AUSTRALIANS TAKE SECOND BITE FROM GERMANY

ADVANCE THIRD OF MILE ALONG FRONT OF 3000 YARDS, REPEATING SUCCESS OF SUNDAY—ENEMY BOMBARDS ALLIED LINES

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent) WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, July 8.—Australians advanced along the Somme last night to a 300 yard front to the depth of a third of a mile, repeating Sunday's coup, when a bite was taken out of the German lines near Hamel.

German artillery from midnight until five o'clock this morning retaliated heavily against the line which the Australians and Americans took on the fourth.

Enemy Artillery Active

During the night Hindenburg's artillery was slightly more active on the Flanders front, where Ghenvy, Fustery, Nouville-St. Vaast, Locon and La Motte were shelled.

This morning the country west of Ballicq was heavily bombarded, while the region west of Meville, north of Bethune and north of Goncourt was deluged with gas shells.

The British guns kept up a harassing fire during the night.

RUSSIAN PEOPLE WILL BOMB WAY TO FREEDOM

DESPERATE METHODS UNDER ROMANOFFS WILL BE USED AGAINST GERMAN DOMINATION

By J. W. MASON, (United Press Staff Reporter) NEW YORK, July 8.—Nihilism has returned to Russia. The assassination of the German ambassador, Von Mirbach, at Moscow, is the beginning of Russia's reawakening.

The same measures of desperate self-defense, enforced on the people by the abolition of the Romanoffs, have been called again into play by the ruthlessness of German domination to the present Slav government. Russian liberty, crushed by the Hohenzollerns, is taking to bombing its way to freedom. This new phase of the revolution was bound to occur sooner or later. The people who risked their lives unintermittedly for liberty under the czar are not of the breed to be cowed forever by German militarism.

Terror of Russian Bomb

Proposed to the terror of the German sword has now come the terror of the Russian bomb. Germany cannot destroy this new enemy by force. Millions flourish best when active as in suppression are most relentless. It is strange that the famous nihilist leaders have not gone into action against the Germans before this. But there probably has been some reluctance to set the terrorist bands at work now for fear they might interrupt the successful working out of the revolution.

Kimberly Man Off to France

JOHN W. HARDIN Who left last week for Seaback, Washington, where he will take a course of intensive training preparatory to going to France as a business executive for the Y. M. C. A.

(Special to The News) KIMBERLY—John W. Hardin left here Thursday night for Seaback, Washington, where he will spend some weeks in training with the Y. M. C. A., after which he will leave for France where he will engage in Y. M. C. A. work. His position will be that of a "business executive."

Mr. Hardin has been a resident of Kimberly for the past six or seven years, coming here from North Dakota. He has a son in the service, in the navy.

He is the owner of one of the show places of Twin Falls county in the way of a 40-acre farm on the edge of the town of Kimberly. His interests will be cared for in his absence by Mrs. Hardin, who will manage the farm and other property. Up to a few weeks ago Mr. Hardin was the Kimberly manager of the Twin Falls Milling and Elevator company, the interest of which company he cared for in addition to managing the farm.

He is one of the best known farmers and business men in this section.

ASSASSINATION LIKELY CAUSE OF DRASTIC ACTION

MURDER OF GERMAN AMBASSADOR AT MOSCOW MAY PRECIPITATE CONDITIONS WHICH WILL COMPEL ALLIED ACTION AT ONCE

By ROBERT J. BENDER (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, July 8.—New developments in the Russian situation—assassination of the German ambassador at Moscow and the anticipated action of the Russian government—gave impetus today to American officials to reach a decision on the form of aid for Russia.

The killing of the German envoy, Count Mirbach, was accepted here as certain to provoke sharp German action with the resultant need for quick decision by the allies.

As a result fresh significance was attached to over-Sunday consolidation of the problem at a conference be-

WIRE CONTROL IN HANDS OF CONGRESS

SENATE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE TO BEGIN HEARINGS THIS WEEK

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, July 8.—The speech whereby the government takes over telegraph and telephone lines now rests with congress.

With telegraphers agreed to remain quiet until action has been had by the government, congress today again considered the wire bill authorizing the president to take over the lines.

Halling of the scheduled telegraph strike was thus to the urgent speaker sent President Kennamark of the wiremen's union by Secretary of Labor Wilson and President Compters of the American Federation of Labor. They pledged that congress would act on the bill soon.

The senate interstate commerce committee proposed to start hearings early this week on the telegraph resolution proposed by the house.

On Water Power Bill

While the war bill and war-time program held the senate's attention, the house took up the water power bill, designed to aid inland waterway development as an adjunct to the railroads. Congress showed a disposition to pass important measures which last week it is thought to ignore in favor of a recess. Saturday night's spectacular collapse to recess plans, however, left most spokes content to proceed with needed business. Others said today the danger is removed and the members can get on with their work.

The wartime prohibition rider to the emergency food act may not be reached for some days.

There is much sentiment for three-day recesses while the interstate commerce committee considers the telegraph solution. Each house can recess for three days at a time without the consent of the other.

SAYS ADVERTISING HELP TO WIN WAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 8.—"The business man and the business of advertising now is winning the war."

That was the declaration of P. S. Flores, executive manager of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in his annual report, and today it resounded throughout the proceedings.

The convention held its first general session at 10 o'clock this morning when President W. C. Darcy made the opening address. The remainder of the morning was given over to the business of the day.

This afternoon the big British tank "Britannia," with the same crew which piloted it over the battlefield of the Somme, will head a military pageant—the convention's parade.

Official Crop Report Shows Farmers Doing Their Bit

FIGURES COMPILED BY COUNTY ASSESSOR GEORGE W. WILCOX FOR STATE FARM MARKETS BUREAU INDICATE INCREASED PRODUCTION OF NEEDED CROPS—OULTIVATED AREA JUMPS FROM 207,405 IN 1917 TO 213,215 ACRES THIS YEAR

Indicative of the part Twin Falls county farmers are taking to assist in the winning of the war by increasing crop production is the official report made by County Assessor George W. GERMANY MAY NOW FINISH OCCUPATION OF RUSSIA

MURDER OF AMBASSADOR MIRBACH GIVES LONG NEEDED EXCUSE FOR COMPLETION OF WORK OF TAKING OVER UNFORTUNATE COUNTRY

(By United Press) Dispatches from various sources indicated today that Germany may seize upon the murder of Ambassador Mirbach as the long awaited excuse for completion of the military conquest of European Russia.

The Kaiser, according to Amsterdam advices has directed that relations with the Russian delegates in Berlin be broken off.

Diplomatic messages received in Stockholm stated that Germany will demand free passage of troops to the Murman coast through Finland thus facilitating the German-Finnish campaign against the small allied forces at Morkmank and Raito. It was also stated that Germany will demand the right to police Petrograd and Moscow, which would virtually place the Russian government under German domination.

The Bolsheviks are doing everything possible to appease the Kaiser.

NO QUESTION OF THEIR LOYALTY

GERMAN AMERICANS ON FIGHTING LINE ARE DOING GREAT WORK

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent) WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, July 8.—If anyone doubts how German-Americans are fighting for the United States, Joe Krueger thinks he can convince the world. Acting as an amateur reporter, Krueger interviewed the Hamel boys when they returned and gathered up the following stories:

Private Bernard Schalling had five grenades. With one he got two German machine gunners; with the second he cleaned out a section of a trench; the third ended a bobbe who tried to wing him with a rifle. He brought back the other two.

Used Empty Rifle

Nathan Leberman encountered six Germans guarding a machine gun. He levelled an empty rifle at them. They surrendered, two of them crying like children and begging for mercy.

Arthur Munk, a former bombardier, found a German officer with his hand shot off. He unhooked his emergency kit, bound up the officer's wound and got a stretcher-bearer to help carry him in.

Fred Sullenger, who was a clerk in a department store, followed the boys over the top with several pounds of hot tea. Shrapnel occasionally bit the bullets but he kept on.

A corporal, whose name cannot be mentioned, because he is a casualty, was hit in the chest by shrapnel just kept on fighting because he said he was determined to "get a relic." He got one just before he dropped from loss of blood.

IRELAND'S DILEMMA

Anyone who takes the trouble to look into the Irish question to any extent whatever will be struck by one large, pertinent and important fact, namely, that while it is true that Ireland herself is unable to agree on home rule or any other definite form of government, the majority in favor of home rule amounts to between seventy and eighty per cent of the entire population, the minority being divided as to details but firmly opposed to home rule.

The only reason given to the world for the failure of the British parliament to grant home rule is that "the Irish people are unable to agree." This is true but the fact remains that in the most civilized, certainly all democratic, countries the majority view is accepted and the minority disregarded. About the only explanation for the existing state of affairs in Ireland appears to be that Ulster has the British parliament bluff. England believes that civil war in Ireland would follow home rule. Possibly this is true, and yet the granting of home rule must some day come, and there is not the slightest evidence that the opposition will be any the less firm no matter how long the settlement of the question is postponed.

It is idle to say that when the Irish people can agree upon the question of government that form agreed to will be immediately instituted. The Irish people will never agree upon such a matter and it is not reasonable to expect them to. Orange Ulster will never agree to Catholic domination of the island, and whether or not Ulster will actually bring about that result Ulster is convinced that nothing else could possibly happen, and also will fight the proposition to the last ditch.

This is a bad time for civil war in a British possession, yet eventually the matter must be settled, war or no war.

CORRECTS ERRONEOUS REPORT ON SALARIES

Civil Service Commission Says Entrance Pay For Stenographers Is Not Raised

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The United States Civil Service commission announces that through some misunderstanding an impression seems to prevail that the government has raised the usual entrance salary for stenographers and typists in the departments at Washington, D. C., to $1,400 a year. The commission states that there has been no change in initial salaries for positions of this kind. The usual salaries at the beginning range from $1,000 to $1,200 a year, appointments at $1,200 being in the minority. The war department makes all appointments of such positions at not less than $1,100 a year, and agrees to promote to $1,200 a year after three months' satisfactory service. Appointments at salaries higher than $1,200 a year are rare, and the appointees must possess exceptional qualifications.

DORMITORIES IN FIFTEEN CITIES

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Architects and engineers have been appointed, they say labor policies board announced, to build dormitories at fifteen cities where the production of war materials demands the housing of workers. Among the cities affected are: Rock Island, Mollan and East Moline, Ill.; Davenport and Des Moines, Iowa; Alliance, Ohio; Sharon, Pa.; Millet, Ohio, and Warren, Ohio.

THE WAR TODAY

By J. W. T. MASON (United Press War Export)

July 8, 1917. French make gains at Verdun. Russian troops reported wholly enthusiastic, are advancing against Germans near Iltis, key to Lemberg. Germans deliver terrific assault on Chemin des Dames.

July 8, 1916. British and French report satisfactory advances on Somme. Russians now only 30 miles from Kovel, and are advancing.

July 8, 1916. Austrians admit withdrawal to north of Krasnik, before Russian attacks. Berlin reports that destruction of Armas cathedral is "generally regretted."

ASSASSINATION LIKELY CAUSE

Between President Wilson, Chief of Staff March and Secretary Baker. Presidential Statement Looked For. It was generally believed here today that announcement of this government's course would come in the form of a statement delivered by President Wilson to congress probably early this week.

As affairs appeared to shape up today—and officials were mainly among the American-aided cause will run the course.

First, an economic mission will be sent to Russia to study Slav needs and to extend American aid. Second, this mission will have military protection.

To Protect Against Huns. Third, as supplies are forwarded to assist the Russians in their efforts to fight themselves, other troops will join as a solely protective step to guarantee that the supplies do not fall into the hands of the enemy.

Fourth, necessary steps will be taken to protect the Czech-Slovak, now in control of Vladivostok, along with British, French and American marines. This force may ultimately prove to be the nucleus of an "emergency army."

The size of this protective force will be the question to be determined.

May Help All Plans

The reported defection of the Murmansk coast population to the allies may furnish an agency helpful to the entire plan, inasmuch as England particularly has desired that aid go directly to that coast. With the people friendly to the allies a force to fight the Germans could be gathered and the center forces would not be molested. The position generally taken here is that re-establishment of the eastern front rests mainly with the Russians themselves. However, a protective allied force could serve as an inspiration to the Slaves. It is argued, while United States-allied economic assistance would hasten rehabilitation, Japanese Ambassador Ishii returns today from Nagasaki, Mass., where he had a conference with Colonel House, presidential adviser.

CHRISTEN PLANE OF LATEST TYPE

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 8.—In the presence of a large number of government officials and thousands of spectators, the Hendon-Prigo bombing plane "The Langley" was christened at the Standard aircraft plant and went into the air for a test flight, together with a smaller scout plane. When the results of this flight and the observations of the officials here is expected to lead the decision whether to send this plane across the Atlantic next autumn.

HUN AMBASSADOR KILLED BY BOMB

LONDON, July 8.—Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, was murdered at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon by two unknown persons who obtained entrance to the German embassy by false credentials. Premier Leclercq informed Adolph Joffe, Russian ambassador to Germany, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow today.

The assassin threw a bomb into the room occupied by Mirbach, the message said, inflicting wounds which resulted in the ambassador's death a few minutes later.

Representatives of the Bolshevik government immediately visited the embassy and expressed their indignation regarding the act. Steps are being taken to discover the assassins and the guard at the embassy has been strengthened.

TERRIBLE JINX GIVES MATTY MANY WORRIES

NEW YORK, July 8.—General Pershing of the National League seems to have a rather interesting "christopher" Matthewson.

Whether Matty can win the pennant now is a question. He has had lots of discouragement. But if he breaks his bad luck for a short time and gives him another boost, no ghosts or jinx are going to stop that heavy hitting ball game organization of baseball players.

First off this spring Hal Chase did a handjacking job on his car and turned up with a sprained shoulder. Now, when a ball player of Chase's class breaks a leg or an arm or is otherwise placed on the shelf it hurts. Sherwood Hage did a fine job of first leading while Hal was out, but after all there is only one Chase. Then a couple of outfielders pulled up lame, with the result that Chase was impressed into outfield duty while Sherry continued to first base. When Chase was ready to take his turn at the first base position, Ed Housch slid into second base at Brooklyn with one leg pulled the wrong way. The result was another man on the hospital roll.

Rule Bressler, a quite capable left-hander was called to the army. Fred Touey hasn't been himself. Polo Schneider pitched one fine game and then related with "a lame arm. And there you are.

VLADIVOSTOK IS IN ENEMY HANDS

TOKIO, July 8.—The Central Bank forces which Saturday captured Vladivostok have established there a commissariat for Siberia.

Fifteen thousand Czechs entered Vladivostok Saturday captured Soviet headquarters and occupied the National Bank, municipal offices, the railway station, and seized a quantity of ammunition. Resistance was slight. The Czechs lost three killed and 165 wounded. Casualties of the Soviet forces were 7 killed and 150 wounded.

British, Japanese and Chinese troops and American marines were landed to maintain order.

As yet enough Americans were landed to guard the American consulate.

AD MEN PLAN TO ADVERTISE WAR

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—War advertising dominated the opening session of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World today.

The final patriotic smash will be delivered tonight with a meeting entirely given over to patriotic subjects. Addresses will be made by representatives sent from the embassies and legations of England, Canada, France, Belgium, Italy, China, Japan, Serbia, and Portugal.

At this meeting also, Nathaniel Burke of the Irish Red Cross will tell of the work of her organization.

George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, was scheduled to address the convention today following the opening address of President William C. O'Darey, F. W. Stewart, president, Montreal Publicity Association, told the ad men about Canada's war advertising. C. R. Macomber, chairman, who is devoting his time to war film work, spoke to the convention about keeping the public informed through the movies.

More than 9,000 ad men from all parts of the world are in San Francisco today for the four-day session. The delegates first met together Sunday in an "inspirational meeting" at the Greek theatre on the University of California campus.

Adjourns Thursday

The convention will adjourn Thursday, when elections and the selection of next year's convention city will take place.

The United States War Exposition, which opened Sunday on the old site, lost a big block from the ad men's convention auditorium, will continue for two weeks. The exposition was the most popular rendezvous of the ad men today.

The program for the four day convention includes addresses by Charles M. Schwab, president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation and of the Bethlehem Steel Company, and many other men and women of international fame.

Joseph Wood Crooks of Unity—R. J. Lath of Boise, state seed commissioner, and County Agent Donald McLean spent Saturday on a tour of inspection of several of the seed crops of the country.

ADMIT GUILT OF LARCENY CHARGE

CLASS BROTHERS, 18 AND 16, OF FILER, FACE PRISON FOR CAR THEFTS

Plans of guilt to grand larceny charges were entered before Judge G. P. Davall in probate court last Saturday by A. N. Klass, 18, and C. J. Klass, 16, both of Filer, who were accused of the theft of automobiles owned by James A. Campbell, manager of the Home Heating & Plumbing company, and Albert Selligman. The court fixed bail in the sum of $2000 each. Upon the entering of similar pleas to the charges in district court, sentence will be pronounced by District Judge W. A. Babcock. The sentence upon conviction of grand larceny is imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one nor more than 14 years.

The Klass boys confessed to Sheriff W. M. Kopp that they had stolen the Campbell and Selligman cars from the streets of Twin Falls, and had driven them to California, where they had sold them and purchased the car in which they were returning to Idaho. They were arrested by Deputy Sheriff John M. Beck on a charge of stealing automobiles from F. W. J. Priddy at Rogerson.

FINISHES CLASSIFYING LAND IN THE FORESTS

The forest service has finished one of the many and varied projects undertaken by that branch of the government service, which work involved the classification of 27,942,000 acres of national forest land in District 4, of which Ogden, Utah, is the headquarters. Of these forest lands 1,900,000 acres are located in Adams, 27,000 in Colorado, 11,610,000 in Idaho, 4,715,000 in Nevada, 7,430,000 in Utah, and 218,000 in Wyoming.

At the time the national forests were originally created it was desirable to avoid the inclusion of small tracts of land suitable for agricultural purposes. These tracts were scattered throughout the interior of the forests, but there were no legal means of utilizing the same for homestead agriculture. However, the secretary of agriculture finally secured the passage of the act of June 11, 1906, commonly called the forest homestead act. This is the only act providing for securing land within the national forests for homestead or any form of agricultural use, and each tract is limited to an extent to 160 acres. Under this act some 2000 forest homesteads, involving 200,000 acres, have been listed in District 4 alone.

This method was not very expeditious, and on August 10, 1912, congress directed the classification and location of the same for homestead purposes. This work has now been completed, and maps covering the entire body of land included within the exterior boundaries of the national forests have been prepared and forwarded to Washington. These maps were prepared to show the location of the different types of timber, roads and trails, and each map was accompanied by a report containing full information regarding such features as elevation, topography, soil, climate, precipitation, and amount and character of timber.

Mysterious Crime Basis of 'The House of Silence'

WALLACE REID AT THE IDAHO IN DETECTIVE STORY—SENNETT COMEDY ON SAME PROGRAM—THREE DAYS

WALLACE REID, in 'The House of Silence' A Paramount Picture

If there were a mysterious building in your vicinity known as "The House of Silence" which everybody avoids, and if you were passing it one night and a woman, annoyed, agitated and frightened, were to ask you to enter and render aid to a man lying there, what would you do?

This is precisely the situation that confronts Wallace Reid, who portrays the role of an amateur detective and clubman of wealth, in "The House of Silence," the great Paramount picture which is to be presented at the Idaho Theatre three days commencing today. How he fulfilled the mission imposed upon him by a girl who slew with a batpin the man who sought to dis-labor her, is thrillingly told in this splendid picture production.

"HER SCREEN IDOL"—A Laugh-Producer

Fascinating Screen Facts

That screen stars are busy people was amply demonstrated at the Paramount studios recently when a reporter attempted to get a few words with a popular star. After an hour of waiting, she was admitted to her presence in the dusky recesses of the studio. But it was not to be. Constant interruptions from director, phone calls and what-not prevented anything further than the repeated assurance that Miss Billie Burke was devoted to picture work and greatly preferred it to the stage, in fact. Her latest picture, made under the direction of James Kirkwood, is "Eve's Daughter."

rich and thoroughly enjoyable satire on wild west heres in motion pictures.

Seventy-five thousand dollars worth of gowns, the latest and most fashionable, are used in Cecil B. De Mille's spectacular picture, "Old Wives for New," written by Janice McPherson from the novel by David Graham Phillips.

William S. Hart has subscribed $150,000 for the Liberty Loan, and he recently said: "I have enlisted for the war, and whenever Uncle Sam wants my money or my services, he can have them both."

There are four more popular stars in the screen than Wallace Reid, who will be seen in "The House of Silence." In "The House of Silence," he displays his versatility as an amateur detective, and with the aid of a hasty and womanly girl, he discloses the identity of a girl slayer and he thus unravels the mystery of a sensational for thieves which long has been under police surveillance.

That "Her Screen Idol," the latest Paramount-Mack Bennett comedy, is a real laugh-maker to amply provide for the entertainment it promises at each showing of the comedy. Jack Sterling, Louise Fazenda and Jack Cooper, provide most of the mirth-provoking moments of this
