

PLACE BLAME FOR BLAST ON WALL STREET

New York Newspaper Claims Mystery of Explosion Solved

DECLARE EXPLOSION AIMED AT BRINDELL

Death Wagon Said to Have Been Sent Against President of Trade Council

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Responsibility for the disastrous Wall street explosion last September, the echo of which was heard around the world in denunciation of "Reds" and "Anarchists" today was charged to individual laboring men or labor sympathizers by the New York Evening World. The paper, however, admitted it could not explain presence of threats signed "Anarchist Fighters" found in a mail box near the scene of the explosion.

Claim "Mystery" Solved.
In a three page story the paper announced that the mystery of the blast that killed nearly 40 persons and injured 150 more, had been "solved." The theory advanced was that the death wagon in which the bomb had exploded had not been sent into the financial district to "terrorize the capitalist class," but that it had been intended as a reprisal against Robert P. Brindell, president of the building trades council, an efficient and well disciplined man within a space of 18 months been subjected to an amazing conspiracy of greed and injustice, and the explosion was the culmination of this tyranny. The "building trades graft" was responsible for the crime.

The Evening World does not charge the union with the responsibility. It was the work of individuals, possibly inside the union, possibly work of a sympathizer.
"Further proofs are presented that the wrath and resentment of these working men and their fellows who knew of their tragic losing fight to avert vagrancy and starvation in days of overworking labor opportunity and content not only on their arch-oppressor, Robert P. Brindell, dictator of the building trades' council but upon-house wrecking contractors."
The police and agents of the department of justice, the paper asserts, today are "busy looking through the membership rolls of housewreckers union No. 25, to find men who might have been so false to modern labor union principles as the teachings of Gompers and Payne of law and order."

Barr and the two other men on the "Great Lakes" were still alive, which had been missing since yesterday would be rescued alive, was held out tonight by captains of the tug boats which went into Lake Michigan today in search of the men. HOME BREWING PLACED UNDER OFFICIAL BAN

Sale of Malt and Hops to Consumers is Now Prohibited

EXPECT LITIGATION TO FOLLOW RULING

Claim Decision is Preceded by Much Careful Thought and Study

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Home-brewing was brought actively under the prohibition ban today when it was learned that enforcement officials had ruled against the sale of hops and malt to citizens for home-brewing and confectioners. Great secrecy surrounded the prohibition bureau's action, but it was definitely ascertained that such instructions had been issued.
Details Are Lacking.
Details of the order were lacking. The only admission made by prohibition officials in the absence of Commissioner Kramer was that the Volstead act had been construed to mean that the sale of malt and hops as component parts of homemade beer were without the pale of the law and their sale must stop. Enforcement officials throughout the country have been notified of the government's determination but they have not been supplied with the technical language of the decision.
The construction law which resulted in the new order was made nearly two months ago. At the time, officials having it in charge, started a document through the regular process by which it emerges a decision. But it has not yet been approved by Secretary Houston. Further, then to admit existence of the prohibited transaction ruling, officials declined to discuss it.

Expect Litigation.
Officials said the band of the sale of hops would bring a wave of litigation. They claim however that the decision had been preceded by a careful study and said they were prepared to meet the attack.
Sections of the act specifically prohibiting the sale of parts of beer as well as the formal advertising of recipes for its manufacture were cited as one of the foundations for the ruling.
The point which they expect to be shown was whether the food values of the two articles banned would, in the eyes of a court, permit their continued sale as such despite their use as a basis for beverage making.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 11.—Cheaper hotel rates in the west were predicted here today by President Calvin H. Morse, at the opening session of the twentieth annual convention of the Rocky Mountain Hotel Men's association.

HARDING SPEAKS AT BROWNSVILLE

Proposes Foreign Policy Directed Toward Peace and Friendship; Demands Protection of U. S.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Nov. 11.—Facing a border crowd in which were many citizens of Mexico and several officials of the Mexican government, President-Elect Harding, proposed here today a foreign policy directed toward peace and friendship but demanding always full protection of American nationality and American citizens wherever they may go.
The address, his first prepared utterance since his election to the presidency was delivered from a stand on the Port Brown parade grounds, within a few hundred yards of the international boundary. The country about of the Port Brown parker rattled about his, and in a place of honor on his right was also a part of the Mexican garrison at Matamoros, paying a visit of compliment and courtesy to the next American president.
In his address devoted to significance of the armistice day anniversary and to the country's foreign relations he did not mention Mexico by name nor did he refer directly to the league of nations.
"We crave fraternity," he said. "We wish amicable relations everywhere; we offer peace and choose to promote it, but we demand our freedom and our own America. I believe an America eminent on the seas, respected in every avenue of trade will be safer at home and greater in influence throughout the world. I think to think of America whose citizens are ever seeking the greater development and enlarged resources and widened influence of the republic."

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PASSES THIRD READING
LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Irish home rule bill passed the house of commons on its third reading tonight, after a motion for rejection of the measure proposed by William C. Adamson, the opposition leader, had been defeated by 183 to 52.
The measure passed without any noteworthy incident in a rather tame debate. The liberal and labor members who have boycotted it through most of its stages as a sign of their conviction of its hopelessness as a solution of the problem were again absent today. The final stage was reached in a small and rather listless gathering of members of the house.

JUGO-SLAVS AND ITALIANS REACH FINAL AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The Italian embassy communicated today to the state department a dispatch from its government saying that Italy and Jugoslavia had reached an agreement on the Adriatic question. The dispatch was not made public but at the embassy it was said that they agreed upon that opposed in the minimum demands of the Italian government.
The line runs through the Julian Alps and down the Dalmatian coast well to the eastward of the original line proposed by President Wilson, and closely approximates the line laid down the treaty in London signed between Italy and France and Great Britain in 1914.
State department officials would not say whether this settlement would be unobjectionable to the American government, explaining that they had not had time to study the matter in detail. It was announced that the dispatch would not be made public at this time.

FRENCH PAY TRIBUTE TO HERO DEAD

Unknown Soldier Laid to Rest Beneath Arc de Triomphe

THOUSANDS EXPRESS THANKS FOR VICTORY

Observance of Armistice Day in France is Most Solemn of Events

PARIS, Nov. 11.—An unknown soldier the symbol of France's victory in the war was laid in its final resting place beneath the Arc de Triomphe today in an apotheosis of glory accompanied by a display of the gratitude of two millions of his countrymen and allies. Never in the history of France has a king or emperor affected such honors as those rendered the unknown soldier. The body of Napoleon returning from St. Helena did not stir the French to such action as did this obscure nameless man.

Silence is Oppressive.
"Not a cheer was heard and not a tear was shed, the five year war having long since dried up the wells of Paris' tears. The silence was respectfully oppressive. Today, broken dull with a heavy fog hanging like a pall over the silent city.
The most impressive economy was at the Pantheon where all the prominent men of political, official and judicial France were gathered. The marshals of France, all the generals prominent in the war and the whole diplomatic corps with the exception of the German ambassador listened to President Millerand's speech.
Address to U. S. Soldiers.
Addressing the unknown soldier's coffin, President Millerand alluded to the American soldiers saying: "Unknown soldier, nameless and triumphant representative of gallant multitudes of souls; the dead who lie in cold graves in the soil of Flanders, Champagne, Verdun and many other battle fields, famous or unknown, young lives who came to us from the other side of the Atlantic, the British Isles and distant dominions from Italy, Belgium and Serbia, from all points of the earth to offer your lives for the ideal which France alone more is representing, sleep in peace.
"You have fulfilled your destiny," President Millerand ended his address with a tribute of Leon Gambetta, the famous French patriot.

This afternoon a group of little girls in the name of the French government decorated the graves of American soldiers in Suresnes cemetery in presence of American Legion and French officials and numerous Americans.

Treasurer Upham said that he had just completed his report and that the deficit was after all bills had been paid.
Mr. Upham said he would leave here Sunday for New York where he would submit his report to the meeting of national committee on Monday. After approval by Chairman Will H. Hayes and the committee, the treasurer said he would file the report in Washington.

RUPERT LOSES TO TWIN FALLS

Local Football Men Continue Winning Streak by Taking 22 to 9 Victory From Opposing Team.

In the cleanest, hardest fought game of the season, Twin Falls yesterday defeated the eleven of Rupert high school by a score of 22 to 9. The game was replete with thrilling long runs, sensational forward passes, force line smashing, but was much closer than the score indicates. Two of the Twin Falls scores were more or less flukes, one coming from an intercepted forward pass and the other from a blocked kick.

During the first half there was very little margin in favor of either aggression and at all times the locals found it practically impossible to gain through the Rupert line. Twice the visitors held when a score was only a matter of inches and seemed almost inevitable.

From a twin falls standpoint, Fix, Eppler and Newman were the stars of the game. Fix showed especially good form in dashes off tackle and in end runs, while he proved himself a tower of strength on the defense as well. After a few tries at Eppler's nose, Rupert gave him a wide berth, finding it impossible to gain, and he grabbed a kick blocked by Philipps and bed a kick blocked by Philipps and raced 60 yards to a score. Newman performed in his usual creditable style, tearing off an 80-yard run after receiving a pass.

Fullback Hansen proved to be the mauler of the Rupert team. His bull-like rushes into the line netted good gains, his kicking was better than the average, and in spite of his size he showed surprising speed and ability in running through a broken field. Not once did he employ a straight arm, but every time that he was finally brought to earth there were several tacklers grasping him and none strewn in his path.

During the third quarter Twin Falls uncoiled a forward pass attack of unexpected power which netted them another touchdown. Starting at mid-field Newman threw a pass to Eppler that gained 15 yards and plunges into the line and dashes off tackle brought the ball to the 30 yard mark. At this point the most perfect pass executed on the local grounds this year was passed off. From kick formation Newman buried the spheroid 30 yards straight into the arms of Eppler who was waiting behind the goal line to receive it. The husky Twin Falls center took the ball over his shoulder in wonderful fashion that is more to be expected of an end than a man in the center of the line.

No small credit for the victory is due to the remarkable manner in which the substitutes acquitted themselves. Both Adams and Nicholson at guard and Stearns, subbing for Denton at center, gave sterling exhibitions. Too much cannot be said for the sportsmanlike conduct of the Rupert boys. The contest was absolutely devoid of the wrangling and disputes which are so injurious to the game and have marred several of the previous exhibitions here. Although there was room for improvement in the officiating, especially as to the referee's interpretation of the fair catch ruling and the regulations regarding a backfield in motion, it was definitely superior to that which made the game hot with Edhi a force and succeeded in speeding up the game to a considerable extent.

BASEBALL HEADS TO MEET MONDAY

Expect Peaceful Settlement of Controversy Between Major Leagues—May Modify Plan.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11.—With a dove of peace perched on their hands the warring clubs of the American and National leagues left tonight for Chicago where tomorrow they will meet in conference to decide for war or peace in the major leagues. Predictions that the eleven club owners of the newly organized National league and the five clubs "loyal" to President Dan Johnson of the American league will agree to end hostilities, made an official announcement had been made, every member of the two major leagues has gone on record as favoring a reorganization in baseball, of the appointment of a new board of control, and the selection of Federal Judge Charles F. Brannan as the chairman with a salary of $50,000 a year.

Iron Out Differences. When the 16 club owners go into session tomorrow, they will meet to iron out their differences. Past grievances will be forgotten and no reticence will be cast on any of the major league officials present or absent. Neither President Johnson nor President Heydler of the National league will attend. There will be no lawyers and other outsiders. Only the 16 club owners will take part in the discussion.

Out of the peace negotiations it was expected that the League plan for baseball would be modified to meet new situations. After the minor leagues agreed upon selection of a committee to meet with the major leagues in developing the plan of baseball reorganization, the annual convention of the 1921 meeting, the annual convention was closed. The committee selected to meet with the major league owners probably will not go into conference with them until after the threatened major league war is settled.

It is considered likely that the joint meeting of the three organizations probably will not be held until February. The salary of John H. Farrell of Auburn, New York, secretary and treasurer of the association, was raised from $5,000 to $7,500. The fund to meet these salaries will be obtained by appropriating two per cent of the purchase price of all player sold.

An Associated Press dispatch from Oakland states that the death of Dr. G. F. Baker was accidental. This is the verdict of a coroner's jury returned after an inquest at Berkeley Wednesday, which found that the former resident of this city came to his death while attempting to board a moving railroad car. According to the decision of the jury, Dr. Baker was on his way from Berkeley, California, and that he was left behind when he left the coach for a few minutes at Fairfield. FORMER SOLDIERS RECEIVE MEDALS

Impressive Ceremony Performed
When Service Men Receive Victory Awards.

Bad weather interfered materially with the size of the American Legion parade, but there were more than 100 in line when it started to move in front of the postoffice. With drums beating and bugles playing the parade moved merrily down Main avenue, turned up Shoshone street and disbanded at the high school, where the boys went to be presented their victory medals.

After Gov. Asher H. Brand had invoked the blessing upon the assembly, Congressman Addison T. Smith made the speech of presentation. The brass band played briefly the history of this country, reviewed the causes which brought about the entrance of this nation into the war, and played a tribute to the boys who so gallantly answered the call of their country in time of need. He lauded them for their great share in preserving the honor and integrity of the United States and in handing down to posterity an unimpaired and unequalled heritage.

In a few well chosen words, Dr. W. F. Pinner, commander of Twin Falls Post No. 7, made the speech of acceptance, thanking the speaker for his unstinted praise, and expressing the appreciation of the ex-service men. J. W. Porter, ex chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangement of the day's program introduced the speakers, and Wilton Peck rendered a selection of patriotic airs.

Following the ceremony the great majority of the crowd gathered in Lincoln field where they witnessed the best football game that has been staged here this season.

Taking everything into consideration, including the inclement weather, the day was a large success and added much to the laurels of the organization which sustained its reputation of making its every undertaking a success.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon, 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orm when their daughter, Marie, became the bride of Dale Everett Beer of Twin Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pagot acted as best man and bridesmaid and Rev. C. E. Deal of the local Methodist church officiated. The bride wore white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The house was decorated in white and the young people were married under a large white hall.

Mrs. Otto Sealey played "The Shepherd Boy" as a prelude to the service after which a three course dinner was served. The bride and groom left on the evening train for a short trip, after which they will be at home in Twin Falls.

The M. E. ladies aid met at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Timm presented her resignation as president and it was decided to make 12 ladies responsible for the work of one month each, with Mrs. F. C. Grove as general advisor. The old folk's dinner planned for November 14 has been postponed. The next meeting will be on December 8.

Mr. Fred Caster and Miss Lolla Williamson were married Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williamson. Rev. Bannanoff, pastor of the Lutheran church at Clifton, officiated. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present.

On account of the exercises on anniversary day the Maroon women's club has been postponed for one week.

D. C. Blackford left Wednesday morning for California, where he was called by the illness of his daughter.

WAS ONLY PERFORMING.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Henry Jesson was in court charged with insulting behavior, resisting the police and emitting a constable's whistle.

"That's fair," complained he. "I was only showing my little girl some Charlie Chaplin stunts. Didn't mean any harm." The magistrate smiled and then he said "forty shillings which means about $10."

THE BOLSHIEVIST MONUMENT.

The most wondrous of earthly monuments is to be erected by the Russian bolshieviski, in commemoration of their own glory. The model was shown recently at Moscow when the third anniversary of the Red revolution was observed. It was designed by an artist named Tatlin. The building is to be 650 feet high, and will consist of four revolving sections. As described by a soviet organ:

"The first section is in the form of a cube and shows the location of the legislative branch. This section will make one complete revolution a year.

"The second section is a pyramid with the top cut off, and will contain the executive departments. These departments will make one complete revolution a month.

"The third section is a cylinder, representing the information divisions, propaganda, etc. This revolves daily.

"The fourth and top section is a hemisphere. It will house radio stations and other scientific apparatus.

"The basement will be equipped with garages motion picture shows and other modern conveniences.

"Underneath this will be the cellars, which will be employed as prisons and dungeons."

Here, indeed, is marvelous and admirable symbolism. Was there ever anything so excellent undertaken, since men built the Tower of Babel? The artistic nature of the conception speaks for itself. Cubism in architecture with a vengeance! What baby with a set of blocks could do better? The revolving floors are finely typical of bolshievism—they surely represent a bolshievist's mental operations. And the crowning touch is that cellar, to be "employed as prisons and dungeons," under a system which, according to its votaries, has brought the millennium.

MOTORING GENIUS.

"There is no doubt," says a technical motor expert, "that real automobile drivers are born with natural talents, as are artists, musicians and other geniuses.

The reader need not hasten to make a personal application of this remark. He may belong to the gifted class mentioned, but the chances are that he does not. Consider how few geniuses there are among all the people who paint and play.

"As a very small percentage have this real talent," continues the expert, "it behooves the average man to study hard, as he drives carefully, and get his experience in small, expensive doses. He is not an experienced driver until he has handled a car several years under all conditions and he is only fooling himself if he believes the contrary."

This is just about the most sensible word yet spoken on the subject of automobile driving, as candid and intelligent drivers will confess. Most drivers are getting their experience in doses that are too big, and too expensive for themselves and others. The number of automobile accidents is increasing alarmingly. The genius may learn quickly. The ordinary man or woman had better give up the notion that a car can be learned and mastered in a week or a month, and go slowly, carefully and observingly, with a mind alert and ready to learn something about the art even after a year or two of experience.

BANKS MERIT CONFIDENCE.

While the wave of glittering investments may have receded a little in the past few months, there are still only too many fake and get-rich-quick schemes to tempt the unwary investor. It is well that, as a means of offsetting these seductions the banks of the country be given, all the publicity possible, as the test postories for the earnings of the average citizen.

During the past year the national bank capital of the country has been increased more than $118,000,000 and the earnings have increased nearly $600,000,000. In the same period failures of such institutions have involved a capital of less than $205,000. Where is the wildcat company which can show a balance sheet like that?

John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, in speaking of the healthy condition of America's banking system today, says: "No six years in the history of the world have brought convulsions so momentous or intense. The manner in which our banks have endured these ordeals is an impressive indication that they were not tempted from the ways of safety and honesty by the excitement of inflation. The policy of wisdom and of fidelity to trust and responsibility that has kept us secure is generally uniform, and has guided the smallest and more remote banks as well as the largest at the commercial centers."

In the face of facts like these, the banks leave little to be desired as a place wherein to deposit money or to which to appeal for advice on investments or monetary matters of any kind. In a world seamed through with recklessness and dishonesty, the banks of America and the men who direct their policies have stood the test unshaken.

RAILROADS ARE SAFER.

Automobile accidents in cities and along the highways continue to pile up their appalling totals of killed and injured victims. The railroads, on the other hand, seem to be improving. The interstate commerce commission has just issued the figures for 1919, which show that fewer persons were killed on railroads during the last year than in any year since 1898, and fewer were injured than in any year since 1910.

Only 2873 passengers were killed during the year. The number of employees killed reached on railroads than ever before in the commission's records, which go back to 1890. That over 2000. Fewer trespassers lost their lives according to railroad officials, is perhaps partly due to the fact that there are fewer trespassers than formerly, and as they were the chief trespassers they have naturally cut down the casualties by keeping out of the way.

It is good to know that the aggregate killed and injured in any particular type of accident has been greatly reduced. There should be steadily decreasing number of accidents every year, as safety methods and devices become more widely understood and used. The public should not be content with a single record year, but should strive to make each succeeding year better than the last, and should demand of manufacturers, of automobilists, railroad officials and all of the other special groups which have endangered human life in the past, that they cooperate to eliminate death-dealing accidents.

STOLEN POWERS.

A woman in Los Angeles has sued her former husband for $500,000, claiming that he stole her psychic powers. Just what were the one is led to infer that perhaps the objects power, the brief news item does not state, and stolen comprised writing received in a state of clairvoyance or something of that sort.

That there are such things as powers of the mind not ordinarily developed by people seems to be unquestionable. Whether only a few people possess these gifts or whether they are shared, in latent form, by all, and only developed to the point of being usable by few, is not quite certain. The balance of doubt is in favor of their being in some degree the possession of everyone.

But that they can be stolen is another thing. One can steal from a musician his beloved instrument, his cherished and treasured piles of scores, and thus do him an almost immeasurable injury. But can one steal from his musical power?

Anything so easily separated from the individual that it can be stolen would seem to brand itself at once as artificial. Psychic powers, like the power to read languages, to compute, to administer a business, must be part of the very being, ingrained in the mind and soul.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

SAYS COMMERCE COMMISSION INTERFERES WITH STATE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The interstate commerce commission has a disposition to interfere with state regulating bodies in administration of local traffic problems. Chairman Clark of the federal body said today at the conference of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners.

In reply to a question, Mr. Clark said that if a state body promulgated a rule governing interstate and that no complaint came to the federal body "certainly he would not later, force with it."

Withdrawal of car privileges for transporting coal for public utilities was due to abuses of the orders, Mr. Clark said. Some of the utilities, he asserted had under this privilege added coal to their storage, and others had even diverted coal for other purposes.

Mr. Clark said the commission planned to establish car service agents and a local commission throughout the country. It was impossible, he added, for any tribunal in Washington to deal with the mass of local matters which came up daily.

Serious situations confront the public utilities through inability to get coal for which they have contracted, Mr. Layleworth, executive manager of the National Electric Light Association asserted.

Getting coal for public utilities resolves itself down to the question of price, Commissioner Altheimer declared. Coal is being produced and moved, he said, and if utilities are not satisfied the matter is their "look-out."

TENNIS TEAM WILL NOT PLAY AUSTRALIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The proposed visit to Australia by the American Tennis team after matches are played in New Zealand will not take place, according to Dr. Sumner Hardy, president of the California Lawn Tennis association, who received today from members of the American team that they would go directly to the United States.

Mex., Nov. 11.—"The people of the border states feel that a personal interview between you and the President-elect Oregon would result in the most cordial relations between your country and Mexico," said General O. A. Larrazolo of New Mexico in a message to President-elect Harding at Point Isabel, Texas, today. "I am sure President Oregon would be pleased to meet you."

CLAIM JAPS SEEK PETROLEUM MONOPOLY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Monopoly of petroleum production in Japan and its possessions, is planned by the Japanese government, according to advices to the department of commerce today from Tokyo. Action will be deferred, however, until parliament meets in January, the advices added, but governmental control of the oil fields is planned.

Japan produces only one per cent of the world's petroleum, the advices added, but governmental control of the oil fields is planned to insure the Japanese navy an adequate supply. Oil production is steadily declining in Japan, the department said, because of the difficulty of importing well boring machinery since the war. Between 1918 and 1919 oil production fell off approximately 30,000,000 gallons, the advices stated.

MAKE PAY REDUCTION.

SUNBURY, Pa., Nov. 10.—The Susquehanna silk mills corporation, with main offices in New York, today announced a fifteen per cent reduction in pay, through the discontinuance of a ten per cent bonus for regular attendance at work and a five per cent "dividend." Approximately 3,500 workers are affected.

DEFEAT BOND ISSUE

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 10.—Two bond issues to provide $2,275,000 for wharves and other harbor improvement and application to buy the Manchester tract of six hundred acres on the Houston ship channel for wharfing and harbor development purposes were defeated in a special election held in Houston today.

PLAN RUBBER PAVING.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—This may be the silliest city of the world if expansion by B. D. Porritt of the research association of British rubber and tire manufacturers are successful. Porritt plans rubber pavements for London. A rubber paved street in Glasgow has stood much hard wear.

WAS LINCOLN'S TAILOR.

ATYR, Scotland, Nov. 11.—George Sliker, who has just died here at the age of 102, claimed that as a tailor in America he made clothes for Abraham Lincoln. Sliker also fought in the American Civil war on the side of the north and later saw service in the Franco-Prussian war.

ENGLAND UNVEILS GREAT MONUMENT TO HEROES

LONDON, Nov. 11.—In historic Whitehall tonight Great Britain's age of 102, claimed that as a "glorious dead" stood half buried beneath the wreath of flower tokens of the nation's sorrowing appreciation of their sacrifices. During the ceremonies Whitehall and the street adjoining were jammed with people, whose faces told the story for the loved ones.

It was silence broken only by the historical shriek of a woman who collapsed from the intensity of the spell, on the tenth stroke of the great song, the king putted the cord, unveiling the imposing monument and with the others stood uncovered and with bowed head.

Then after his wraith and those of the others had been deposited at the base of the monument, the field marshal, gallant with their banners, burden moved off to the Abbey, the king following the flag draped coffin.

At the conclusion of the services in the Abbey the sound of muffled drums fumbled through the ancient nave. Throughout the afternoon extra lines extended from the canopy through the length of Whitehall across the square, awaiting to swell the accumulation of flowers about the monument.

Never before has London witnessed such vast and patient crowd. The Abbey was to be kept open until midnight if necessary for all desiring to enter.

RIVER OF POWER TO LINK CITIES

Boston and Washington to Be Connected With Huge Cable Carrying Loads of Electricity.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A "river of electric power" is to be created from Boston to Washington, through the greatest industrial center of the world. It will be a super-power trunk line, connecting all the great and small electric power plants of the northeast into one gigantic plant for the creation of electric current.

For making energy for the use of mankind it will be second only to the great "orb of day," so far as human knowledge goes. It is known that it will be the greatest concentration of power on this planet.

Months ago congress appropriated $725,000 to make a survey of the possibilities for this project, the study it will bring, its efficiency in increasing power, and other advantages. This survey will be completed July 30, and the best engineers are freely predicting that not much time will be lost in carrying out the plans recommended.

Will Bolles H. C. L. The idea is to create a river of power, flowing through immense copper wires borne 100 feet from the ground on double rows of steel towers, which will feed all the lesser streams leading to factory and shop, at the lowest possible cost, and supplying the motor force for transportation.

Economy and efficiency accomplished here will reduce prices everywhere, expedite the movement of commodities, relax coal to actions that need it.

William B. Murray, head of the field engineers making the survey, predicts a saving in power of $300,000,000 annually. Murray summarizes the benefits as follows:

1.—At $2 a ton the coal saving would be $150,000,000.

2.—Maintenance saving in factories and railroads by electric drive will be $150,000,000 yearly.

3.—There will be created a common carrier system of power, lifting the coal off the rails and automatically opening up extra space for more valuable and higher priced commodities.

4.—Operation will be speeded up in the switching yards and passenger terminals.

5.—It will multiply the available power facility by from five to ten times and lower the price of current.

Ultimately this means not only a super-power line from Boston to Washington, but it will be extended into the water power regions of the south, Niagara Falls power systems will be hooked onto it and power developed on the St. Lawrence river will become a part of the system.

CROWD ATTACKS MEMBER OF RACING COMMISSION

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—Joseph P. Kennedy, member of the Maryland racing commission today was attacked by the crowd of men and women at the Pimlico races and severely beaten.

A woman using a folded program was the first to strike him. Then a man in the crowd hit him a heavy blow behind the ear. Others joined in. A finger of his hand was broken in the fracas and Kennedy suffered from severe bruises on the body and the effects of a blow on his head.

Belief on the part of the crowd that Mr. Kennedy was responsible for Jockey Frankie Joseph's killing "Ruck" Foreman's horse Manoeuvre. Instead of Jockey Carroll Schilling, who is thought to have been responsible for the attack. The assault came immediately after Mr. Kennedy had left a conference with the members of the Maryland Jockey club race officials. J. K. L. Ross and Jockey Schilling, relative to the latter's riding Manoeuvre in the seventh race. Schilling was granted a license to ride today by the Maryland Jockey club after the latter had been warned that a fatal wound would bring about the revocation of his license to conduct racing at Pimlico. Guy Hildwell who trains for Ross said that Schilling would have the mount on Bonifac in the Pimlico cup race which is the fourth on the card tomorrow.

BOY CHIEF PLAYER OUTWITS WEST POINTERS

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Eighteen officers—strategists all, and most of them trained in the post graduate school of war—and one picked cadet, the chess star of the academy, went down to defeat in as many games of chess tonight before the Irish-English outgrowth of Samuel Brochowski, eight and a half year old Polish wonder of the chess board. One of the boy's twenty opponents played to a draw at the end of the 85 moves.

The boy tonight added to the laurels he has won from the champions of Vienna, Berlin, Paris, Warsaw, London and other European countries, played all of his adversaries simultaneously moving rapidly from one board to the other and making his moves after lightning calculations.

Throughout the play Samuel, who is rather an undersized child for his years and apparently differing in no respect other than his proficiency on the chess board from others of his age, was unopposed in the presence of his opponents, many of whom were grey beard senior officers whose afternoon dinner games at the officers' mess table are noted throughout the service.

Before a gallery which thronged the academy gym, the childish prodigy, clad in a blue suit with knickerbockers and sailor collar, effected his first checkmate after 12 moves which occupied 35 minutes.

His first victim was F. C. Mayer, organist of the school, who is counted as one of the most formidable players in the state. Mayer, like those who followed him to the downfall of their respective pet "system" got caught in a trap skillfully laid for him by a succession of plays leading to an open rookade.

SLAYER IS SENTENCED

STURGEON, Okla., Nov. 10.—Robert W. Hately, confessed slayer of his 18 year old step-daughter, Effie May Alford, was sentenced to the electric chair after a verdict issued by a jury in the district court here today. Hately, who is 43 years old, is the first white man to be sentenced to the electric chair from Sturgeon county.

CAREY CONFESSES TO ROBBERY

Teller Thought to Have Been Locked in Vault Talk of Stealing Money

OTTAWA, Ill., Nov. 11.—Admission that he "engineered the whole thing himself" was made tonight, according to county officials by Francis J. Carey, 21 years of age, teller of the National City bank of Ottawa who gave himself up today following yesterday's robbery of the bank. Most of the $45,000 taken has been recovered. Carey disappeared after the robbery and it was at first thought he had been locked in the vault.

Carey was found in the farm house of Mat. Corwin, four miles south of Ulen, Ill., into which he staggered late today footsore and weary. Following a telephone call to President Charles P. Taylor of the bank in which Carey said he would await the arrival of Sheriff C. S. Ayer, he was brought back to Ottawa and made his reported confession.

In the presence of his mother, Mrs. Mary Carey, Sheriff Ayer announced that Carey made this statement: "I did the whole job. I engineered the whole thing myself. I cannot explain the presence of anyone in the alley. When I went home last night I stuffed $500 in bills in my pocket. At home I hid it under the mattress. After supper I went back to get the rest of the money. When I left the bank I ran out for the road. I walked for miles and miles in the dark."

Carey denied the sheriff said, of the disappearance of $45,000 of the loot. Authorities said a charge of burglary would be placed against Carey tomorrow.

Sheriff Ayer said a shoe box containing $4,000 which was found following the discovery of the robbery, apparently had slipped from the young man's hand while he was going over the roof of the bank on which he had climbed to enter the building. The $600 was found tonight under a mattress at Carey's home.

It was at first thought that Carey had been locked in the vault by the robbers last night and strenuous efforts were made to open the vault door. Finally, with the aid of two local garage employees who melted off the door with torches, entrance was gained to the enclosure to find it empty.

BRINGS HOME BRIDE WEIGHING 725 POUNDS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 11.—A bride weighing 725 pounds was brought home tonight by John Hamilton, employed by a Los Angeles Machinery company, who weighs 155. The bride, formerly Miss Alma Emily Selm of Venice, California, was attended at the wedding, which took place at Santa Ana, California, by her sister, Mrs. L. C. Krings, who weighs 420 pounds.

"She's a mighty fine girl, but don't ever let her sit on you," advised Justice of the Peace J. B. Cox when he had completed the marriage ceremony.

CLOSE STORES AS PROTEST AGAINST HEAVY TAXES

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 10.—As a protest against the heavy taxes levied by the Cordoba provincial authorities on alcoholic liquors, tobacco and playing cards, all the wholesale and retail stockrooms in that province have declared a strike and adopted a resolution to close their shops November 15 and to keep them closed until the law is annulled.

BRITISH MAJOR FLAYS ARMY RULE

Gives Interesting Story of Typical Night in Dublin—Private Homes Raided.

By C. C. LYON.
DUBLIN, Ireland, Nov. 1.—Take a typical night in Dublin. At the 11 o'clock hour, the barracks spring to life. Lorries, tanks and armored cars muster in flocks. Masses of "objective" are distributed, and when the midnight curfew has struck the streets—pitch dark streets—the weird cavalcade issues forth to the attack.

Think of raiding a private house at dead of night in a tank—in a tank whose wheels and engine can be heard miles away! The procedure of the raid is in keeping, though the objectives are held for the most part by women and terrified children.

A thunder-of-knocks, no time to dress (even for a woman alone) of the door will crash in. On opening, in charge the soldiers with fixed bayonets and in full warlike. No warrant shown on entering, no apology on leaving, if, as in nine cases out of ten, suspicious news to be prominent and the raid a mistake.

Women Are Often Locked Up.
In many recent instances, even women occupants have been locked up under guard while their property is searched.

This is a true picture of a British military raid upon an Irish home but the words are not mine. They are those of Major Ericine Childers, an Englishman, who only recently left the British army.

Major Childers, since the war, has been living in Dublin. Not long ago the London Daily News asked Major Childers, an Englishman, to tell the truth as he saw it. Under his own signature he wrote the above and a lot more.

Another thing that Major Childers wrote, which has directed to himself intense hatred of the military and constabulary, was this:

"The military regime in Ireland is a complete and cowardly lie. It is very strong, because it is waged by the strong against the weak for a base and selfish end—the military domination of a people rightly struggling to be free."

The big leaders of Sinn Féin never think of sleeping in their own homes, because to do so would be to invite a raid, their arrest and deportation to an English prison.

Unique "Sleeping Out" Privileges.
So they enjoy "sleeping out" privileges that are unique. In every Irish city and town there are scores of families that keep an "extra bed" always ready for these leaders, who are constantly hunted by the police. Curfew regulations are more stringent in some places than in others. In Cork, for instance, every citizen must be off the streets by 10 o'clock at night; in Dublin they are permitted out until midnight.

ENTERTAIN YOUR FRIENDS WITH ARITHM-A-LETTA

THE NEW PLAYTHING OF THE NATION

Arithm-A-Letta is just the thing for your next party. They're going wild over Arithm-A-Letta in the east and an Arithm-A-Letta party is all the rage. It is marvelously ingenious, absorbingly entertaining and highly educational. Arithm-A-Letta is the invention of a veteran of the late war, who began work on it while in the service.

Arithm-A-Letta will give you a message on any of the following subjects.

Business! Luck! Wishes! Wealth! Marriage!

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23

KEY TO CHART

DIRECTIONS FOR GETTING MESSAGES FROM ARITHM-A-LETTA

Select any number as a starting point in the circle on the subject you are interested in. Then commence to count on the NEXT number to the one selected. Count completely around the circle, putting down on paper in a row each eighth, seventh, sixth or fifth number as called for below. Always count to the right. If you count the numbers off correctly the last number will always be the one you selected at the beginning.

- If subject of BUSINESS is chosen, take first or outside circle and set down every eighth number.
- If subject of LUCK is chosen, take second circle from outside and set down every seventh number.
- If subject of WISHES is chosen, take third circle from the outside and set down every sixth number.
- If subject of WEALTH is chosen, take fourth circle from outside and set down every fifth number.
- If subject of MARRIAGE is chosen, take the inside circle and set down every fifth number.

After you have set down the numbers, place the corresponding letters over them, according to the key above. These letters in every case will form words and the words will form complete sentences. If part of a word is at the beginning and part at the end, join them together to form a word. Then arrange the words in a grammatical sentence.

Grain

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Sharp break in the price of wheat took place today owing largely to apparent stoppage of buying for Great Britain to beach views of general business conditions. The market closed nervous 5-12 to 11-12 cents lower. With December 1.14 to 1.17 1/4. Corn lost 1-12 to 1-12 1/2 and oats 1-12 to 2-8. In previous the outcome varied from seven cents decline to 45 cents advance.

Reports that the British commission had failed to accept over night offers of wheat were generally taken to indicate that for at least the present any fresh buying for Europe could only be done at substantial discounts from current prices. Weakness of sterling exchange tended further to give an advantage to the bear and no too did announcement of price cutting for commodities other than grain. Under such circumstances selling became aggressive and there was considerable liquidation on the part of holders. Word that trans-Atlantic continental interests had taken five hundred thousand bushels of wheat led, however to a moderate rally.

Feedstuffs reflected the action of wheat and declined rapidly, both corn and oats dropping to the lowest level yet this season.

Eastern demand for hard wheat to some extent in the provision market the depressing effect of the downward swing of grain and hogs.

MISHKIND WINS OVER AL YOUNG

Fighters Put On Closely Go For Honor of American Legion Building Fund.

Able Mishkind last night won the decision in a fast and furious 12-round bout from Al Young. Mishkind's defense was far too clever for Young and he employed a vicious left and whistling uppercut that kept Young guessing all the time. Young played more for the body, but his intended kidney punches usually slid off Mishkind's hips and did him no damage.

Mishkind took the first, second, fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth and tenth rounds, and Young kept him in the third, seventh and twelfth. The ninth and eleventh rounds were a draw.

Most of the fighting up to the eighth round was forced by Able, but in that session Young cut loose with a terrific rain of blows, forcing his opponent around the ring almost helplessly.

Able came back strong in the eighth and appeared to be landing his straight left at will and was hurting Al a lot. He was unable to cope with Mishkind's clever footwork and the Salt Lake boys blown were slowing him up a great deal and taking the steam out of his punches.

The ninth round was a tight and furious session which terminated in a draw. Young appeared to be working fast while Mishkind showed very little signs of wear and tear. In the tenth Able hit Young four times to one return and the crowd was hit by a big margin. Able showed his hands in imitation of Young at the start of the eleventh and lunched at him. A three exchange of blows then followed with neither man getting the upper hand.

Al Young started game fast and furious work in the last two rounds apparently realizing that Mishkind's point margin was so large that he would have to knock him out to win. In the last he seemed to recover much of his strength and carried the fight all the way taking the round by a large margin. Prior to the seventh round there was nothing to the bout but Mishkind. He hit Young repeatedly and danced away without taking a return blow, although Al opened upon an old cut in the third session.

Dorman Rice and Charlen Barnes, both 176 pound boys, dugged around busily for the first round of their scheduled six round bout, but when they were informed that either they fought or were kicked out they started to mix things in the second. After about 30 seconds had elapsed in that round Rice landed one and Barnes went down for the count.

Bill Cross had all the best of the first two rounds of his bout with Blatting Wilcox, and it was only a question of time as to putting him out, but he hit his opponent three times while he was down and the crowd raised such an uproar that the referee gave the match that Wilcox on a foul.

J. M. Orwig acted as referee and C. D. Thomas, Jack Thorp and C. A. Haller as judges. The crowd was fairly good and all the receipts above expenses will go to building fund of the American Legion under whose auspices the show was put on.

FIRST DIVISION MEN HOLD REUNION

Members of Famous Fighting Unit Gather at Camp Dix for Celebration of Armistice Day

CAMP DIX, N. J., Nov. 11.—Marching about as one of its veterans, General John F. Pershing today led the famous First Division in a great historical pageant, the first in a series of reunions of the battle of the world war. Hundreds of other former officers and men of the division were in the three mile line with the present personnel of their old companies and of their old divisions in the most thrilling feature of the armistice day reunion of "The first to go over and the last to come back."

At the conclusion of the demonstration—General Pershing—decorated with their regimental fourragere—a detail of crippled veterans of the division from the Walter Reed hospital at Washington, praised in a brief address the record of the division as a standard of inspiration to America. The speaker then turned to the memory of those "who, by their supreme sacrifice have made this day possible."

"Lieutenant Colonel Theodore of the 26th Infantry marched with his old regiment and shared in the great celebration."

As the first field artillery was forming in line for the pageant, an aged man carrying the silken banner of an American Legion post, stepped into the ranks. It was Col. Fred Phelan of New York, former Texas ranger. His son, Lieutenant Jeff Phelan in said to have been the first American artillery officer killed. The father came to fill the dead boy's place in the ranks, today and the banner was that of a post named in the young man's honor.

A touch of pathos swept through the crowd when the long procession headed toward the final arch: It was of plain white columns and evergreen and from its center hung a white silk banner with a single gold star honoring the hundreds of dead soldiers who slept in the soil of France.

All through the parade and ceremonies which followed a cannon sent echoes of the national salute over the camp. The honor of firing this armistice day tribute went to Battery C of the sixth field artillery which was credited with firing the first shot for the United States in the war and was nearly wiped out in later engagements. Six survivors four still in the service were here today. They are Sergeant C. J. Chajinski of Chicago; John T. Fox of Johnston, Pa.; Morris Weiss of Paterson and Thomas Warner of Williamport, Pa., and in civilian ranks now, Wm. H. Johnson of Hampton, N. Y., and Louis Paley of Brooklyn.

After paying a tribute to the men General Pershing said:

"The second anniversary of armistice day finds undiminished by the appreciation of those who apprehend the meaning of the great victory achieved on November 11, 1918."

"This day will come to represent the civilized world what independence means to America. It marks a new epoch in history and establishes a dividing line between the old order and the new."

HARDING ISSUES APPEAL TO RED CROSS WORKERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—On the eve of the opening of the fourth annual roll call of the American Red Cross, an appeal from President Harding was issued today from the national headquarters here. It read: "Extending that my membership roll call for this season is in pending, I have wanted to express by very earnest sympathy for your cause and my hopes that it may be forwarded by the coming campaign."

"If in all the world there be an organization more entitled to be recognized as doing good universally and doing nothing else at any time or any place, I do not know what it may be. It would be peculiarly a misfortune if the Red Cross with its magnificent organization and noble purpose of useful achievement should lose any efficiency now the special interest of war time has ceased. Your organization has built, and humanity needs its services in peace, just as it did in war. My wishes for all success go out to you."

VETERANS PASS UP STAND OF PITTSBURGH MAYOR

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 11.—Armistice day celebration in Pittsburgh by a parade of about 30,000 persons was marked by the refusal of scores of overseas veterans to march past the reviewing stand as a protest against the presence of Mayor E. V. Rabeck.

The veterans recently lodged a protest against the granting by the city of a permit for what was termed a "Pro-German tag day." The mayor refused to cancel the permit.

When the head of the parade reviewing stand as a protest against old veterans led their members and made a detour and broke the line of march two squares beyond the stand. Finally Mayor Rabeck left the stand and the parade was continued along the original line of march. When asked for a statement tonight Mayor Rabeck said: "I have nothing to say" adding that "I have done little talking during the days preceding the celebration and in view of the occurrence at the reviewing stand today I do not feel like saying anything now."

PRODUCTION OF OIL IN MEXICO LARGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Mexico's 1920 production of petroleum will amount to 140,000,000 barrels or one-fifth of the world's total, according to official estimates given out today by the Mexican embassy. This compares with a production of 58,000,000 barrels in 1919 and more than twice as much as was taken from the fields in 1918 and 1917, the statement said.
