WOOD LEADER
THROWS BOMB
IN CAMPAIGN

Charges National Committee With Favoring Lowden in Contests

CHICAGO STIRRED
BY SUDDEN ATTACK

Recalls Roosevelt Bolt With Claim Fight Will Be Carried to the Convention

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Wood managers tonight apparently were having a disagreement over whether the republican national committee has been "steam-rolling" the Wood delegates, and whether they intend to take any action upon it.

Around by the steady dismissal of Wood delegates throughout the day's proceedings, until 23 were counted off, and a like number added to the Lowden column, Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, one of the general's campaign managers, issued a statement denouncing the national committee's proceedings as "steam-roller tactics."

There were hurried conferences among the other Wood managers who apparently had no notice of Senator Moses' intentions. General Wood himself finally was brought into the conference and after midnight issued a statement in which he expressed confidence that Chairman Hayes was "absolutely fair in handling the situation" and said he was "loath to believe" that the committee were seating delegates on personal preferences rather than on law and fact.

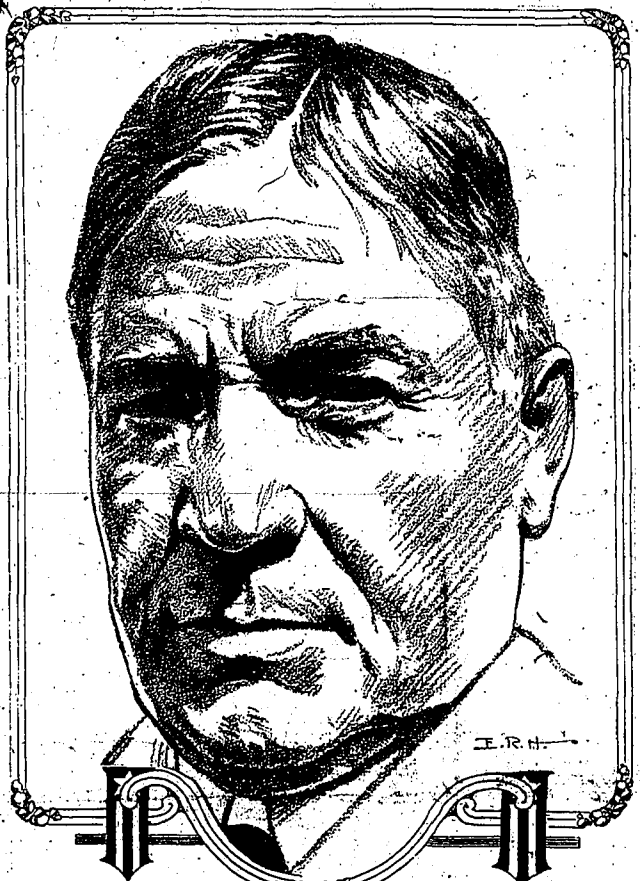

"Evidently, a mistake has been made," said Senator Moses' statement. "The steam roller which was used so effectively in the convention of 1912 and with such disastrous results to the party in the election following, has not been scrapped after all. It has merely been in the machine shop for repairs and for some new attachments."

"The most important of the latter appears to be a patent revering apparatus which enables the national committee at will to disregard its prior formal action in recognition of certain national committeemen and state chairmen against whose organizations there have been trumped up a series of fraudulent contests, to whom the chair of procedure which the national committee formed at its St. Louis meeting in 1917 and at the Washington meeting in 1919 contained three links. The first connected the national chairman with the recognized national committeemen in the states, to whom were sent the official calls for the convention which assemble next week. The national committeemen transmitted this call to the recognized state chairmen, thus constituting the second link in the chain. The third link connected the state chairman with his organization in the counties. Through the operation of this mechanism delegates friendly to General Wood have been elected with entire regularity in every southern state, to whom the function of the national committee at this juncture is not to determine qualifications of members of the national convention; it is merely to establish that regularity which entitles a delegate to be seated upon the temporary roll leaving the ultimate question of his right to a seat to be determined by the convention, through its committee on credentials."

"Yet the national committee, with Chairman Hayes conveniently absent from the chair, is assuming to decide the matter in advance—but to decide it upon the narrow lines of the committee's personal preference."

"General Wood's friends have always understood that the national committee at present constituted, favored the nomination of Governor Lowden. We have never questioned their right to hold such a preference. But, we do question seriously and vigorously their right to color their decision, which should be merely ministerial."

GOVERNOR LOWDEN

Last night the Lowden campaign was vigorously attacked by Senator Moses of New Hampshire, a supporter of General Wood. Senator Moses charges the national committee with steam roller tactics in seating Lowden delegates from the south. The Moses statement is the center of all calculations in Chicago.

CONGRESS CROWDS WORK FOR ADJOURNMENT TODAY

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Both senate and house held long sessions tonight in a final effort to clean up a congestion of minor legislation and one or two important bills before final adjournment at 4 p. m. tomorrow. The senate approved the conference report on the merchant marine bill as amended to meet house objections and it was later passed by both branches and then ground out a number of private pension measures. Between times it went into executive session to confirm nominations of about 500 postmasters. Some 600 others remain to be acted upon tomorrow.

The house during the day sent the merchant marine bill back to conference for amendment and took up the measure as revised again tonight so it could be passed and sent to the president tomorrow in time for his consideration before congress adjourns.

While the house was busy with the merchant marine conference report, it received President Wilson's veto of the bill to establish a national budget system.

All of the big annual supply measures except the rivers and harbors bill were completed before the night session ended.

The third deficiency bill, carrying $58,000,000 also was in conference, but it was expected to be passed before adjournment. One money measure passed the house tonight carrying $458,000,000 still awaits the president's approval.

The total of all of the supply measures including two deficiency bills and the railway deficiency measure, passed at this session was placed at $4,122,385,743. This included permanent appropriations of $1,492,000,000 for the public debt sinking fund, good roads and governmental departments and institutions not provided for in the 19 regular annual supply measures.

The largest of the supply bills was the postoffice measure, which carried $463,539,400. The next largest was the army bill with a total of $394,959,000. The sundry civil measure carried the same amount as the naval bill. For the railroad deficiency $309,000,000 was appropriated, while $270,150,000 was provided for pensions. The only other supply measure exceeding $100,000,000 was the legislative, executive and judicial, which carried $104,725,000.

Several important measures failed of enactment. They included bills to regulate the meat packing industry, to bar dangerous aliens from the country and tariff measures to protect industries, built up during the war, including rayon, button manufacture and certain mining industries. The cold storage bill, the measure to place an embargo on exports of sugar and the bill giving the war department authority to operate the Muscle Shoals nitrate plants also have failed.

The rivers and harbors measure, bill was ducked in conference and leaders had about given up hopes of its passage.

House conferees held out for the $12,000,000 total fixed by house, while the senate managers apparently were equally as insistent that the senate total of $24,000,000 be retained.

The house just before adjournment at 1:30 o'clock this morning adopted the conference report on the third deficiency appropriation bill carrying $58,000,000, including $14,000,000 to meet the deficit incurred during federal control of telegraph and telephone lines. That senate has yet to take action on the conference report.

Speaker Gillett had taken action on the senate resolution denying President Wilson's request for authority to accept a mandate over Armenia was reached tonight by republican leaders of the house.

Speaker Gillett told republican members of the foreign affairs committee, which had reported it favorably, that some members wished to abandon action on the measure because they did not like to arouse dislike of persons sympathetic with Armenian aims.

Democratic members of the committee expressed opposition to the senate resolution in a report presented tonight to the house. The report declared the language of the senate resolution to be a direct, deliberate and gratuitous insult to President Wilson. The report added that the measure "injects the spirit of political partisanship into a question of importance to peace and civilization."

After a tempestuous voyage, the bill establishing conditions under which the great government owned merchant fleet eventually is to be sold to Americans if possible, to foreigners if not—finally was passed tonight by congress. It will be sent to President Wilson tomorrow.

Senate amendments to the joint resolution repealing most of the special war time laws were accepted late tonight by the house without a record vote. The measure goes to the president tomorrow.

The conference report on the bill increasing the pay of postal employees becoming July 1, was adopted this morning by the senate. It now goes to the president.

PRESIDENT VETOES
BUDGET MEASURE

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 4.—President Wilson tonight vetoed the bill establishing a national budget and an unsuccessful attempt was made in the house to pass the measure over his veto.

The vote was 178 to 103, or nine less than the required two-thirds majority. Thirty-four republicans joined with the republicans in voting to pass the measure.

The vote came at midnight and when the motion to override was defeated leaders were undecided what would be their next move. Supporters of the measure were expected, however, to urge that it be amended to meet the president's objections and re-passed tomorrow.

PRESIDENT NAMES
NEW WAGE BOARD

Three Men Will Treat With Wage Scale in Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal Field.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 4.—A commission of three members, one each representing the public, the miners and the operators, was appointed today by Wilson to settle a wage controversy in the anthracite fields. The members of the commission are: William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State university, representing the public; N. J. Perry of McAlester, Pa., a member of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America, representing the miners; and William L. Connell of Scranton, Pa., representing the operators.

The commission will hold hearings, probably in Washington and if possible, will render its award within 60 days. Any increase in wages granted will be retroactive to April 1, and the award will be made the basis for a new wage agreement replacing that which expired on that date.

Under the agreement by which the president intervened to have the controversy settled, both sides pledged themselves to abide by the commission's decision and there will be neither strikes nor lockouts in the industry while the commission is reaching its decision.

BORAH SOLDIER AID
BILL IS APPROVED

Senate Public Lands Committee Unanimously Order Favorable Report.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 4.—The senate public lands committee today ordered a favorable report on the Borah bill designed to aid world war veterans in buying of farms and suburban homes and appropriating $300,000,000 to be spent for this purpose during the next ten years. More than $50,000,000 could be expended annually.

The bill will not be considered by the senate until the December session, according to Chairman Borah.

The measure provides for a national veterans' settlement board of three members appointed by the president which would make loans to veterans for the purchase of farms or suburban homes.

The maximum loan would be $5,000. Veterans also would be able under the bill to acquire reclaimed land.

28 VOTES GO
TO LOWDEN
IN CONTESTS

Wood Forces Defeated by Just that Number of Delegates

COLOR QUESTION
AGAIN TO FRONT

Southern States Provide Conflicts Which Tax Patience and Provide Vaudeville

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 4.—Lowden forces counted 28 additional delegates into their column as a result of today's decisions by the republican national committee. In deciding the Georgia contests, the Wood forces succeeded in having the committee accept only one delegate pledged to the general, when work was stopped for the night.

The committee adjourned, leaving the contests in the 7th, 8th and 10th Georgia districts to be decided tomorrow. In the contest decided, the Johnson faction, listed as favorable to Governor Lowden lost the four delegates at large and the delegates from five districts.

The Pickett faction, reported favorable to General Wood, was seated in the sixth.

The contesting delegates from the sixth Georgia district were seated by unanimous vote. The committee decided there was no evidence a legal convention had been held by the Henry Lincoln Johnson "regular" faction.

Lowden forces started off on a winning streak by winning the contests in the eight congressional districts of Mississippi. They claim all those delegates. They won two votes in the second congressional district of Oklahoma.

Then the Lowden chiefs claimed another addition when the committee voted to seat the regularly reported delegates from South Carolina, led by National Committee Chairman Robert. The tenth district of Tennessee went to the regularly reported delegate, W. H. Church, a negro, of Memphis, but that was claimed by none of the various managers.

The spectacular decision of the day was the hard-fought and long delayed contest from Georgia, where the delegates, headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, an Atlanta negro, who, it was testified before the senate committee in Washington, had received $5,000 from the Lowden campaign fund, were resisting the attack of a set of contesting delegates admittedly organized by Frank H. Smith, who counted for the candidacy of General Wood.

Before the committee adjourned to continue in a night session, Johnson's big four—the delegate at large—had been seated on the ground of organization, regularity and the convention proceedings and the first and second Georgia congressional districts also had been seated the same way.

South Carolina and Georgia contests brought the race issue and the color line into the deliberations of the committee despite all efforts to keep them out. The contest over the Tolbert delegates from South Carolina brought up the much discussed question of whether the republican party in the southern states would do better without association with the negro.

The contesting delegates in the South Carolina case stirred up a row in which the tie was frequently passed, charges of "color rule" and "pecking order" and office holders' trust, and further charges that conditions were such that the republican vote had been reduced by the alleged methods to a minimum were made.

The hearing continued for the vaudeville—Giles of Missouri, one of cheer and waves of the committee men, swept the committee room. Committee Chairman Tolbert, seated at the head of the table, presided with a staid and dignified air.

DEMOCRATS PLAN BIG CONVENTION

Meeting Will Be Held in High School Auditorium Tuesday Evening—Diamond Is Active.

Arrangements have been completed for the democratic mass convention to be held in Twin Falls Tuesday evening. The convention will be called to order by County Chairman J. B. Diamond in the high school auditorium. This auditorium was felt to be a better place in which to hold the mass convention than the hall first proposed because the change was made by the county chairman and the secretary of the Jefferson club, W. O. Chapman.

Indications are that there will be a large crowd present from all over the county, democratic rallies of similar interest, this year.

The mass convention will select a delegation of 24 to attend the state convention to be held in Lewiston. The state convention will select a national delegation of eight who will attend the San Francisco convention. In this connection the name of Hon. James R. Bothwell is mentioned, and the probability is that his name will go before the state convention as a candidate to the national convention. No other Twin Falls county democrat has so far expressed a desire to be a delegate to the Frisco convention, and since the county cannot, at most, have more than one such delegate, there is a disposition to give Bothwell a strong delegation to Lewiston and all the help possible in his campaign.

BISHOP TOURIST WILL MAKE FIRST VISIT TO TWIN FALLS

Bishop Frank Hale Tourist, of the missionary district of Idaho will be in Twin Falls Sunday, June 7, it was announced by church delegates from the Episcopal convention that closed at Boise recently. It will be the first official visit of the bishop here. Captain C. L. Longley was commissioned by the bishop personally to inform those of the local parish that he would be here Sunday. To complete arrangements for the reception of the church official a committee will be selected at once.

That Archbishop Howard Wiley will accompany him to Twin Falls in the support of church men and it is expected he will introduce the bishop to the congregation. During the Idaho convention Bishop Tourist told the delegates that a cordial reception of him and great ability has practically agreed to come to Twin Falls to accept the pastorate, but he said the pastor would be unable to arrive before September 1.

WONDER GROWTHS MADE BY CITIES

Intense Development in Municipalities Which Prior to 1910 Had Less Than 25,000.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Population announcements of the 1920 census have been made for more than half of the cities of the country which in 1910 had 25,000 or more people. Some remarkable growths have been shown during the past ten years which will make many changes in the rank of these larger cities. Perhaps the most notable growth thus far shown is that of two Detroit suburbs, Hamtramck and Highland Park, which in 1910 had 22,000 and 22,000 respectively. In 1920, Hamtramck now is slightly larger than Winston-Salem, which in this census advanced to this position of metropolis of North Carolina.

More than three dozen cities having less than 25,000 people in 1910 have gone beyond the 25,000 mark this year, while upward of a dozen have gone into the 100,000 or more people in 1910 and 179 having 25,000 or more people.

Cities thus far announced having populations under 100,000 and over 25,000 with their rank in 1910, and the 1920 population arranged in order of size, follow:

ISLAND CULT IS WITHOUT ALL LAW

Poverty, Money and Crime Are Unknown Among Those Who Whiskers and Hair Grow Long.

By LEE J. SMITH.
N. H. A. Staff Correspondent.
CHARLEVOIX, Mich.—No money; no poverty; no doctors; no disease; no laws; no crimes; no telephones; no privacy; no haircuts; no bald heads; no cigars; no neckties; no tobacco; no prohibition; no meet; no grocery bills. On High Island, 20 miles westward of this port, is a nameless town where people are absolutely confident of living forever!

Isolated from the mainland and vestal civilization, a band, of strange, soft-spoken, gentle-eyed men and women are working out a strange destiny, protected from the sins and sorrows of the world by the treacherous shoals and reefs which make the Beaver Island group in the northern part of Lake Michigan highly dangerous for any navigators save native pilots.

The House of David owns High Island, five miles long, heavily wooded, and a paradise in summer. A community of about 200 persons, migrants from the parent body of the cult in Benton Harbor, Mich., has for nine years lived in Arcadian aloofness from all the problems of humanity at large.

Working In Optional.

Logging, gardening and the sawing of lumber constitute the activities of the colonists.

No man works unless he feels like it. The income from their labors is turned into the treasury of the cult at Benton Harbor and all supplies are purchased in wholesale lots and distributed to members, without cost, each according to his needs.

No one ever shaves or cuts his hair. Boys of 12 sit in school with pigtail down their backs and the men present the most astounding aggregation of whiskers and flowing locks anywhere assembled in modern times.

They live in strict accordance with their interpretation of the Bible, yet there is no chief or head of the colony, and no enforcement of rules. Death, in their belief, is a symptom of insincere faith.

Their only communication with the rest of the United States is by means of a small lumber schooner, the Harriet, which brings in supplies and carries away the output of the sawmill. The Israelites as they call themselves, will not kill. They consume milk, butter and eggs, but although they are in the midst of the best fishing grounds in the Great Lakes, they will not use lines or nets or accept fish from passing tugs.

"We believe, absolutely, in free living," said Walter Nelson, head sawyer in the mill. "We do not believe in prohibition of any kind and think that every man should follow his conscience and the revelations of the scriptures. We do no missionary work and try to persuade no one to join us."

H. C. Y. Unknown.
Nelson smiled when I asked him about the economic problems of the islanders.

"We have none," he said. "Every man takes what he wants for his family and himself from our common store. Once in awhile we read of the H. C. I. in a stray newspaper, but it all seems strange and far off to us."

High Islanders believe that they

WEDS UNKNOWN TO TO ESCAPE HORRORS

Russian School Teacher Marries Swiss Stranger to Escape Being Nationalized by Nazis.

GENEVA, June 4.—Faced with the alternative of being nationalized or getting married, Lydia Zelinskaya, of Moscow, chose the latter solution temporarily, she explained in a Geneva divorce court yesterday.

According to her story, which was corroborated by her husband, the Bolshevik secretary of the nationalization committee, called on her at her home in Moscow and informed her she had been chosen as the wife of one of the leaders in Premier Lenin's cabinet. Either she must submit or be "nationalized," the Bolshevik employee said. Miss Zelinskaya, who was a young school mistress, decided to do neither. She persuaded a Swiss, Nicolas Weiss, of Appenzel, to marry her nominally. Two sacks of white flour were instrumental in securing the services of a Russian priest to perform the marriage ceremony without the usual religious functions. The marriage, however, was registered at the Swiss consulate in Moscow, the bride becoming a Swiss citizen.

Weiss and his wife did not meet again after the ceremony until a steamer transporting Swiss refugees from Russia arrived at Marseilles. Yesterday Miss Zelinskaya, after her nominal husband for absolute divorce. The suit was not defended and she obtained a decree.

WILL OUST JOHNSON.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 4.—The United States district court will oust J. A. Johnson, resident for the Midland Packing company, appointed in state court, and will take complete charge of the $3,000,000 corporation by appointing a receiver to act under the federal court.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 4.—Forest fires started by sparks from locomotives "damaged" several settlements on the Avalon peninsula.

FARMER POOL IS TO BE LEGALIZED

Senate Committee Favorably Reports Measures Exempting Such Combinations From Trust Laws.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 3.—Favorable report was ordered by the senate judiciary committee today on the house bill authorizing producers of agricultural products to form associations for the marketing of their products.

The committee struck out those provisions to give the secretary of agriculture authority to institute proceedings against such associations if, in his opinion they restrict trade or lessen competition and gave the federal trade commission the same power. As passed by the house, the bill would affect farmers, planters, ranchmen, dairymen or fruit growers.

WILL EDUCATE PEOPLE.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A bureau of education with a budget of $40,000 to let farmers problems before the people of the country, was authorized here today by the executive committee of the American Farm Bureau federation.

Referendums of the 900,000 membership of the federation on the right to strike in labor disputes and on the repeal of the Adamson law were authorized today.

RUSS TUN LOOSE GOLD IN EXCHANGE FOR IMPLEMENTS

STOCKHOLM, June 4.—The Swedish steamer Gauthold, which a week ago took a full cargo of automobiles and harvesters to Leningrad, Estonia, for the Russian co-operative societies account, returned Wednesday, bringing 143 cases of gold, representing a value of 1,000,000 pounds. Experts have found the metal first class.

The captain of the steamer told the correspondent that a special train arrived Monday in Leningrad from Moscow carrying 4,500,000 pounds in gold.

PROHS WILL FIGHT ANY WET CANDIDATE, SAYS HINSHAW

CHICAGO, June 4.—Vernon C. Hinshaw, chairman of the prohibition party's national committee, who announced his intention of obtaining from every republican candidate for the presidency a statement concerning what stand the party should take on prohibition, said that he had discussed the subject with Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood.

"General Wood told me that prohibition had done more for the army than any other one thing, but seemed inclined to leave the matter to the platform committee," said Mr. Hinshaw. "I expect to hear from Senators Johnson, Harding, Governor Lowden and Mr. Hoover later."

Mr. Hinshaw said he desired from each candidate a statement as to his interpretation of the Volstead act as well as his opinion on what action the republican party should take.

"If both parties came out strongly in favor of the 18th amendment the prohibition party probably will cease to exist," said Mr. Hinshaw. "If either party nominates a wet candidate we will fight him to a finish."

FALL'S PLAN WOULD LEAD TO MEXICAN WAR, SAYS COMPTON

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Samuel Compton, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared in a formal statement that a war between the United States and Mexico would result if the recommendation of the senate committee, which investigated the Mexican affairs were carried out.

"In some minor particulars recommendations made by Senator Fall's committee may be acceptable, but the heart of the report can only be described as vicious," the report declared. "The report demands that unless the Mexican constitution is altered as recommended, the government of the United States send a police force, consisting of the naval and military forces of our government into the republic of Mexico to open and maintain open every line of communication between the City of Mexico and every seaport and border port in Mexico."

"Of course this amounts to poisoning practically the whole of the country. Those who know Mexico and the Mexican people understand fully that such action would mean war between the two countries."

WOULD AMEND CONSTITUTION

By the Associated Press.
GRIFFITH, Colo., June 4.—An amendment to the constitution of the United States acknowledging God and the authority of the bible was proposed at the turning of the witness committee of the Reformed Presbyterian church submitted to the national synod held here today.

THE MEAN MAN.

At last the kaiser has moved from Count Von Bentick's castle at Amerongen to his own at Doorn. As a parting gift to the count, and as recompense in full for the use of Amerongen for 19 months, he presented Von Bentick with a bronze bust of himself.

The silly vainglory of the man, which will not allow him to see that neither bust nor any other likeness of himself has any value in these days, is typical; so is the stinginess which withheld proper remuneration for benefits received.

What would have been the fate of Europe, of the world, with a man like this in unrestrained power? Will this last evidence of his crazy egotism and unquenchable meanness open the eyes of his faithful followers in Germany, or will they still believe that individual and national greatness lay within the scope of a spirit so small?

THINK IT OVER.

People who are inclined to cry out, "Let Uncle Sam do it," might profitably give some thought to Russia. The Uncle Sam of that great storehouse of natural resources and potential wealth and happiness is the soviet system of government.

There is nothing to indicate that Russians are reveling in riches or laughing with the joy of living.

The soviet system of state and general socialism seems to be working out as a gigantic failure. The people starve, though Russia once had grain to export. They do unclothed, though once the fields of Turkestan provided the cotton for its great textile industry. They freeze, despite the coal and oil fields and timber resources.

"Socialism is all right when it starts with the 'divvying up' process. It won't work when it comes to creating something to divvy." Thus has renowned manly self-reliant American, and Russia furnishes him the latest proof.

The soviet did well at the start. It plundered alike the palaces of the rich and the homes of the thrifty. It ran the railroads built under a better system of life than its own. It was clothed from the accumulated stores of a happier day.

But now it is in evil times. There is nothing more to "divvy up" and little is being produced.

What's the trouble with Russia? Not war, because the percentage of the population involved in army affairs is small. Not lack of natural resources, because the soil is fertile, the fuel and ore deposits as great as ever. Not lack of man-power, for Russia is full of husky men. It is the lack of ability to profit by the lessons of history, chiefly in this:

"Map will work for himself, for his family, for the future and enjoys being good and generous to others after providing for himself."

"Man will not work willingly in normal times so that others may have no less than he."

PRESIDENTIAL QUALIFICATIONS.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, sets forth the following qualifications for the next president of the United States:

"He must be able, wise and well informed; of unquestioned honesty, morally and intellectually, eminently fair and impartial, frank and sincere, broad-minded, deeply sympathetic, courageous, sturdy and well-balanced, and above everything else, loyal to the constitution and the law of the United States."

This might seem at first blush an impossibly high ideal. But not so! There is not a single candidate out of all the crowd of presidential aspirants; who will not instantly admit that he measures up to it, and every nominating speech made in either of the big conventions will go still farther, and attribute still greater merits to the super-candidate of the moment.

A TIMELY OFFER.

J. P. Morgan has offered his London mansion to the United States government to be used as a permanent home for the American ambassadors to Great Britain. While the house is beautiful and famous, it is not large enough for both residential and office purposes; but that is of little importance, as the United States has leased for a long term of years business headquarters in Grosvenor Gardens.

"This country should maintain and finance ambassadorial residence in the great European capitals. Both prestige and the good of the service demand it. It may be that Mr. Morgan's very generous offer will be the means of getting such action under way."

CRIPPLED COLLEGES.

An inquiry into the present plight of the higher educational institutions show that college professors by hundreds are giving up the struggle to live on professional salaries and are taking industrial positions, which pay them anywhere from 50 to 500 per cent more than they have been getting.

Teaching forces have been so much depleted by such resignations that many technical schools are obliged to place a limit on the size of their entering classes.

This natural outcome is that facilities for turning out well-equipped leaders of the future life and work of the nation are deteriorating just when they ought to be improving. This is all the more serious because it is the opposite of the situation prevailing in other important countries. Elsewhere, more attention than ever before is being given to the up-building of educational systems and the production of a generation of men specially trained to cope with the economic and political problems of the new age.

The American public has awakened somewhat to the need of more liberal salaries for public and high school teachers, but this policy as yet has been of little help to the colleges. In some ways it has been to their disadvantage. In the agitation in behalf of elementary institutions, the higher institutions have been left out. This attitude must change if America hereafter are to hold their dominant place in a progressive world. Thorough education is going to be needed more than ever before, and any generation not possessing it will lose in the keen world competition.

GIRLS DISCARD LUXURIES.

There is a certain philanthropic organization with branches in most of the big cities which draws its membership from among the daughters of families high in social and financial circles.

Because of the girls who belong, their charities are ordinarily classed as "fashionable," though usually distinguished for practicality and common sense. Lately in addition to their ordinary routine of helpful service, these girls have pledged themselves to refrain from buying luxuries for at least six months. The decision as to what constitutes a luxury is left to the conscience and judgment of the individual. It might be amusing to a cynical world if some of the struggles could be made public; but for all that, these girls are on the right track. Furthermore, by their very social prominence they receive much publicity, and where they lead, a host of girls will be glad to follow. Some very constructive action in reducing the call for luxuries of many kinds may easily be the result.

The world needs standard commodities. Every net which releases workers' and materials from the manufacture of luxuries to necessities makes the necessities more easily obtainable, and brings the prices down. There has been widespread indulgence in luxuries during the last few years. The general outlook has become sadly distorted. It would be a good thing in every way if persons of many classes and ages would follow the example of these young girls.

"HOME TOWN STUFF."

How your home town's horn. Let your bugle be heard around the world. What would this town be if folks didn't have something to say for it? The good effect is cumulative. If one says things loud enough and often enough things will begin moving our town's way. It has proved true in the past; it will prove doubly so now.

The man who boasts his town is a good citizen. He need not brag—simply tell the truth. "Tell folks why the town, with its rows of shady trees, its up-to-the-minute homes, fine kept lawns and its Sunday morning church bell, is a fine place to live. It will interest them—and, if nothing else, it will result in yourself being more happy and more contented."

"At the present rate, pretty soon 'Liberty bonds' won't be bargains any more. And then everybody will want to buy them. There would probably have been a heavy demand for them right along if somebody had just cornered the supply and changed a big profit on them."

New York has a law now permitting the manufacture of 2.75 per cent beer, but the brewers say they're not going to start making it till peace is declared. Now watch New York people demanding the ratification of the treaty.

The Berlin Vorwarts says the next German revolutionary movement will come from the conservatives. The last one came from them, and it didn't revolutionize worth a cent.

The next time Cuba asks Uncle Sam to buy her sugar at 1-1/2 cents a pound, she won't have to ask twice. But will there be any next time?

Graver Cleveland Bergdoll, the draft dodger, is said to have escaped in a girl's dress. He has some sense of the fitness of things, after all.

The Chinese cabinet has refused to negotiate the Shantung matter. It has probably read that classic entitled: "Love's Labor Lost."

Some candidate can win in a walk four years from now if he can adopt as his slogan: "He kept us out of the poor house."

Perhaps we will get the treaty signed by the time the territory and trade of the world are divided up and nailed down.

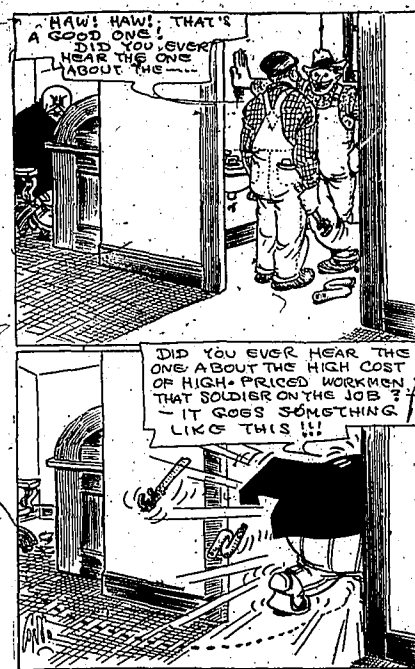

Still, underneath all her paint and powder, the modern girl is about as pretty as the old-fashioned girl.

Another reason for the high price of gasoline is that to many are talking and not enough walking.

It is probably a good thing for the peace of the world that Ireland isn't addicted to militarism.

It still remains true that a professor is always the other fellow.

Whatever else there may be in the platform, there will be the usual amount of bunk.

WEALTH OF COLOR IN '20 BASE BALL

McLeagues Drawing Heavily Because of Outstanding Pitch in Many Stellar Men of Diamond.

By DEAN SNYDER.

There's plenty of "color" in baseball this year—the sort of "color" that adds brilliancy to a ball club.

Some of the most brilliant players today are often barely mentioned except in the box scores, and yet they are the magnetism of their teams.

There's the kind of "color" which doesn't attract the dollars at the box office—but the brilliant team must have them just the same.

So are the "colors" that stand out and attract attention—and draw big crowds—necessary.

Fans flock to the parks to see these. Certainly baseball would be drab and colorless without its stars. Collins, Cobb, Spink, Ruth, Hornsby and Alexander.

NICK DRAWS.

When the Griffins are in town there is a certain per cent of the customers who go out to see Nick Altrock out. The Yankees—everybody wants to see how Babe Ruth carries his mob. Cobb has running and his ability to "outsmart" the other fellows in the attraction of the Tigers. Tris Speaker will always pull them through the turnstiles. They are expecting Spok to make a wonderful catch.

Grover Alexander is drawing the color to Chicago in big dabs this year with his powerful pitching.

They mention him as being Manager Mitchell's right-hand man. He comes pretty close to being just that for he is the only Cub right-hander who can be depended upon to hang a game up on the victory nail.

What the Cubs would look like without him would make a poor painting. Big Alex is keeping them up there.

After losing two early this year he has come back and won 11 straight. He might have had the other two starts if the Cubs had given him proper support. The best of pitchers need a little help now and then.

Alex is a big fellow. He weighs over 185 and is one inch over the six-footer class. He can stand a lot of work—but he isn't a youngster any longer. He's 33 now.

He's Hitting, Too.

He came up to the Phillies back in 1911. At the end of the 1917 season the Phillies sent him to the Cubs with Killifer for $55,000 and Prendergast and Dillhoefer.

Grover says that a certain well-known fellow, who makes a specialty of home runs at the New York Polo grounds, hadn't much on him this year with the wub.

In the nine full games he has played the Cub-hurler has put the official figure of .417 down as his batting average.

Jim Vaughn is stirring up a little color himself. He's struck a juggling stride. "Lefty" Tyler is getting back his southpaw cunning and is leading in the winning Cub wagon.

But right now the big, freckle-faced fellow from Nebraska is doing most to pull the Mitchmen toward the pennant path.

The Cub machine has a decided "Alexander" tint.

MEX ARMY TO BE SHARPLY REDUCED

Defacto Government Stalls Pacification Work—Villa Negotiating Peace.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 3.—Reduction of the Mexican army has been started at the suggestion of General Obregon, according to advices received in Washington today from the de facto government. General Obregon is quoted as saying that the army would be re-organized and reduced to half its present size.

The organization of a force or rituals to police the outlying parts of the country also has begun, the advices state.

Negotiations were opened with Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, to head the new rurala, but Villa is reported to have refused.

The report received today by the state department that General Ignacio Enriquez, military commander of the Chihuahua district was in active pursuit of Villa following a battle yesterday at Parral, is believed by representatives of the de facto government here to be a mistake. They said the military government against Villa had been held up pending negotiations to bring about his peaceable retirement.

Villa, the agents said, has notified the de facto government that he desires no position for himself, but wishes to retire to private life. He is holding out, however, for full guarantees for his subordinates and for the promulgation of enactment of certain legislation to modify the more radical parts of the Queretaro constitution.

Some observers here of Mexican affairs believe this constitution will be the rock on which the next break of the various Mexican factions will come. Mexico, in Oaxaca, is still in revolt, now against the de facto government for the restoration of the constitution of 1858 and is supported by the entire government of the state.

Grain

CHICAGO, June 4.—Despite free selling at times and consequent break in prices, the corn market today rallied and closed higher. Inadequacy of current supplies here proved too great a handicap for buyers. The close was nervous, at 1-1/2 to 1-1/4 net advance with July 174 1/4 to 174 1/2 and September 169 3/4 to 169 7/8. Oats finished 1-1/4 to 1-1/8 up, and provision varying from 5¢ decline to a rise of 1¢.

Most of the selling pressure in corn came from commission houses where belief had been fostered that receipts would show a pronounced increase next week. Circumstances, however, threw doubt on such an outcome. Not only were arrivals today scanty but advices from the country said interior stations were getting few cars. Besides, many of the cars which had been forwarded from the east were reported as being grain loading, one line nothing less than 150 suitable cars out of a total of 300. Meanwhile industrial demand promptly absorbed cash offerings. As a result commission houses buying of futures instead of selling was urgent at the last.

Oats touched new high record prices for the season. Receipts were nearly at the vanishing point.

Provisions again felt weak with huge but gossip that European buying orders were in sight brought a rally.

BILL AIMS AT CORNER IN HIDES FOR TANNERS' USE

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Monthly statistics covering production, distribution and quantities of hides stored by tanners and dealers would be published monthly by the director of the census under a bill passed by the house.

Consolidation of the number of hides and skins in the country would be impossible, with a consequent difficulty in explaining unusual increases in prices, said Representative Sigel, republican, New York, who presented the measure.

Prices increased 15 per cent since the armistice, he said, when tanners and dealers frantically bid up the prices.

ILL LUCK CLINGS ABOUT RESOLUTE

American's Yacht, Defense Candidate, Is Making Ready for Her Tryout.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 4.—The ill-fortune with maimed which has attended the sloop Resolute, American's defense candidate, has clung to her in the elimination trials with the winner, as it developed today that it would be necessary of step another steel mast in place of the one used yesterday. As a result the elimination trials off this part have been postponed until the Resolute can be made ready again.

The final race with Vanitie yesterday the trial of the Resolute's gaff was damaged and an examination of the steel mast today showed a structural weakness.

I., June 4.—The sloop Resolute was towed here late today from Newport and immediately a spiral-plated steel mastmast used in 1916 and recently placed in readiness for an emergency, was stepped, together with a hollow wooden topmast.
