BATTLE LINES ARE WRAPPED IN SILENCE

GERMAN PREPARATIONS FOR ONSLAUGHT CONTINUE, BUT DEFINITE SIGNS OF RESUMPTION ARE TOTALLY LACKING—HUN'S PROMISE OF QUICK ACTION FAILS

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMONS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, May 14.—While the German high command is completing preparations for the third and perhaps the biggest thrust of all, sinister silence spreads along the battle lines. Six weeks have passed since the combined drive of the German and Bavarian crown prince was checked on both sides of the Somme, and comparatively little ground has been won by Von Arnim and Von Quast on the line during the past four weeks. Yet today more than 150 German divisions (1,800,000 men) have been used on these two battle fronts, and Hindenburg's promises to Germany of quick decision has gone by the boards.

The allies, fighting as one army and under a single commander, not only have frustrated the enemy's plans, but have forced an almost complete overhauling of his entire army and have necessitated a brand new plan.

Forget Grand Plans

Hindenburg, obviously forced to scrap his original plans and many others, has brought new leaders to the west front, including Mackensen, and according to reports is concentrating the German empire's total output of brain, muscle and material.

Meanwhile the lines are curiously inactive, although the battlefield has been unusually dry. Today, however, a cold, autumnal drizzle was drenching the area. Frequently the artillery on one side, or both, cuts loose in a spasm of shelling, but soon quiets down. The principal feature of German activity is the bombardment of the rear echelons of the back areas. Even villages of considerable distance to the rear are lashed with a harassing fire. But the British gunners are better at the game than the enemy, plastering the German communications with such accuracy that they may have been abandoned as impracticable.

KAISER FAVORS WAR ON ITALY

WOULD HAVE EMPEROR KARL BEGIN STRONG OFFENSIVE AT ONCE

(By United Press)

PARIS, May 14.—The kaiser, during his conference with Emperor Karl at grand headquarters, insisted on a big Austria offensive against Italy, almost simultaneously with the west front drive, according to reports received here today.

Recent dispatches have emphasized the preparations for an offensive in Italy, including a strengthening of the Austrian reserves there, together with heavy concentrations of artillery and airplanes. A considerable force of Austrian artillery is said to have been moved to that theatre from the western front.

The conference, in which the German and Austrian staffs participated, occurred Friday. It was officially announced from Berlin yesterday that "political, economic and military matters were discussed, and that a satisfactory agreement was reached."

GOVERNMENT TAKES PLATINUM SUPPLY

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Platinum has been commandeered for war purposes, the war industry is heard announced today. Supplies in the hands of jewelers, manufacturers, wholesalers and importers, and platinum received from the mines up to June 30, must be sold to the government at the announced price and platinum at $135 an ounce.

AVERAGE TWO SHIPS DAILY FOR WEEK

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—An average of two ships a day were launched by the emergency float corporation for the week ending last night, the United States shipping board announced today. For the third successive week wood ship launching averaged one a day, the total tonnage floated being 15,000 tons. Steel launches totaled 12,100 tons.

Included in the week's deliveries of steel ships were five cargo vessels, two tankers and one refrigerator ship.

The state of Maine, famous for shipbuilding, launched the first government built wood ship last week. The new boat, the Andra, 2,000 tons, was built by the Portland Shipbuilding company.

ATTACKING PARTIES SHARPLY REPULSED

(By United Press)

LONDON, May 14.—Hostile artillery was active last night in the Somme and Ancre sectors," Field Marshal Haig reported today.

"At 11.45 there was an attacking post west of Morville was repulsed with loss.

"We carried out a successful raid northeast of Bebecq last night. We took some prisoners and captured casualties."

FRENCH PATROLS CAPTURE PRISONERS

(By United Press)

PARIS, May 14.—Our patrols brought in prisoners north of Hengard-on-Saastere (Amiens sector) and west of the Meuse (German sector)," the French war office announced today.

"JA" (German) surprise attack was repulsed (northwest of Orville-sur-Soult) (southwest of Mondiville). A German attempt north of Focht (east of the Meuse) was repulsed. There was considerable activity in the Vosges and Duttel-don-Monell (where American artillery is engaged) sectors."

RUMANIAN CABINET RESIGNS IN A BODY

(By United Press)

ROTTTERHAM, May 14.—The Rumanian cabinet has resigned, according to information obtained by the Nieuwe Courant today from German sources. This is not unexpected, owing to the unrest and dissatisfaction arising from the peace terms enforced by the central empires.

NEW YORK OFFICERS DECORATED IN FRANCE

(By United Press)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LOBBRAINE, May 13.—Major Ralph Royce of Hancock, Mich., and Lieutenant H. R. Gardner of New York and P. D. Meyer of Milwaukee were decorated with the French war cross.

Royce was the first American to make a strictly American reconnaissance over the German lines.

Gardner and Meyer, on April 19, completed an infantry liaison over heavy German machine gun fire.

TO OPERATE LINE ON INDEPENDENT BASIS

(By United Press)

TOKYO, May 14.—The Chinese Eastern railway (that part of the trans-Beriber railway which crosses Manchuria to Vladivostok) declared itself independent of the Russian Bohorviki government and formed its own organization, following a conference between General Horvath and Chinese officials at Peking.

Americans have acted as advisers to the railway organization for the past two months.

TOTAL NOW REACHES OVER ONE HUNDRED

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The names of those missing, mostly from New England, are included in today's casualty list, bringing the total of those captured by the Germans at Belchery to more than 100. "Italy's list includes fourteen killed in action; seven dead from wounds; three from disease, and twenty-one slightly wounded."

DISCUSSION OF PEACE IS IDEAL AT THIS TIME

(By United Press)

LONDON, May 14.—The government is not opposed to peace, but it is ideal to talk about it until the great trial of strength has been fought out on the battlefield," Austen Chamberlain, member of the British cabinet, declared at a meeting of the Women's Unionist's Tariff Reform association.

MAIN HOPE OF VICTORY WITH THIS COUNTRY

BRIGADING PROCESS A MATTER OF NECESSITY, BUT WILL NOT BE PERMANENTLY CONTINUED—WOULD SAVE AMERICANS FOR COMING TEST

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, May 14.—Official indications now make it clear that Pershing's forces are not to be held simply as reserves while the British and French troops bear the brunt of the fighting on the west front.

The main hope of the allies for a victory over Von Hindenburg rests on the coming offensive strength of the American armies in France. There can be little hope for a positive victory, however, in the brigading of American units with British and French divisions. The brigading process was adopted as an urgent defensive necessity with no indication that it was to be a permanent method of using the Americans in France. Where the full force of America's military strength will be felt in France there will be far too many troops under General Pershing for the brigading process to be continued for all the troops at the same time.

Would Keep Americans Fresh

It is beyond necessary to keep the Americans to save Amiens and the channel ports, every plan for their future offensive must be held up; and it is highly improbable that any circumstances except those of the utmost urgency will convince the British to permit the Americans for defensive purposes. There is no other force of fighters left in the world that contains such splendid offensive material as the Americans. This is because America is the only first-class power left that still has its young men intact; and it is the youths in the twenties who make the best offensive soldiers.

It is improbable too that General Pershing would consent to permanent employment of these vital, active young Americans for defensive trench warfare. Nor is it likely he will be agreeable to their employment for a major offensive until there are enough Americans in France to give a reasonable supply of reserves.

Works Well So Far

The brigading of Americans during the present series of combats is an admirable feature for compelling their training. It is fully for soldiers to enter upon defensive operations with a view to a training in the theory of warfare. Actual practice is absolutely necessary for the Americans, and this they can get with maximum results through the brigading method. But the brigading is only a means to an end, and the real thing will come when there are sufficient Americans in France for an offensive on a gigantic scale that may push the fighting front well into Germany before the coming of winter of the Rhine. For the American armies to be held back until a plan such as this can be matured is the highest compliment the allies can pay the United States.

OUTLINES TREATMENT DUE THE GERMANS

(By United Press)

OHIOAGO, May 14.—"Love thy neighbor as thyself but if thy neighbor's right hand offend an offense against thee, cut it off," was one bit of advice left with Chicagoans yesterday by Rev. Henry Van Dyke. The former ambassador to Holland recalled the pacifist with the rest of a Billy Sunday on Easter Sunday.

"I stand to me on earth to men of good will," he proclaimed. "If this thing of mine offend thee on the right cheek, turn to him the left cheek also, but the Bible doesn't say 'what to do after that.' It doesn't say 'if you smite a baby, give it the right cheek to hold up that baby to his again.' The Potsdam gang wish as it did say that."

PROMINENT AMERICAN IS DEAD IN PARIS

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, May 14.—James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, died in Paris this morning, according to a cable message received here today.

Bennett died at 9:40 a. m., the message said. He had been in ill health for some time.

SESSION MAY LAST UNTIL THIS FALL

DECISION AS TO NECESSITY OF NEW WAR TAX MEASURE CARRIES POSSIBILITY OF INDEFINITE PERIOD OF WORK AT WASHINGTON

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Congress and American business men today eagerly awaited the result of a conference between Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, General Simmons and Representative Kitchin, to determine whether congress must pass a new war tax bill this session.

To congress this means a session lasting well into the fall.

To business it means, according to thousands of letters and telegrams pouring on congress and the treasury, expense and uncertainty.

McAdoo is to tell Simmons and Kitchin the government must at once provide means for raising much larger revenues.

It is therefore considered unlikely that Simmons and Kitchin will convince McAdoo to defer the tax bill until the December session at once probably will be with the understanding that congress will meet in November instead of December and at once take up the tax measure.

SPDOWN ON AIRCRAFT

While this important conference is going on today, a showdown is to come in the senate on the aircraft invention. Senator Thompson expects to report the Chamberlain resolution, authorizing the military affairs committee to investigate aircraft production and other phases of war department work. If he does not report it, Chamberlain and Senator Hitchcock will call it up and demand its passage.

Ways were also cleared today for launching a serious investigation into the $484,000,000 aircraft expenditures.

The house military committee today had a letter from Secretary of War Baker replying to charges against the Liberty motor. The motor, which was not made public, but it is known Baker denied the Liberty motor was only a variation of the Packard motor, revealing that many features were adaptations of the German Mercedes motor.

AUSTRALIAN OFFICIALS ON VISIT TO AMERICA

(By United Press)

A PACIFIC PORT, May 14.—Premier William M. Hughes of Australia arrived here late yesterday on an American liner accompanied by his Premier Joseph P. Murray of New Zealand, Joseph Ward and Robert Curran.

Passengers on the steamer from Australia declared that Premier Hughes' party first boarded a British transport, which was attacked and damaged by German commerce raiders. The transport, according to the passengers, returned to the Australian port, and the Hughes party boarded the American liner which brought them here.

Premiers Hughes and Murray are en route to London.

FOUR ARE COMMENDED BY SECRETARY DANIELS

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Secretary of War Daniels commended four men for bravery in saving the lives of their comrades, quarter-master.

They are:

- William P. Clark, quartermaster, 2100 State St., San Diego, Cal.
- John F. Burke, seaman, Perry St., Spokane, Wash.
- Millard F. Watson, Jacksonville, Fla.
- James Fulton Miller, seaman, Philadelphia.

The four men were overboard and saved five others from drowning while at sea.

NEW HEAD NAMED FOR AIRCRAFT WORK

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Archer A. Landon, Buffalo, N. Y., has been appointed chief of the aircraft production division. It was officially announced here today.

Landon was formerly vice president of the American Radiator company. He has had much experience in Europe. He has already assumed his new post.

DRAFT MACHINERY READY FOR ACTION

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—All the draft machinery for the registration of the 21-year-old men on June 5 is ready to be put in motion the moment congress gives final approval to the bill authorizing the listing.

The bill is expected to reach President Wilson tomorrow as the house probably will adopt the second conference report on the measure later today. The senate is expected to report the bill tomorrow. Immediately after signing the bill the president will issue a proclamation calling upon all those eligible to register in practically the same way as was done in the first registration. Approximately 1,200,000 men are expected to respond.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A GERMAN TORPEDO

(By United Press)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 14.—A German torpedo barely missed the vessel carrying the American labor mission abroad and struck a cruiser conveying the ship, according to a consular officer here today.

The British freighter, H. Hyndman, was the Wisconsin's commanding officer. The A. M. Simons here yesterday. The attack occurred in the Irish channel. Simons, director of publicity for the Wisconsin Relief League, is a personal friend of Hyndman. The latter did not state whether it was an American cruiser.

After describing the incident briefly, Hyndman said that the torpedo passed within 10 feet of the boat carrying the mission. Hyndman closed a denunciation of the Germans with a proposal for a permanent league of nations—headed by France, England and America.

"Now even if the Germans do get the channel ports," he wrote, "they can see, nevertheless, names glaring at them close ahead under the Union Jack, the Tri-color and the Stars and Stripes. That is the strongest defensive and offensive in peace or in war, I want to see. That is what I hoped and worked for nearly 50 years ago. Let that be the league of nations to start with."

RUSSIAN PEOPLE GET TASTE OF KULTUR

(By United Press)

MOSCOW, May 14.—Four thousand Germans and members of the Finnish white guard were killed in a battle near Leningrad, military authorities here reported today.

The German bombardment killed many civilians.

After the occupation of "ammerfors, 85 miles northwest of Abo, by the guards, 500 Russian officers and soldiers were shot. They were executed in groups of forty or fifty by machine guns.

PUSH FACTORIES INTO THE WEST

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Railroad administration officials today faced the problem of completely revising the Lane commission's railway wage schedule. They are contending with the proposed wage scale because it is and the necessity for a re-examination into the labor wage question appears unavoidable.

Notwithstanding that the Lane report carried recommendations for a 20 percent increase in wages from $20,000,000,000 annually, findings of the commission in more than 200 individual cases have struck correct notes. The complaints charge errors of omission as well as commission.

Dissatisfaction as to working conditions and inappropriately computed living costs form a majority of the protests.

GERMAN SOLDIERS BURN AND FLUNDER

(By United Press)

PETROHARD, May 14.—Foreign Minister Pichler today sent a wireless message to Berlin, demanding an investigation of authorities in reports that German soldiers plundered and burned villages in white Russia, killing hundreds of the inhabitants.

The foreign minister cited the following instances:

- At Radkovichovskaya, a number of Ukrainians, after obtaining gold and corn, deluged the village with machine gun fire, killing several hundred peasants.
- Similar occurrences were reported at Zhabli and Ouzel. These consisted of being Boltzki were shot on the spot. Many passages were flogged. Old men were bound on horse-saddles and dragged by miles.
- At Viborg, a witness saw 200 corpses. Six hundred Russians were lined up and shot down by machine guns. In two days two hundred persons, including women and children, were sent to the gas chambers.

Officers of the Finnish white guard had conferred for ten minutes.

ALL ATTACKS PAID BOME, MAY 14

(By United Press)

ROME, May 14.—Italy attempts to renew the attack on Monte Corvo and Valtorta failed under fire, the Italian war office announced today.

HUNS TRY TO GET FOOHOLD IN OIL BELT

GERMANS ENDEAVOR TO PURCHASE MEXICAN FIELD—SUCCESS OF THE SCHEME WOULD CUT OFF SUPPLIES TO ALLIED COUNTRIES

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—German recently endeavored to gain a foothold in the Tampico oil region of Mexico by purchasing rights. Some of the armed forces in that region are known to be Germans.

These two significant facts are known today to have come to the attention of the American government.

The first is important because it is a direct effort by Germany to stir up trouble in the region from which comes most of the oil supplies for American and British use.

The second attempt, it was indicated, was being thwarted. At any rate the administration maintains its position of friendliness for General Carranza and its feeling that Mexico should be permitted to work out its own destiny.

General's Death Complicated

The recent assassination of the Mexican general, Zapata, threatened for a time to complicate the Tampico situation. He had been sufficiently powerful to keep the district composed and the oil coming out.

This production is possible through payment of high taxes on all output. Great Britain and the United States have been successful in persuading Carranza they helped Mexico get on its feet, while at the same time they made possible the attaining of vital oil supplies.

FORCED TO REOPEN RAILWAY WAGE SCALE

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Railroad administration officials today faced the problem of completely revising the Lane commission's railway wage schedule. They are contending with the proposed wage scale because it is and the necessity for a re-examination into the labor wage question appears unavoidable.

Notwithstanding that the Lane report carried recommendations for a 20 percent increase in wages from $20,000,000,000 annually, findings of the commission in more than 200 individual cases have struck correct notes. The complaints charge errors of omission as well as commission.

CAN'T SHOOT BUT WILLING TO SANCTION

AMERICAN CHAPLAIN EXPLAINS HIS POSITION TO TROOPS AND THE BOYS SHARE HONORS FOLLOWING RAID OF GERMAN TRENCHES

By FRANK H. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

TO THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LOURNAINE, May 14.—The chaplain of a certain American unit in the Lorraine sector has accounted for three Hunns by proxy.

When the unit entered their trenches, the chaplain addressed them as follows:

"Boys, international law says your chaplain can't shoot, but a war can't be won by not shooting. You all know how your boys notched for the Hunns you've accounted for. I can have nothing to do with this. But, for you got one for yourself, get one for me."

The three privates who conducted a successful daylight raid on the German trenches yesterday "got" six Germans between them. The raiders were John Dismukes of Nashville, Harry Couch and John McCain of Birmingham, Ala. The three southerners knitted up the chaplain today. The first one, showing his gun stock, said:

All Willing to Divide
"Chaplain, there's three—one for me and two for you."

The second showed his gun stock and said: "One is mine and one is yours."

The third had only one: "Chaplain," he said, "as sure's I'm alive I'll get one for you."

The adventure, a meager account of which was received early today, was excerpted as follows:

Dismukes, Couch and McCain, determined to get a German sniper from a stronghold where he had been endangering the Americans, made themselves camouflage suits and crossed No Man's Land.

Arriving at the stronghold, they found an officer and several men. Their shots dropped the other men and they got three more, the others running up a communicating trench.

Organize Rescue Party
The three doughboys then retreated. Two of the soldiers in the American trenches discovered that their comrades was missing. They organized a rescue party and found him. They were now the pride of the unit.

Dismukes, who stutters, was asked how it was if he had got enough.

"Major," he replied, "I'm stuffed up for today."

It was Dismukes who "got" three. Another raiding party, composed of several officers and men, penetrated the German lines in a daylight sortie. They were exploring the positions when they suddenly found themselves surrounded by boches.

The Americans cut loose and a free-for-all shooting match followed, the Yankees retreating as they fired.

Stands Off Enemy
One private dropped into a shell hole, empty of his comrades in the American trenches and holding them off while his comrades receded safely.

Obtaining reinforcements, they re-engaged the Germans, who were now numerous. They executed their mission successfully, the German retreating. The Americans brought back the body of a German, together with a number of papers containing valuable military information.

RAILWAY MAN IS WANTED IN SERVICE

LOCAL BOARD REQUIRES CALL FOR VOLUNTEER BRAKEMAN, FLAGMAN OR CONDUCTOR

Call for one registrant from Twin Falls county who is a railway brakeman, flagman or conductor, to volunteer for military service, entraining here on June 1 to report for duty to the commanding officer of engineers at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, has been received by the local board from Adjutant General C. S. Moody. The place is to be filled from among those who volunteer up to May 20, and if at that time there are no applicants, selection will be made by the board from among registrants.

Assurance of the provost marshal general is given that the call affords an exceptional opportunity for an ambitious, energetic young man.

SOLDIER DESCRIBES LIFE IN FRENCH CAMP

THEODORE T. BUDROW, OF TWIN FALLS, ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF LATH MAIL

Acknowledging the receipt of 11 letters in care delivery, the first mail he had received since his arrival in France, Theodore T. Budrow, a former member of the Twin Falls unit of the Idaho regiment who has transferred into the tank service, writes from a tank center in France under date of April 18, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Budrow of this city, as follows:

Last night I received my first mail since I have been in France. There were 11 letters. Today I received your letter of March 24. It takes the mail about 30 days to get here. I was very glad, I assure you, to begin getting letters again.

Dares Cowboy's Bed
Did you receive the postcard I wrote when I sailed, that was supposed to be mailed when our ship arrived here? I am not surprised that everybody wants to know where I am. But that is one of the many things they censor. However, I can tell you that I am with the First tank center at A. P. O. 216, France. And that is all that will pass the censor. And I guess it won't hurt to add that I am not on the firing line by any means, and don't expect to be for some time, and I have lots to learn yet.

Rank Depends on Work
All the men who transferred to the tank service are transferred on private, and if we can't learn as fast as we should and hold the position we lose our rank. If I am not up to a certain standard in the prescribed time and another man is better, I get reduced to private, and he is promoted. However, I have no fear of losing my rank. It just depends upon how hard I work. The work is very interesting, and not so very difficult.

Y. M. C. A. in Tent
Although there is only a small bunch of tents in this village we have a Y. M. C. A. It was in one of the billets, a vacant house, but the tent was moved into a tent. The tent has a floor, tables, windows and a stage at one end. At the front is a counter where they run a canteen, where one can get candy, tobacco, etc. We also have a small library.

New York Artists Give Concert
Last week we had a concert by artists from New York. It was a very nice affair. The violinist had played at the court of some king. I forget where. But he certainly could play. He played all classical music too. But one did not need to have a musical education to appreciate his music. The first time we are to have another treat. Sundays we always have some Y. M. C. A. minister to give us a sermon, and they are good, too.

The government was mighty wise when it backed up the Y. M. C. A. Army life would be either awfully dull or awfully ruinous without it. It gives a man a place to go in the evening when everybody can get together for a sociable time.

French Weather
If you ever travel in search of an ideal climate, don't waste any time in France. The sun shined part of yesterday and all day today for the first time since it shone for a whole day last week. It rains and drizzles about a week, then it clouds again. The cold wind blows and the sun is absent for another week.

A heavy rain does not make any difference with the schedule for the day. The lieutenant says get your slickers, and away we go in the rain. I have gotten so used to the wet weather (wet feet) that it doesn't bother me any more.

When I landed I had a bad cold which I seemed to be unable to break up or get rid of. About two weeks ago I quit smoking. (I probably wouldn't have if I had not been out of tobacco and broke as well) and my cold is about well, and I feel fine. I don't know how long I will go without smoking as I don't intend to quit for good, but I will quit for a month or so anyway.

Limits Soldiers' Parcels
In my mail yesterday I received my

PRESIDENT WILL NOT REOPEN CONTROVERSY

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—It appears unlikely today that President Wilson would permit himself to be drawn further into the aircraft embargo by the latest open letter of Gustav Bergling, involving secretary of War Baker.

CITY BEGINS WORK GARBAGE DISPOSAL

STREET COMMISSIONER IN CHARGE OF ACTIVITY THAT SUPERSEDES CLEAN UP DAY

What is regarded as the first step toward the establishment here of a system of municipal garbage disposal is being instituted this week in the clean up campaign quietly inaugurated and being thoroughly carried out by Street Commissioner J. J. Pilgrimage. In advance of the men with wagons and teams having in charge the actual work of removing the accumulations of rubbish, men are sent out on a day ahead by the commissioner to notify householders of the approach of the cleaners and to direct them to have their waste material in readiness for removal.

It is first seasons it has been the custom to declare a municipal clean up day on which occasion, all of the householders were supposed to arrange for the removal of garbage accumulated during the winter, to bury dead leaves and weeds and to scour the city environments in one day's time. The growth of the city is such that this plan is regarded now as impracticable, and further development of the plan of municipal disposal of garbage is in progress.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE ORPHEUM
An athletic young man and woman and a petite Edna, comprise the De Long trio at the Orpheum, whose sensational exploits in gymnastics, comedy, and feats of strength, present an unusual offering which they call "Circus Novelty Acrobats." Their routine is varied including many stunts, some standard, some novel, but all presented with every regard to wardrobe, class and ability. The feats presented necessarily require strength and cleverness, but the ease and precision with which this clever trio work, makes their feats appear less difficult than they really are.

Fargo and Walls are clever musicians with comedy in their act. The program shows at the Orpheum the last time tonight.

What Has Your Red Cross Money Done?

IN the first place, it has enabled the American people, through the Red Cross, to help care for its army and navy.

Secondly, it has enabled America to hearten her Allies' fighting forces and to keep up, among the civilian populations, the spirit to win the war. That, alone, has made the American Red Cross one of the largest factors since our entry into the war.

Canteens which provided food and hot drinks—more than a million meals to soldiers in December; warehouses, crammed with materials, situated all along the French line, all along the Italian lines, at seaports and at places where our soldiers are going to fight; institutions for the care of consumptives, institutions for the re-education of maimed men—these are a few of the concrete accomplishments abroad.

At home—the millions of woolen sweaters, mufflers, socks and other comforts for the men in camps; the work of sanitation around cantonments and the help and advice given dependents of soldiers and sailors—these are things which will "make you, your children and your children's children, in whatever part of the world they may be, proud of being Americans."

Will you do your share to keep this Hand of Mercy at its work?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most ancient organization for the relief of suffering that the world has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the highest executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and ample floating transportation facilities it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson leads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, Your Navy and your Allies unhesitatingly endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

THE ISSUE

Current information from Washington indicates that the political campaign will be rather warmer this year than in previous years, such a thing is possible.

or its opposites, and the distinction should be kept carefully in mind.

AMERICA IN AT THE FINISH

That the honor of delivering the next positive blow for democracy against the Kaiser's forces is to be the part of Americans is indicated in the report that America's armies now in France are not to be used by General Foch for defensive fighting.

The fact that the rapidly increasing overseas strength of the Americans is not accompanied by enlargement of the American sectors in Picardy and Flanders undoubtedly means that General Foch wants American participation in the present fighting to be on a strictly limited scale, and chiefly for its moral effect.

It is certain that General Foch will not be tempted to use the Americans in a great offensive until the American power in France has reached its full military strength. General Foch can be trusted not to waste strength in a series of secondary offensives.

The retention of the Americans at their trench positions in eastern France strongly suggests that General Foch is relying upon General Pershing's men for major operations in that direction and that from Metz to the Rhine is the road America will take to win the war for democracy.

ONLY CHANGE FEDERAL PLAN

BRITISH PARLIAMENT PUTS OUT FEELER FOR IRISH SETTLEMENT

(By United Press) LONDON, May 14.—G. N. Barnes' speech of Friday, advocating parliament for Ireland, Scotland and England, model of an American's state legislatures, is viewed in some quarters today as government "kilo" to test public opinion.

The cabinet is divided but is tending to the view that the only chance to "kilo" the "federal scheme," the Daily News said.

The Express said it understands that Barnes' idea was also that of most of the cabinet members, including Premier Lloyd George.

Barnes is a member of the war cabinet, without portfolio, representing British labor. He succeeded Arthur Henderson.

FEW THRILLS IN THIS SOLDIER'S LIFE

TWIN FALLS BOY FINDS EXPERIENCE IN FRANCE MOSTLY WORK AND LITTLE EXCITEMENT

In the estimation of Genoris R. Bybee, son of County Surveyor and Mrs. James A. Bybee, member of the American expeditionary forces in France, as expressed in his letter under date of April 18, the war is "slow business."

"It is remarkable," he says, "what little evidence there is of activity here." The young soldier enlisted last spring in the Twin Falls unit of the Idaho regiment.

ALLIANCE RENEWED AGAINST RUSSIA

(By United Press) ZURICH, May 14.—The Austro-German defensive alliance against Russia has been renewed, according to a dispatch to the Neue Zürcher Zeitung today from its Vienna correspondent.

The details of similar alliances against other countries will also be worked out, it was said.

Considerable bitterness has been generated between the German military and the Austro-Hungarian leaders because of the latter's refusal to lead troops to aid Germany, particularly on the western front and in the Ukraine.

Members of the Austro-Hungarian legislative bodies have also openly suggested against German exploitation of her victory over Russia.

TOWN VIBED BY DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

(By United Press) VANCOUVER, B. C., May 14.—Stevedores, the salmon fishing metropolis of British Columbia, was devastated by fire today. A heavy wind fanned the blaze which broke out at 9:30 o'clock.

The fire was still raging. Three companies, the Star, Lighthouse and Stevedore have burned and two hotels also are gone.

Detroit—Tommy's Revenge on His Doting Mother

TOLEDO.—There are no grounds to believe that Tommie McDuffie of Detroit ever rode the adventures of that juvenile philosopher "Peepo Scodfield" and yet the completeness of his revenge on a mother who favored "middy" blouses for a thirteen-year-old young man when the young man wanted "covetous" smocks of that fictional hero's most abandoned crines.

Tommie is in jail in Toledo, and locked up with him in the queerest collection of clothes that a Detroit newspaper ever had the patience to gather and the consummate-serve to wear.

He appeared in a ravishing gown of rustling silk, neatly pointed low shoes, with high French heels, a black hose, a flower-pot that, apparently, had been chosen for its impossible combination of equally impossible flowers, a white silk shirtwaist, somewhat soiled in front where a piece of "lick'ris" had fallen, a green silk parasol, although it was cold and cloudy, a crumpled knitting bag and, crowning his disguise, a biogic wig.

In this garb Tommie swept up to the desk of the Park hotel and registered as "Miss Evelyn South-Carow, Detroit." The clerk, after viewing the general effect of the prospective guest, was started on observing "her" hands. They were red; somewhat chapped, grimy and the knuckles seemed to give mute evidence that their owner had been recently playing marbles in a cinder pit.

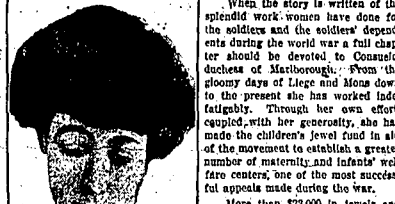

The real Tommie asserted himself at the police station, where a large, red-faced and grinning policeman demanded a kiss. "Kiss, whatever do you mean? I thought you'd be looking out for me, but you're just a big fat pig," was the highly unattractive announcement of Tommie, as his fists clenched.

A little later, his injured dignity soothed, Tommie explained the mystery of his appearance.

"Mother wanted me to wear middy blouses to sell papers in," the man-querer said. "I wanted a suit of covetous' crines. These middy blouses are nothing for a fellow to wear. I thought if she wanted me to look like a girl I'd go the limit. I got these things a little at a time and then I hid them in the cellar. After I got everything I put 'em on and started for Cleveland."

IN THE LIMELIGHT

TIRELESS IN WAR WORK

When the story is written of the splendid work women have done for the soldiers and the soldiers' dependents during the world war a full chapter should be devoted to Constance, duchess of Marlborough. From the gloomy days of Liege and Mons down to the present she has worked indefatigably. Through her own effort, coupled with her generosity, she has made the children's jewel fund in aid of the movement to establish a greater number of maternity and infants' welfare centers, one of the most successful appeals made during the war.

Here too $23,000 in jewels and money was raised in two months. Nothing has been too ambitious for her to undertake. Nothing has daunted her in her determination to put through everything she has initiated. Social functions and personal interviews have been completely cast aside by her since the war began, and her record is one of which the womanhood of England and the women of her native land may well be proud.

Although age has been a resident of England for many years, the duchess' heart is in her work, and it may truly be said in hearing as well. Despite the fact that her life has been closely interwoven with the royalty of Great Britain and other lands, her thoughts are constantly back in America, where during her girlhood she was a favorite of all classes.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

What She Thought About the Early Spring Hat

SHE looked as if she had stepped out of a fashion sheet into the car. Being a sunny day with chill streaks in it, she had combined a fur coat that rippled down to boot tops of gray kid with a hat of glazed gray straw gauded in this. Before I'd come out in a summer hat like that on a day like this I'd get out of a piece of my coat and make me a turban—you can get any shape you want for ten cents.

"My gracious woman, you wouldn't ruin a dandy coat like that, would you? That coat cost money—and look at Daisy Blankers. She had on a white straw hat at the party the other night."

"She's had it to go by—the poor coat—only gettin' fire a week and wearin' yell's shoes almost up to her knee joints! That woman looks as if she made good money—but all I gotta say is she don't show sense to match."

"But she did have more to say, only—enough is always enough."

HUSBAND GONE—SONS GONE—HOME AND RELATIVES GONE

A Fact Story Telling Just What the Red Cross Did for Mme. Pellier.

By an Eye Witness MAUDE RADFORD WARREN

This is the picture I saw last January in France, and you have never fully charged it! Color enough there was—above, the eternal blue; in the background, beds of living green with the shells and the red crosses on them; in the foreground, a long village street so battered and burned that it was merely a canyon of creas-cottled ruts. In front of one little broken house were four figures in black—an old woman, poking among the fallen stones in a vain search for something that could be used; a younger woman, seated what she had once been a doorstep, with her face hidden in her arms; and a little boy and girl, who stared, half frightened, half curious, at the desolation about them. The little boy held in his hand a Red Cross bag. All four were pale and gaunt; in the faces and bodies of the children showed none of the round curves that make the beauty of a child.

This is their history: When the war broke out, Mme. Pellier and her mother and her four young children were visiting her husband's mother in the north of France. Her husband and two elder sons were at home in Lorraine taking care of the summer crops. Then the war! The mother-in-law of Mme. Pellier was ill and could not be left. Her old mother was afraid to travel to Lorraine, with the full care of the four children. Before they could all start together, the Germans invaded. Had news allowed to come into northern France, and so as the month passed France, and Mme. Pellier learned that her village home had been bombed and that her husband and two sons had been killed. Except for the Belgian Relief Commission, which operates in northern France also, and her little ones would have starved outright. At the best they were undernourished. Then the great push began, and hopes for France grew high. But as the French soldiers advanced they had to bombard the northern towns. Mme. Pellier begged the Germans to let her go away with her children—except into Germany, which was refused. She tried to seek safety in some cellar wherever there was a bombardment. Nevertheless a shell killed two of her children.

Found Her Home Gone. Home gone; husband gone; brave soldier sons gone; little, tender boys gone into slavery! That woman's face would have shown you what she had suffered—her face against the battered ruins the Germans had made. At last she and her mother and her two remaining children were repatriated. They knew the infinite relief of crossing into Switzerland and then into Haute-Savoie. From there they went to Lorraine. Mme. Pellier hoped that, even though her village had been bombarded, her boys might have escaped. She found nothing except her bare fields.

You changed that picture, you Americans, who can never be bombarded, even though your boys through war fire cut out of the seven dead and young. It was not your husband and children who died; not your wife—who was widowed; not your little ones who came back, boy and tubercular, to a home that had been razed to the ground. Not yours, but only the grace of accident saved you; not yours, but it might have been and so you changed the picture. You could not build up with your own hands that heap of stones into a home, nor fill the fields, nor bring Mme. Pellier back to hope and the children back to health. But through the Red Cross you saved the remnants of that family that had suffered as you might have suffered.

Things the Red Cross Did. You took the mother of Mme. Pellier to a Red Cross hospital to be treated for anemia. You took the little girl, who was in the first stages of tuberculosis, to a Red Cross sanitarium. You found a place which could be made habitable for Mme. Pellier; near her fields which was anxious to till. You gave her clothes and furniture; you got her needs; you lent her implements. You sent a visiting doctor to watch over her health and that of her little boy. You sent nurses who administered the mighty victory of making her and the child eat and sleep. Later you persuaded her to let him go to a refuge not far away where he might attend school and where she could often find him. Through the help of your Red Cross hope and courage and ambition have come back to that woman, and she is rebuilding her family life. The biggest thing one man being can do for another, you, if you are helped, the Red Cross, have done for that mother.

Red Cross! I saw it work every-where in France—in fields and in blasted villages; in hospitals and schools and clinics; in refugee and settlement camps; in the streets and for the sick children of soldiers fighting to keep you safe from the enemy.

This symbol of help has a double meaning now for Americans, who have always taken for granted the blessing of safety. It stands for your willingness to pay the price of exemption, of pity, of sympathy. A bitter, black road this road of war, but across it, like a beacon of hope, you have found the Red Cross.

HE GAVE HIS SHIRT OFF HIS BACK

How an Italian Officer Traveling on Train Helped a New Born Baby.

One of the ways to say that a man is good hearted is to descend to explain "Americanisms" and say "no, you'd get your hair shined."

A young Italian officer did exactly that—he gave the shirt off his back to a baby just born. It was during a night of the Italian refugees just after the Italian army had been triced by the Austrians.

Here's the story: An Italian officer, who had been a volunteer worker at the station when the crush came through, walked into the Red Cross office at Bologna, Italy, and told of a poor young woman who had given birth to a baby on the train in which he was riding a few nights previously. They had been riding for over 10 hours, and the wretchedly poor and disheveled mother had been jammed in with the hundreds of other frightened Italian refugees. Hungry, tired and miserable and in a frightfully weakened condition, she had scarcely sufficient clothes for herself, not to speak of proper caring for a newborn baby. The young officer stripped himself of his shirt, and there among this frightened, half starved, forlorn crowd the poor Italian infant was wrapped in its first body covering.

Mother and babe were afterwards carried back to health, clothed and looked after by the American Red Cross. And this is only one small, isolated incident among thousands that come under the working of the Red Cross.

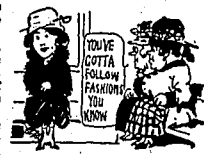

FULL MAN-SIZED HAM SANDWICH

What Ten Minutes for Refreshments Means in Modern War.

Think of what refreshments mean "over there." Think of the Sammie or the Pottin coming out of the trenches with a thirty-six hour taste of absence, getting aboard the train or motor car to get to the front. The communication between the front and the rear. Think of these tired fellows stopping ten minutes for refreshments at a Red Cross canteen. Think of a big cup of hot coffee and a well-sliced ham sandwich served by the Red Cross—women with the joy of service in their eyes. Think of ten minutes for refreshments within sound of the gun, such refreshments served by these women. Did ever a weary lad have such refreshments? Did ever a cup of coffee and a sandwich taste so good?

It is service like this, the supplying of "food that gives a bonus taste" at a time when a man's spirits are likely to be at lowest ebb, that moved a Commanding General of the American Forces to write on December 30: "The extent of the work of the Red Cross is only limited by the number of members it has and the amount of funds available for its use."

PROSPECTIVE CITIZENS TO BE GIVEN HEARING

THIRTEEN PETITIONERS ARE NO-TIFIED OF DATE SET FOR EX-AMINATION IN THEIR CASES

Final hearing in district court here in the cases of 13 applicants for naturalization as citizens of the United States has been set for Saturday, May 25. The hearings will be conducted by District Judge W. A. Baker, and a special examiner of the federal bureau of naturalization will represent the interests of the government.

Following are those to whom notice to appear for examination on that date has been mailed by the clerk of the court: Olan Peterson, Twin Falls; Karl Gustaf Frederick Karlson, Twin Falls; Joseph Kuczyk Dahl; Karl Zver
Peterson, Dahl; Victor Gustaf Swanson,
Buhl; Peter George Palat, Buhl;
James Edward Alvin, Twin Falls; John

Gooding; Richard Gorn, Berger.

FIRST YEAR OF FREEDOM FROM CHOLERA PAST

MALADY AMONG SWINE IS KEPT AT DISTANCE FROM HERDS DURING TWELEMONTH

The close of Friday, May 10, marked the end of the first year of freedom from the ravages of hog cholera in Twin Falls county.
The last case of the malady occurring in his county was reported to Dr. F. A. Sullivan, inspector in charge of the bureau of animal industry hog cholera investigations in Idaho, at his office here just one year ago on that date. It was reported from the farm of Lavid Clark, near Twin Falls.

Investigate 600 Cases
During the ensuing year, inspectors of the bureau were called to investigate nearly 600 cases in which cholera was suspected in this county, but in none of these cases was the disease actually present.

Cholera, however, has broken out during the year in the following Idaho counties where the inspectors of the bureau have cooperated with state and local veterinarians: Bonneville, Blin-ham, Jefferson, Ada, Owyhee, Canyon, Ozella and Gooding.

Stop Enormous Loss
Prior to the advent of the government veterinarians under Dr. Sullivan here in June, 1914, cholera had resulted in enormous losses among the hogs in this district. During the year 1913 there were 19 outbreaks of the malady in Twin Falls county alone, and the loss amounted into the thousands of dollars.

As a result of the campaign of inspection and disinfection carried on by the government men, the swine growing industry has been reestablished and on a safe and profitable basis, and the numbers of the herds in this district are rapidly increasing.

Vigilance Unrelaxed
The government veterinarians, however, are not relaxing in their vigilance.
The fact that herds are increasing and that large shipments of breeding stock are being transported tends to increase the danger of the spread of the disease, Dr. Sullivan states, and in addition to reminding growers constantly to improve every precaution against the introduction of the plague, arrangements have been completed whereby pricy stockyards and leading pen along the Oregon Short Line railway system is being cleaned and disinfected under the supervision and direction of the federal inspectors.

LEADS OFFICER ON LONG MOTOR CHASE

SHERIFF KENDALL OVERTAKES F. A. COX WANTED FOR THEFT OF AUTOMOBILE HERE

A 300-mile drive began Monday morning from Ely, Nevada, was ended last night when Sheriff Kendall and E. B. Heinicke, local manager for the Nibley-Channel Lumber company, returned bringing with them Fred B.
Cox, former employe of the Lumber company, who is accused of the theft of an automobile owned by Mr. Hei-nicke. Pursuit of Cox began Saturday morning when word was received here that Cox had been sighted passing through Coats, Nevada. Sheriff Kendall wired Sunday night that he had taken his man between Ely, and Ton-opah, Nevada.

LOCAL BRIEFS

***
Goes to Nampa—Orval Blado, former night clerk at the Rogerson hotel, has moved his family to Nampa where he will accept a similar position.

Shows in Prospect—Showers and cooler weather tonight and Wednesday are predicted by the weather bureau, in its report transmitted this morning through the local telephone exchange.

Minister Leaves for Camp—Rev. and Mrs. O. T. Anderson left Monday evening for Camp Lewis, Washington. A pulpit committee will fill the pulpit until a pastor is secured.

Books Recrution at Kimberly—Sergeant Leonard Brimley, one of the officers in charge of the army recruiting station, left this morning for Kimberly on a canvassing campaign to get men for all departments of the army.

Approve Contractors' Bonds—The city council met in special session Monday afternoon and approved the bonds of the contractors to whom contracts for construction of the new filtration plant and waterworks extension and improvement had been let.

Tells of War Work—Attorney Turner
K. Hackman occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday morning, telling of the plans and work of the national war council of the Methodist church, which is organized in the eastern Idaho district under his chairmanship.

Service Flag for Mothers—The Royal Neighbors have received a new mother's service flag which will be dedicated with appropriate services at the next regular meeting Friday evening,
May 17th. All members and especially the mothers are requested to be present.

Call for Bridge Bids—Bids to be opened May 25, are asked by the county commissioners for construction of a steel bridge across Rock creek just west of the sugar factory. A wooden bridge at this point was washed out about a year ago. The plans for the structure provide for a span about 50 feet in length.

Will Bid on Human Span—F. L.
Graves of Spokane, and J. H. Forbes, engineer and contractor of Caldwell,
Idaho, have applied to the county clerk for plans and specifications for the suspension bridge to be built across Snake river near Haysen, upon which to base their estimates and bids. Proposals in this work are to be opened by the bridge commission on May 25.

Federal Building Delayed—Construction of the new federal building in Twin Falls has been retarded during the past 10 days due to delay in the arrival of the steel and iron to be ordered from the date of the receipt of the brick, Contractor H. E. Campbell states, workmen will be at work on the roof of the structure. Two carloads of the brick are known to be in transit.

Army Enlistments—Ralph W. Cam-mark of Buhl, Idaho, who enlisted in the medical department, and Ivan A.
Ingmann, Twin Falls, who enlisted in the quartermaster corps, were accepted and forwarded to Salt Lake City Saturday evening. Jesse C. Mortland and Earl Murrish of Twin Falls, were forwarded to Salt Lake City Sunday evening.
Both young men enlisted in the quartermaster corps.

Two Enlist at Wendell—Corporal
C. M. McLean, one of the officers in charge of the army recruiting station, returned Saturday evening from a canvassing campaign, where he had been all week at Jerome and Wendell. Corporal McLean returned from Wendell, where he was in charge of the station. Two of Wendell's fine young men—Lanna Simpson and Maurice B. Mulroy—who enlisted in the quartermaster corps.

Drive Leaders to Meet—A call has been issued by Chairman Stuart H.
Taylor for a meeting of the members of the executive committee and of the district drive leaders in the forthcoming Red Cross war fund drive to be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Perrine hotel, at which time the quota for each district will be announced and plans for the campaign perfected. The quota for the county is $21,000.

Dancers Crowd Hall—The largest assemblage ever gathered in Collihan hall attended the Twin Falls band's war fund benefit dance Monday evening.
One hundred and seventy-five copies on the floor at one time were distributed, and seating accommodations were inadequate even when the floor was used by dancers. The band will give its next war benefit dance at Buhl on Monday evening, May 27, and two weeks later will give another at Reynolds roof garden in Piler.

Takes War Census—Under the direction of Irwin Clay, Monday, a committee of the Methodist church national war council is making a census of the members of the church in Twin Falls for the purpose of ascertaining the extent to which each is supporting the national war program. The data referred is expected to show the investment of each in Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps, together with donations of the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and other relief work.

HOLD NOVEL VIEWS ON OLD SUBJECTS

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE EXAMINATIONS—BRING TO LIGHT INFORMATION IF TRUE

Some new and interesting versions of subjects have come to light since the seventh and eighth grade examination papers have been submitted. A few follow:
"Iron ore is important because it is used so much for gunpowder."
"The president's cabinet sits close to him."
"The retina is the funny covering over the brain."
"Thinking is the most important of the five senses. Without it we aren't any good."
"The states which border Canada are Maine, Michigan and Texas."

"For good care of the eyes don't rub them or spit in them. It is injurious."
And most of these come from the boys.

NEW BOOKS ON SHELVES OF PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following new books have been

WHAT CANDY IS

Candy is a good food, pure and wholesome. It is the universal food; it speaks all languages; it dries the tears in the eyes of little children, and washes the faces of old age in smiles. It is the unspoken message of the lover to his sweetheart; one of the first tokens sent to the absent one; it brings joy to the home; it is the advance agent of happiness in every clime. It makes regular visits to the home, the church, the hospital, the prison, the battle field and trench. Its constant associates are love, joy, peace, happiness, smiles and laughter. Can so much be said of any other food?

SHIPMENT OF SOLDIERS IS ACCELERATED

THOUSANDS CALLED IN LAST TWO DRAFT ORDINANCES WILL SEE FIGHTING THIS SUMMER AND FALL, FROM INDIANATIONS

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, May 14.—Thousands of men called in the last two draft ordinances will soon be on their way to France. So rapid has the movement of American troops across the Atlantic become that soldiers who had no hope of active service within six or eight months will perhaps be in the firing line this summer.

After two or three months of elementary training, these new selected men will be given their finishing touches within sound of the enemy's guns and over their heads, if the need for men is acute.

All reports from the commandants, army officers and today, tell of an acceleration in the training work under good weather conditions.

Since British soldiers

Meanwhile, the impression grew here today that British soldiers had a hand in the mysterious Ottawa statement

Men Who Fooled Peasants Will Now Pay the Price

UNHAPPY RESIDENTS OF UKRAINIA, TAKEN OFF THEIR FEET BY PROMISES OF POLITICIANS AT HOME LEARN FROM SAD EXPERIENCE THAT THEY WILL NOW HAVE TO RE-ENTER THE WAR AGAINST GERMAN IN ORDER TO LIVE

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Revolution against Germany was inevitable in Ukrainia. The situation in Ukrainia has been as follows:

"The Ukrainia republic was a bank republic. It was formed by Ukrainia land owners. With great boasts of freedom and liberty they swept the Ukrainia people off their feet and organized what they, the land owners, chose to call a republic. I saw these organizers of the Ukrainia republic when they came to Petrograd to ask American Ambassador Francis to recognize their alleged republic. They formed a silk hat squad. Of course, Francis declined to agree with their request.

"The purpose of these land owners in Ukrainia was to stop the course of the Russian revolution and prevent the division of their land among the peasants. By making a traitorous peace with Germany, they brought the German army into Ukrainia, hoping thus with the aid of the Kaiser's forces to crush the course of the revolution in Ukrainia and thus save their property.

Peasants See Through Trick

Long ago the Ukrainia peasants saw through the trick which had been played upon them by the treacherous Ukrainia land owners who had sold Ukrainia to Germany. During the winter when food was scarce and fighting was difficult, Ukrainia peasants were

HIS SON-IN-LAW MAY BE ENEMY

LOUIS F. SWIFT, PACKER, HAS TROUBLE IN FAMILY WITH GOVERNMENT

(By United Press)
CHICAGO, May 14.—Count Mincotto, son-in-law of the Chicago packer, Louis F. Swift, was at liberty today, probably the first man to have secured bail on a presidential warrant. He was charged with being a dangerous alien.

The case will be heard in federal court here May 20, and is expected to develop into one of the severest tests the president's alien enemy proclamation has met. Questions at issue will be whether a habeas corpus writ may be issued after such an arrest and whether a court may assume jurisdiction on a presidential warrant. Great wealth and strong legal talent will be at Mincotto's call. His bail bond of $50,000 was readily furnished.

Mincotto's case came up several months ago. The immigration department's investigation after he had tried for a place in the navy intelligence department, developed that although of Italian parentage he had been born in Berlin. In 1914, it was found, he had been close to the German embassy in England. Later he was in South America, for banking interests, and was friendly with Count Lathburg of "supra-normal" notoriety.

Other acquaintances were M. and Mme. Cailleux, the former now facing treason charges in France. There were other German connections uncovered but the immigration department held his activities had not been sinister. It was found he had reported as an Italian reservist but had been rejected on

FOUR DEAD AND OVER THIRTY ARE INJURED

ALBANY, N. Y., May 14.—Four are dead today and more than thirty persons injured, the result of derailment of the Buffalo express, westbound, on Rock Landing, shortly before midnight. The locomotive turned over, killing the fireman instantly. Richard Sherwood, engineer, was badly burned, dying later.

Railroad officials hint that "outside interference" might have been the cause of the wreck.

One of the coaches was thrown into the Hudson river, but turned right side up, sufficiently out of water to permit passengers to escape through windows. The train was hauling a car of horses, which overturned. It was necessary to shoot the animals.

Among the injured is O. Curry, 845 Henlock st., Los Angeles, Calif.

SPUDS MUST BE USED SOON OR WILL BE A LOSS

COUNTY FOOD ADMINISTRATOR URGES GROWERS ENCOURAGE CONSUMPTION SURPLUS

We have a large surplus of potatoes that must be used within the next six weeks or they will be a total loss, says County Food Administrator C. E. Munson, in his weekly conservation letter addressed to the retail grocers of the county Monday.

The administrator advises the grocers to talk freely with the customers in regard to the food situation. "Ask them to eat vegetables, milk, egg and flour substitutes—all products that cannot be exported, and by all means talk potatoes," he says.

"One million eight hundred thousand of America's brave sons are now serving in the army and navy of the United States. Thousands of them are already upon the battlefields of France fighting and dying to save the liberties of those who stay at home, and to secure democracy and freedom against Austria brutality and military despotism. Their blood is being sacrificed on the soil of noble France."

"We must support our gallant sailors and soldiers. We must make those swift victors in their fight with the Kaiser. We can do it if we make some sacrifice with the same quality of patriotism that animates our men in the trenches. The least duty we can perform and we should be eager and happy to perform it, is to lend our every energy and influence in support of the war regulations, and to suggest regulations by any suggestion from those who are giving their entire time in trying to conserve the food of the nation."

SURVEYORS PAVE WAY FOR DEVELOPMENT

James A. Bybee and S. A. Shober, civil engineers, returned Saturday from a six weeks' surveying trip in the region north of Kamela, Idaho. Under direction of the surveyor-general and in the employment of the Lava Land & Development company, Rupert, they were at work establishing corners in a tract of between 25 and 40 sections of land, which are to be developed for the company by the Land & Development company.

The company is operating five tractors with plows and harrows and expects to seed 4,000 acres to grain this fall. Sixty per cent of the profits from the cultivation of the land are to be returned to the entrymen while 40 per cent is to be used for further development. At the end of 10 years it is proposed to turn the land fully improved over to the entrymen.

NEW BEVO PLANT WOULD BE MOST REVOLVING FACTORY ST. LOUIS

The completion of the new $5,000,000 Bevo plant in St. Louis is a notable war-time industrial achievement. The construction of this plant, the largest and most perfectly equipped of its kind in the world, was made necessary by the extraordinary demand for the highly mercurial non-alcoholic beverage perfected under the personal supervision of August A. Busch, president of Anheuser-Busch, who succeeded his father, the late Adolph Busch, as head of the many great Anheuser-Busch industrial institutions.

MASTADONTO ACHIEVEMENT IN ANIMAL DEVELOPMENT

It may not mean so much to the layman to see galena pigs and elephants performing together in a circus arena, but so with scientific and zoologists, says Miss Thelma G. Miller, publicity agent for the A. G. Barnes circus. The average circus patron will see only the smallest and largest animal performing together and look upon it as something new and odd. It is the knowledge of the zoologist that it is all, but the slightest will remember that the elephant is a deadly afraid of a mouse because of its near resemblance to the chachana.

The chachana, a tiny rodent, is a native of Africa and India, the same as the elephant, and both are very fond of a tiny red berry that thrives in the same region. The chachana lives in colonies in underground houses, built beneath these berry bushes. Quite frequently the elephants, while foraging for these berries, step on the tiny village and the tiny rodent, scurrying for shelter, runs up the elephant's trunk, fastening his long, sharp claws into the sensitive nerves. The more the elephant steps and tramples the tighter holds the chachana, causing great pain and often inflicting death to the great pachyderm.

It is only natural that this unborn fear should be carried with the elephant into his new habitat, and the mouse being the nearest resemblance to the chachana will drive a whole herd frantic. It has been the plan and purpose of the animal wizard, Mr. A. G. Barnes, to advance animal and dispel every element of fear of which the animal tige have a great element. Animals that are natural enemies in the wild state are assembled in the big Barnes circus and taught to work harmoniously together. Lions and domestic animals perform together. Lions, tigers and leopards play with fire, that if they were in the jungles would frighten them almost to death.

BEGIN SEIZING HOARDED WHEAT

STATE FOOD ADMINISTRATORS REQUISITION GRAIN IN SOME PLACES

(By United Press) WASHINGTON.—Actual seizing of wheat hoarded by farmers has begun. State food administrators, given broad powers by Hoover, are requisitioning grain in several states. The government is paying the regular market price with the expense of seizure deducted.

Food Administrator Hoover has again warned state officials that every bushel of wheat—even that held for seed—must be offered to keep the all from starving. Less than 50,000,000 bushels of wheat were on the farms May 1, officials believe—most of this held for seed purposes. Seizing of wheat began in Kansas, Indiana and other states in May. Other state administrators are using every effort to induce farmers still holding wheat to release it voluntarily.

Take Census of Wheat Many states are taking a census of wheat still held in bins. This will be seized as the government needs demand. Indiana officials are registering all unused wheat in preparation for the grain draft. In Ohio, farmers are urged to cooperate, in spotting the grain slacker. More than 80 per cent of farmers there have sold their wheat officials state.

AMERICA—THE SYMBOL OF FAITH AND HOPE

By GEO. W. GOETHALS Acting Quartermaster General

Switzerland, the only one of the six neutrals, from which details of the war loans are available, has obtained approximately $30,000,000 through sale of bonds. Spain was the only country to which a shipment of gold was licensed by the federal reserve board during the last month. Other neutrals continue to call for gold stocks, but their present financial status does not warrant such aid from this government, the bulletin said.

Money Comes Easy

The gain in America's stock of gold since the outbreak of the war was $1,047,180,000, according to federal reserve board figures. Since January 1, importation of gold aggregated $10,561,000, while the exports for the same period were $15,955,000. This showing will be reflected later in the year under normal conditions and the indications for the coming gold movement point toward a heavier importation than any period since the war.

Three-Dollar Gold Pieces

The cologne of $3 gold piece was authorized February 21, 1933, and the act discontinuing it was passed September 23, 1930. Between the years 1854 and 1890 inclusive 130,712 pieces were coined. Those still in existence are practically all in the hands of collectors.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN AMERICA GIVES VIEWS OF ARMY STATEMENT

(By United Press.)
 WASHINGTON, May 14.—Doubt as to the accuracy of the statement attributed to the British ambassador in America that no aid would be held back until their force reaches powerful strength, was expressed here by Lord Reading, British ambassador.

An official statement by the ambassador declaring his belief that no such announcement had been made, "with the knowledge of the prime minister or the war cabinet," followed expressions of greatest surprise among army men here today as to the reported new change in the military policy of the allies.

Reading's statement follows: "The statement attributed to the British war cabinet to the effect that the allies are so confident that having been given the choice of a small immediate army, face defense or waiting until they are reinforced by a complete, powerful, self-supporting, army, which have chosen the latter, is diametrically opposed to all information received by me from the British war cabinet and to all the requests which I have been asked by them to make to the United States administration.

"I am quite in the dark as to the origin of the statement. At present, all I can say is that I am convinced that the document has not been issued with the knowledge of the prime minister or the British war cabinet."

INSTALL WEIRS TO END CONTROVERSY

WATER USERS OF AUBURN CITY DISTRICT ADOPT OPPOSING INTERESTS BEFORE ENGINEER

Last Thursday State Engineer Willis came from Boise to meet with the Dry Creek Water Users and see if he could make peace between the newcomers and the oldtimers. After going over the ditches and examining the measuring devices, Mr. Willis decided that the old devices were drawing more water than probably belonged to them and ordered weirs constructed on all the ditches. An able engineer from Boise was placed in charge of the weir construction by the state engineer. When the measuring devices are installed, then the decreed water will be measured out to the owners and if there is a surplus it will go to the next in right.

Complaint was also made to the state official that the early settlers had put land under water since the water spouts began to use water. Mr. Willis said that if this could be shown clearly the later filings would get more of the flow of the creek. Claim was also made that water was being used on land that was now owned at the date the decree was given.

ERGADES NEW PASTOR
 The Buhl Catholic church, which has heretofore been a mission with the Reverend Father N. P. Mahan of Twin Falls conducting the services, has been assigned to, and designated as a parish by the bishop of this district, says Buhl Herald. The Reverend Father John DeStopp will be the new pastor. His services will be held by him on Sunday, May 19, at 10:30 a. m.

There have been purchased near the church-building upon which a parsonage will be built as soon as possible. In the meantime, Reverend DeStopp will reside with Father Mahan in Twin Falls, coming to Buhl to hold services each week.

WORK OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD IS NEW COURTAULTMENT RECORD

(By United Press.)
 WASHINGTON, May 14.—With a record of having effected a curtailment of $35,000,000 in issues of new capital stock in five months, the federal reserve board's voluntary capital issues committee gave way today to the committee created by statute.

The official birth of the new committee screws the lid tight on unrestricted operation in public utility or municipal issues for the period of the war.

The new committee begins work with the solid support of the large bankers' associations and practically every stock exchange in the country.

Since the voluntary committee was formed January 16, three hundred and fifteen applications, embracing a total issue of $449,450,000 have been considered. Of this amount $251,200,000 was for the purpose of refunding or renewing obligations already created. Unqualified approval was given new applications totaling $35,000,000, so the aggregate amount placed on the market this year is $142,000,000. In the same period last year the capital stock issues totaled $192,000,000.

MILLIONS ARE INVOLVED

Through banks and other financial institutions and its own subsidiaries, the capital issues committee has succeeded in causing a postponement for the period of the war of projects involving more than $20,000,000.

A total of $81,000,000 in new capital stock for industries was approved. In the same period of 1917, industrial expansion carried new capital issues of more than $48,000,000. The curtailment of this also was about $31,000,000.

Twenty municipal projects have been abandoned until after the war as a result of the committee's work. Its disapproval of "unnecessary increases in municipal debts" cut the actual issues to $41,800,000 for the last five months.

I. W. W. CROED LAD BARE IN PAGES OF MAGAZINE

(By United Press.)
 CHICAGO—Excerpts from "Solidarity" of Chicago and the "Industrial Worker" of Spokane, branded as "anti-registration" propaganda, went into the records of the I. W. W. trial here. These varied from graphic depictions of the "plunder war" to long articles on I. W. W. creed processed by the 112 defendants.

"Slaves are good as fighters or ferocious. What are you good for?" was one alleged anti-registration article, read from "Solidarity" by the government attorney.

"This war is neither for principal nor for peace," was another. "It is for plunder."

"Members joining the military forces have always been expelled from the organization," was another quotation. Mary Roberts Rinehart, the "Industrial Worker" intimated, was a sabotage victim during a trip through Yellowstone park. The party's cock in coming displaced, there was a sudden epidemic of illness. Also fish caught by the party were stolen by a "cat." "Cat" is I. W. W. slang for sabotage, it was explained.

The ice cream was decorated with American flags. Music was furnished by Mr. Friedman and Miss Higgins.

The guests were: Mrs. John McGillichey, Hon. M. J. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Alford, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. and Mrs. Wilbur Hill, Dr. and Mrs. McAtee, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Hart.

The after dinner course was enjoyed at the artistic home of the host and hostess where Mrs. Regan delighted her guests with selections on her beautiful piano on her new Stollway Grand piano.

The following program was rendered: Piano solos— "Robert Le Diablo".....Moyersberg "Nocturne in F#m".....Chopin "Valse a Minor".....Chopin

Harp solos— "Remembrance".....Hahn "Moreaux Characteristique".....Obenbiller "Reverie".....Fitzpatrick

The guest of honor was presented with a bouquet of carnations.

A most delightful affair of the week was the six o'clock dinner given by Ralph Glasgow in honor of the basketball squad of which he is a member. A cut glass bowl of red and white carnations centered the table and place were laid for Ralph Glasgow, Oscar Neumann, Irvin and Melvin Strong, Stanley Hodges, Ward Carter, Chaplain Lavender and Coach E. P. Nazler.

Chase German From Trench Kill Officer and Four Men

By FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent)
 WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE—The American soldiers started a private war of their own Sunday afternoon on a certain sector in Lorraine.

They successfully stormed a German stronghold and, after partially cleaning it out, came back for reinforcements and went over again to complete the job. The news of the second undertaking is not known.

A German sniper's position had been causing considerable trouble. The three Americans, whose names cannot be given, got together and planned to get this particular bunch of boches out of business.

Without calling for any artillery preparation, or barrage, or any other fancy appearance of modern warfare, they leaped over the parapet and started running across No Man's land, in full view of both armies.

As lying at the enemy post, they tumbled into the trench and encountered a German officer and 18 men. The boches ran up a connecting trench so fast that the three doughboys only had time to kill the officer and four of his men.

Those that got away were yelling for help at every jump. In a few moments a large force of the enemy was heard coming toward the post. The doughboys, however, slipped the dead officer of his pants, containing a code book and other important information, before leaving.

They ran back to the American lines, pursued by a flock of boche bullets. Their success won them plenty of recruits for their personally-conducted raid, organized forthwith. Reports of this second daring operation have not yet been received.

Deaths

Mrs. Charles Lonsberry, aged 19, died at about 7 o'clock Monday evening at a local lodging house from heart failure. She is survived by her husband and a week old daughter, together with her sister, who was with her when death occurred, and by her parents, who came here today from Lava Hot Springs, to return with the remains to that place for funeral services and interment. The parents of the bereaved husband are residents of this city. Ten days before her death, Mrs. and Mrs. Lonsberry came here, from Eden, where he has been employed for some time.

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Wright on Thursday, May 9, a son.

THERE WAS MORE DOING IN THAT GRAVEYARD THAN HUCK AND TOM ANTICIPATED

ONE OF THE MOST DELIGHTFULLY HUMOROUS AND ENTERTAINING PICTURES EVER PRODUCED AT THE IDAHO TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

The Idaho theatre Jack Pickford is appearing in a thrilling version of "Huck and Tom" or "The Further Adventures of Tom Sawyer," which was arranged for him from Mark Twain's famous story, "Tom Sawyer."

This is the second "Tom Sawyer" picture in which Pickford has recently appeared, Director William D. Taylor having been unable to include all the incidents of the story in the first one. Lovers of the immortal Tom will remember the adventure of the grave robbers, when Huck and Tom were trying to rid themselves of impending warts, the painkiller which Tom administered to an unsuspecting cat, and the finding of the robbers' gold in the cave. The cast is almost the same as in the first picture.

Short Stories of Plays and Players

'Naughty, Naughty'
 Edith Bennett, the charming Australian "find" of Thomas H. Ince, who recently created a furore in her Paramount debut in "The Keys of the Kingdom," will appear again in "Naughty, Naughty." This is not, as the name indicates, a travesty on light opera, but a whimsically funny, two-act life story of a girl in a small middle-western town who struggles to bring to the narrow-minded natives a realization of their loss in refusing to admit the newer forms of amusement. Incidentally her old-time sweetheart, editor of the local news sheet, is one of the narrowest of all—and it is his regeneration especially that she turns her attention—with what success will be seen at the Idaho next week.

Such is Fame
 Coming from New York to Los Angeles to make comedies for the Paramount program, Fatty Arbuckle met the prize motion picture fan who in private life is a conductor. As the conductor took his ticket he glanced at the same and with a sudden show of interest exclaimed: "So your name is Arbuckle?" Fatty answered proudly in the affirmative. "My, my," he said, "I can't tell you how many times I've enjoyed your coffee."

Count Leo Tolstoy has joined the ranks of Paramount-writers. Paulino Frederick will soon appear in "Reconstruction," based on the novel by the famous Russian.

George Nickols, who played one of the important parts in a recent war film made in France, has returned to the Mack Sennett comedies. He says he has been enough tragically to last him for life.

The first picture showing Hank Mann as a Paramount-Bennett comedy will soon be released.
