

COURT DECLARES DRY LAW VALID

National Prohibition Amendment Unanimously Upheld by U. S. Supreme Judge.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The prohibition amendment and the enforcement act were held constitutional by the supreme court today in a unanimous decision.

While attorneys for the interests attacking the two measures were granted permission to file motions for rehearing, the decision was regarded as striking a death blow to the hopes of the wets.

The court's opinion, rendered by Justice Brandeis, held that the amendment not only came within the amendment, powers conferred by the federal constitution, but was lawfully proposed and now was law.

While New York, New Jersey and Wisconsin were protesting against the sale of beverages of more than one-half of one per cent alcoholic content were not directly involved, the decision was interpreted as invalidating them. The court said the first section of the first section of the amendment of the new force "invalidates any legislative act—whether by congress, by a state legislature, or by a territorial assembly—which authorizes or sanctions what the section prohibits."

Consequent power granted by the amendment to federal and state governments to enforce prohibition, the court further held, "does not enable congress or the several states to defeat or thwart prohibition, but only to enforce it by appropriate means."

The decision was set forth in eleven conclusions covering seven proceedings. These proceedings included original suits brought by Rhode Island, directly attacking the constitutionality of the amendment.

While agreeing as to the validity of the amendment and enforcement act, Justices McKenna and Brandeis dissented from the majority in interpretation of the concurrent power of federal and state governments to enforce prohibition. Chief Justice White held that the court should set forth the reasoning for its decision. He did this in a supplemental opinion.

Justice McReynolds in a statement declared he was of the opinion that it was impossible to say now what construction should be given to the amendment. He added that because of the howl which the amendment created, he preferred to remain free to consider the questions which will inevitably arise and demand solution.

The decision set at rest contentions previously laid before the court that the amendment could not affect alcoholic liquors manufactured prior to Jan. 16, when the amendment became effective. The court held that the amendment applied to such liquors the same as to any produced after that time.

Regarding arguments that a state having constitutional referendum provisions could not have been so: it had been ratified the amendment until it had been submitted to the voters, the court cited its opinion rendered last Monday in the Ohio referendum cases in which it held such referendum provisions do not apply to federal amendments.

the frog as she crossed the tracks. In time of the speeding car, which was coming toward her at a rate of 50 miles an hour, she tore off her red sweater and waved it as a danger signal.

The motorist, stopped the car a few inches from the girl. When all was over and her foot freed from the mill she collapsed.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's "Grandmother's" Recipe to Bring Back Color and Luster to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight, if you will get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Adv.

Hard play means hard mending for mothers—unless the blouses are Kaynee!

Kaynee blouses are unusually well-made—the buttons are all perfect and well sewed on, the seams are lockstitched, the buttonholes substantially made. You'll like your boy's appearance in a Kaynee blouse too. The well-set collar and trim shoulder lines give him a manly appearance. You never see a Kaynee design in a cheaper blouse. The patterns are all exclusive.

NEW YORK.—It remained for a classic drama to figure in the "most respectable" divorce suit that has ever been brought in the New York courts. Helen Moller, whose costume have made the tired business man gasp, is "the other woman" in the case. But even lawyers for the wife concede that she has been merely the victim of circumstances.

Miss Moller thought she was married to a first-class man, a wealthy English business man. Poole thought he was married to her.

Poole and his first wife had been divorced several years ago in Italy—at least he thought they had been. But there were technical defects in the Italian proceeding, so Mrs. Poole said here again.

Yesterday Justice Tompkins straightened matters out by granting her an interlocutory decree of divorce.

The Teeth of the Tiger

It was murder! Another one! In the sinister "house of mystery." And the only clue was an apple, marked by two rows of teeth. Could the slayer be the dead man's wife? Then why her lover's letter, with the words, "Only death could unite us?"

How unfortunate, too, for the pretty niece and the family doctor that the old man died before he changed his will!

Yet the weird crime was typical of Arsene Lupin. His ways of the tiger! And Arsene Lupin had cause.

Who was guilty? You couldn't guess in a hundred years. But you can be absolutely sure you never saw a picture that made more thrills run up and down your spine. Last times today at this theater. Come!

SAY FRAUD LED TO REVOLUTION

All Sorts of Frank Disclosures Follow in Wake of Overthrow of Carranza.

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY.—The revolution which overthrew President Carranza and culminated in his death was applauded by many interesting or exciting episodes which could not be reported to the outside while the coup was in progress. Some of the disclosures which have followed the installation of new authority in the capital city, too, have been entertaining.

Notable was that revealed by all informants of the treasury department who announced they had found evidence of a fraud which had netted somebody an amount estimated at about 1,000,000 pesos. The papers here say that, when the infiduciable (paper money with which the country was flooded during the last previous revolution) were burned, about one-quarter of the amount officially reported to have been destroyed had been previously extracted and sold at the current rate of 10 centavos on the peso. The Carranza government had been taking the old paper money as a sort of surtax on import duties and other taxes. Later it was supposed to be burned.

While no disorders occurred in the capital during the evacuation by the Carranza government and the occupation by the liberal revolutionary forces, nor did public services cease functioning for an instant, the inhabitants of the capital were victims both of inconvenience and profiteers. Food prices increased and change, which has been the bugbear of everybody since silver began its sensational rise months ago, sold at a 15 per cent premium.

The Indians who sell produce in the markets demanded metal currency and not it. Many foreigners, fearing a protracted struggle and a food shortage, sold in ample supplies. One American housewife bought 30 chickens which she put to roast in the kitchen of her apartment. She was too excited to heed the advice of the Indian women who told the towns that she should buy ducks.

The spectacle of a city of 1,000,000 inhabitants absolutely cut off from communication with the world for almost nine days was not the least interesting phase of the evacuation by Carranza. Both cable and telegraphic communication ceased about 9 p. m. on May 6. Until May 15 the cable lines were useless. An unreliable line was set up by the government, to the American border in the afternoon of May 8, but it was devoted exclusively to military and outgoing business. Nothing was received from the outside world until the cable lines were restored.

Because of numerous delays and other wire troubles, those sending messages from the capital could not learn if their messages reached their destination. The same conditions obtained more or less throughout those parts of the republic distant from the border and the coast.

Foreign press correspondents filed stories on the national lines, trusting to luck that part of them might see print. As a consequence they left a mass of material with the military authorities for possible transmission by government wireless, filed other summaries with the cable company and still others with travelers leaving in attempts to reach the border.

VOLSTEAD ACT RECEIVES ENDORSEMENT OF LOWDEN

CHICAGO, June 5.—Preservation of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act with whatever laws are necessary to give it full effect was advocated by Gov. Frank O. Lowden in his first pronouncement on the liquor question.

In an interview with newspaper men, Governor Lowden announced that he was "not in favor of any scaling" of the prohibition amendment.

Governor Lowden stated that he had two possible planks for the republican platform in mind, but had not definitely decided whether they would be offered to the convention. Reiterating his statement, refusing to accept the vote of Delegates Oshstein and Moore of St. Louis, who each received $2,500 from Louis Emerson, the Lowden campaign manager, according to testimony before the senate investigating committee, the governor declared the national committee or the convention credentials committee should unseat the pair.

Touching on the League of Nations, the governor took issue with the program announced by Senator Hiram W. Johnson and declared he favored the peace treaty and League of Nations covenant with "substantially the lodge reservations."

"I don't think," said Governor Lowden, "that we can repudiate the entire treaty. I favor the treaty with some reservations, and those drafted by Senator Lodge substantially meet my desires."

BOOZE NOT NEW WORD, SAYS NOTED UNIVERSITY EDUCATOR

CLEVELAND.—"Booze" has had its ancient and honorable ancestry in the English language uncovered here recently by Prof. William H. Hulme of Western Reserve university.

Labeled for generations as an etymological outcast and branded as such with quotation marks, Prof. Hulme finds "booze" has a pedigree longer than that of most kings. Its earliest spelling, according to Professor Hulme, was "bowse." Later writings show it was "bouse" and finally "booze."

"Both as a noun and verb the word," Prof. Hulme said, "written 'bowse' in middle English literature as far back as 1300, had the meaning to drink in excess. About 1600 the word took the honorable character it had and became a slang word. The particular 'bousing' is recorded as early as 1529, and 'bouser' was used in English in 1611."

WOMAN "BLUEBEARD" TELLS IN COURT HOW HER HUSBANDS DIED

By LORRY A. JACOBS.

SOUTHAMPTON, Mass., June 3.—Mrs. Anna Tomaskiewicz, the strange woman "Bluebeard" of South Hadley, was preparing for her sixth husband when her fifth spouse died. Mike Murizko, a boarder, was to be her next husband, according to testimony in the case.

Mrs. Tomaskiewicz had already tried to obtain insurance made out in her name for Mike.

The Polish insurance agent refused to accept the application and it was this fact that led to the unearthing of her tangled career.

Had Five Husbands. Records in the case are almost as strange as those of the California Bluebeard, Harvey. She has had five husbands, as follows:

JONACE MAJEZYK—Died of tuberculosis in Chicago. It was this pick and whose shop she sold for husband, who, according to Mrs. To-

MRS. ANNA TOMASKIEWICZ

ALEXANDER DOLINSKI—Lett her after spending 13 months in a hospital suffering from arsenic poisoning and from whom she has never obtained a divorce.

THEODORE DAKMETKA—Died of arsenic poisoning one year after marrying her.

PETER BILOR—Also died one year after marrying her.

ANDREW TOMASKIEWICZ—Died 11 months after his marriage.

Attended Men.

The woman's shrewdness and her unbelievable power to attract men of her class in spite of her age and slovenly appearance, were shown time after time in the trial. Almost as soon as she married each of her victims, she secured insurance for him. With the proceeds of the insurance she bought the truck farm at South Hadley, which the state charges, became a "murder factory."

The farm was within a stone's throw from the cemetery where two of her husbands now lie buried.

By the woman's own testimony, three husbands who died suffered the most terrible agony—boiling continually for water to quench the burning thirst, alleged to have been caused by arsenic poisoning. And a fourth—the lucky Alexander Dolinski of Cleveland front whom she failed to get a divorce, testified that physicians gave him no hope for his life when he was suffering from arsenic poisoning.

Tells of Suffering.

Mrs. Tomaskiewicz, on the witness stand, described without a shudder, the suffering of each husband, emphasizing their unquenchable thirst. She emphatically denied, however, knowing anything about the arsenic and Paris green found at the house after the death of her last husband.

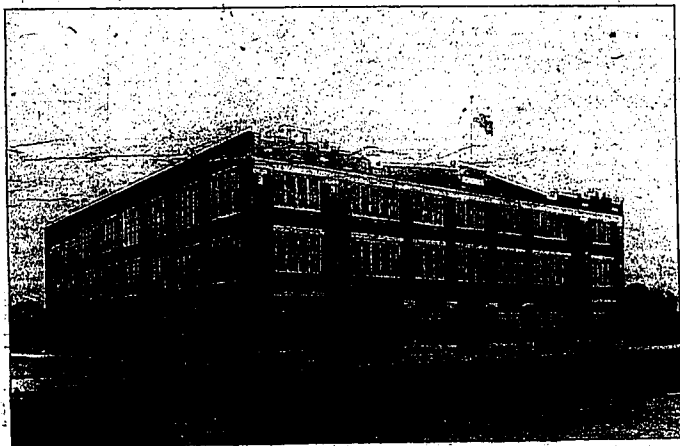

The trial is causing no end of excitement in the small old town in the Berkshire and the court room has been "filled" ever since it opened.

The trial is the third murder trial in the county in 25 years, both of the former cases having resulted in executions. No woman has ever met death on the chair in Massachusetts.

Major Hammond, district attorney of Southampton, is not at all sure that he has a complete record of Mrs. Tomaskiewicz's marriages. She has roved in practically every state in New England and lived with her various husbands in New York, Pittsburg, Chicago, Hartford, New Britain, Chicopee, Boston, Albany and South Hadley.

In France noted criminals are made to speak and sing into a phonograph before their discharge from prison.

dicated that the outcome would be beneficial to the party's standing. One effect of the prospective deadlock was to add impetus today to the movement to make the temporary organization permanent. Sentiment among delegates is strongly against prolonging the convention into next week, and it was argued that if Senator Lodge, temporary chairman, were elected to serve also as permanent chairman, formalities might be greatly shortened. There also was feeling among some delegates against setting up for the critical period of balloting a permanent organization which might be elected after a fight and thus might be obligated to one group or another. Managers for some candidates said they hoped for an agreement continuing Senator Lodge as chairman. On all hands it was declared, however, no decision had been reached. Friends of Senator McDermick of Illinois and of former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, brought forward for the permanent chairmanship, continued their campaigns.

The movement to shorten the convention found strong support among western delegates who have become greatly concerned over prospective congestion of railway passenger traffic west of Chicago next week. In addition to the advance guard of the democratic national convention, it was pointed out, thousands will be going to Portland for the meeting of the Myrtle propose to compromise. He read Article XI of the league covenant, which he declared was untouched by any of the proposed reservations but which would call for the sending of American troops to settle European quarrels. "If Mr. Lowden has not read Article XI," he continued, "but hisses and cat-calls out short the sentence and someone yells: 'He's a pussyfoot.' " "You bet our governor alone," shouted someone else. "I'm not going to leave your governor alone," replied Senator Borah, "so long as he's a candidate. We are fighting our fight upon ideals and not money. Therefore I am going to discuss these matters not only here but in the convention."

"A man who puts up $500,000 for a candidate expects to get it back some where along the line."

Some of the crowd seemed to resent the fling while others cheered and the two factions in the galleries got into a debate between themselves. "Somebody asked Mr. Borah if he would be secretary of state should Mr. Johnson be elected, and Mr. Borah replied that he believed Senator Johnson would have better judgment."

Relating how the Roman crown once was sold for the equivalent of $2,500, 000, Senator Borah added:

"We're not going to sell the presidency of the United States for $150,000. That's too cheap."

"I do not say this because I have any fear that either of these gentlemen will be nominated but because I consider it utterly discreditable that they would permit their names to be considered after they had attempted to control that convention by the use of money."

NEW ORGANIZATION GOVERNMENT AFFAIR

One Member to Be Selected From Each Organization and Church.

One member from each church, lodge, organization and civic body in this community is to be selected for the new civic organization recently established in Twin Falls. The idea is to have all committees in conjunction with the military authorities in bringing about a settlement of claims, getting Liberty bonds and bonuses for all ex-service men who make a request for them. The executive committee will consist of three men. At the session held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last Sunday, several were absent and matters pertaining to the work were discussed, it is said.

They will co-ordinate and work under one head and the announcement was made the new collection is not exactly a community affair but directly under government control. Government men are working in the field and it is the plan to obtain a satisfactory adjustment for every man and woman who served in the recent world war.

The main purpose is to gratify personal contact with the persons themselves on a better basis than has been after that is accomplished it will be possible to get all the existing troubles straightened out.

MOVIE MEN SHOOT BRYAN AS HE SPEARS ON DRY-DIVISION

CHICAGO, June 7.—Less than an hour after the supreme court today announced the prohibition decisions today, W. J. Bryan was delivering a speech about them to movie machines. Camera-men found Mr. Bryan in a hotel lobby, and immediately began to "shoot him."

"Talk, my something," urged one movie man.

"A little pop, a little action, please," said another.

"Ah, gentlemen," Mr. Bryan responded, graciously, and with gesture as much gratified at the supreme court's decision today although it was not unexpected.

"Cut," roared the movie men, and they scampered off, leaving Mr. Bryan in the midst of a smile and his arms spread.

and then give them the proper consideration.

It is still the charge of the members to find all claims then submit them to the Red Cross bureau in Twin Falls and if it is found they cannot get a settlement the claims will be given to the three executives on the local board and they will get in direct touch with the government.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Federal agents will redouble their efforts to make New York bone dry, James Shevlin, supervising prohibition enforcement agent, announced today when he feared that the United States supreme court had declared both prohibition amendment and Volstead act constitutional. Federal agents have arrested 50 alleged violators of the dry law in the last few days, he said.

WOULD ENDORSE IRISH REPUBLIC

Tailor Delegates on British Soil Begin Fight for Recognition by American Federation.

By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, June 7.—Although they are on British soil, certain delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor today launched their fight to get the federation to re-examine its endorsement of the Irish republic and demand that the military forces of occupation in Ireland be withdrawn by the English government.

A. Brady of New York, representing the allied printing trades, headed delegates presenting a resolution on the Irish question, prepared after a caucus today. With several hundred others it was referred to the committee.

The resolution charged that the English government is seeking to "destroy through military forces the republican form of government established by the Irish people," and urged "that the Irish people be allowed to guide their destinies and that all possible aid be rendered to the people of Ireland."

Don P. McKillop of the Pacific coast delegation, and other delegates opposing the resolution declared they would not be deterred from denouncing the English government and the Irish people because they were in Canada.

"We intend to throw this matter out and help our friends across the sea without the fear of the consequences," he said.

Among other resolutions presented was one from the garment workers delegation from New York, asking the convention to demand that the blockade against Austria-Hungary be lifted and that trade be resumed.

CHARACTER TESTIMONY SAVES LIFE OF FAVORITE CANINE

OMAHA.—Character witness testimony in behalf of a dog was taken here recently before Judge Kellee in district court. City attorneys objected to the admission of such evidence but the judge ruled a dog has as much right to it as a human.

The good character of the dog, which had bitten a girl, was thereupon established to the satisfaction of the court and he annulled the death sentence which had previously been passed upon the prisoner.

"Dick" belonged to 12-year-old Mary Schwartz. One day he ran along to the grocery store with her brother and while there bit Lena Chimo, a niece of 13. The police judge who first heard the case meted out the extreme penalty. He did not, however, pass on the extenuating circumstances. Some youngsters in the store had stepped on Dick's tail.

GROWTH OF GOTHAM IS MARVEL IN HISTORY OF WORLD CITIES

NEW YORK, June 5.—One hundred years ago New York in population was something like the present city of Albany, N. Y., a little more than 19,000. The city which has since grown to be probably the largest in the world did not pass the 1,000,000 mark until 1880, when the government census gave it a population of 1,296,500.

In 1900, with the annexation of Brooklyn and the incorporation of the greater city into five boroughs, the 3,000,000 mark was passed, the exact figures being 3,437,295.

The upward stride was pronounced after that, with the 4,000,000 mark left behind in less than five years. Before the end of the decade 5,000,000 were in sight, the figure in 1910 being 4,769,882, and by 1915 this had grown to 5,047,321.

In the population estimated in 1919, only one state in the United States was larger than New York City—Pennsylvania, with an estimated population of 8,336,001.

The Dominion of Canada's 1910 population is but little more than that of New York City in 1920. Only two South American countries, Brazil and Argentina, have as many people.

Outside of London no other city in the world is half so large in population as New York, which has nearly as many people as Paris, Berlin and Vienna combined.

The metropolitan district of New York, with its more than 9,000,000, represents the most concentrated grouping of people in the world, is estimated to overreach the population of London and its metropolitan district by fully a million.

The British capital retained her eminence in population until the last decade and in 1850, the period during which New York began to forge upward materially. London had a huge start, with a population of nearly 2,000,000.

Committee members were chosen in the state caucuses today with virtually all leaders among the members included. One would expect a party pledge for agricultural representation in the cabinet and federal commissions. Cattle planks asked for are:

A pledge that farmers shall have full, free and unimpeded right of access to markets of products and purchase of supplies and protection against discrimination.

Effective national control over the packers and other industries engaged in the manufacturing, transportation and distribution of farm products and supplies.

Legislation to check the evils of farm tenancy, the perpetuation and strengthening of the federal farm loan system, the improvement of farm loan facilities, and the inauguration of a full system for cooperative personal credit, provision to accord agriculture the same consideration in tariff legislation as is accorded to other interests; conservation of coal, oil, water power and protection of commercial timberlands; repeal of laws restricting rights of the growers of fruit and vegetable assemblages, and opposition to compulsory military training.

OREGON MAN BOLTS JOHNSON.

CHICAGO, June 7.—A local of one of Oregon's delegates, Judge Wallace McCann of Portland, to vote in accordance with the wish of the Oregon primary, won by Senator Johnson today, developed an unprecedented problem for the convention, involving adherence to or freedom from instructions of all primary chosen delegates for all candidates. A spirited and protracted fight to the midst of the first ballot was expected.

Judge McCann has given notice that he will vote for General Wood, because, he contends, his own election did not bind him to Senator Johnson.

The Oregon delegates estimate that an he was a recognized Wood supporter before the primary, the state preference for Johnson is not obligatory upon him. The other nine Oregonians, however, are to vote for Johnson.

The question presented, veteran leaders contend, is new and the decision is up to the convention during the roll of the first ballot.

While the immediate decision affects only one Wood or Johnson vote, the principle to be established is regarded as affecting all primary elected delegates of every candidate. A decision sustaining the Oregon delegate, it was said, might operate to give free-pledging to General Wood. Considerable feeling was said to have resulted today from numerous efforts to get a vote on committee assignments. Johnson was chosen national committeeman and the state convention but when pressing his case before the national committee, he agreed to leave the place to someone else.

LOWDEN MEN WIN.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Lowden slate of officers was elected without opposition tonight at the caucus of Illinois delegates to the national republican convention. Senator L. Y. Sherman was chosen national committeeman and L. L. Emerson chairman of the state delegation.

The only roll call was on the state chairman. The vote was 20 for Emerson to one against, with 20 delegates not voting and two absent. Delegate Cook, a Johnson man, cast the dissenting vote.

Mayor Thompson, who presided, announced Saturday he would not be a candidate for reelection as national committeeman, and so, Thompson slate was introduced.

The only clash came when Mayor Thompson asked that a resolution adopted by the Cook county republican convention today be presented to the national convention. Resolution was tabled 35 to 31.

The resolution asserted that attempts had been made "to buy the presidency" and that "every man who has participated in or seeks or stands to profit by such practices should be excluded from the privileges of the convention and barred from participation in our party councils."

After the meeting Mayor Thompson announced he would carry the resolution, to the republican convention and insist that it be considered.

GERMANY FACED BY SERIOUS PARLIAMENTARY SITUATION

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, June 7.—Not sufficient returns had been compiled up to 2 o'clock this afternoon of predictions concerning the completion of the new government, but already the results show a remarkable defection from the present coalition parties, with a corresponding accession of votes to the Rightists and Leftists.

A prominent Independent leader said today that the Independent socialists did not contemplate for a moment joining with the present coalition parties and forming a government. On the other hand, the two socialist parties probably will not be strong enough, even if they desired, to combine to form a stable administration.
