Germans Forced to Retreat Along Seventy-Five Mile Front—Allies Capture Entire Divisional Staff

30,000 PRISONERS IS LATE PREDICTION

Yankies Go into Fight With British and Wipe Huns Out of Morlancourt, Only Obsta- cle to Advance

By WILLIAM PHILIP GIBMS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH AR- MIES IN FRANCE, August 10. (Noo.)—United States troops, got into action in the great battle of Picardy today after waiting in reserve since the fight began. They sprang to the attack side by side with the Britons, eager to be on their way. They took their bat- tle of the line veterans, storming desperately defend- ed positions north of the Somme. Fifty minutes after the commencement of the at- tack the whole series of im- portant objectives was secured in American and British hands.

Retreating Everywhere

The allies are nearing the Somme crossing south of Peronne (13 miles southeast of Albert). The Germans are retreating everywhere from near Albert to the region of Montdidier, which seems doomed. The bottom of the rapidly narrowing pocket now is over thirty miles long and is lengthening hourly.

The allies stormed and took Chilly
Spur and Morlancourt, advancing eastward along the ridge between the Somme and the Aisne.

Canadians and Australians captured Bachelin, six miles from Roye, and also took Folla, Beaufort, Wavillers, Vrely, Roislers, Mobaricourt and part of Bouvy and Lihons. The latter lies than two miles west of Chalques.

Capture Divisional Staff

They captured a divisional headquarters and it is believed the complete staff was captured. Their parade pushed into Proyart and Lalencourt. They advanced their lines on an average of three miles in brilliant fighting.

30,000 Prisoners

I predict that today will see a total of 30,000 prisoners in this drive.
The German losses in killed, wounded and prisoners must be at least 50 per cent of the total of their forces engaged. About 300 guns have been captured, including two 8.2 inch pieces and other material of all descriptions.
Allison continues to harass the disorganized enemy whose confusion he held the lines as he retreats in indecent, while allied artillery is pounding him everywhere.

"Nearly 60,000 Huns Taken"—Lloyd George

NEWPORT, ENGLAND, August 10.—Premier Lloyd George, speaking at a luncheon in the town hall here, today announced that the allies, in the Marne and Somme drives have captured between 50,000 and 60,000 Huns between 600 and 800 cannon.
"News continues distinctly good for the allies," the premier said.
"Altogether, in the Marne and Somme offensives we have captured between 50,000 and 60,000 prisoners and between 500 and 800 cannon. The latest advance makes Amiens safe, except for stray long range shells, thanks to the brilliant qualities of our troops and the French and also the Americans.
The greatest factor in this success has been the combined command, but it is not over yet. We must maintain our steady blow."

ROME, August 10.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the American navy, arrived here late yesterday and was received by Admiral Delonco, minister of marine.

CLOSES STATION FOR RECRUITING

Voluntary Enlistments in Army and Marine Corps Sus- pended Here

Telegraphic orders closing the local recruiting stations of the United States army and marine corps were received here late Friday afternoon. It is presumed that stations are to be closed only temporarily and will be reopened by congress of legislation draft ages.

On account of wire trouble on the Western Union lines, the messages to the officers in charge of the local recruiting station, which were dispatched from Salt Lake at 9:30 o'clock yesterday, did not reach here until 4 o'clock that afternoon, and several applications for enlistment were received up to the time of the receipt of the orders. The men whose applications were accepted at that time were forwarded to Salt Lake to complete their enlistments.

Following is the order to the army recruiting station:
"Discontinue immediately all voluntary enlistments. Those already accepted may be forwarded, but not later than today. O. W. Hall, Lieutenant."

Get Under the Wire

Applications for enlistment in the army who got under the wire Friday were the following:
Howard J. Johnson, Twin Falls; Harry J. Hunt, Twin Falls; James M. Cavender, Twin Falls; Arthur C. Balesch, Kimberly; Turner K. Hackman, Jr., Twin Falls; Winford E. O'Leary, Elgin; George C. Wood, Twin Falls.
All except Woods, who entered the engineer corps, applied for enlistment in the quartermaster corps. Johnson and Hunt had made their applications for enlistment previously but had not expected to leave until a later date.

Sergeant W. B. McCracken, in charge of the local marine corps recruiting station, received orders to forward no recruits whose applications, for enlistment were received after August 8, but to hold them on the waiting list pending a probable resumption of acceptance of voluntary enlistments. He is authorized to accept re-enlistments of men formerly in the marine corps.

ALLIES PUSH AHEAD ON 50-MILE FRONT

FOCH PLANS TO KEEP ENEMY ON RUN SAYS MARCH

Hit Hard Where the Hitting's Good Is Allies' Program from Now On—Says There Will Be No Relaxation

LONDON, August 10.—The French, in their new drive southeast of Montdidier, have advanced beyond Favrolles and Assainvillers, (east of Montdidier), it was learned this afternoon. Tanks and cavalry are still operating ahead of the general line. The allied casualties are reported to be less than a quarter the number of prisoners they have taken, while the German casualties are heavy. The total of German prisoners is officially announced at 24,000.

The French are meeting little resistance in the bulge between Montdidier and Hangard (11 miles northwest of Montdidier) and it can not be held by the Germans much longer. It will soon be flattened out, if this has not already taken place.

ONE DIVISION ENGAGED

LONDON, August 10. (4:35 p. m.)—One division of Americans is fighting north of the Somme, it was learned this afternoon. There are 27,500 men in an American division.

WASHINGTON, August 10.—The time for America's greatest effort in the present war has arrived. Chief of Staff March declared today in his talk with correspondents.

This country must hit hard and keep the foe running, he said, indicating that there will be no relaxation in Foch's driving tactics.
The twenty-seventh division (New York) commanded by Major General O'Bryan has been with the British in Flanders for some time March declared. It was suggested by other officials that these forces may be brought into the British in the present fighting although March declared he had received no official word that Americans were fighting in that sector.

By W. M. J. O'NEIL

He discouraged any talk of the war being over.
"The greatest advantage in the present military situation he declared is that the allies now have the enemy pushing instead of guessing. He said the American demand for greater man power resources is caused by the need for striking the hardest blows possible from this important position."

Capture Hun General

Heading a confidential cable regarding the allied offensive in Picardy, March disclosed the fact that prisons cannot hold the prisoners being taken. He confirmed the capture of a German general and his staff, and said that in the center of the line the allied troops encountered little opposition.

Discussing the situation made by the advance east of Amiens, the general said it had caused a new pocket, similar to that on the Soissons-Semur line. His chief pet to the Germans is the threat to the railroad line of communications running south from Chaunes. Over this line, the German troops in the Montdidier section obtain their supplies. Cutting off this railroad by the allies would force a German retreat along the Montdidier line.

Remove Obstacle

The French, it was learned, advanced this morning on a 16-mile front between Montdidier and the Oise, penetrating to a depth of four miles within six hours.
The distance from the Oise to Arras around the present battle front is nearly 75 miles.
The Picardy battle has spread from the Oise northward to south of Arras.

Cooperating with the British, the Americans captured Morlan- court and the heights to the south- east—probably the most difficult task accomplished so far in the of- fensive. Morlancourt, which is four miles south of Albert, be- tween the Aisne and the Somme, formed the northern flank of the allied drive. The town was report- edly captured early in the attack, but the British later were evi- dently driven out.

East Brucastles Outlines

The German base at Chalques cannot now be used by them and they are expected at any moment to begin a retreat to the canal between Noyon and Neuf. It was learned this afternoon. Noyon is 10 miles southeast of Montdidier. Neuf is 16 miles northeast of Montdidier.

Two French German divisions were brought up this morning but no counter attack developed.

Montdidier Surrounded

While pushing steadily southward from the main offensive front last night, the French suddenly attacked on a three-mile front southeast of Montdidier, driving a sharp wedge northeastward for four miles. The new attack was made between Ayncourt, a village and a half south of Montdidier, and Le Fresnoy, four and a half miles south and east.
The French reached Favrolles, three miles east of Montdidier, and less than a mile south of the main railway running from Montdidier to Roy. In this advance Roubaucourt, a mile southeast of Ayncourt and Assainvillers, two miles and a half southeast of Montdidier, were captured.

Out Railway Lines

The pressure from the north advancing the French lines to Davencourt of the Aisne river, four miles north and east of Montdidier and less than a mile west of the Montdidier-Roislers railway, which already has been severed farther north.
The southern advance also cut the Montdidier-Noyon railway. The three main lines of egress from Montdidier have thus been rendered untenable for the Germans. The enemy is permitted a narrow gap of only four miles, between Davencourt and Favrolles, through which to retire from Montdidier.

Drive Spreads Suddenly South of Montdidier—French Cut Off City

TAKE 24,000 PRISONERS; CLEAR MORLANCOURT

More than 24,000 prisoners have been taken in the Picardy drive. The line of the new French attack extends from Favrolles southeast to the outskirts of Plesnes, southeast to the outskirts of Corilly, south- westward through Bouilly southward through Hesson-Bur-Mais and south- ward to Vimignot.

PICARDY DRIVE ACCOMPLISHES DUAL OBJECTS

Initiative Retained in Hands of Allies—Possibility of New Amiens Thrust Put Beyond Range of Probabilities

By WEBB MILLER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, August 10.—The significance of the Somme battle in its wide relation to the entire campaign is that it is a successful fulfillment of Marshal Foch's plan to refrain from the initiative, or, phrased in American words, to keep commanding the Germans and not let 'em come up for breath while we've got 'em going.

Key Huns Busy

The Huns' push was the first phase of the plan. The second is developing. Foch's strategy aims to keep the Germans too busy during the three or four months of fighting weather remaining this year that they will be unable to deliver what General von Ludendorff hoped might have been a staggering blow. Then all during the winter Americans will be pouring in for next spring's battle.

Amiens Thrust Averted

The secondary object of the Somme drive was the forcing of a "hook back" thrust toward Amiens. It was attempted to reach the allies' vital communications. This also has been successful. The immediate effect of the allied advances has been to seriously menace Montdidier. It is possible that within a few days von Ludendorff will be forced to evacuate the entire Montdidier region. Such a retreat would bring far-reaching results and would compel another straightening of the German lines as far south as the Aisne.

Reserves Overrun

Identification of the 117th German division as participating in the Somme fighting is significant, inasmuch as such the French and Americans had the Veule. The fact that it was hurled to the Somme, arriving in the night before the Franco-British attack and getting into the battle immediately is some indication of the rapidity of the movement. One Italian American checked up the German reserves.

RETIREMENT OF GERMAN FROM VESLE IMMINENT

Franco-Americans Held Back by Lighter Artillery While Huns, Withdraw Big Pieces to Other Side of Aisne

IMPROVE POSITIONS NORTH OF VESLE RIVER

Capture of Fismotto, One Mile North of Fismes, Establishes Secure Bridgehead—Allies Push Toward Plateau

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, August 10—10:45 a. m.—FRANCE: Troops continue their incessant pounding at the German center north of the Vesle river. Although our wings on each side of the Fismes are comparatively quiet as regards infantry fighting, the Americans are slowly advancing on the Vesle, toward the plateau and heights, where the Germans are strongly entrenched.

Take Fismotto

The little town of Fismotto, about a mile north of Fismes, had been captured, greatly improving our bridgehead on the north bank of the Vesle. Our artillery is blasting away at the Boche defenses all along the line, but the firing is particularly heavy just north of Fismes, where the Germans are seeking to open up a way for the infantry.

Prepare for Retirement

The German artillery fire is lessening noticeably. Its barrages mostly are created by heavy caliber pieces, according to prisoners. This indicates that the enemy is withdrawing its artillery farther northward and removing material, possibly in preparation for a retirement across the Aisne.

Captured officers frankly admit the aim of the Germans is now to hold off the allies until they are ready to fall back again. They say they are held up for fresh divisions to withstand the allied pushes. The German crown prince, they say, has used a third of the Germans' entire strength, in attempting to repulse the Marne drive.

Artillery Blasts Way

The American attack yesterday was made after daily artillery preparation, the doughboys then rushing the village of Fismotto and reaching the Boche lines they could get away. In hand to hand street fighting, they practically all the Prussian troops who opposed them were either killed or captured. At that the percentage of prisoners was small.

Thanks Help Refugees

In the rear some the Americans are assisting refugees to re-establish their homes in villages recently captured. American trucks rolling northward usually carry women and children on top of the piles of ammunition and supplies.

Wants Help Refugees

The Americans are winning the hearts of the refugees by helping to clean out the mines. I saw a middle-aged woman return to a battered wreck of a village, leading a cow and carrying a huge basket of her belongings. On her back she had a little boy, who was wailing by her side. In the midst of the wreckage they found their "home." The mother sat down on an ammunition box, the tears rolling down her cheeks. Then a big American sergeant came by, stopped and tried to comfort the woman. Although she understood no English and he knew no French they understood each other. The sergeant called two of his buddies and they began clearing out the cellar. Considerable room was soon resurrected. Food was brought from a field kitchen. The great tinde of the French woman could not be measured. If almost reached worth of the American soldiers. And this is only one of the many scenes which occur every day in any repatriated village behind the American lines.

POET'S WIFE SUICIDES

Mrs. Gertrude B. Sterling Takes Own Life at Oakland, California

OAKLAND, Calif., August 10.—The body of Mrs. Gertrude B. Sterling, divorced wife of George Sterling, poet, was found late yesterday, fully dressed and lying on a bed in her Piedmont home here. Beside the bed was a glass containing the drops of some sort of poison.

A note attached to the doorknob and addressed to Mrs. Harry Maxwell, Mrs. Sterling's sister, indicated that the woman had carefully planned suicide following a long period of despondency. The note gave explicit instructions as to the disposition of all of Mrs. Sterling's property. Various articles in the house had been tagged with the names of the relatives or friends to whom Mrs. Sterling wished them to be given.

Three years ago Mrs. Sterling was divorced from her poet husband on grounds of incompatibility, since then she has lived at her Piedmont home practically in seclusion. The Sterlings were married in 1910.

Sterling left San Francisco a month ago and is now said to be living at the Lambs' club, New York City.

Need a New Battery?

The Willard trademark branded into the side of the battery tells the whole story. For that mark is the sign of the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

It is the outward and visible sign of the most important storage battery improvement in years.

It stands for durable, Threaded Rubber Insulation—for a battery in which the need of re-insulating is indefinitely postponed.

Next time you're in, ask us for the booklet "A Mark with a Meaning for You"—it tells exactly what the Willard Mark stands for.

We test, repair and re-charge storage batteries, and always carry a full supply of battery parts, new batteries and rental batteries. Testing service is free.

FRANCO-BRITISH IMPROVE VESLE

Picardy Drive Prevents Enemy Bringing Up Reinforcements—Huns Are Entrenched in Strong Positions on Plateau

By FRED S. FROBON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE—The Franco-British attack is clearly likely to have a big influence on the situation along the Aisne-Vesle line, where there has been no great change in the past twenty-four hours.

The Americans improved their position slightly by heavy attacks but for the most part were busy repulsing German counter attacks. Five of these enemy assaults were broken up today. Our artillery stopped the first two. The third reached our lines but the infantry threw them back in a hand to hand struggle. The next two were repulsed by rifle and machine gun fire.

Bridgehead Widened
The bridgehead at Fismes was widened during the next day. The city is now entirely cleared of Boches who have been hunted out of cellars and dugouts and captured or exterminated. Heavy artillery exchanged positions throughout the day. The rains have passed and the roads have dried out simplifying the movement of forces. However, the Germans are strongly entrenched on the heights north of the Vesle in caves and deep dugouts. Our artillery will literally have to blow the sides off these hills before the advance. Many of the Picardy attacks today being received with great enthusiasm by Americans. One doubter expressed the sentiments of his companions as follows.

Aviator Found Unburied
"The Boche is getting like a horse. Now he is beginning to kick. The British ought to put a twist on his nose and shut his wind off. Then we'll start going here again."
The body of an American aviator, missing since July 15, was found unburied near Dormans (on the Marne). It has been stripped by the Huns and the identification tags were missing. His cap, concealed beneath his machine, enabled the Americans to identify him.

Bullets Pierce Clothes
I spent an hour tonight with some boys from Michigan and Wisconsin, who took part in the Zepplin drive down the Boches across the Vesle. They ran into many machine guns being fired by men with the Red Cross on their arms," they said. The lieutenant "came in with the knees clean out of his pants when machine gun bullets had ripped him. There was scarcely a man but had a bullet hole through his clothes somewhere. Many had lost puttees and coats and fought virtually bare armed and were legless.

Father, Dominigan of Lapeer, Mich., said he buried one boy he found with three dead boches about him. The boy's rifle was covered with blood. Apparently he had fought a bayonet battle against many Germans and had accounted for three of them before he had fallen himself.

GIVES FIGURES ON DEATHS IN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

237 Per Cent of Aggregate Working Time Lost Through Illness

PARIS, August 10.—In the last year 131,876 cases of sickness were reported in the expeditionary forces of which 923 died, according to figures published by the Stars and Stripes. The expeditionary force lost 237 per cent of its aggregate working time through illness. About one-third of the sickness was due to communicable diseases, of which mumps was the principal ailment. Nineteen per cent of the cases were pneumonia.

RUSH TO BEAT DRAFT

Introduction of New Draft Measure Makes Necessary

Washington, August 10.—One of the principal reasons for hanning rollments in the army and navy, it was learned today, is that the introduction in congress of the 15 to 45 draft bill, caused a rush to enlist. Thousands of men, many of whom are holding positions which they should not leave. Their belief apparently was that the government needed every man they could get hold of and they did not wish to wait until drafted.

What Contentment Means.
Everybody knows that contentment is the secret of doing the best work, but some people fail to realize that a lack of concentration is the secret of so much nervous, taxing, hurried work. It is the thought of something else we need to do which makes us feel that we must neave through what we are engaged in, and thus every instant is engaged in an unnecessary trying. Could we learn to think only of the task in hand, we should do it better, and far more happily.

Huns Ditch Officers Who Failed to Stop Recent Offensive

Nineteen German Officers, Including One General, Retired

BERNE, August 10.—For failure to stop the French offensive 19 German officers have been retired, according to advices received here today. This punishment was inflicted upon General von Planitz, two major generals, two colonels and twelve lieutenant colonels.

GUNNER DEPEW MISSING

Audience of 4,000 Waits in Vain for Lecturing Soldier to Show

HASTINGS, Neb., August 10.—Gunner Dewey, veteran of the Dardanelles and widely known as an author of war stories, disappeared last night while an audience of four thousand persons waited to hear him lecture on his war experiences. He left without explanation and his manager, G. W. Hiltcock, not knowing his whereabouts, has cancelled his engagements. Dewey's father was killed in the blowing up of the battleship Maine and he was recently informed that his mother had died in Europe.

A letter which came to him here, reporting his mother alive in Yonkers, N. Y., may account for his disappearance. Dewey's lecture trip has been financially successful. He cashed all his traveler's checks here before leaving.

TWO MEN KILLED IN BOILER EXPLOSION

U. S. S. Neopatin Has Disaster in Foreign Waters, According to Navy Department Report

WASHINGTON, August 10.—Two men were killed and three others seriously injured when the boiler of the U. S. S. Neopatin blew up August 7 in foreign waters. The dead were: Thomas Benham, fireman, Prospect, Long Island, New York; Roger Hackett, fireman, New Haven, Conn.

The injured are: Ernest F. Adams, fireman, West Brook, Mass.; Gottfried Chabert, fireman, Bayou Labarre, Ala.; Perry Crawford, water tender, Annapolis, Md.

British Guns Bring Down Hun Zeppelin

NEW YORK, August 10.—The destruction of a German Zeppelin was officially reported today to the air ministry in the communication describing the naval flying operations during the first week of August. In addition the communication reported destruction of three enemy machines, while six others were driven down out of control. No British machines are missing, with the exception of one sea plane which was forced to land in Dutch water, where the crew was interned and the airplane destroyed.

NO VACATION OUTFIT COMPLETE Without an EVEREADY Daylo

YOU will need a Daylo for those vacation nights around the camp; on fishing, hunting and hiking trips, for the early morning start or the late at night return.

Darkness is a blindfold, more dangerous perhaps because of the false sense of security when you think you know the way.

The short cut to safety lies along the path to the nearest Daylo dealer.

Go in today—get the type Daylo you need and take an extra Eveready Tungsten battery with you.

For safety, convenience and amusement, learn the Eveready night-signalling code for sending "Daylograms" from camp to camp, for signalling for help in case of danger, or for sending messages by light, which is visible for nine miles.

Ask for a free copy of the Eveready night-signalling code at the stores labeled with the sign.

SEARCH FOR FOOT STOLN FROM SCHUMANN-HEINK HOME

LOS ANGELES, Calif., August 10.—That a $1,000 diamond was missing from a ring belonging to Madame Schumann-Heink and a paste stone substituted for it, following the murder of William Brothers at Madame Schumann-Heink's San Diego home, became known here today. Ferdinand Schumann, son of the diva, arrived in Los Angeles, today to assist Sheriff H. C. Hubbell of San Diego in his search for Leslie Lee, a Korean, who now is accused of killing Brothers.

Madame Schumann-Heink is in San Diego and has offered $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of Brothers's murderer.

Sheriff Hubbell brought with him from San Diego a map with a spot marked upon it where the murder is supposed to have been a large sum of money and lost taken from the Schumann-Heink home. Hubbell is confident Lee is in Los Angeles.

TAXATION FOLLY

If it were advisable to strike a blow at the industrial power of the nation and actually decrease the flow of productive energy...

Such a conception is, of course, preposterous. While the principal use of gasoline is in motor-driven vehicles...

There are about 5,000,000 registered automobiles in the United States. Less than 61,000 are cars of the "luxury" type costing more than $4000.

Now in addition to nearly 60,000 farm tractors in service in this country, there are 400,000 motor trucks in use...

Not one-tenth of the "pleasure" cars whether in city or country, are used for mere pleasure. The automobile today is a time-saving distance-consuming utility.

Champion Mean Man Evidently Operating in Chicago

CHICAGO—Deliberating the evidence in the pay roll robbery mystery at the central bureau, Capt. Stephen B. Wood, commanding, we reach the conclusion it is no longer safe for our policemen to be left alone in a great city...

It was June 14, pay day being June 15, when the slips were left at the central bureau. When he went off watch he turned them over to Lieut. John Meehan. Now, in the interim, the slips were in the lieutenant's office as safely protected from the slick-fingered "dip" or hold robber...

It was one night, because when the four coppers visited the office for the slips they were missing—four slips, each calling for a check for $50.04—total, $200.16.

Well, it's all right, anyway, a bit incidented, that's all; and wads blown them out the window or something," explained Messrs. Burke, O'Brien, Nolan and O'Donnell one to the other.

HOW THE STARTING BATTERY STARTED

"One of the oldest forms of storage batteries," says Mr. Dow, local Willard expert, "was composed of two sheets of lead with a strip of flattened between, all rolled up like a jelly-roll and stuck on end in a bath of battery solution."

"Battery builders of those early days did not have any lead core to use in making the plates," said Mr. Dow, "so what the early experimenters and builders did was to connect two plates in a direct-current circuit and let the battery charge until it made one of the plates a positive and the other a negative."

The first battery of this type was used in a lecture given by a French scientist, Plante, who created a great sensation because he was able to keep a little arc light going for a few minutes with the current developed. It was a remarkable thing, but as an automobile battery such a device as this could not have been worth the trouble of attaching to the car."

Air Force Active

Unceasing co-operation with the British attacking forces in France during the offensive operations there was reported today in the official British air ministry communique. All sorts of attacking cavalry were aided by low-flying machines which dropped smoke bombs to conceal the progress of the troops. Advanced artillery units were supplied with ammunition by the air-given information and aid in destroying strongholds, forcing enemy columns were raked with machine gun fire, and artillery observation was carried out under the most adverse conditions. The course of the fighting resulted in the officially reported destruction of 48 German airplanes, while 17 others were driven down out of control. Five hostile balloons were set afire and destroyed. Fifty-one British machines are missing.

ONLY TWO WILL NOT MAKE RAGE

J. M. Shank for Senator, and J. M. Steelsmith for Representative Do Not Accept

Only two persons nominated as candidates for public office subject to the primary elections in Twin Falls county failed to file their acceptances of the nominations before the closing hour on Friday evening for filing acceptance of nominations filed Saturday previous. J. M. Shank of Buhl refused to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state senator, in opposition to Representative Lawrence Hansen of Hansen, and J. M. Steelsmith of Kimberly did not file his acceptance of his nomination on the Democratic ticket for representativity.

Those Who Accepted

Candidates whose nominations were filed Saturday and who subsequently filed their acceptances are the following:

E. B. Sherman of Buhl for the Republican nomination for senator.

John A. Brown of Buhl for the Republican nomination for representative.

E. R. Dooley of Twin Falls for the Democratic nomination for representative.

W. F. Brockon of Kimberly for the Republican nomination for county commissioner from the third district.

Joe L. Fitzsimmons of Kimberly for the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

Sherman and Brown are candidates named by the county division element of the west end, which has placed a full legislative ticket in the field before the Republican primaries.

Dooley is the only candidate named by the Democratic organization who accepted nomination for representativity, although the candidacy of Frank L. Woodruff of Twin Falls, who has been endorsed by the Nonpartisan league for representative on the Democratic ticket, was subsequently endorsed by the Jefferson club.

Obtains Vote for Two Nonpartisans

The endorsement by the Jefferson club of Woodruff's candidacy, together with the failure of Steelsmith to accept the nomination, makes it certain that these will be in the general election two candidates for representative on the Democratic ticket who have received the endorsement of the Nonpartisan league.

Fitzsimmons also opposed in the race before the primaries for the Democratic nomination for sheriff by George B. Mrs. J. B. Hays, district inspector for the United States district service and former business agent for the Twin Falls building trades council, who has been endorsed by the Nonpartisan league, but who declines that as a Democratic candidate. Fitzsimmons has been for several years assistant chief deputy state game warden.

PAUL SCHOOL BUILDING WILL BE ENLARGED

Contract for Construction Involving $10,000 Expense Let to W. J. Payne

RUPERT—The contract has been let and work will commence at once on a brick addition to the school building at Paul, says the Minidoka County Public works committee. The addition consists of three large rooms and will cost about $10,000, the contract being awarded to W. J. Payne of Twin Falls, the builder of the school building. The new addition will be so arranged that the three rooms can be changed into one large room which will be used as an auditorium when the occasion arises.

The new addition will give the Paul school seven large rooms and make the building one that any city might be proud of. Last year over 200 pupils were in attendance and more are expected to enroll the coming term.

The teachers' staff for the coming year will consist of the following well-known educators: Hugh Pringle, superintendent and high school teacher; Miss Swisher, high school teacher; Miss M. O. Franquist, teacher of seventh and eighth grades; Miss Margaret Riley, teacher of fifth and sixth grades; Miss Gail Harling, teacher of third and fourth grades; and Miss Daley Simpson, first and second grades.

At the last two school elections no vote has been registered against the school. The school will have a three-year high school course.

Sheriff and Mrs. F. M. Kendall Treasure Letter in Respect to Their Son

Sheriff and Mrs. Frank M. Kendall are the proud possessors of a letter from the family with whom their son, John W. Kendall, quartermaster general of the hospital detachment with the One Hundred Fifty-Sixth regiment of field artillery, has been billeted in France, informing them of his departure for the front and expressing their regard for him.

The following literal translation of the letter has been made:

Cherport, France, July 8, 1918.

Dear Madam and Dear Sir:

We have kept at our home your dear child John W. during fifty days. He left on Sunday, July 7, in the very best health. We regret his departure very much, as he is very kind, and we often talked of you and of his little sisters. We did our best, during his short sojourn in our home, to replace the father and mother that he left in America. We were and are for him the French father and mother. He will come to spend his first leave of absence at our home, so we await with impatience.

We have carefully watched him to be very prudent, especially against gas. Kindly accept, dear madam and dear sir, our very sincere salutations.

JANE POMMEYROL.

FARMER IS FOUND IN FIELD UNCONSCIOUS

Mrs. Ivan Tolman, of Murtaugh, Alarmed at Absence, Discovers Husband in Stupor

(Special to The News)

MURTAUGH—Seven hours after Ivan Tolman, well-known ranchman, left home riding a horse to a field which he was irrigating, his wife, at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, became alarmed at his continued absence, and with his brother, Clifford Tolman, went in search of him, finding him lying unconscious in the middle of the field. He had not regained consciousness up to noon Friday. It is supposed that the horse Mr. Tolman was riding fell, throwing him off in such a manner that concussion of the brain resulted. Stupor was closed here Wednesday evening and the citizens of Murtaugh, at the depot to give the drafted boys of Twin Falls county entering the military service at Camp Fremont a rousing send off. J. B. Hays, Marshall, Glen Briggs and Slim Vallon were the Murtaugh boys in this contingent.

Another Fine Eighty

at $150.00 an acre, and we believe it to be a good buy as the last one. Located one mile from gravel road, now building in the Castleton country. This eighty was seeded down several years ago, and is in a high state of cultivation. The land slopes to the NORTH AND EAST and is easily irrigated direct from the lateral with no diversion boxes. Has three room plaster house, out buildings, cistern, etc. We believe it $150.00 an acre, that this eighty will pay splendid returns on the investment. Very good terms can be arranged. Owner has practically paid for this place in three years, but must retire on account of health.

IMPROVEMENTS NEARLY FINISHED

Pocatello Concern Is Making Good on Blue Lakes Addition

Dirt has been flying on the Blue Lakes addition since May 20. The Pocatello Security Trust company has just completed a large portion of the improvement work on this choice tract subdivided to the city of Twin Falls. Charles Mull, the contractor, has finished the sidewalk, curbs, sewers and water mains on five-fifths of this tract, which for several years has been known as the "Perrine eight."

All of the work has been done under the rigorous inspection of City Engineer E. V. Berg, who advises that the improvements are not excelled in any part of the city of Twin Falls.

City Engineer Berg will soon begin the establishment of grades on the balance of this tract so that work may be instituted at an early date on further improvements.

In spite of the high cost of material and labor, the improvements which have been put in follow the same high class that was contemplated before materials began to soar.

War Industries Board Occasional

The Pocatello Security Trust company has made application to the war industries board of the United States government for permission to lay bitulithic pavement, as it is necessary to secure the consent of this body in order to lay the asphalt on the product of which this pavement is composed. Just what attitude the government will take regarding paving at this time is, of course, a matter of conjecture. However, the company is preparing to go ahead with this part of the improvements as soon as possible, if the consent of the war industries board can be secured. In the event the board feels that the use of asphaltum products and bitulithic labor at the present time will be against the policies of the department, it is probable that some defensible date will be set when this work can begin.

New Homes to Be Constructed

When all of the improvements have been completed on Blue Lakes addition this tract will undoubtedly be the highest class residential section of any city in the state of Idaho. In order to insure that the new homes to be constructed meet the same restrictions that surrounded the upbuilding of Federal Heights, Salt Lake City's choicest residential district, have been formed. In this connection it may be stated that unless a material shortage of building material and labor should occur, these undoubtedly will be several fine residences built in the Blue Lakes addition during the next twelve months.

Most of the lots have been purchased by people living in the country tributary to Twin Falls, many of whom propose to build fine homes and establish their residence in this city. A number of purchasers from the North Side tract indicate that Twin Falls may secure a number of new residents from that side of the river, people who have purchased these lots because of their belief in the future of this city.

It is contended that the improvements on this tract, American streets of a uniform size have been set out and are being cared for by the Kimberly Nurseries company. Most of the trees got a good start in spring, but those which had not started will be replaced this fall in order to provide a uniformity in the shrubbery of Blue Lakes addition.

APPEALS HERE FOR HELP WITH WAR ACTIVITY

Ernest L. Graves Voices Claims of Salvation Army for Support of Its Work Among Soldiers

ELKS PLAN TO TAKE CHARGE OF CAMPAIGN

Contribution Bought Is 20 Cents per Capita or $4600 from County—Endorsed by Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross

The appeal of the Salvation Army for funds with which to carry on its war relief work was brought to Twin Falls by Ernest L. Graves of Seattle, campaign secretary for the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Mr. Graves met Thursday evening with officers and members of the Twin Falls lodge of Elks, who are planning to manage the campaign in this county. He will speak Sunday evening at the union services in the city park, and may occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

The campaign of the Salvation Army to augment its war fund has the endorsement of President Wilson and of the executives of the Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross. Both latter organizations declare that the work of the Salvation Army does not duplicate their own but is vitally necessary.

Contributions Asked

The Salvation Army is asking for a contribution equivalent to 20 cents per capita in the United States, and asks of Idaho a contribution of $80,000 and of Twin Falls county, $4,600.

Throughout the state the Elks are appealing for help. The Salvation Army war fund drive under the auspices of Boise Elks, is to open in Boise on Monday.

The Salvation Army is asking help in this campaign to obtain $5,000,000 to erect additional camps for soldiers and sailors in France and in the United States, to equip, maintain and operate the same and pay for equipment, transportation and maintenance of experienced Salvation Army men and women in the trenches.

Inasmuch as the Salvation Army, an international organization, is already equipped with men and quarters both on the battle fields abroad to serve as the trench church, it is used as a medium through which this work will be continued and extended.

Work Done in Elks

In each war but is a restaurant or canteen; the cooking is done by women of the Salvation army from the United States and is delivered to the soldiers in the trenches. The women of the Salvation Army brave the dangers of the shelled zone, along the firing line. Officers and men of the force of the United States are loyal in their praise of the home cooking of the Salvation Army.

In each war but is a club room for soldiers. Here they find good cheer, welcome, friendship, instrumental music and singing, magazines, newspapers and stationery. Reported from France and elsewhere in the battle zone say these club rooms are always crowded.

Folks From Home Department

For mothers, sisters or wives of soldiers, the Salvation Army has established a "Folks From Home" department. These are for confidences which mark farewell to the soldier and women are in the war but at camp towns, with Salvation Army women in charge.

In each war but short, bright religious meetings are held. Attendance is voluntary and all creeds and nationalities are welcome.

The Salvation Army cooperates with the Red Cross, Young Men's Christian association, Knights of Columbus or the Young Men's Hebrew association.

HONORED FOR BRAVERY

Stories of the heroic daring of American naval officers and men in rescuing 84 of the 75 members of the crew of the American muntions ship Florence Hill, which caught fire and broke in two in French waters last April, are told in the report of Rear Admiral Wilson, commanding American naval forces in France, made public by the navy department.

Among those commended by their commander for their bravery in the rescue is Lieut. Howard R. Eccleston, U. S. N. R. F.

Lieutenant Eccleston is thirty years old and was an examiner in the patent office for six years prior to enlisting in the naval reserve force in June, 1917. Before coming to Washington he had attended the United States Naval academy for several years, which fitted him for a lieutenant.

He was born in Baltimore and attended the Baltimore City college. Shortly after leaving the naval academy he went to Washington and while employed in the patent office studied at the National Law college. Besides his father, Lieutenant Eccleston has a sister and three brothers. His father holds a position with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

will not be now under heavy fire from the allies.

On the Vesle river front, French and American troops have been nibbling at the German positions without attempting to go up the strongly held slopes beyond which the German intrenchments lie. March said Marshal Foch has kept up the pressure on this line all the sound principle that when you got the enemy going, keep him going.

New Division Arriving

March related in detail the wonderful work of the Battalion division in the recent and present fighting.

He declared that he thought it was safe to announce that the Eighty-fifth division is now arriving in France. He also stated that the Seventy-sixth division is still in the training area.

Old-Time Georgia Sign

At one time cotton men in Macon thought that the presence of a man with a hand organ and monkey on the streets of that city had a direct bearing on the cotton market, causing a decline in price. At one time the organ man was prohibited by municipal law, but later was admitted on payment of a substantial license.—Tifton Gazette.
