4,000,000 CAN WIN THE WAR IN 1919 SAYS MARCH

Chief of Staff Gives Colder Blooded Military Opinion as to Prospects Abroad—1,500,000 Men Now on Job

By CARL D. BHOAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, August 24.—When Chief of Staff March predicted a 1919 victory with a 4,000,000 army he was delivering a "cold blooded American military opinion."

It was no squeaky chest of claim. It was based upon his confidence in American soldiers—a confidence inspired by serving with them and beside them.

The general national members of the press today that his statement to the senate military committee was the deliberate military opinion.

At the same time he revealed that the nation has now programed the 1,500,000 man in its program of 4,000,000 men by next June.

March sounded the thought that next year is the victory year, provided America furnishes the man quota needed, unhesitatingly and wholeheartedly.

Has Confidence in Men
His confidence in victory, based as it was on his confidence in our soldiers, is having added impetus from returning officers. As he put it these men brought back here and promoted for distinguished service talk to him in his own language.

"The tankers" between Tientsin and Banzhou will take its place in history, with many similar spots, as being the scene of unusually sharp local fighting. The tankery is a big stone affair, standing near an open road west of the city. It is an ideal machine gun post and has been serving as a Boche stronghold for machine guns and rifle sniping.

Over Open Fields
Following a brisk artillery bombardment the Americans left their shallow holes and half ran, half crawled across.

Thousands of Officers Are Set at Liberty
Action Follows Threat of Officers to Blow Up the Kremlin

AMSTERDAM, August 24.—The Bolsheviks have released 23,000 officers from Alloxoff barracks, Moscow, following the threat of officers to blow up the Kremlin unless the officers were freed, according to a dispatch from Kiev today.

RAILWAY DEFICIT IS ANNOUNCED AS LARGE
Over Two and One-Half Million Dollars Lost in First Six Months

WASHINGTON, August 24.—The government has lost nearly $300,000,000 in the operation of the national railways in the first six months of federal control. Figures made public by the interstate commerce commission today revealed the net operating losses of $179,140,000 for the first six months of federal control to have been $251,657,112.

ACTIVITY TAKEN TO PRESAGE BIG HUN RETIREMENT

Vesle Front on German Side Buzzing with Infantry Operations—Smoke Clouds Discovered Everywhere

By FRED B. YENGEVSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICAN ADMIRALS IN FRANCE, August 24.—The Vesle front is buzzing with local infantry operations, which are possibly the prelude to a German withdrawal.

Disbandment of the American rear areas has slackened and numerous fire can be observed between the Vesle and the Aisne, suggesting that material and small ammunition dumps are being burned.

Half a dozen sharp infantry clashes have occurred in the past twenty-four hours. In one instance the Germans and Americans attacked at different points, practically at the same time. A general mix-up followed, companies and platoons fighting in the open.

As an instance of the open fighting, the Boche company separated from others and seeking to locate the companies at the right and left flanks, suddenly found the Americans in the rear. The Americans took most of the company prisoners.

May Mean Demolition
The sudden infantry fighting indicates the Boche either are feeling out the Americans or are staging a demonstration with a small force prior to an early withdrawal. Under the circumstances the latter appears more likely, as it is an old Boche trick.

German Illusions Failing Rapidly
Work Being Rushed on Preparations for Defense of Home Fortifications

AMSTERDAM, August 24.—German illusions regarding the inviolability of the "Homeland" are faltering. According to a Swedish report, the families are preparing to move to the center of the empire.

General Staff is taking precautions in ways that were out of the question a few months ago, such as completion of the Meuse fortifications along existing trenches on a large scale between Dinant and Givet.

Raider's Activities Leads to Criticism
Explanation of Failure of Navy to Stop "Triumph" Demanded in Senate

WASHINGTON, August 24.—Sharp criticism of the navy and Secretary Daniels was voiced in the senate today because of the navy's failure to stop the operations of the German pirate raider Triumph off the United States coast.

Senator McCumber, North Dakota, demanded an explanation of the failure of the great American navy to stop a little trawler making only 10 to 15 knots an hour from working havoc among our fishing fleets.

NOYON'S FALL EXPECTED ANY MINUTE; FRENCH GUNS COMMAND APPROACHES

LONDON, August 24.—Fall of Noyon is expected any minute. The Germans are still holding out in the town, but they are in a dangerous position, as the French guns now command all railways and highway communications leading from the place.

The total of German prisoners taken by the allies since July 18 is well over 100,000, it was learned from an authoritative source today. The British have taken 14,000 prisoners in the last three days' fighting, Field Marshal Haig announced today.

British troops have pushed forward to within less than two miles and a half from Bapaume, it was learned this afternoon. The third army's progress continues and it has advanced in some places to the depth of four and a half miles.

Government Clerks to Remain Exempt from War Service

Madden Amendment Killed on Ground that It Would Disorganize Machinery

WASHINGTON, August 24.—Yielding to plans of the department and other government officials not to disorganize war bureaus in war time, the house today defeated the Madden amendment to the man power bill removing the general exemption from government employees.

It would have taken thousands of government clerks, stenographers and others, which would have forced their replacement by persons unacquainted with the work, officials said.

Senator Penrose today launched an attack on Secretary Baker for delaying congressional action on the man power bill by opposing extension of the draft age when it was proposed last week in the senate. He charged that because of "personal vanity" the war department legislators all suggestions of legislation come from it.

Senator Joseph, opposing the calling of 18 and 19-year-old boys, declared the military authorities have not proceeded they can't put an army of 4,000,000 in the field next July without calling out the youth of the land.

SAYS THRESHER MUST ACCEPT AGREED PRICE

County Food Administrator Warns Against Violation of Control Act—Declares the Schedule Must Stand

Bounding a note of warning of actions that will result from violation of the threshing price scale adopted by the wheat and farmers of this county and approved by the federal food administration, County Food Administrator C. S. Munson has issued a circular letter to all the threshermen of Twin Falls county, in which he says:

Dull Meeting Kicks Over
We understand that a number of threshermen met at Dull and raised the price of threshing wheat to seven cents and other grain one cent. When there had been already a county-wide meeting to which all the threshermen were invited and at which a price of six cents for threshing wheat was decided upon as fair both to farmers and threshermen. After this was agreed upon the food administration approved it, and this group of men, the prices without the approval of the administration.

This letter is to inform you that we are notifying the farmers that (Continued on Page Four)

Enemy Offers Fierce Resistance in Vain Effort to Stem the Tide
French Military Writer Declares Germans Have Only 24 Fresh Divisions Left and that Marshall Foch Holds the Cards—South Banks of Oise and Ailette Cleared

(By WEBB MILLER)
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, August 24.—The converging push upon Noyon was renewed this morning, the French improving the positions won yesterday.

General Mangin continued the work of clearing the south bank of the Oise and Ailette rivers. The Germans are retreating desperately on the Ailette river and north of Soissons.

The French troops are nearing the Soissons-Chauny highway and are threatening to outflank the enemy at Chauny, three miles north of Soissons.

Marcel Hutin, military writer of the Echo de Paris, declares the Germans have only 24 fresh divisions (250,000 men) left.

"Marshall Foch holds the cards," he says, "while General Pershing has not yet entered the dance."

OISE AND ALIETTE RANGES ARE CLEARING OF ENEMY
By JOHN DE GANDY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, August 24 (4 p. m.).—The south banks of the Oise and Ailette have been completely cleared of the enemy as far east as Point St. Maël and the French are now firmly established north of Ailette.

Opposite Coucy Le Chateau, the French continue to progress westward in a southerly direction.

West of Noyon, French troops are advancing methodically upon Coy, four miles west of Noyon and three miles east of Langueux. The rate of progress between the Meuse and Ailette had greatly slowed down today.

JAPANESE TROOPS ARE CONTINUING ADVANCE
Military Forces Now Beyond Vladivostok

TOKYO, August 23.—Japanese troops are reported to be advancing beyond Nikolaevsk, north of Vladivostok.

General Otani, it is announced, in addition to commanding the allied forces, is commanding the Hsueh-Shou-wei in eastern Siberia and the anti-Bolshevik forces in the maritime provinces.

PARIS, August 24.—The Voisache Zeitung announces that General Busky, who has been missing more than a year, has arrived in Vladivostok and offered his services to General Horvath.

General Busky was one time commander-in-chief of the Russian armies. General Horvath is leader of one of the anti-Bolshevik armies in Siberia.

REGISTRATION GOES ON OVER ENTIRE COUNTRY
WASHINGTON, August 24.—Throughout the land today men 21 years old since June last are registering for duty in the army. One hundred and fifty thousand is the estimated total from this number. It is estimated 175,000 fit for general service will be specially obtained. By special arrangement, orthodox Jews can register Monday instead of today, which is the Jewish Sabbath.

Some of the now 21-year olds will be inducted into the service at once and others found fit and without exception can rely on seeing service overseas by early spring.

Wild Scenes When Townley Addresses Audience in Boise
One Man Arrested and Several Blows Struck—Near Riot Proceeds Speech

(Special to the News)
BOISE, August 24.—A. C. Townley, head of the Nonpartisan league, spoke here last night from the steps of the capitol building after having been denied the privilege of speaking at the Plancy there by the manager, who said there was a groement between himself and Scholtz, state president of the league, that he should not speak there, being merely advertised to speak there to draw a Towley crowd. Townley and other speakers were barred from speaking in Columbia park because a permit had been secured from the park commissioners as required by law. There was considerable commotion in the theatre when the announcement to speaking was made, and the crowd demanded to hear Townley, who was in the audience. The capitol steps were then repugulated, under the protection of the sheriff, who had been informed of threats to break up the meeting.

Only one man, Karl Paine, attorney, protested openly, and he was arrested. During this procedure there was intense excitement and some looting for a riot, but there was no general out break, and later the excited crowd cooled down a bit and Townley spoke.

Several Blows Struck
Several blows were struck during the excitement in front of the capitol. When Paine made his protest the sheriff grabbed him and Paine caught Earl McKelg by the throat. The sheriff struck Paine over the head with a club. As Paine was being dragged away by the sheriff and deputies more than a hundred excited men attempted to kick and strike the speaker.

W. J. A. McVety, an employe of the Statesman, and also a member of the state council of defense as labor's representative, was in a brief mix-up. McVety was struck in the face by a blow, but no damage was done. Townley's utterances prior to the passage of the espionage act stamp him as disloyal. McVety declared himself and there was an exchange of blows, but nothing serious developed.

Paine Is Released
Paine was released in a few minutes. After his statement, he said the Ada county defense league took no part in the scuffling, for it had been assured by the mayor that Townley would not be allowed to speak. For myself, I will say that I will be there next time, and every time Townley attempts to speak in Boise.

It is charged that Scholtz and McKelg had requisitioned a couple of hundred men from surrounding towns, all of whom were armed and belittled Townley's speech. It is alleged, who attempted to injure Paine after he was in custody. Mayor Hays, it seems, took no hand with the police force excepting to forbid a public meeting in Columbia park unless a permit was secured, as required by the ordinance.

Ground Covered With Dead
The Germans heavily counter attacked on the high grounds north of Hapley Valley (north of the Somme) this morning. The result is not yet known, though ground there is already covered with dead.

At 7 a. m. the Germans were still opposing the advance toward Bapaume. It then cost two and a half miles northwest of the city.

The British and Germans struggled all night, back and forth along a 30-mile front on the old Somme field, in the "of the bloodiest battles of the war."

CONGRESS HITS AT SLACKERS IN MAN POWER BILL

Intense Feeling Expressed by Congressman Kahn Against Skulkers Who Hide Behind Various Pretenses

CLASS EXEMPTIONS WIPE OUT ENTIRELY

Senate Will Probably Adopt a Similar Amendment - Removes Exemption of Various Government Officers

By I. C. MARTIN

WASHINGTON, August 24.—In dedicating America's youth to the task of destroying Prussianism, congress is determined that there must be no more slackers. In both houses there is the utmost eagerness to give expression in the man power bill which is expected to pass today, in the demand that every man fit to go to the front should do so. It was the house purpose in writing into the bill an amendment removing arbitrary exemption from legislative, state and municipal officials as a class. It was the house way of saying that even members of congress dare not claim exemption while other persons are being sent to fight.

Senate officials favorably a similar amendment will be offered in the senate. The feeling is recognized that many officials will come under the new age limits which to be exempted but that exemption should be based on personal qualifications and not class conditions.

The intense dissatisfaction was expressed by Representative Kahn, ranking Republican member of the house military committee.

"We will send our last man, if need be, to whip Germany," said Kahn, "but when he goes we must send him with the certainty that there are no skulkers at home." Another amendment aimed at wording out those whose claims to deferred classification are not of the best to provide further drastic reworking of the bill.

Another will seek replacement of thousands of men clerks in government service with girls, while the men go to war. Every effort will be made to prevent any man hiding behind any sort of pretense.

Republican congressmen declared that the house closed up last night with Democrats pausing over their passage following amendments shifting off exemptions for government clerks and office holders. The Republicans predicted a strong fight today over these proposals, especially from the southern Democrats, who they said were fearful of results.

The house military committee has been told that it deferential classification were eliminated for many male government clerks, confusion in war work, approaching demoralization, would be the primary result.

Some "Safe" Jobs Lists now being presented to congress by cabinet members show that a rather large number of draftable men are in safe places. The navy, for instance, presented names of more than 7,000 now outside the draft danger zone. Many of these men are regarded as rather indispensible, but three of them rather indispensible being the only ones that can be removed in a vast number of existing cases and the places be adequately filled by women or other men.

Leading advocates of this no slacker policy explained today that if the army needs the boys of 18 and 19, it is only fair to them and to the families that must give them up to make others equally able to do their share.

YOUNG COUPLE STEAL MARCH ON THEIR FRIENDS

Stealing a march on their friends, Miss Celeste Pearl Merrill and Sergeant LeRoy Edward Day, well-known young people of the Russell-Lane district, were quietly married at 11:00 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gould, Rev. C. C. Dabbidge officiating. Only immediate relatives and Edward A. Minnely of Twin Falls, a friend, were present.

After the customary luncheon was served cafeteria style, the colors, red, white and blue being worked out in an effective patriotic color scheme. The bride carried a bouquet of cut flowers.

Sergeant and Mrs. Day left, after receiving congratulations, for Twin Falls, where Sergeant Day is employed in the Johnson Sales company garage, and where they will make their home until Sergeant Day recovers completely from an injury received at Camp Lewis, and re-enters the military service.

Yanks Rest 'and' Smoke After Mauling Huns

Although German warfare has been forced to the foreground during the last few weeks by the more brilliant fighting in the open, here is a very photo which first arrived from the western front, showing members of the famous 42nd division of Yank warriors at rest in trench after having given the Kaiser's pet troops a decisive whipping. This trench has been left far in the rear—the Yanks having advanced 21 miles in 16 days—sweeping the once famous Prussian "trench" before them in the Solomons-Rhinne offensive.

REBUILDS GRADE AT BLUE LAKES

Crew of Workmen and Teams Graveling and Improving Canyon Roadway

Continuation of the work now in progress will, within the next three weeks, place the grades in Snake river canyon at Blue Lakes among the best grades along the course of the river in Idaho, according to the statement Friday of H. G. Haigh, manager of the Blue Lakes ranch.

The washout that occurred on the grade a few days ago has been repaired, and a crew of eight and three teams is employed in the work of making further improvements in the roadway. The course of the road is to be remodeled on both sides of the canyon, and the entire length of the road is to be covered with a layer of gravel taken from natural gravel beds at Blue Lakes, which, Mr. Haigh says, possesses a property akin to cement so that after trampled over for a short time it makes a permanent roadway.

Army Hospital Man Says Yanks Are Wonderful

Rollo V. Grator of Twin Falls, with Americans in France, Tells of His Work

Wonderful men is the characterization given the American soldiers with whom he has met in his work as a member of the medical detachment of the One Hundred Sixteenth regiment of engineers in France, by Rollo V. Grator of Twin Falls, in a letter just received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grator, extracts from which follow.

Time passes very quickly for me these days. The weeks slip away so fast that Sunday seems to come around about every other day. I am still working out at the athletic field and I like the work fine. We have large classes and they work pretty well for us. We give them arm, leg, back and trunk exercises, varied with exercises to make them think quickly, and then we play all kinds of running games, baseball, soccer, etc., and wind up with a little hand-to-hand combat, jiu jitsu tricks, etc.

Men Mean Business You would sure enjoy watching the men at their work here. They sure mean business. After their training here they go so quietly and make so little fuss about it that half the time you don't know they're gone. A number of the boys I know at Pasco have been to the front—three of them won't come back. A lot of the old Second Idaho boys have seen action and we're hoping we will too, but in the meantime we'll do all we can to help back here.

Gets New Vision I worked one day this week in the hospital and saw how plucky the fellows are when their wounds are dressed. Really they are wonderful men. Somehow I got a new vision of that living wall that is holding back the enemy, and the courage of the men who are making it safe for all of us who are behind the lines. I'd like to be part of that wall.

This is Sunday night after church. A new man just from the States preached a splendid sermon. I was leader, but didn't have much to do except to introduce the speaker. The men gave him the very best of attention. His subject was "The Last Day Day."

I went down to the river today and

LONDON, August 24.—Germany has informed Spain that the threatened seizure of intercal German shipping to replace Spanish tonnage destroyed by U-boats in the future, "might result in the rupture of good relations," according to a dispatch from the Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph company received today.

Germany, however, is reported to have expressed willingness to consider limitation of submarine sinkings outside the "war zone." But she will not guarantee such nor treat Spain as any exception to the rules she has made concerning submarine warfare.

Germany is said to have declared she can not give up submarine warfare, "which has become such a valuable weapon," but hopes Spain will adhere to her intention to remain neutral.

Presence of American Soldiers in Ever Increasing Numbers Provides Means of Carrying Out Foch's Plans

BEWILDERING ATTACKS KEEP HUNS GUESSING

Days of Deadlock Believed Over But Desperate Enemy Resistance Looked for at Various Points of Advance

PARIS, August 24.—Do not imagine because doughboys have not been mentioned in the recent Mangin, Byng and other attacks that they are out on the job. The fact is that although they are elsewhere they are now contributing to the allies' success even more effectively though less spectacularly than when they are actually going over the top at Chateau-Thierry and Soissons and along the Marne.

For it is primarily due to increases in the American front lines south of the present battle area that Marshal Foch has been enabled to acquire the necessary mobility and elasticity of his purposes of quick sharp pushes here and there. The bewildering attacks not only have gained important strategic and geographical objectives, but have been the means of causing the enemy's nerves through constant guessing and worrying.

Consider Battle as Whole
The battle most, more than ever, be considered as a whole from Ypres to Rheims, as one of Great Britain's most expert military writers has observed. It is in the presence in the field of the powerful growing body of Americans that has made possible the strategic handling of the enemy which is now the factor of the western war.

U. S. Given Credit
Experts are unanimous in the opinion that Foch not only could not have achieved the initiative without the big American help, but that he could not maintain this advantage without the steadily progressive increase of such help.

Days of Deadlock Over
There is every assurance now that, thanks to America, no matter how temporarily the Boche may resist here and there, the days of deadlock are forever passed. The allies through complete command of the situation are able to impose their will on the enemy when and where they like. But this does not mean the end is even yet in sight. German doggedness, tenacity and reparative powers must always be reckoned with.

IDAHO SULPHUR COMPANY FILES IN SPRINGFIELD

Development Concern Headed by I. B. Perrine of Twin Falls Enters Illinois—Has Holdings at Soda Springs

I. B. Perrine of Twin Falls is the president of the Idaho Sulphur company, reorganized with $400,000 capital, to exploit mineral fields in the vicinity of Soda Springs, Idaho, which filed its articles of incorporation Saturday in the office of the secretary of state at Springfield, Illinois. The filing of the articles of incorporation in Illinois is for the purpose of gaining the right to do business in that state.

Organized in Twin Falls
The Idaho Sulphur company filed its articles of incorporation September 29, 1917, in Twin Falls county. It was capitalized then for $500,000, of which amount $250 was subscribed. The stockholders named in the articles filed were I. B. Perrine, Twin Falls; J. C. Moore, Twin Falls; L. L. Palmer, Rock Island, Illinois; Daniel Hayes, Jr., Rock Island, Illinois; T. C. Loucks, Chicago; William Smith, Chicago; William P. Thornton, Park Ridge, Illinois; Edward F. Meyer, B. B. Square.

The articles were subsequently amended pursuant to an action taken at a meeting of the stockholders held here on November 9, 1917, at which the capital stock was increased to $850,000, divided into 350 shares of preferred and 600 shares of common stock. J. C. Moore, who was the first secretary of the company, stated yesterday that he had retired from the company, along with Hayes and Palmer. He was unfamiliar with the later progress of the organization.

Give Wide Powers
The articles of incorporation filed here grant to the company wide powers, from the acquisition of lands to the development of mineral sources, to the operation of hotels, bath houses and general stores. Mr. Perrine is at the present time in the east, presumably in the interests of this corporation.

Optimistic Thought
Riches do not exhilarate so much with their possession as they torment with their loss.

America in the War

This remarkable motion picture, "Pershing's Crusaders," was photographed by official government camera men sent with the armies for that purpose by the Committee on Public Information, of which George Creel is chairman. The pictures are brought to the public through the Division of Films, of which Charles S. Hart, a Chicago man, is director.

These Pictures Are for You

These official pictures will give the people of Twin Falls their first opportunity of seeing our boys in action in France; to understand just what these months of preparation have brought about in combating our common enemy; to enable the worker in the munition factory, the toiler in the field, in fact, every man, woman and child who is doing his or her part, to visualize the results of their labor to the present time. They will show those who subscribed to the Liberty Loans, Red Cross, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army and other campaigns just what their money has accomplished.

Every American will be intensely interested in seeing the baking of mountains of bread for the army, the making of millions of uniforms, the manufacture of tons of guns, the launching of thousands of airplanes into the air and thousands of ships into the sea.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

By J. W. T. MASON, The 'wool' news is beginning to spread among the German people that an invasion of Germany is the inevitable outcome of America's unprecedented accomplishment in pouring soldiers by the million into Europe.

The German army was passed to the defensive last month when America's strength permitted Marshal Foch to wrest the initiative from Von Hindenburg. The German people are now likewise passing to the defensive. Germany is realizing that the Kaiser cannot win the war.

CLEAR WAY FOR HANSEN BRIDGE

Representative Smith Says the War Industries Board Will Permit Cable Shipments

Word received here this morning in a telegram from Representative Addison T. Smith to E. J. Finch, secretary of the Hansen Bridge commission, that the priorities division of the war industries board has given its assent to the issuance of a priority certificate to be issued without delay to the Midland Bridge company of Kansas City for the shipment of steel cables for the Hansen bridge, announcing the successful result of several weeks' effort to this end, and clears the way for early inauguration of active work on the span.

D. J. Cavanagh, a representative of the Midland company, which holds the contract for the construction of the span, here today stated that as soon as it was known that the cable and steel for the structure is in transit, active work will be started. He stated that the concrete work would be completed this fall, and that under normal conditions, the span would be finished within six months after the beginning of work.

BAVS THREATEN MUST

(Continued from Page One) anyone who will bring his threatening receipts into my office can settle with me at the former set price and I will see that the threatener accepts it as satisfactory. Rebuke in Similar Instance The action of this group is in defiance of the food control act which will show you if you will call at my office. After farmers and three men in Pike county, Illinois, had mutually agreed upon fair threatening charges which were later approved by the food administration, an effort to disregard the price received the following rebuke: "It is to teach the Kaiser that treaties and agreements are to be kept and respected that we are in this. Any manifestations of this Hohenzollern attitude here at home will be fought equally as hard." Another practice which has been continued as unlawful and for which a severe penalty is provided is that of "passing up," some farmers and going to others who offer a bonus.

ACTIVITY TAKEN

(Continued from Page One) an open field and rushed the tannery, driving the enemy out of it. The Germans immediately counter-attacked and shoved the Americans out. The latter rushed back, thoroughly manled the Boches and re-took the tannery. The performance was repeated a second time, the Boches suffering heavily in each counter attack. At the latest report the Americans were holding the place. Meanwhile the Germans attacked Diable wood, where a chateau sticks out beyond the main American line. The Americans received them with heavy machine gun and rifle fire, inflicting many casualties and taking some prisoners. They then took up their main positions along the Vinces railroad. Prisoners said the battalion involved in the attack was ordered to advance as far as the bank.

Bochs Driven Back

After a brief breathing spell the Americans counter-attacked and drove the Bochs entirely from their hold on our lines, and re-establishing their old positions north of St. Tibaut, on the south bank of the Vesle opposite Masoches. On the right wing of the American side the Americans made three great raids during the night, taking 400 prisoners and gaining important identification information. The prisoners said they now felt that Germany O.K.M. W.F. and that they will all fight to the last man. One said he had hoped that the war would end this year, but now he supposed they would have to keep on fighting until the Americans are licked.

Hard Up for Captives

Documents recently captured by the French show that German high command, owing to the shortage of men, is bringing Asiatic and Lorraine to the west front. Company commanders have been ordered to observe the strictest rules of punishment to prevent desertions. The Asiatic and Lorraine are mixed with other troops as a further effort to control the men thus forced to fight against their own people. It has been revealed that 10,000 of these soldiers participated in the misty in Belgium.

BRITISH ADVANCE

(Continued from page one) this morning at many points, gaining several important villages and fighting positions. The Americans only this morning captured several machine gun nests which had been a continual menace, inflicting heavy casualties and taking many prisoners. The high ground toward Pricourt (three miles east of Albert) was seized during the night. The line is now reported to be east of Ouliviers-les-Baselles. We pushed ahead below Bievillers-Les-Bapume (a mile and a half northwest of Bayonne) and advanced reports are reported each that town. Terrific fighting is going on in a mass of trenches below Neuville-Vitasse (three miles southeast of Arras). Welsh troops waded across the Ancre east of Beaumont last night and reinfused a party of their own men who crossed Thursday night. Great numbers of airplanes are sweeping back and forth above the boches, firing machine guns at them and dropping bombs with terrible effect. Two howitzers were destroyed by bombs. Tilloy was bombed heavily. The weather this morning was damp and cloudy.

COUNTY DIVISION AGAIN

We are sorry to have to fight out this issue again, when the attention of the country is rightly given to war aims, when every person is needed in essential work.

We have hoped that these local differences could await the finish of the one great issue—but Buhl won't have it that way—has started the old contest for the dismemberment of our splendid compact tract and left us no choice but that of FIGHT—and FIGHT the citizenship loyal to the county will.

There is not one good unselfish argument in favor of the division of this County—even the one for more office-holders' jobs don't stand up now, for there is plenty of room in essential war work for the 15 or 20 men who would hold offices and deputyships in the proposed new county of Buhl—and the extra taxes we would all pay would buy a lot of war bandages. The divisionists are trying to nominate people favorable to their cause in the Republican primaries.

AMERICANS DROP BOMBS ON TOWN

Air Forces Score Six Direct Hits, Railway Yards Being Badly Damaged

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, August 23 (Night)—American airplanes dropped thirty-six bombs on Conflans this morning. Six direct hits were noted, five on the northwestern portions of the railway yards and the other blowing up a military warehouse. All our machines returned safely, despite a battle with German planes and a terrific bombardment from anti-aircraft guns. The Americans scored ten direct hits on the railroad at Conflans yesterday.

Lieutenant Louis Verdier, former chief of the Lafayette escadrille has been killed in action.

He was cited five times and was a chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

His brother, Lieutenant Paul Verdier of San Francisco, now is in America on a special mission.

YANKEE COURAGE SAVES TWO LIVES

Dramatic Tale of Personal Grit Told by Men Lost in War's Shuffle

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, August 23—Mike Lenowski of Langley, Ill., and Harold D. Harlan, of Mount Carmel, Ill., lived up to the American reputation for grit and stamina.

They were brought in last night after being reported missing, following a recent advance, and told the following remarkable stories.

Lenowski was left behind as his company advanced and crawled into what had been a Boche dugout. He lay there for ten days, with little food or water, but his general physical condition was good when he was found.

Harlan took cover in a shell hole and was forced to remain eight days without food and no water except such as accumulated in the hole from rains. This was impregnated with gas and was dangerous to drink. Soldiers on both sides of the shell hole, which was in an exposed position, fired whenever Harlan showed himself. Boche air-men shot at him with machine guns.

When the Americans attacked again the barrage passed over Harlan's shell hole. He was extremely weak and nervous when a party found him, but will recover. Both he and Lenowski are in a hospital.

LONDON, August 23.—The destruction of twenty-one German airplanes was reported today in the official communique issued by the British air ministry. In addition a hostile balloon was destroyed. Eight British machines are reported missing. One of the destroyed German planes was a large bombing machine.

John Eugène Winters and Fer-ral Hunting Head List of Men Registered for War

John Eugène Winters, son of Albin Winters, 616 Main avenue south, a native of Laum, Bavaria, Germany, was the first of the young men to register this morning at the office of Registrar Stuart H. Taylor, in Twin Falls, under the provisions of the president's proclamation requiring all men who have reached their twenty-first birthday since June 5, 1916, to register today for military service.

Up to 12 o'clock today two young men had registered at the office of Registrar Taylor. It is estimated that there will not be in excess of 20 registrants in the county under this call.

The second registrant in Twin Falls was Fer-ral Hunting, son of Joseph H. Hunting, who is farming with his father 25 miles southeast of Rogerson. It was Hunting's wish to enlist earlier this year, but he remained at home to help with the farm work. He is ready and anxious, he says, to enter the service at the first opportunity.

Both of the registrants here this morning were born on July 23, 1897.

FARM MARKETS DIRECTOR SAYS HAY WILL GO HIGHER

Director Harry Allred of the state bureau of farm markets urges dairymen who will have to buy hay for this winter to do so at once, believing that the market price of feed is sure to go higher than it is at this time. Taking Shoshone as an example, Director Allred says that on the basis of the Portland market choice alfalfa should be worth from $22 to $23 in Shoshone. The freight to Portland from Shoshone is quoted at $8.75 a ton, and the Portland price of hay $29 to $30 a ton.

C. H. Taylor for County Commissioner

C. H. Taylor, who resides two miles east of Buhl is a candidate at the Democratic primaries for the nomination for county commissioner from the first district. The first district comprises the territory known as the "west end." Frank DeKlois is running against Mr. Taylor on the Democratic ticket, and the Nonpartisan league candidate.

Mr. Taylor has had a thorough business training and is well qualified for the office. He served two terms as county commissioner, once eight years ago, and was re-elected again six years ago. On his reelection for the second term, Mr. Taylor's administration was so satisfactory that he received more votes than any other county candidate having opposition. His previous experience on the board of county commissioners and his business ability makes him the best qualified of any man on either ticket.

Mr. Taylor was born on the prairie plains of Western Kansas, where he resided until he began school in the east of Buhl, where he has tilled 160 acres of land each year, and he has engaged in sheep raising.

As a railroad man he has made good at this training especially fitted him to meet and handle the problems of the board of county commissioners. Mr. Taylor has also made good at farming, and has one of the fine improved farms of Twin Falls county.

C. H. Taylor, of Buhl, should be supported for Commissioner for the first district because of his business qualifications, and because he is a representative of the best of the county, and COMMON JUSTICE entitles us to one commissioner.
