RUSSIANS THREATEN PERSIAN CAPITAL

Soviet Troops Follow Up Success Against Bolsheviks by Making Threat Against Teheran.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Soviet Russia has followed up its successes against Poland with a thrust into southwestern Asia and its forces already are threatening the Persian capital at Teheran. While rather undisciplined, the Bolsheviks are being encouraged by some officials and diplomats here to be directed against British and French domains in the Near East and Asia.
News of the Soviet army's advances south and west of the Caspian Sea was conveyed today in official dispatches from J. V. Caldwell, American minister to Paris, and the American consul at Tabriz. The minister asked permission to remove his American legation to Teheran in view of the preparations of the Persian government to evacuate the capital, while the consul asked authority to move from Tabriz. Both requests were granted.

Vocational News Letter

By Warren E. Crabtree

Director Vocational Agriculture
Twin Falls High School

Twin Falls county is producing real farmers. Never before has there been such a stimulus for better and wider agricultural promotion.

Knowledge of the South-Hughes act stimulated immediate action, the Twin Falls high school being the very first school in the state to put in a course in vocational agriculture and thus secure federal aid to carry on the work.

The interest has constantly grown and at the present time we have in successful operation 34 projects. These range all the way from one acre to 25 acres; each boy keeping records of all expenditures, labor, and rental, machinery cost, upkeep, etc. Finally, after harvest, the record books will be completed to ascertain gain or loss, the cause of gain or loss, and the cost of production per unit area. The work consists primarily of crops though some of the boys have animal projects while a few have a combination of both.

I find the boys immensely enthusiastic over the work they are doing and from all indications at present each boy will come out well financially. A few are going to make their dad's "sit up and take notice."

Since each boy is wishing to know what his chum or friend is doing I feel it advisable to send out a news letter at this time. We appreciate boy letters and have to visit the other boy nor is it to be found looting on the street corners. I am glad to say that the project workers are continually on the job when the supervisor happens along. It is these boys who are destined to make our future progressive American citizens, a "cup of things worth while."

We must continue to keep this school the largest in the state for advancement in vocational agriculture. This can easily be accomplished through hearty co-operation of all concerned. Mr. Blue and the board of education have demonstrated that they are with us in the work and have recently secured a man, Mr. J. D. Hamilton, to assist me in the department. Mr. Hamilton will be here at the beginning of school and we are looking forward to a big enrollment in the department of vocational agriculture.

As to the plans for the coming year we have two big events to look forward to. I have been assured that there will be a state stock judging contest this fall. The plan now is to have the schools of the southern part of the state compete at Boise. The winning team here will compete at Lewistown with the winning team from the northern school.

This winning team will then go on to the state team to Portland, Ore., and meet the other state teams of the Northwest. There is also a possibility that the state team will be sent to Chicago, Ill., to the International Livestock show. Now boys, here is a chance to work for something worth while. It will not only mean a great deal to you but will boost our county and the Twin Falls high school. Why not make our team a winner. Why not we hope Mr. Evans, the new coach, will make winners of our football and basketball teams. Let's all get together and put Twin Falls on the map.

Another event is that of the county fair at Ellet, Sept. 14-17. I am glad to see the boys so enthusiastic over entering exhibits. Every boy has voiced his wish to enter at least one exhibit. Some of the boys hope to enter four or five at the county fair and then enter again at the state fair. With the excellent crops which you boys are producing I feel assured that you will come back with several of these blue ribbons. "Nothing is believing," and we will show the people that you are real farmers. This will be a fine manner in which to bring our work before the public and for each boy to see what the others have been doing. It will lead to open competition between each other. Every boy wishes to know who's is best. This will be a fine place to watch the judge and see where he places the blue ribbon in each entry.

I have just received a letter from Mr. J. M. Markell, secretary of the county fair. In part he says: "I am in receipt of your letter containing list of names. Premium lists have been sent to all. Thanks for the list and co-operation in the matter. Tell the boys that the Twin Falls county fair is the one big show in Southern Idaho. Prospects are good for exhibits worth while."

Following I will give a brief list of the boys who are doing project work with a brief description of the work carried on by each:

Kenneth Atkinson has 2 1/2 acres of Carmen potatoes. He had difficulty in securing a perfect stand. The field looks good for Kenneth has given it constant care. He has remained close at home and worked on the farm all summer.

Albert Bailey, way out on the Salmon tract, has eight acres of alfalfa. He is coming on nicely and will make a good yield.

Gail Henveycombe believes strongly in beans, of which he has eight acres in two patches. They are of the first Valentine variety, of a good stand, and are in fine shape. Gale says he does enjoy running the tractor, on the farm where they use two in their farming operations.

Alfred Hice has on his project work the growing of 3 1/2 acres of buckwheat. It has been well taken care of, being watered three times up until July 1. This wheat promises to make a good yield.

Ralph Brown is very much absorbed with livestock. His project consists of feeding and keeping records on one Poland China sow with four pigs and the care and fattening of six steers. Besides this Ralph is helping his father with a pure-bred Jersey herd and the keeping of records for the milk. After winning at the fair last year Ralph had hoped to compete again this year with a sow and litter. One pig, however, has developed a deformity which may keep him from entering.

Ronald Bell has five acres of Kidney Wax beans which show up in great shape. They have been well cared for. These beans are grown under contract with Roger Bros. of Twin Falls at 1 1/2 cents per pound.

Charles Baker has 10 acres of very fine barley. It has just been harvested and will make a paying crop. Ernest Cole spent part of the season working on the farm with Albert Bailey but could not undertake a separate project.

James Dean is carrying on a project consisting of three acres of wheat. This was doing well on a former visit. On the last trip I was unable to see James.

Milo Davis is very enthusiastic over Shorthorn cattle. Who could blame him with the sets of the handsomely well cared for registered individuals in the county? He keeps his animals in a picture of health. Milo also has 1 1/2 acres of early Eureka potatoes that are looking fine.

Worth Fletcher is another of our boys who is in both the livestock and farming business. Worth is in contact with real ranch life for they have 12,000 head of sheep on their place. A shipment was made on June 15 of about 1,000 head and another will be made this month. Worth was looking forward to a trip to the markets with one of these shipments with much interest. Worth also started in to raise five acres of potatoes but had difficulty with both his ground and his seed. Most of one planting died in the ground. We hope the other patch will come out all right.

Arthur Goodrich has about two acres of beans, part of which did not come up well. He felt quite disappointed over the stand but hoped to convert the poor part over to beans and continue both as his project.

Ralph Hall is raising four acres of Carmen and Gem potatoes. He has got a father had start but will probably have a good yield.

Lynn Hlemplemann will no doubt become quite a horticulturist though he says he likes general farming also. Lynn is an intensive farmer. Upon less than a half acre he has three rows of raspberries (all rows 50 yards long), one row of grapes, eight rows of popcorn, four bushes of roseberries, one-sixth acre of Burpee Stringless beans and several fruit trees consisting of pears, cherries, peaches, apples, plums, apricots and nectarines. Lynn puts in his constant time hoeing, cultivating, watering, gathering, fruit, and pocketing the money.

Kenneth Hlemplemann does not believe quite like his horticultural brother so entered more extensive operations. Kenneth is raising three acres of Carmen potatoes which show that they had had fine care.

Davis Harper is one of the most progressive farmers of the whole tract. He is a farmer with the "push" and the "nerve" to make things count. Davis went two miles from home and rented four acres at $60 per acre cash rent. Any one wishing to see Davis will find him right there on the job most any hour of the day—maybe at night too but I have not had occasion to call upon him at that time. Davis is a worker. He has 1 1/2 acres of Silver King field corn, 3-4 acre Routhport, W. Globebrand Pritchard onions, 3-4 acre Early Ohio potatoes, 1-2 acre devoted to Golden Bantam sweet corn and Copenhagen cabbage, and 1-2 acre consisting of butter beans and Rocky Ford cantaloupes. The ground was all irrigated well before planting. As a result all crops have made a remarkable start from the very start.

This is one of the finest projects of all.

Ray Holloway has 2 1-2 acres of Burpee Stringless beans of the best in the county. They show that they have had the attention of a real farmer. The ground is kept in excellent condition.

Pay Holloway has three acres of Black Valentine beans which are doing fine. Pay is taking a great interest in farming operations.

Francis Juhn started a livestock record but since he was in club work with that decided to take over a plot of potato ground as his project. Everett Jain, also in Club work, started over and has taken over a large acreage of beans as his project. These brothers have their record books up in fine shape.

Paul Kopt is one of the most energetic and successful young farmers and workers in the county. He is the kind who will make the pennies grow into dollars with only half a chance. Paul is growing one and nine-tenths acres of Early Evergreen corn for de-hydration. This has been contracted for at $20 per ton, including shuckers. Paul secured a poor stand and had to replant. This has given quite an uneven stand. Paul was duped badly on his seed, it germinating less than 40 per cent and was quite discouraging to him. He also had one-fourth acre G. S. pod beans, three-eighths acre cabbage, Golden Bantam sweet corn, Early Eureka and Gem potatoes, tomatoes and raspberries all in excellent condition.

DID THE BEST BOAT LOSE?

Along with the natural satisfaction felt by Americans over the results of the big yacht race, it might as well be recognized that the victory is not altogether glorious. Many impartial critics on this side of the water, as well as on the other side, do not admit, with game Sir Thomas, that "the best boat won." They insist that the cards were stacked against Shamrock IV. from the start, as they have been stacked against every other challenger for many years.

The New York Yacht club, under whose auspices this and previous championship races have been sailed, makes the rules of the contest. The club has been criticised as unfair, particularly in its rule that any European yacht contesting for the America's cup must cross the sea under its own power. That was all very well originally, when racing yachts were really fast sailing ships, not mere cockleshells. In recent decades they have developed into freak craft good for little but speed.

This is emphatically the case with the Resolute, and with several of her cup-defending predecessors. The builders could make them fragile, because they were not subject to the stress of weather on the high seas. But the challenger has had to be made stronger to withstand the Atlantic voyage.

Thus Shamrock IV., like the other Shamrocks, was necessarily a heavier type of boat than her rival. Though adhering to the racer type, she seems to have been essentially a heavy-weather boat. She is said to be at her best in a blow, as the Resolute is at her best in a light breeze. And it was thus, in all probability, that she lost the cup.

The challenger had two races to her credit when the race of July 24 was called off because a 25-mile "gale" was blowing. It was called off at the request of the Resolute, which had no reef-points in her mainsail, and was afraid to take a chance on that much wind. Lipton's boat was built for such weather. She could have reefed down and stood it, and according to expert yachtsmen, would almost certainly have won. Lipton did not have to yield, but he did. Sportsmanship, or courtesy, thus lost him the coveted cup.

Before the next race, there ought to be a change in those rules giving a challenger yacht a fair chance, allowing it to be towed or carried across the sea, or better still, insisting that both contesting yachts be built for open-sea conditions. The latter arrangement would be getting back to real sailing, and do something for the art of wind navigation.

AIR MAIL RECORDS.

The second assistant postmaster general has sent out to all superintendents of the air mail service, a compilation of figures showing the performance of mail planes during the month of May. In the New York-Washington field 72 per cent of the trips were started on time, 85 per cent were completed on time, 93 per cent were accomplished without forced landings and 100 per cent without damage to plane. In the New York-Cleveland field 51 per cent of the trips started on time, 86 per cent were completed on time, 93 per cent were without forced landings and 98 per cent without damage to plane. The figures for the Cleveland-Chicago and the Chicago-Omaha fields are similar.

A plane must leave the field with 15 minutes of schedule time if it is to be counted as starting on time. To finish on time a Curtiss R-4 plane must make its trip at the rate of 75 miles per hour for the elapsed time between take-off at initial field and set-down on field of destination. There are other prescribed rates for other planes. Forced landings for gas or oil or any other cause pull down the percentage of on-time arrivals.

To complete a trip without forced landings, the flight must be made without interruption by any cause, whether mechanical trouble, gas or oil replenishing, weather, etc. To complete a trip without damage to plane there must be no damage of any character to engine or plane in taking off, landing, taxiing or in flight.

Considering the strictness of these requirements, the air mail service may be regarded as having made an excellent record. The failure of the field managements to attend promptly to reservicing of the planes is chiefly responsible for pulling down the average of flights completed on time. In general, pilots, mechanics and field supervisors have done very creditable work, and their records are really better than the figures seem to indicate. When the field management has been improved to an equal degree of efficiency the air mail service will make still greater progress.

THE FREEST COUNTRY.

China, says an enthusiastic traveler, is "the freest country in the world." A writer in the Central China Post admits it, and gives some illustrations that dull somewhat the edge of appreciation.

Liberty of speech and press is so complete, he explains, that it permits blackmail without redress.

The use of public highways is so free and unrestricted that it is not unusual to find a public road dug up and planted in vegetables, or obstructed by a house built on it.

Choice of occupation is so free that anybody who can live by begging is allowed to do so, and beggars take possession of public buildings in bad weather, and camp, unhindered by the authorities, at the door of any merchant who refuses them alms.

There is freedom in sickness. Any citizen is freely permitted to catch any kind of disease, and when a man falls sick of smallpox, typhus or other infectious ailment, his friends and neighbors are at liberty to crowd into the patient's room by day and night, and do so, thus helping to spread the infection.

A similar freedom is found even in death. When a man dies who has no near relatives, whoever happens to be burdened with the corpse can put it in a box and deposit it, without any formality, by the roadside. It stays there until the box falls to pieces, or some good Samaritan volunteers to bury the body.

Liberty is a grand and glorious thing, but there seems to be such a thing as having too much liberty.

VICTORY MEDALS.

There is a curious situation as regards the Victory Medals issued for the soldiers and sailors of the world war. The war department had several millions of them struck off, so that every man entitled to one could have it. Preparations were made to distribute them at the rate of 35,000 a day. Since the distribution began, on June 21, only a little over 50,000 of the medals have been issued. The service men are not applying for them.

Application is easy enough, too. All that the eligible veteran has to do is to make a request, in person or by mail, at the nearest army post or recruiting station, accompanying it with his discharge papers, which will be returned. But few will take the trouble.

The fact is that the average American cares mighty little about medals. The service men are proud of their records, but do not feel like advertising the matter by flaunting baubles of any kind. It is a praiseworthy mingling of self-respect and modesty. They might consider, however, that their children and grandchildren would prize these medals highly.

Connecticut is said to be praying for school teachers. The teachers ought to retaliate by praying for Connecticut—asking that the state be endowed with enough wisdom and liberality to pay the money necessary for an answer to its prayer.

The reality of the "sugar shortage" may be judged from the fact that up to date American sugar imports have been several hundred million pounds greater than last year.

While Ohio and Virginia quarrel as to their respective merits as mothers of presidents, New York and Indiana may fight it out as to which is the veritable mother of vice presidents.

We notice that General Villa is "wanted" again. There's no accounting for tastes.

WILSON ISSUES PROCLAMATION.
 WASHINGTON, President Wilson's institutions and upon our development and progress as a nation in a proclamation issued Aug. 4, "suggested and requested" that December 21 be celebrated throughout the United States as the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock in 1620, and appointed Samuel W. McCall and Richard Broder of Massachusetts and George Foster Peabody of New York as members of the pilgrim tercentenary commission.

The president's proclamation follows: "My fellow countrymen: December 21, next, will mark the tercentenary of the landing of the pilgrims at Plymouth Rock in 1620. The day will be becomingly celebrated at Plymouth under the auspices of the Plymouth Pilgrim Tercentenary commission and at other localities in Massachusetts. While this is proper and praiseworthy, it seems to me that the influences which the ideals and principles of the pilgrims with respect to civil liberty and human rights have had upon the formation and growth of our institutions and upon our development and progress as a nation in a proclamation issued Aug. 4, "suggested and requested" that December 21 be celebrated throughout the United States as the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock in 1620, and appointed Samuel W. McCall and Richard Broder of Massachusetts and George Foster Peabody of New York as members of the pilgrim tercentenary commission.

FRIEND LEAVES HIM LEG.

SAN FRANCISCO.—James W. Phelps has disposed of his crutches and is walking about the streets of San Francisco on an artificial leg left to him by his old friend Henry Marsh.

The men became friends through a common affliction, the loss of the left leg. Marsh was better fixed financially than Phelps and was able to buy an expensive artificial leg. He used to lend it to Phelps occasionally and finally proposed that if he died first Marsh should have the limb. On his sudden death recently the leg was turned over to Phelps.

AULT GOES AFTER JAMES E. STEVENS

Youth Will Be Brought Back to Face Charge of Breaking His Parole.

A bench warrant was sworn out yesterday for James E. Stevens, and John R. Ault, juvenile officer, left for Walla Walla, Wash., last night, where Stevens is now located.

Stevens, according to reports, was convicted on a charge of forgery on February 1, 1919, and sentenced to a term of 1 to 14 years, but he was paroled to Mr. Ault on the same day. Stevens, who is from Buhl, returned to his home there and immediately forged more checks and then left the state, going to Washington. He was convicted of forgery in the state of Washington and sentenced to serve a term in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla.

The term is served at Walla Walla is about completed and the state of Washington is preparing to release him. He will be brought back to Twin Falls, it is said, where he will be tried on the charge of breaking his parole.

GOVERNOR COX WILL TOUR THE COUNTRY

Will Carry Doctrine of True Democracy to the Length and Breadth of Land.

By the Associated Press.
DAYTON, Aug. 6.—Governor Cox will carry to the country in a few days, on speaking tours continuing until November, the democratic gospel he will outline here tomorrow in accepting his party's presidential nomination.

The governor announced after conference with party managers that he would speak throughout the middle and eastern states until September 3, and then tour the entire west, including the Pacific coast.

"We feel that we can win," he said, "wherever folks are and where the case can be made. State lines don't amount to much."

The governor's speaking plans were arranged with party managers that he would speak throughout the middle and eastern states until September 3, and then tour the entire west, including the Pacific coast.

"We feel that we can win," he said, "wherever folks are and where the case can be made. State lines don't amount to much."

The governor's speaking plans were arranged with party managers that he would speak throughout the middle and eastern states until September 3, and then tour the entire west, including the Pacific coast.

Consideration of the campaign organization and greeting democratic posts arriving for tomorrow's notification ceremonies overwhelmed Governor Cox today. Dayton was filling rapidly with throngs expected to furnish a crowd of 50,000 tomorrow at the Montgomery county fairgrounds and the city was lavishly decorated.

Among organization announcements of Chairman White were selection of San Francisco for Pacific and Rocky mountain headquarters, with Senator K. Pittman of Nevada, in charge. They will open in two weeks.

Mr. White said, declaring the democrats have "good reasons to hope to win" in both mountain and east states. He also was announced that Senator Walsh of Montana, on September 1, would succeed Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, as chairman of the democratic senatorial caucus.

Mr. Walsh probably will divide his time between New York and Chicago headquarters.

Practically court martial. By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Any person upon whom sentences of imprisonment have been passed in Ireland could be conveyed to and detained in any prison in the United Kingdom under the terms of the Irish coercion bill which passed the third reading today in the British house of commons.

The bill was announced here today by the British embassy. This section of the measure applies to persons already sentenced as well as those who may hereafter be sentenced.

In general, the new law would transfer the duties of crown tribunals in Ireland to court martial. The military courts also would take over duties of coroners and would have the power to decide cases without jury.

main weapons of the soviet troops during their recent advance there. The artillery was not brought into play, as there was no ammunition for it, it was declared.

The Russians have British, German and Japanese rifles, but they are short of cartridges to fit them, according to the reports. Their cavalry is excellent, but the infantry is said to be tired, badly clothed and sometimes short of food.

LEAVING WARSAW.

WARSAW, Aug. 6.—Plans of foreign legations to evacuate Warsaw are proceeding with a rush. The French, British and Austrians have requested a special train for Friday, while the German legation has a special train for its employees and German subjects at Warsaw, which is expected to depart Friday night.

Evacuation of the prisoners has already begun. Civilians are protesting as far as the allroads can accommodate them. Even freight cars are being brought into use for families with household goods. Trains are departing with people hiding on the roofs and hanging from the standing room inside.

CHECK BRIGANDS.

SHANGHAI.—Brigands who have terrorized the upper reaches of the Yangtze river in recent months found a sudden check upon their activities when American and British gunboats were dispatched into the upper river from Shanghai, according to reports that have filtered back to Shanghai.

The gunboats were sent up to Chinking after a band of outlaws took possession of the Robert Dollar II, of the Robert Dollar company of Shanghai at Wanshen in Kiechuen province, and were frightened away only by the timely appearance of the American gunboat Pals which came to response to distress signals.

The Robert Dollar II, on the maiden voyage of the new up-river service to the Dollar company, is returning, was fired upon from shore after the first encounter. Messages to Shanghai said that the bandits vanished into the hills on the appearance of the gunboats.

IN BRITISH SHIPS.

MANILA.—British ships carried nearly one-half of the total foreign trade of the Philippine Islands during the month of May, according to figures given out by the bureau of customs.

Out of the total foreign trade of $30,850,000, exports and imports for the month, vessels flying the British flag handled shipments valued at $9,850,000, while cargo cleared in United States bottoms amounted to $9,027,000.

The Japanese were third, their ships carrying merchandise valued at $4,400,000. The balance of the foreign trade was handled by vessels under Dutch, Spanish, Chinese and Philippine registry.

SHIPPING BOARD HAS A STUPENDOUS TASK

WASHINGTON.—Disposal of more than 1,500,000 tons of wooden shipping—404 vessels of various types—built as a part of the government's war time merchant marine program is one of the most difficult problems facing the shipping board.

Twenty-one of the craft, aggregating 82,900 deadweight tons, were offered recently, but no buyers were found. Only 13,667 tons of wooden cargo ships are in operation. Seventy-three are tied up at various ports under management of caretakers and 130 are in storage. One hundred and seven of those in "storage" are finished hulls while 35 are converted barges.

Officials of the board say that when the serviceability of the wooden fleet has been demonstrated in turning it over to private owners at about $90 a ton. These vessels were built in a few months of war time timber, and some of them made poor showings a year and two years ago, $25,000,000 so that if they are not sold now they have "no reason" to be sold.

Officials of the board believe that the best solution is to sell the wooden cargo carriers, "because of the heavy expense of some ships would be something like $100,000."

VOLUNTEERS ENLIST IN JEWISH ORGANIZATION

JERUSALEM.—Ten thousand volunteers, chosen from veterans of the world war, the Jewish legion and skilled workmen, to enlist at once for 18 months' service in a Jewish industrial army in Palestine, are necessary for the latest reconstruction work of the Jewish National Home, according to Bernard A. Rosenblatt, president of the American Zion Commonwealth, who is now in Palestine in the interests of "Balfour," the colony of the American Zion Commonwealth.

Mr. Rosenblatt recommends a regular army organization with a general staff of three which, as a Jewish industrial commission, will supervise the work of the Jewish labor army in rebuilding the Holy Land.

"Our biggest task, once the call is issued for volunteers, will be in lifting out the applicants and determining upon the 10,000 to go," he said. "They could all be occupied in the one task of building house for future immigrants. The army should work only on land belonging to the Jewish nation, lands secured from the Palestine government—from the Jewish National Fund, the American Zion Commonwealth or other agencies of the Zionist organization."

In addition to the construction of houses, he points out that such an army is already in Palestine in the co-operative groups, working on the lands of the Jewish national fund and in the group that is developing "Balfour," the first colony of the American Zion Commonwealth. He concluded: "I am convinced after two visits to Palestine that only through such a huge disciplined Jewish labor army, for instance, will we be able to reconquer the land of our forefathers."

The law safeguards and in some measure prescribes the relation between a bank and its client, just as it does between business partners.

But, as in a business partnership, if the relation is to be really worth while legal obligations must be supplemented—bank and client must work together. You will find this institution a good business partner.

WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER MUST BE EXAMINED

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Elimination of the wholesale liquor dealer as a means of simplifying prohibition enforcement appeared a possibility tonight with the announcement by Prohibition Commissioner Kramer that the issue of wholesale permits in the future would be "rigidly restricted."

Mr. Kramer declared the wholesale traffic presented the greatest problem with which enforcement officials were confronted. Wholesale dealers, he asserted, resorted to subterfuge which perplexed government agents and which made the dry law difficult to enforce. This was said to have developed consideration by the interior revenue bureau of a plan by which the quantity dealer would be driven out of business entirely and the liquor transfer made direct from bonded warehouse to retailer or consumer.

Although no decision has been reached, the approaching period when wholesale licenses are re-issued for the next year is expected to bring the question to head. Applications for wholesale licenses must be in the hands of federal officials by October 1, giving the government the three months to investigate the responsibility of the applicant. Officials said that regardless of the bureau's decision with respect to elimination of the wholesaler, the number of licenses issued for the coming year would be smaller. In event the government permits the wholesalers to continue in business, it was said a policy of investigating the record of applicant and "all of his affairs" would be employed.
