

SECRETARY COLBY SAYS ROOT WRONG

Asserts "Plain Misstatement of Fact" in Recent Address

DECLARES STATEMENT INVERSION OF TRUTH

International Court of Justice a "Lifeless Thing" is Claim of Statesman

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Secretary Colby issued a statement tonight asserting that there was a "plain misstatement of fact" in the recent address made by Elihu Root, dealing with the league of nations covenant.

"Mr. Root's statement that article ten is an attempt to carry over and continue for all time, at any part of the organization to preserve peace, the exercise of power by the conquering nations is a plain misstatement of fact," Mr. Colby said.

"The idea of an international court of justice, to which one party to a political organization of the world powers, for the first time gave the court a background and a promise that its decrees will be effective. If there is one thing which the war has taught the nations of the world, it is that the projects discussed at the two Hague conferences for restraining war, and the peaceful regulation of international conduct, were utterly valueless and illusory."

JURY INDICTS BALL PLAYERS

Indictments Returned Alleging Thirteen Persons Implicated in "Throwing" of World Series Games.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Indictments against 13 persons believed to have been implicated in the "throwing" of games in the 1919 world's series by Chicago-American players were returned today by the special Cook county grand jury which has been investigating the baseball scandal for more than a month. Further indictments are expected when the jury convenes again next week, state officials declared.

All of the indictments charge conspiracy to commit an illegal crime for which a penalty sentence can be given under the laws of Illinois. Indictments against ten of the men named today previously had been voted, but were recalled to become legal technicalities under the other three—Abe Attel, Hal Chase and William Burns—had only been unofficially mentioned in connection with the investigation.

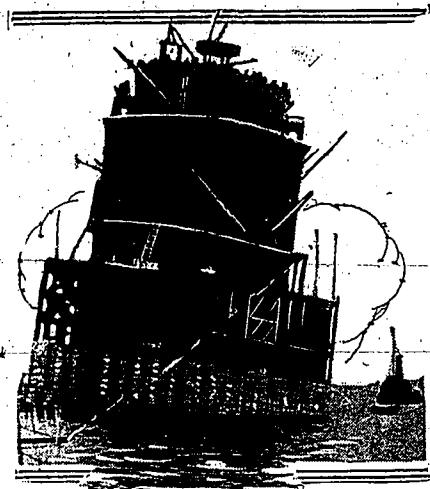

Chase and Burns, former major league players and Attel, once the featherweight boxing champion of the world, have been accused by witnesses of being three of the cliques which "framed" the world series and arranged to bring Chicago White Sox players for sumo bids to fringe from $2,000 to $10,000 to try to lose games in the contests for the world's baseball championship.

According to testimony presented, "at least several hundred thousand dollars" was "paid" and "won" on the world series. Chase was the first man to suggest "throwing" the series, it was said, and called in the others to help him. Harry Long, a Chicagoan, told the jury he alone paid $27,000 in bets on Cincinnati for "Sport" Sullivan of Boston and testimony has been received concerning many other large bets, it was said.

Besides Chase, Attel and Burns, today's indictments covered two alleged partners, Sullivan and a man known to the jury as "Brown" and eight players owned by the Chicago American League club against whom true bills previously had been voted. They were Joe Jackson and Oscar Felsch, outfielders; Ed Cicotte and Claude Williams, pitchers; "Rube" Risenberg, shortstop; "Chick" Gandil, first baseman in 1919, but who is not in the big league this year; Fred McMurthy, utility infielder, and "Buck" Weaver, third baseman. Williams, Jackson and Cicotte previously had made sworn confessions before the jury. Cicotte said he was given $10,000, while Williams said he received $10,000 which he split with Jackson, who confirmed the statements of the two pitchers. Weaver announced that they will fight the case and contest the suspension placed on all eight players by owner, Charles A. Comiskey.

Officials of the state's attorney's office today revealed sufficient of the jury proceedings to show that testimony has been given that Chase, who was expelled from the major leagues and barred from league parks in the

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salt if Your Back Hurts or Urinary Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidneys. They are a reservoir from which uric acid gets through and full to overflowing. The waste and poison from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, fever, troubles, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorder come from impure kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jui Salta in any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of wat-before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jui Salta is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent beverage which, if used for some time should take new and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

ROOT EXPLAINS COURT PLANS

Tells of Accomplishments of International Committee Towards Formation of Tribunal

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Ellhu Root in an address tonight before the Bar association of the city of New York explained for the first time some of the accomplishments of the international committee of which he is a member toward perfecting plans for a permanent court of international justice.

Mr. Root laid emphasis on the upward step taken at the conference at The Hague, this year, when a basis was laid for determining what international disagreements are truly justiciable, and means for insuring that such cases should come before an international court with jurisdiction to settle them according to principles of law.

The term "justiciable" as applied to certain international difficulties had been used only in a vague sense in the treaties for arbitration negotiated by President Taft, Mr. Root said and it was one of the most serious problems of the committee on which he set to define the term as applied to international law.

The older system of "The Hague tribunal" he explained, functioned along lines of diplomacy rather than of strict justice, and there was a tendency to compromise rather than adjudicate disputes between nations with principles of law and justice.

This Mr. Root said, was another feature which present plans eliminate in favor of a more strictly judicial procedure.

He said the plan provides that the international court shall decide cases "strictly according to law, having no consequences take effect of themselves." Nations with disputes to settle may, under the league of nations, either "consent" through representatives in the assembly or submitting differences to the court of arbitration, or lacking such consent the question automatically goes to the court for settlement.

Degree of The Doctor.
One of the manufacturing concerns of Akron, O., has established a school of tire repairs and the institution is so popular that it has been found necessary to increase its capacity, which is about to be done.

This institution has averaged 35 graduates a month since last August. Every graduate of the school receives a diploma, certifying that he has finished the regular course of instruction, consisting of lectures, textbook study and practical repair work. The student is first made thoroughly acquainted with the details of tire construction before he is actually trained in repair work. Repair stocks, methods of all descriptions, air bags, vulcanizing machines and methods, common sources of tire trouble, etc., are among the subjects taken up. The chief instructor said his opinion was that the school are thoroughly experienced men from both factory and retail business standpoint.

Air Photography.
No camera is probably being developed so rapidly as the camera apparatus used in photographing from aloft. The ordinary camera are of little use for work at high altitudes. The height plays curious tricks upon the camera. A picture taken from a height of 10,000 feet may be later, while the photographer rises several thousand feet the earth may appear perfectly distinct. The latest forms of aero camera are often six feet in length and must be equipped with most delicate adjustments unknown to ordinary apparatus. It is held by means of handles at the sides and rested (for it is very heavy) on the edge of the airplane—"Boys' Life."

He Needs a Ducking.
A New York show dealer with a perturbed sense of humor stands to lose a lot of friends because of the "clever" advertising idea he has placed in effect. In his show-window he has placed a number of currency one-dollar bills. Signs announcing such prices as $4, $5 and $6 are attached to each show. The joker lies in the fact that when the would-be customer goes to the window to see a certain show he is informed that the price is "that much for one show."—Exchange.

Nature Kind to Snake.
A queer African snake, which lives on eggs, has a tooth-like spike projecting downward from its backbone, just behind the head, which is tipped with enamel. When it swallows an egg the interior passes down the gut until it encounters the spike, which breaks the shell. No part of the fluid contents is lost, as would be the case if the snake were obliged to bite the egg with its mouth-fangs.

DECLARES ARTICLE TEN GUARANTEES WOMEN'S SAFETY

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 22.—Senator G. N. Hitchcock, speaking at Dartmouth College tonight said that in his article on the meaning of the league of nations he had stated that the league of peace of the world. He said the league was the only real issue of the presidential campaign and urged the election of Governor Cox as "the only sure means of ratifying the peace treaty with Germany and of securing our admittance to the league."

He charged the Republican campaigners with attempting to mislead the mind of the electorate with lies and misrepresentations concerning the league.

LANGUAGE OF RESOLUTIONS CAUSES HEATED DEBATE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The language of the resolutions framed by the foreign missions board and urging removal by unnamed governments of "wartime restrictions" on missionary activities provoked heated debate today at the biennial convention of the United Lutheran church. They were finally sent back to the board for re-drafting.

Throughout the discussion no specific reference was made to nationality of mission workers said to be imposed by the restrictions, nor to the "government" imposing them, in which the resolutions were aimed, Jr. L. B. Wolf, of Baltimore, secretary of the board declared, it was a "ticklish matter" and that he could not "speak with a great deal of freedom."

BODY OF JOURNALIST WILL LIE IN STATE

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The body of John Reed, the American writer, who recently from typhus, will lie in state all week in the labor temple of Moscow, according to a dispatch from that city to the Daily Herald. A guard of honor composed of 14 soldiers of the Red army will keep vigil. Burial will take place on Oct. 24 in the most hallowed spot in Russia, by the North Kremlin wall. The government has arranged to hold the funeral on a holiday so that all the workers in Moscow may attend.

Is It Pseudo-Science?
Human intellect is so partial to a generalization that even men of science constantly are guilty of generalizing upon an insufficient basis of facts. A learned professor of the University of Cincinnati invites us to believe that the older the parents the better the chances of distinction for the children.

He draws his conclusion from what he says are the facts concerning cattle and horses, only the other day we read a dissertation by another scientist warning against taking for criterion the history of the domestic animals, asserting that the human race, as far as heredity is concerned, is as much a wild species as lions, elephants, or wolves.

The Cincinnati savant also derives his induction from the facts concerning the percentage of illustrious men, Franklin, Lincoln, Newton, for instance, the sum of whose parents' ages at their birth was high. Yet it is a fact that the mother of Napoleon at the time of his birth was but eighteen and his father scarcely thirty.

The illustration can be repeated many times.

Make Study of Botulism.
A sum of money has been raised by the olive growers and the canning industry for an intensive study of botulism in California. According to Science, the investigation will be conducted in the laboratories of the Stanford University Medical school and the George William Hooper Foundation for Medical Research of the University of California, and the co-operation of the United States health service and the California state board of health. The investigation will include a careful study of the soil, water, and the bacillus botulinus in nature, of the ways in which food materials may become infected, and of the steps necessary to destroy the organism when it has infected raw food materials. A staff of specially trained workers has been engaged and it is expected that the work will require at least two years.

Impressing the Office Boy.
"The secret of success, son," and the boss to the office boy. "It is the complete concentration of time to business."
"Yes, sir."
"In our establishment, we never look at the clock—never look at the clock."
"I won't, sir."
"That's right, my boy. Never look at the clock when you're at the office. Never look at the clock except in the morning, look at the alarm clock, son. Never look never at home, make a man independent. That'll do, son; now get the duster."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"We are still seeking," said the scientist, "to ascertain the exact purpose for which the pyramids of Egypt were constructed."

CHEYENE, Wyo., Oct. 22.—Flying at a rate of 123 miles an hour, Pilot Pickup brought 365 pounds of mail from Cheyenne making the first non-stop flight between these two cities, made by mail plane. He covered the 483 miles in three hours, 40 minutes.

SLANG PHRASES FOUND IN CLASSIC

Variety of Terms by Many Thought to be Now Can be Found in "Don Quixote"

"They now spurred on toward the inn, and soon overtook on the road a young fellow, leaping it on the hoof pretty leisurely." "No, no, it shall never be said of me, the eaten bread is forgotten, or that I thought it working for a devil horse, because I am paid in advance." Extracts from a recent version of "Don Quixote" written 400 years ago.

In a recent reading of "Don Quixote" I have been struck by the fact that it is a vast storehouse of what we fondly believe to be American slang. And this is not by any twisting of the sense; the terms are used precisely in their modern significance. It is true that I do not read the book in its original tongue, but the translation is that of Peter Anthony Motteux, and was made more than 200 years ago, so that it has a fair degree of authority. The English merchants who sailed in London after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, picked up a remarkable knowledge of homely, idiomatic English, and his language is always racy of the soil.

"The inn from now you will lose your labor," says the Knight of the Sorrowful (not Rueful or Woeful in Motteux) Countenance to Donna Rodriguez, and this is one of his favorite phrases. "I had a mind to cavilize some of his chicanery," he says, "but I brought before Sancho his governor of his island of Barataria for judgment. When Altisidora sang her mock serenade to the incorruptible and unyielding knight, she declared herself a girl, palmer's a nice chicken." And thought that Dulcinea "well may brag of such a kid." "I had not cared a pin-though she had died of the dip," was Sancho's philosophy, and he begs his master not to "die merely of the mullet."

The squire complains that he had been "frobrosed by above four hundred Moors," and admitted that it was not for "such scrubs as myself" to be mentioned the same day with knights-errant.

Although by his own admission a mere clown, Sancho says, "I know what's what, and have always taken care of the main chance." He tells his master that the latter "had the wrong saw by the ear," his "belly chicanery," he is "cucksure," he believed that the giant in the adventure of the wine skins had "gone to pot," and he reproached the knight for some "palming snatches" in his besting. One of the galley slaves would have gone free for 20 deniers "to have gressed the recorder's fist." The don decides his niece that she should "preclude this in her ear and cease the histories of knights-errant."

Motteux finished Sir Thomas Urquhart's partial translation of La Celestina. The Frenchman and the doughty Scotch cavalier had equal knowledge of one another's language, and the latter's English (thin in these two master translations)—Frank W. Hoyt in New York Evening Post.

Flying Fox Australian Pest.
The flying fox has appeared in South Australia as a new fruit pest. Farmers have killed quite a number of these creatures. A correspondent at Port Wakefield writes: "This morning some crows, while near the rifle range, put up a flying fox, which took a direct course for the river, about a mile distant. The crows followed, but when the fox looped the loop amongst them they quickly flew in another direction. The fox then appeared to drop nearly 5 feet wide across the wings. It had a fair amount of speed on the wing and much resembled a bat. The flying fox, so-called because of its fox-shaped head, has been previously found in other parts of Australia and is sometimes known as the fruit bat."

An Everlasting Memorial.
Nature has a great part in this lasting and beautiful memorial, that is to be erected to the local service men in the city of Santa Monica, Cal. It is to be a large open-air theater, and will take the conventional Greek form, with seats arranged in concentric tiers, the orchestral area in the center and pillars at the bottom of the tiers. As in the conventional theaters of ancient Greece, the site and background will be a beautiful wooded hillside.

The level area in the center will be floored with mosaic stone work. This beautiful tribute to the service men will, no doubt, be the pride of the citizens of this city for many years to come.

SKAGGS

The retail distribution of food products, like many other necessary enterprises has been completely revolutionized in the past few years. The Revolutionizing Process has been made less difficult by the keen alertness of the people generally.

Through the National Advertising mediums, standard food brands of the world have become household expressions.

Most people know that underselling competition does not necessarily mean LOWERING QUALITY. Such inference that SKAGGS STORES sacrifice quality, in order to undersell is resented by thousands of SKAGGS patrons throughout the Inter-mountain Country.

The thoughtless merchant who is constantly claiming "HIGHER QUALITY AT HIGHER PRICES" is challenging the judgment of the consumer. The enormous advantages attained by our tremendous volume of sales make it easy to undersell and yet maintain the HIGHEST STANDARD OF QUALITY.

OLD BATTLESHIP OREGON MAY END DAYS IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore.—Portland, Ore. will become the home port of the old battleship Oregon, veteran of the Spanish-American war, if the bill introduced by the Oregon legislature, passed by the state senate, is approved by the house. DIRTY TOWARD COX

Like a mighty tidal wave comes the sweep of public opinion toward Governor Cox and the League of Nations. It has taken the republican managers who nominated Senator Harding when they believed that they could elect anybody. All the money they have expended, all the energy they have put in the campaign, all the deception they have practiced will have gone for naught.

Governor Cox has from the first been for the ratification of the compact with any helpful reservations, and his firm stand and the absolute absence of motives other than to accomplish something for the people of this country, has won him hundreds of thousands of admirers.

APPOINT NEW MEMBERS OF SHIPPING BOARD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Five of the seven members of the new shipping board created by the merchant marine act were appointed today by President Wilson.

Admiral William S. Benson, chief of naval operations during the war, was reappointed chairman. The other four members named were: Frederick I. Thompson, a newspaper publisher of Mobile, Ala.; Gavin McNabb, an attorney in San Francisco; J. C. Gillen, an attorney of Wisconsin; and Theodore Marburg, publisher of Baltimore.

The appointments were not announced at the White House and it was not known whether the other two members had been selected.

Only one of the five members named today is a Republican—Mr. Marburg—and since the law specifies that only four of the members may be named from any one political party, the remaining two appointments must be Republicans. The members of the new board are to receive salaries of $12,000 a year and under the law they must devote all themselves of all shipping interests and devote all of their time to their work as shipping commissioners.

As two of the seven members must be named from the Atlantic coast; two from the Pacific coast; one from the Gulf region, one from the lake region and one from the interior, this leaves one appointee from the Pacific coast and the one from the interior still to be named.

NEW YORK MAY SUSPEND ALL PUBLIC WORKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—New York is ready to suspend all public works until it is learned if there is open competition in bidding for the work. This announcement was made late today by Mayor Hylan, when the joint legislative committee adjourned until November 4, after its counsel had asserted it had only scratched the surface in its investigation of the "building trust."

Developments in the building situation come in a dramatic turn today after Mayor Hylan had addressed the board of estimates, declaring that "the building trust is the milk trust, the coal trust and the other trusts have built a wall about New York greater than the Great Wall of China."

MEASURING HEAT OF STARS

Machines of Wonderful Sensitiveness Regularly Employed by Astronomers in Their Work.

Although it is but little known, thermopiles so sensitive that they will record the heat radiated by distant stars have been devised and regularly employed in astronomy work, says the Electrical Experimenter.

Dr. W. W. Coblentz of the United States bureau of standards has devised an extremely sensitive thermopile for this work, and this is built in an evacuated glass tube. This measuring instrument are registered infinitesimal fluctuations of temperature.

A ray of light may have started ten years ago from some distant star, and may have spent all of these ten years hurtling earthward-bound through space at a speed so astounding that it could girdle the globe in far less time than it takes to blink an eye, and yet when it falls upon the bolometer at the bureau of standards they will tell the observer how much heat that ray brought with it from the star to the earth!

As Silvanus Thompson points out, one of the most remarkable instruments of this type is the radio-micrometer devised by Vernon Boys. On this instrument a loop of fine silver wire is suspended by a quartz fiber, between the poles of a magnet, and this loop of silver wire has its circuit closed at its lower end by a piece of antimony and a piece of bismuth. A minute disc of copper foil. A rise of temperature in the copper foil, even so small as one-millionth of a heat degree, will generate an electric current in the loop and give a detectable current division of the scale on the instrument. With a heat detecting instrument of this type the radiant heat of a candle can be detected at a distance of two miles, or the heat of a human body at 900 yards.

"Oh, is it now?" ejaculated the woman. "But can you tell me," she asked, "promptly, whether it is the present or the late antique? I do get so mixed up."—Houston Post.

Lamb Skins From Greece.

Lamb skins were selling in Greece at the beginning of the present year at 95 francs a dozen, goat skins for 110 francs a dozen, kid for skins at 40 francs a dozen, and kid for gloves at 35 francs a dozen, according to a report by Trade Commission of the United States. Favorable terms offered by American ships are largely responsible for the fact that 60 per cent of these skins are being exported to the United States.

HAAT ATTACKS WILSON ADMINISTRATION IN SPEECH

BELLEVIEW, Ill., Oct. 22.—The Wilson administration was attacked as a "personal system of government" and Governor Cox, the democratic presidential nominee charged with affiliation with "the thug group in politics" by former President Taft in an address tonight.

"The issue the American people will vote on in November is whether they approve the administration of Mr. Wilson," he asserted.

Judge Taft declared that the election of Governor Cox would mean continuation of the treaty deadlock now existing in the country, he asserted, would adopt the same attitude that President Wilson has.

"The only possible hope of making progress toward a league of nations is secure peace is therefore by the election of Mr. Harding," he asserted. Expressions that Senator Harding has "scrapped" the league and "repudiated" it are unfair, he said.

MAN GOES TO DEATH OVER NIAGARA FALLS

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Before the eyes of a score of sightseers at Prospect Point today a man climbed over the railing, waded out into the river and was carried over the American Falls. Too astounded to act, the spectators stood by while the man drifted to the brink, waving his hand and shouting: "Here's where I leave you; goodbye!"

In a black derby had found near the place where the man climbed the railing was found a piece of paper on which was written, "This hat belongs to Carl A. Ellis, of Hamburg, N. Y. The description of the suicide corresponds to that of Ellis, who could not be located in Hamburg tonight.

G. O. P. SPEAKER FILLS THEATER

J. U. Sammis Fills President and Opposes League of Nations in Twin Falls Address.

Addressing a meeting which filled Lavington theater last night, J. U. Sammis, of Iowa, opponent of the league of nations, flayed President Wilson for alleged assumption of the functions of co-ordinate branches of the federal government, charged the democrats with waste and extravagance, and urged tariff revision upward for the protection of the product of the farms and factories of America.

The speaker opened with a criticism of Governor Cox for his methods of campaigning. He charged that the Ohio executive had not raised to the level of presidential standing in his utterances, and contrasted his utterances and speeches with those of Senator Harding, the republican nominee, which he said were in proper and character fitting to a man whose aspirations are for the highest office in the government of the American people. He referred in his talk on the league of nations to the Cox-Root controversy which has been occupying the columns of the newspapers for the past 24 hours. He covered the ground recounting the history of the covenant of the league of nations, the contest in the senate, and pointed to the fact that Senator John F. Nugent voted for it of the 14 Lodge reservations, including that affecting article ten.

He charged waste of funds in aviation construction, especially emphasizing criticism of expenditures in the forestry department getting out of shape.

The speaker opened his discussion of the tariff by recalling Governor Cox's statement in California to the effect that he favored a tariff on lemons for the protection of the California growers from the growers in Italy, and declared that if protection of California lemon growers was a good policy, then it must follow that it would be good policy for the government to impose through congressional enactment a law protecting by tariff schedules the wheat growers, the stockmen and others. He referred to the movement for an embargo on Canadian wheat, and said that such an embargo was but a temporary relief and not a cure; that adequate relief and permanent benefits could come only from tariff schedules the results of which would endure without a tariff, he said, farmers competitor with growers of the entire world, while under a protective tariff law they would compete only with their neighbors in their own country. He stated that upon the shelves of a grocery store in Wessell two other days there was found three hundred pounds of canned Argentine beef, being sold in competition with the beef grown in America on American farms.

We cannot compete with wheat from India and South America, he declared, when labor in those countries is a trivial cost and ocean going freighters will lay it down in New York for a less freight charge than that from the west to our east coast.

He also referred to the wool growers and their troubles, and said that Australian wool can be laid down in Boston for a less hauling charge than is required to move the same wool of our western states to that market. This, he declared, means a slow market for lambs and wool, and a consequent low price for hay and other feed for wintering stock. He declared that the democratic administration discriminated in favor of the south from which comes the democratic strength when it fixed the price on wheat, and left cotton to soar to whatever height demand might take it.

He criticized the administration for its policy in Mexico, and closed with an appeal for a continuation of our capital in Washington City against Geneva, Switzerland, and for the stars and stripes as a flag representing a league of nations.

applauded the speaker quite liberally. Mr. Sammis will speak at Bull to night, with Governor Davis.

WORKMEN DISCOVER BEAUTIFUL CAVE FORMATION

CHEYENNE, Wyo. — Workmen blasting for lime rock recently uncovered a beautiful cave eighteen and one-half miles west of Cheyenne, according to reports received here. The cave's roof, walls and floor were covered with stalactite and stalagmite formations which glitter brilliantly in the light. The workmen crawled through a ten-foot opening and came up on passage 100 feet long. At the end of the passage they found a chamber, 70 by 30 feet.

PROMOTE IMMIGRATION OF AUSTRIAN WORKMEN

BUENOS AIRES.—Immigration of Austrian workmen to Argentina is being promoted by Dr. M. Fuchs, former consul general of Austria-Hungary here, who has been sent back to this country by the minister of the interior of the Austrian republic to establish credits to be used in building up Austrian industries. Dr. Fuchs said that the decline in the exchange value of Austrian money makes it almost impossible for workmen to pay their own passage in order to emigrate. At the same time, he says, the condition of the republic is such that it is imperative to reduce the population of the country.

HARDING TAKES REAL HOLIDAY

Republican Nominates Moves Before Starting Work On Series of Speeches for Ohioans.

MARION, O., Oct. 22.—The last of his campaign swings outside Ohio completed, Senator Harding took a real holiday today before starting work on the series of speeches he will deliver next week in principal cities of his own state.

After his arrival here late in the morning on the special train which carried him on his excursion into New York state, he looked in at his office for only a short while and then left for a 40 mile motor ride to Mansfield and a refresh of golf.

It was the first time in several weeks that he had taken so complete a rest from the cares of the campaign. Although he appeared in perfect health, the strain of this speaking tour had left him tired and he said he wanted to refresh himself with some wholesome physical exercise before taking up the home stretch of the campaign.

Tomorrow the nominee will begin preparation of his final campaign utterances to be delivered on the last four nights of next week to meetings in Cleveland, Akron, Cincinnati and Columbus. No more front porch rallies have been booked, and these four addresses may be the only ones he will deliver before election day. It is considered entirely possible, however, that when he leaves Wednesday he will run into numerous rear platform gatherings locally arranged, and will supplement his four main speeches with many short talks of a less formal nature. The present plan is to make the Ohio circuit on a special train, not returning to Marion until Sunday. His managers consider that such a trip probably will mean an extensive rear platform program.

For instance, because of our low rates, Common Stock owners last year received less than 2 per cent interest on their investment. Yet, the full 7 per cent interest was paid on every dollar's worth of Preferred Stock that had been sold by the Company.

And that will always be the case. That is why your 7 per cent interest is always assured.

PRINTERS STRIKE IN PHILIPPINES

Native Workers on American Newspapers Quit Work to Aid Freedom of Country

MANILA, P. I.—For the freedom of the Philippines, native printers on American newspapers have struck and precipitated the bitterest anti-American feud since American occupancy began.

Angered by editorials and articles which savagely and embolden set forth the true conditions in the islands and which were printed when the congressional investigating party, on a leisurely tour of the far east, arrived, the printers walked out in a body.

While the three dailies consolidated and began the publication of a community four-page daily with the aid of soldier printers from nearby army posts, the strikers went to work for the native Philippine government.

Turkey Political

The strike was purely political and declared so by the printers in the following ultimatum presented when they struck:

"The undersigned employees of the printing department of the Manila Daily Bulletin (Times and Guide News-American) individually and collectively as workmen and above all as Filipinos, who love and revere our most sacred name as such; being wilfully and maliciously offended by slanderous assertions against our people and aspirations for liberty and independence, successively published since the arrival of our distinguished guests, members of the congressional party, we hereby respectfully and earnestly protest against those articles for we regard them as malicious, libelous, slanderous and misleading, which tend to create opinion contrary to facts and prejudicial to the Filipino people.

"As a sign of able earned protest we hereby abstain from working in your shop and printing your paper."

The substance and vagueness of the details of the strikers that the strike was engineered by Manuel Quizon, president of the Philippine senate and the foremost politician of the islands, makes newspaper owners here sure that he had a hand in the walkout.

Continual Strife

The printers admitted they were promised places in the government bureau of printing during the strike and they accepted the positions.

It is difficult for Americans in the homeland to understand conditions here. Since the coming of Governor General Francis Burton Harrison there has been continual strife between Filipinos and Americans. Americans have been thrown out of government positions, and Filipinos installed while a reign of graft and political corruption that would make a New York ward heeler smack his lips, has been under way.

Although the "Juan de la Cruz" which means "the common people" here, do not wish independence, the struggle is kept hot by the politicians and their propaganda.

There are 10,000 Americans in the islands and 10,000,000 natives.

RECKLESS AIR STUNTS OF LOCKLEAR NOT IN VAIN

CHICAGO.—The reckless aerial acrobatics with which Omer Locklear started the world until they resulted in his death recently in California have not been in vain, according to air mail service officials here, for they report Locklear's "stunts" have opened the way for important developments in commercial aviation.

Locklear's stunt of changing from one plane to another several thousand feet above the earth will be copied in the air mail service and by commercial aviation companies in changing racks of mail, packages or pilots from one ship to another, thus enabling aerial liner to make long journeys without landing, officials say. Some believe that within a short time airplanes may even take gasoline and supplies in the air.

When one of the mammoth airplanes which aviators believe soon will be common, flies over the continental states, a smaller plane will come up to meet it, the officials explain, and, by means of a rope, mail sacks or other packages will be lowered from the large to the small plane. By means of a long hook the large ship will take on baggage from the smaller ship and speed on to its destination.

Eventually it is expected that this plan will be perfected so that fuel supplies can be transferred from one plane to another, making a non-stop coast-to-coast trip possible.

Pilots will change planes in mid air by means of a rope ladder lowered from one machine to the other, just as Locklear did, it is explained.

The government has been conducting tests along this line for some time, officials here say, and one commercial aviation company is reported to be planning to put the scheme into effect within a few months in trans-ferred mail.

Senator Reed gives account of stewardship

SENATOR REED GIVES ACCOUNT OF STEWARDSHIP

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22.—United States Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, in a "personally conducted" meeting at Convention hall tonight for the purpose, he said, of giving an accounting of his stewardship, declared "no treaty ever gave the breath of life breathed into it except by the United States senate."

"The democratic candidate for president is for the present league of nations with reservations but nobody knows what they are. If he is elected I fear the influence of Woodrow Wilson," he said. "The republican candidate for president is for an association of nations but asserts he does not know what it will be. If he is elected I shudder at the influence of Elihu Root and the international bankers."

"Obviously America's interests demand the election of a senate that will spurn every form of internationalism."

JOHNSON DECLARES HIS STATEMENT MISCONSTRUED

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Oct. 22.—Declaring his statement today that he favored establishment of an "international forum" had been misconstrued into a reference to a new league of nations, Senator Hiram Johnson in a speech tonight asserted he is "taking no stand on any new league."

"Every normal man and woman listens and will do everything in his or her power to promote peace," he said. "I would be glad if there were an international forum, where, in the open, there might be debated problems affecting the world, but beyond that I cannot see that it is safe for our nation to go."

Senator Johnson declared there is "some disposition on foot to tie up Senator Harding with a new scheme in which no one can express an opinion before its details are known."

MEXICO TO ASK LEAGUE CHARTER

Following Recognition of Foreign Powers, Southern Republic Will Ask Admission to Council

By MILTON BRONNER

LONDON.—As soon as a majority of important powers recognize the present Mexican government, Mexico will ask admission to the league of nations, the Mexican embassy here told me today. In the meantime, no embassy representatives will be sent to observe league proceedings at Geneva.

League of nations officials inform me that to date Mexico has neither asked nor been invited to membership. The annex to the covenant of the league of nations specifically omitted Costa Rica, San Domingo and Mexico at the request of President Wilson.

Why No Objected

The president objected to Mexico's entrance because of general conditions in the country; to Costa Rica because of his objection to President Pinero and San Domingo because U. S. marines are in occupation.

One of the covenants provides for the admission to the league of any fully self-governing state, dominion or colony not named in the annex, if the admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the assembly. The covenant also provides that such states shall give effective guarantees of sincere intention to observe international obligations and accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the league with respect to the military, naval and air forces and armaments.

Nations expecting to ask admission have already given formal notice so that the permanent annual commission which is meeting at Brussels may go over its reports and determine whether the prospective member-nation has conformed to required provisions.

If Mexico now applied for admission, it was proposed by some other power, she might now be too late to be considered by the coming assembly in Geneva, unless her admission was made a special order of business and consideration rushed. This is unlikely.

Behind in Payments

Mexico is in arrears in payments of debts owed America, England and France and all interests of those countries are in dispute with her government. While the covenant makes no mention of these considerations, undoubtedly the league powers would give them weight.

Furthermore, while the United States is not a member of the league, the powers would be avowed to any move which might embarrass the United States. This is especially true when it is impossible to decide now what the relation of America to Mexico will be with a new president in office.

Costa Rica, through her minister to France, has filed formal application for admission to the league, stating that she maintains friendly relations with all civilized powers and has at all times observed and now has a sincere intention to scrupulously fulfill international obligations. She further states her population is peaceful and industrious, governed by just and liberal laws, and that she maintains only such military and police forces as are indispensable to assurance of respect for public order.

The Community Spirit

Twentieth century progress has given us thousands of things our forefathers lived without. Such things make it possible for us to support an ever-growing population in increasing comfort and plentifulness.

Modern progress is based upon cooperation. Each of us does those things we are best fitted to do well, and each of us is dependent in turn upon the others for everything else.

Only by all working together, the farmers and the city people, the merchants and the buying public, the manufacturers and their employees can we ever develop that true community spirit which will give all maximum prosperity.

City Council Discusses Means of Securing Camping Grounds for Use of Many Auto Parties

City council's meeting was shrouded in darkness last night when the city lights went out for a brief space, but so intent were those members of the public that nothing short of an upheaval could have turned them from their work, and the deliberation and discussion went on without a moment's cessation.

Asher H. Wilson and Nowell S. Wright appeared before council to present a report regarding a site for a permanent tourist auto camp. They reported that the property now in use temporarily can be purchased through J. S. Keel, the local agent, for $12,000. The ground in question consists of 25 acres and is considered the best site available for the object in view on account of its close proximity to the city.

Council was presented two plans of payment, one a straight cash transaction and the other a loan running for ten years with an initial payment of $2,000 and interest at seven per cent on the balance each year. An installment is applied upon the purchase price.

The committee suggested that the lower end of the tract of land could be formed into a swimming pool for the summer months and a small sink during the winter. The only question raised by the council was as to sewage which brought out the fact that a small portion of the 25 acres is now affected. The committee was instructed to ascertain what the cost of carrying out this work would be before the council could take any definite action.

Figures laid before council show that from the time the park was opened last May until October 18, 3107 automobiles had made use of the facilities offered. A conservative estimate made by one of the automobile publications places the number of persons to a machine at two. This would make a total of 6,214 persons who made utilization of the park during this short period.

There was some discussion as to the advisability of the city's continuing the practice of paying for the phone service of several of the local police. One member of the council called attention to the fact that the phone bill of W. A. Milnick city clerk, having their finding upon the fact that more than two-thirds of the time that official uses the wire on business pertaining to the city case.

RESUME OF WORK OF CITY MONDAY

A decision on the petition for the formation of the Murrumbidgee Irrigation district will be made Monday by the county commissioners.

In his report, W. G. Swendsen, superintendent of the Murrumbidgee project, while the feasibility and practicability of furnishing water to the proposed Murrumbidgee Irrigation district, said:

This department has recently given consideration to the possibility of obtaining power from the Murrumbidgee project, and has definitely at the conclusion of the matter up to the Murrumbidgee commission, which is not feasible and will prove unprofitable to pump water to a height of 150 feet for irrigation purposes on account of the excessive annual power charges due to the high pro rata of power consumption.

In the same paragraph, the petitioner indicates his intention to pump clean water from the federal government in the proposed American Falls reservoir. The records of this department disclose the fact that the federal government has, to date, indicated no right at American Falls to construct such reservoir or to appropriate such water.

COOPERATIVE STORE GIVES FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The results of the first four and one-half months operation of the Facilitated Cooperative Store were made public at a meeting last night. The gathering was rather small, this being due, according to Dr. John T. White, president of the store, to the conflict with the republican rally at the favoring theater.

Officials of the store announced that the percentage returnable on non-stockholders purchases above the same amount was two and one-half per cent. The total profit shown by the store and the terminal during the period of the report was $2,570.48. The proportionate share for the period was also set aside for the payment of the annual 6 per cent dividend to the stockholders.

According to John Wolfenden, the auditor, these figures are remarkably good under the circumstances, taking into consideration the unprofitable time at which the store commenced its operations and the many heavy initial expenses. The large loss on butter and eggs also reduced the net profits of the concern material, his statement said.

WESTERN CONFERENCE TEAMS BATTLE TODAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Five hand-picked Western Conference football teams are among the six teams which will have a 100-yard race for the Big Ten championship. Wisconsin plays Ohio State, last year's runner-up, at Columbus, Illinois, this evening. In 12½ minutes about an Art Arbor, and Iowa defeated by Illinois last Saturday after winning from Indiana earlier in the season, clashes with Chicago here.

The Illinois-Michigan and the Ohio State-Wisconsin contests are generally considered the most important, for those four elevens are all considered of championship caliber with little to choose between them. Victory for Illinois and Wisconsin or Ohio State would practically eliminate the defeated elevens for the race, while the loss for Illinois is looked upon as having an excellent chance to retain the championship won last year.

Michigan's strength is unknown, for it opens its conference season tomorrow.

FIRE DESTROYS BUSINESS HOUSE

Property of Nibley Channel Lumber Company At Fire Destroyed by Early Morning Blaze.

The building occupied by the Ellers Veal and Poultry company at Ellers was completely destroyed by fire yesterday morning about 6 o'clock. H. C. Van Ausden is the proprietor of the business, the structure being the property of the Nibley-Channel Lumber company. The loss is estimated at $3,000.

Mr. Van Ausden, who discovered the blaze, is at a loss to account for its origin. The flames were well advanced when the discovery was made and the two-story frame structure burned rapidly.

It was only through the heroic efforts of the fire department that the blaze was prevented from spreading into a general conflagration, as the destroyed building adjoined the lumber yard of the Boise-Payette Lumber company on one side and R. H. Good, painter's planing mill on the other. Both of the adjacent properties were in danger at one time.

The proprietor of the marketing business placed his loss at $3,000, of which $2,000 was covered by insurance. All of the household goods on the second floor, which was used as a dwelling by the Van Ausden family, were destroyed, and most of the merchandise on the lower was a total loss.

ARREST MOTHER AND SWEETHEART OF BANDIT

(CLEVELAND), Oct. 22.—Two women, said to be the mother and sweetheart of Albert Joyce, the bandit who was killed during the battle yesterday, following the robbery of the Cleveland Trust company's branch at Bedford, were held by the police tonight for investigation.

Police valued at $25,000, including uncut diamonds worth $17,000 and $2,500 in cash were found on the elderly woman when she was searched, according to the police. Two women were seized when they attempted to get possession of Joyce's body.

The younger woman gave the name of Hazel Grey and later that of Norma Elliott, and said her home was in Oakland, California.

While being searched, the elderly woman is alleged to have offered the patron $1,000 if she would withhold the information concerning the hidden jewelry and money.

George "Jiggs" Loatsch, said to be the leader of the bandits, and two of his confederates, Harry Stone and Orville Taylor, who were wounded and captured, were indicted by the Cuyahoga county grand jury today on charges of robbery in connection with the holdup. Three "true bills" were returned.

TOURIST WAS GREEDY SO FORT IS CLOSED

PARIS.—A lesson to tourists to abstain to take away with them souvenirs of the battlefort has just been given by the military authorities of Fort Vaux at Verdun which has hitherto been open to visitors to Verdun. The authorities have decided to close the fort indefinitely. A few days ago a tourist took possession, doubtless as a souvenir, of an electric lamp bulb. He was indiscreet enough to make a flourish of the bulb in a Ver-don cafe. The military authorities confiscated the bulb and then, came the order making the fort "out-of-bounds" to visitors.
