BENEFICIAL Hobbies.

Has our highly developed modern civilization deprived school boys and girls of hobbies? Do dances, theater parties, movies and ice cream parlors use up all the time which might be spent enthusiastically in pursuits that develop mind, body and soul?

A certain college professor tells the pupils who take his course year after year that if they art to truly successful they should adopt some hobby and work at it just as hard as they work at their bread-winning jobs. He considers it a relaxation from regular work, a stimulus to imagination and initiative, a recreation for worn-out nerves or depressed spirit. It matters little whether the hobby is architecture, swimming, natural history, Elizabethan drama or candy-making. If the person enjoys it thoroughly, it is the right one for him and he will derive real pleasure and profit from it.

The authorities in a certain English school for girls were dismayed to find that most of the girls had no keen interests outside their required school work. They therefore instituted what they call the "hobbies afternoon," setting aside half a day every week for that purpose. The school heads drew up and presented to the girls a list of hobbies. Every girl was required to take up one, but was free to make her own choice. Groups of girls selecting the same hobby usually pursue it together.

It is an interesting educational experiment, and will be watched by school heads in this country, as well as in England. It seems an odd and perhaps too formal a way to go about a delightful pursuit. But certain, it is, that if young people have missed the fun of having their own hobbies, it is high time some one started them on the path.

WAR MOTHERS TO PICNIC AT FARM

Classical Program of Music and Readings Is Given at Last Regular Meeting

The War Mothers held their regular meeting at the parlors of the Presbyterian church on Friday. Madam War Mother Mrs. C. C. Sleske was appointed a delegate to the state convention to be held at Idaho Falls in October. Several subjects of interest were discussed. Mrs. O. T. Boyd, president of the auxiliary to the Legion, gave a very interesting talk along the line of the work planned by the auxiliary. After the meeting a social hour was spent with a musical and literary program as follows:

Two vocal solos by Mrs. W. H. Dwight, The Birth of Morris by Francis Leone, and The Americans Come by Foster.

Two readings by Mrs. John Green, Motherhood and Innocence.

Plane selections by Mrs. Fred Beckwith, Lorraine Bough and Lee Sykes.

Refreshments were served to the 35 members who were present. Instead of the next regular meeting the War Mothers will have a picnic at the country home of Mrs. C. T. Hurt.

MARGUERITE CLARK

WIDOW BY PROXY
A Paramount Picture

Suppose

Suppose a girl had reasons to pretend she was the widow of a dear friend's husband.

Suppose she fell heels-over-head in love:

Suppose again, that although she was "dying" for the man of her heart to propose, every mention of her "widowhood" compelled her to weep for the "late departed."

Suppose a dozen other terrible tangles, and then suppose you could see dainty Marguerite Clark in a corking screen comedy-drama, as this widow who is waiting to be loved.

You'd come, wouldn't you?—You bet!

BUYING CLOTHES

You are undoubtedly well satisfied with the make of clothes you now wear, but have you ever considered some of the features of model design, color and weave of fabric that are best suited to your build?

Your tailor may be as much help to you as your wife's dress-maker is to her. If he is, he is one of those high-priced tailors that has to charge you an expensive overhead to make these clothes in small quantities.

We handle Kincaid-Kimball Clothes that since 1856 have been designed by experts who know fabrics and who know how to tailor fabrics to get best results. Before you select your next suit, come in and let us talk with you. If we do not have the model you should buy we will be glad to tell you so, for we do want to sell you a suit that makes you want to come again.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 18.—Bullish crop reports as of late and wheat led to material gains today in the corn market. The close came in at 38¢ 1-1/2 net higher with July $1.70 1-1/2 @ 1-1/2; August finished at 1-1/4 1-1/2 @ 1-1/2. Oats finished at 1-1/4 1-1/2 2-3/8 up 1/2 and provisions up 1-1/2 to 2-3/8.

All the symptoms of a crop scare developed regarding oats, reports from parts of the Southwest and a good deal of Iowa and Illinois telling of the plant heading short and of widespread need of rain. As usual under such conditions the reports were much magnified in the minds of some of the traders and were further stressed by advice from other territory that spring wheat was late, and that forcing weather was essential. Corn was quick to show sympathy with the higher prices which were commanded by it as a result of anxious buying. Barley had day ahead, shipped and imported assumed active competition for cash corn, and there was simultaneous broadening out of demand for futures. Country offerings were not large.

Business in oats took on large proportions. Scantiness of receipts added to the bullish sentiment due to fear of crop damage.

Provisions although dull, were firm er with grain and hogs.

SAYS, WIFE NAGS HIM.

William James Kunkle has brought suit in the district court for a divorce from his wife, Lizzie Jane Kunkle, asking for a division of the community property held by the couple, and the custody of their minor child, a daughter, asserting that his wife is not a fit person to have the custody of their child.

Plaintiff alleged that they were married in Pennsylvania in 1887; that during the last two years his wife has continually found fault with him, and has nagged at him incessantly, until he has become sick in mind and body. Also that his wife has without cause left him bed.

SUES ON NOTE.

In the probate court yesterday a suit was filed in which Carl E. Wright seeks to recover from J. M. Rogers the sum of $80, alleged to be due on a note, and also the sum of $25 as attorney's fees in the case. Attorneys Sweeney & Sweeney are acting for plaintiff.

PAYS HIS FINES.

Ed Turbansky, of net, Rogerson, was fined $25 and costs yesterday by Probate Judge Duval, having pleaded guilty to having committed an assault on the person W. C. J. Schroeder on June 12. MAINTAIN JUNE AVERAGE.

So far there have been only three days in this month on which no marriage license was issued, by the county recorder's office, one of them being Thursday, June 13, of this week, and the whole June this year has kept up to its proverbial standard in Twin Falls county, but it seems now the rush is over for the present in the sale of licenses to wed.
