MANY DIE WHEN TRAINS COLLIDE IN HEAD-ON COLLISION

BETWEEN SEVENTY-FIVE AND ONE HUNDRED KILLED AND INJURED ON SOUTHERN ROAD-FIRE ADDS TO HORROR OF WRECK

(By United Press)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 9.—About twenty-five persons were killed and seventy-five injured when two, Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis passenger trains crashed together near Bosley Springs, at 7 a. m. today.

Fire immediately broke out and many of the passengers who were not killed outright in the collision were burned to death or suffered injury from the flames.

A relief train was immediately rushed to the scene from Nashville manned with doctors, nurses, firemen and first aid equipment.

The mangled and charred bodies brought here were distributed among local morgues.

No Definite Estimate
No effort has been made to estimate the dead as it has been impossible to enter some of the splintered and burning coaches. Both trains were running at a high speed when the crash occurred, the engines being telescoped and the coaches reduced to kindling.

The greatest loss of life occurred in the coaches occupied by negroes which were crowded. Every ambulance in the city was pressed into service. Later, as the rescue work progressed, St. Thomas infirmary became over-crowded and a great number was removed to the city hospital.

Attendants at the hospitals were so overburdened with operations that they were unable to supply an accurate list of the injured.

Bodies Lie Thick
Railroad undertakers say bodies of the dead and injured are piled all over the ground.

Several of the coaches have not been entered in the search for victims. Bodies of the dead are scattered. Relief trains have been sent to the wreck scene and the dead and injured will be brought to Nashville. The city hospital, St. Thomas hospital and several private hospitals are being prepared to receive them.

Latest reports indicate the death toll will run over 25 and the injured over 75. Fire broke out among the splintered cars, hindering rescue work.

The city fire department has sent equipment and men to the scene.

Every ambulance in the city has been commandeered.

COBLENZ AIR RAID VERY SUCCESSFUL

LONDON, July 9.—The British air raid on Coblenz Friday morning was the severest of the war, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Express today. Twelve planes were killed and 22 injured in the northern part of the station was seriously damaged and the Rhine and Moselle bridges and the railway piers hit. Great damage was done to the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein.

GERMAN AIRPLANES SUFFER HEAVILY

LONDON, July 9.—Eleven German airplanes were brought down during air fighting July 7 and three British machines were lost, the air ministry reported. Sixteen tons of bombs were dropped on enemy targets during the day and the following night.

THE WEATHER

The clouds broke and Wednesday, with cooler weather tonight, is the forecast for the Twin Falls district of the department of agriculture weather bureau as transmitted this morning through the local telephone exchange.

MUCH DAMAGE IN BIG STORM

TYPHOON SWEEPS GUAM, RENDERING HALF OF INHABITANTS HOMELESS

WASHINGTON, July 9.—A typhoon sweeping Guam, Marianas islands, July 6, did material damage but killed only a few, as far as reports are available today. Half the inhabitants are destitute and homeless, according to a report from Capt. Smith, U. S. N., Guam governor, today.

His message said: "All public property here and about materially damaged. Stores injured. One-half of inhabitants destitute and homeless. Crops destroyed. Food scarce. Am feeding destitute until it is necessary from new supplies and commandeered foodstuffs."

Some of the natives were injured and others killed, but apparently the death toll is small.

The islands are a group of about thirty small islands, the chief of which is Guam, lying between Honolulu and the Philippines. The navy governs Guam.

RUSS SOVIETS VOICE VIEWS FROM SEATTLE

AMERICAN BRANCH TELEGRAPHS PRESIDENT URGING AGAINST MILITARY INTERVENTION

(By United Press)
SEATTLE, Wash., July 9.—Local Russians, claiming to be the "sober" of Russian-workers of Seattle, a telegraphed President Wilson—urging against military intervention and declaring such action would be "capitalized by Germany, influencing 100,000 the masses against the United States."

The message follows: "The soviet of Russian workers of Seattle, existing in Russian, Finnish, Lithuanian and Estonian organizations, all declare this to be the most critical moment for the United States to consider military intervention in Russia for the reason that the German influence, upon the disconcerted masses in Russia might serve as a disadvantage toward the interest of the allies, particularly the interest of the United States of America."

Ask Recognition
As Russians, and knowing the sentiment of the revolutionary movements in Russia, which is no doubt recognized as the only power in Russia, we finally urge the American government to recognize the soviet of Russia. We do this because of our desire of maintaining the friendly relationship between the people of our two countries. In that, the soviet of Russia is existing in the very near future gladly and unhesitatingly resist the German autocracy by a powerful organized force."

Offer Co-operation
We also desire to offer our co-operation in all such activities, and we want the soviet of Russia, existing in practically all cities of America will lend their support. Therefore, Your Excellency, we hope that you will weigh and consider our message in the same spirit in which it is sent, and we further hope that you will lend us your assistance in avoiding counter-revolutionary propaganda through the press of this country, assuring you much better results and immediate co-operation from the people of Russia."

FORMER CABINET MEMBERS TAKEN

ADHERENT OF OLD KEROVSKY ENEMY GOVERNMENT PLACED UNDER ARREST

LONDON, July 9.—Premier Lenin has caused the arrest of M. Stokhelin, former minister of labor; M. Zboroff, former minister of a agriculture; M. Terentiev, former minister of post and telegraph; and other members of the Kerovskiy cabinet, according to a Moscow dispatch received today.

The three said would be sent to the Bolshevik camp to bear out the revolution in Moscow has been suppressed and would indicate that social-revolutionaries formerly allied with Alexander Kerovskiy were among the leaders.

GERMAN CASH IN NEW YORK NEWSPAPER IS CLAIM

PUBLISHER OF EVENING MAIL ARRAIGNED ON PERJURY CHARGE—DIS-TRIBUTOR ATTORNEY SAYS HE WILL PROVE GERMAN OWNERSHIP

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, July 9.—Dr. Edward A. Rumely, publisher of the New York Evening Mail, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Fitzcough today on a charge of perjury. His bail was reduced from $100,000 to $25,000, which he hoped to furnish.

It is alleged that Rumely in a report to the alien property custodian swore the Mail was owned by Americans and that it was really owned by the German government, which gave Rumely the money to purchase it from the Mail Box Express company in June, 1915.

United States District Attorney Harper asserted in court today that government evidence would show Rumely not only received money from Germany for the Mail, but for other purposes also.

The preliminary hearing will be July 23.

Dr. Rumely held a hasty consultation with his attorney, Frederick K. Jones, after he arrived in court. He stated that he had not had an opportunity to confer with his counsel.

Asks Reduced Bail
Harper, after having first requested bail in the sum of $50,000, reduced his figures when told that Dr. Rumely, in spite of the fact that he has handled large sums of money many times, would not be able to furnish so large a bond. In asking his larger sum he recalled the case of Jeremiah O'Leary, who fled with $25,000 in the hands of the government. Dr. Rumely's situation, he said, was practically the same so far as the government was concerned.

LITTLE DOUBT OF HUN PLANS

HEAVY MOVEMENTS OF MEN AND SUPPLIES IN GERMAN WAR AREAS

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Increasing proof of Germany's known intent to make a new offensive is given by General Pershing's daily communications. These for several days have reported heavy movements of men, supplies and ammunition behind the German rear areas, and that can only mean counter-attack. It is assumed that the American-allied officers are keeping close tabs on where these forces go and that this time the allies will be better informed than ever before as to where the blow is to be expected.

At present the indications are that it will be a further development of the major plan of reaching the channel ports.

No Agreement Yet
WASHINGTON, July 9.—Still in a ferment, the soviet today resumed its efforts to reach an agreement on what it wants to do about the wire control legislation.

CLASH WITH RED GUARDS

TOKIO, July 9.—Czech-Slovak troops, advancing toward Nicolaevsk and Havarovsk, have clashed with the red guards, says an official statement issued by the Japanese war office.

FRENCH ADVANCE ON A WIDE FRONT

ITALIANS SHIFT OFFENSIVE TO STRIKE IN ALBANIA

(By United Press)
ROME, July 9.—Italy has refused to accept a German generalissimo to direct operations on the Italian front, according to advices received here today.

Recent reports said that in the general shake-up of the Austrian command, General von Below was directed the former Austrian offensive, had been withdrawn from the Italian front.

Later it was said that General Ludendorff had hurried to Austrian headquarters, evidently to make Von Below's appointment effective.

ONE of the greatest battles of the war appears to be developing in Albania.

Starting with an Italian advance Sunday over a front of about 30 miles, from the Adriatic inland, the fighting has now extended clear across Albania to the Serbian frontier.

A front of nearly 100 miles—and is involving the French forces in the upper Devoli valley, southwest of Monastir.

Naval Forces Assist
British monitors are co-operating by bombarding the Austrians from the sea. Further extension of the battle to the outward will involve British troops.

The Italians appear to be pushing forward at great speed and the Italian command today indicated that cavalry detachments may have penetrated nearly ten miles beyond the critical front.

It is known that half a million Italian soldiers are in Albania, under General Ameglio, a veteran of the Turkish war.

Since Italian forces captured military roads over the mountains from Valona to Monastir, a distance of 125 miles, the allied forces have been receiving most of their supplies by this route, instead of through Salonika.

ITALIANS PRESS AHEAD WITH AMAZING RAPIDITY

ROME, July 9.—The Italian offensive in Albania is growing, and the Austrians are being pressed back everywhere, the Italian war office announced today.

British monitors are co-operating by bombarding enemy positions from the sea. Italian cavalry is doing effective work, pulling the Austrians back and taking the enemy from the rear. More than 1,200 prisoners and great quantities of material have been captured.

In Albania the action is continuing," the statement said.

GERMANS ADMIT END UNCERTAIN

OFFENSIVE NECESSARY BUT RESULT DOUBTFUL SAYS SOCIALIST

(By United Press)
PARIS, July 9.—Resumption of the German offensive is necessary, but its result is doubtful, Herr Strobel, an independent Socialist, admitted in the Zurich dispatch to the Matin today.

Strobel declared that in the spring drives the German losses were more than 100,000 killed alone. The losses in the next phase of the drive, he said, probably would be even higher.

About 800,000 Americans are in France, Strobel said, which just about balances the allies' losses and the German gains in manpower through new drafts and release of men from the eastern front.

"Several millions more will come, unless we Germans rid the government of the war politicians," Strobel said.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK BY INFANTRY AND TANKS

SURPRISE ATTACK BETWEEN MONTDIDIER AND THE OISE SCORES MAGNIFICENT SUCCESS—VICTORIOUS TROOPS MOVE FORWARD ONE MILE ALONG WIDTH OF TWO AND A HALF MILES

(By United Press)
PARIS, July 9.—Striking between Montdidier and the Oise, French troops, with aid of tanks, advanced more than a mile on a front of two and a half miles, northwest of Compiègne, this morning.

A German counter attack was repulsed, the French war office announced, and all their gains were maintained. Four hundred and fifty prisoners were taken.

"Between Montdidier and the Oise, French troops effected a local operation at 3:30 a. m., west of Antheit (six miles northwest of Compiègne).

Tanks Do Good Work
"With the help of tanks, the French penetrated the German lines on a front of four kilometers, took Fort and Les Loges farms and advanced 1,800 meters. A German counter attack against Les Loges farms was repulsed. The French maintained their gains and took 450 prisoners, including 14 officers."

South of the Aisne there was active artillery fighting. At Chevigny farm (eight miles southwest of Soissons) we accelerated our progress, taking 20 prisoners, including one officer."

Northwest of Chateau-Thierry and hill 204 there was active campaigning. "In the Champagne French patrols took prisoners."

WON'T ACCEPT GERMAN CHIEF

AUSTRIA TURNS DOWN PROPOSITION TO SUPPLY HUN GENERALISSIMO

ROME, July 9.—Austria has refused to accept a German generalissimo to direct operations on the Italian front, according to advices received here today.

Recent reports said that in the general shake-up of the Austrian command, General von Below was directed the former Austrian offensive, had been withdrawn from the Italian front.

Later it was said that General Ludendorff had hurried to Austrian headquarters, evidently to make Von Below's appointment effective.

SEND MISSION BACKED UP BY ALLIED TROOPS

PRESIDENT IN CONFERENCE AS TO PERSONNEL OF PARTY TO GO TO RUSSIA

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 9.—Already decided on the general course of aiding Russia, President Wilson today was in conference with his cabinet as to the personnel of the mission to be sent.

This mission will be headed by a police force of allied soldiers. Supplies for Russia will have military protection.

Each cabinet member was to submit the names of able men to form the commission, and from that list the president will make his choice. He desired a representative group of Americans whose sympathies and training will help in the vast task of putting Russia back on her feet.

The British and French consuls are organizing a force of men whom they desire to add to the business army.

The size of the allied "police force" is undetermined.

Military men say it ought to be large. There is some thought that the American-Allied contribution, however, will be relatively small and that if need arises later, the Japanese will give their assistance.

All attention is carefully avoided the use of the term "military intervention" in discussing the plan. They insist the "police force" will be protective; that it will be intended as an inspiration to the Russians to help themselves back to a place on the east front—and in the end.

As to sending troops
Negotiations are now under way between the allied powers to determine the best and quickest means of assembling the needed troops. It is not possible to use the Czech-Slovak troops in Vladivostok as a nucleus for the force because in their Siberian fighting they have become "combative troops" in the eyes of some Russian factions. The "police" force must be solely protective, it is stated. Mobilization of this police force is the sole problem holding up the Russian plan now. Since a large appropriation may be necessary to finance the expedition, it is likely President Wilson will appear before congress to outline his proposal and his needs.

"The Russian project" is one of the most unique and comprehensive ever staged in the history of the world. Financial experts, together with business, agriculture and trade authorities will go to Vladivostok and move slowly westward. They will aid in re-establishing credits, assist in crop movements, seek to encourage confidence of the Russians with each other, aid in building up transportation facilities—

NO SHORTAGE IN FOOD STUFFS IN CROP PROSPECTS

WHEAT PRODUCTION THIS YEAR ESTIMATED BY DEPARTMENT AT 881,000,000 BUSHELS

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The American farmer will turn out a 881,000,000 bushel wheat crop this year, according to July 1 estimates, announced by the agriculture department today.

With thrashing well under way in some states the winter wheat crop this year is valued at 527,000,000 bushels as against 522,000,000 bushels, the 1917-1918 average, and 537,000,000 bushels forecast of June 1. The spring wheat crops, it is estimated, will aggregate 334,000,000 bushels as against a 1917-1918 average of 27,000,000 bushels and a forecast yield of 344,000,000 bushels June 1.

HINDENBURG MUST MAKE GOOD NEXT ATTEMPT

MAN POWER AND RESOURCES SHOW THE EFFECTS OF SUCCESSIVE ATTEMPTS TO SHATTER WEST FRONT—HUN CHIEF REALIZES LAST CHANCE THE NEXT

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, July 9.—The next German blow, believed to be a matter of days, is expected to be the last Hindenburg will be able to deliver, judging from the increasing slowness of his past efforts.

Nobody out here doubts that it will be the hardest he is capable of, since his men are set in motion, or that it will eclipse all previous battles in point of violence and men and material engaged.

Lull Has Then Occurred

Thestrange lull, which has occurred for weeks up and down the lines, from one end to the other—save for occasional light battles here and there, like the Fourth of July "show" along the Somme—continues to hover grimly over the west front.

The German infantry might be sound asleep for all it is doing in the fighting line. Even the enemy airmen are sticking closer to their nests. Despite the thin weather, air fighting is considerably below the average.

Much has been printed regarding Hindenburg's delay. Some say the "Flanders fever" is the cause; others say the lack of men, others that he is waiting until roads are laid, so that big guns may be brought up; others believe the morale of the German troops is low.

The truth is probably a mixture of all these things, plus other things. Beside a shortage of raw materials, German doubtless has only a limited output of munitions now, making it necessary for her to economize over a long period in order to build up a big enough stock to carry out operations on a scale similar to those in March and June.

Repairing War Machines

Owing to the limited number of men for the armies, however large, once the majority of German divisions are battered in battle or tired, Hindenburg must do reconnaissance flights, not fitted and restored to optimum.

Prisoners taken since the Hamel fight declare they had no food for two days, owing to the confusion in the lines. Low-flying war planes finally dropped bundles of "bully beef," "dog biscuit" and hardtack along the advanced post. This method of relieving hunger in the German ranks is ways able to maintain its cohesion than formerly.

Sickness Prevalent

The scarcity of airman officers is growing according to an enemy order, which says that fever officers must do reconnaissance flights, non-commissioned being substituted. Plans are manufactured with difficulty owing to the lack of raw materials. Some of those delivered are breaking under the strain of flying, according to captured letters.

Prisoners also say there is much illness in the army due to "Flanders fever," gripp, "Spanish influenza," or whatever the strange malady may be called.

HALF MILLION MEN IN LINES

Perishing Will Have That Many in Direct Command in Thirty Days

WASHINGTON, July 9.—In a month or less General Pershing will have more than half a million men under his direct command on the west front for the fighting line, according to information received by members of the special military affairs committee. The 500,000 American men in the fighting line, according to General March, chief-of-staff, do not include Americans brigaded with the British and French. In addition to these, all the troops sent over during June are still in training. There are nearly 300,000 of these, who by the first of August, will be ready for battle duty.

TORONTO MAY HAVE TIE-UP OF WIRES

TORONTO, Ont., July 9.—Great Northwestern telegraphers have braved an ultimatum that unless two discharged employees are reinstated by Wednesday a strike will be declared. The two men were dismissed because of alleged infractions of the law regarding racing information, but were acquitted on their trial.

Are the Packers Profiteers?

Plain Facts About the Meat Business

The Federal Trade Commission in its recent report on war profits, stated that the five large meat packers have been profiteering and that they have a monopoly of the market.

These conclusions, if fair and just, are matters of serious concern not only to those engaged in the meat packing business but to every other citizen of our country.

The figures given on profits are misleading and the statement that the packers have a monopoly is unsupported by the facts.

The packers mentioned in the report stand ready to prove their profits reasonable and necessary.

The meat business is one of the largest American industries. Any citizen who would familiarize himself with its details must be prepared for large totals.

The report states that the aggregate profits of four large packers were $140,000,000 for the three war years.

This sum is compared with $19,000,000 as the average annual profit for the three years before the war, making it appear that the war profit was $121,000,000 greater than the pre-war profit.

This compares a three-year profit with a one-year profit—a manifestly unfair method of comparison. It is not only misleading, but the Federal Trade Commission apparently has made a mistake in the figures themselves.

The aggregate three-year profit of $140,000,000 was earned on sales of over four and a half billion dollars. It means about three cents on each dollar of sales—or a mere fraction of a cent per pound of product.

Packers' profits are a negligible factor in prices of live stock and meats. No other large business is conducted upon such small margins of profit.

Furthermore—and this is very important—only a small portion of this profit has been paid in dividends. The balance has been put back into the businesses. It had to be, as you realize when you consider the problems the packers have had to solve—and solve quickly—during these war years.

To conduct this business in war times, with higher costs and the necessity of paying two or three times the former prices for live stock, has required the use of two or three times the ordinary amount of working capital. The additional profit makes only a fair return on this, and as has been stated, the larger portion of the profits earned has been used to finance huge stocks of goods and to provide additions and improvements made necessary by the enormous demands of our army and navy and the Allies.

If you are a business man you will appreciate the significance of these facts. If you are unacquainted with business, talk this matter over with some business acquaintance—with your banker, say—and ask him to compare profits of the packing industry with those of any other large industry at the present time.

No evidence is offered by the Federal Trade Commission in support of the statement that the large packers have a monopoly. The Commission's own report shows the large number and importance of other packers.

The packers mentioned in the statement stand ready to prove to any fair minded person that they are in keen competition with each other, and that they have no power to manipulate prices.

If this were not true they would not dare to make this positive statement.

Furthermore, government figures show that the five large packers mentioned in the report account for only about one-third of the meat business of the country.

They wish it were possible to interest you in the details of their business. Of how, for instance, they can sell dressed beef for less than the cost of the live animal, owing to utilization of by-products, and of the wonderful story of the methods of distribution throughout this broad land, as well as in other countries.

The five packers mentioned feel justified in co-operating with each other to the extent of together presenting this public statement.

They have been able to do a big job for your government in its time of need; they have met all war time demands promptly and completely and they are willing to trust their case to the fairmindedness of the American people with the facts before them.

STOP BALL GAMES TO SAVE MONEY

DES MONES, Iowa, July 9.—After floundering about for two months with starvation attendance the Western League finally gave up the ghost, formally ending its season Sunday. Major Tom Fairweather, owner of the local franchise, returned from the Omaha meeting, at which the league was disbanded, today and said the league's losses would cost each club between $5,000 and $7,000.

In only two cities on the circuit was the attendance anything like a paying proposition. Wichita was getting a good crowd with the team in front, and Oklahoma City was drawing because the league was a new institution in the Sooner country.

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE MARCH, July 9.—American troops attacked the French in clearing Hill 204, which dominates Chateau-Thierry from the west.

The Americans were swimming and playing baseball when the French commander was notified to take a few of them on the attack. Several entire companies volunteered and some were selected from each.

The attacking force fought in a wood and on the side of the hill for three hours. It was largely hand-to-hand work. Some of the heroes had climbed trees to escape the barrage and had pulled machine guns up with them. With these they poured a heavy fire into the Franco-Americans who used rifles and grenades in bringing them down.

Lieutenant Goodale, observer, and Lieutenant Noyes, pilot attached by six German airmen, brought one down and rescued from the other.

PASTRIES ARE WAR CASUALTIES

OTTAWA, Can., July 9.—French pastry is outlawed in Canada.

The latest "Summary of Orders," just issued by the Canada Food Board, says it is illegal to make the toothsome dainties, or to make biscuits with icing between layers or plastered over the exterior, or to make candy at home for home consumption.

Until August 1, candy factories are restricted to 50 per cent of the quantity of sugar used last year. No wheat flour may be used by anybody in manufacture of candy.

No wheat or wheat products, except bran or shorts, may be fed to livestock. Doughnuts are forbidden.

Manufacturers may use 50 per cent wheat flour in biscuits and in such sweet breads as are still permitted, and 90 per cent wheat flour in soda biscuits.

Weather and measles days and meals are prescribed from time to time, according to condition of the supply, as in the United States.

All food dealers are licensed, as in the United States, and the quantities of foods they may sell to customers at one time depend upon the distance of the householder from the source of supplies.

Anyone who wishes to indulge his taste for French pastry, or cannot resist the call of the doughnut, may have his way for a little matter of a fine ranging from $100 to $1,000, or a jail sentence up to three months, or both.

POTATO FLOUR MILL CONVERTS LOSS INTO GAIN

MANAGER J. L. HODGIN OF IDAHO FALLS PLANT, DISCUSSES RESULTS OF FIRST SEASON'S WORK

Four million pounds of potatoes that would otherwise have gone to waste in the Idaho Falls district this year were converted into 400,000 pounds of potato flour worth 10 cents a pound on the wholesale market, through the operation of the Idaho Falls potato flour mill, which is the first institution of its kind in the United States.

This is the statement of J. Lawrence Hodgin, manager of the mill, who has been here for several days on a visit with his parents, Attorney and Mrs. S. L. Hodgin.

Take Supps as They Come

The Idaho Falls plant, which was installed last year at an investment of about $50,000, converted these potatoes into flour during the period beginning April 12 and ending July 3, Mr. Hodgin stated. The mill was closed down at the end of this period because there were no more potatoes in the district. During a portion of the period the mill was in constant operation and 20 men were employed on two 12-hour shifts. The growers received 40 cents a pound for their potatoes, and the flour, good, had and indifferent were used.

The milling process, Mr. Hodgin said, makes it possible to use not only all potatoes, but those which are touched with disease as well, and all evidence of scab is removed along with dirt adhering to the tubers in the washing process.

Given Value to Waste

Without the mill, Mr. Hodgin stated, the potato growers of the Idaho Falls district would have had to pocket a loss to the extent of $1,000,000 for the potatoes converted into flour. Not only does the mill afford a constant market to the potato grower for his product, but it makes use of the potatoes that would be otherwise wasted. Mr. Hodgin pointed out that potato skins which are removed in the milling process, can be combined with waste hay, molasses, which is a by-product of the sugar factories, and other waste products of the farm, to make a perfectly balanced stock food, equal in value to cotton seed cakes or corn, he said.

Has Come to Stay

The milling process is superior to other means of producing potato flour, Mr. Hodgin stated, for the reason that its product is thoroughly cooked and will keep indefinitely. The principle demand for potato flour comes from bakers and others in districts familiar with its use, he said. Under existing war emergency conditions the demand for potato flour as a wheat flour substitute is a heavy one, but it will be possible, in Mr. Hodgin's opinion, to develop a large demand for potato flour among housewives at the conclusion of the war. He is positive that the potato flour industry has come to stay, and that it offers possibilities well worth investigation in any potato producing region.

JOHN H. KELLEY, DEPOSED OF BULL FARM BY VERDICT, FILES MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

A motion for a new trial in the case of Glen E. Fritcher, administrator of the estate of John Allen, deceased, against John H. Kelley and Laura B. The motion for the new trial sets out several alleged errors at law and states that the evidence introduced on the part of the plaintiff at the trial was insufficient to prove that Allen was laboring under unbalanced mental capacity at the time the deed in question was executed or that the Kelleys had exercised undue influence upon him to secure the grant.

Acceptance of service of the motion for the new trial was made by E. M. Wolff and J. F. Martin, two of the six attorneys who represented the plaintiff in the former trial.

SHAKE-UP AT HOSPITAL IS STRIKE RESULT

MISS NANCY W. SHAW IS RELIEVED OF SUPERINTENDENCY ON EVE OF OPENING INSTITUTION

Accepting as the facts in the case, the statements that conditions at the Twin Falls county general hospital were intolerable under the superintendency of Miss Nancy W. Shaw, made by employees of the institution who quit their positions in a body Sunday morning, members of the board of hospital trustees and the county commissioner, as a result of an investigation in the morning Monday afternoon decided to accept Miss Shaw's resignation and to invite Miss Olive Thompson, for two years past superintendent of the Physicians & Surgeons' hospital, to accept temporarily the superintendency of the county hospital.

Fergis Formal Opening

The rearrangement contemplated also the transfer of the Physicians & Surgeons' hospital nursing staff and the immediate removal of equipment of this institution, which the county had previously contracted informally to take, to the county general hospital, and the formal opening of the new institution has been dispensed with.

Employees of the hospital who quit their positions Sunday and who stated they were glad to return to their former regime were reinstated, and nurses residing elsewhere who had been instructed by Miss Shaw Monday morning to report for duty here were advised they had been employed and reinstated here. The hospital employees who were reinstated were Miss Bertha I. Krause, nurse; Miss Grace Rockwood, dietitian; Mrs. Frederick Christian, cook; and R. H. Williams, janitor.

Miss Shaw was engaged in preparations for the opening of the institution for less than one month. Miss Krause is a trained nurse with 15 years experience, who will be glad to return to a new job as from Boston to accept her first position as a dietitian, after completing extensive preliminary training.

Ray Superintendent Delayed

Statements of the striking employees at the hearing Monday afternoon were that Miss Shaw had refused to delegate to the employees the duty of preparing for the opening of the hospital which they were qualified to do, and that she had in this manner delayed the opening of the institution. They related the numerous incidents to show incompatibility between the superintendent and employees.

Miss Shaw was appointed superintendent of the county general hospital by the county commissioners prior to the opening of the new hospital trustees. She has been employed for several months outlining her work preliminary to the opening of the institution. She has held decided views relative to the duties incumbent upon her position and has at times clashed with the county commissioners.

Miss Thompson, who has been requested to accept the superintendency of the hospital temporarily, had previously held her plans for entering service as a Red Cross nurse, when the Physicians & Surgeons' hospital should be closed as soon as the county institution were opened.

Will Enter Red Cross Work

Dr. John B. Morgan, owner of the Physicians & Surgeons' hospital, who was invited by the commissioners and trustees to be present at the hearing Monday, expressed gratification at the decision to remove immediately the equipment from his hospital, inasmuch as he expects to volunteer for Red Cross work abroad, leaving here about August 1.

Members of the board of hospital trustees in attendance at the hearing Monday with the county commissioner, were President L. E. Sallaway, Vice President A. L. Swin, C. E. Hahn and L. T. Wright.

Proposals for the construction of the municipal waterworks warehouse building to be situated at Second and Second street north, will be called for by the city council to be opened at a special meeting on August 5. At a previous meeting the bids of three contractors submitting bids on the work were rejected. Arrangements have been made whereby the public library, which, according to previous tentative plans, was to have been housed temporarily at the warehouse building, is to remain in its present quarters on Blushline street north.

Mary Pickford in "Little American" Presented at Kimberly

(Special to The News)
KIMBERLY.—On Monday last night under the auspices of the Kimberly Red Cross branch the attraction at the Star theatre was Mary Pickford in the "Little American" and a tableau by the ladies and junior members of the branch.

The stage was set for the tableau with a large Red Cross flag for a background, and after the tableau a large call came waving across the stage as the Star audience banner was sung by Miss Woods. As the strains of the national anthem died away, Corporal Leonard Brimley, of the United States Army recruitment station at Twin Falls, sounded reveille and taps. Sergeant W. B. McClacken of the marine corps recruiting station at Twin Falls was also on hand in "fighting tones."

Miss Jessie Dunn impersonated Mary Pickford in the tableaux. The picture made by the chapter in full uniform with a liberal sprinkling of color of the flags of our allies and Old Glory floating over all was one that will long be remembered.

Mr. C. H. Eastwood said last night by the chapter and junior members rangements to present "Womanhood" here within a short time and that will also be under the auspices of the Red Cross.

U-BOAT DOING BUSINESS IN AMERICAN WATERS

CREW OF NORWEGIAN STEAMSHIP PICKED UP BY LINE—FOURTEEN BELIEVED TO HAVE PERISHED—WASHINGTON WARNS SHIPPING

By CARL D. GROAT (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, July 9.—The navy department has reason to believe that German U-boats are about to strike again Atlantic coast shipping. Because of this official warning to all shipping to be on the alert, has been sent out, covering the stretch of ocean from the Virginia capes northward to the vicinity of New York and eastward a sufficient distance out to sea. The recent inactivity of the U-boats off the coast has not deceived navy chiefs into believing that the danger is past, and recent confidential information has come tending to prove that a new blow is about to fall. While there is always an element of doubt about submarine information, this data appeared to authorities to be substantial. While warnings are sent out more or less frequently, they generally are based on what appears to be a "good tip."

AUGVALL'S CREW LANDED AT ATLANTIC PORT

NEW YORK, July 9.—The crew of the vicinity today were wanted to watch for a German submarine believed to be operating about sixteen hundred miles east of New York.

At the same time it was learned that several members of the crew of the Norwegian steamship Augvall, 2008 tons, had been landed at an Atlantic port by a liner. Fourteen others of the crew are believed to have perished in a storm. The ship was torpedoed. Zandbergen, who was attacked by an American warship.

INVESTIGATE LOSS OF RIVER STEAMER

PEORIA, Ill., July 9.—Official investigation of the sinking early Saturday of the excursion steamer Columbia, carrying scores of pleasure seekers to death, was under way here today.

Seventy-three bodies have been recovered. Between 20 and 30 persons were reported missing. Aided by floating cranes, workers again attacked the wreck at daybreak.

DIG SPLASH AROUSED—BLUMBERG AUTOIST

Talk about nightmares, a man had one sure enough east of town Sunday morning. He mist-filled with the horrors of the German U-boat, he was bolting along towards home in his little—well, one of the popular models, when suddenly he was precipitated into the wet waves that had engulfed the car. Then he realized that it was only a dream. The state highway where he had been driving was off to the left. An S. O. B. call was picked up by a fishing party outward bound, who threw the mariner a line and pulled him and his car back to the recognized route of travel. The rest stated afterwards that rather than repeat his experience he will make a desperate effort to stay awake at the wheel.

Truly Remarkable Record. A wonderful matrimonial record was that of a certain John Watson of San Francisco. This "juggler of hearts" became acquainted with the eight daughters of a brewer resident in Erie, Pa. Within a year he had gone through a form of marriage with each of the eight sisters, and had succeeded in decamping with their dowries.

JACQUES DU PRE

Jacques Du Pre, a Belgian soldier who has been in the service of his country since the opening days of the war, is now the hero of the country for his daring exploit of capturing an entire carload of Germans and marching them, single-handed, to a detention camp behind the Belgian lines. He had been decorated already for exceptional valor.

Philippa Play Flute with Nese. It is not an uncommon spectacle to see a negro play a harmonica with his nostrils. Among the Philippines a flute is never played in any other way, and it would create much surprise if that country to see a man play a flute with his mouth. These nose-flutes which play the ordinary music with ease, but fast fingering is too much for them.

WOMEN TAKE UP BOYS' CLUB LEADER'S WORK

PARENTS-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION FURNISHES GROUP OF 25 TO BOOST CROP PRODUCTION

Consequent upon the induction into the military service of George E. Denman, former instructor in agriculture in the Twin Falls high school, an organization of the Parents-Teachers' association has been effected to take up and continue his work as leader in the Twin Falls district of the boys' garden and livestock clubs. A similar organization is being formed to assist Miss Lucille Cronquist as leader of the girls sewing and canning clubs in the Twin Falls district.

Leaders Are Instructed. A group of 25 leaders composed of members of the Parents-Teachers' association assuming Mr. Denman's work was given instruction in their duties at a recent meeting in the high school building by Miss Z. Fay Foster of Boise, assistant state club leader. The group is under general direction of Mrs. H. J. Young, president of the Parents-Teachers' association, and is divided into three subdivisions, with the work in the Lincoln school district under direction of Mrs. Cora V. Cooney; in the Washington school district under direction of Mrs. H. E. Deiss, and in the Bickel school district under direction of Mrs. E. O. Haines.

Following is a list of the leaders in each district: Lincoln—Mrs. H. N. Neuenmeier, Miss Ruth Howell, Mrs. A. J. Regan, Mrs. N. C. Purkert, Miss Corneilia Prater, Mrs. G. E. Dale, Mrs. C. F. Hartz, Mrs. F. D. Osborne, Miss Para Costello, Washington—Mrs. A. L. Swin, Mrs. E. R. Dooley, Mrs. G. H. Caldwell, Mrs. G. J. Smith, Mrs. Peter Swanson. Bickel—Miss Frances Agar, Mrs. J. Portland, Mrs. C. A. Bickford, Mrs. League.

Patriotic Service. Regarding the work of the boys' and girls' clubs and of the club leaders, F. A. Smutz, county club leader, says: "In assuming this work the organization has associated itself with one of the greatest movements of our government in the education and training of the children of the United States. From a small beginning in the south this work has now gained such gigantic proportions that it is one of the great institutions of our government, controlling over 3,000,000 boys and girls and is represented in every state of the Union. The splendid type of leadership secured through the association can mean nothing less than a success in this district."

"In developing this work the government has given heed to the principal that experience is the best teacher. Members of these clubs will be guided in their opportunities by the leaders who can best appreciate their problems and will learn through experience not only the fundamentals of agriculture, but also the fundamentals of good business. Each member is in business for himself and it is our part to encourage."

"Added to the educational feature, the members are given a great patriotic service in producing and conserving food stuffs. The boys and girls last year added to the production of food not less than $100,000 according to government statistics. This year's product can hardly be less than double that amount due to the great increase of interest and effort in all parts of the county."

How Washington Landlords Gouge Their Tenants

WHEN a brand-new population about the size of a manufacturing city like South Bend drops in unexpectedly upon a small-sized large town, already completely filled, such as Washington, there are bound to be a few crates of retaliation in the consequent. Consequently the residential sections of the national capital early in the war had become an omnibus family reunion, wherein pop and mom soon were all fed up with visitors.

"Come and see us one day while you're here," they said over the telephone to me, with all the warmth of Charles Evans Hughes opening his front door and finding a delegation of California voters on the front steps. Now, if they had only asked me to come up even for one night I might have given three rousing cheers. Not a chance. Still, I had no grudges; they're more to be pitied than censured.

I tackled several circles and squares enough to learn that in a Washington there are to wit: Half bedrooms (or fifteen-cent-a-month half bedrooms) of an antebellum type of $10 a month which suddenly have jumped into bellum fifteen-cent-a-month at $40 and $50 a month; that very swaggar houses which recently were rented for $10,000 a year now bring $25,000 yearly; that one lady, who had an unfurnished apartment for which she paid $30 a month, had patriotically rented the room, furnished, during the first war winter at a rate of only $500 a month, pocketing $3,000 for six months as her slight bit toward winning the war; that antebellum furnished apartments in the $150-a-month class bring over $350 and more a month in bellum days—that beds-of-furled, such was—data unfurnished at $75 now commonly are rented at $250 furnished. About the only government priority certificate which a man of fairdeceit cannot get is a priority certificate for a room and bath.

"It's safe to say that the only vacant thing to be found in Washington was the German embassy, which is still respected as an embassy, although empty—excepted, one might say, a hodgepodge might more than when it wasn't empty." Frank Ward O'Malley in the Country Magazine.

FRIEND'S ENLISTMENT CALLED FOR BOOZE

William Deoder Explains Violation of Liquor Law—Gets Light Sentence

Because his friend was going to war and they wished to celebrate the event, prohibition laws notwithstanding, William Deoder of Buhl, a plumber, and his friend went to Twin Spring, Nev., and procured the whiskey which was found in his possession when he was arrested upon his return to Buhl from the Nevada roadhouse by Deputy Sheriff J. E. Baymiller. This is the candid statement made by Deoder when Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here Monday, asked him if he had anything to say in his own behalf before sentence was pronounced upon him. Previous investigation on the part of the court and police officers had shown Deoder's prior record a good one. Judge Babcock pronounced the minimum sentence—30 days imprisonment in the county jail.

Initial Step to Independence. The fact that well-to-do people are almost invariably "cowed" and "fettered" and usually have that reputation should be a mighty good pointer for those who are always hard up. It isn't luck, it isn't robbery that starts young people on the road to independence. It is common sense and moral courage to deny themselves that does the business.

Rock Creek Woman Is Kept Out of Room Two Days Before Honey Makers Retire

(Special to The News.)
 Mrs. M. V. Van Eaton has moved into the old Hansen house which has been vacant for some time. When she moved in she found a swarm of bees had made their home there and it was two days before the family could use one of the rooms.

The bread loaf collected by the Hansen Red Cross branch of Hansen, Rock Creek and Excelsior, at Twin Falls the Fourth, netted the sum of $95.00, which was a disappointment to the Rock Creek auxiliary, as they had expected a much better response to the Rock Creek share in the celebration. The Hansen women cared for the booth during the forenoon and Rock Creek took charge after noon. Mrs. Wesley Hyde, chairman; Mrs. C. L. Dean, secretary; and Mrs. Catherine Rose and Mrs. D. F. Albee, represented Rock Creek for the day.

D. P. Albee had a very narrow escape Friday—in fact the neighbors here are still in ignorance as to the outcome since telephone service is not to be depended on. Friday morning Mr. and Mrs. Albee started to Twin Falls, going through Pleasant Valley on their way. When they reached the Ferns could they discover that the bridge was not good and Mr. Albee got out of the car to ascertain if it was passable. While he was standing on the bridge Mrs. Albee started across and the car struck a series of chunks which jolted the machine in such a manner that she lost control of a moment and the car struck the rail, throwing both Mr. Albee and the rail

Pancakes Muscle Makers.

It is a common mistake to suppose that to get the necessary strength to do hard manual labor a heavy weight diet is necessary. This is far from correct. Muscular labor does not materially affect the demand for minerals and proteins, but rather for starch, fats, and sugars. Therefore any additional weight through muscular effort could be much better repaired by pancakes and sirup than by roast beef, for as much moisture and heat are wasted as tissue, so it is felt that it is required.—Popular Science Monthly.

INTERVENTION IS GOOD FOR COUNTRY

PROMINENT RUSSIAN VISITOR SAYS RUSSIA WILL PROFIT BY ALLIED ACTION

Washington, July 9.—Allied intervention in Russia will be good for that country, though its people may not know it for some time. This is the opinion of Dr. F. G. Mason, president of the Czech-Slovak national council here and organizer of the gallant band of Czech-Slovaks now holding the center of world attention at Vladivostok. He has urged President Wilson to send immediate aid to the Slavs that they may be useful in the great struggle.

These men, Mason declares, will be getting the allies. He is the first to guess that it was for the purpose of getting them to the west front. He secured permission for them to move unimpeded through Siberia to Vladivostok for shipment to France. They were placed at the disposal of the Russians not to open hostilities during the movement eastward. Later, however, they were attacked and as a result virtually fought their way to the Pacific port again where they are in possession of large war stores captured when they took the city a week ago.

BEND MISSION

In short, do everything within their power to "start things moving" in Russia.

Hearty Support Expected

The outgrowth of this movement, it is confidently believed, will be a spontaneous and enthusiastic rallying to the banner of the inter-allied "army of business."

Its advance and the record of its achievement will be heralded throughout Russia. Its useful purpose, and above all, its non-combative disposition, is expected to convince all factions that the allied nations' interest solely upon the Russian situation.

President Wilson is understood to have staked much on this unparalleled venture.

It will be put into effect when every precaution has been taken to insure its success. Adequate means will be provided for protecting the "business army" and its consist of inter-related troops.

Emergency Army

These are the details that are being worked out now. The Czech-Slovak army at Vladivostok became automatically, through the plan, an "emergency army" held in reserve—not as a threat—but as a protection.

Precautions will be taken to see to it that shipments of supplies for Russians do not get into the hands of Germans. These precautions, incidentally, include necessary augmenting of the forces along the German coast now threatened by the German fleet.

Above is the definite program, today. Future developments in Russia will determine how this program will be modified.

Without the use of an endoscope there is much danger of injuring the tissues by blind feeling for the offending object.
