedy and adequate payment on account to France.

CALL FOR HARVEST HELP.

By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 15.—Annual call for harvest help for Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, Missouri, Nebraska and North and South Dakota, was issued here today by Commissioner William H. Lewis of the Missouri bureau of labor statistics, who is federal director for the seven states.

Lewis, who has been in the southern portion of the executive mansion, will be headed. They will be distributed through a central clearing house at Kansas City, starting about June 1, according to the call.

KNOX PEACE RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED

Five Democrats Join With Republicans in Approving the Measure.

CONFERENCE WILL NOW SETTLE THE QUESTION

Walsh of Massachusetts Denounces Wilson "Pledge" of the Nation to the Covenant

WASHINGTON, May 15.—With few exceptions and no hitch in the preparatory program the senate adopted today to 38 the republican resolution regarding the state of war with Germany and Austria-Hungary at an end.

The measure was in the form of a substitute for the peace resolution recently adopted by the house which dealt with Germany alone.

The two proposals will be adjusted in conference beginning next week, the result to be endorsed by both houses and the final resolution to be sent to the president for signature.

Will Be New.

That the president will veto it is a foregone conclusion, unchanged by any speaker during debate in the house or senate. It is uncertain when the final resolution will reach the White house, but republican leadership anticipates no difficulty in putting through a conference with little delay. The senate substitute goes to the house Monday.

His Majority of Five.

The senate vote today gave the majority of five predicted by democratic leaders for the Knox substitute and the party attachment was about that anticipated.

Three democrats, Reed of Missouri, Shields of Tennessee and Walsh of Massachusetts, joined the republicans in supporting the resolution.

Two republicans, McCumber of North Dakota, who was paired, and Nelson of Minnesota, lined up with the democratic opposition.

Predicted by leaders on both sides that the treaty of Versailles would remain in its present unratified position indefinitely were made during the debate.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, in his first speech in his role as a democrat, declared the republicans apparently had "foreclosed" action on the treaty for the present session of congress.

From the republican side, Senator Harding, resolution, Ohio, declared the resolution was a demagogic appeal against "one man rule" of President Wilson.

Denounced As Futile.

The resolution was denounced as "futile, impotent, useless and doing for no other than political purposes, to deceive the people," by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, administration spokesman. He also reiterated, against republican denials, that President Wilson's pronouncements had "pledged" the nation to the league of nations.

Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, in explaining to the senate his vote in support of the Knox resolution, said: "In my opinion the treaty of Versailles is so full of internal injustice that it is a service to our own country to do whatever can prevent ratification in its original form."

Resolution Constructive.

The Knox resolution, he added, "was the only constructive measure suggested tending to remove the chaotic state of the country," and "protected against his party being compelled to make any such defense in the next election of the 'international justice robbery' which he said, had been placed in the treaty."

SUGAR CONTROL IS PROPOSED BY BILL

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A bill providing for the filling with the federal trade commission of uniform price lists for sugar of various grades and a tax of 1 cent a pound on all sugar sold at prices not conforming to such price lists was introduced today by Representative Stearns, republican, Minnesota.

The measure was drafted along the same line as the cotton standards act, the author said, and was calculated to prevent profiteering.

Poland Has Him On the Run

Leon Trotsky's fled army was victorious in Russia as long as it was battling with such armies as those led by General Koltchak and Denikin. The first clash with a real army, that of Poland, however, put Trotsky's outfit on the run—and they're still running.

CARRIERS SEEKING EMERGENCY ACTION

Railroads Want Aid to Dig Out From Freight Congestion—Worst Since 1917.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—The government was asked today to take "emergency action similar to that taken when this country entered the war" to help dig the railroads out from under the worst freight congestion since 1917.

A joint appeal to the interstate commerce commission by the Association of Railway Executives and the American Railroad association declared the freight jam to be such as to "endanger and require" immediate use of the commission's broad powers under the transportation act in checking a "menace" which had assumed threatening proportions.

Common use of equipment, and emergency priorities and diversions of shipments were urged by the railroads as means which the commission could employ to remedy the situation.

The roads also said that they be allowed to curtail passenger service if necessary but indicated this would be done only in the extreme cases.

While the present conditions continue, the appeal says, carriers should be relieved from operations of state and federal laws which hamper in meeting the demands upon them.

The railroad officials represented to the commission that there was no immediate hope of obtaining ample equipment and that the volume of commodities being offered for transportation permitted no time for proper repairs. The labor situation has augmented the difficulties and does not permit improvement, they said.

The unauthorized strike of switchmen, the petition stated, had contributed to the "growing public distress" on account of delayed movement of freight.

There was no indication tonight as to the commission's course. Its full powers under the transportation act have not been employed as yet. Officials expressed a desire to "go the limit" but hinted they did not know where this might lead.

STREET CAR SYSTEM IN BUTTE STAYS SUSPENDED

By the Associated Press.

BUTTE, Mont., May 15.—Operation of street cars in this city, suspended since last Monday by a strike of the workmen's union, probably will not be resumed for some time, according to a statement made today by J. R. Wharton, manager of the street railway company.

FRENCH TO EVACUATE RUHR.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, May 15.—Official announcement was made tonight that evacuation by the French troops of the Ruhr region would "begin shortly."

This decision, the announcement says, was taken because verification has been received of the reduction of German troops in the Ruhr district to the number allowed by the protocol of August, 1919.

AUTO SHOW IS ENDED; LAST DAY SUCCESS

Has Drawn People From All Portions of Surrounding Country.

FIRST UNDERTAKING OF KIND BY A NEWSPAPER

Makes New Departure—Adds Something to the Motor Industry in This Section.

In a blaze of enthusiasm, and with the applause of the patrons, The Twin Falls Chronicle Auto Show closed last night.

The show has been well patronized; has delighted the public; has drawn people from all over the country to Twin Falls, many of whom had never before visited the city; has helped the automobile industry of the community and the dealers who exhibited their wares in particular; has drawn trade to our merchants; to our eating houses; to our hotels; has stimulated the entire community and provided diversion to the multitudes. It has not, however, been a profitable undertaking financially. If the risk the time and the labor are considered.

Pride in Results.

The Chronicle takes pride in the results. The Chronicle finds satisfaction in that which it has helped do for the community and those who live therein. The Chronicle feels in a work well done, and is delighted with the kind things which are said on all hands concerning the show and the enterprise of the newspaper which managed it.

Is a New Departure.

This is the first auto show ever conducted by a newspaper. There have been land shows, fruit shows, flower shows and other big undertakings handled by big city newspapers, but until The Chronicle undertook the Auto Show just closed, no newspaper had ever handled and given an Auto Show. So it is that Twin Falls creates a new departure, not only in journalism but in the auto show business.

One that of J. W. Bearup, had only arrived. This exhibit was to consist of a 60-horsepower tractor weighing 1,500 pounds. Dr. Bearup carried into the local field last August and has placed many tractors since then.

JOHNSON GETS SEVEN YEARS.

By the Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15.—Robert Johnson, a new Washington state, alleged forger, chased from Valdes, Alaska, to Hite, Utah, where he was captured in a barbed cable in the desert) was sentenced to seven years in McNeil's island penitentiary by the United States district court in Valdes, according to information received today.

ARLINGTON AMPHITHEATER IMPRESSIVELY DEDICATED

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—Erected in memory of all patriots who died for the nation's preservation and defense, the Arlington memorial amphitheater, rising impressively above the hills of Arlington national cemetery, where rest the thousands of the nation's heroes, received its formal dedication today in the presence of a great throng, including veterans of three wars.

Old men of the Grand Army of the Republic, under whose auspices the exercises were conducted, stood side by side with younger veterans of the Spanish war and with the youths who fought in the great conflict recently ended, as the formal dedication was pronounced by the Grand Army's commander in chief, Dan M. Hall. Sprinkled among the blue and khaki of the veterans were members of the cabinet, a number of the diplomatic corps and acting representatives of official Washington.

Assembling on the ellipse south of the White House earlier in the day, the veterans, headed by a troop of cavalry, and a battalion of marines and bluejackets, passed in review before the president standing on the south porch of the executive mansion. Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, was grand marshal of the parade and his staff included many ranking officers of both the army and navy. G. A. R. members were represented by the full membership of the department of the Potomac and the United States War veterans and the American Legion by their local chapters.

Advised by his physicians not to stand, as the formal dedication was pronounced by the Grand Army's commander in chief, Dan M. Hall. Sprinkled among the blue and khaki of the veterans were members of the cabinet, a number of the diplomatic corps and acting representatives of official Washington.

HOOVER CRITICIZED BY BOTH HI JOHNSON AND PALMER

Power to take such action, until after the Cuban crop was out of hand. He added that he had attempted to persuade the board to purchase the Louisiana crop but failed.

Commenting on Mr. Hoover's suggestion that sugar be rationed now as it was during the war, Senator Johnson said that while such a plan was under consideration there was no practical, legal way of carrying it out.

"Mr. Hoover's recent conversion to the so-called Lodge reservations evidence the flexibility of his mind," Senator Johnson declared.

"I have opposed the present covenant of the league of nations. My position is known to every voter. Mr. Hoover's 'flexibility' is a great advantage."

"The Cuban sugar crop should be rationed now as it was during the war," Senator Johnson declared.

"Mr. Hoover is spoofing Oregon," the senator said and added:

"Mr. Hoover in a contest with three sides has the advantage of having sided with the victors."

Mr. Palmer replied to Mr. Hoover's contention that the Cuban sugar crop should have been purchased by the sugar quadrilateral board and suggested that congress called to give the board

MINIDOKA POULTRY PRODUCERS ACTIVE

One Uses Alarm Clock to Turn on Julio So as to Get in Full Day.

RUPERT, Idaho.—Minidoka county, through its farm bureau, has started on an ambitious program of poultry improvement, which carries with it the possibility of saving the people of the county more than $70,000 a year by the elimination of the cull hen.

Meanwhile, they are learning how to produce hens in the county, and among them A. B. Brown, executive committee member for the farm bureau poultry project, has had 50 culls among his pullets for the last two years.

Model poultry houses add to egg production. Mr. Brown's alarm clock turns on the electric lights every morning and starts the hens working day at 5 o'clock.

"Poultry is one of the valuable assets of every farm in the county," says Mr. Brown. "There are 48,385 hens in the county. The culling campaign carried on by the state farm bureau shows 50 per cent of the hens to be unprofitable. Since it costs $2.11, according to our records, to keep a hen here, we have decided it most worth while to work toward weeding out the culls in the county and put the money saved into our pockets. Figuring on the basis of the work already done here by the farm bureau, the county would be richer by $76,912.72 if all the unprofitable hens were disposed of. To date $2,512.41 has been saved and only a very small percentage of the people of the county have done any work toward the improving of their flocks by systematic culling and careful breeding.

"One of our farm bureau community workers, who has kept a very careful record, says his hens have paid for all the feed they have eaten and netted a good profit. He gives the figures to prove his statement. The entire cost of keeping my 200 hens was $24.75. The gross returns from the yard were $1,603.38, leaving a net gain of $778.63. The profit from each hen was $3.89."

The method of breeding started by the Hopewell community under the direction of Pren Moore, poultry specialist of the university extension division was explained by Mr. Brown then.

"Four flocks of very good quality White Leghorns were found in Hopewell community and a community breeding circle was started among them. They were all of the same strain. When Mr. Moore visited one of these flocks in January he found every pullet from the mating a bird of excellent laying capacity. As soon as the laying pen in the county is carefully selected this pen was, we will have no culling to do."

Mr. Brown was then asked about his new poultry house, and admitted that it was an improvement upon the old one.

"It is a Woods type house," he said, "with an open front, 21x40 in. size. At one end there is a granary, 10x24; in the center is the bird laying pen, 20x24; and at the other end are two brooding pens, 10x24."

"It is equipped with electric lights. I do not have to get up to turn them on. A switch is attached to the alarm clock, and turn on the lights when the alarm goes off at 5 a. m. They are turned on again in the evening and kept on until 7. The increased egg production has more than paid for the electricity used."

"The litter carrier saves a great deal of time. The old house it took 20 minutes to clean a week's accumulation of droppings, with only two hens. In the new house it takes exactly 12 minutes, and there are 200 birds."

"Another thing, my new house contains a row of windows under the droppings boards at the back. This keeps the hens from scratching all the litter under the roosts, making it necessary to rake it smooth every day."

"Feed feeding hoppers are used for dry, mals. These are filled once every two weeks and are kept before the hens at all times. The hoppers, along with nests and drinking fountains, are ruled from the floor to leave all available floor space for scrambling. To make the water as convenient as possible, I have a well with a pump, in my house."

Pren Moore, poultry specialist from the university extension division, has been Mr. Brown's house and supervisor of it for this climate. Farm bureau workers from other counties, who are planning poultry houses, have been advised to see Mr. Brown's house before building. Emory Poltz, executive committee member on the poultry project of the Twin Falls county farm bureau, came up with his carpenter and looked the house over carefully. He returned to Twin Falls county with the plans and specifications and in a very short time he had a poultry house completed.

"Your hens are good layers, I hear; where did you get them?" Mr. Brown was asked.

"I have had this strain for some time, he replied, "but they are better layers than when I got them. I started with one cockerel and five hens. For four successive years I have mated hens to year-old cockerels. The old cockerel was mated with the earliest maturing pullets. The first two years, 10 per cent of the pullets were culls, but this system of line breeding has improved my flock. The past two years there were no culls. During this time the laying capacity of my hens has improved."

ONE USE FOR BARRELS.

An Englishman seeking adventure and advertising purposes to come over land, shot Niagara in a barrel. Poor, bored Niagara! One can imagine her covering a well-bred horse and asking, as the barrel goes by, "is this yet, or again?"

Now if Johnny Englishman really wants to create some excitement, why doesn't he climb up to Mars' hand overhand and jump off, or something like that? Why doesn't he, if time haunts heavy on his hands, come over here and get a job as railroad switchman? He will not know an life moment if he will do that, and he will get good pay, too.

The world is not much interested in care-devil fests nowadays. It takes so much courage and initiative to live the simplest life possible in these complex times that unnecessary bravado is regarded with little enthusiasm. Good deeds of daring like the infant slight across the ocean are, another matter. That is venturing into danger in order that others may follow in safety in some line of constructive advancement for which the world will be better off.

But after all, why pick on the poor Rip Van Winkle? Maybe there is a seed of modern practicability in his moth-eaten idea. Perchance he is a heavy stockholder in some company, and is trying to think of some way of using the barrels that are now as empty as last year's new.

HOPE FOR MEXICO.

The present situation in Mexico, with all its confusion, is regarded by most Americans as hopeful. There is at least a sporting chance that out of the confusion will come order. As long as Carranza remained in power, there was only a false semblance of order and no possibility of satisfactory relations between Mexico and other countries.

There have been ten years of chaos.

The United States is weary of the destruction of American life and property, weary of the haunting of American rights by insolent spokesmen of an ignorant and half-barbarous nation.

Carranza could not unify Mexico. The greatest unity it has known since the days of Cortez is shown now by rival chieftains in expelling Carranza. The nation at last seems capable of setting together in a national cause. Is it too much to hope that this new unity will find some strong man as a rallying center, and that Mexico again will have a government capable of taking care of domestic affairs and dealing intelligently and honestly with the United States? Any such tendency should be fostered by our government in all friendliness.

FUNDS OLD GOVERNMENT ARE CAPTURED

When a provisional president is to be named. It was said revolution, any representative repeated their assurance that Palaez, who has collected tribute from oil operators about Tampara for four years in defiance of the Carranza government, is in accord with the new revolution and its leaders. American business men are observing his attitude with sharp interest, the more so since there is now this in the oil fields nearly $2,000,000 in taxes. These have not been paid, producers awaiting more definite indication. It was said, as to who would receive payment.

Some progress toward a restoration of communication lines in Mexico was reported today. There is now working out of Mexico to the border one land wire through El Paso. The wire through Piedras Negras have been extended southward as far as Laredo but those south from Laredo are tangled along the ground for miles. Wireless and cable have not proved available to a great extent, even for government business.

The failure of the Chapultepec wireless at Mexico City to function with any degree of accuracy was attributed to inexperienced operators. The cable to Mexico City has been out of commission because of the fighting near San Marcos through which its land wires pass, but the cable company has sent forward repair gangs.

The few official reports received by the government indicated a continuance of order in the municipal centers taken over by the rebels.

FRENCH BATTLE MOSLEM

By the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 16.—A French column of 3,000 soldiers which left Kilis, Asia Minor, May 9, to relieve the garrison at Antah, about 30 miles north of Kirmak was held by a strong Moslem force when 10 miles from its destination and was compelled to return. The nationalists were equipped with 1,000 rifles, outnumbering the French 75's and kept up a continual attack upon the French. Advices received here describe the situation at Kilis as critical and that at Antah as desperate.

SCIENCE BATTLING HIGH COST LIVING

Pacific Division to Hear of Advancements at Meeting in June.

SEATTLE, Wash.—How science is successfully attacking the high cost of living will be told at the fourth annual meeting of the Pacific division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science here June 17 to 19. Some of the country's foremost scientists will attend the gathering and 14 affiliated scientific societies will hold meetings here at the same time. One feature will be a symposium of the combined affiliated societies on "The Plant and Animal Resources of the North Pacific Ocean."

"In this year of political activity when personalities and the temporary issues of a presidential campaign are apparently crowding out other interests from the public mind," said W. W. Saragunt of San Francisco, secretary of the association's Pacific division in announcing the meeting, "it is reassuring to know that the fundamentals are not being neglected; that the way against ignorance, the arch enemy of man, is being fought by these devotees of research, that plant species are being studied and their life investigated, and chemical reactions are being noted in order that the productivity of our farms may be increased and our forests conserved."

"Astronomy, physics and chemistry of research, that plant species are being studied and their life investigated, and chemical reactions are being noted in order that the productivity of our farms may be increased and our forests conserved."

TRADE CONVENTION TO MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO.—Trade advisers—bankers, shipping men, importers, exporters, publishers and others whose work deals with foreign trade—will come to the national foreign trade convention here May 12-15 from all parts of the world to give first hand advice regarding trading conditions. The advisers, whenever requested, will hold personal conferences with delegates.

Data regarding series of foreign trade questions will be brought to the meeting by these advisers. Some will come from South America, others from China and Japan, one from the Mediterranean and dozen from American cities.

Most of the advisers will be executives in companies engaged in foreign trade. For example, Louis Bloch, Portland, general manager of a paper company, will be here to advise on "Export of Paper and Paper Products."

John A. Hendrick, vice president of a San Francisco bank, will tell of "Bank Acceptances." W. D. Allen, publisher of a South American paper, will describe general conditions in the southern continent. Charles L. Lane, president of an eastern wool company, has been assigned "Export of Wool Products." C. T. Hauss, vice president of a Mediterranean trading company, will advise regarding "Trade With North Italy."

Several government branches, including the state department and the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, will have representatives at the convention as trade advisers. Among the bureau's delegates will be several commercial attaches home on leave from foreign embassies.

LUXURY PURCHASERS PAY BIG TAXES

More Than Million Dollars a Year Are Added in New York Alone.

NEW YORK.—Luxury buying in the amount of luxury taxes—aggregating New York is now going on at the rate of $10,500,000 a month—which are being collected by William H. Edwards, United States collector of internal revenue for Manhattan. In February, according to the collector, the government received from his office $2,000,000 more in luxury taxes than was paid in any previous month in the history of the department. The month of April probably will exceed them all. The receipts, he says, have been mounting higher and higher for six months.

"What some people call the 'orgy of spending' has not exhausted itself," said Mr. Edwards today. "but my men, in their talks with merchants and others who pay the great bulk of the taxes, have been told that the 'peak' of extravagance seems to have been reached and that a period of retrenchment is close at hand."

"We hear a lot about the income and excess profits tax which falls due in the spring of every year and about the hardships of meeting it but the fact is that the steepest tax, and one which is least felt by the public and of which we hear very little, is the luxury impost. The poorer chap who buys his girl an ice cream soda doesn't grumble at the penny or two tax any more than does the rich youth who presents his fiancée with a diamond ring or a touring car. Neither misses it as the item is so small as compared with the expenditure."

"A king's ransom was spent for candy last December but the biggest revenue came from dealers in jewelry, furs and automobiles. The theaters showed that in January they did an unusually prosperous business. When persons start to economize they usually cut out amusements but in January, in the borough of Manhattan alone, $783,891.43 was paid in taxes. Multiply that by ten and you will get some idea of how much Father Knickerbocker and his guests are paying to be entertained at just the theaters. There are no indications of any change in these figures. The man who said: 'Always be a bull on the great U. S. A.' seems to be vindicated."

An interesting thing about the luxury tax is that more revenue is being derived from ice cream sodas and other small sales which carry a penny or two of tax than there is from the sale of motor cars, diamonds and other luxuries. Druggists paid a large sum on canepones, perfume and cosmetics. Every manufacturer, producer or importer is required to make such returns as will clearly show each taxable transaction in the sale of certain goods and these are verified by revenue officers. Section 904 of the revenue act of 1918 provides that "on and after May 7, 1919, the tax of 10 per cent shall be levied and collected on luxuries, including many kinds of expensive articles in daily use. In the sale of these articles the dealer acts as a collection agent for the government. Other taxes are paid in the form of stamps."

"One of the reasons for the falling off in the receipts of income and excess profits taxes this year was the deduction which the taxpayer made for sums which he paid to the government for luxury, proprietary and other taxes. Here is an illustration: Let us say that a man takes his wife to the theater twice a week. He pays $5 each time he goes to the theater. The tax on each of the seats is 30 cents. On four seats a week he pays $1.20 and in one year $62.40. He is privileged to deduct that from his net income before computing his income tax. The same rule would apply to any other tax he may have paid to the government during the year. A person, however, is required to prove that he actually expended the money for luxuries if any question is raised on his return. There have been comparatively few attempts at evasion. In fact, the amount received by this office in luxury and other taxes is a monument to the honesty of the majority of the people of this great city."

FRONT WHEAT CROP OUTLOOK IS SPLENDID

PARIS, May 12.—So good is the French crop outlook for this year that agricultural experts believe the wheat harvest will come close to meeting the nation's full requirements for the coming year. This improvement as compared with last year, is due in some degree to the increased use of motor driven farm equipment. According to official figures, more than 12,350,000 acres have been sown with wheat.

RED FORCES OFFERED

WARSAW, May 12.—Polish forces have ousted the bolsheviks from the Kiev bridgehead on the east bank of the Dniester, according to latest army reports received here, and have driven them farther eastward from that river. The bolsheviks have continued their artillery fire, but the shells are not reaching Kiev. The Poles have established themselves throughout the bridgehead and have moved their artillery to the east bank of the Dniester. Kiev is reported quiet and orderly.

URGE SENDING OF EXHIBITION VESSELS

Plans of Japanese and British to Gain World Trade Is Favored.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—American manufacturers and commercial organizations are being urged to adopt the idea of the British and Japanese and send exhibition ships abroad to display American goods in foreign ports. The idea has been proposed to the American business men by H. G. McLean, assistant foreign traffic manager of the Southern railway system, who has headquarters here. Mr. McLean has suggested that shipping board vessels be fitted out as exhibition ships to carry American products to new markets and thus meet the competition of the British and Japanese manufacturers.

Mr. McLean has called the attention of various commercial organizations to the fact that Japan as well as Great Britain has adopted this plan in her race for the world's trade and that Japanese ships will be sent around the world carrying exhibits of Japanese manufactured goods. These vessels will be operated by a co-operative organization embracing a large number of Japanese manufacturers.

Mr. McLean also is regarded among railroad men as an authority on international trade, points out another feature in this connection which he regards of great importance. British and Japanese manufacturers, he asserts, through the co-operation of labor leaders in their countries have persuaded labor that "strikeless production" on their part will "strike against production" in the United States would soon enable those countries to capture German trade markets aggregating nearly $5,000,000 annually with a consequent addition of $5,000,000,000 in wages paid British and Japanese workmen.

Mr. McLean says that intensive production both in Great Britain and Japan has enabled those countries not only to provide ample stocks for domestic consumption but also for export in competition with American products in foreign markets.

MANY NATIONS PERMIT U. S. PARCELS TO ENTER

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The number of nations and colonies to which the United States may send parcel post matter has increased from 44 to 150 since 1912. Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, told a luncheon gathering of delegates to the seventh annual national foreign trade convention here today. "Immediately upon the conclusion of the armistice, when shipping became available, the department completed the work for which it held the foundation during the war and in the space of the next few months concluded parcel post arrangements with 18 foreign countries to which American parcel post had heretofore no admission," he said. "China, Egypt, South America, Spain and later Switzerland opened the door to our exporters by mail. As I left Washington agreement was due for a new parcel post service with Norway, Sweden and Denmark, increasing the weight limit from 11 to 25 pounds and giving to American exporters an indemnity for the loss or destruction of their insured parcels."

GRISBY AND WICKERSHAM TELLS OF MANY ACTIVITIES

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 14.—Delegate Grisby of Alaska, and former Delegate Wickersham appeared today before a senate judiciary sub-committee in connection with the committee's inquiry into charges of political activity which have held up action on the nominations of Charles E. Hunsell and H. F. Roth to be federal district judge and attorney respectively, for Alaska. Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, in charge of the inquiry, expressed doubt as to a possibility of action being taken on the nominations before the proposed recess of congress. The nominations were first made in July, 1919, and after dying in the last session, were renewed last December.

LAY FAULTS OF NAVY TO G. O. P.

Daniels Says Ship's Charges of Lack of Personnel Are Not His Mistake.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary Daniels' testimony today before the senate naval investigating committee was devoted to answering Rear Admiral Sims' charges that the navy was not properly prepared for war in 1917 and that adequate steps toward complete preparedness had not been taken after the world war started. He reviewed the naval records of the Roosevelt and Taft administrations and his own recommendations from 1913 to 1917, and said:

"President Wilson and congress were in advance of public opinion in 1912 when three dreadnaughts were authorized as against one in 1912. 'In view of the war needs,' he continued, 'I grant you that it (the navy) was too small in all these years, but the record is complete refutation of the criticisms you have heard regarding securing personnel, ships and munitions before the United States entered the war.'

"After the European war broke out Admiral Dewey, then head of the general staff, submitted a plan for preparedness that was approved and carried out. As far as the funds granted by congress would permit," Mr. Daniels said.

The shortage of enlisted men charged by Admiral Sims, like the shortage of officers, Mr. Daniels said, was "inherited by the Wilson administration." Former Secretary George von Meyer, of the Taft administration came in for criticism in this connection. Mr. Daniels charging that Meyer failed to provide a single enlisted man toward overcoming the shortage that existed when President Taft took office. It was not until the Wilson administration that any effort was made to establish a real navy reserve, he further charged.

Shortage of officers was due, he said, to the fact that many years prior to 1916 there had not been enough midshipmen appointed to the naval academy.

Mr. Daniels said he would recommend removal of "the three-year rotating program if the league covenant should not be ratified."

BOISE IS VICTOR IN SECOND GAME

Score 14 to 13 Again Leaves Championship of the State in Uncertain Condition.

Twin Falls high school's baseball team was unable to win the second game with the Boise high school yesterday, losing the final game of the series by a score of 14 to 13. The contest was one of the hard hitting affairs in which the fans were repeatedly brought to their feet by rallies and in which the winner was not certain until the last man was out.

This event split leaves the championship up in the air as these two teams were without a doubt the best in Idaho. Twin Falls has sort of held the championship without really winning it since it conquered Boise three games out of three several years ago. Since then all series have ended evenly.

This was the final game of the season.

Reynolds Stebbins, the party's vice presidential candidate, made a special plea to Secretary Tumulty for a pardon of Mr. Debs, who he said, had been convicted on faulty evidence and had been unfairly represented to the people by newspapers throughout the country.

An argument on behalf of Kate Richards O'Hare, serving a sentence at the Jefferson City penitentiary, on conviction of having violated the espionage act also was made.

Secretary Tumulty asked many questions about the two cases and requested that a list of all other prisoners for whom relief was sought be sent to the White House.

"These are serious matters," said Mr. Tumulty. "and I am sure the president will give them conscientious consideration."

REPUBLICANS SPLIT ON STOCK TAXATION

Majority Members of Committee Tie With 10 Percent Before Democratic.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 15.—On a tie vote, with one member absent, republican supporters of a stock dividend tax to finance soldier relief legislation in the house ways and means committee today lost their fight for a 10 per cent levy, retro-active to last March 15.

The majority members of the committee divided 7 to 7.

The chief proponents of the tax said it would be repealed next week, when democrats of the committee meet with the republicans to take final action on the relief bill; the drafting of which was complete today by the republicans.

The sales tax has been eliminated, and the four other forms of taxation extended to three years instead of two.

A further fight in committee against the cash bonus, the maximum limit of which is now fixed at $500 for service in this country and $125 for overseas service, is threatened. Besides the bonus, the bill offers four options the value of each to be 10 per cent greater than that of the cash provision.

The bonus would be fixed at a rate of 10 per cent for service in this country and 11.25 per cent for overseas. The optional benefits are paid up insurance; home aid; reclamation of land for farms and vocational training aid. Taxes proposed to add $500,000,000 a year to government revenue for the next five years, would be as follows:

A new surtax levy on incomes exceeding $5,000; 1 per cent of the amount between $5,000 and $10,000; 2 per cent on that between $10,000 and $25,000; and 3 per cent on that exceeding $25,000.

A levy of 2 cents on each $10 of exchange transactions in stocks and bonds and deals in futures of grain and products.

A tax of 25 cents for each $50 on real estate sold for less than 15 per cent in existing taxes on tobacco and cigars.

Payments of the bonus would begin July 1, 1925, and be made in quarterly installments of $50 each.
