

CONGRESS HEARS ANNUAL MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT WILSON FOR LAST TIME

Executive Unable to Appear in Person Before Legislators

URGES RIGID ECONOMY IN APPROPRIATIONS

Asks Immediate Serviceable Legislation to Aid Recovery From War Effects

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Both houses of congress were in brief session today to hear President Wilson's annual message. It was read by the clerk, Mr. Wilson appearing in person at the advice of his physicians not to appear in person to present his recommendations.

Galleries Crowded. Galleries in both senate and house were crowded. Both these galleries were drawn by the chance that the president might appear in person or by the possibility that his message might touch upon the league of nations question, or his own approaching return to private life, but were disappointed.

Mr. Wilson confined himself at most wholly to domestic questions. Only by inference did his message refer to the nearing close of his administration and that was in concluding. The proposals he presented, the president wrote, were not so much a series of recommendations as a forecast of the faith in which he was bred and which it is my solemn purpose to stand by until my last fighting day.

Aside from hearing the president's message, congress made definite progress on at least one problem faced during the brief session. The effort received a rule under which an effort will be made by Thursday to take up the immigration bill for prompt action. It would limit general debate to four hours. The two days interval was allowed to permit Representative Beagle of New York, a member of the immigration committee to frame a minority report.

No other matter in either house had passed today beyond the committee stage. At both ends of the capital however, members were deep in preparation to deal with the budget, an employment and farmers relief. Discussions in the senate of the plight of farmers delayed the reading of the president's message in that body.

The industrial situation also found a place in the president's message. Recovery from war effects gave promise of early completion "only in our fortunate country." Mr. Wilson said, and even here "this and to impede at times." A program of "immediately serviceable acts of legislation" to aid that recovery "and prove the indestructible recuperative force of a great government of the people," should be undertaken, Mr. Wilson said, adding:

"One of these is to prove that a great democracy can keep house as successfully and in as business-like fashion as any other government."

DUBLIN, Dec. 7.—Patrick O'Keefe member of the British parliament for the west division of Clare and secretary of the Sinn Fein, has issued a statement in connection with Father O'Flanagan's message to Premier Lloyd George on the question of an Irish settlement. Father O'Flanagan is vice president of the Sinn Fein organization and generally considered "acting president," but is not recognized as having the authority, according to statement made by O'Keefe in which he says:

"Since the arrest of Arthur Griffith acting president, there has been no meeting of the standing committee and therefore, Father Flanagan's telegram is simply a statement of his personal opinion and has not the sanction of the Sinn Fein legislative. Only the Dail Eireann had any authority to speak in behalf of Ireland and all public bodies and individuals and be well advised to steer clear of the matter until the Dail Eireann government until the Dail Eireann has spoken."

GOVERNMENT ASKED FOR APPROPRIATIONS TO AID AMERICAN FALLS PROJECT

TO RENEW EFFORTS FOR VOTE ON FARM RELIEF LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Undaunted by failure to obtain immediate action in the reauthorization of farm relief legislation, the farmers legislative committee will proceed with the intention of renewing the efforts to bring their proposals to a vote. Chairman Grosvenor of the senate agricultural committee, declared the farmer relief forces had the assurance of enough votes to pass the legislation and were determined to do it.

Objections of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the republican leader, and of Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, today blocked consideration of the pending resolution directing the restoration of the war finance corporation and the extension of surety bonds by the reserve banking system. ### Possibilities—Are That All Estimates Will Be Approved

MINIDOKA RESERVOIR TO BE FIRST UNDERTAKEN

Other Idaho Reclamation Needs For Fiscal Year Are Presented For Approval

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Unusually large appropriations for government reclamation work during the fiscal year beginning July 1 next were asked of congress due to the fact that a large fund now representing revenues from oil leases becomes available. And the possibilities are that these appropriations will be authorized, inasmuch as the money is segregated for a specific purpose, and can be used for nothing else.

The undertaking of a new unit of the Minidoka project is contemplated, as evidenced by the fact that the total appropriation asked is $2,355,000 as against an appropriation of $317,000 for the current year. The building of the American Falls reservoir is to be first work undertaken. If this large appropriation is made, for, in submitting the estimates, the reclamation service asks that the following provisions be attached: "That authority be granted in connection with the construction of the American Falls reservoir to purchase or condemn and to improve suitable land, for a new townsite to replace the portion of the town of American Falls which will be flooded by the reservoir, and to provide for the removal of buildings to such new site and to plan and to provide for the appraisal of lots in such new townsite, and to exchange and convey such lots in full or in part payment for property to be flooded by the reservoir, and to sell for not less than the appraised valuation any lots not used for such exchange." Back of this language lies the story of the purpose of the reclamation service to largely wipe out the present town of American Falls, and to build a new town on higher ground, all in order that 100,000 acres, or more on the Minidoka tract may be converted from desert into prosperous farms.

RECLAMATION SERVICE REPORT IS REVIEWED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—If congress would provide the necessary funds the reclamation service could at once begin construction of no less than 26 new irrigation projects in Idaho.

This appropriation is made with the condition attached that no part of the money shall be expended for drainage except in irrigation districts and upon the execution of agreements for the full cost of such drainage works.

STATE RESTS IN CASE OF RANCHER HELD FOR MURDER

Defense Outlines Case in Detail—Will Attempt to Prove Killing Was in Self-Defense.

Following the examination of three new witnesses yesterday, the state rested the case against H. F. Ramseyer, now on trial in the district court on the charge of murdering John Abel, and counsel for the defendant outlined the defense in detail.

The first witness put on the stand by the prosecuting attorney was John Bliss, a farmer who lives north of both the Abel and Ramseyer properties, who testified that he had ordered, and had been receiving water three days before the enactment of the tragedy. On this particular day, Bliss declared, his flow of water had fluctuated greatly, so that at times it was practically receiving no flow at all, while he was entitled to approximately 26 inches. Bliss testified that he went to the night of the killing, and that in doing so crossed the waste ditch leading from the lands of Ramseyer, in the property of R. J. Lyons, and which crosses the road along which he proceeded. Witness testified also that the 14 by 16 inch culvert which conveys the water across the highway was not large enough to carry off all the waste water, some of which was flowing over its side and flooding the road.

Oscar Hieter, a hired man on the Abel place, was recalled to testify as to the weight of the night man, declaring that on the Saturday before the commission of the crime, John Abel weighed 166 pounds.

Another witness called by the state was John Kessler, who testified that on the morning following the shooting, Ramseyer came over to his place and asked him to go on his bond. Kessler testified that he asked Ramseyer "What trouble are you in now, Ramseyer?" Ramseyer replying, "I took a shot at Abel."

The witness further declared that he asked the defendant whether his gun went off accidentally or whether he intended to shoot Abel, and stated that Ramseyer's response was, "No, I intended to get him. I told Frank Stephan, the prosecuting attorney, that I intended to get him."

H. K. Dillingham, a druggist of Filer, having been sworn, testified that Ramseyer came into his store as business on a date prior to the shooting and after standing around and looking over some merchandise, made some inquiry concerning a biological product which happened to be used on horses. Following this Dillingham stated Ramseyer asked to borrow his gun, but that he himself represented to Ramseyer that he did not own a gun and that he did not keep one in the store. According to the witness Ramseyer left the store shortly after.

At this point the state rested its case, and the defense made a motion asking the court to request the prosecuting attorney to call the witnesses, Ramseyer's hired man, and an eyewitness to the tragedy, as a witness for the state, and also that if the prosecuting attorney refused, that the court call Dillingham as a court witness. After some discussion, the court overruled the motion and denied the request.

Attorney Turner K. Hackman, who with W. P. Guthrie is defending Ramseyer, here outlined the defense in detail, the gist of his contention being that the defense would attempt to prove that Ramseyer had shot Abel without any malice or premeditation and in self-defense.

The first witness called by counsel for the defense was S. Prange, who told the jury that on two different occasions, Abel had told him that he would get Ramseyer.

Then Hartley next took the stand and testified that on an occasion prior to the shooting, Ramseyer had turned over to his custody as a con, stable some hogs which were the property of Abel, and that he and the latter went to Ramseyer's place, where the hogs were, and where they were turned over to their owner. Hartley also testified that he helped Abel drive the swine home, but that when Abel offered him money for his assistance, he refused.

Hartley further testified that he saw Ramseyer in Filer later on the same day and that Abel asked him if he had seen Ramseyer, declaring at the same time that he wanted to whip him, and accompanying this declaration with an oath.

SAVAGE DRAWS FINE FOR SECOND OFFENSE

Savage was released Monday upon his permission to pay off the fine as soon as he could earn the money.

Thomas O'Brien also was brought in with Savage on the same charge, but was released without any fine. Savage is the discoverer of the new beverage, formaldehyde, having offered as his plea at the trial on Monday the fact that the family by whom he is employed is in the midst of an attack of smallpox and that he drank the disinfectant to avoid contracting the malady.

WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

Several cities, where the number of automobile accidents is becoming alarming, are conducting "What's Your Hurry" campaigns in an effort to teach the public the meaning as well as the danger of speeding.

It is urged that causes most of the accidents are the number of deaths by automobiles in this country is very large and is increasing very rapidly.

Automobile drivers are generally blamed for the accidents that happen.

But they are not always the responsible persons. They should exercise care and the pedestrian should also exercise care. The responsibility should not be placed on the driver of an automobile.

Automobile owners have themselves undertaken to break up abuse of the privilege of using the streets and are aiding the police in punishing joy-riders and reckless drivers.

The campaign to teach common sense and safety first regulations must be vigorously waged.

MARINE SERGEANT THINKS HE'S HEIR TO KINGDOM

WRENTHAM, Mass., Dec. 7.—The palm trees of Liang Liang, a small island south of the Philippines are ready to wave a welcome and 1,500 dusky natives wait the chance to father a prodigious lot of orphans.

For the old sultan, dead and McClain adds to the department, his son, and by right of inheritance, is the ruler of the island.

The war department announcement was in the form of a letter from Robert A. McClain, ex-marine who saw service at Liang Liang in 1910.

McClain wrote the department that he was the man referred to and he has just received a reply confirming the report of the sultan's death and saying that his claim would be referred to the bureau of insular affairs which would advise him later.

Ten years ago McClain was a marine sergeant on duty at Liang Liang to subdue a Moro uprising, rescued the aged ruler from a party of marines who were threatening him without consideration for his royal estate.

McClain said he carried the ruler to the royal palace bedchamber made him comfortable and forgot the incident.

But the sultan remembered it and a few days later assembled the headman of the tribe and proclaimed the adoption of his big white benefactor as son.

Now the sultan is dead, leaving several pearl fisheries, many groves of coconut palms and a harem, in addition to the royal palace of grass that covers two acres.

McClain wrote the war department for information concerning his title to property which he seeks to secure, except the harem. For that he makes no claim—he married.

DEBS SECURES ELECTION NUMBER OF GREAT VOTES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for president in the last election, received nearly 850,000 votes—the greatest number polled by a socialist president, the nominee in the country's history and approximately twice the socialist vote in 1916.

Available official and unofficial returns from all but seven states show that Debs polled 509,563, which, added to the seven states' socialist vote four years ago—48,366—would give him a total of 557,929.

The states are Idaho, Louisiana, Montana, New Mexico, North and South Dakota and Texas.

Debs rolled up 204,120 votes in New York state alone, excepting the soldiers vote, the unofficial returns show—more than four times the states' socialist vote in 1916, and over three times Debs' polling in 1912.

The first state which gave Debs a sizeable vote this year included Wisconsin with 80,825; Illinois 74,747; Pennsylvania 70,021; California 67,676; Ohio 57,147; Minnesota 56,108; Massachusetts 32,267; Michigan 29,719; New Jersey 24,411; Oklahoma 23,648; Indiana 24,202; Missouri 20,242; Iowa 16,981; Kansas 15,537; and Connecticut 10,225.

GOVERNMENT ASKED FOR APPROPRIATIONS FOR NEW RESERVOIR

The vast projects either entirely new, or extensions of existing projects which have never been adopted, but it would cost $112,780,000 to build these projects nearly as much as has already been invested in the 25 projects now completed.

The secretary of the reclamation service and in the review are found the facts above state, it is only just to say that included among the 25 projects ready for construction is the vast Imperial valley project in southern California which is a project where generally $20,000,000 and which, because of the enormous cost, is not likely to be undertaken in the immediate future.

Eighteen projects have been studied in Idaho and seven have progressed to a point where construction can be begun when money is available. The largest is the Island Park reservoir which would bring under water 10,700 acres of public and 5,000 acres of private land at an aggregate cost of $4,000,000.

The Black canyon project, which looks to be a reclamation of 4,000 acres of public and 35,000 acres of private land and 1,000 acres of state land, is also ready, and can be built for $2,000,000.

The Hillcrest project embracing 3,000 acres of public land and 10,000 acres of private land and 1,000 acres of state land, is ready and estimated to cost $700,000.

Twenty-seven thousand acres of private land under the Gem district can be reclaimed for $750,000; 2,810 acres of public land can be reclaimed under the Lake Walla Walla project at a cost of $215,000, and when funds are available, it is proposed to expend $600,000 in draining 20,000 acres in Boise valley and $136,000 in draining 10,000 acres in Payette valley.

Surveys incomplete.

Of the 11 Idaho projects on which surveys have not been completed, but whose feasibility has been fully or partially determined, the Minidoka extension and the American Falls project are the most advanced.

The former, which would reclaim 5,000 acres of public land and 7,000 acres of state land, would cost $15,000,000 and the American Falls would reclaim 32,000 acres of private land and an equal amount of public land at a cost of $12,000,000.

For the remaining nine projects, estimates of cost have not been prepared but they are all projects looking to the reclamation of public lands in the main.

ORDER RELEASE OF (ALLEGED) EMBEZZLER

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 7.—United States District Attorney Robert Saunders announced today the receipt of a telegram from Attorney General Palmer, ordering immediate release of Robert L. Ward, general manager of the Shanghai Motors corporation, of China, who is at liberty under $5,000 bonds on charges of embezzlement, forgery and theft preferred by the United States district attorney at Shanghai, Ward, with the permission of the district court here, left last night for San Francisco, where his firm has offices. Under instructions from the attorney general, Ward's bond will be released and jewelry and other articles held since he was arrested, will be returned to him, Mr. Saunders said.

FRESNO LEGION POSTS STOP PRIZE FIGHTS

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 7.—The executive committee of Fresno Post, No. 4, American Legion, voted this afternoon to discontinue prize fighting lawfully in this city. The legion is the only organization in the city of Fresno which has a permit to conduct prize fights. The last bouts under the auspices of the legion were held tonight. The action follows that of the Fresno police commission which last night ordered all prize fighting stopped in that city, because of "unspeakable crimes committed by prize fighters and their assistants against women."

THINK SUCCESS IS EASY BUT IT DOES TAKE KNACK

You're Got to Sell Yourself to Make Good, Say the Famous Lee, Children.

By ZOE BECKLEY.

NEW YORK.—"Sell yourself!" Put it over!

Make people take you as you want them to!

In other words, be successful.

"It isn't hard to do, you know—it's just a knack of finding the right way to do to produce, without seeming to think of it, if you get me."

Born Comedian.

I looked down at the speaker of these words of wisdom and saw something about three feet high with a mop of shaggy brown hair, a pair of sky-blue eyes and a grin—well, how shall I describe that grin? I can only say that all the comicality in the world was behind it. It was the smile of the natural-born comedian.

In another sense than a physical one did I "look down" upon this exceedingly small, exceedingly wise, person. In every mental and spiritual way I looked up to her. For she and her sister, Katherine, aged respectively seven and ten, are the personification of success, with a big "S." And we all look up to that.

They were billed last week at the Palace theatre, New York, as "Jane and Katherine Lee, in an original act," which is an exceedingly conservative statement. I'll tell the cause. It was so original that the audience rose right up on its hind, in a manner of speaking, feet and squawked with delight.

Such comedy, folks whispered to one another, is rare indeed, good, good, knows, in grown-ups. But that children could perform like that—well, do you really believe they are children? Don't you suppose they're faked or something? Dwarfs, perhaps? "Children!" "Surely!" surely some trick about it, agreed John, of Mrs. John, and Edwin to Angelina.

There's No Trick!

But there is no trick, as I assured myself by padding around to their dressing room and finding them before they could get into street clothes and escape. Unless you call knowing how to "sell yourself," a trick, as seven-year-old Jane admitted it is, in a way, when I pinned her down to it, it goes without saying, she remarked slyly, "you gotta have a sense of humor in the first place. That is, if it's comic stuff you're trying to put over."

"Then, all you have to do is be first in some way that really serves you to you, but never get like you thought you were funny, see? In plain words, believe in yourself good and hard and then 'sell' your specialty by making people see it as you see it."

"No matter what your job is—your earning fifty dollars and getting ten, it's because you aren't selling yourself. You're not making other folks 'get you.'"

"Miss Jane and her Auburn-haired sister have no trouble making people 'get' them. So sure is their touch, in fact, that they have scant patience with artists who permit their talent to go begging."

Robust Youngsters.

The Lee kids are a pair of robust youngsters who have more fun than the average, that's all. They were born to the stage, both parents having been actors since babyhood.

The Lees attend the Professional Children's School in the West Forties. They "do" their lessons by correspondence when on the road. It goes without saying they have passed all examinations and tests with Grade A standing.

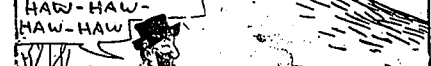

Mamma Lee and her kiddies have a real home—an old-fashioned apart-

AWARDED $600 WAGES FOR 25 YEARS WORK

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Dec. 7.—John Sutton, 35, of Everett Ill. today was awarded $600 by a jury in the Lake county circuit court as "fair compensation" for 25 years work done for Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bolger who adopted him when he was a child.

From the age of 10 Sutton qualified, until 1917, he remained with them, working for nothing but board and lodging, because, he said, he expected to be remembered in the ment that couldn't be homier if it had a front gate and roses climbing over the porch.

Skate to Theatre.

It is so near the school and most of the theatres that Jane and Katherine make it in four minutes by skate time. They always skate to work!

Their best friend is Thomas J. Gray, who wrote their vaudeville sketches for them and has been thoroughly adopted by them as a member of the family.

Their secret—just:

"Make people take you as you want them to—"be successful!"—"sell" yourself.

Last Sixty Seconds of Game Is Psychic Moment of Ohioans

Will the Uncanny Last Minute Forward Pass Win For the Buckeye Eleven in the Pasadena Clash on New Year's Day?

Ohio State's warning to the California team is simple: "Be quiet."

The last minute touchdown is the threat which the Buckeye eleven—undefeated and champions of the Western Conference—will take over the Rocky Mountain "hump" to Pasadena, Cal., where they grapple with the Californians on New Year day in the big inter-sectional grid game of the year.

No team that meets the Ohioans can figure the outcome of the game safely put in coin storage until the last shell whistle has blown and even then if the ball is in play it had better watch out.

Famous Trick.
The last minute stuff was the bone-awful title for the Waco gridder. The ball was in the air when the whistle blew and the winning points were scored after the clock had ticked a few seconds over time.

"They humbled Wisconsin," in the last four minutes of play by running over a pair of touchdowns. And they pulled the Chicago game out of the fire in the same uncanny manner.

Cutting Loose.
The way they do it is by cutting loose with overhead style of play—the dreaded forward pass which the Ohioans have developed so successfully.

That's the brand of football the Ohioans will take west with them. The last minute forward pass attack will be their threat.

Few believed Coach Jack Wilco's squad could pull such a trick on a Zuppke-trained eleven, but it did.

Will they do the same thing to Californians on New Year day?

Team Play.
And the principals in this forward pass vaudeville act are "Hoge" Workman, quarterback, and Pete Stinchcomb, one of the brainiest halfbacks soon in the middle west and east this year. When Stinchcomb gets on the receiving end of Workman's long tosses he is directing where the ends shall dart down the field to be ready to scoop up the ball on the dead run.

Naturally the players directly taking part in this spectacular overhead attack stand out, yet it is the work of the other players that helps make it successful.

Big Ohio Year.
Ohio has had a big year in politics, baseball and football.
Fortune has smiled over Ohio soil in 11 her attempts to outstrip rivals. By having two Ohioans in the presidential race they put over Warren G. for a touchdown. And Tris Speaker's Cleveland Indians knocked the baseball title for a goal.

And now her championship grid machine has the call to bump off another sweeping triumph and make it "The End of a Perfect Year for Ohio."
So will we watch the clock.

HOGGE WORKMAN

STINCHCOMB

This is the "Last Minute Touchdown" combination in action. Quarterback Workman can throw a pigskin accurately half the length of the playing field, and Pete Stinchcomb, who is a second edition of "Chief" Hurley, formerly All-American back and now assistant coach of the Ohioans, can catch a pass on the dead run. A 45-yard pass from Workman to Stinchcomb beat Wisconsin in the last minute of play this year. They're a sweet pair—"Hoge" and Pete.

PRIZE FIGHTS IN FRISCO STOPPED BY COMMISSIONERS

Arrest of Fighters Causes Action by Heads of Commission: Will Do for Indefinite Period.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—The San Francisco police commissioners last night stopped prize fighting in San Francisco. All permits for conducting fights or boxing contests were ordered suspended.

The decision of the supervisors means that in San Francisco, for a long time known as a haven of boxers despite the California four-round limit law, will be a quiet desert for an indefinite time. Under the law no boxing contest in which professionals appear can be held without the permits which the supervisors declare they will not issue.

The San Francisco grand jury tonight began what was announced as a detailed inquiry into the conditions under which prize fights have been held here and related matters.

Alleged gangsters, including two ring professionals known all along the Pacific coast, who are under arrest charged with what the police commissioners termed "unspeakable crimes" against women and with the slaying of three peace officers at Santa Rosa yesterday, are blamed for the stopping of boxings here. For the grand jury action and for plans set afoot in Oakland, across the bay, today to require all boxers appearing there to present certificates of good character.

Not for years has San Francisco been so stirred officially and privately as by the acts attributed to this gang today when the five men held here appeared in court to plead ropes had to be stretched to hold back persons desirous of attending the proceedings and many policemen were stationed about the hall of justice for any emergency. No one was allowed to enter the court room until he gave a valid reason. The prisoners were taken before the court, manacled and behind each marched an officer.

Judge Louis F. Ward opened court with a brief speech to the effect that speedy trials were required. They developed bit one of the accused had been able to obtain an attorney willing to underwrite his defense. This attorney asked a continuance of his client's case until Dec. 27, but Judge Ward demurred and set Dec. 16 for the trial.

All pleaded not guilty. Attorneys appointed by the court entered protests at being compelled to serve.

Grain

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Wheat underwent a sharp decline in price today, owing largely to an apparent halt in export business and to misgivings about the winter situation in the northwest. Closing quotations, which heavy, 1-2 to 3 cents lower, with $1.67 1-4 to $1.67 3-4.
Corn lost 2 to 3 1-4 and oats 1 1-4 to 1 1-2 cents. In reviewing the outcome, varied from 40 cents decline to 12 cents advance.
Refusal of exporters to follow the recent upturn in wheat prices gave a decided advantage to bears throughout the day. Selling was active from the start and was said to come in a considerable degree from foreign interests. Part of the selling was also ascribed to unconfirmed gossip that officials of the Canadian government had completed arrangements with Minneapolis mills to devote 3,000 cars to the hauling of wheat from Canadian terminals to Minneapolis during the winter. On the other hand knowledge of additional crop failures in North Dakota, including one federal reserve institution was persuasive and did a good deal to deprive the market of support except from short-sellers who were in a position to collect profits.
Corn and oats declined with wheat.
Beside enlarged requests for wheat were generally taken to indicate more liberal receipts of corn here soon.
Weakness of grain and hogs made provisions average lower. Packers were sellers of hogs.

OMAHA, Neb. Dec. 7.—Hog 10,000; 100 lbs to 250 lower; bulk medium and light butchers $9.00.25; top ing grades $9.25.00. 50.

Cattle 7,000; beef steers mostly steady to up 10 cents; heavy stock steers 7.50.00; sheep steady to strong; other classes generally steady.
Sheep, 11,000; top early sales of lambs 25 to 50c lower; bulk sales lambs and sheep, fully 50c lower; top lambs $10.00; yearlings $7.50; ewes

HERE'S BIGGEST FISH YARN YOU EVER HEARD

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis.—Here's the biggest fish story you ever heard —and if Uncle Sam were not sponsor for the yarn he one would believe it.
The story:
From ponds around the Upper Mississippi, more than 80,000,000 fish have been caught this year. So says
C. E. Culler, superintendent of government "reservoir crews," engaged in catching out of small ponds into the Mississippi and other large rivers. The object is to conserve a great fresh fish supply.
But that isn't the major fish story.
It's only a small fishing yarn.
To get your mind in a receptive attitude:
Superintendent Culler says he hopes to rescue 200,000 fish this season, which will break his last year's record
of saving 130,000 fish.
This is considerable, you say. Well, it is the biggest fish story ever told.
It's the fish story of the century.
"We're hampered," says Culler, "by the lack of funds. Usually I work 14 crews of four to six men, but this year we had about 400 miles of the Mississippi."
Culler explains the way the small fish get caught in the small lakes and ponds along the Mississippi. In the spring, when the river is near its flood stage, most of the islands are covered with water and the sloughs become part of the river. As the waters recede the parent fish have enough sense to escape back to the river, but the small fry are left stranded.
Culler's work is the rescue of these small fish.

CRADDOCK BEATS FEEDERS

CRADDOCK, Neb. Dec. 7.—Earl Craddock of Anita, Iowa, won from Charley Peters, of Papillion, Neb., in two straight falls here last night. The first fall came at the end of the first round with a half body count. Craddock was hit on the head and left in a daze. He was hit on the head and Craddock was on top nearly all the time, Peters spending his efforts in keeping his shoulders from being knocked out.

GIBBONS OUTBOXES GIBBONS

TOLLEDO, Dec. 7.—Jimmy Gibbons of St. Paul, outboxed Jimmy Gibbons of St. Paul in a two round fight.
Gibbons got six knockouts in his first round last night, according to the opinion of men at the ringside.
The other four rounds were even.
Gibbons was cut about both eyes was bleeding profusely by the end.
Gibbons forced the fighting throughout. The men are light heavyweights.

NOTED BRITISH AUTHOR IS SURE REDS WILL FALL
Henry Arthur Jones Talks Issue With H. G. Wells Over Situation in Russia.
By LORRY A. JACOBS.
NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—"The downfall of international government by the proletariat, as fostered by the soviets of Russia, is an inevitable and inevitable result of the French revolution.
Russia will return to tolerable conditions of life, to order, health, security and prosperity, in the measure that she returns to and obeys those first principles of social conduct and civil government which are always and everywhere in operation."
So says Henry Arthur Jones, one of the most noted of English playwrights, who has come to America to turn his attention for the moment and only for the moment to the writing of a play for Jesse Lasky head of the Paramount-Astor productions.
Jones recently entered into a controversy with H. G. Wells, foremost English historian and economist, as to Russian government and the controversy as printed by London newspapers has drawn the interest of practically all of thinking English folk.
"What's kind of order?"
"After the Russian Revolution, a short time ago it was as follows:
"I notice in an interview on your return from Russia, you summarize conditions in Russia in four words,
"Hungry, want and hunger." This seems to imply that if only order is maintained, want and hunger are of secondary importance. What we are concerned to know is, "What kind of order prevails in Russia today?" And "How much want, and how much hunger."
"We have evidence heaped mountain high that the hunger and want in Russia are unimaginable in their horror and extent."
"Will you tell the workers of England?"

that the order now maintained in Petropolis is the kind of order you desire to live under? An enforced 12 hours a day on wages at starvation level; the right to strike, may the right to murmur or complain even denied them under pain of death; free speech more cruelly suppressed and punish-world has ever known—will you tell the workers of England that this is the kind of order you wish to establish in your own country?

New Stock Capital.
"It was allowed that capitalism built the great cities of Russia. Under communism their populations have shrunk to about half their former numbers, and are still diminishing and living in progressive misery and starvation. Furthermore, the Communist government, now that it has almost destroyed its own capital, is begging capitalist England to bring its capital to start the industries again.
And yet it contended the present terrible condition of Russia is not the result of Bolshevik rule, but of "Capitalism," "European imperialism" and an "atrocious blockade." Could anything be more illogical?
The question before the world toernment," and until that question is decided we shall but toss and blindly drift, social disorder and social disintegration."

TELLS OF TODAY IN NEW NATION OF CZECHO-SLOVAKIA

Correspondent Tells How Czechs Savor Little Sister Is Getting Along After Two Years.

By J. HERBERT DUCKWORTH.
PRAGUE.—The Czech-Slovak republic is now two years old. At the start of the year from the universal chaos of the great war, Czechoslovakia is the only one spared the sorrows of infancy.

Czechoslovakia is the first state in Central Europe whose budget for 1921 shows a credit balance. It is the only country in continental Europe where the circulation of paper money has not been increased since the armistice.

You cannot be long among these enthusiastic, enterprising people, Czechs, Slovaks and Slovians—until recently "subject races" of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, without being convinced, Czechoslovakia is a state the rest of the world is going to hear much of in the near future.

With an area of 55,000 square miles and a population of 14,000,000 Czechoslovakia has a larger area than Denmark, Belgium and Holland combined and a larger population than Switzerland, Belgium and Denmark combined. Czechoslovakia will quickly live down the handicap of its queer name.

Dr. English, minister of finance, whose budget shows total revenues for the coming year amounting to 4,187,972,500 crowns and a total expenditure of 14,104,373,650 crowns, pointed out to me a feature of his budget that is of considerable importance to American and other foreign investors.

"My estimates, computed at ordinary and an extraordinary budget and another based upon profit-sharing items. Revenues derived from the state budget proper cannot be applied for purposes of the profit-sharing items in the second budget, and vice versa. The Czech-Slovak state, in other words, binds itself flat to use the credits obtained by the credit-yielding items for defraying the state deficits.

"The new financial measure insures the equilibrium and solvency of the state. It was already necessary to obtain a decree of the Ministerial Council, together with the sanction of the Supreme Control Board, before the budget estimates could be exceeded.

"The same formalities are now necessary for the transference of credits to other purposes than those for which they were originally intended, while before the budget estimates can be exceeded the national assembly must be notified of the National Assembly must be notified.

No Extravagance.
Among other precautions against extravagance the various ministries may not make purchases for more than 10,000 crowns in the case of profit-yielding items without the consent of the finance ministry.

"We are determined not to have any extravagance in any of our departments, and to get out of debt as quickly as possible.

PERSONAL MENTION

ADJUTANT TELLS POLICY OF LEGION FOR YEAR

The policy of the American Legion during the coming year is laid down at the meeting of the department adjutants held in Indianapolis on November 8 and 9, according to L. E. Albert, who was in attendance, is primarily one of aid for the many ex-service men who are in need of hospitalization and vocational training.

In this connection, a committee will present to Congress the American Legion plan for caring for patients now in the various military hospitals throughout the nation.

This plan provides for the decentralization of the treatment of public health service and of the War Risk Insurance bureau, the work being placed partially under the control of the legion authorities. It is thought, Mr. Albert declared, that if this program is put into effect, the attention being given will be given quicker and more thorough in execution.

Among other bills included in the proposed legislative program in the Legion's fourth biennial bill, which will be presented to Congress, is a bill. This bill has already been carried in the House.

LEGION PLANS TEXAS FOR SOLDIERS IN HOSPITAL

Plans are being laid to make the coming Christmas a real one for the ex-service men who are now in the various military hospitals in this state, by the American Legion, according to L. E. Albert.

Local posts throughout the state have been asked to visit these men and to bring them gifts. It is hoped, on this occasion, and to use every means within their power to bring them some of the good cheer to which they are so heartily entitled.

STORAGE REPORT SHOWS INCREASE IN WATER

A report from Moran, Wyoming, for the outlet of the Jackson Lake reservoir shows that the total amount of water in storage there on November 27, was 216,370 acre feet, while figures for the same date a year ago show 47,820 acre feet. ## CONGRESS HEARS ANNUAL MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT a "workable budget system." He said he had vetoed the budget bill passed in the last session "reluctantly" and because of a "legislational objection," but as it was later revised in the house he believed it would, with other measures, furnish "foundation for a national budget system."

Mr. Wilson cited figures as to the national debt and urged "rigid economy in which all branches of the government should co-operate."

"I cannot over-emphasize," he said, "the necessity of economy in government appropriations and expenditures and the avoidance by Congress of practices which take money from the treasury by indefinite or revolving fund appropriations."

This year's estimates "strikingly illustrate" the importance of specific appropriations, the president added, the relationship between current receipts and expenditures to the extent of over a billion dollars.

"It is obvious" the message continued, "that these large payments have already seriously hampered the government's progress in retiring the floating debt."

The president renewed some of the recommendations he made at the opening of the last session and added: "I do not feel it my duty at present to suggest the detailed and particular methods by which these objects may be attained, but I have faith that the inquiries of your several committees will discover the way and the methods."

The only recommendations for other than democratic matters was that for a loan to Armenia to be administered through American commissioners to avoid "further tempting or provoking" the revolutionary reactionaries in this country, and for granting independence to the Philippines "to keep our promise to the people of those islands."

The memorandum further sets forth that the "understanding included in this clause of the article seems to involve a careful survey, consideration and determination of all territorial questions between the various states" and declares that "even if such a survey were practicable, it would be impossible to forecast the future."
