WOOL SLUMPS 10 TO 20 PER CENT ON MARK

But Thirty Per Cent of the Amount Offered Is Sold.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT GRATIFIED OVER DROP

Believes That Peak Has Been Reached—Liquidation of Stocks to Aid Credit Is Belief.

By the Associated Press. HOUSTON, May 20.—The price of wool slumped today, a break of from 10 to 20 per cent occurring at auction sales conducted here under the auspices of the British government.

Only seven mills took part in the bidding and but 30 per cent of the wool offered for sale was disposed of. Investors were agreed that the peak of high prices for wools has passed. Manufacturers' representatives at the sale told of the return of goods to the mills in many cases, principally wools, of cancellation of other orders and the loss and of consequent curtailments already under way. Some plants have discontinued overnight operations and a few have reduced work to four or five days a week. It was stated, however, that a radical curtailment or shutdown of plants was not considered imminent.

The wools offered today aggregated 18,500 bales, mostly merinos and other fine grades. Only 5,500 bales were sold, these chiefly to six mills.

USE PLYING SQUADRON

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Regardless of the spreading wave of price reductions, Assistant Attorney General Garvan announced tonight that the government's efforts at hunting down profiteers regarding an investigation of profits made by individual stores had been extended to more than a score of cities.

While Mr. Garvan declared he was gratified at the price drop reported in nearly every commodity and did not believe the department "deserved too much of the credit."

Explains Causes. Mr. Garvan said the women and the press of the country had formed a "combination" to break the power of the profiteer and believed they had succeeded. While the downward trend may not continue as rapidly as it now appears, Mr. Garvan said he believed the peak had been passed and that the general situation had not in which might go a long way toward establishing a normal condition.

But, he explained, "normal" must not be construed to mean pre-war levels.

CHICAGO, May 20.—While the continued spread of the price cutting wave was noted in central and western states today, Chicago bankers expressed satisfaction with the financial situation, one man declaring that the liquidation of stocks by merchants would greatly aid in bringing credit back to normal.

According to a survey taken by the Cleveland Manufacturers' association of the Cleveland Garment Industry, prices of women's wearing apparel will go no higher, unless, it was stated, labor and material are advanced.

WILD SCRAMBLE FOR PREFERENCE SHOW

Clamor for Cars, Envelopes, Interest Commerce Commission—Plans Are Drawn.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A wild scramble among individual lines of industry for preferential treatment in movement developed today as the interstate commerce commission gave indication of reaching definite conclusions on plans to break the freight blockade.

There was a clamor for cars and for priority orders by grain and coal dealers. The American Cannery association protested that "unless shipments were moved ahead there would be heavy losses in certain eastern districts."

By letter, telegram and personal representation, the commission, the American Railroad association's car service committee, and railroad executives here were apprised of the urgent needs of almost every line of trade.

commended that it order the transfer of 20,000 box cars from the Atlantic seaboard to lines west of Chicago and the re-location of 30,000 coal cars now west of the Mississippi river to areas in the freight congested east. This should be done within the next 30 days. If a direct beneficial result was to be accomplished, the road heads believed.

Members of the Michigan congressional delegation, together with representatives of Michigan public utilities, appealed to the commission for consideration in the movement of coal to that territory. A pressing need for fuel was declared to exist throughout the state and they urged the commission to clamp down on "the misuse of open top equipment" so that it would be available for transportation of coal.

At the conference called by Director Barnes of the grain corporation, complaints about the car supply in the grain producing sections of the middle west was the principal topic of discussion. There were assertions that even when cars were supplied "less than 20 per cent of them were fit for loading." Presidents of several railroads answered these charges with the statement that the task of rearing equipment to a serviceable basis was one "almost beyond human comprehension" and that the rail lines were doing their utmost in repairing and making ready to meet the forthcoming heavy grain movement.

Mr. Barnes said that without shipments out the country to select a team worthy to uphold Spanish traditions of swordsmanship. Some of the fencers in the Spanish army are noted for their prowess. Majors Macapinas and Lazo and Captain Curante are experts with the foil; Majors Vaca, Rodriguez and Ileta and Mico with the sabre, while with the sword the first three also excel.

THE DEAD IN FRANCE.

Although they have consented court-ously to the request for the removal of the American dead, there is still a deep feeling among the French people for having the bodies of the American soldiers left where they sleep in France, assembled in the great American cemeteries.

Nobody can blame the French. The removal of these bodies means a menace to the health of French people, the congestion of their already overburdened railways, and a continuous sad procession through already saddened towns. Last and worst of all, each body removed is a broken link in that chain binding French and American hearts and interests.

Perhaps, if the home people can bring themselves to it, it is the wisest and kindest thing to leave the bodies of our boys, as many as may be, over there. Visiting them will not be so difficult as it seems, and they sleep well in the ground they died to defend. Then, too, there is this to be remembered. Graves in those great military cemeteries will receive care forever. They will be tended for generations as will those in Arlington and Gettysburg here. But who shall say what will happen to the graves of the boys buried in our smaller cemeteries at home? After this generation that loved them is gone, who will water and tend and weep? How many cemeteries today are dreary, seldom visited, forgotten?

How many have already been disturbed, which once seemed so secure?

CHECK SAFER THAN CASH.

A woman in an eastern city, who wished to transfer her money from one bank to another, drew out the whole amount, $18,500, in cash, from the first bank, boarded a street car and went to the bank where she wished to deposit her money. When she arrived there she found she had been robbed of the entire sum.

A druggist who was to make a payment of $2,000 on his house drew the money in cash from his bank, two doors up the street, and left it in the safe at his drug store over night. When he arrived at the store in the morning his safe had been robbed.

Both of these persons could have saved themselves money loss and worry by the simple process of drawing a check for the sum desired instead of taking it in cash. Whatever the reason for their action, events proved the reason was not very sound.

There are abroad in the world today, as the result of general disturbance, more thieves and robbers than ever before. Many of the cleverest crooks from Europe are now operating here. The wise individual will remember this, and avoid handling large sums of cash, using instead such checks, drafts or money orders as require that the payee be identified.

SCHOOLS FOR GARDENERS.

Schools for training gardeners should not be overlooked by those who have in view the co-ordination of school life with practical employment.

One such institution is now well under way at the botanical gardens in New York city. The course, which is proving very satisfactory, covers two years, and includes instruction in garden and economic botany, plant diseases and pests, soils, cutting, slipping and transplanting, culture from seeds, and a brief course in garden planning. It does not pretend to include general farming, forestry nor landscape gardening, but deals only with such subjects as will be useful in developing country estates or market and private gardens.

There is great need of trained gardeners. Most of our good ones came from abroad. Many of them are old, and little new material is at hand to take their places. Private and market gardening are continually on the increase; park systems call for experienced workers along these lines; instructors will be needed more and more.

Whether performed for oneself or for another, gardening is beautiful and satisfactory work. Wages for it are good. Moreover, men physically unable to do heavier farming can garden successfully. Instruction in it should be generally available.

THE CITIZEN'S JOB.

Good roads, women's dress reform and scholarship may seem to be widely unrelated subjects. Viewed as special interests, they have little in common. Viewed in the broad light of progress and enlightened citizenship, they all find an appropriate place on the program of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

The federation recently held its annual convention. It adopted resolutions in favor of the state shift campaign, asking for a higher standard of scholarship among public school teachers and higher compensation for teachers.

If the women end their work with the resolutions they will not have accomplished very much. But if the resolutions serve simply as a public record of the things these women are intelligently interested in and actively working for, they will mark real progress. Good roads, efficient teachers with good salaries, thrift and household economy are all things in which every citizen should be concerned. Studying them, practicing them in home and public office and teaching their value to men, women and children alike, will help to make the resolutions effective. The good citizen's job includes all these things.

The naval controversy is still simmering—or Simsing, if you prefer—but it begins to look as if the navy isn't quite so decadent and disreputable, after all.

But who shall say what will happen to the graves of the boys buried in our smaller cemeteries at home? After this generation that loved them is gone, who will water and tend and weep? How many cemeteries today are dreary, seldom visited, forgotten?

How many have already been disturbed which once seemed so secure?

CHECK SAFER THAN CASH.

A woman in an eastern city, who wished to transfer her money from one bank to another, drew out the whole amount, $18,500, in cash, from the first bank, boarded a street car and went to the bank where she wished to deposit her money. When she arrived there she found she had been robbed of the entire sum.

A druggist who was to make a payment of $2,000 on his house drew the money in cash from his bank, two doors up the street, and left it in the safe at his drug store over night. When he arrived at the store in the morning his safe had been robbed.

Both of these persons could have saved themselves money loss and worry by the simple process of drawing a check for the sum desired instead of taking it in cash. Whatever the reason for their action, events proved the reason was not very sound.

There are abroad in the world today, as the result of general disturbance, more thieves and robbers than ever before. Many of the cleverest crooks from Europe are now operating here. The wise individual will remember this, and avoid handling large sums of cash, using instead such checks, drafts or money orders as require that the payee be identified.

SCHOOLS FOR GARDENERS.

Schools for training gardeners should not be overlooked by those who have in view the co-ordination of school life with practical employment.

One such institution is now well under way at the botanical gardens in New York city. The course, which is proving very satisfactory, covers two years, and includes instruction in garden and economic botany, plant diseases and pests, soils, cutting, slipping and transplanting, culture from seeds, and a brief course in garden planning. It does not pretend to include general farming, forestry nor landscape gardening, but deals only with such subjects as will be useful in developing country estates or market and private gardens. There is great need of trained gardeners. Most of our good ones came from abroad. Many of them are old, and little new material is at hand to take their places. Private and market gardening are continually on the increase; park systems call for experienced workers along these lines; instructors will be needed more and more.

Whether performed for oneself or for another, gardening is beautiful and satisfactory work. Wages for it are good. Moreover, men physically unable to do heavier farming can garden successfully. Instruction in it should be generally available.

THE CITIZEN'S JOB.

Good roads, women's dress reform and scholarship may seem to be widely unrelated subjects. Viewed as special interests, they have little in common. Viewed in the broad light of progress and enlightened citizenship, they all find an appropriate place on the program of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

The federation recently held its annual convention. It adopted resolutions endorsing the state thrift campaign, asking for a higher standard of scholarship among public school teachers and higher compensation for teachers.

If the women end their work with the resolutions they will not have accomplished very much. But if the resolutions serve simply as a public record of the things these women are intelligently interested in and actively working for, they will mark real progress. Good roads, efficient teachers with good salaries, thrift and household economy are all things in which every citizen should be concerned. Studying them, practicing them in home and public office and teaching their value to men, women and children alike, will help to make the resolutions effective. The good citizen's job includes all these things.

The naval controversy is still simmering—or Simsing, if you prefer—but it begins to look as if the navy isn't quite so decadent and disreputable, after all.

 Now probably will come the business from Mike, for a while at least. There will be soft money for the new cham-

 Al McCoy was such a champion and he managed to hold the title through clever manipulation of his dates.

CHICAGO, May 20.—Sharp reactions took place in the corn market today from the weakness that has been the rule of late. Liquidation appeared to be ended for the time being and there was persistent commission buying in small lots. Prices closed strong 3-4 to 4¢ net higher with July 17 1-4 to 1 1/2 and Sept. term 1 1/4 to 1 1/2. Oats gained 5-8 to 2¢ and provisions 20 to 4¢.

At first the corn market had a downward tendency apparently in continued response to the bearish credit situation and to the drastic measures reported as having been begun for the purpose of relieving the railroad traffic jam. It was not long, however, before general notice was attracted by the nearly complete absence of the selling pressure which during the last few days had tumbled values down 14¢ a bushel. Under such circumstances, the commission house sentiment became itself felt and there was rather free covering by nearly complete absence of the selling pressure which during the last hour made prices advance rapidly. Wet weather and talk of renewal export call for 7½¢ and wheat continued somewhat as factors in the market.

Oats were given by the commission house a fair advance rapidly. Wet weather and talk of renewal export call for 7½¢ and wheat continued somewhat as factors in the market.

ICE CROP IS HEAVY; PRICES EXPLODED TO BE LOW

HARRISBURG, Pa.—Ice-men in the northern tier of counties of Pennsylvania will not be able to use as a high price as last summer the old story that the crop of natural ice was short last winter.

Paul H. Stafford, forester, reported to Clifford Pinchot, chief state forester, that ice 15 inches thick was still to be found on Pine creek in Tioga county May 3.

By the Associated Press. DETROIT, Mich., May 22.—Plans to oppose any effort to modify the federal dry law and the selection of 45 delegates to the national convention in New York, Neb., July 21, featured the prohibition state convention here today. REDUCED ACREAGE IN POTATOES SHOWN Power Beans Are Also Exaggerated, According to Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Reductions of 5 per cent in the acreage planted to potatoes last year and of 22 per cent in acre devoted to beans are indicated for this season in reports just received by the bureau of crop estimates, United States department of agriculture. The reports came through the field agents in the bureau who on May 11 reported of growers in important producing states concerning their intended plantings. High prices for potato seed and the farm labor shortage are the principal reasons given for the reduction in potato plantings. The quantity of seed for beans is given as the reason for the smaller acreage planned for that crop. The reports show that for the states covered the potato acreage will be 25 per cent as large as last year, while the bean acreage will be 71 per cent of last year.

New York reports the intention to plant 97 per cent of last year's acreage in potatoes, Michigan 90, Wisconsin 95, Minnesota 93, Colorado 94, Idaho 95, and California 110. Aroostook county, Maine, which produces 95 per cent of the potato crop of New England, intended to plant as much or more, but deep snows, strikes, and embargoes have delayed receipt of fertilizer, and plantings will depend upon the amount received in time. New York reports an intended acreage in beans 90 per cent as large as last year, Michigan 75, Wisconsin 70, Colorado 65, New Mexico 80, Idaho 100. California will plant 60 per cent of all varieties, beans being 90 per cent of the total, and intending 45 per cent last year, although a poor barley crop in Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys may increase plantings of the latter.

Final plantings of beans and potatoes will be estimated by the bureau of crop estimates on July 1. New York reports a 358,000,000 bushels 5,400,000 bushels less than that in 1918, and $2,000,000 less than in 1917, but 70,000,000 more than in 1916. It was about 3 per cent smaller than the average crop of the preceding 10 years, and 6 per cent smaller than the average crop in the preceding five years. The plantings last year were large enough to have produced with an average yield a crop of 290,000,000 bushels.

The bean crop of the United States last year was about 17,000,000 bushels. With only about 10 per cent of the acre as the crops grown on the exceptionally large acres of 1918 and 1917, the 1919 crop was almost equal to the crops of 1914 to 1916, which averaged between 12 and 13 million bushels. The planting as now indicated—about 500,000 acres—will yield about 10 per cent of the average of the last five years would produce a crop of $250,000,000.

ALABAMA COAL MINERS ON UNAUTHORIZED STRIKE

By the Associated Press. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 20.—Twenty-five hundred coal miners in Alabama were reported today as a result of a strike characterized by J. L. Clomo, secretary treasurer of the Alabama district of the United Mine Workers, as unauthorized. Eight mines in Bibb, Walker and Tuscaloosa counties were affected. Three companies agreed today on a wage increase of 31 a day and predicted production would be resumed at their mines. The operators, however, were not willing to recognize the principle of collective bargaining, a demand to withdraw. Due to a coal shortage resulting from the walkout, several industrial plants have been obliged to curtail production.
