

GOVERNOR COX IS WELCOMED TO THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

CONFERENCE WITH THE PRESIDENT IN FORENOON

League of Nations and Other Subjects Will Be Discussed by Chief Executive and the Governor During Visit.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The national capital today gave a cordial welcome to Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, upon his arrival for a conference tomorrow with President Wilson. Met at the station by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry E. Fawcett, and other prominent democrats, a crowd of several thousand persons cheered and almost stamped Governor Cox in his reception. He shook hands with scores, posed for moving picture men and was greeted by many shouts to the home of the American people.

T. A. Sherrill of Ohio, his host, Preliminary to his conference with President Wilson at 10:30 tomorrow at the White House, Governor Cox talked over campaign questions with several party spokesmen. He will also discuss tomorrow before leaving at 4:50 for Columbus.

By Talk About League.
The league of nations and other international questions, Governor Cox told newspapermen, will be the principal issues discussed with President Wilson.

The president knows more about international affairs than any one I know and I am here to counsel with him," the governor said.

"It will be the first time," he added, "that I have seen him since his days of our relations have always been very cordial."

The league of nations also was the main subject of a conference tonight between the governor and Senator Hittchcock of Nebraska since the object of the senate foreign relations committee and administration spokesmen in the senate fight tight. They declared they were in perfect harmony on the league of nations. Senator Hittchcock said the governor's views also were in accord with those of the president. The senator expressed the opinion that all the democratic leaders would be in accord with the governor.

Senator Sherrill, leader of the dry forces in the senate, declared after a five minute talk with Governor Cox that he was perfectly satisfied with the governor's stand on the prohibition question and that he not only would support him but would take the stump for him.

Another conference was with Victor Murdock of the federal train commission who was among those considered at the San Francisco convention for the vice presidential nomination. The governor said the information he wished from Mr. Murdock referred to the high cost of living and profiteering and "other subjects of considerable economic importance."

The governor reiterated that he would go into every state and specifically that he expected to visit the southern states.

"I think it would be very necessary to go there, although not necessary of course," he remarked.

He will meet the democratic national committee Tuesday at Columbus, Governor Cox said he could not announce his traveling plans more definitely.

"I plan to start at once. I mean by that, very soon after the ceremony of nomination and acceptance," he said. "I expect this will be in the early part of August."

Criticism of his touring plans were mentioned and the governor replied: "I can see nothing undignified in carrying the cause to the people."

The governor said he hoped and expected that President Wilson would aid materially in his campaign, adding: "If not by speech, by state action."

The governor asked that attention be called to the fact that the democratic national committee had named Charles E. Smith of Ohio as its president. The committee had called it for Dayton, but the nominee had transferred to Columbus.

Owners Buy Telegram and Stop Publication of Herald; Field Was Crowded.

By the Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, July 17.—Suspension of the Salt Lake Herald, which began publication in June, 1919, and purchase of the Salt Lake Telegram by the interests which have been conducting the Herald, is announced in a statement to be printed in the Herald tomorrow.

The statement follows:
The Salt Lake Herald, which has been published in Salt Lake for over 50 years, will cease publication after today. The conditions bringing about the suspension were due to the high cost of operating and the overcrowded field. There are few cities in the country the size of Salt Lake that support four newspapers.

Publication Sunday Edition.
"Coincident with this change the Salt Lake Telegram announces publication of a Sunday morning edition, beginning July 25. The controlling interest in the Telegram Publishing company has been purchased by A. L. Fish, Thomas J. Mullin and associates. Mr. Fish stated last night that no radical change in the management of the Telegram was contemplated. Both Mr. Fish and Mr. Mullin are former Pacific coast newspapermen, who came to Salt Lake about Jan. 1 to take over the Herald.

Mr. Fish, before coming to Salt Lake, was business manager of the Los Angeles Evening Express and for 10 years prior to that was business manager of the Portland, Ore., Journal. Mr. Mullin, prior to coming to Salt Lake, had been advertising manager of the Portland, Ore., Journal."

COMMITTEE IN FAVOR OF LARGE APPROPRIATIONS

By the Associated Press.
BOISE, Idaho, July 17.—Members of the congressional committee headed by James W. Good, chairman of the appropriations committee, inspected the Boise reclamation project today. Departing they declared themselves in favor of large federal appropriations for reclamation.

Starting at Parma early in the morning where they were met by delegations from Boise, Caldwell, Nampa and other points, the visitors made a tour of the Boise irrigation project including a visit to Arrow Rock dam, 22 miles east of Boise. On their return to the city they were entertained at a banquet. Addresses were delivered by Governor D. E. Davis, Mayor E. C. Engstrom, and Congressman Addison T. Smith of Idaho, James W. Good of Iowa, William P. Egan of New Jersey, John R. Wood of Indiana and Louie C. Crampton of Michigan.

THE SUN WAS HOT.

SANTA ANA, Calif., July 17.—Guy Skidmore of Laguna Beach, near here, laid his revolver aside today as he hunted squirrels. The sun, shining through the windshield, discharged the weapon. Skidmore was slightly wounded in both hands.

CALLS ANGEL ISLAND STATION DIRTY HOLE

Congressman Siegel Makes the Assertion and Is Charged With Angling for Publicity.

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—A sharp diversion of opinion as to whether conditions at Angel Island immigration station were as bad as one member of the house immigration committee painted them, and the views on resolutions expressed by two American citizens of Japanese parentage, who saw military service overseas, were the center points of interest in today's session of the committee.

Several members of the committee objected vigorously to Representative Isaac Siegel's assertion that the station was a "dirty hole" and "the worst station in the country."

When Mr. Siegel proposed that the station be thrown open to newspapermen, Representative John Baker replied that his colleague was only seeking publicity.

"Well, you have been doing that all the way through this hearing and everyone knows it," retorted Mr. Siegel.

Although tired from a week of almost continuous day and night sessions, the committee showed interest when Chairman Johnson called forward a group of American born Japanese men and women, all well and in some cases fashionably dressed.

T. N. Hogen, one of the witnesses, described himself as the only Japanese sergeant major in the American overseas forces. He said he served in Sergeant Alvin York's regiment and had had a brother in Canadian army killed at Vimy Ridge. His English name came as the result of adoption into an American family in North Dakota four years ago.

He said his father was the only Japanese who ever patented a home-stand in this country, its location being near Manitou, North Dakota. His naturalization came through service in the army, he said.

LAW AND ORDER PLANK IS LOST IN THE SHUFFLE

CHICAGO, July 17.—The law and order plank adopted by the republican national convention has been left out of the platform as printed for distribution and issued from republican headquarters here, Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the prohibition national committee, said today.

"Prohibitionists," said Mr. Hinshaw, "are thunderstruck by the failure of the republican platform issued by the republican national committee to embody the law and order plank adopted along with other planks by unanimous vote of the republican national convention."

VILLISTS AT WORK.

EL PASO, Texas, July 16.—Train guards on the northbound Mexico City train on the Mexico national railway beat off a small band of Villaleros who attacked the train near Concho, 300 miles south of here late Wednesday.

HARDING RESTING FROM HIS LABORS

After Working for a Week on His Speech of Acceptance, Candidate Will Enjoy Sunday.

MARION, Ohio, July 17.—Senator Harding gave his speech of acceptance of his final nomination tonight and then prepared for a day of complete rest from the arduous task of composition which has occupied his attention almost exclusively for a week.

He planned to spend tomorrow very quietly and in the early days of the coming week to take more time for recreation. Since he began work on his address he has been out of doors scarcely at all. He said tonight he was feeling "tired and cross" from want of exercise.

Today the senator worked again as in the years gone by in close co-operation with the composing room of his newspaper, the Marion Star, where the speech was put into type for printing the advance copies that will be distributed to the press. A relay of messengers carried copy and proof between the newspaper office and the senator's residence and once he paid the four-column limit he prepared a visit of inspection to his composition.

The speech, which will be delivered here next Thursday at the formal notification of his nomination for the presidency, exceeds in length the candidate's expectations and will run well beyond the four-column limit he originally fixed. It had been prepared with particular care because he endeavored to have it express comprehensively his stand on all of the important issues.

MEN ON "VACATION" TO RETURN AS MERE NOVICES

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 17.—At the eleventh hour before the expected pay increases which have been demanded of the railroad wage board, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen today issued warning to former members "on vacation" that they cannot hope to return to the fold except as novices.

A circular has been sent out to all branches of the railroad unions carrying statements signed by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and other officers.

The statements affirm the opposition of the organizations to the rebel movement.

ALLIES THREATEN TO DRIVE TURKS

If Turkey Does Not Sign Treaty or Follow Its Terms, Allies Will Advance.

By the Associated Press.
VERSAILLES, July 17.—A threat to drive the Turks from Europe "once and for all" was contained in the allied reply to the Turkish objections to the peace treaty delivered to the Turkish peace delegation here at 10 o'clock this afternoon. Such action might follow Turkey's refusal to sign the treaty or her failure to give it effect, the reply stated.

The Turks were informed that they must make known their decision within ten days.

The reply says the Turkish government would appear to think its responsibility in war is less than that of its allies and that Turkey therefore is entitled to lenient treatment but the allies cannot accept this plea. The note maintains "Turkey entered the war without a shadow of excuse or provocation," and by closing the straits in the face of the allies, "Turkey certainly prolonged the war by not less than two years and caused loss to the allies of thousands of lives and thousands of millions of pounds."

Today's near-race was run under conditions ideal in every particular save the essential one of a breeze.

A bright sun, shone down on the sea, the air was calm, the start was a great armada of pleasure craft, at rest, their brasswork and varnish glistening in the sun and their flags and pennants flapping idly. A fleet of the fleet of airplanes and one lone silver adiral blimp dotted overhead.

MCUNE GOT BUSY AFTER WOMEN KIDNAPED HIM

By the Associated Press.
LADDONIA, Mo., July 17.—A fund of several hundred dollars to make up a school fund deficiency was raised today by J. S. McCune, cashier of the Bank of Laddonia, who was "kidnaped" yesterday by a number of women members of the Home-makers' club here, because he had opposed a school tax increase proposition which was defeated at a special election last April.

The women took Mr. McCune 50 miles out in an automobile and told him they intended to keep him captive until he promised to support the school funds increase. A supply of food was taken along. Mr. McCune started the fund raising campaign by contributing $50.

AIRPLANES ARE TO TAKE ANOTHER START NORTH

By the Associated Press.
ERIE, Penna., July 17.—The four government airplanes blazing an air mail trail to Alaska, will leave here at 10 o'clock Sunday morning for Grand Rapids, Mich., second stop on the 9,000 mile journey. Three of the planes arriving here Thursday were joined this afternoon by Captain St. Clair Street, commander of the flight, who has been detained at Ely, Minn., by a broken axle. Examination of the commander's plane here showed that the wings had been slightly damaged when he had been forced to land at Ely.

Resolute Sails Along Nicely When the Time Limit Is Reached and Contest Ends.

CUP DEFENDER SAILS AWAY FROM CHALLENGER

Captain Adams and Crew Are Highly Praised by Yachtmen; Confidence Is Strong for the Resolute.

By the Associated Press.
SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 17.—Expiration of the sailing time limit saved the British challenger, Shamrock IV, from apparent defeat at the hands of the cup defender, Resolute. In the second meet today of the 1920 regatta of the America's Cup.

The defender, skillfully handled by Capt. Charles F. Adams II, had put more than a half hour's sailing between her and the challenger and was breasting home under mainmast, club topsail and hallow haly, when the race was officially declared off at 7:25 o'clock.

Under the rules, the 30-mile triangle course had to be covered within six hours by the leading yacht to make it a race. The time limit would not actually have expired until 7:46:28, but a little more than 20 minutes before that hour, Resolute had nearly eight miles to sail and the committee had hoisted the "race" signal. At that hour Shamrock IV was more than two miles from the stake that would have sent her on the last leg of the race.

The score still stands Shamrock IV 1, Resolute 0—Shamrock IV having captured the first race Thursday when Resolute was forced to drop out because of an accident.

But the score does not tell the respective achievements of the two boats to date. In every minute of both races Resolute has shown her heels to the green invader. American yachtmen are loud in their praise of Captain Adams and the sloop he commands.

Today's near-race was run under conditions ideal in every particular save the essential one of a breeze.

A bright sun, shone down on the sea, the air was calm, the start was a great armada of pleasure craft, at rest, their brasswork and varnish glistening in the sun and their flags and pennants flapping idly. A fleet of the fleet of airplanes and one lone silver adiral blimp dotted overhead.

Shamrock, towed by a tug, led Resolute to the starting point at Ambrose Lightship. But that was the only time she was ahead. In every minute of the race, Resolute was in the lead.

So still was the air that Shamrock IV had to call on her tug for aid after she had been cast off. A few minutes before noon when the race was scheduled to start, the committee on Shamrock was at the start and a breeze came in from the southeast and the committee hoisted the preliminary signal.

Captain Adams again appeared to have outmaneuvered Capt. William P. Burton of Shamrock at the start and for Resolute off in the coveted weather beat, 9 seconds ahead of the challenger.

The defender began steady gain on Shamrock IV almost immediately as the two yachts headed out to sea on a long port tack.

Resolute steadily outpointed Shamrock IV, edging into the wind, while her rival fell further and further to leeward.

Resolute led from the start. The committee waited until nearly half an hour before the time limit expired for starting the race. In the fight for place at the start Burton on Shamrock was the aggressor throughout, but he failed, and before he realized it Skipper Adams had him nicely pocketed under Resolute and crossed the line 9 seconds in the lead.

The wind was very light but Resolute beat to windward and Shamrock fell off. In half an hour it was clearly seen that the challenger was not making for the defender in the windward in light air.

The deficit now was very considerable. Shamrock was 10 miles from the mark. Then the tug gave Shamrock a lift so that she drew up until she was only 100 yards from the mark.

FINANCIAL REVIEW.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 17.—For the first time this week of the greater part of the previous week's advance in the stock market suggested to disinterested observers that speculative conditions continued to be governed largely by the strained credit situation.

What the stock market lacked in stability was partly neutralized by an extension of the mid-year investment tendency for bonds, especially the new underwritings. Both the Swiss and Belgian government loans sold along their subscription policies. In addition to credit contraction the market was put to a greater test by renewed signs of industrial uncertainty. Anticipation of production in textiles and leather made further progress.

Out of town banks made further inroads upon their local reserves preliminary to the crop moving period, but were a little more liberal in purchases of commercial paper.

Latest wholesale commodity prices received from authoritative sources foreshadowed another reduction of averages from June.

The transportation outlook promises to become a more distinct factor in the time approaching for adjustment of wages and freight rates.

Germany's submission to the terms of the allies at the Spa conference created scarcely a ripple on the surface of the foreign exchange market.

JAPANESE SHOWS THEM.

By the Associated Press.
STOCKTON, Cal., July 15.—Reclamation work on the San Joaquin river was shown today to the immigration and naturalization committee of the house of representatives by George Shimizu, the leading Japanese farmer of California as evidence that Japanese have put waste land in the state under cultivation. Assertions were made by several witnesses at the Sacramento hearings of the committee on coast Japanese problems that the Japanese always sought out land where the agriculture possibilities already had been proved.

THEY WOULD AVOID THE RACE PROBLEM

Committee Investigating the Japanese Question on Pacific Coast Anxious to Steer Clear of Trouble.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 15.—Five members of the immigration and naturalization committee of the house of representatives declared themselves in favor of a solution of the immigration question on the Pacific coast that would avoid a race problem as far as possible.

Their statements came after three days of hearings on immigration problems in California and were made at a dinner given by Chairman Albert J. Isaacs, the committee's majority leader, at the Hotel California. Governor Stephens and other state officials.

Strict guard over the Mexican border to prevent clandestine entrance of Japanese into California, exclusion regulation of Japanese fishing boats in Southern California and a closer law putting Japanese in the same class as Chinese for immigration purposes, are wanted from congress by the people of the state, witnesses told the committee.

All the witnesses but one heard expressed themselves as opposed to Japanese ownership or leasing of agricultural land. The exception was G. H. Woodland, who said Japanese had been needed badly for agricultural work in Yolo county.

To See for Themselves.

Seventeen thousand of the twenty thousand irrigated acres in Placer county are under the control of Japanese. Ivan P. Parker of Auburn testified, and several members of the committee departed shortly afterward for an automobile trip to that county to view conditions for themselves.

Charles R. Jones, president of the Sacramento Real Estate Board, said he considered it a "real estate crime" to sell to an innocent purchaser property in a district occupied by Japanese. The inevitable effect of the entrance of Japanese into a locality was to depreciate values and cause the American residents to move away, he said.

"And as for living conditions, you often saw Japanese women on their hands and knees in the fields, or wading in mud with babies in baskets near them," Mr. Jones added.

Joseph Holmes, head of the farmers' league of Sacramento county, declared the Japanese women worked before childbirth and were in the fields up to a very short time before childbirth and were in the fields again but a few days afterward.

Mr. Parker, who introduced himself as chairman of the assembly committee on agriculture, said that in Placer county the Japanese had progressed from laborers to owners of land and finally to owners of most of the orchards in the county.

"I visited one of the Japanese schools in my county," he continued, "and found nothing on the walls but a big map of Japan. A very kindly Buddhist priest, the teacher, explained to me that the instruction was essentially Japanese in character."

Deputy Sheriff Brown has returned from Salt Lake City where he went to get L. A. Wheaton, formerly of this city, who is wanted here on a charge of writing checks to the amount of about $750 when he did not have sufficient funds in the bank to pay the checks.

Wheaton was arrested in Salt Lake by the sheriff on request of Sheriff Spurgeon of Twin Falls county. It is said Mr. Wheaton regrets having issued the checks and that he wishes now he had settled the trouble before taking his departure for Salt Lake City.

It is probable Wheaton will be given a preliminary hearing Monday.

COWS GET INTOXICATED.

BYHAM, N. C., July 16.—John King, a farmer living near this city, last night lost two of his cows in a stupor in his pasture, apparently suffering from some strange ailment.

A search for the cause led to the discovery of a big "moonshine" still in a secluded corner of the pasture. The cows had eaten a quantity of the hush made by the illicit whiskey manufacturers.

MOTOR MAD AMERICA.

The English writer who says America is "motor mad" is about right. It may be something for the trade to boast of, but it is something for the rest of the nation to think about.

There are many desirable and praiseworthy features about the "motor automobiles" in this country than all the rest of the world has together, but automobiles are not an unmitigated blessing.

Every family may have an unalienable right to own a car, for it is a most convenient means of transportation, and surely transportation is a fundamental human right. But what of the millions of families that buy cars before they can afford them, or buy more expensive cars than they can afford? Nearly everybody wants a bigger car and a faster car. The natural desire, to be able to "get about" develops a desire to "go fast" and to be always going.

The nation seems to be developing a veritable motor-mania, a state of mind which wants to be moving rapidly regardless of direction or object, which cannot keep still, which regards mere motion as a desired thing. The continuous physical motion in itself tends to create a corresponding mental motion—a state of mind lacking repose and power of concentration.

This result is certainly no bad as the accompanying extravagance and the discouragement of home life. It is, in fact, largely responsible for them. A mind not at rest cannot properly estimate real value and enjoy the things that give permanent satisfaction, such as old-fashioned family life, literature, music, art, fine social intercourse and the study of nature.

This last item would be worthy of extended comment by itself. The "motor-mania" causes little for nature, and sees less of it, however he may move over the landscapes that rush past his speeding car. His engines have little to do with nature. The owner of a magnificent touring car doubtless has something very fine, but the man or woman sitting quietly under a tree or beside a stream may have something worth more than all the automobiles on the world's highways.

THE LITTLE BROOK.

The little brook ambled down along through the Bronx, in New York, years ago. It was so lonely in itself, and its banks were so charming that a poet took it for the subject of one of his poems. But business moved out that way, and with its advance the little brook lost all of its beauty. Its banks were disfigured with unsightly buildings, its waters were befouled with sewage and made dark and muddy with refuse. As a brook it was in a bad way.

But now it is coming into its own again. Its beauties and possibilities, since by the poet's song, were rediscovered. Property has been condemned and purchased all along its course, the trees are being trimmed, the vegetation is being rescued back to life, and a parking walk along its banks, where motorists and pedestrians alike may see and enjoy its beauties.

The work of reclamation has been long and expensive, but it has paid. The people who live in the vicinity are finding that anything which interferes with the health and beauty of a brook does the same thing to a community.

How many brooks the country over which should be delightful spots, deserving of a poet's song, have fallen upon evil days, but which still be rescued to their own advantage and that of the public?

LONDON IN BAD SHAPE
DECLARES DR. COPELAND

NEW YORK, July 16.—London neglected to safeguard her foodstuffs and supervise pure milk distribution was characterized as "little short of criminal" by Dr. Royal S. Copeland, New York's health commissioner, who returned here today from Europe on the steamer Lapland. He went abroad as the city's representative at Royal Institute of Public Health conference at Brussels and at the international housing conference at London.

"New York is better physically and morally than any city on the European continent," said Dr. Copeland, disappointed in the much-lauded police and traffic regulations abroad, and in the means of segregating vice.

"It is indeed remarkable that any child in London can live until 15 years of age when we are told that 100,000 of the children are contaminated with the germs of dysentery. Ten per cent of samples examined showed evidence of tuberculosis."

As a protection for the people of this country, Dr. Copeland said Congress must not hesitate to consider large sums to check the spread of smallpox and bubonic plague at their sources in Europe.

Quarantine delays here, he said, were caused by prospective immigrants avoiding the immigration station at Bantock, the port of Ireland, but inspections are now made also at Cherbourg, France.

MAINTAINS NO EMBARGO.

OTTAWA, July 16.—The government of Canada is maintaining no embargo on export to Russia and Russian citizens are free to make legal purchases from Canadians, Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, announced in a statement clarifying the situation regarding trade relations between the two countries. Any Russian individual or corporate company, he added, is free to set up his place of business in Canada in exactly the same manner as the citizens of another friendly country.

PRE-WAR METHODS.

OTTAWA, July 17.—The wheat crop of 1920 will be marketed by pre-war methods, the dominion government having decided that the present wheat board no longer shall function as far as this crop is concerned. It was announced tonight. The government may exercise the right to proclaim "unbinding legislation" enacted at the last session of parliament permitting continuation of the present wheat board, if circumstances outside Canada make it necessary.

TWO MEN DISAPPEAR;
MYSTERY GROWING

Canadian Police Have Case to Travel That Is Taxing Them to the Limit.

WINNIPEG, July 16.—The double disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, philanthropic theoretician of this city, and his secretary, John Doughty, both well-known citizens of Toronto, has been one of the most mystifying cases with which the Canadian police have had to deal. Small has been missing since December 2 and Doughty since December 28.

The whole continent of America has been a field for search by detectives for trace of the missing men, and offering rewards for the recovery of him, dead or alive, have been sent to almost every country in the civilized world.

Mr. Small had just put through a deal for the sale of his interests in a string of theaters in Canada, of $175,000 to a syndicate known as Trans-Canada Theaters, Limited, and a few hours before his disappearance, on December 2, he had received a check for $20,000 in connection with the sale. This check he deposited in his bank. On that day he had had lunch with his wife downtown, and had promised her to be home to dinner in the evening. He had attended to some business late that afternoon and about 7 o'clock started for home, as far as is known. The last person known to have seen him was his favorite newsboy, from whom Mr. Small bought the evening paper.

The fact that Mr. Small was missing was not made public until three or four weeks had elapsed. In the first week in January the first circumstantial information as to Mr. Small's whereabouts were sent out by the local police authorities, and a reward of $500 was offered. A short time afterward the reward was increased to $5,000. Then on the first of June a reward of $25,000 was offered by Mrs. Small for information regarding Mr. Small's whereabouts, if alive, and $15,000 for the recovery of his body, if dead.

The mystery of Mr. Small's absence was accentuated by the disappearance of John Doughty, who had been his private secretary for many years. Doughty has not been seen or heard from, so far as the authorities are aware, since December 28, 1919. In June, 1920, the discovery was made that $150,000 of Victory bonds were missing from the safety deposit vault where they had been placed by Mr.

Small, and it was stated that Doughty had had access to the vault. Thereupon circulars were issued offering $5,000 reward for the arrest of John Doughty on a charge of having absconded with the bonds, and $5,000 for Doughty's arrest on a charge of having stolen the missing Victory bonds.

By a special act of the Ontario legislature Mr. Small was declared an "absentee," and a trust corporation of Ottawa was appointed trustee of Mr. Small's estate.

WOULD CANCEL CONTRACT.
NEW YORK, July 17.—The Russian soviet bureau here today notified Boyer, Sloan & Co. of Montreal that contracts for $6,000,000 worth of supplies for soviet Russia would be cancelled if England has deported or deported Soviet Russia, secretary to Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, unrecognized soviet ambassador to the United States.

AFTER THE SLACKERS.
NEW YORK, July 17.—Federal authorities have completed plans for a roundup of 7,572 alleged slackers in the New York district which will start in a few days, according to a statement tonight by Assistant Federal Attorney Henry D. Miltenberger and J. C. Hatcher, a war department representative.

CROAT OUTBREAKS
AGAINST ITALIANS

Croats Were Celebrating National Day When Trouble Started; Revolt Distressing to All.

SPIALATO, Dalmatia, July 16.—The Croat outbreaks against Italians here Sunday resulted in the death of Commander Gull, of the Italian cruiser Puglia, another Italian officer and three Italian sailors and a boy of 14. The Croats were celebrating a national feast. A group congregated in an Italian cafe facing a wharf while several Italian naval officers were conversing near the water front. The bolshoi crowd from the cafe surrounded the Italian officers, shouting "Down with Italian Imperialism." Madness apparently seized the Croats, who then broke up the furniture of the cafe, smashed windows and stock and wrecked the establishment. Commander Gull of the Puglia saw the uprising from the bridge of his ship. He immediately ordered a motorboat to set out to fetch aboard the off-icers.

crew, who were in danger of harm from the crowd.

As the motor boat neared the wharf revolver shots were fired from the crowd. Commander Gull was struck in the chest and fell. Before the boat landed he received two more bullets.

The officers of the boat also was struck and killed and the motor craft was steered in by other sailors. The Italian officers on the wharf now were trying their best to effect an escape. As they were ambling one was shot and died later. Two other sailors were killed while a boy bystander in the crowd was struck by a stray bullet and killed.

Meanwhile the Croats were becoming wilder and wilder and shouting was increasing. They began molesting Italian stores and civilians. Serb machine gunners took up position and the order was given to fill the guns and make preparations to fire at a point in the crowd. A hurried dispersion followed, and order was restored.

Gull was attended by the naval surgeon aboard the American warship Olympia, which was anchored in the harbor. His wounds were estimated by all the Americans of the Adriatic fleet, as he had maintained the friendliest relations between the two forces.

HELPING THE GREEKS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 16.—Eight thousand Armenian refugees concentrated in Smyrna have enlisted in the Greek army. Large numbers of Armenians are enlisting in Constantinople daily. The Turks have begun deportations of Armenians conveyed from regions where the Armenians might aid the Greeks. There have been deportations from Cosarea and many other places.

Reports say that Kiamil Kara Bekir, commanding the nationalists in Kermun, has begun a movement against Armenia which is causing great uneasiness to Armenians, who fear that the massacres and deportations of the last four years will be repeated. The Armenians are trying to obtain information as to when and how President Wilson will fix the boundaries of Armenia and also how the boundaries will be protected by the entente. The Armenians are dejected to be greatly discouraged because of the withdrawal of the British from Batum.

ATHLETES COMPETE IN FINAL TRIALS

Men From All Parts of the Country
Take Tests for Places On American Team.

By the Associated Press.
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 17.—Athletes from all parts of the country qualified for places on the American Olympic team in the final trials at the Harvard stadium today in a track and field meet, the average of which has never been equaled. While no world records were broken, two American field event figures were improved. In addition, two amateur athletes won senior championship receipts went by the board and another was equalled. Members of the American Olympic committee who will select the team which will represent the United States at Antwerp next month, expressed the opinion that the 1920 competition would be the best balanced that ever gathered.

Western athletes achieved heavily in the record breaking, both in the American and the A. A. U. classes. Sol Butler, runner, sprinter and broad jumper from Dubuque college, landed 24 feet 5 inches in the broad jump, eclipsing the record made by Meyer Feinstein at Philadelphia in 1920. Feinstein was a student at Syracuse university when he cleared 24 feet 7 1/4 inches just 24 years ago. Butler, who also holds the A. A. U. broad jump championship, tried for the world's record of 24 feet 11 3/4 inches made by Pat O'Connor in England in 1901, but failed.

Another Westerner, Milton S. Angler, of the Illinois A. C., was the other westerner to establish a new American record when he shot out the javelin 122 feet 10 3/4 inches surpassing George A. Brundage's record of 120 feet 6 inches made at Newark in 1915 while a member of the Irish-American A. C. of New York. More than six high jumpers cleared better than six feet and the winner, John Murphy of the Mulholland C. C. of Portland in the broad jump, was able to better his former A. A. U. championship record of six feet 3 3/16 inches to win. Murphy cleared the bar at six feet 4 1/4 inches in his winning jump, but failed in his attempt to break the world's record when the bar was set at six feet, eight inches.

The distance runs, however, produced the competition that attracted the spectators to greatest heights. Although Jole Rasmussen, the Illinois runner, failed in his attempt to lower the mile record, he won in four minutes 16 1/4 seconds. The 10,000 meter run developed the keenest and most sustained enthusiasm of the day. After the meek of dozen runners had settled themselves well into the grind of more than six miles, Fred M. Zeller of the Woodstock club, Boston, and H. Earle Johnston, a negro sprinter of Pittsburgh, reported to be the fastest man produced by his race for long distance set out on a racing diet which continued through the last two miles. Sprint succeeded again notwithstanding the illness of running that he had. Johnston's reserve was greater and he won with a rush on the home stretch. The former Olympic star finished again today when Ted Meredith won second place in the quarter mile run, close behind F. J. Shea of the navy. Charles W. Paddock, southern sprinter, equalled the long standing championship record of 21 1/2 seconds in winning the 220 yard dash, but lost the 700 yard dash to Loren Murphree, the New York crack who won it in 16 seconds flat.

men Are With Them.

The congressmen investigating committee, which the chamber of commerce invited last Friday to meet in Nampa, is due to pass through Twin Falls at 8 o'clock this morning to stop for only a few minutes.

The chamber of commerce has directed its efforts in an attempt to have the party make a longer stop in this city, but inasmuch as this would interfere with the plans of the federal committee, the efforts so far have not succeeded.

The congressmen, who are investigating the Twin Falls irrigation tract, are slated on their trip by Congressmen Adams and Smith of Idaho. The local committee will accompany the congressional party throughout the entire inspection tour.

SECOND HEAT OF YACHT RACE FAILS

Then came a remarkable piece of wind chicanery. Both yachts tacked to starboard three-quarters of a mile from the mark, with Shamrock 100 yards to windward. The breeze gave her such a lift that she stood for the mark, but although Shamrock was scarcely a hair's toss away, it passed over her directly and left her practically becalmed. Resolute nearly fetched the mark on the starboard tack and wore around it with another short hitch going quite fast. A mile away Shamrock lay flapping helpless in the long swell.

Five times Resolute sought to coax the green yacht up to the mark and each time she shed like a horse at day entered the Starbuck bank. At last, in the sixth try she reached it, nearly half an hour after Resolute.

The second leg was planned to $2,500.

be a reach, but Resolute finally turned into the second heat of the day. The time limit expired at 7:45 daylight and at 7 o'clock Resolute reached the second mark with 10 miles to go in 45 minutes. She sailed a few miles under balloon jib top-sail and then signalled for a towline and started for her moorings in the Sandy Hook harbor.

Shamrock reached the mark half an hour later and her tug immediately took her in tow.

The yachts will meet again on Tuesday over another triangular course.

ISKO

Electric Refrigeration

We extend to you and your friends an invitation to see the presiding genius of the household today—Isko Electric Refrigeration. On display at our store and showrooms.

Make your own ice for table use. Freeze custards and ices and keep your refrigerator at a temperature of 40 to 42 degrees.

Advantages of ISKO
Domestic Machines

Mechanical refrigeration supplies in the home all the features of cold storage obtained by packers and warehouse men. Food is kept longer in better condition, the process is far more hygienic and sanitary than refrigeration by ice, germ activity being checked by the keen, constant cold. The simple and rugged construction of the machine makes it independent of attention.

The ISKO System has special claims for consideration, because of the simplicity of construction of the machine, low operating cost, quiet operation, and general freedom from attention.

The simplest installation of an ISKO Machine is directly on the refrigerator. If preferred, it may be placed in an adjoining room, or in the basement below the refrigerator. The large sizes of machines may be connected to two or more refrigerators.

ISKO Refrigeration produces any desired temperature.
