

POWERS HAVE DISPUTE OVER GERMAN CABLE

Disagree Over Disposition of Former Enemy Wire Connections

THREATENS BREAK IN PRELIMINARY SESSION

United States, Great Britain and Italy Said to be in Accord Over Proposals

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Disagreement between the representatives of the principal allied, and associated powers over the disposition of the former German cables is understood to have about reached a point threatening disruption of the preliminary international communications conference which has been in session here for some weeks.

Three Powers in Accord
The United States, Great Britain and Italy are said to have reached an accord on most of the principal points at issue but France and Japan have refused to accede to the major proposals advanced by the United States and Italy and upon which the American and Italian governments insist.

Admiral Secretary Davis of the American commission to the conference, laid the whole matter before the senate foreign relations committee at a two-hours conference today behind closed doors. Chairman Lodge announced later that the American proposition had received "the unqualified approval" of the committee. It was stated further that cooperation between the state department and that senate committee on the question had been arranged for.

Seek Direct Link
So far as the United States is concerned, the principal issues are control of the cable lines connecting the islands of the Pacific ocean, and a direct line between the United States and Italy. Italy is joining with the United States in insisting upon the direct cable between the two countries.

At the informal conference, it is understood, a proposal was brought forward that instead of proceeding in the attempt for the distribution of the cables among the five countries an agreement was reached for joint ownership of the lines. The United States, Great Britain and Italy are said to have supported the plan and France and Japan to have opposed it.

FEELS LIKE U. S. PRESIDENT SAYS GREEK EX-KING

LUCERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 10.—Former King Constantino of Greece, in an open message to the American people today says he feels like the president of the United States inasmuch as he has been elected to rule over Greece by popular vote. He reiterates his expression of will toward the entente and the United States and thanks the American people for the sympathy and impartiality shown him. The message was dictated by many requests and contains the following introduction:

On returning to my country and re-ascension to the Greek throne which I was forced by the entente and the intrigues of a political party to abandon for three long and trying years, I feel more than ever as to the president of the United States must feel. I too have been elected by vote of the people and the high office I am about to fill and which I formerly occupied by the single constitutional right of heredity.

MORE TESTIMONY HEARD AT IRISH QUESTION PROBE

Three Former Members of Royal Constabulary Tell of Operations of British Military Forces

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Three former members of the Royal Irish constabulary, each of whom said he had resigned as a "protest against British misrule" and later fled Ireland in fear of attack by former comrades, presented today to the commission of the committee of 100 investigating the Irish question accounts of the operations of the British military forces in the emerald isle.

Each of the three, John Gaddan, John Tangney and Daniel P. Crowley, told of raids in which they said they had been forced to participate as members of the constabulary and of the receipt from British commanders of orders to destroy life and property.

The commission also heard details of the killing of Lord Mayor Curran of Cork, from Miss Macswiney, sister of Terence Macswiney, successor to Lord Mayor Curran; an eye witness account of a military raid on a small county town from P. J. Gulliford of Pittsburgh, Penn., and a description of conditions in Ireland in September as seen by Mrs. Thomas Murphy of New York. The commission of the conclusion of today's session adjourned its hearings until next Wednesday.

CURIOUS THROGS VIEW BODIES OF LYNCHED MEN

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 10.—Throgs of the curious, many of them wearing little bows of hemp strands which they said were from the lynched rope; viewed the bodies of George Boyd, Terence Fitts and Charles Valente, alleged gangsters and murderers, who were lynched here early today.

More than 3,000 had pushed through the morgue by sundown. A coroner's jury today returned a verdict clearing the sheriff of this county and his deputies of all responsibility for the lynching and holding the hanged man responsible for the slaying of Sheriff J. A. Petray of this county and Detective Miles M. Jackson and Lester M. Dorman, of San Francisco, in an affidavit that led to the lynchings.

In front of the newspaper office where a picture of the bodies of the hanged men dangling from their nooses was exposed to public view, the three young sons of Sheriff James A. Petray, killed last Sunday by prisoners had been lynched.

MARTIAL LAW IS PROCLAIMED BY DUBLIN CASTLE

CITY AND COUNTY OF CORK, LIMERICK, TIPPERARY AND KERRY DECLARED UNDER CONTROL OF MILITARY

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Martial law has been proclaimed by Dublin castle over the city and county of Cork, the city and county of Limerick and the counties of Tipperary and Kerry.

In an announcement made to the house of commons today Premier Lloyd George declared it was the intention of the British government to declare martial law in Ireland which for months has been prevalent in Ireland.

Dublin city and the county of Dublin, although they have been the scenes of numerous affrays and of much vandalism, were not included in the district which is placed under martial law by Mr. Lloyd George. He told the commons that if conditions should warrant it, the interdicted area would be extended.

Under the proclamation demands that persons without authority possessing arms or unauthorized uniforms be disarmed from their arms within a five mile or lay themselves liable to trial by court martial and the death penalty.

In expressing the determination of the government to put down disorder in Ireland the premier declared he had no option but to continue to intensify his campaign "small but high organized and desperate minority" in Ireland which was "waging murder and outrage in order" to attain the impossible, and which could bring peace neither to Ireland nor to Great Britain.

SHIPPING BOARD BALANCE SHEET IS MAKE PUBLIC

Financial Transactions of Fleet Corporation Given Out; is First Complete Statement

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The shipping board made public tonight a "consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 1920," giving financial transactions of the board and the emergency fleet corporation from their inception in 1917 to that date. It showed total liabilities of $3,537,726.94 and assets of the same amount and it was the first complete financial statement to be issued by the federal agencies who built the great government owned merchant marine. The board apparently did not undertake to show the total amount which had been expended and the fiscal officials when asked as to this amount said it could not be computed with any degree of accuracy because of the system of accounting in use in the early days of the board.

The liabilities given in the "consolidated balance sheet" included appropriation by congress of $3,213,217,110; "reserves" of $735,613,315 and other liabilities of more than $100,000,000, the whole totalling

UNEMPLOYMENT OF COUNTRY WILL BE SUBJECT OF PROBE

Department of Labor to Make Investigation to Determine Extent of Unemployment of Nation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—An investigation to determine the extent of unemployment in the principal industrial cities of the country was announced today by the department of labor. Decision to try this effect was made public after Secretary Wilson had conferred with nine regional directors who have been appointed to conduct a survey of conditions in cooperation with the present field force of the United States employment service and with other state and federal agencies.

The industrial classification of the census bureau will be utilized in making a survey which will take into consideration only industrial concerns with a minimum of 500 employees. The first results are expected to be ready by January 15, and the intention subsequently to issue unemployment statistics weekly. Officials would make no estimate today of the country's idle workers, although they expressed the opinion that the trend toward unemployment on a large scale had been marked during the last few months. Recently it was said the employment service has been placing from 45,000 to 50,000 persons in positions every month.

Among the regional directors and their divisions for the purposes of the survey announced, were: E. F. Fader, west-north central district, headquarters St. Louis, Mo.; R. L. Russell, west south central district, headquarters New Orleans, La.; C. M. Coe, mountain district, headquarters Denver, Colo.; R. L. Alworth Pacific district, headquarters San Francisco, Calif.; and J. H. W. G. Clark, southwest district, headquarters Los Angeles, Calif.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS
Eat Less Meat if You Feel Back-achy or Have Bladder Trouble.
Must forms uric acid which cures and overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the system. It is their cures of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull pain in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to go up two or three times during the night.
To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uric waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder diseases disappear. This famous salt is made from the best of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is the preventive, remedial, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

HEAR ARGUMENTS IN APPEAL OF BERGER
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Arguments were heard by the supreme court today in the appeal of Victor Berger, editor of the Milwaukee Leader and twice elected to congress from Wisconsin on the socialist ticket, from his conviction under the espionage act. Counsel for Berger also presented to the court briefs and argument in support of their position that the case be dismissed and prosecution abated on the ground that Federal Judge Landis who presided at the trial was prejudiced against socialism. The appeal in behalf of Mr. Berger was based on the contention that the war with Germany had been formally and legally terminated with the passage by congress of the joint peace resolution later vetoed by President Wilson—and that the espionage act was repealed through the same enactment.

BANKERS ENDORSE PLAN TO FINANCE FOREIGN TRADE

Plan Urged by Speakers At Meeting of Financial Organization—Hoover Makes Talk

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Organization of a corporation to finance foreign trade, to be backed by bankers, manufacturers and merchants was endorsed today by prominent speakers before a conference under the auspices of the American Bankers' association. The proposed corporation would be formed under the Edge law with a capital of $100,000,000, available to American producers as cash payment for their goods on which foreign buyers would be unable to pay cash. This foreign trade, speakers said, was necessary to the commercial progress of the United States and some method of financing foreign trade must be worked out to enable American manufacturers to take their place in the world trade.

Herbert Hoover, speaking before the afternoon session, declared that if the project were successful today's conference would have been the most momentous since the armistice. "You are gathered here for the fundamental purpose of doing something practical in the solution of a financial situation by every day means," Mr. Hoover said. "You have a great problem, for our farmers today are suffering great losses and workmen great unemployment. This is due, to a considerable degree, to the stagnation in orders for our export surplus. From this stagnation the consuming duced and effects are accumulating upon our own home market is sufficient. We must face the issue that these economic ills arise from the vicious economic circle that can be broken in one way only and that by the establishment of credits abroad, not the dangerous short time credits which we have already become overextended, but the long time investment in reproductive enterprises. Mr. Hoover declared that present problems should be solved by the processes of business and the individual's initiative co-operation than by the government, government promotion, he said, would lead to vicious ends and would be subject to "every pressure that desperate foreign statesmen can invent."

Declaring that if American wanted Europe's trade she must help that continent now, A. C. Howland, vice president of the International chamber of commerce, painted an encouraging picture of Europe in the reconstruction period.

Added honor was paid Jackson in the presence of a company of naval recruits from the training station, here. Every department of the city and county government was represented at the funerals, Mayor James Ralph delivering a brief eulogy before the flower-covered caskets as they were carried from the city hall.

ASK GOVERNMENT TO AID BARGE LINE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—An appeal for government aid in establishing a barge line on the upper Mississippi river was made today to the house interstate and foreign commerce committee, by a dozen delegates to the National Rivers and Harbors congress. Sidney J. Roy of Hannibal, Mo., secretary of the Upper Mississippi Waterways Association was spokesman for the delegation which comprised business men from cities on the Mississippi north of St. Louis.

Mr. Roy said it was imperative that a fleet of barges be placed in commission to haul ore and coal between St. Louis and St. Paul and Minneapolis. "Cutties on the upper Mississippi are in a freight pocket," he said, because they must depend on rail transportation to Atlantic ports, while Duluth, Chicago and St. Louis take advantage of cheaper water rates.

URGE FARMERS TO COMBINE TO GAIN HIGHER PRICES

Speakers At International Farm Congress Suggest Co-operative Organization Necessary to Protect Industry

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 10.—Organization of every agricultural community in the nation on an intensive scale to fight the farmers' battles and to obtain "economic justice" for the producers of foodstuffs was urged by speakers today at the International farm congress. Emphasis of cooperation for organization developed but leaders have indicated that no special privileges were sought by farming interests. They urged to plan that such organization had not been their creed and was suggested now only as a measure to gain relief from an "intolerable economic situation" brought about by low prices for farm products.

Regardless of former title, speakers urged organizations which would have their roots in townships and extend through counties and states to the nation's capital. Dr. H. C. Taylor, director of farm management and economics of the Department of Agriculture, told the congress that Secretary of Agriculture Meredith would welcome a united voice for a definite aim of agriculture.

Howard Leonard, president of the Illinois Agricultural association and farmer of Illinois now are presenting in solid front. He argued that the farmer had a moral and legal right to follow his products farther toward the consumer, in outlying co-operative marketing plans.

C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln, president of the Nebraska farmers union, and a member of the national committee to plan co-operative marketing, said the crying need of farmers was for more united action among the existing farm organizations.

In support of his assertion, Mr. Gustafson told how Nebraska farmers through unions had established livestock and grain marketing facilities did that way with millions and resulted in a double profit.

"On top of satisfactory of quick handling and prompt settlement our members saved 50 per cent of the selling cost," he said.

LADY AMBASSADORS.

The Woman Patriot, official organ of American anti-suffragists, has unearthed a diabolical plot. It is nothing less than a scheme to have Great Britain and the United States represented at each others' capitals by "lady ambassadors."

Lady Astor, it appears, American-born and English-adopted, now a member of the British parliament, is scheduled for the ambassadorial job at Washington. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the woman suffrage movement in this country, is to represent Uncle Sam at the Court of St. James. Premier Lloyd-George is declared to be willing to send Lady Astor if President-elect Harding will appoint Mrs. Catt.

It is a bit disquieting to contemplate the fiery Lady Astor in the position filled heretofore by such statesmen as Lord Bryce and Viscount Grey. That, however, is England's lookout. So far as American representation is concerned, a calm appraisal of the achievements and qualifications of Mrs. Catt suggests that she might make a better ambassador than many a male diplomat we have sent to London.

From the standpoint of practical politics, the anti-suffragists seem unduly excited about the matter. Mr. Harding, as president, can hardly be expected to appoint to such a desirable post a woman who has spoken and voted against him, and Premier Lloyd-George will be unusually forgiving if he rewards Lady Astor likewise for her drastic criticism of his policies. Still, the warning is timely. Such things may not be impeding at this moment, but they are destined to come in time. There will certainly be lady ambassadors, or ambassadors, as the case may be, although they can hardly do much worse with international affairs than solemn males have done in the past.

THE BORDER ARMY.

One of the most pleasing features of the Mexican situation is the prospect of withdrawing the American army from the Mexican border. We have had a large military force along the Rio Grande for so many years now that it seems almost a fixture. It has long been taken for granted that that force, sooner or later, would constitute the vanguard of an army of occupation, intervening to save Mexico from its own chaos. That possibility has shrunk to the vanishing point.

The present administration gives promise of being able, with nothing but diplomatic support from Washington and financial aid from willing American bankers and investors, to restore order, meet obligations and rebuild the nation's industries.

Best of all is the new spirit of friendliness to "gringos" manifested by the Mexican government and reflected by the population. It is this spirit, more than anything else, which offers hope of such peace along the border as will make Mexico a neighbor hardly more troublesome than Canada.

A moderate patrol force will be needed, in any event, to prevent rum-running. That is the penalty a dry country must pay for being sandwiched in between two wet countries. But even that should be made easy by co-operation with so reasonable a government as that now installed in Mexico City.

The bulk of the army now strung across from the Gulf of Mexico to the Gulf of California can probably be withdrawn soon, and one more step will have been taken in establishing world conditions permitting a reduction of costly military armament.

HAND-PICKING IMMIGRANTS

A newspaper man has been studying conditions at Ellis Island writes:
 "Among the rejected cases at Ellis Island any day you may meet families who have sold their farms and homes and all their belongings to pay their passages from Europe. Their rejection means nothing to corrupt officials abroad, nothing to shipping companies or shipping agents, but it is easy to imagine the misery and hardships that could be saved if these people had been told of the possibility of their rejection or, better still, could have been either debarrered or accepted before they sold all their worldly possessions."

So much for the humanitarian side of the business, as it affects the foreigner. The superiority of a system that would sift out the eligible immigrants before they leave their own countries is self-evident. From the American viewpoint, it would save a vast amount of time, trouble and expense on this side if the questionable cases were adjudicated at the starting point. A comprehensive system of foreign examination would doubtless cost more, altogether, than the present system, but nearly every one who has studied the matter agrees that it would be more effective and satisfactory.

The suggestion is no novelty. This very method of hand-picking immigrants has been used for some time on the Canadian border by Canada and the United States, and has worked well for both countries.

END OF THE FARM BOOM

The land boom in Kansas, Iowa and other agricultural states is now bearing bitter fruit. Farmers who bought land at two or three times its pre-war prices, on a basis of inflated commodity prices, are now facing payment for it on a basis of prices not much above normal. They cannot do it. Most of the land that has been bid up to $400 or $500 an acre never paid more than a fair return on $200 an acre before the war, and cannot be expected to do much better than that hereafter, at least for the next few years.

The city speculators who hold a large proportion of the farms bought at fancy prices need not be given any great amount of sympathy. They might have known better. They were primarily responsible for the absurd inflation to which so much farm land was subjected, and which played havoc with farm values generally. They took a chance, just as they might have done in the grain market, and got stung. The farmer, professional or amateur, lured into buying at top prices, is a more pitiable figure. In hundreds of cases he must lose his farm, forfeiting what he has already paid, which represents the savings of years.

It is the old story of excitable people being carried off their feet in boom times, and fancying that the high prices and profits will last forever. They never last. The lesson, however, may do agriculture good. Farmers swept off their feet by the speculative fever may now settle down to serious farming again.

COLLEGE GROWTH.

Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the Institute for Public Service, prophesies that there will be 831,000 college students in the United States in 1950. He bases this estimate on an investigation of 210 colleges of all sizes and of both public and private support. In 1919 there were 248,000 students in the institutions of higher learning.

Every one has observed that the colleges seem to be enjoying boom times this year. Mr. Barnes points out that this condition is not phenomenal and has nothing to do with the war. The annual increase in college attendance lately is identical with the average increase before the war. It is a steady, natural growth due to the fact that education itself stimulates education. The desire for education in America is increasing in a fairly steady manner along with constantly augmented ranks of persons who have had this extra schooling.

It must be true, however, that colleges and universities are showing real vitality and fulfilling their purpose with reasonable success, or this steady growth would not exist. In spite of much larger financial burdens, these schools are managing somehow to keep their plants going, and to make good in the estimation of the undergraduates who crowd their halls and even in the eyes of the hard-headed old outside world.

The problem in the modern ball rooms is to make the shimmy shakers shake the shimmy.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

RECOMMEND REOPENING OF TRUST PROSECUTION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Institution of judicial proceedings against five organizations of farm implement manufacturers and dealers, and reopening of the government's anti-trust prosecution of the International Harvester company was recommended to congress today by the federal trade commission.

The commission in special report to the senate in response to a resolution ordering an inquiry, asserted that during 1916-18 inclusive, more than 200 concerns manufacturer farm implements had combined to fix prices "higher than the increase cost of manufacture and materials" and that the dealers co-operating had "in local agreements appropriated the prices all of which, the commission alleged to be in restraint of trade.

The International Harvester company, and the report did not enter the association's activities relative to price fixing on harvesting machinery, but did not enter as to other implements produced." The trade organizations against which court proceedings were recommended are the National Implement and Vehicle Association, the Southern Association of Wagon Manufacturers, the Carriage Builders National Association, all of organizations of manufacturers, and the National Federation of Implement and Vehicle Dealers and the Eastern Federation of Farm Implements, Fertilizers and Association.

The commission charged that the implement makers, partly as a result of the present combination had increased their net income for 1918, 152 per cent above the 1914 mark and profits on capital from nine per cent to 17.7 per cent while dealers' profits had increased in a 600 page report.

LOCAL RESTAURANT MAKES REDUCTION IN FOOD PRICES

The first reduction in food prices in Twin Falls by a local restaurant was announced yesterday by the Rogerson Hotel cafe. The cafe will now serve a merchant's lunch for 60 cents, a reduction of 25 cents over the price which prevailed up to today. The merchant's lunch as well as other meals served by this popular eatery, have long been among the finest served in the city, mainly due, it is said, to the woman chef who presides over the kitchen. The same excellent quality of lunches are to be served by the hotel at the reduced price.

WOMEN MAY RUN.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Local politicians think it entirely possible that women will be candidates for the office of mayor and for city council jobs at the next election, 16 months hence. Two women members of the board of education, Mrs. Bert McKee and Mrs. Olga MacKinnon, are being discussed as mayoralty possibilities and Mrs. M. M. McMichael, former "city mother," has been mentioned for the council.

TRANSPORT OWES HIM $35.

SAN FRANCISCO—Mike Kennedy, able seaman, is chasing the U. S. transport Sherman. He says the Sherman owes him $35. He was left ashore by accident he says, at Brindisi, Italy. He beat his way across the Atlantic and across the continent to await the Sherman's arrival here. "It's the principle of the thing," says he. "They got me listed as a deserter, and I ain't."

SHOOT 'EM FROM DOOR.

FRANKFORT, Ky.—Mrs. Jackson Morris, wife of Kentucky's adjutant general, is so handy with a gun that when she wants a chicken killed, she merely steps to the back door, takes aim with her .22 rifle, and the chicken falls with a bullet in its head. She uses a gun brought from Belgium by the adjutant general and presented to his little son.

PRISONERS SCORN HIM.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Joe Mack, charged with firing the contents of two revolvers into the body of his mother while he was in a drunken rage, can't break into the "sacrament swim" at the county jail. Wife deserters and bootleggers scorn associate with man who is said to admit he killed his own mother "and lust" sorry.

Fought With Bare Fists and Smallness of Ring Prevented Any Fancy Footwork

By LOUISE A. JACOBS.
NEW YORK.—Gothamites and visitors to New York who love the fight game are getting a rare treat when they see "Little Old New York" at the Plymouth theater, the chief piece of resistance being a fight staged exactly as fights were staged 100 years ago.

of those days is extremely interesting, and when one compares the science and skill of the ring today with the slugging of 1800 years ago it is almost understandable why purses of tremendous size are given nowadays to the Napoleons of the ring.

Accurately Staged.

The fight in "Little Old New York" is staged with historic accuracy and takes place in a two house, the usual scene of these encounters in those days. The rules drawn up for fights are agreed to by several gentlemen at Broughton's Amphitheater, Tottenham Court road, Aug. 16, 1843. Tommy Honeck, one of the participants, is an ex-fighter who has fought Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee.

Yo Olden Rules.

Following is a transcript of the rules as used 100 years ago:

1.—That a square of a yard be chalked in the middle of the stage; and on every fresh set-up after a fall, or being parted from the rails, each second is to bring his man to the side of the square and place him opposite to the other, and till they are fairly set-to at the lines, it shall not be lawful for one to strike at the other.

2.—That, in order to prevent any dispute, the time a man lies after a fall, if the second does not bring his man to the side of the square within the space of half a minute, he shall be deemed a beaten man.

3.—That no second shall be upon the stage, except the principals and their seconds; and whoever pretends to interfere these rules to be turned immediately out of the house. Everybody is to quit the stage as soon as the champions are stripped, before the set-to.

4.—That no champion be deemed beaten, unless he falls coming up to the line in the limited time, or that his own second declares him beaten. No second is to be allowed to ask his man's adversary any questions, or advise him to give out.

5.—That in bye-battles, the winning man to have two-thirds of the money given, which shall be publicly divided upon the stage, notwithstanding any private agreement to the contrary.

6.—That to prevent disputes, in every main battle the principals shall, on coming on the stage, choose two umpires, who shall absolutely decide all disputes that may arise about the battle; and if the two umpires cannot agree, the said umpires to choose a third, who is to determine it.

7.—That no person is to hit his adversary when he is down, or seize him by the hair, the breeches, or any part below the waist; a man on his knees to be reckoned down.

Box-Fighting One Hundred Years Ago

New York boxing fans are being attracted to the Plymouth theater, New York, to see the play entitled "Little Old New York," because in one of the scenes a fight is staged similar to those of 100 years ago.

OHIO GRID STAR RIDES IN AUTO

Triumphs on the gridiron don't always go to the big and bulky. In fact, the season just ended has disclosed some midsize boys whose spectacular playing has been their chief sources of strength to their respective teams.

Diminutive Allen Snyder, the 127-pound quarterback of Wooster college, Ohio, has been awarded an automobile by a Cleveland motor car company, after being judged the best player in the Ohio Conference.

He is the field leader of the Wooster eleven, which has been undefeated for two years.

During the three years he has been a member of the team he has never missed a tackle nor lost a minute's playing time due to injury. Also he has gained fully half of the ground made by the eleven this year.

The battle cry of opposing teams has been "Stop Snyder and we'll stop Wooster." But the mite backfield star can take punishment like a prizefighter and he is football smart.

His ability to slip through holes in the scrimmage mix-ups that other larger men couldn't, has helped him to win super laurels.

Snyder's home is at Vandergriff, Pa. He has always been a popular school hero, but when he drives that gas buggy across the Wooster campus he'll be the king of Wooster.

Governor Cox did four Ohio newspaper men selected him as the best football player in the Ohio Conference—hence he'll ride in a motor car of his own from now on.

INDICK BALL PLAYERS IN COAST SCANDAL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 10.—Allegations charging criminal conspiracy were returned against four persons here today by the Los Angeles county grand jury which for several weeks has been investigating charges of alleged "crookedness" in 1919 games in the Pacific coast baseball league.

The four named were W. Baker (Babe) Barton, former first baseman of the Vernon club, whose charges precipitated the investigation, Earl V. Maggett, former outfielder for the Salt Lake club, W. G. Rummel, Salt Lake outfielder, and Nathan Raymond, alleged gambler, Seattle.

MIKE BUCKEYES.—Many coast football enthusiasts may prefer looking over the eleven from the state of protection than the Princeton Tigers. The Ohio Staters will be warmly welcomed at Pasadena.

HEN AFTER BUD.—SAN FRANCISCO.—Prof. Winsor, ex-manager of Bud Hickey, is out to develop another boxer who can beat his former protegee. Winsor is now managing Dick Griffin, Texas bantam.

EMBARGO URGED BY BUREAU ON FOREIGN GOODS

All Products Coming Into U. S. From Other Countries Should Be Barred Says Resolution

At a special meeting of the Agricultural Bureau of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, careful consideration of the proposed emergency legislation now before congress was given. It was the sense of the meeting that the present condition of the farmers and stockmen of this state requires that the embargo now being proposed in congress should be placed. Such an act is passed would mean the total exclusion from the United States of all wheat, fresh meats and wool until the next legislative session of congress meets. It is a well known fact that there are already large quantities of all of these products on our farms and in our warehouses and that each month many millions of pounds of these products are being shipped into the United States from Canada, Australia and other foreign countries. These foreign products are produced on a cheaper labor basis, transported by water to the United States at a cheaper rate than the farmers freight charge to his farm markets and that because of the rate of exchange on money that the foreign producer has the decided advantage over the man who must raise crops in our own country.

The consequent flooding of our markets with this cheaply produced goods will be eliminated if the emergency embargo is enacted by the present congress. The Chamber of Commerce Bureau is urging our senators and representatives to work for its enactment.

The following telegram was sent to all of our congressmen tonight: "Resolutions being mailed urging you to use every influence to secure any immediate legislation that will place emergency embargo on wheat, fresh meats and wool now coming in to the United States. Welfare of Idaho farmers, stockmen and community at large requires your vigorous action."

Just come into the Chronicle office and ask for a green stocking; take it home with you, and fill it with goodies desired that beginning next Monday its price would be reduced from two cents to one. The price will be reduced to a "convenient size" and the number of pages would be increased to a minimum of 16 and may run to 48 daily. The change in price is made, according to the announcement in the face of high production costs, which have not yet reached the peak.
