Council Asks President to Settle Armenian-Turk Dispute

OTHER POWERS ARE SENT SAME MESSAGE

Assembly Determined to Find Country Willing to Accept Role of Mediator

GENEVA, Nov. 25.—The council of the league of nations today cabled President Wilson, at the same time as messages of the same purport were sent to the various powers, asking whether they will accept the role of mediator between Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader, and the Armenians.

The text of the message to President Wilson follows:

"The assembly of the league of nations passed on November 22, a resolution couched in following terms: 'The assembly, anxious to co-operate with the council in order to put an end within the shortest time possible to the horrors of the Armenian tragedy, has requested the council to arrive at an understanding with the governments with the view of entrusting a power with the task of taking necessary measures to stop hostilities between the Kemalists and the Armenians.'

"The council of the league has, after consideration, decided to transmit this resolution to the governments of all states members of the league and also to the government of the United States. The object is to find a power which will use its good offices to put an end as speedily as possible to the present terrible tragedy.

"The proposal does not involve a repetition of the invitation to accept a mandate for Armenia. The council does not wish to suggest an assumption of duties which might be unwelcome, but has felt bound to offer to the understanding the opportunity of understanding the humanitarian task since the fate of Armenia always has been of special interest to the American people and the president of the United States has already agreed to delimit the boundaries of that country. As the matter is of great urgency the council ventures to ask for a reply with the shortest possible delay."

The message is signed by Paul Hymans, president of the council of the league of nations.

RECORD BREAKING CROWD THROWS LINCOLN FIELD

Victory Paves Way to Championship of State; Team Has Made Great Record

In the presence of the largest crowd that has ever attended a football game in this city, Twin Falls high school yesterday extracted full revenge for the beating of seven years ago by walling Boise, 42 to 0, and following the game there was much discussion as to the advisability of moving the state capital here.

Record Unmistaken

The locals lived up to all the complimentary things said about them and kept their record still unblemished by preventing Boise from making a score. In fact they were never in danger of being scored upon by the possible exception of the closing moments of the first half, but even then, although on their own three yard line, the ball was in their possession and they were tied up for a kick.

Such frenzied rooting has never before been witnessed in Twin Falls, among the strongest backers of the big game. The members of the chamber of commerce, who renewed their youth, but lost huge gobs of dinnity. The parade organized by the members of the organization reached for considerably over a block including both the high school and city bands, while the snake dance they staged on the field after the end of the first half was a spectacle the like of which Twin Falls is not apt to see again for many moons.

The flash in the pan spring by the Boise outfit at the start of the contest caused momentary anxiety on the part of Twin Falls supporters, but only momentary, as the locals soon got going in the 16 yard drive which followed. Despite boasts of speed on the part of the Boise delegation, Twin Falls seemed to excel in this respect, and as for the much vaunted forward pass, it also failed to materialize.

No individual can be given the major share of the credit, for the glorious victory for it must go to the team as a whole. The contest was a remarkable exhibition of team work and endurance.

Perhaps the most sensational features of the game were a 60 yard dash to touchdown after receiving a punt made by Newman, and the forward pass from Newman to Taylor which netted 30 yards and a touch down.

Twins Kicks Off.

Twin Falls kicked off to the 10 yard line to start the fracas, and after kicking and losing two yards, Boise unhooked a pass from Metcalfe to Landrum that netted a gain of 22 yards. Boise's star quarter next took the ball and rolled off 16 yards around the 20 yard line. Twin Falls gained the ball, however, when Herk interrupted an attempted forward pass and was downed on the 25 yard mark. The locals were unable to attain the sphere, the old habit of punning again proving their nemesis. The pun was a dud. Twin Falls again gave Boise a first down and the forward pass was again called into play with disastrous results. The punning habit of the locals was again brought to light. The ball was brought to the 10 yard line. At this point the game was again interrupted by a foul. The ball was brought to the 10 yard line. The game was again interrupted by a foul. The ball was brought to the 10 yard line.

AIR RACE PILOT MAKES FAST TIME

Makes Speed of Nearly Three Miles a Minute in Trophy Contest on Long Island

MINEOLA, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Flying at a speed of virtually three miles a minute, Lieutenant C. C. Mosley, pilot of an American-made Vought Packard army plane, won the Pulitzer trophy aeronautic race today against a field of 34 started. He covered the course of slightly more than 132 miles in 44 minutes, 29 and 87-100 seconds, an average speed of approximately 174 miles an hour.

Officials of the Aero club of America, which conducted the race, first having estimated the course as 140 miles in length, announced immediately after the race that Mosley's average speed was 138.4 miles an hour, a new world's record. However, a careful re-estimating of the official map tonight showed that the laps were slightly 32 miles in length, instead of 35, the average speed on the corrected length being cut down ten miles an hour.

The present world's aviation speed record is held by Saul Loeblin, winner of the recent Gordon Bennett trophy race in France who averaged 137 miles an hour in a special contest at Villa Coubly, near Paris.

Captain H. E. Hartney, flying an American army Thomas-Morse machine came in second today, flying the course in 47 minutes and 3-100 seconds. Albert Acosta, civilian, won third place with his Italian made Ansaldo S. V. A. machine. His time was 51 minutes, 37 and 12-100 seconds. This was the only one of the 11 foreign made machines entered to finish among the first ten.

Seven machines met with accident and were unable to finish although no pilots were seriously injured.

The passengers were in dire straits for six hours Saturday prepared to leave the ship in case of necessity.

PRISONER WILL SPEND WEEK ENDS IN JAIL

CLEVELAND.—"But Judge, I'm working only five days a week now and if you send me to jail for 10 days I'll lose my job, then I won't be able to pay alimony at all," protested Stanley Lapinska, in court here. "That sounds reasonable," concurred his honor, after finding Stanley guilty of molesting his wife and failing to pay support while she sues for divorce. "You work five days a week and the other two you serve in jail until the 10 days are served," Bailiff Page the next one!

"Uncle George" Is All-Year Santa Claus

TWIN LAKES, Ky.—"Uncle George" used to be a distributor of religion. Now he's a distributor of cherry pie!

It strikes me that everybody would like to know about "Uncle George" because he's one of those fellows who gets his happiness out of life by doing things for others.

Hundreds of happy little girls and boys with their little streaks of pie on their lips, dropped down on the lawn of Central Park in Louisville recently, to fall asleep and dream of fried chicken and pie!

Many a mother sat nearby and silently thanked "Uncle George" for a day's respite from a hot kitchen and a meal at which she was the served instead of the server.

Many a scrawny-faced unfortunate found needed inspiration in the form of a square meal to go forth and meet the hot life of life with renewed determination.

Ben Gilling Feeds for Years. This all happened at one of "Uncle George's" big free feeds! Ben "Uncle George" can't remember what number party this one was. He's been giving them for four years—for orphans, widows, newsgays and needy folks.

"And I'm going to keep right on giving them," says "Uncle George." Maybe it wouldn't be just right to mention that his name is Calvin.

—for he's a young man who doesn't want publicity.

"I just like to do it for the good—and for the fun—there's in it," says he. "It takes the place of my former preaching. It's 10 years old."

Most every child in Louisville can tell you about the wonders of Twin Lakes, Kentucky, where "Uncle George" lives.

"It's got a swell swimmin' hole, a hundred of years old commercial system like a house of cards. Should the moneyless scheme succeed in its first and hardest period here, its adoption by the whole world could be brought about. When our children are grown they will know money only by memory."

SARLES WINS AUTO RACE AT LOS ANGELES

SPEEDWAY, Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—Eugene Sarles, driving the distance without a stop, won the 150 miles race on the Los Angeles speedway today. Eddie Miller finished second and Eddie Hoffman third. Sarles led on every lap and in addition to first prize of $10,000 took the same amount in lap prizes. Miller and Hoffman won $5,000 and $3,000 respectively.

Jimmy Murphy finished fourth, taking $2,000 in prize. Joe Thomas took fifth money, $1,000, and Jim Crooby sixth, $800. Both being flagged before completing the 200 laps.

Sarles' time was two hours, 25 minutes, 10 seconds, an average of 102.2 miles an hour. Miller's time was two hours, 28 minutes and 14 seconds, an average of 102.5 miles an hour.

Hearn's time was two hours, 27 minutes and 27 seconds, average 101.8 miles an hour.

WOMAN YAWNS AT SHOW AND DISLOCATES JAW

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—"Tio, hum," murmured Mrs. J. K. Harvey, attempting to stifle a yawn as she sat watching a motion picture in a theater here recently.

She was unsuccessful and the yawn was so deep drawn that it dislocated her jaw. Emergency hospital treatment brought the jaw back into place again.

WALLIS IS CONVINCED.

NEW YORK.—Immigrant women coming to America—and there are about 3,000 of them a day—are not looking for jobs as servants, Fredrick A. Wallis, chief immigration officer, tried for four weeks to get one of the girls to take a job as domestic big place to run and lots, trees and the new to eat—any everything," says Jimmy, a Louisville newsboy.

And Jimmy knows! He's one of several hundred children who spent a week at "Uncle George's" farm during the hot summer months.

The kids were taken there about 17 miles from Louisville—in groups of 30 and 40. And they had "three squares"—"all for nothing."

Uncle George's raises most of the food he serves. It takes Mrs. "Uncle George," Catherine and Jennie Sanders and Floyd Blackburn, several days to prepare it for one of the parties for hungry people.

Mrs. Mattie Tucker is the "story book lady." She reads to the little ones while their meal is being served. Catherine and Jennie Lee, 17 and 11 years old, came to live with "Uncle George" seven years ago from a mission. Floyd has been at Twin Lakes for three years. He came from a detention home.

"He's wonderful!" says Jennie Lee. "I reckon he gets more fun out of giving away food than most folks do in eating it."

You ought to see one of the big heaping plates of food that "Uncle George" serves!

"Good-NESS!" as they say here. Is it any wonder they all love him?

to his home. He offered the place to close to 100,000 women. None would take it.

BUGS ON WARPATH.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—Chinch bugs, ancient enemy of the Kansas farmer, are getting ready to go on the warpath, according to State Entomologist S. J. Hunter. Many corn fields in the southern part of the state are infested, he says, and unless the winter is cold enough to kill the bugs off, they will undoubtedly play hob with the crops next season.

kansas river where the fisher is good and where trapping prospects are bright this year.

CURED OF LEPROSY BUT REMAIN IN EXILE.

HONOLULU, T. H., Nov. 25.—Three inmates of the Kalaupapa leper settlement on the island of Molokai, who recently were offered their freedom by the territorial board of health, have asked and have been granted permission to remain in the leper colony.

Twelve others in whom no traces of the disease could be found following the chaulmoogra oil treatment were released on parole.

Of the three who have been allowed to remain at Kalaupapa as helpers in the colony, two are men and one is a woman. One of the men is 54 years of age with a record of 31 years in the settlement as a leper patient. He is the first inmate of Kalaupapa known to have taken the Chaulmoogra treatment, which he began in 1913.

It was reported at the board of health meeting at which the paroles were granted that 35 other inmates of the settlement are eligible for parole, but that after long residence there they have become so attached to the place they do not desire to leave it and have refused to apply for release.

DOG DIES BESIDE GRAVE OF MASTER.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—"Shep," a mongrel dog, was found dead at the grave of his late master, Virgil Farley in the cemetery of the National Soldiers' Home, at Sawtelle, near here. The dog had refused food after Farley died and officials of the home expressed the belief his action had been caused by grief for his master.

When Farley became ill and was taken to the Home hospital, he said to the dog:

"Shep, old pard, they won't let you stay here, but you must come to see me every day."

And every day the dog was permitted to see his master.

Then Farley died and "Shep" followed the body to the morgue. Later he walked beside the gun carriage upon which the body was borne to the grave. When the grave was closed, "Shep" lay down beside it and remained there, on guard, until he died.

FALL WASN'T FATAL.

SPOKANE, Wash.—Frank Hauer has perfected an entirely safe method of falling down elevator shafts. He tried it out the other day from the third floor of an office building here. He landed on a pile of shavings and had minor cuts sewed up at the city hospital.

DIDN'T LIKE NAME.

SPRINGFIELD, W. Va.—To be called Lemon Ice was quite embarrassing to Lemon Ice so he asked the circuit court here for permission to change his name. It was granted and he chose Leo Ice.

Ten millions silver dollars were melted into small coins at the mint and this may indicate that the dollar isn't going to be small change any more.

CAN A TOWN'S PERSONALITY BE CHANGED?

"Yes," answers Vanderlip, and he says a Village to Prove It—Will Make It Over to Suit.

OSBURNING, N. Y.—How can the personality of a town be changed? Frank Vanderlip, international financier, didn't like the personality of Sparta, a town of 30 families, a little way from here, and so he bought it. Now he plans to make it over until its moral tone suits him.

Sparta has always been a drinking town. It was a crossroads inn town during the Revolution, and if common report is correct, one still may find the "Tina" that the "Tina" that George Washington often stayed at. It is the man who invented the Monitor lived at Sparta. These facts attracted Vanderlip 10 years ago.

Foreign Population. The original colonial stock of the town has vanished and it has become a polyglot population drawn from Italy, Sweden, Russia, and Hungary.

"I never could understand Sparta's low standard of living," said Vanderlip. "Wealthy people who like to be on the water, a few miles away, tried to raise the standard by giving things to the Spartans. That kind of charity failed. Every other plan to make Sparta a better town failed also."

"I'm going to try a new plan. I'm going to build some model tenement houses, remodel the present ones and give them modern conveniences, including sleeping porches. The only other time a man tried to reform a town by buying it, the attempt failed. A millionaire bought a western mining town that had a bad reputation. He replaced the original inhabitants with those of his choice, but in a few years the new folks were worse than the old. His experiment failed, it is said, because there wasn't enough fresh blood in the town. The people all knew each other and feared and distrusted each other. Nearly all of the 30 families of Sparta are intermarried. Everybody is a relative of everybody. They are a suspicious folk and unwilling to talk of their town or of Vanderlip's plan. Vanderlip will protect his experiment from the same failure that occurred in the west by taking measures to keep transients coming to the town and townspeople moving away."

BELIEVE BOLSHIEVISTS MAKE COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

ANTWERP, Nov. 24.—Attempts of Bolshevik agents to get through to America with counterfeit money, made in Moscow, which it is believed they planned to use in financing the local red movements in the United States, have been discovered and, perhaps, thwarted by American government agents in Central Europe.

In connection with what officials believe to be a very carefully organized scheme to encourage strikes, unrest and promote bolshevism in the United States, directed from Moscow, evidence has been secured of a plan to send to the United States bogus paper currency of several European nations, to be changed there into valid banknotes or securities.

Four men, coming direct from Moscow, who sought to go to America, were known to have had in their possession counterfeit French banknotes representing more than $100,000.

The Moscow scheme, according to these officials, is quite simple: The changing in one country of the false counterfeit money of another, on the theory that bankers are not particularly familiar with the appearance of foreign money.

A considerable amount of this bogus money is believed to have passed successfully in America as recently, a number of Polish bolshevik agitators, returning to Poland from America for the purpose, it is believed, of promoting bolshevism behind the lines of the Polish army, which was fighting the reds, have had in their possession thousands of dollars in American currency, thought to have been secured in exchange for bogus foreign currency in America.

The Moscow counterfeit scheme is an exceedingly ingenious, double-acting one," said one police official who has been following it. "The Kremlin theory is that this queer stuff, for Bolshevik uses, and, at the same time, by flooding the world with bad money, 'sends prices up, creates unrest and makes things ripe for the big revolution. Lenin is looking for it."

D. W. Griffith's Latest Super-Production. A Wonderful Eight-Part Feature from the Collier's Weekly Story "BLACK BEACH," by Ralph Stock.

If he stepped on board the boat he was doomed. She was absolutely certain of that. She knew that her father was innocent. Yet he was sure to go to the gallows. He had a girl's eyes and a mouth like a trap. He had as much pity as a gorilla. It was quite as futile to trust to the courts. The circumstantial evidence seemed conclusive. Any jury in the world would decide against him. They were to sail at day break. Suddenly a plan flashed into her mind. The white corridors of her girlish heart filled with a cold deadly determination. In the space of two breaths, she had ceased to be a little girl. She was a woman of iron now. She knew it would cost her love and life. It required daring and strength. In the shelter of a rock, she rapidly tore off her clothes and...

If a fishing smack, it meant failure and disgrace for the man with the girl's eyes and a mouth like a trap. They stood side by side on the edge of the cliff, with the sea, sobbing among the gray rocks at their feet. Glimet took a long look through the glasses, then he handed them to Bevan. PARASITIC IMMIGRANTS

Much satisfaction has been expressed, during the last few months, over the improved quality of immigrants, as suggested by the countries from which they come. There have been comparatively fewer of the unassimilable sort from southern and southeastern Europe, and more from western and northwestern Europe, of the stock that has made America what it is. But certain other facts have been ignored.

One of these is the greatly increased number of old men and women and other persons who, though unobjectionable perhaps on other scores, have little earning power. They are a natural result of the war. They have children or other relatives in this country, and they are brought over because they can be supported here better than in the old country.

Such people in the mass may be viewed with a certain tolerance because, in a time of labor surplus, they are not so likely to take Americans' jobs away from them as younger, more efficient immigrants would be. But that is a shortsighted view of the matter. The big fact is that, whereas in the past we have reckoned the big majority of our immigrants as an economic asset, these folk are an economic liability.

They are not typical immigrants. They lack the true migratory spirit. They are not strong and enterprising. They come not to carve out careers in a new land, but to eke out their lives as easily as possible. They are not the stuff to make Americans.

With all due regard for family ties, and for a spirit of charity, the United States must be on guard against such a parasitic invasion.

ANOTHER THIRD PARTY.

The old question of a separate feminist party is up again, after nearly everybody supposed it settled. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, leader of the militant group of American suffragists, is determined to make her "Women's Party" a fixture in national politics. She seems convinced that it may play a leading part, holding at least the balance of power between the two present parties, and has called a convention to meet in February to perfect plans to that end.

What the ultimate result will be cannot be foretold. It is never safe to prophesy about women. Mrs. Belmont is determined that "women should stand on their own, and not tag along after men in politics." It may come, eventually, to men tagging along after women. That, apparently, would suit the purpose of the militants, and particularly of their implacable commander.

The immediate effect, however, is likely to be a widening of the split in the ranks of the women themselves. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, leader of the largest and most influential group during the suffrage campaign that led to enfranchisement, has steadfastly maintained that women should seek no separate sphere in politics, but should use the machinery of the present parties, co-operating with men rather than antagonizing them, and seeking to accomplish feminist purposes by reforming the old parties from within. The majority of American women seem to have sanctioned this policy in the past, and may be expected to do so hereafter. No attempt to line up women against men has ever succeeded, in the long run.

LAW ENFORCEMENT.

In an eastern city that has been rather lax in law enforcement, orders were given shortly after election to "clean up the town." The police began rounding up the crooks and known offenders of all kinds, and paying particular attention to infringements of the anti-liquor laws.

Immediately a flood of "tips" began pouring into the police headquarters, newspaper offices and the office of the Dry Maintenance league. The head of this league reports that, whereas he used to get only one or two liquor complaints a week, he is now getting 100 times as many.

"I think," he says, "it means that the public at last is interested in the effort to end illegal liquor-selling in this city."

It does mean that, unquestionably. But the matter of real interest is the reason for the sudden interest of the public. It is due, obviously, to the fact that the public authorities began showing a nintereest in enforcing the law.

It is often said that public officials merely reflect the public attitude, and do what is expected of them. That is only half the truth. The other half is that the people rise to an opportunity for reform and improvement whenever they are assured that their efforts will not be wasted through official indifference or hostility. Co-operation of private citizens and public authorities is indispensable to any kind of law-enforcement.

WANT WORK, OR WON'T WORK?

In a certain city, confronted with the unemployment problem, the city authorities made an honest effort to provide as many extra jobs as they could. Among others, many positions in the street cleaning and garbage collection department were offered at $6 a day. Although idle men by the hundred were walking the streets, not one could be found willing to perform these homely tasks.

It is not surprising that a man should dislike to work for a lower wage than the one he enjoyed when times were good, or that he should dislike to take a job less pleasing. If he has a savings fund which will protect him from becoming a public charge and his family from undue suffering, well and good. He is entitled to choose. Otherwise he is not, and if he refuses honest employment, he is not to be classed with the unfortunate but with the potential grafters.

As the writer goes on and on applications for charitable relief begin to pour in, those in charge of administering it might, in the interests of justice, determine as far as possible whether inability to get work, or disinclination to take work when offered, is at the root of the trouble, and gauge the assistance rendered by the merits of the case.

NO BALL GOWNS FOR BUSINESS.....

"You never see a young business man going to work in a Tuxedo coat and dancing pumps, combined with a colored shirt and tweed trousers, but you do see girls going to work in combinations of ball-room finery and tailored things." So speaks Mrs. Lena Lake Forest of Boston, advocating simpler dress for women.

Mrs. Forest's efforts are particularly aimed at garb for business women, but she includes a plea for clothing suited to the occupational women of all classes and ages. She makes plain, moreover, that life is not seeking to drive women to the adoption of a uniform of mannish attire, as most women suspect when they hear dress reform broached. "I do not believe in either," she says. "I herald a new day when business women will prefer simple clothes to perishable finery, and choose to wear the former on all occasions."

Mrs. Forest, as president of the National Federation of Professional and Business Women is enlisting the general support of her associates in clubdom in the reform, and its effect should be widespread. There is need of it not only in the business world, but in other realms as well, and it should have the approval of sensible men and women everywhere.

Probably the anti-Leaguers who remain unmoved by suggestions as to the company into which this nation is thrown by remaining outside the League figure that it's a poor isolation which doesn't work both ways.

One commentator on the proposal for a national tree suggests the hickory. Probably the prohibitionists won't consent until somebody takes the hic out of it.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

"CAVEMAN" STUFF ALL RIGHT

At Least One Indiana Man Is Satisfied With the Way It Worked in His Particular Case.

Now, she is a very sarcastic young woman, and the man who wishes to marry her is often much tormented with her ability to say things which make him distinctly uncomfortable. But not long ago, the young woman decided to go to a picture house and there they saw a play in which the caveman stuff was exceedingly strong. Evidently that gave the young man an inspiration, for the next morning the young woman made a statement.

He had come to take her for a drive. After getting her safely settled in his car and having placed a large box of candy in her lap he settled down for a pleasant ride. But not long the young woman could not stand his case. She deliberately opened her box, took out a bun, nibbled at it a minute and then said in lay terms: "Why, this candy is stale."

At first the young man felt inclined to write, but the next minute the caveman stuff of the movie darted into his mind. He did what he thought was a real rough act. He seized that beautiful box of candy and threw it as far as he could. For a long time there was silence. Then the girl began the conversation. And this time she spoke meekly and in "boned" tones. She is still speaking in the same way whenever she is with him—Indianapolis News.

MUSHROOMS OF ALL SORTS

Edible, and Poisonous, While One Species, Grown in Africa, Is Worshipped as a God.

In or about the edges of woods one occasionally comes across an unpleasant-looking, umbrella-shaped mushroom with a red or orange-colored top that is covered with a slimy exudation. Now and then, strange to say, people eat it. They die.

Its slime is very attractive to flies. They gather upon it and they die. In this species of mushroom is used as a substitute for fly-paper. The horrible-smelling "clathrus" mushroom is believed in France to cause cancer. French people call it the "cancer mushroom." Another species, which grows on olive trees, is so poisonous at night that one can see it read by it.

Other kinds of mushrooms are used for making ink, for stanching the flow of blood and (in Lapland) for killing bedbugs. A European species is employed to stupefy bees, and certain "poisonballs" are said to have anaesthetic properties. Tribes of semi-savages in northeastern Asia utilize a mushroom for snuff. But most curious of all is the Polyporus sacer, which in Africa is worshipped as a god.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

NEEDED A THOROUGH SOUSING

Evil Spirit of Hackman Could Not Be Exorcised Except by Most Stringent Methods.

Doctor Brown, a negro evangelist, was a firm believer in the ancient custom of river baptism, and converted him to baptism in this manner several years ago. A few years ago he was a chronicist in a New Jersey town on the banks of the Delaware river, where a dozen or more converts were assembled, awaiting their turn to be immersed. Among them was a hackman, who evinced a lively interest in the ceremony.

"Why does the good doctor," he asked of a fellow convert, "duck some of them folks two times—no others once?"

"He ducks 'em once," explained his friend, "for every new name they're got to have."

This conversation was overheard by the sharp ears of Doctor Brown, who finally beckoned the hackman to come forward.

"You name, please?" he inquired in a deep bass voice.

"I've baptize me Tom," that's 'nuff," the candidate replied, as the evangelist, taking him none too gently by the neck, plopped him far out into the stream, where he ducked him not once but half a dozen times with such rapidity and vigor that a few minutes later the hackman found himself on the shore, coughing, spluttering and fighting for breath. The ceremony was soon over, and when he had recovered his strength he made his way to the side of Doctor Brown.

"What do you duck me that way?" he demanded in aggrieved tones. "I come here to be baptised, not to be drowned."

"My good man," replied Doctor Brown, "you was so stiff with the devil I had to use a powerful lot of water to wash him out of yo' system."

TWIN FALLS WINS

FOOTBALL CONTEST

theological quarter put the ball three yards from the Boise goal line. The captain always have took a brace and held, the ball going over on downs and the touchdown being delayed. Boise immediately punted to the 40 yard mark. Newman making a run back of 10 yards and gaining five yards left over in the first lineup. Then came one of the best plays of the entire encounter. Newman passing to Taylor who crossed the two remaining chalk marks. Newman kicked goal, making the score 10 to 0.

Twin Falls again kicked off, this time to the 10 yard mark. Metcalfe running the ball back 18 yards. Boise gained four yards around left end, and Cooper made 15 around the other wing. Neal added 5 more on an end run but this was nullified when Irwin broke through and threw Cooper for a loss of the same distance. A fast pass making only 1 yard. Boise was forced to punt, Newman running the ball back for 10 yards of the 35.

Three plunges by "Speed" gained 19 yards and Fix made another first down through tackle, following which Newman tore off 15 more around left end. After a five yard penalty, an incomplete pass and two efforts at the Boise line which failed, Phipps shot a forward to Epler—which placed the spearhead on the six yard line. Plunges at center by Newman and Fix left about four inches to go when the quarter ended, the former going over for the second score at the resumption of play and kicking goal, making the score 14 to 0.

Boise punted 35 yards and receiving the kickoff and being downed on the 22 yard mark. Twin Falls displayed a sustained attack that would not be denied, employing smashes at center and powerful bucks off tackle. Newman taking the ball across on a five yard plunge through right tackle. "Speed" booted the third one between uprights making the total 22 to 0.

On the next kickoff, Newman booted the ball to the 20 yard line, Metcalfe running it back for three yards. On the first play, Boise was unable to gain, but Neal made a first down by tearing off 12 yards around Twin's right end, and Pitts made six more. Boise, however, was penalized five yards for backfield in motion and three efforts at the Twin Falls line.

Metcalfe punted, Newman receiving the ball. "Speed" proceeded to tear off 40 yards, dodging, twisting and twirling through the entire Boise eleven, planting the ball behind the goal posts and kicking goal. Score, 28 to 0. Metcalfe ran the ball 15 yards on the next kick off, having received it on the eight yard mark, but Boise could not make their yardage and punted 30 yards. Newman running back for 12. Newman punted 19.

Boise answered 19 on the 20 yard line, Newman punting through center for 10 more, again putting the ball across and kicking goal, making the tally 35 to 0. There was no more scoring during the few remaining minutes of the first half, ending with a score of 35 to 0. Newman kicking Holm's attempt at an end run by throwing the runner for a 10 yard loss.

Boise appeared to be spiritless and cowed when they came off the field to start the third period, but proved to be the contrary when they started a stiff fight and holding the locals to only one more touchdown during the second half.

Despite desperate efforts to shove the ball over, Twin was not able to gain a third down, and, at the end of the last quarter—beginning with the ball on the Boise 40 yard mark. An attempt at a pass brought out one of the best plays of the contest. Epler reaching the ball by diving through the air but was unable to hold on. He was held and recovered. Twin then lined up for a kick and one of the most peculiar plays that has been seen on the local field for some years took place on this play. Apparently, to the spectators, the kick was blocked and the Phipps had recovered and gained an additional 15 yards, and when Referee Over gave the ball to Boise, there was an awful yowl from the stands. The ball, however, had struck a Twin Falls man first and the rules upheld the official in taking this action.

Boise could not budge the local forwards and Twin immediately gained possession of the ball. Heris reeling off 20 yards around the right wing on the first play. Newman made two touchdowns last quarter, one against center, and Fix 1' in the same place, but these gains were partially offset by a 5 yard offside penalty. "Speed" placed the ball 12 yards nearer the Boise goal line on another of his powerful rushes into the line. Fix adding another 10 yards. Phipps, but another penalty was administered with only one yard to go. Newman, nothing daunted, again played through the opposition and far across the goal line, with the whole Boise team hanging on him, for the final score of the game.

Consistent rushing, after an exchange of punts, carried the ball to Boise three yard line, and another score was only a matter of seconds when the whistle blew and the great game was over.

Boise is to be complimented on the hard clean fight they put up, although they did take an awful trouncing. There were no signs of roughness at any stage of the contest, something which cannot be said for many of the local's opponents this year.

Bring On Idaho Falls!

JACK JOHNSON STAGES FIRST FIGHT IN YEARS

Boxer Two Opponents As Feature
Event in Federal Prison—Still In Good Form.

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Nov. 25.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight boxing "champion," made his first appearance in the United States since he fled his native country eleven years ago when he met two opponents (this afternoon as a feature event of a boxing show staged in the open air at the federal prison. It was the general opinion of newspaper men and boxing critics that Johnson is in good condition and still retains much of his cleverness and punching power. Johnson knocked out Frank Owens, negro, of Chicago, in the last round of a six round bout, and after a few minutes intermission, took on "Topkapi" Johnson, also a negro, for four rounds. "Topkapi Jack" was badly outboxed.

Owens, who weighed around 230 pounds, was knocked down twelve times, his ex-like bulk hitting the canvas seven times in the sixth round, the final punch, a terrific left hook to the jaw sending him down and out.

Before entering the ring Johnson exhibited to newspaper men an abrasion on the right hand which he said had been caused by an accident during a workout. He explained after the fight that this fact, together with Owens' holding tactics, prevented his finishing Owens earlier.

Owens took the aggressive in the first round, and reached Johnson's face several times, one punch slightly cutting his lip. Beyond this, Owens' punches had little effect and at the finish Johnson seemed as fresh as when he started.

One four rounds with "Topkapi Jack" Johnson was a sparring match.

At times he set a fast pace, but the former champion too speeded up and gave a clever exhibition. Johnson found times in the clinches to exchange quips with the ring helpers and his famous "golden smile" flashed over his opponent's shoulder with much in evidence.

Four counts of four rounds each between inmates of the prison preceded the main event. Two thousand prisoners were present and several hundred guests, present on invitations of the warden, witnessed the show.

Jack Johnson began serving a sentence of a year and a day, September 14, for violating the Mann act, conditioned on good conduct, he was released July 5, prison authorities say. The former champion says he is in fighting trim and will seek bouts on his release.

"I did some boxing during my travels," Johnson said, "and have not allowed myself to slip. And, too, doing engaged bulls in my role as a torador was great footwork training. I feel as good as I did ten years ago."

America's Debt to Eads.
In nearly four centuries the names of many men have become linked historically with the "Big Muddy." De Soto discovered it, Marquette, LaSalle and Hennepin were among its explorers. Mark Twain was its Homer. But James Buchanan Eads subdued it and turned it to serve mankind. His record is unique in the engineering annals of America, with the mighty river submissive in his power. He was the first to lay into its depths to sound its secret, wrest from it its hidden treasures; the first to build for it the first transatlantic in the western hemisphere, to have swung a great bridge across it midway its length and, as the greatest achievement of all, to have compressed its channel at the mouth so that it cut a ship's way to the sea.

SCUTARI HAS LONG HISTORY

Known as "Genova of the Balkans" it is "la One of the Oldest Cities in Europe."

Scutari, principal city of Albania, recently suggests Geneva, in the midst of the rugged waters of Lake Scutari and the towering peaks of the Albanian Alps, snow-capped for the greater part of the year, rising to form an Alp-like background. Instead of being a city of highly organized industry and industries and financial affairs, Scutari has been known for sword, earthquake and flood.

To reach Scutari from any Montenegrin town, on the north side of Lake Scutari, one boards a "londra," the principal port and stern riding high out of the water. Gunmen propel it by short, quick jerks, often accompanying their strokes by a wild barbaric chant. The gondola-like boats on Lake Scutari are accounted for by the Venetian influence that is evidenced in Scutari.

Scutari is one of the oldest cities in Europe, having been the seat of the Illyrian kings, ten centuries before Christ, and as the descendants of the Illyrians tell the Albanians have a lineage far older than most European nations. The world war brought the Albanians into sudden contact with modern ideas and they were astonished for fine physique and keen minds, unimpaired by soft living.

One Good Time.
I think my most embarrassing moment took place one lovely night last summer. I was engaged to be married and decided to have one good time with an old friend of mine. I called my intended husband's car, complaining of a sick headache, and went out joy riding. I explained the circumstances to my friend, so we decided to go to a bathing beach some distance away to take a plunge in the lake. We were having a grand and glorious time swimming and diving when lo! who should stand on the pier but my future husband. You can imagine my agony when my friend called to me, "Say, my dive with me once more; then we'll have lunch."

As the Ancients Believed.
According to the Puranas of Hindu mythology the earth is circular and flat. The dome of the sky is its circumference is 4,000,000,000 miles. In the center is Mount Sumeru. On this mountain are three peaks formed of gold, pearls and precious stones, where the deities reside. At its base are three mountains, each of which grows a tree 8,000 miles high. The furthestmost country from these mountains is bounded by the salt sea. Beyond this sea there are six others of sugar cane juice, of spirituous liquors, of clarified butter, of curds, milk and nectar. Each sea is surrounded by a separate continent.

W. S. C. DEFEATS NEBRASKA U. IN CLOSE CONTEST

Winds Hard Fought Clean Out Hat, by Score of 21 to 20 At Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 25.—(By the scant margin of a single point, Washington State college of Pullman defeated Nebraska on the football field in a game that would up the local season. The final score was 21 to 20, and it pretty accurately measured the strength of the two eleven. It was a hard fought, clean cut battle, with the result in doubt from the kickoff until the final whistle blew. Unopposed at the start by the heavier Nebraska men, Washington spurred and before the game was ten minutes old reversed the early situation. Nebraska's initial touchdown came within the first four minutes of actual play. A forward pass by Washington was intercepted by Fullback Dale, who made a clean catch, and dodging the tacklers skirted left one, shook off interference and with splendid interference ran 50 yards for a touchdown. Day kicked an easy goal.

"Just Between You and Me" says the Good Judge

Here's genuine chewing satisfaction for you, hooked up with real economy. A small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much longer than a big chew of the ordinary kind—that's because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles
W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco
RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco and Nebraska spirits rose high. Then came the surprise. Washington state, which had been expected to play the open, aerial game, settled down to hard straight football, starting from the center of the field, the westerners never paused in their straight march down the field until Gilles touched down and Klandan kicked the goal.

The second quarter was clearly Nebraska's, and third second points came rather easily, but Washington never lost its fighting spirit, nor did they give up when in the third the Cornhuskers again crossed the goal line.
The fourth period brought the fireworks. Nebraska, apparently a little over-confident, and a mite careless, gave Washington the opportunity of their gritty end men had been waiting for. Reversing the former style of line plunges, they put on an exhibition of forward passing and short and runs that fairly dazzled the bulky Nebraska, as when the aerial passage of the ball failed to quite carry them over. Sax, Melvior and Gilles were on hand with the necessary punch to drive the well drilled march ahead.

CALL ON MEXICANS TO JOIN MOVEMENT

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 25.—Calling upon the people of Mexico to join and adhere to the "reformation movement," a manifesto believed by government officials to have been drawn up by Lucio Blanco, ex-Chief of the National Guard, and at one time chief of cavalry under General Obregon, was issued here prior to the disappearance of Blanco from this city about October 27. This information was officially given today when inquiries were made as to Blanco's whereabouts. A copy of the manifesto is in the hands of the officials. Blanco is reported to have re-entered Mexico near Brownsville.
Government agents say the manifesto was printed in San Antonio and distributed in certain parts of northern Mexico. It deals with both the political and agrarian situations in Mexico and narrates in detail how the 10 La Huerta factions gained control of the government. They now promise to recognize all national debts and advocates the establishment of an eight hour day in Mexico, according to the manifesto. It was also announced in favor of the maintenance of a large national army to preserve peace and order throughout the republic.

FARMERS OF SOUTHWEST RECEIVE AID FROM MILLERS

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 25.—A new way to relieve the wheat farmer of his difficulties, as the result of low prices and a strained money situation, has been devised by mill and elevator operators here and in other grain centers of the southwest.
A plan of advancing to grain growers $1 a bushel on wheat carried on contract, so that they may deliver now and sell at some future date, has been adopted by a large line of elevators and mills. The inauguration of this plan is primarily to relieve the money situation, it was said.
Millers declare the plan will move considerable wheat and stop talk of forcing the farmers to sell their grain.

The Great American Home

The inauguration of the plan, mill operators said, already has been receiving much favorable comment by farmers as well as bankers. The plan as outlined by mill and elevator men follows:
"The contract with the farmer is very simple. He now has the opportunity to dispose of his wheat at once and receive in turn a $1 down. Then he watches the market quotations. If he finally decides the quotations have reached the top and he can draw the remainder of his money from the mill or elevator at the high market price. The result of the plan can be easily seen. It will relieve the farmer of holding his loan. The wheat will not be subject to woe and the market will become more stable."
John D. Rockefeller won a prize at a flower show. Oddly enough, he won with his carnations, not petunias.
"Kneeluskas made the troubles of oppressed provinces I have restored the Polish kingdom, hundreds of times, in my imagination, and shed numerous tears because of the plight of Poland within the last century. I have fought her enemies and killed the plotters who destroyed her."
"Kneeluskas was one of my much-mourned visionary friends, and according to my thinking, 'Freedom' whisked when Kneeluskas fell" was the grandest poem ever written.
No article was a child, I told him the stories of the tribulations of the Poles, and consoled him with the thought that some day when he became a man, he might see Poland free. I am sure that those memories have spurred him on in his activities against the Russians."

LINEMAN WILL WINTER IN CAMPS ON ROUTE

NEVADA CITY, Cal., Nov. 25.—Along the line of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and the Western Union Telegraph company through the Sierra Nevada mountains a chain of cabins have been provisioned and one or more expert linemen will spend the winter in each. The duty of these men is to keep the wires open no matter what the weather conditions, and should they fall in two task a serious interruption to communication and news transmission would ensue.
In fair weather these men have nothing to do but keep the cabin fires burning, but the approach of a storm is the signal for hours of the most strenuous exertion.

MOTHER'S INFLUENCE MAKES SOLDIER OF SON

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Nov. 25.—His mother's deep-seated sympathy for Poland, aroused by her poring over European history during a lonesome girlhood, is believed to have largely responsible for the career of Major Cedric Marie Pontieroy, U. S. A., with the Polish air force, where the major has been conspicuously mentioned during the past few months for his exploits against the Russian Bolsheviks. He is now in the United States on a mission for the Polish government, and plans soon to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Pontieroy, a McGee, Ark., a few miles south of this city.
"When I was a girl," Mrs. Pontieroy said recently, "I lived with my grandparents. There were no children in the household and none near us. The five white adults in the household talked of things that did not interest me. I was fond of reading, and grew to spend most of my time in grandfather's library. There I perused over his volumes of history. Poland's misfortunes made a deep impression on me."
"Finally, I made the troubles of oppressed provinces my province. I have restored the Polish kingdom, hundreds of times, in my imagination, and shed numerous tears because of the plight of Poland within the last century. I have fought her enemies and killed the plotters who destroyed her."
"Kneeluskas was one of my much-mourned visionary friends, and according to my thinking, 'Freedom' whisked when Kneeluskas fell" was the grandest poem ever written.

CHICAGO POLICE DETERMINED TO CLEAN UP CITY

Will Be "Driest Place in United States by Christmas," Declares Enforcement Officials.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Chicago will be "the most unhealthy place for crooks and the driest city in the United States by Christmas," federal, state and city officials declared tonight after they had taken part today in a drive against liquor dealers which included suits to close 72 saloons and cabarets, injunctions shutting down such places, and federal indictments of 21 persons on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act.

Attorney General Edward J. Brundage, who instituted the 72 suits tonight said several hundred more were contemplated and that the state would continue the drive "until there was not a drop of intoxicating liquor in any of Chicago's 2,000 'dry saloons'."

The federal official joined in the drive shortly after the attorney general had filed his suits when Charles C. Cline, United States district attorney, procured temporary injunctions from federal Judge K. M. Leland closing eight cafes. Shortly afterward, the federal judge who has been investigating alleged illegal liquor traffic for several weeks, returned indictments against 21 persons.

City officials welcomed the state and federal drive as an adjunct to the roundup of criminals started on Sunday and said it would make it easier for them to keep crooks out of the city. At the same time they frustrated an attempt to steal $50,000 worth of liquor being transported through the city on trucks and arrested two men in connection with a theft of $50,000 worth of wine.

The cases of the 72 saloons and cafe owners whose places Attorney General Brundage wanted closed will be heard Friday by Judge Leland. An assistant attorney general was assigned to direct a staff of attorneys in prosecuting the cases and Mr. Cline volunteered the assistance of his offices.

IMPERSONATES GRIFFITH AND WORKS TEXAS TOWN

Dallas.—David "Work" Griffith came to Dallas last week, "worked" society queens and their husbands for free entertainment, danced with local debutantes, hired a beautiful blond salesgirl as his next movie star, and—

Went back to Atlanta, Ga., in custody of two Atlanta detectives, accused of having forged to $500 worth of checks in Georgia.

As he was registering at the Adolphus hotel an excited movie fan rushed up and exclaimed:

"You're D. W. Griffith!"

"Am I?" was the calm reply.

Searching for Blount, Griffith then admitted he came to Dallas seeking a beautiful blond type for his next film production. The fan knew exactly the girl he wanted. He led the "movie magnate" straight to the Edison Shop, where Miss Olga Marguerite Kelley, 22, was employed. "Sure, Miss Kelley would sign. First year, $2,500, did Mr. Griffith say?"

Double that every year until the fifth year when she could name her own figures. Yes, perfectly satisfactory.

However, Miss Kelley's boss, C. H. Mansfield, noticed on the distinguished visitor's engraved card his second name was spelled "Work" and not "Griffith." He started an investigation.

Meanwhile, "Griffith" had taken Miss Kelley to a department store, introduced himself to the proprietor, and directed that Miss Kelley be given credit, to buy anything she wanted.

"Miss Kelley not only got the credit, but the proprietor invited Griffith to go duck hunting."

Charming Fellow.

"Griffith" proved a charming man, and a dozen Dallas girls sent him their "photos," asking if they had "movie faces."

After the "producer" had danced with the season's debutantes at the Terpsichorean club's ball and had dined at the most exclusive homes, Joe Luckett, who handles Griffith's films in Dallas, did some impersonating himself. He impersonated a plumber, and inspected the stranger's room at the Adolphus.

"Not the real Dave," Luckett declared, and the cops closed in.

Then "Griffith" admitted that his real name was J. P. Daley.

HIS MARRIAGE PLANK

WAS ONLY A JOKE

Popular Bluff, Mo.—Next time R. E. Penzel, newly-elected state senator, runs for office, he will not promise, even in joke, to not married if the women will elect him.

Regard is a personable bachelor of 35, with a law office at Popular Bluff, Mo., a few days before election.

It was a speech he made at Popular Bluff, Mo., a few days before election.

In introducing him, the chairman humorously referred to his being a single man, "I want to be married," he declared, "I will consider the other."

The women voted for Penzel all right.

Meanwhile, reports of the Piedmont which had found interested readers. The election returns were daily in, before Penzel began to receive letters, you would be willing to help him carry out his contract.

At first they came from points near by; then from all over Missouri; then from other states. Some of the women used the "I am not married" privilege of direct proposal; others delicately indicated that if he would do the proposing he would not be turned down. "By day his mail increased."

"The joke's on me," said Senator Penzel.

"You see, every campaign has to take women into consideration now," he said, "and as it should be. So in making my campaign, I

MOBE COMPENSATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—National Commander F. W. Galbraith, Jr. of the American Legion, conferred in Washington today with the legislative committee of the organization, and announced afterward that the veterans would devote the first efforts at the coming session of congress to urging compensation for the war disabled soldiers and their dependents.

"While the legion does not need one fraction of an inch from its original stamp for adjusted compensation," Mr. Galbraith said in reference to the bonus proposals, "it is determined first and foremost to see that the disabled men and their dependents and widows and orphans of the war are taken care of."

PAIS TO BUFAK RECORD.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 24.—Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, noted ace, reached here today to act as an official at the Thanksgiving day automobile race at Beverly Hills. Captain Rickenbacker left Oakland, California, this morning in a Packer airplane in an attempt to break the flying record between San Francisco and Los Angeles but he became lost in a fog and gave up the attempt.

BOISE FOOTBALL MEN GUESTS AT ROUSING BANQUET

Twin Falls High School Entertained
Defeated Team at Thanksgiving
Dinner Following Game

The Boise high school was the guest of the Twin Falls institution last night at a rousing banquet held at Tom's cafe, speeches being delivered by many of those present during the course of the evening, Dr. W. F. Fasser acting as toastmaster.

Captain Keene of the Boise team was the first man called on for a speech and responded with a note of effort extolling the sportsmanship of the Twin Falls team and the treatment he and his outfit received here. He said, "The best team won. Under no circumstances were we entitled to win today."

Assistant Coach Hayes followed Coach Keene and among other things suggested that Twin Falls play Salt Lake or some other large school in order to get somewhere, something that they would not do so by playing Boise. He also paid a tribute to the support that the business men of this city have given the team.

"Clinton W. Evans, coach of the local team, when called upon, first proceeded to dispel any impression that he had put his name on the list of speakers, and with the declaration that "he was not in the habit of spreading noise," complimented Boise and Coach Keene on the effort, and first they had put up. Among other remarks the coach said that the election of officers was not so closely contested than the score above. Others who were called on for speeches were Captain Lawrence Quinn and Jake Irwin, of Boise and Twin Falls respectively, Laurence Elzer, manager of the local team, Harry Barrett, Donald King, and Jerry Elvay, representatives of the press, D. A. Hites, Carl Otto and J. H. Jones. Music was furnished by the Blue Bird orchestra.

will make its report and following the election of officers, went on to immediately installed to take charge of the proceedings, P. C. McDowen, of Pocatello, who will give the principal talk of the evening. Mr. McDowen, who was formerly state senator, will talk on "Physical Fitness," and bring a new and unusual force and eloquence, should have a message that will mean much to the boys.

FILER BEATS BUIHL
IN CLOSE CONTEST
Buhl high school, Twin Falls great rival yesterday took another licking which must have hurt almost as much as the two received from the local team this year, going down before Filer by a count of 27 to 20. Reports of the game indicate that it was close and hotly contested.

Throughout, Clinton of Filer proving to be the individual star. The Rupert eleven sustained their reputation of being the best outfit that appeared here this year prior to the game with Boise yesterday, by trouncing on Buhl 42 to 7 in a very one-sided contest. Buhl, despite the ten second man in the backfield, was unable to gain, nor could they stop the Rupert backs, particularly the bull-like rushes of Hansen. This player is the best fullback that has been seen on the local grounds during the course of the past season and it is doubtful whether there is a better man in the state in this position.

Another game which decidedly strengthens Twin Falls' claim to the state championship, played yesterday was the scoriest tie between the Caldwell and Nampa eleven. Boise, who was defeated by Caldwell 10 to 7, was trampled by Twin 42 to 0, and beat Nampa 42 to 0.

BOYS CONFERENCE WILL OPEN TODAY
The Outer Boys conference for southern Idaho will get under way at the high school this afternoon at 4 o'clock when a committee having charge of the nomination or officers for the election at night will be appointed.

A special car will be run from Pocatello to Minidoka today, being attached to the fast mail on the branch line. Many of the boys who will be attending during the conference are expected to arrive on this train.

Two other meetings are scheduled for the day besides the main meeting which will be at 7:45, a gathering of the leaders, being at 6:15, while the various delegations will get together at 7:30.

During the business session of the convention of the Idaho Commerce Secretaries association at Caldwell yesterday, resolutions were adopted requesting all commercial organizations to take action concerning magazine stories depicting the damage done to the scenic beauty of Yellowstone Park by proposed reclamation projects.

Besides the election of officers for the ensuing year several other matters were taken up and resolutions passed looking toward action to obtain inter-branch representation on Interstate Commerce Commission endorsement of the highway aid bill and action to secure the removal of the alfalfa quarantine regulations.

A pretty, informal home wedding took place yesterday when Miss Arbutus Frances Wood, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Wood, became the bride of J. Francis Masterson of Twin Falls.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, 336 Fifth avenue east, Rev. Edgar L. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Miss Hilda Holtermann was bridesmaid, and Ashley Penhody Hagar acted as best man. Miss Wood wore a beautiful gown of white satin trimmed with silver lace, a creation by her mother and which was particularly suited to her type. A string of pearls, the gift of the groom, and a large bouquet of roses added to her whiteness and made Miss Wood one of the prettiest brides of the season.

The home was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns. After the ceremony a buffet lunch of turkey and other Thanksgiving delicacies was served to thirty relatives and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Masterson departed last night on a honeymoon trip to Salt Lake City and other points south and will return to Twin Falls about December 12. Mr. Masterson is the state inspector on federal aid project number 23.
