

HARDING ASKS COX TO DEFINE HIS POSITION

Alleges Powerful International Interests Are Preparing to Give Cox Financial Help.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE ISSUES LONG STATEMENT

Demands Explanation Cox's Attitude Toward League of Nations and Foreign Policy of President Wilson.

By the Associated Press. MAION, Ohio, July 30.—Senator Harding professed his front porch campaign tonight with a statement asking Governor Cox for specifications of the democratic stand on the League of Nations and the "powerful international interests" concerned in President Wilson's foreign policy...

Senator Harding's statement said "Our democratic friends are having difficulty getting away from the embarrassment incident to their candidate's visit to the White House and the announcement that he and the president found themselves in entire accord."

"At the time of this conference, I addressed some questions to the democratic candidate, which he has not thus far seen fit to answer. One was whether in his conference with President Wilson he had pledged himself to the ratification of the treaty and league without essential modifications. Another was whether Article X had been accepted by him. Still further, I asked whether Governor Cox had undertaken, if elected, to renew the demand that the country take a mandate over Armenia. I asked whether Governor Cox had undertaken to maintain the administration policy in Italy. Where their policy has already well nigh forfeited the friendship of the Italian nation, brought Italy to the verge of revolution, and almost wrecked the establishment of the peace."

"I asked whether Governor Cox had pledged himself to insist, as President Wilson has heretofore insisted, that Thrace shall be settled as Bulgaria desires rather than as Greece desires."

"The short, I asked whether the democratic nominee has taken over the various known and unknown commitments of the administration's foreign policy in order to establish harmony between the president and Governor Cox."

None Has Been Answered

"None of these questions has been answered. But there is accumulating evidence as to the democratic attitude. Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, a democrat, was in Dayton two years ago. At that time, while with Governor Cox, declared he was going to support the governor. According to the newspaper reports the senator was asked about Governor Cox's decision regarding Article X. Senator Walsh said it was possible for him to agree with a candidate on nine out of ten issues and still support that candidate, even if they differed on the tenth proposition."

"Thus it becomes apparent Senator Walsh was not able to agree with Governor Cox's view on Article X. The only possible inference is that Governor Cox is maintaining the same attitude toward Article X that President Wilson has long maintained. Apparently, the governor has given assurances to the president that, if elected, he will stand by the president's program. Otherwise, the governor would have been able to give Senator Walsh a long talk which would have saved the latter from the uncomfortable necessity of admitting they did not agree about Article X."

SPEAKERS DISCUSS IMPORTANT ISSUES

Mass Meeting in Park Last Night Results in Wishing of Political Union

Political Union was wished in a mass meeting held in the city park last night, when the senatorial contest in the republican campaign was discussed by various speakers. The meeting had been called by the county anti-division committee for discussion of water questions and other issues raised by the candidacy of Senator Sweeney for the Senate. The speaker talks were made by a number of those interested, following which Senator Sweeney demanded to be heard, and for more than an hour stood the rockling of hostility and the badinage of a hostile audience. The crowd finally quieted and Senator Sweeney spoke, much along the lines of his former speech in the same park, in opening his campaign.

The meeting developed that Senator Sweeney is attorney at law for the Land and Water company, that he helped former Representative Sims in the preparation of the Sims bill which the Miller bill altered, and that the former senator has the courage to stand in front of hostile audience in his own community and do battle in a campaign manifestly unpopular in his home city. There was a large crowd present, many farmers being present to hear discussions of the water question. Judge T. B. Chamberlain presided. The chairman replied to Senator Sweeney's city park speech, touching upon the fact that Mr. Sweeney is attorney of record for the land and water company, and urging his interest to the farmers and what were reasons for their opposition to him. He also replied to the former senator's statement that county and state taxes are too high by the assertion that the county tax is double that of the state's, and that the state's remedy for high taxes was more taxes.

E. J. Hornbrook followed the chairman in terms of the late Representative Conover, who was named by Senator Sweeney in public addresses in his criticism of the kind of people sent to the legislature because of the county division fight. Mr. Hornbrook paid glowing tribute to the late member of the house, a one-time member of the city council, who lost a fortune in the days following that conflict and found himself more than $10,000 in debt. But the sturdy old character, said the speaker, refused the advice of his friends and went on to his bankruptcy process, and eventually paid every creditor dollar for dollar. Mr. Conover subsequently amassed a fortune by hard labor in honest pursuits.

Mr. Hornbrook said that he had known Senator Sweeney for thirty years, and said that he felt that if Sweeney had the heart as he had the brain, he could have attained whatever political ambition he might have wished. Mr. Sweeney had, by process of elimination, declared that no man except himself was fit for place in the state senate.

Turning again to the Conover matter, Mr. Hornbrook said: "He lacked a dead man, but said nothing about those other former members of the legislature who are living and able to defend themselves." For seven years Sweeney fought Conover, but shouted Hornbrook: "Was he a hypocrite then or is he a hypocrite now."

Representative Carl Miller made a short talk in which he declared that Senator Sweeney had injected the water question and the county division question into the campaign; that it was Sweeney who first discussed them in his speeches, here and in Butte. Sweeney had been lying there had been no speeches and no statements printed upon these issues. Senator J. H. Beaver, candidate to succeed himself, followed in discussion of the issues. He declared himself unopposed to the county division, division, declared that he hopes to see the great prestige of "this magnificent county" maintained by unity. He said that all his property was in the water and that portion of the county which would lie in the new county if created.

Senator Beaver deplored the entry of the water question into politics, but declared that it is necessary for the protection of our rights that the question be taken up in the campaign, then he wanted to be found on the side of the rights of the man on the land. He represented the story of the aggregation of the issuance of 8,000 acre feet of water for the tract, based upon five-eighths the inch per acre; that the amount of the water was found to be more than 100,000 acre feet applied to the land, through seepage.

NEVADA FARMERS WANT MORE WATER

Mass Meeting Held and Government Is Made Acquainted With Situation of Situation. By the Associated Press. RENO, Nov. 20.—Presentation of testimony here today before Colonel E. E. Winslow of the war department, tending to show necessity for providing an increase in water supply from Lake Tahoe to prevent damage to Nevada crops embraced in the Truckee-Carson irrigation district, was concluded after five hours continuous hearing. Colonel Winslow informed the petitioners and demonstrators that all evidence will be submitted to the war department for a decision.

Attorney General L. S. Webb, appearing for the Lake Tahoe interests, summed up the opposition by admitting that California property owners were willing to permit Nevada ranches to secure additional water supply from Lake Tahoe, provided the process and its attendant results does not damage the lake or abutting property. Nevada interests presented testimony showing that removal of silt at the outlet of the lake would not draw upon the capital water of the lake, but would utilize merely a portion of the surplus waters accumulated from storms and melted snow. Lake Tahoe water used in Nevada irrigation projects is obtained from the Truckee river which is the outlet of the lake. According to statistics submitted at the hearing, the present level of Lake Tahoe surface is higher than the lowest mark which was registered in 1889.

BOSTON, July 30.—The federal government's investigation of the financial methods of Charles F. Pont, who claims to have made millions by his dealings in international exchange, was officially started today when army officers began the examination of his books to determine whether he is innocent. After the audit, according to Mr. Pont, he will reopen his offices to accept deposits. Pont declared that the investigators would find his assets in fair in excess of liabilities.

Referring to the condonance which he asserted the majority of the depositors had shown in him, he said that he might enter politics.

MEXICO CITY, July 30.—A commission of Lower Californians arrived today to ask Provisional President Don in Huerta to name a successor to Governor Estaban Cantu. YANKS TO HELP MEXICALI, JULY 30

MEXICALI, July 30.—Governor Estaban Cantu's action terminating relations with the Mexican provisional government and reports that American ex-service men were to serve machine guns for the Cantu forces, were the outstanding features tonight in the situation here arising out of the announced intention of the provisional government to wrest control of Lower California from Governor Cantu.

It was said by officers of the Cantu forces that sufficient American veterans had crossed the international boundary line from Calexico to serve the 21 machine guns said to be part of the equipment of the Cantu army. Preparations to resist the invasion which Governor Cantu had announced was to be made by Mexican federal soldiers continued rapidly. Recruits who have enlisted here were drilled today and Governor Cantu expressed confidence he would have an army of sufficient strength to resist any troops that might attack his men.

Following Wishes of President Wilson Head of United Mine Workers Will Issue Mandate.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30.—In compliance with the wishes of President Wilson, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will issue a mandatory order instructing all miners in Indiana and Illinois to return to work immediately to permit the normal operation of the mines. It was announced at miners' national headquarters tonight.

"The fairness of his statement must be apparent to every one with respect for constituted authority, the least regard for the public welfare," the statement continued. "The suggestions of the president... will be considered as a stinging rebuke to the whole type of Frank Harrington, who has dilatorily and maliciously inflicted men to disregard their contractual obligations. Public castigation of such leaders cannot be too severe."

OPERATORS REFUSE REQUEST. CHICAGO, July 30.—Coal operators of Illinois today telegraphed John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, refusing his request for a joint meeting of the operators and miners' local committees in an effort to settle the strike in Illinois. "They said they could not enter into negotiations unless Washington authorities authorized the meeting. They also said they would not meet the miners' officials as long as the miners remain out."

ILLINOIS MINES ARE CLOSED, CLOSING TO REPORT RECEIVED HERE. The scale committee of the central committee field, which met here today, adjourned after discussing the strike situation without taking any action.

SALMON PROJECT ISSUE IS NOW BEING HEARD

BOISE, July 30.—The trial began Thursday in the federal district court in Boise in the case of the Salmon River Land and Water company against A. E. Caldwell, opened with the introduction of documentary evidence relating to the inception of the Salmon River project with approval of the state of Idaho.

Testimony of the former Caldwell trial was introduced, but objection was made by Attorney O. O. Hagin, counsel for the plaintiff, who attempted to hold that knowledge of the water shortage on the part of the plaintiff stopped the claim for damages on the assumption that his retaining on the tract, knowing company were allowable they should be. The court sustained contention of Judge Bothwell, attorney for the defendant, that it was too late to return settlers' money and be released from the terms of the contract since the present suit insisted on the fulfillment of contract by the settlers.

Witnesses for the plaintiff that were called were C. M. Hall, B. B. Darlington of Jerome, for the defendant, A. E. Caldwell, L. E. Pelmanson, D. E. Ryan, W. L. Matthey, Ray M. Beauchamp was on the stand at adjournment.

COX IS SURE HE WILL WIN THE ELECTION

Does Not Desire to Leave Dayton; Sees White House Looming in Distance.

THOUSANDS ATTEND THE HOME-COMING EXERCISES

Weather Was Sweltering Hot But Candidate Reviews Parade and Responds to Cheers of the Crowds.

By the Associated Press. DAYTON, Ohio, July 30.—Ballot that he would be elected president was expressed by Governor Cox today in an address at the home-coming celebration here. After standing two hours under a burning sun, reviewing a parade, estimated to contain between 8000 and 12,000 marchers, crowds around the reviewing stand insisted on a brief address from the guest of honor, in which he thanked his audience "for the testimonial" given him.

"I just said to a gentleman from Washington that it would appear to be a reflection on our government to desire to leave Dayton and live in any other place," he said. "Yet, somehow, I have a feeling I am going to reside in the home which you have saved over. In the future tenant of this premises, I promise to take good care of it."

To another crowd which almost crushed the governor and Mrs. Cox as they left the reviewing stand, Governor Cox said: "I have a feeling I am going to reside in the home which you have saved over. In the future tenant of this premises, I promise to take good care of it."

"Hello Jimmy" Coax Day

It was "Jimmy" Coax day in Dayton for the thousands who packed the parade route, released by a half hour delay. "Hello Jimmy" was the salutation shouted at the governor by hundreds of the paraders. "Three cheers for Jimmy" and "Hi, Jimmy, I'll see you in the White House" were the other greetings.

The governor wore a wet handkerchief and applauding each group responded in kind. "Hello, Buck" and "Hello, Thorne" were also heard. "Hello, Charley" were among the greetings he shouted back.

"I have seen men who have followed my standard for 12 years who show no confidence in me," said the speaker. "I am proud to have held it that to have inspired it at the outset."

"Jimmy" Cox also was the keynote of many banners on parade. "Hello, Jimmy" and "Hi, Jimmy, I'll see you in the White House" were the other greetings.

Led by the Band

The parade was led by the "Jimmy" Cox band of conventional name. It played "Ohio" the convention battle song as it marched by the governor while the "Cox boosters" in organized bands of conventional veterans sang "Ohio." Instead of declaring they would "nominate Cox or know the reason why," they sang they would "elect Jimmy Cox or know the reason why." The Rainbow division, headed about a dozen others, also marched in the parade.

Over the parade line, airplanes formed, while bombs of daylight fireworks sounded their cannonade.

INVESTIGATE FARM LABOR EARNINGS

One Farmer Cleared $15,000, While Others Under Similar Condition Hardly Made Expenses.

That one farmer on the Twin Falls tract cleared labor earnings of $13.41 above all expenses, whereas in some cases others operating farms of equal size and value have been operating at an actual loss, was the result of an investigation conducted in this vicinity during the past week.

The investigation was conducted by C. C. Taylor of Boise, farm manager and assistant director of Idaho; Byron Hunter of Boise, agriculturist in charge of farm management investigation, and F. H. Shelleby of Washington, D. C., a representative of the Federal Bureau. All three of these men have been investigating the conditions that have been existing on the farms in the Twin Falls tract, this past week, with the idea of ascertaining labor, crop production costs, and to find out how much it costs to produce a crop in the way of labor.

The data gathered by this investigation are compared with similar data gathered from more than 200 farms of the Twin Falls tract last fall and it is said that this survey reveals some startling and interesting facts that should be of interest to all the farmers of this vicinity.

With the view of getting this information before those who should be primarily interested in it, the farmer, a series of meetings is announced at which the comparison will be shown to those attending, and the results of the findings will be presented and explained in detail.

The meetings will be started Monday night, the tract being covered by sections, so that Twin Falls will be the place of the first two meetings, on Tuesday nights at 7:30 on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 on Friday evening. These meetings will be a place for each one to hear a confidential report concerning his farm, it is said.

NEWSPAPER MAN DENOUNCES MEASURE

LONDON.—The Jones bill, characterized as "America's bid for shipping supremacy," is denounced by the shipping expert of the Standard Observer as "retaliatory and discriminatory."

He declares that the war has taught other nations the importance of owning a mercantile marine and that the Jones bill has aroused indignation throughout the world by the "arbitrary and magnificence" of the British mercantile establishment. "In two countries," he asserts, "in particular is a feeling of most bitter jealousy against our mercantile marine. These two countries are France and the United States."

The writer declares that there is nothing to which foreigners can object in the principal provisions of the Jones bill insofar as it is intended to co-ordinate the transport resources of the United States whether ocean, coastwise or inland shipping, railways, ports and docks so as to form one immense undertaking to force American export and import trade into the holds of American ships.

He says, however, that some of the clauses of the bill were intended to be discriminatory against Great Britain and Japan. Among these he mentions those which authorize preferential treatment to American vessels in American ports. The insurance provisions of the bill, he says, impose the most drastic form of returns, which are based absolutely upon the methods of the German insurance companies, against which America herself protested so bitterly previous to her entry into the war. There have been devised admittedly for the purpose of learning every lot of business transacted by foreign companies with a view to passing the same on to American concerns. The object of course is that, having this information, the government may oust the British company entirely to assist American insurance.

"In the same vein is the clause which works in favor of American insurance companies the Sherman anti-trust law. This is entirely on a par with the methods adopted by the shipping board during the war when it transpired the confidential information given to the shipping board solely for the purpose of the war was being used to enable American shipping to defeat British shipping after the war.

"We in this country now know that we are to be faced with the most bitter competition for the supremacy of the sea which we have ever had."

"We are in for a big fight, but before America can win this fight she must create a national feeling for a mercantile marine. She must prepare to pay considerably higher freight and insurance rates on all she imports and exports and she must be willing to forego profits on her shipping enterprises for many years. The person who is most willing to feel the pinch of America's ambitions will be the American exporter."

Concentrate Sea Power In Reorganized Fleet

WASHINGTON.—The greatest concentration of sea power in the history of the American navy will result from the junction of the reorganized Atlantic and Pacific fleets off the Pacific coast next January under plans being prepared by naval operations. The great naval spectacle probably will be staged in the vicinity of the gulf of Panama.

Officials of the navy department say the proposed mobilization will in no sense result in "grand" maneuvers. No effort will be made to concentrate all of the nation's strength and only ships regularly in commission with trained crews will participate. The exercises and drills will be simple and mainly of a competitive nature, including unofficial athletic competitions between representatives of the two fleets and of individual ships. The main object of the mobilization will be to give officers and men an opportunity to compare notes and meet for a few weeks of good-natured rivalry.

Admiral Henry D. Wilson, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, will be senior officer of the combined force, with Admiral Hugh Rodman, chief of the Pacific fleet, second in command.

The maneuvers will be unique in many respects, chiefly in that they will afford the first actual mobilization of the bulk of the new American navy. Before the war the fleet was always more or less scattered and a shortage of several types of vessels, particularly of destroyers, submarines, light cruisers, aerial forces and fleet auxiliaries made it impossible to concentrate a well rounded outfit although the major portion of the battleship force met each winter at Guantanamo, Cuba, for target practice and drills.

During the war the shortage in most types of small vessels, notably destroyers and submarines, was overcome, but the entire fleet was never mobilized due to the use of practically all light craft in the war zone, the detail of cruisers to escort duty and the fact that a considerable portion of the battleship force was on duty abroad much of the time.

The January maneuvers will set a new mark in American naval procedure. For the first time in the history of the new navy the battleship fleet will be supported by a reasonably adequate number of destroyers and other light craft. Submarines will be available in abundance, together with sufficient naval aircraft for all incident purposes and a fully rounded out fleet of auxiliary vessels. The total number of vessels to participate will depend on the progress of recruiting, as many ships are in reserve now for lack of crews, but will command at least 300 vessels of all types.

The most modern of dreadnaughts to participate in the maneuvers will be the USS Tennessee. The last word in naval construction, this great floating fortress displaces 32,000 tons, carries 12 14-inch guns and is propelled by electric turbines. The Tennessee is attached to the Atlantic fleet, but it is probable that Admiral Wilson probably will not be completed in time to join Admiral Rodman's force before the maneuvers.

Striking Contrast.

A comparison of the ships available for next winter's maneuvers with the fleet strength available for a similar concentration 10 years ago affords some striking contrasts. January 1, 1910, the latest battleship in the navy was the New Hampshire, built by congress in 1904 and completed in 1908. A comparison of the New Hampshire and the Tennessee follows:

New Hampshire: Length 450 feet; breadth 78 feet; draft 27 feet; displacement 17,700 tons; speed 18 knots; main battery four 12-inch guns and eight 8-inch; secondary battery 12 3-inch; four submerged torpedo tubes; 9-inch armor. Protected by triple expansion steam engines developing 16,000 horsepower; crew 1,250, including marines.

Tennessee: 1920. Length 600 feet; breadth 97 feet; draft 31 feet; displacement 32,300 tons; speed 21 knots; main battery 12 14-inch guns; secondary battery 14 5-inch guns; two submerged torpedo tubes; propelled by electric turbines developing 28,500 horsepower; crew 1,600 men, including marines.

Seventeen single-cylinder gun engines planned as dreadnaughts will be available for the January maneuvers that were not completed in 1910. They have a combined displacement of 445,000 tons and a combined gun power of 112 14-inch guns, 80 12-inch, 228 6-inch and 28 5-inch.

A comparison of total battleship forces available in 1920 with those of this year shows there are 18 dreadnaughts and 19 pre-dreadnaughts, excluding the Oregon class, against 22 pre-dreadnaughts in 1910, including the Oregon class. Most of the battleships, listed as available in 1910 are now considered obsolete.

Ten years ago the navy destroyer force consisted of about 38 vessels, including 27 O-class destroyers, practically obsolete. This year Admiral Wilson and Rodman command destroyer forces aggregating more than 200 vessels, with over 100 more in reserve on both coasts.

In 1910 10 submarines were carried on the active list of the navy. This year nearly 100 of the submarines are attached to the two fleets, with about 75 more under construction.

The cruiser strength of the navy has shown little change in the past 10 years. In 1910 the backbone of the cruiser force was the "big eight" armored cruisers, none of which, except by the loss of the San Diego and the Memphis, No light cruisers of importance have been launched in the last decade.

Some of the most striking increases in American naval strength in the past 10 years has been in auxiliary vessels. Both the Atlantic and Pacific fleets now have well organized and complete "trains" of hospital ships and troop transports, practically unreamed of a decade ago.

KEEP OUT OF POLITICS.

WASHINGTON.—Army officers and others connected with the military establishment are prohibited under an order issued by Secretary Baker from taking any "active part in political management or in political campaigns" or from "using their official position to influence the result of an election."

Mr. Baker said the order was not directed at Major General Leonard Wood, who was a republican candidate for the presidency, and who also has proposed his active support to Senator Harding. Mr. Baker explained General Wood's activities in politics had been with his full knowledge and consent. He added it was not the department's policy to stand in the way of the people's choice of any officer whom they might want for president.

The secretary would not be more specific when asked if the order would affect General Wood's future activities in politics.

SUSPICIOUS OF POLAND.

COPENHAGEN.—Maxim Litvinoff, bolshevik assistant foreign minister, in an interview insisted that Poland, having in previous negotiations with Russia "shown herself crafty unfaithful," the soviet government must see to it that any armistice with Poland is not used to strengthen Poland's forces for further aggression against Russia.

"Moreover," Litvinoff added, "in face of the lessons already learned, we cannot rely upon mere assurances even of the great powers. We are firmly resolved not to impose harsh terms on Poland and do not intend to abandon the cherished principles of the self determination of peoples because the fortunes of war has favored us."

Litvinoff claimed that Russia had given generous terms to Estonia, Georgia and Lithuania, when she stood victorious upon the ruins of their states, "thereby showing ourselves the true friend of small nations."

SEEK LARKIN'S RELEASE.

DUBLIN.—There is a renewed agitation in Ireland for the release from prison of James Larkin, now serving a sentence in America. Some of the new town councils have taken up the matter, and are busy passing resolutions about it.

At Mullingar the town council demanded Larkin's release, and Mr. Brett, a member of the county council, said that, as Larkin was an Irish citizen, any communication with reference to him, from the American government should be made through the Irish republican government and he thought that the matter should be placed in the hands of the Irish republicans for foreign affairs of the Irish republic government. Other Irish councils are acting similarly.

MORE SUGAR MEN INVOLVED.

SALT LAKE CITY.—Warrants were issued for four directors of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, not named in previous actions, on charges of violation of the sugar act, in connection with alleged sugar sales. The other directors, formerly accused of similar acts, were not named in the amended complaint which made the charges against the four.

The warrants were not served and it is expected that all four directors will appear tomorrow and give bonds. At that time the bonds of the other three will be voided, unless they are charged with the same.

Preliminary hearings of these accused is set for next Monday. The complaint was issued in the southern district of Idaho and sent to the federal district attorney here for filing.

ALLEGED CLEVELAND HAD GOOD PROXY

Official Says Milkman Did Not Clean Up Premises and Sold Product Through Another Man.

That William Cleveland who has recently denied permission to dispose of his milk and milk products within the city limits of Twin Falls is disposing in this city by means of other persons in the stated conviction of W. H. Hoag, city milk and dairy inspector.

According to the decision of the milk and dairy department, delivered July 21, Mr. Cleveland was denied permission to sell milk and such other products because, it was alleged, his premises were in an unsanitary condition. According to the order issued and made public through the newspapers, the lion would not be raised until such measures were taken that the premises were put in shape to satisfy the department and that the owner showed good intention to keep it that way.

After waiting for a reasonable time and receiving no word from Mr. Cleveland asking that the inspector make another inspection of his premises to see if the orders had been complied with, it is reported, a quiet investigation was conducted, inasmuch as it was believed that the orders had not been complied with.

According to Mr. Hoag, it was found that Mr. Cleveland was disposing of his milk and cream in Twin Falls through other persons; especially he said, through Edward J. Day of Anderson & Day and the Sterling Creamery company, for which firm Anderson & Day act as managers of the up-town receiving station. The Sterling Creamery company, he said, has always acted in strict compliance with all requests of the milk and dairy department and that they were unaware of having received any of Mr. Cleveland's cream.

In addition, it is said, the investigation revealed that Mr. Cleveland was milking 27 cows and that Mr. Day was milking only one, while the creamery receipts show that the latter was sending in large amounts of cream almost daily. In this respect, the inspector presented the following report of cream taken in at the Sterling company office:

July 24—One 10-pound can cream, E. E. Floyd; two cans cream, sweet 24 pounds, sour 33 pounds; Ed Day.

July 27—Two cans cream, 33 pounds sweet; 13 pounds sour; Ed Day.

July 28—One can cream, 77 pounds soup, J. S. Vineman; one can cream, 71 pounds sweet, G. N. Wiseman; one can cream, 32 pounds sour; L. T. Carter; one can cream, 29 pounds sweet; Ed Day.

July 29—One can cream, 40 pounds sweet, O. W. Garrett.

According to H. J. Youngs, manager of the Sterling creamery, and Harry Smith, receiver of the cream at the same institution, it is stated, this was the first instance, July 29, where cream had been received by their establishment from Mr. Garrett, who, they say, is a man unknown in Twin Falls so far as they could ascertain.

Mr. Cleveland apparently appreciated the investigation, Mr. Hoag stated, and immediately gave word to the inspector that he visit his dairy and suggest what improvements were necessary in order that the ban might be raised.

"This statement is given to the general public," Mr. Hoag said, "in order that it might know the attitude of some of our citizens of our community when the promulgation of these rules and regulations of the meat and dairy-inspection department of our city were instituted and considered for the general welfare of the health of the community."

"The department wishes to exonerate the Sterling company from any blame or complicity in this matter."

BOY SCOUT CONDUCTORS

WARSAW.—Boy scouts acted as conductors recently during a strike of municipal employes of Warsaw and which affected the street car system, owned by the city. Men volunteered from technical schools and electrical institutions were on the front platforms of the street cars as motormen. During the strike, for an increase in wages of from 80 to 100 per cent, volunteers operated the electric light and power plants, the water works and the gas plants, the work all being done by boys and men members of the Social Self Aid-society formed for just such an emergency. The strike was settled by a compromise.

RECOVERING FROM THE WAR.
 Belgium, hardest hit by the war of all allied countries except Serbia, reports that her railroads are restored, her coal production is greater than it was before the war and her food production is almost up to normal. France, which had so great a part of its agricultural acreage laid waste, has excellent crops this year, with more than her pre-war harvest of wheat, and will be able to feed her own people next winter. England, as a result mainly of the more thorough cultivation of small areas and home gardens, has greatly increased her food production over the war years.

So it goes. Nearly all the countries of Europe except bolshevist Russia and the self-ridden Central Powers show signs of more rapid recovery than was expected. The popular mood in many places remains pessimistic, but often the material facts give the lie to pessimism.

The United States is no exception. This country has been, all along, more fortunate than most of its war-partners in its freedom from direct war ravages and its comparative prosperity. There are few misfortunes now except those of our own making, and they are probably milder than we deserve.

Crops are good, the wheat crop particularly, in spite of slim expectations is going to top the five-year average. The railroads are not in good shape, and coal production is slow, and business in some industries shows signs of dullness. But on the whole, conditions are surprisingly good, when one remembers what "presidential years" used to be, and considers the economic sins of commission and omission of which this nation has been guilty. And nearly every expert declares that conditions are fundamentally sound, with a fine prospect for several years to come, when once this period of hesitancy is over.

The world is recovering from the war. Material recovery, strange to say, is coming first. Morally, mentally, spiritually, recuperation comes more slowly. Nevertheless there is improvement in those spheres, too. The mental gloom is less thick than it was a few months ago, and there is a stronger disposition to look to the future cheerfully and confidently. We may get the war out of our system, and find ourselves in a new and buoyant era, before we know it.

HONEST FOOD CONTAINERS.

The requirement that food containers should indicate their contents applies as much to fresh fruits and vegetables as it does to bottled, canned and boxed goods shipped from one state to another. Many producers and shippers, however, ignore the law. It has been nominally in force for six years. The government has been slow and lenient in enforcing it, in order for everybody to become accustomed to the change. It is felt now that there has been plenty of time, and nobody has any excuse for ignoring this wise regulation. Notice has therefore been sent out that it will be enforced more strictly from now on, except in the case of fruits and vegetables whose weight or volume is hard unnecessary to indicate, such as beets with tops, crated celery, barreled kale, lettuce, etc.

Ordinary fruits and vegetables capable of definite weight or measure are to be marked plainly in convenient units of either weight or dry measure on the baskets, hampers, drums, cartons, boxes, crates or barrels. The only important exception is that when a crate contains many small baskets, if the crate itself indicates the contents of each small basket, the individual basket need not do so.

It should be noted that these rules govern only interstate commerce, and need not apply to fruits or vegetables sold within the state where they are grown, unless there are state or municipal regulations to that effect. Many states and cities have followed the example of the federal government in providing such regulations. They are highly desirable, because of the confusing variations found nowadays in the size and shape of containers, as a result of which nobody can tell how much of anything he is getting for his money unless it is plainly marked. Every community ought to have such a system, and the system ought to be made uniform everywhere.

MORE LABOR AVAILABLE.

America today needs Europe's labor more than it needs any other kind of imports. It is therefore reassuring to find the tide of migration has definitely turned, and immigrants are coming once more in numbers promising at least some relief from our present labor shortage. If recent estimates are trustworthy, the United States may expect a gain of possibly half a million workers this year.

Most of them are unskilled workers, and that is the kind particularly needed. There is, of course, a serious lack of men in the skilled trades; but still more serious has been the absence of men who can and will use their hands for any kind of job not requiring particular training.

Besides this fundamental need in the industries, there is a vast amount of work of all kinds, in every community, that has not been done, or been done partially and ineffectively, during the last three years, because there were no men of all work obtainable. Every household who can not attend to all the odd jobs around the place himself must have felt this handicap. When there is not only labor enough to operate the factories, mines, farms and transportation lines at capacity, but enough to dig the garden and clean the furnace and mend the fence, we may feel that life has become normal again.

As for fear of immigration, that is waning. Present laws keep out nearly all the undesirable, and the quality of the newcomers is better than it has been for many years.

SIMPLE STYLES.

On different pages of the same issue of a daily paper appeared two fashion items. One announced that the government is seeking the elimination of freak styles and frequent changes in women's dress, and leading thereto, the representatives of the government had been in conference with members of various garment manufacturers' committees. The other item was from New York, issued by one of the fashion authorities, and it read like this:

"Suits and coats for next fall have changed materially from those of last winter season. In suits, the new features are choker and Robespierre collars, long, hip-reducing coats; lavish fur and pile-fabric trimmings, and the loose sleeve and mandarin coat."

Thus do the designers, and the manufacturers who pay the designers to throw these semi-annual fits, fall in-line with the request of the government and the needs of the time.

However, there is still hope. The clothing dealers' life depends upon selling his goods, but his customer's life does not depend upon buying them, and the public, male and female, is beginning to find this out. People are buying now only what is necessary, and that of the most conservative type, and fall will probably see no change in their attitude. The manufacturer and dealer who fail to read the signs of the times will be in a bad way.

One of the reasons why food is so high is that the United States exported over $4,000,000,000 worth of it last year. There won't be so much exported this year, and that will help some.

Ring Lardner says he has a hunch the next president will have whiskers. He doesn't say what color. Surely he can't mean James Hamilton Lewis!

Administrations and congresses may come and go, but somehow, in spite of everything, the United States government manages to plug along just about the same.

Amateur booze makers may fly high for a little while, but they soon Volstead to earth again.

Choosing presidents is certainly America's greatest indoor sport.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

German Army Officers Sigh For "Good Old Days"

BERLIN.—"No one in Germany sighs more fervently for "the good old days" of the rubber than the former army officer. Forced out of the government payroll by the reduction of the navy, starved for work other than soldiering, and so generally disliked by the population that he has difficulty in finding any kind of employment, the officer's lot in democratic Germany is a hard one. His present world, in which he is at the bottom of the ladder as an unemployed worker in overall, is a far cry from the life he led when he was a member of the Kaiser's army. After the first revolution it was a risky thing for an officer to appear on the streets in uniform. They were vilified by the Kapp crowd last March, and since then have been showing themselves in increasing numbers, especially student reserve officers, who are easily identified by their pale faces flushed with fresh sword cuts received in duels."

DECLARE ALLEGIANCE.
 DUBLIN.—Nearly all the Irish county and district councils recently elected have now passed resolutions declaring allegiance to Dan Breen, and their first meetings have been turned into Sinn Fein demonstrations. The new chairmen, everywhere outside Northeast Ulster, are Sinn Feiners.

The Dublin county council has always been a moderate body. Now it has a Sinn Fein majority, has pronounced for Dan Breen and elected as its chairman a young professor of mathematics. At 5100 the chairman, a Sinn Fein M. P., announced that all their actions would be guided towards the most effective means of clearing Britain out of Ireland.

This council, like most of the councils, has made Irish language compulsory on all candidates for office under the council. The council has refused to send intimations of their proceedings to the local government board, and will also refuse all information to the income tax department. None of the councils would make any provision for the payment of the compensation for "outings" awarded against the council by the courts. At Inceuncheon it was decided to stop the salary of the sheriff to punish him for allowing military to occupy the courthouse. In many places the republican flag was flown over the council hall. In some instances was then removed by the soldiers. In Mayo all the proceedings were carried on in the Irish language.

BLACKLIST FIRMS.
 CHRISTIANIA.—A blacklist of German firms who are alleged to have broken contracts with Norwegian merchants is being prepared by the Christiania Chamber of Commerce and will be published as a warning to Norwegians to "be careful of closing deals in Germany." The Christiania Chamber of Commerce now has under consideration names of 70 German firms against whom complaints have been made that they broke contracts, principally because of an unfavorable rate of exchange.

It is understood German chambers of commerce are co-operating with the Norwegians to force the German firms to fulfill their contracts.

LUCAS HAS NARROW ESCAPE IN FIGHT

Party of Soldiers Attacked by Sinn Feiners—Holders Are Chased Away by Another Contingent.

By the Associated Press. BELFAST, July 30.—Reports received regarding the escape from Sinn Feiners of Brigadier General C. H. T. Lucas, indicate he was accompanied by 25 to 35 Irish soldiers at the time of the clash which resulted in his return to Tipperary. He was being conveyed from Limerick in a lorry. As the lorry approached Gola, armed soldiers demanded the lorry stop. The driver put on speed, but the lorry was disabled by shots from the raiders.

General Lucas and several soldiers seized Lucas before they could use their machine gun. The soldiers then surrendered their arms. The raiders carried off the soldiers' equipment and were about to set the lorry afire when another lorry approached from the rear. The Sinn Feiners and General Lucas with the survivors was rescued.

BELFAST, July 30.—Sinn Feiners attacked the Greater Oranmore hall near Stranorlar County Down today. Windows and doors were smashed and property inside was damaged.

LIMERIC, July 30.—Two soldiers were shot dead and another seriously wounded near Gola when Sinn Feiners travelling in a lorry were ambushed.

DUBLIN, July 30.—A military patrol were ambushed and relieved of its arms 12 miles from Dublin today.

The Heran family are former Twin Falls residents. The body arrived here at 4:15 Friday afternoon and services were held immediately after the arrival.

administration Mr. White, the new chairman of the democratic national committee was interviewed in Washington yesterday, and said "progressivism is to be the paramount issue of the campaign." And later he said "progressivism necessarily carries with it the league of nations," and he indicated very plainly that the democrats intend to attempt forcing other issues to the front to keep the public mind away from the fact that their candidate has given his pledge to support the Wilson policy toward the treaty and league. "It is perfectly understandable that the democratic campaign manager would desire to have the whole sorry business of democracy forgotten, but it does not forget. The more the democrats attempt to get away from this question the more insistent the country will be to know what they intend to do if they are elected with this administration. It is plain that 'accord' could not have been established by the president and the democratic candidate except on condition that the latter assume all liabilities of the president's program.

Wash. Serv. Wash. "No matter how it may be couched, it is more obvious every day that if the democrats should win, their effort would be to compel ratification of the league covenant with certain modifications. Senator Walsh's statement makes this perfectly plain. He admitted himself in disagreement with Governor Cox immediately after a long talk with the Governor. Senator Walsh has heretofore been just as adamantly opposed to Article X as any of us. But for the sake of democratic harmony he is now apparently willing to forget about it, and try to induce the country to forget about it by pushing other issues to the front.

Chairman White's statement that "progressivism is to be the paramount issue of the campaign." I note that Mr. White announced that the democratic committee will not restrict itself to the contributions as announced by the republicans, and that he will try such restriction. I believe that such a course will result in Mr. White, at any rate, being regarded as a quack.

RATE INCREASE DECISION SOON

Interstate Commerce Commission Expected to Grant Railroad Higher Freight and Passenger Rates.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 30.—A decision is expected to be handed down early next week by the interstate commerce commission on the application of the railroads for an increase in freight rates approximately 27 per cent and 20 per cent in passenger fares. The decision is understood to have been sent to the printer today, but it is not thought that it will be ready for distribution before Monday.

Increases in rates is believed by railroad and shipping experts will approximate 25 per cent on freight and about one-half cent a mile on passenger fares. The original request, filed some four months ago, is believed by railroad men which provides that the railroads shall receive a six per cent return on their properties, were for increases in freight rates, averaging 28 per cent. Later, however, to meet added expenses created by the rail and labor board's award, adding $600,000,000 a year to their payroll, the roads asked for a further increase of nine per cent in freight rates, a 20 per cent increase in passenger fares, a surcharge of 20 per cent on Pullman car transportation, a 20 per cent advance on excess baggage charges and a new rate on milk shipments, equal to the freight rates granted.

WILLIAMS TAKES OPTIMISTIC VIEW

Thinks Business Conditions Are Full of Confidence and Encouragement for the Future.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 30.—Asserting that the confidence in the federal reserve bank of bankers, on credit has had a jarring effect "on some nervous systems," John S. Williams, controller of the currency, in a statement tonight said general business conditions are "full of confidence and encouragement in the future." Action of the federal reserve banks in largely depriving non-essentials and luxuries from the use of credit money, he said, will have had a beneficial effect. Reports to him show a marked tendency toward liquidation, he said, adding he believes the credit restrictions he is responsible for declines in prices.

Mr. Williams said he was in prevalent pessimism which was unwarranted in the fact that the banks at present were in a "particularly well fortified position." He cited figures from reports on the last national bank report, June 30, to show there were increases in loans by banks in only two sections, the eastern and Cleveland districts. He attacked New York banks for exacting an interest charge ranging as high as 15 per cent.

JOHN W. DAVIS GIVEN FAREWELL RECEPTION

By the Associated Press. LONDON, July 30.—On the eve of his departure for America tonight, Ambassador John W. Davis was given a farewell luncheon today by the American Luncheon club, 200 persons attending. The lord chancellor in proposing the health of ambassador, paid him a high tribute, and Mr. Davis responded in an eloquent speech.

In the course of his address, the lord chancellor declared that but for the massive resources and energy which America brought into the war, the allies could not have been victorious. He said he had no doubt that the Americans would soon bring the same resources and energy to help in reconstruction of the world. Ambassador Davis in reply said the double purpose of his visit to America was to establish a friendly understanding what had occurred there during his absence and to carry back information regarding conditions this side of the water. He said that he would tell the American people that "the war in which range of effort during the war in such clear and ringing bringing to them the story of Britain's achievements, was now calling for equal exertions in the great task of reconstruction, which meant the winning of peace."

RICH COUNTRYMAN IS KILLED IN IRELAND

By the Associated Press. DUBLIN, July 30.—Frank Brooke, wealthy county gentleman, close friend of Viscount French, a landlord and member of a committee on Irish reconstruction appointed last year by the victory, was assassinated today.

Mr. Brooke was killed in the district of the Duff, near the town of Rathfriland, when he was returning from a walk in the park.

NEW BOUNDARY TO BE FIXED SOON

Suggestions of American State Department Will Be Followed to Grant Extension—Decision Spu Council.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 30.—The new boundary line between Poland and Czechoslovakia in the district of Teschen, Spis, and Orava will be fixed in accordance with the decision reached by the council of ambassadors at Spa and after modifications suggested by the American state department had been agreed to, it was announced today by the state department.

In explaining the new agreement which will require a plebiscite, the state department said: "During the last conference at Spa the representatives of Poland and Czechoslovakia agreed that the allied council or the council of ambassadors should fix the boundary of the two countries in the district of Teschen, Spis and Orava and that their two respective countries would abide by the decision thus made rather than submit to the allied council in the event of any disagreement. Recommendations for definite action and this government was requested to instruct its ambassador, sitting in the council of ambassadors in respect to the proposed plan."

"After an exchange of views this government accepted the general lines of the settlement proposed by the allies after the latter had agreed to certain modifications, suggested by the department of state. It has therefore decided that the council of ambassadors should fix boundary lines, provisionally, and that a commission composed of representatives of the United States, Belgium, France, Italy and Japan, should take this line as a basis for the new frontier and make such changes and rectifications as should be found desirable. At the same time the Czech-Slovak and Polish governments have agreed to accept certain economic arrangements to be submitted to them to regulate their distribution of Teschen coal between the two countries."

PLAYS FOR PRESIDENT

Prayer for President Wilson's return to health was offered today by a minister, sitting in the president's chair and with head bowed over the desk, long used by Mr. Wilson in his private office at the White House.

The minister, Rev. John Norberry, pastor of John Wesley Church of the Nazarene of New York, had called at the executive office of the president today. He was the first visitor there with his bride to shake hands with President McKinley. Accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mr. Norberry walked through the east room and then to the president's office. There Mr. Norberry sat down and prayed briefly.

OBJECTS TO JAIL

CHICAGO, July 30.—Although confined in a cell with a private back, Mr. Broome in political quarters has complained today expressed his disapproval of the Governor, Ill., in which he was removed because the sheriff at the Joliet, Ill., jail, was said to have permitted Johnson to take an automobile ride and participate in the evening session. Johnson complained the Governor sheriff is not allowing him to live in the style to which he is accustomed. The negro is in jail pending federal action for bail. He is under sentence for violation of the Mann act.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY

THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Tou-palik, 1438 Row street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted. He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief. This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. For Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach, trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pain in the back, side and joints, indigestion, itching, gas, indigestion, catarrh of the lungs and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

A Challenge

"The County Anti-Division Committee":

You have seen fit to put out an advertisement appealing for my defeat as a candidate for the office of State-Senator. Had you confined it to the single question of county division it might have passed unnoticed, for upon that my views are known. However, you have charged that my purpose in becoming a candidate was to further some private interest, and both you and your candidate are trying to divert attention by injecting into the campaign issues which both you and he know to be misleading and are making statements concerning them which you know to be untrue.

I am making my fight out in the open and there have been, and will be with my consent, no anonymous circulars issued or advertisements published in my behalf. It is my desire to continue in that way, and in order that the public may be fully informed I challenge the author of your published advertisement or any person connected with your committee, if there is more than one, to meet me publicly in the City Park Saturday or Monday evening and discuss the positions of your candidate and myself on the two issues raised by you and him, being county division and the water rights under our canal system, and another which I shall add, being THE IDAHO POWER COMPANY, ITS REPRESENTATIVES AND ITS INFLUENCES.

Shall we have the meeting?

CHRISTENSEN IS AGAINST LEAGUE

Candidate Declares Proposed Pact Is Attempt to Establish Bankers' Soviet in the World.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The issue of nations is "nothing more than an attempt to establish an international bankers' soviet," declared J. P. Christensen, presidential nominee of the Progress labor party, here today.

"The League of nations is a dead issue," he said. "If it were not, I should want to kill it."

Emphasis on Irish freedom was another point on which he expressed himself.

"I am one of those who is sufficiently in love with the principles of human freedom to earn squarely the recognition of the Irish republic," he said.

Referring to the attempt of Governor Cox and Senator Harding to persuade Tennessee to pass the equal suffrage law, he said: "It is not Harding and Cox that I am fighting. I am fighting the forces of reaction."

Mr. Christensen announced that the national campaign of the third party will be launched in New York City where, he said, "we enthroned the powers we are fighting." These powers, he explained, are, collectively, "Wall street" for it is Wall street, the addol, "that wins no matter which of the old party candidates is elected."

Restors to People.

"We are out," he continued, "to restore the government to the people—to make it impossible for Woodrow Wilson to say in the future, as he has in the past that 'the government of the United States is controlled by the combined corporations and financiers of the United States.' It was true when he said it, and it is true today. We want to make it true no longer."

Both the democratic and republican parties, the candidate declared, are "engaged in a conspiracy to camouflage the League issue. Their purpose is in perpetuating the discussion, to blind the people to the vital issues. The platform on which they stand are 'diabolically empty.'"

Mr. Christensen charged that "there is a plot on between the reactionaries of the republican and democratic parties to stifle ratification of the sixteenth amendment by the necessary thirty-sixth state."

Third party leaders, he said, have announced today that they are making progress in whipping into shape plans for a national campaign.

The conference will be in session several days.

NO LIGHTING BIDDERS.

That the installation of the curb lighting system for Main avenue and Shoshone street has been delayed is because no bids of a satisfactory nature have been secured. The proposals were invited by the Idaho Power company shortly after the council had decided to install the system. But no satisfactory proposals followed, it is said.

At the present time the difficulty of obtaining material for the installation is such that the council has decided that the installation will not be made this year. The plan was to install the curb lighting system over four blocks of Main avenue from the O. S. L. station to the courthouse on Shoshone street.

ADOPTE PLATFORM FOR OPEN SHOP

Members of Chamber of Commerce of United States Announces Recommendation on Proposition.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—By an overwhelming referendum vote made public today members of the chamber of commerce of the United States adopted a platform of industrial relations which declares for the right of "open shop" operation of the industry and for making labor organizations the major responsibility of employers equally responsible to their agents.

Answering two allied propositions, the members held that strikes in public utilities should be forbidden by law and that tribunals should be set up with power to fix wages and working conditions for employees of utilities.

The industrial relations platform, which was submitted to the referendum of the constituent bodies of the chambers in 12 sections, upon each of which a separate vote was cast, was drawn up after President Wilson's first industrial conference last fall.

Leading provisions of this platform include declarations that limitation of commodity output by either employer or employer when done to create an artificial scarcity constitutes an injury to society; that an "adequate means" should be provided for adjustment of industrial relations and disputes; that employer and employee have a mutual interest in the "successful conduct and full development of their particular industrial establishment," recognition of which and co-operation upon which constitutes the true basis of sound industrial relations; that municipal, state or national government employees have the right to be heard as to their occupation and its requirements, but no right to enter "combination to prevent or impair the operation of government" and that "all men possess the equal right to associate voluntarily for the accomplishment of lawful purposes by lawful means."

Most of the separate platform propositions were accepted by votes of nearly 1,700 for, to two or three against. The highest negative vote was cast against a section which said
