

PENNANT WINNERS WILL RESUME BATTLE TODAY ON CLEVELAND DIAMOND

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 8.—(Safe) encamped upon their own reservation, the Cleveland Indians, American league pennant winners will renew their battle for world series baseball honors tomorrow. The Brooklyn Nationals, conquerors of the Speaker tribe in 2 out of 3 of the eastern games, are likely to find their rivals a far different combination from that which fell twice before the attacks of the Robins at Ebbets Field.

Cleveland fairly radiates confidence tonight and the Indians cannot fail to be inspired to greater baseball play by the calm assurance and backing which refuses to concede further defeat for the home team. Every atom of world series atmosphere, so utterly lacking during the first three games in Brooklyn, has reappeared at the western end of the circuit. Cleveland and its citizens are prepared to show the baseball world what home backing and rooting will do toward uplifting the players' morale and putting a winning punch into the attack of the Indians.

Matter of Erie. The world series is an event not to be considered lightly in this section of the U. S. A. The honor of winning a major league pennant and the opportunity to compete for the championship of the baseball universe is not a club affair. It is a community and civic matter of pride and cooperation. Consequently Cleveland has seen its duty and is doing it in a manner befitting the responsibility of the occasion.

The Cleveland club must win the average citizen cannot help, but up to the moment the umpire calls "play ball" he can so charge the atmosphere with winning psychology that defeat for the invaders is but a matter of routine performance.

This is his duty as he sees it and it is being done with a thoroughness and efficiency which bodes ill for the Robins, unless they are impervious to the mental blight of Old Doc. Psychology upon which learned college professors and other intellects may place such reliance.

Cleveland has concentrated her mind upon winning and for fear that the community mind may be overwhelmed upon Uncle Robbie, and his eastern opponents, the entire Great Lakes and midwest section is rushing to its assistance.

Rooms Unavailable. Although the baseball amphitheater holds less than 50,000 spectators, fully half of that number of out-of-town fans are here tonight clamoring for a place to sleep and a chance to buy a ticket at any price. Rooms are unavailable except in private houses, for every hotel is quartering twice its normal quota. Tickets are still to had but at a high cost. Single seats for Saturday's contest were offered for sale at from $15 to $25, according to location. Despite the efforts of the club officials to discourage the practice, sales were readily made all afternoon on a bidding basis. In such an atmosphere of enthusiasm, it is not surprising that the spirits of the badly clawed Indians should promptly revive upon their arrival here. Chief Trip Speaker and his warriors, once felt the familiar trials under their spiked moccasins, chanted their war cry with renewed vigor and proclaimed that a Cleveland Indian has never defeated until his scalp lies in dust.

Wilbert Robinson, the Robins' leader, had his Brooklinites out for preliminary maneuvers in the Cleveland wigwam this afternoon. All he would say was: "We have the winning edge now and expect to hold it." (Cue followers who have viewed the battles to date with impartial eyes express the opinion that the super-pennant will be won and lost on the piling of Brooklyn. Those who lean strongly to the belief that the home team will win out here, give the Indians three games and the Robins one, which would still send the players back to the east for the final battle.)

Much as expected to depend upon the manner in which the Brooklyn players react to the real world series rooting which they are sure to encounter at the coming games. Speaker is expected to start Covel, who, when turned back the National league in their first game, failed the championship. The latter has had three days rest and is reported to be eager to repeat his initial victory. Robinson will probably select either Jeff Pfeffer or Al Mannux.

AIR SHIPS FLY TOO LOW. THE HAGUE.—So many continental air plane lines now cross Holland that some of the Dutch cities have adopted ordinances to prevent the air liners from flying so low as to become a source of danger. An ordinance adopted by this city requires the air pilots to keep more than 500 feet above the level of the city.

HOLD CARPENTER FUNERAL. The funeral of E. H. Carpenter, who was accidentally killed on the Campbell Smith ranch Wednesday, took place at the chapel of the F. J. Grossman undertaking establishment at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body was shipped to Cambridge, Ohio, this morning.

of this year by the superintendents of the two schools with the result that a two year series was arranged, the first game to be played at Boise, Idaho. The game is expected to be more interesting because it will probably have a direct bearing on the championship of the state. This will be the first time that the two teams have met, "contests" having failed of consummation in previous years from various causes.

LEGION MEETING IS GREAT SUCCESS

State Adjutant Albert Returns From Cleveland National Convention of Service Men's Organization.

L. P. Albert, state adjutant of the American Legion, who has just returned from the convention in Cleveland, states that the affair was a great success, in spite of the fact that many of the delegates were inclined to be peevish because of the extremely hot spell. Among the important subjects on which action was taken were the bonus bill, the Japanese immigration question, the stand that the legion should take with regard to labor disputes, increasing compensation for wounded men, and a plan to decentralize the federal board of education and the War Risk Insurance Bureau.

The bonus bill was reintroduced with only a few changes and practically stands as presented to congress by the legion, carrying the five plans of which the veterans could choose one and only one. These provisions call either for added pay of $1.00 or $1.25 for each day of service, decrease in the rate of pay, or a lump sum of $10,000. The Japanese immigration act was condemned and resolutions passed regarding the "gentlemen's agreement" between the United States and Japan. It was also recommended that there be a thorough investigation of conditions on the Pacific coast with a view to alleviating them. The stand taken by the convention on the latter question was non-interference in all disputes between employers and employees.

Perhaps the most important action taken was when a resolution was carried recommending that the War Risk Insurance establish and maintain district branches. The resolution provided that the district officials should have full power to pass on all claims presented to them. Another motion was passed to increase compensation for wounded men and to afford better training facilities in the vocational education schools. Over a hundred bills were submitted to the committee on resolutions, but only twenty were considered.

The Idaho representatives were as follows: State Commander L. F. Bracken, Adjutant L. P. Albert, Fred Cummings of Twin Falls; A. M. Worthwhile and M. W. Wood of Boise; Otto Blackaby of Homedale; A. H. Fox of Wallace, John Surbridge of Pocatello, and C. S. Wilson of Driggs.

THE JAPANESE QUESTION

Negotiations between the United States and the Japanese governments with reference to the immigration question are entering upon "the serious stage," according to Baron Sakatani, former Finance Minister. The statement has been cabled around the world.

Japanese immigration, however vexing sectionally, has never been a major issue in American life. It is aggravating to the Pacific coast, where it might become a menace. In Japan it is altogether unimportant, save for the point of honor.

The Japanese islands are crowded, but there is plenty of room for racial expansion in Korea and Manchuria. It is pride that complicates things.

The Japanese have come through three wars in twenty-six years past, and have given a good account of themselves in each. They have shown an astonishing aptitude for the material civilization of the Occident. They are very sensitive.

The Japanese government, just now, is in a situation of peculiar difficulty. The peace conference did not give the Nipponese all that they desired. The readjustment of finance and industry to meet peace conditions has not been easy. The demand for political and economic reform is insistent and noisy. It threatens to become riotous.

The Japanese government plays the old game. It argues volubly the question of emigration to America, making much of the phrase "racial equality" and of Japan's place among the nations. The Japanese people are all attention. The industrial unrest and the demand for political reform merge into the background.

It is the old story. When governments are in difficulty and domestic problems seem incapable of satisfactory solution, it is always customary to throw off the critics by directing attention to foreign affairs.

Presently, we may feel sure, the two nations will reach an amicable agreement. In Japan it will undoubtedly be hailed as a diplomatic victory.

By that time the harassed Japanese government should have found some other "vital issue" for Tokio to talk about.

THE TWO DOCTORS

"I have two doctors," said George MacAulay Trevelyan, "my left leg and my right. When mind and body are out of gear, and those twin parts of me live at such close quarters that the one always catches melancholy from the other, I know I have only to call in my doctors and I shall be well again."

Between summer's languor and the bitter winds of winter lies the season which God gave mankind for walking. The air is clear and bracing, the ground dry under foot. Sick indeed must be the patient who cannot be cured of his mental and bodily ills by an autumn walk. And fewer people would have to pay fees to registered physicians or take bad tasting medicines if they were better acquainted with the treatment prescribed by old doctors Right and Left Leg.

THE WRONG REVOLUTION

The Mexican's delight in revolution is proverbial. He takes pleasure in guns and gun play; in uniforms; in military rank, if not in military discipline. He revels in loot—in fact, in almost everything that soldiering affords. But he has comparatively little love for work.

Yet the Mexican has his own ideas about revolution, and he insists on strict adherence to the rules of the game. He must have military revolution with all the trappings. Industrial revolution means nothing at all to him.

Witness the I. W. W.'s latest and most amusing failure.

The I. W. W., always ambitious, laid its plans for a great strike on October 1 which should start in old Mexico and become general throughout the North American continent. Orators and organizers went over the border in swarms to prepare the way. They shouted from hundreds of soap-boxes—if there be empty soap boxes in Mexico. They whispered into thousands of ears. Then, on Sept. 26, they called upon the workers to assemble in preliminary protest.

There were gatherings in many cities, for it is always easy to get a crowd when men are idle, but the Mexican government, knowing its people, did not interfere. The gatherings did not last.

No one appeared in gold lace or brilliant uniform. No one offered to pass out free firearms or cutlery. The crowds went home.

There is to be no general strike in Mexico, which shall sweep northward across the continent. The I. W. W. agitators are off to more fertile fields. The Mexican is a specialist in revolutions—of his own kind.

THE PRIDE OF NORTH DAKOTA

If poor old Malthus who used to worry about the over-population of the earth is where he can hear the news now coming from North Dakota, he probably sheds a tear or two. But Malthusian tears do not bother North Dakota. In April there were 952 births and 476 deaths in the state. In May the record was better; 1,238 births and 366 deaths. In June, there were 4,022 births and only 295 deaths. The secretary of the state health board gave out a statement fairly bursting with pride:

"The doddering old fool with the glass and scythe will have to get a whetstone and show more pep if he wants to stay in business in North Dakota. The climate conduces to longevity. Life and health are in the prairie air. Only 7 persons died of tuberculosis throughout the state in the three months covered by the report. "Where is there an area of similar extent on the American continent that can beat that record?"

Kansas may boast of its corn, Louisiana of its sugar, California of its prunes and Ohio of its candidates. But none can brag with better right, for when all is done and said, the best crop of all is that of babies.

MEMORIALS OF PEACE

War memorials are common in every town and hamlet, and it is right that they should be, but what most communities lack is memorials of peace.

Every region has its points of historical interest. There is the site of the first church or school—perhaps the very building itself, weatherbeaten and old; the tree under which Indian parley was held, or the famous resting place on the old pioneer trail. When such places are plainly marked with tablets of brass or stone, the traveler can recognize them, and the townspeople can become conversant with them and with their town history.

New England is fairly well sown with such markers, but as the course of history takes its way westward there are many gaps which patriotic citizens would do well to supply.

Sources of civic pride which will be a revelation await searchers for points of local historical importance; riches of interest and education lie in their discovery and visible designation.

PROGRESSIVES FOR COX

Ben B. Lindsay of Denver, Francis J. Heney of California, and thirteen other progressive leaders who were active in the Bull Moose party, have issued an appeal to former members of the party to support Cox for president. The appeal states that Cox is a progressive and Harding is a reactionary.

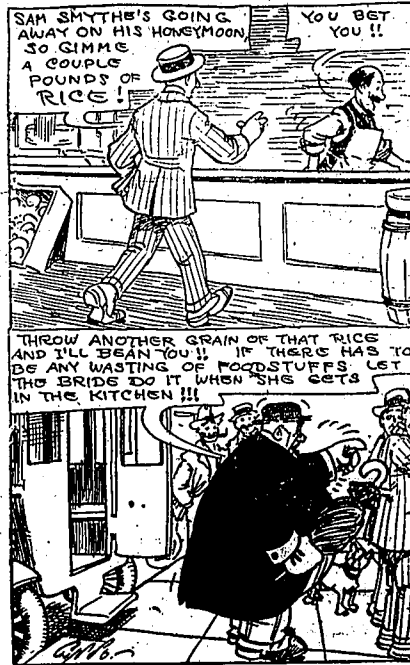

Francis J. Heney, former leader in the progressive movement, has taken the stump in California in support of Cox and the League of Nations. Heney took this action when Hiram Johnson, throwing aside all his years of fighting reactionism, came out for Harding because Harding is against the League.

It is commonly known as the "fall of the year," but after this record descent in prices this will probably be known as the "year of the fall."

Good roads are a device whereby the farmer is enabled to sell his product to city men without leaving his front yard.

Now they're making paper umbrellas. Next thing it will be paper galoshes.

ROOSEVELT SAYS LEAGUE IS ISSUE

Refutes to Harding Criticism of Government; Declares Monroe Doctrine "scrappped" with League

By The Associated Press. DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 8.—Replying to Senator Harding's criticism of the league of nations from the same platform less than 48 hours before, Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice presidential nominee, addressing an audience in the coliseum here tonight, charged that the republican presidential candidate has "scrappped" the Monroe doctrine along with the league.

"The die is cast," he said, "The issue is joined. Three months have passed in the attempt to establish out-determination that the United States shall under no circumstances join hands with forty-one nations to end future wars. From now on the existing league of nations becomes the overshadowing issue in this campaign.

Foreign policy to which Senator Harding has committed his party means that the United States cast its lot with Russia, Turkey and Mexico. With the exception of Mexico we have cut ourselves off from every American empire. Nineteen of our associate republics in the pan-American union have bound or are about to enter the league.

"It is a momentous decision that Senator Harding has been driven to. From now on his leadership is that of 'little Americanism.' Of Chinese wall isolationism in American against the world. In November the American people will vote, not on the mere question of who is to be president for the next four years, but on the proposition affecting the future of the United States for generations to come.

COX MAKES GAIN IN RECALL STRAW VOTE

The latest returns in the straw vote being taken all over the country by the Recall straw, shows that Cox has made a gain of three electoral votes. DeWahl has swung over to the democratic candidate by a very small margin, breaking the hitherto solid republican ranks of the East and West. The score in the electoral vote now gives Harding 24 and Cox 178. Cox still holds his slight advantage in Missouri. Idaho state has cast 4,851 votes for Harding and 2615 for Cox. Of the former ballots 3,686 were cast by men and 1,265 by women, while the men gave 1,251 to the latter and the women 632. In the immediate vicinity of Twin Falls the vote stands 490 for Harding, 223 for Cox. The votes apportioned by sex are for Harding, 271 men and 119 women; for Cox, 193 men and 30 women.

CITY CLERK MINNICK CORRECTS STATEMENT

In an article recently appearing in the Chronicle concerning the report of the city agent inspector submitted to council, a statement that "a deplorable condition exists in the local slaughter houses" was erroneously attributed to W. A. Minnick, city clerk. Mr. Minnick states that he made no such statement in connection with the report but merely gave the figures of the meat inspector without saying whether a "deplorable" condition exists or not in the local slaughter houses.

LEGION RECEIPTS $3,945

As yet no exact figures have been reached as to what was cleared at the festival given by the American Legion but the receipts, so far recorded amount to $3,945.

Expenses will not exceed, at the most, $3,500, and will probably be much lower. The balance of the proceeds at about $2,500, stating that these figures are a very conservative estimate.

MARSH PUBLIC LETTERS REGARDING PAROLE PROTEST

OSTON, Oct. 8.—Congressman Frederick W. Dallinger yesterday made public correspondence with Secretary of War Baker regarding his protest against the parole of Lieut. Frank B. (Hard) Hollett, South, who was found guilty of cruelties to soldiers of the A. E. F. at prison camps in France.

"If it is true that you are responsible for 'hard boot' Smith's parole, it simply means that your conception of justice is sadly distorted," the congressman wrote. He made this statement, he said, because of his intimate knowledge of conditions in the United States and because of "men who have shown no vicious tendencies, but who have simply committed infractions of military discipline, are still suffering punishment."

He cited one case in which a soldier struck a sergeant while intoxicated is still serving a sentence reduced from 25 years to 5 years, adding that "it is a travesty on justice to keep a man behind the bars until he is entitled to parole under the law; and at the same time parole Smith because authority exists in his case."

General Peyton C. March, former chief of staff, admitted before the congressional investigating committee. Mr. Dallinger wrote, that "crucifix" signs, than were known in the Siberian region, displayed under the car had been perpetrated on our boys in the A. E. F. Only one of the officers responsible has been found guilty. A great majority of them were given honorable discharge.

Congressman Dallinger's letter also confirmed a previous telegram of protest which he wired to Secretary Baker on October 2, out of which the secretary in a letter to him said it seemed incredible he should have sent.

HOLD UP GUARANTY PAYMENT TO RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Treasury payments to railroads under guaranty provisions of the transportation act will be held up under a ruling today by Comptroller of the Treasury Warweck until final accounting of losses sustained during the guarantee period is made. Official estimate put approximately $600,000,000 was involved.

Carriers have already received about $130,000,000 under the guaranty provisions paid in the form of advances against estimated deficits incurred prior to September first when the guaranty expired. Mr. Warweck's decision held that failure of any road to have obtained adequate advances was no fault of the treasury, and therefore that Secretary Houston was not compelled to make further payments "piece meal."

"I think the law contemplated the adjudication and final settlement of these claims as soon as practicable after the expiration of the guaranty period," the decision stated. "The needs of certain carriers for funds is recognized, but his office may not construe the law to authorize the payment of public money except in some cases authorized by law no matter how urgent the needs of claimants."

To permit payments "piece meal" would entail a never ending revision of the carriers' accounts, the comptroller said, adding that it must be assumed that since the law made provisions for protecting the government where advances were made against estimated deficits prior to the expiration of the guaranty period, the decision stated. "The needs of certain carriers for funds is recognized, but his office may not construe the law to authorize the payment of public money except in some cases authorized by law no matter how urgent the needs of claimants."

QUESTION IS "LEAGUE OR NO LEAGUE" SAYS HITCHCOCK

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 8.—Senator O. M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, in an address here tonight said that the question for this country now was not whether the Americans would like a league of nations "formed on a different theory than the one established at Versailles," he asserted. "It is not a question whether you may prefer something a little different. You can't get it. Either we are going in with the other nations or we are going to stay out."

He declared that no single line in the league covenant justified the assertion that an attempt had been made to form a super-world government and denied that under article 20 of the United States would be ordered against its will into war. This article, he said, applied to the world the principle of the Monroe doctrine.

HIGH SCHOOL TAKES GAME FROM JEROME

Local Football Men Continue Winning Streak and Beat Opponents 56 to 0

The football team of Twin Falls high school continued on its winning way when it defeated the Jerome team by the one sided score of 56 to 0. The game was played at Jerome.

The defeated lads, however, put up a much stiffer game than was looked for, since they had previously been beaten by Filer, which school was defeated by an even worse score of 0 to 6. The game was played at Jerome.

The defeated lads, however, put up a much stiffer game than was looked for, since they had previously been beaten by Filer, which school was defeated by an even worse score of 0 to 6. The game was played at Jerome.

Conditions on the playing field were such that it was impossible to stage an open attack, the ground being so soft that speed was out of the question and it was even difficult to obtain a sure footing. Old style football prevailed throughout, only three forward passes being completed, two by Twin Falls and one by Jerome.

It was a good hard, clean game, according to Clint Evans, local coach. He said that both the Jerome principal and the coach of the opposing team had complimented him after the game on the sportsmanlike conduct of the local boys.

CORN CROP TO BE LARGEST IN HISTORY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The 1920 corn crop promises to be the largest in the history of the country by more than the ninety million bushels.

A yield of 3,216,152,000 bushels, compared with the average annual production of 3,124,746,000 bushels in 1912 was forecasted today by the department of agriculture from a condition of $9.1 on October 1. The yield would exceed that of last year by practically 200,000,000 bushels. Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri will contribute practically all of the increase.

Warm and dry September weather, free from widespread killing frosts, aided the maturing of the late crop and during the month the prospects for this year were increased by $5, 000,000 bushels. The frosts near the end of the month did little damage and the great bulk of the crop is now safe on that score, government experts said.

Spring wheat is threshing out poorer than had been forecast because damage principally from rust, had been less than anticipated. The yield was estimated today at sixteen million bushels less than was forecast a month ago, this loss reducing the combined winter and spring wheat yield to 750,848,000 bushels, about 150,000,000 bushels below the big crop of last year.

Threshing of oats confirm the earlier forecast, the indicated yield being 1,444,352,000 bushels, almost 200,000,000 bushels more than last year's yield.

Although the tobacco crop showed a loss during September of 75,000,000 in the expected yield, the forecast of 1,489,788,000 pounds is 89,000,000 pounds larger than last year's production.

A bountiful crop of potatoes also was forecast, the yield being estimated at 414,986,000 bushels, an increase of 2,523,000 bushels since September first.

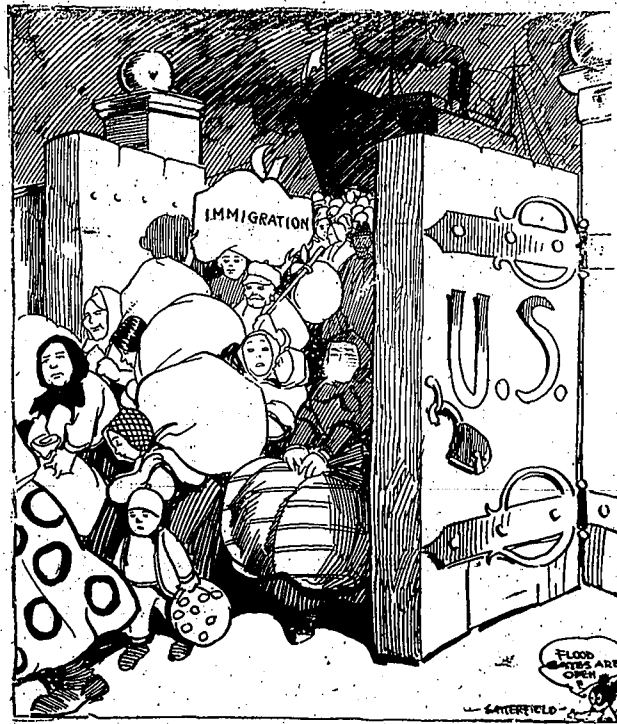

WILL OPERATE MAIL ROUTE THROUGHOUT ENTIRE WINTER

SALT LAKE CITY.—Mail will be carried over the Pacific division of the transcontinental air mail route during the entire winter, Colonel John H. Jordan, acting division superintendent and chief of construction for the United States aerial mail service, said upon his recent arrival here from San Francisco.

"There may be occasional delay because of storms, but schedules will be followed more closely than on the railroads," he asserted. "The planes on the Atlantic coast were operated last winter virtually without detention and I can see no reason why conditions as good or better will not prevail in the intermountain country."

"As soon as more machines can be procured from the manufacturers they will be placed on this part of the route so that full service can be maintained. There is a steady growth in the amount of mail being carried by airplane and the southern states are insisting that a route be operated to that region. If congress will appropriate the money I believe such a route will be started and it will be a matter of only four or five years until new routes are apportioned to other sections of the country.

Mr. Jordan's visit to Salt Lake is to secure improvement of landing facilities. He says the construction of a large hangar here to house mail planes is a possibility.

ASK UNRESTRICTED ACCESS TO ALL PARTS OF WORLD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Equality of service and unrestricted access to all parts of the world were set forth as the object to be sought in international communication by Under Secretary Davis today in welcoming delegation of the five allied and associated powers to the first preliminary session of the International Communications conference. Questions of strategy and selfish interest would not be supported by public opinion, he said, in the cooperative effort to increase communication facilities for every country.

Delegates from France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan and the United States have participated formally with joint allied powers since the conclusion of the Versailles treaty. It was called by President Wilson some months ago with the approval of congress and as a result of the election of the council of five in Paris, in 1919 to leave the allocation of the German cables and wireless affecting international communications to such a body.

"Able from agreeing upon the allocation of the cables ceded by Germany, which is one of the primary questions to be settled at this conference, Secretary Davis declared, "it is believed this conference will also be able to arrive at a common understanding relative to more important aspects of the problem, namely the increased efficiency in existing cables and unhampered facilities for the es-establishment and maintenance of additional cable and radio service throughout the world."

FINANCIAL CONFERENCE ADOPTS FINANCIAL REPORT

BRUSSELS, et. 8.—The International financial conference today adopted unanimously the report on public finance, which contains the results of the work of the past two weeks by the conference. A first step toward the organization of a permanent commission for collecting and distributing information about the financial situation of the different countries are the final results of the conference.

The full conference expressed the hope that the forthcoming assembly of the league of nations will take up the question of the reduction of armaments. Meantime, however, the council of the league will endeavor to obtain results by direct appeal to the different countries.

The much discussed question of a tax on capital was left to the discretion of the various countries without recommendations. The conference recommended that each country make efforts to stop extravagance and waste.

ROGERSON JOINS DRIVE FOR BONUS

Enthusiastic Meeting Held and Many Come Forward With Subscription for Railroad.

Active work toward raising its portion of the bonus for the construction of the Idaho Central railroad was initiated in Rogerson Wednesday night, when a party of railroad officials and business men addressed a meeting there. The speaker fully explained the proposition and the advantages that would accrue to the territory with the coming of the railroad, and met with a most enthusiastic reception.

A prominent stock buyer, well known throughout the west, was at the gathering and made the astounding statement that if the proposed railroad were now in operation he would be able to pay stockmen in the district. It would serve an increase of from one-half to three-quarters of a cent per pound. This increase is now impossible, being contingent upon a direct outlet to California, which, he said, the proposed road would provide. The gentleman stated that he knew one stockman whose cattle he had bought would have been richer by over $1200, on a herd of 225 head, had he been able to pay the larger amount.

A subscription blank was immediately sent the rounds, and in a few minutes $1240 was contributed. Rogerson's share of the bonus is $25,000. Committee work will get under way at once.

The following additional men are among those who have given toward $75,000 quota: T. F. Reed and Ice Company; Stirling Creamery, Twin Falls; Healy company, W. A. Smith, C. E. Lind, J. P. Denny, C. R. Fugate and F. G. Leichter.

MANY STREET PARADES OCCUR DAILY IN BRUSSELS.

BRUSSELS.—American visitors to Belgium this summer were greatly struck with the almost incredible number of brass bands marching in the hundreds of street parades, celebrations of one sort or another, which occurred almost daily at Brussels or Antwerp.

In enjoying her first period of peace since the war, Belgium is observing every possible fete day and each of these seems to call out literally scores of brass bands, each parish or each workman's organization seeming to have one. Bicycle tourist clubs also have them, mounted on bicycles, and even fishing clubs, off for a Sunday holiday with pole, hook and line, take their museliens along.

One Sunday morning, a day of church fete parades, the correspondent counted 88 bands, passing his hotel during the morning.

BORAH ENDORSES SPEECH HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 7.—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, in two addresses here tonight, gave his complete endorsement of Senator Harding's Two Minutes address in which the republican presidential nominee definitely declared himself against the league of nations.

"One thing is certain," he said, "if you had read the speech delivered by Senator Harding today in the great state of Iowa, you would know that so far as Senator Harding is concerned, he will never give his influence once as president of the United States to join any league which impairs in the slightest the independence or the sovereignty of the American republic.

Market News

Grain

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Wheat went sharply lower in price today with pressure heavy from the big Canadian surplus and with reports continuing as to domestic offerings. The market closed unsettled at 4 1/2 to 6 1/2 c net decline with December $1.08 1/2 to $1.24, and March $1.20 3/4 to $1.31. Corn lost 1/4 to 1 1/2 c and oats 5/8 to 7/8. In provisions the outcome ranged from 36¢ setback to 2¢ advance.

Beers had the advantage in the wheat market throughout the day especially in the late dealings when it appeared that free offerings from Canada were finding an outlet here and at other domestic centers. Slow news of export demand for United States wheat counted also as a depressing factor and so too did word that export liners were heavy sellers at Winnipeg.

Cargoes of grain were with wheat, December corn ratcheting, the lowest price yet this season.

Although advancing at first swing to an upturn in the hog market, provisions later were weakened by the action of grain.

RUSSIAN BAGGAGE MAN ASKS HIGH PRICE FOR WORK

LONDON.—The banded baggage man on the platform of the Kazan railway station in Moscow, demanded 100,000 rubles for unloading from a car the baggage of fifteen British officers and the Associated Press correspondents who arrived in Moscow in July after a journey from Siberia across Russia. It had taken 10 minutes to him and a dozen other men to do the work.

The British officers were prisoners. They had been members of the Allied railway organization in Siberia under John F. Stevens, the American engineer, and had been captured by the Reds at the same time as Colonel Blunt and his party in the district of Novonikolaevsk, Siberia, in November, 1919. The Americans had been released and left Russia through Vladivostok, but the British officers were sent to Moscow.

"What man demands rubles for unloading baggage?" exclaimed Major R. E. Vimey, R. E., ranking officer. "We can't pay it; we're prisoners; we haven't the money." And he appealed to the man for release.

"I'll take 100,000 rubles for unloading baggage!" shouted the Bolshevik commissar in charge when informed of the situation. "Show me the man," he demanded. He was directed to the group of baggage men.

"I'll pay you 100,000 rubles," he said sarcastically. "Yes, I'll pay you, so-called," using the Russian word indicating time, present or future, usually some indefinite hour in the distant future. "What man are your names?"

"And now you, Ivan Tsvonitch, and you, Peter and Nicholas and your companions," said the commissar when the names had been given. "You all are under arrest. You are servants of the state and you have no right to ask money for your work."

There were violent exclamations; raised waving of hands; fearful exclamations that the daily ration of black bread wouldn't keep a mouse alive. "Bread is 1,000 rubles a pound," said one. "One hundred thousand rubles is 10 pounds of bread each of you. Long ago, before they eat war, 10 pounds of bread cost only half a ruble and what is that for handling a foreigner's baggage?"

The baggage men went to jail for speculation; the British officers went to prison for counter-revolutionary activity in Siberia, and the American reporter went into house arrest for being in Russia without permission. Only the Bolshevik commissar remained free.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys' clean, like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of Water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will cut fire. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble.—ADV

FAMOUS ROMAN FEAST DAY

May 24 Has Been for Centuries a Day of Merrymaking in the Italian Capital.

Though the night of May 23 was "witches night" in Rome no serious incident was reported, next day. The witches which by an broomsticks bewitched the ancient hills of the Quirinal and Esquilina apparently were afraid of the broom and the host-of-salt put outside so many doors and went home in despair.

May 24 is St. John the Baptist's day, and always kept by children, the Romans as a day for eating sweets. Sweets are the Roman idea of the feast which St. John the Baptist ate when in the desert. But why witches should try to take possession of Rome on the night before his feast day is a mystery. They do fly about on broomsticks, says popular report, and salt and a broom alone will keep them out of homes.

By some hidden law which the Roman women don't try to account for, no witch will enter a house before which stand a basin of salt and a broom until she has counted every grain of salt in the basin and all the grains in the broom. As the witch gives up the task in despair, knowing she could never finish her job before sunrise.

The night of May 23 is a great night for the Roman people; they gather in the fields outside St. John the Baptist eat snails, dance, sing and throw flowers at each other.

An old modern note is given by an enormous merry-go-round, opposite the ancient church dedicated to St. John the Baptist, where the children and young Americans, ruffians, fox trots and bunny-hunch. It is a mixture of old and new worthy of that extraordinary city, where all the centuries get jumbled up together and make for the best of both worlds.

The May night festival is older than John the Baptist and marks the tradition of the old Roman springtime festival called the Lupercal. The Lupercal were in honor of the wolf which fed Romulus and Remus, the twin founders of the city. A real live wolf is kept in the capitol till this day in honor of the festival.

Legends were in honor of the wolf which fed Romulus and Remus, the twin founders of the city. A real live wolf is kept in the capitol till this day in honor of the festival.

A little more than 12 hours remain.

In that short period candidates in the Chronicle's mammoth prize-giving event have their last opportunity of landing votes on the "double quick" and literally clinching the prize they desire.

Never in Twin Falls county has a race of any kind been so extremely close or so hotly contested. This fact has undoubtedly served to arouse the wonderful interest that is being taken throughout Idaho in the final dash for the wire. It is doubtful if there exists a single home in the community that is not vitally interested in the success of one of the favorites in the battle, and watching every gain with anxiety and eagerness, hoping and trusting that their choice may come under the wire first and be acclaimed the champion of the champions, the proud winner of the big automobile.

Tonight (Saturday) at 11 o'clock is the last chance for the big vote. Promptly at 11 o'clock the doors of election headquarters at the Chronicle office will be closed. No one will be permitted to enter the campaign headquarters after that time for the purpose of turning in subscriptions or renewals on the present vote offer. Those inside at that time, however, will be voted on before the present vote offer is closed forever.

Attention, Candidates.

Be careful in filling out your subscription stubs, always writing or printing the name of the subscriber plainly so that there will be no mistake in calculating subscription. Candidates should not neglect to sign their names to the stubs, so that proper vote credit will be given. In case of a second payment subscription, be sure to mark the stubs "second" subscription, marking also the amount of the first payment when made.

The special attention of the out-of-town candidates and those who may work out of town (conspicuously) is called to the arrangement that has been made which affords every worker the advantage of securing subscriptions right up until the last minute of this "PERIOD" (11 O'CLOCK TONIGHT) in matter where they may reside. All subscriptions placed in ANY postoffice ANSWERED before 11 O'CLOCK TONIGHT will be counted in on the big vote schedule even though they did not reach office of the Chronicle until later.

And Now for the Rubbers

Don't forget the big vote value of the 25-year subscriptions. A six-year subscription costs you 300,000 votes now—over 12 times as many votes as a one-year subscription. Gather in all the votes from advertising possible. And on top of the present big vote schedule 100,000 EXTRA FREE VOTES are allowed on every "club" of subscriptions turned in.

One of the whole country and surrounding country are upon the "valiant" workers—watching them as they push the finish.

WATCH THEM GO!

names involved are the average grower's association, and Bruce annual water supply, the duty of Lemmon, state organizer, attended to, and that all settlers have an interest in the Farm Bureau of Jerome county last night. The object of their visit was to attempt to interest Jerome county in the cooperative movement and to explain fully just what the organization plans to do and what it has done.

Dr. John E. Whitte, head of the local branch of the Idaho Wheat Growers' association, and Mr. Lemmon, who was formerly county agent of Power county, organized the work there, and stated that it has been a great success. He called attention to the fact that when he quotations on wheat in the open market was $1.83 a bushel, he sacked, the Power county branch at $2.00 a bushel at $2.10 in bulk. Sacking the grain, he stated, makes an added cost to the farmer of about 8 cents per bushel. This rule was observed on September 29. The same men will meet with the executive committee of the Farm Bureau of Twin Falls county at 2:30 this afternoon and take up the same question. It is planned to tie up all the wheat in the county, and as many other products as can be distributed in the same way.
