BRITISH SMASH HUN'S LINES AT NEW POINT

Army Under General Rawling Delivers Terrific Blow on Six-Mile Front Between Somme and Ancres Rivers, Reaching Point Within Six Miles of the Old Hindenburg Line

GERMANS STRIVE FRANTICALLY TO HOLD ARRAS AND ALBERT RAILWAY

The British, delivering a new attack between the Ancres and the Somme this morning have practically consolidated the whole fifty-mile battle front from Moyenneville southward to Ponninieres.

This assault apparently made on a front of five or six miles, evidently is being carried out by a portion of General Rawling's army. A regiment of American troops was brigaded with the British in this sector, early in the Pienry counter offensive.

General Byng's attack on the ten mile front between Moyenneville and Beaumont met with determined resistance late in the afternoon. The Germans were still counter-attacking on a portion of the front this morning.

Near Hindenburg Line
With the British only six miles from the Hindenburg line at one point today, the enemy is crowding the back roads with additional troops coming up. All together six divisions (72,000 men) were identified yesterday.

The Germans used their heaviest guns all through the night. It is evident that Byng's sudden push has considerably disturbed the high command in view of the constantly developing French success to the south. Apparently, it does not intend to permit further advance toward the famous line without determined resistance.

Fight for Railway
The Arras and Albert railroad has been the scene of the fiercest fighting, the British being required to clear out machine gun nests in the embankment along the whole position. Many dead Germans are reported.

The hordes are undoubtedly able to make a stiff battle against any effort to reach Bapaume.
Byng's operation and Hamilton's own smashes have been partially consolidated by British patrol activities southeast of Beaumont.

The combined attack by General Hamber and General Mangin on the five mile front between Lassigny and Soissons, continued throughout last night.

Since first aid, food and supplies will be distributed for the time by the Red Cross, vast stores of these supplies are beginning to arrive in Vladivostok.

The first great objective of the aid to Russia is to solidify the Russian peoples in the territory guarded by the allied troops, and as the allied armies go on westward from Vladivostok so that the people of the line are kept well fed, warm and happy.

To assist in uniting the many factions of Russia in this territory it is planned to utilize Russian military officers now stranded in this and other countries. These men are very anxious to serve.

Financial Condition Bad
Chaotic financial conditions in Russia will reduce trade with nations practically to a state of barter for a time after the allied governments are able to restore economic relations.

With German printing presses grinding out counterfeit money and German agents circulating it, Russian money has practically lost its value. In addition, the Bolshevik have announced the first money and counterfeits have been active.

Trade in many sections is now based on direct exchange of commodities. The loss of great quantities of material, as well as more than $187,000,000 when the Bolshevik government fell, is reported as treasury officials work on plans for a new basis of exchange.

ACHIEVE LE-GRAND IN BRITISH HANDS

LONDON, August 22 (4:30 p. m.).—Achieve-le-Grand, a high water mark of the British advance north of the Ancres, has changed hands several times, but is now firmly held by the British, according to reports received here this afternoon.
The attack on the high ground between Albert and Bray was reported as "going good" when this dispatch was filed.
(This represents a front of about six miles.)
Fighting conditions today were less favorable than yesterday. There was no mistake—the sun was hot.

HUGE SUMS OF MONEY WASTED ON AIRPLANES

Senate Sub-Committee Report Filed Today Says Lack of Common Sense One of Astounding Facts

WASHINGTON, August 22.—Recommending one man control of aircraft production, speeding up of production, encouragement of invention and reduction of profits on future contracts, the senate aircraft sub-committee today submitted its report to the senate. The investigation disclosed waste of money and lack of common sense policy, early in the war, the committee declared. It said that while many disappointing results were disclosed, "much has been accomplished and the committee is glad to report that while it believes that there are many things yet to be done, nevertheless we are approaching a period when quantity production of planes may soon be hoped for."

Outline Primary Cause
Three primary causes for the failure of the aircraft program to meet the need to the army's needs were set forth in the report, which was read to the committee today. They are:
That the airplane program was largely the result of the efforts of great automobile and other manufacturers who were ignorant of aeronautical problems.

Undertook Impossible Task
These manufacturers undertook the impossible task of creating a motor which could be adapted to all classes of flying craft. It is too much to say that our present program has been largely subordinate to the liberty motor. We failed at the beginning of the war to adopt the common sense policy of reproducing the most approved types of European machines in the greatest numbers possible. This should have been carried on co-incident with the program of the liberty motor. This sound policy has very recently, but after a lamentable lapse of time, been adopted.

These mistakes, the report declared, "would probably have been largely avoided if the aircraft program had been under the control of one man assisted by skilled aeronautical engineers and practical flyers to test our machines with production made subordinate to them."

Supply Wholly Inadequate
The supply of planes on the American front is "wholly inadequate to meet requirements of modern warfare," the report declares, adding that the United States troops are forced to use many antiquated machines discarded by the French.
This is due, in large measure, the

ALLIES HAMMER GERMAN LINES ON WIDE FRONT

Huns in Danger of Becoming Entangled in Network of Local Operations with Distasteful Results

BRITISH COMMENCE NEW DRIVE NORTH OF SOMME

General Byng's Men in Close Co-Operation with French Squads Tactics in Lassigny Angle—Advance Is General

By J. W. T. MASON (United Press War Expert)

NEW YORK, August 22.—Marshal Foch's blows are now falling so fast that so many places along the western front where von Hindenburg is being entangled in a network of local operations any one of which threatens to bring about a major disaster to the German army.
Yesterday General Byng started work on a general in the general direction of Papeete. Last night he was on the western side of Vesle salient; today the British have begun a new wedge-like drive north of the Somme not far from the Bapaume operations and all the while the French are conducting squeeze operations at the Lassigny angle, mile between the Somme and the Vesle fronts.

Success Is General
At no time since the war began have local operations on the west been carried on so continuously and with such persistent success as now. Nor have the possibilities of a major allied success ever before been so threatening to von Hindenburg. The developments of the western side of the Vesle pocket is a serious danger to the famous Chateau de Dames defenses, which are now threatened with a flank and rear fire. At the same time, the southern sector of the Hindenburg line is insecure. Farther north the halt in General Byng's attack toward Bapaume is strictly in accord with the strategic plans of the allied. The present operations are in no sense a major offensive and are being conducted under new and highly successful tactical direction for minimizing the allies' casualties. A resumption of the Bapaume drive will occur at the right strategic moment.

All Lies in Harmony
Marshal Foch is demonstrating a remarkable ability for uniting his seemingly independent operations and for suddenly uncovering one's command and in one direction, when attention is concentrated elsewhere. Thus, a fortnight ago, Marshal Foch, apparently stopped operations along the Vesle and the British began their fiery drive which resulted in the recovery of the Montdidier salient. But today the German positions north of the Vesle are again threatened by the salient, whose western flank has suddenly shown north.

All the successes during the last fortnight have been accomplished without the aid of the Americans. The fact is the most menacing Hindenburg has to face. If Marshal Foch can do these things without the Americans, what can he do with them? There is no answer to this question for the Kaiser, except Germany's defeat.

FRENCH CROSS AILETTE ALONG TWO-MILE FRONT

Victorious Poilus Now Pushing Forward in the Direction of Coucy Le Chateau, 11 Miles Directly North of Soissons

GERMAN DIVISION PREPARING ATTACK FLEES IN PANIC ON FRENCH ADVANCE

By JOHN DE GANDT (United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, August 22 (2 p. m.).—The French have crossed the Ailette river on a mile front between Champs and Guny and are pushing toward Coucy Le Chateau. Coucy Le Chateau is eleven miles directly north of Soissons and two miles east of Guny.

In the Coucy Le Chateau region a German division prepared to counter attack, but a lightning like French attack forced them to retreat. They fled in a panic, throwing the division immediately in the rear into confusion.

The Ailette river is entirely in the hands of the French. Mangin's men are near Manhem, at the junction of the Oise and Ailette rivers, seven miles east of Noyon.

A fleet of seventy heavy tanks at one point in the French advance, spread terror among the Germans.

Noyon Untenable
Noyon is rapidly being enveloped. It is now outflanked from the east. French troops are ready to cross the Oise canal, which they have reached between Varennes and Marincourt, a mile and a half southeast of Noyon. Noyon is the bulwark of the German line from two directions.

At some places the French are only a few hundred yards from the town and are heavily bombarding it with field guns. They are also raising shells on the German exits toward Ham, 12 miles north.

Military writers declare Noyon is already untenable, and predict an immediate withdrawal beyond the Somme.

Fighting is continuing along a front of practically 35 miles extending on both sides of the Oise.
Allied aviators, bombing enemy areas beyond Noyon, report considerable disorder and apparent preparations for a big retirement.

Take 15,000 Prisoners
In the past 48 hours the French have taken more than 15,000 prisoners and a vast quantity of material, including thousands of machine guns and hundreds of cannons.

After taking Lassigny the French passed on in the direction of Vaulchamps, a mile and a half west of Noyon. They have reached Le Marais.

MIRACULOUSLY ESCAPES DEATH IN BIG BATTLE

Captain Homer S. Youngs of Twin Falls Comes Out Unscathed When Shell Kills Two Companions in Dugout

Escaping unscathed when his two companions in a German dugout, where, exhausted in the fighting, they had crawled for a moment's respite, were killed by a German shell is the experience of Captain Homer S. Youngs of Twin Falls, who is now recuperating from shell shock and exhaustion at a seaside military hospital in France.

NAVAL VESSELS IN SEARCH FOR STEAM TRAWLER

Little Hope Held Out that the Raider Will Be Captured—Submarine Probably Will Pick Up Hun Crew

WASHINGTON, August 22.—That the Germans who are raiding the North Atlantic coast with the captured Canadian trawler Triumph will soon leave the vessel, blow it up and take refuge in the U-boat which made the capture is the belief of naval authorities here.

The parents of the trawler is under way, but little hope exists that it will be recovered intact.
The Germans, it is believed know there is little chance of their recapturing in the trawler, pursued by fast allied naval vessels. For that reason it is believed the U-boat which captured the Triumph is remaining near at hand to take off those now operating the raider when the allied chase begins to look dangerous.

The navy department today was anxiously awaiting word from the parents, but no definite information had been announced early today.

CREWS OF FOUR TRAWLERS BRAGH FORT AFTER ATTACK

A CANADIAN ATLANTIC PORT, August 22.—The Canadian steam trawler Triumph turned into a U-boat was still prowling the fishing banks near here early today and is believed to have added a fifth tiny ship to the list of smacks she has sent to the bottom. The Pasadena was in sight when the trawler guns sunk the Lucille Schanz and she is believed to have been sunk, although no definite word has been received.

The crews of four trawlers have reached this port with tales of capture fishing vessels' attacks on the fleet of little boats. The submarine's captain is said to have told the crew of one of his victims that he intended to destroy the fishing fleet that operates along this coast.

Fast motor boats are operating about waters near here, hoping to pick up any crews which may have been cast adrift by the Germans.

BARRAGE DRIVES OFF HOSTILE AIR SQUADRON

PARIS, August 22.—An attempted attack of five planes has been frustrated by French planes and anti-aircraft batteries, it was officially announced.
The German planes flew over the course of the city as they attacked. They were violently harassed and French airplanes chased them northward.
The alarm was sounded shortly before 10 o'clock.

STATE OF WAR WITH RUSSIA IS RECOGNIZED

American Vice Consul Lowers Flag on Consulate and Turns Archives Over to Norwegian Embassy

WASHINGTON, August 22.—The Bolshevik government having declared a state of war to exist between the United States and Russia, Vice Consul Imbrie lowered the American flag on the consulate at Petrograd and turned the archives over to the Norwegian representative, according to state department dispatches dated August 2.
This is the first specific reference to "a state of war" existing between the United States and the Bolsheviks, the previous report affecting the "allies" said the Bolsheviks.

OPPOSES MARCH AND BAKER ON NEW DRAFT LAW

Chairman Dent and Members of House Military Committee Stand Pat Against the Wishes of Administration

LEADERS SAY DENT'S POINT UNIMPORTANT

Oliver Draft Would Get 18 and 19 Year Old Men Anyway Inside of Year—Proposition Has Serious Objections

WASHINGTON, August 22.—Congress today showed its other tack and took up the great man year bill. Leaders in both houses intend to speed passage of the bill providing men for America's program of smothering the German war machine. Leaders in both houses intend to speed passage of the bill providing men for America's program of smothering the German war machine.

Has Objectionable Features

Even if the 18 and 19 year olds were held until the last it is contended they will be in service within a year.

One objection to letting Dent and his friends have their own way as others in congress see it, is that it would prevent sending the older and younger men and will make the earlier drafts under the new law, men from 21 up, while in later calls all the boys would be together.

A much more desirable condition would be to mix the older, sturdier men, with the ardent, impetuous boys, war department officials say.

Complicates Draft Process

Another objection is that it will involve much more work for draft authorities in view of provision for "classifying" the younger men in two classes.

Amendment Causes Trouble

The other controversial point in the bill is the anti-traitor amendment so called, which the senate committee inserted. Much doubt exists concerning just what Secretary Baker thinks of this amendment. Baker's latest statement is that it simply carries out a policy already followed by the department in that of denying inducement to a man the inducement he quits working in an indispensable capacity in an indispensable industry.

Hurling Shells at Runs Satisfying Job for Gunners

Lieut. Arvin D. Bounds of Twin Falls Tells of Experiences in Zone of Action

Other satisfaction days beside the joy of seeing big gun shells blowward and receiving with a perfect hit, a named back, according to Lieutenant Arvin D. Bounds of Twin Falls, who has been at the battle front in France since an artillery unit since July 14, according to letters received there by his parents, City Treasurer and Mrs. H. E. Bounds.

The first letter, under date of July 10, stated that he expected to move up to the zone of action soon. The second letter, dated July 19, brought the word that his unit had been in action for five days with brief intermission for rest.

It is presumed that Lieutenant Bounds' unit was engaged in the action in the region of Chateau-Thierry.

Indian Name Survived

The survival of the original name of Cuba is a remarkable instance of persistence, as the island has been baptized and rebaptized many a time since its European discovery. Columbus first called it Juana, in honor of Ferdinand's wife, Isabella. After Ferdinand's death it was called, in his memory, Ferdinandina. Subsequently this name was changed to Santiago, after St. James, the patron saint of Spain. Still later it was named Are Maria in honor of the Virgin Mary. But none of these names held, and the Indian name is still preserved.

Have Smile Coming For They Help Rule the Air

It is very likely woman will never receive full credit for her part in the war and will play in the winning of the world war—because the number of her duties usually are so far removed from the cannon roar and the heroic sons. Here is another example. Althea runs the air-traffic service in London in the foremost ranks with her master airplane. There are women who make possible those huge planes and aircraft. They are humble day railroads that at Yovril. Without the line them wings—made from fabric—Bristol machines might never have reached the point of perfection now established. Women scores again.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED BY TORNADO

Tyler, Minnesota, Practically Wiped Out by Death-Dealing Storm—Rescue Parties Hurried to Scene of Disaster

FLORENCE, Minn., August 22.—Deaths variously reported from 29 to 50 and the destruction of the entire business district of Tyler, Minnesota, were reported here today following a tornado here last night about 9:30. All wire communication with the city was severed. Relief officials are endeavoring to send relief parties, and reports that 23 were killed and nearly 100 injured. A heavy casualty list was expected because the storm occurred at a time when the business streets were crowded. Most of the wrecked buildings were of brick.

Rescue Parties Hurried to Scene of Disaster

Relief parties by train and automobile were rushed from Pipestone and Florence, Minn. Hundreds of farmers hurried to the rescue. Three bank buildings, five general stores, the fire barn and many residences were reported destroyed. E. Anderson, returning early today from a relief expedition, said 25 bodies had been recovered from the debris in the business section of Tyler.

Heaviest Loss of Life in One Single Place

The heaviest loss of life in one single place was at the Farmers State Bank building, where the storm caught several prominent business men in conference in the bank, regarding the Lincoln county fair. Five persons, including E. Christmann and E. D. Nelson, were killed there.

Die on Church Steps

Three bodies were picked up from the steps of the Catholic church today. They were those of the persons who had been lifted from the ground in the downtown district and carried two blocks, being thrown against the steps of the church to die.

SICK AND WOUNDED RETURN TO STATES

333 Come Back Week Ending August 18 as Compared with 63 for Preceding Week

WASHINGTON, August 22.—Another phase apparently of the recent Marine drive came today in the war department's announcement of return of 333 sick and wounded soldiers to the United States for the week ending August 16, as against 63 the previous week. They have been sent to reconstruction hospitals.

War Romance in the Stars

Almost overheard in the early evening are some faint stars, constituting the constellation Coma Berenices, or "Berenice's Hair." It commemorates Queen Berenice, wife of Ptolemy III, who offered her hair to Venus to secure his safe return from war. The queen's hair was sacrificed, but disappeared from the temple. Hence the legend that her golden locks had turned into a constellation.

ATTEMPT RETURN FLIGHT ACROSS LAKE MICHIGAN

Military Aviators Try Several Hours, But Will Try It Again

CHICAGO, August 22.—John T. McCutcheon and Lieutenant T. E. Hammond, military aviators, were to attempt a return flight today across Lake Michigan, despite their accident of yesterday when they were lost in mid-air. Engine trouble forced their hydroplane to descend to the water, where they were buffeted for two hours, when they started for Michigan. Finally resuming flight, they found their compass refused to work. They at length reached shore at Grand Traverse bay, far to the north.

Scattering returns from the remaining 20 counties indicate that Congressman Harrison will continue to gain, and it is predicted that the final count will show a majority of from 15,000 to 20,000 votes for the congressman.

Opportunity Calls Successful Farmers to Capay Rancho

What Successful Farmers Have to Say About Capay Rancho. "I never saw such good grain any where, even in the Dakotas."—J. M. Ashley, from Idaho and South Dakota. "I was in barley fields that average waist high."—C. A. Pratt, from Wendell, Idaho. "I would not torn this place down for any place I have seen in this state."—W. S. Norris, from Imperial Valley, Cal.

The greater production of foodstuffs is one of the first and most important essentials to winning the war. The world is clamoring for every pound of grain, and fruit, and pork and beef and other foodstuffs the American farmer can produce. The market is unlimited, and prices are high. The farmer is king. It behooves the wise farmer now, above all other times, to apply his efforts where he has reason to expect greatest results. A little more than a year ago Capay Rancho was one great undeveloped grant. Today you will see here some of the finest and most thrifty farms in all California. Soil, water, climate, every condition combined to make Capay Rancho famous for its wonderful crops of grain, fruit and other food stuffs.

Electrically Operated Pumping Plant on Every 80 Acres

The water proposition is unique. The price of the pumping plant, completely installed, is included in the price of the land—$175.00 an acre. The water is pure and healthful. The supply is in excess of all needs. It is always immediately available. You merely throw the switch and the water comes. There is a wonderful opportunity here now for the farmer who is ambitious. Crops are almost inconceivable, and the price of the land is away below what similar land is sold for in other sections of California. If you are interested use the coupon.

IDAHO'S REVENUE BILL PRESENTED

Measure Emanating at Twin Falls Is Introduced in Both Houses of Congress

Word has just been received from C. A. Mariani, Twin Falls, Idaho, author of the war purchase stamp act, that his stamp act was presented on August 19 in the House of Representatives by Representative Addison T. Smith of Twin Falls and in the Senate by Senator W. E. Borah. The official revenue bill was changed in Washington to meet the requirements for federal conditions.

Mr. Mariani advises that the way the bill was received at the present that he is in Washington is even more than he dared to expect. Last week in a conference with Chairman Kitchin of the ways and means committee, officers expressed surprise at the deep interest shown in this war revenue measure by Chairman Kitchin. Senator Borah openly expressed the opinion that it is an excellent bill and will very likely pass the government. His interest was very deeply impressed with the bill, but owing to the fact that he is a member of the senate finance committee cannot at this time give a public expression for or against the bill. However, Mr. Mariani advises that his reception was so cordial that he has great hopes for the bill.

Representatives Addison T. Smith and Burton L. French are openly committed to the bill. The fact that the entire Idaho delegation has given more invaluable assistance than he had dared to expect. He states that he cannot add enough in praise for the efforts of everyone of the Idaho state delegation in his behalf.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON SALE OF SKIMMED MILK

Idaho Session Laws Provide for Marketing of Product Now in Demand, if Properly Labeled

There has been some difficulty in getting skim milk because of the fear of violating the law in regard to the sale of milk not containing the prescribed amount of butter fat, says County Agent Donald McLean.

For the benefit of those wishing to buy or sell skimmed milk for making cottage cheese and for other similar uses, this matter has been taken up with the pure food administration in Boise. In the session laws in regard to milk, chapter 109, section 21, for the year 1911, it is expressly provided that milk not containing butter fat may be sold, if sold as skimmed milk.

The Log of the Test Car Fleet

"Linear Miles, 1,044,686. Tire Miles, 4,178,744."

Thus runs the log of the SIX FLEETS as it sums up the leagues on leagues traveled by the Goodrich Test Cars in their nation wide tire-testing cruise of 1917. That grand total marks the mileage high tide of tire making. Read in it the dawn of a new understanding of tire service, the rise of a new tire standard which includes all other standards—THE TESTED OF—

GOODRICH TESTED TIRES

The cold figures of the log underwrite the lasting strength of Goodrich Tires; for no tire could hide a weakness in that multiplied mileage. Those records and the tires stand surety for Goodrich Tires of 1918.

For 1918 Goodrich Tires—look at their generous, masterful size at any Goodrich dealer—took the bulk of the rough going. They measured up to all the Goodrich Tire qualities, and added new virtues.

COUNTY DIVISION

It is impossible to accept seriously a number of allegations of Mr. W. R. Hyde of Buhl contained in his letter on the subject of county division published in the News of Wednesday.

So far during the present election campaign there has been comparatively little opposition to county division in this city, not because the people of Twin Falls are any the less interested in county division, but because they have other and more important things to think about.

The people of Twin Falls have never regarded the people of Buhl as a lot of dissatisfied lot owners, notwithstanding the use of the term in the calling of a public meeting in Twin Falls on the subject of county division.

When all is said and done there is just one basis of argument in the entire question, namely, as to whether or not two counties embracing the area of one can be operated as cheaply as the one.

THEY LOVE CHILDREN

Reams have been written, sermons preached, and whole tons of matter printed on the general subject of German viciousness and unnecessary and unnatural cruelty to men, women and children noncombatants in the war areas.

The public needs little more evidence, but here is a sidelight from a new angle, of interest because it lends a peculiar hue to the vaunted German love of children.

Any breach of these regulations will be punished as follows: (1) Men refusing to work will during the harvest be formed into labour companies and detained in barracks under the supervision of German corporals.

After the harvest those refusing to work will be sent to prison for six months; on the third day the rations will be simply bread and water.

(3) CHILDREN REFUSING TO WORK WILL BE FLOGGED.

The Commandant will, further, at his discretion, order the punishment of refractory workmen with a flogging of 20 strokes daily.

RED CROSS SOCIETY GIVES SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Miss Bonnie Hartley is Guest of Honor at Enjoyable Social Affair

(Special to The News)

MURFRAUGH.—Last Wednesday afternoon the Red Cross sewing circle of the north side gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Bonnie Hartley, who is soon to become the bride of Carl V. Tru.

Flowers for the occasion were arranged to meet present-day requirements in the claim made for the Hansen High school in the announcement of its first annual opening, September 1, with a three years course of study, which has just been issued.

(Special to The News) HANSEN.—A school of efficiency arranged to meet present-day requirements in the claim made for the Hansen High school in the announcement of its first annual opening, September 1, with a three years course of study, which has just been issued.

In addition to a biological laboratory, the announcement states, there is being installed in the Hansen high school a physics laboratory as complete and modern as any found in any high school, without which the student can perform scientifically and accurately any experiment given in a high school physics course.

Other special features of the course include compulsory instruction in book-keeping and office methods, oral expression and logic.

The Hansen high school faculty is composed of the following: Principal, J. E. Stubbs (University of Oregon), science, mathematics, history, Miss Ruth A. Parnett, Emerson College of Oregon, Boston, English and oral expression.

Other teachers in the Hansen schools this year are: Miss Nancy M. Ware, seventh and eighth grades; Miss Nellie Blackhurst, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Mabel Cayford, third and fourth grades; Miss Bertha King, first and second grades.

The board of directors of the Hansen independent school district is composed of the following: A. E. Mann, chairman; W. F. Brower, clerk; Chas. Colner, August Wellner, Otto Bailey, A. M. Walker.

While the order of the president, creating a military district of aviators and a director of aircraft production, is an improvement upon previous conditions, the report states, the committee deems it necessary to recommend:

That the recommendation of last April for one man control be renewed. That a commission of engineers and pilots for observation at the front, formed in relays, be named.

That in view of the prime need of the hour, maximum quantity production be accelerated by utilizing the constructive abilities of all responsible concerns engaged, or which can be engaged in the business.

That better arrangements be made for taking advantage of new inventions. That the margin of profit, particularly on motors, be cut down.

That plans and engines rejected should be at the cost of the producer, not the government.

That aircraft factories be better protected against fire.

The report opened with a review of what has been accomplished, prefaced by a statement that in the opinion of the committee a substantial part of the first appropriation for aircraft, was practically wasted.

Summing up the aircraft situation today the committee reported as follows: "Six hundred and one DeHavilland fours have been embarked for France up to August 1, 1918.

American Planes Scarce "Of these 67 had reached the front by July 1.

"On August 7 a squadron of 38 DeHavilland fours flew over the German lines. Details of its performance have not been received.

31 Bodies Recovered From Storm Wreck

FLORENCE, Minn., August 22.—Thirty-one bodies recovered from the ruins of cyclone-swept Tyler, a small town in western Minnesota, had been identified shortly after noon today.

The identified dead are: Paul Howe and wife; Lucille Christianson; B. Jorgenson; Mrs. William Smith, her son and the mother of Mrs. Smith; Herman Slicker, Jr.; Mrs. Nick Peterson; Howard Smith; Rowland Smith; Jorgen Rasmussen and wife; John Newell; Mrs. Louis Atteck; Caroline Erickson; Mrs. Peter Hanson and daughter; Hans Larson; Mrs. George Olson and son, Russell, Minn.; Mrs. Albert Johnson and two daughters; Miss Rose Nelson; Mrs. P. D. Christianson; W. G. Hakala; Mrs. F. Healer and daughter, Mrs. Schell; John Amnell.

During the night in this sector, the Germans after fruitlessly counter attacking the positions won by the British in yesterday's attack north of the Ancre, again launched heavy assaults in that sector this morning.

By afternoon it was known that Logeastwood Falls, one of the two broadest parts of the river and railroad made this portion of the advance center than taking Beaumont itself.

The area immediately in the rear of the fighting line supplied some odd contrasts. Soldiers were harvesting wheat, while some women were working in fields that ended only a kilometer or two further back.

Moore, Jr., of Twin Falls, a member of headquarters company of the One Hundred Sixty-sixth field artillery regiment, devised a major portion of his letter received Tuesday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore, to an account of his discovery and adoption of a stray kitten which he has christened "La Guerre." The letter was penciled on pages from a note book within the zone of action. Following are excerpts from the letter: Don't Mind Shells Now We are up to the front now and have been under fire several times. The first couple of high explosive shells that burst scared me and the rest of the boys—some, but after that we did not mind it much. We are not under fire very often though, as we are kept in the rear most of the time. I have met several of the boys from Twin Falls up here who were still here when our company left.

BOYS' SCHOOL TOGS

A suit and overcoat made for a real boy—that's what you want for your lad; clothes that will stand the wear and tear a live, growing, husky youngster gives them.

We can fit that boy of yours in Suit and Overcoat that will stand the strain of school days and play days, because our Boys' Clothes are made of materials that are well woven, strong and durable and are manufactured especially for boys' clothing.

FREE

With every suit or overcoat we give, free, a "Young America's" rapid fire toy gun. The gun is perfectly safe for the smallest child. It uses no ammunition, has no springs but makes a noise like a regular machine gun. Great fun for the boys.

Girls' Stockings A strong, durable, medium ribbed stocking for girls. Will wear well and look well for a long time.

School Shoes for Boys and Girls

A way to get around a lot of worry and expense of eternally buying shoes for the boy is to fit him in a pair of our Holland Boys' Shoes. They're made to last—withstanding hard knocks, hard play—for everyday steady wear; and they do it. They're not the common kind, but shoes made for boys that are hard on their shoes. Boys who want to kick every old tin can that may be in or out of their way—and they cost no more than the ordinary kind. Come in and see these shoes—they're made by the Holland Shoe Co. and these people make ONLY Boys' Shoes. We have a Shoe for the Girl too, that will give just as good service. In fact it is the best Shoe leather can make. Made on lasts shaped for growing feet—and here again the price is no more than that of just ordinary shoes.

AWAIT ORDER TO END RECRUITING

Soldiers on Duty in Twin Falls Welcome Possibility of a Return to Action

Guided by advice received Tuesday that the army recruiting service is likely to be closed on or before September 10, officers of the Twin Falls substitute have applied for transfer into various branches of the army for active service.

Welcome Active Service
Bergant Claude C. McEne, a veteran of the Philippine wars as a member of the medical department, has applied for transfer to the post hospital at Fort Douglas, Utah. Corporal Leonard Brimley, who enlisted nearly two years ago and was detailed at once to duty in the recruiting service, has renewed his application for transfer to the aviation section of the signal corps, which was detailed some time ago on the grounds that he was needed in his present position. First Class Private O. B. Frith, formerly a member of the Twentieth infantry, registered, serving with that organization in the Mexican punitive expedition, has not yet selected the branch of the service into which he will ask to be transferred, but expresses optimistic over the possibility of overseas service.

Official Memorandum
The memorandum transmitted through headquarters at Salt Lake for the recruiting service in this district, in respect to the probable closing of the recruiting service, is as follows:
From information received at this office it appears certain that the recruiting service will be closed and the men on duty transferred by September 10, if not before that time.
This information is being forwarded to all men an opportunity to make application for transfer to some branch of the service of their preference. If transfer to some special unit is desired it is requested that immediate application be made through the regular channels and the endorsement recommending approval will be given applications.
This notice will also serve to enable those at subsidiaries to get their affairs in such shape that there will be no delay on account of personal matters when orders for their transfer are received.

WHEN BILLY SUNDAY COMES TO TOWN! GEORGE M. COHAN COMES TO THE IDAHO

GEORGE M. COHAN in "Hit-the-Trail Holliday" An AIRCRAFT Picture

Famous Broadway Star Again in Aircraft Pictures—"Hit-the-Trail Holliday" His Own Play--Sensational Stage Success.

AT THE IDAHO THEATRE, COMMENCING TODAY

G EORGE M. COHAN as Billy Sunday! That's the way New York dramatic critics described it. The bartender-evangelist-hero of this play is a "ringer" for the former baseball player whose forceful preaching has made hundreds of thousands hit the trail.
Everybody has heard of George M. Cohan, but few get an opportunity to see him away from Broadway.
Mr. Cohan is America's greatest patriotic song composer. The words and music of "Over There" were written by this star, as are practically all of the other popular patriotic hits of the last twenty years.
But Mr. Cohan is also an author and playwright, the director and star of many of his own plays.
This is the case of "Hit-the-Trail Holliday," which is to be shown at the Idaho theatre commencing today.
If you missed the two plays which Mr. Cohan produced for the camera last year, don't miss this one. If you saw them, there is no need of asking you to see this one.
Mr. Cohan's screen productions have been limited to three in number. This is the third in two years. Too few and too good to miss a single one!

GEORGE M. COHAN

You are bound to like the bartender-evangelist-hero of "Hit-the-Trail Holliday," because he is a downright good fellow that you would be glad to welcome to your family.
