RAIDERS MEET GOOD SUCCESS ON METZ LINE

American Troops Enter German Entrenchments Taking Prisoners and Inflicting Severe Losses

ENEMY VERY BUSY ON NEW FORTIFICATIONS

Situation Is Well in Hand With Morale of Doughboys Running High—Artillery Intermittently Active

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE METZ FRONT. Sept. 23.—American troops made three successful raids on this front early yesterday, taking about thirty prisoners and inflicting considerable losses on the Germans. The principal raids were made in the region of Haumont-lez-Lachaux (five miles north of Thionville). The American artillery threw a barrage close about the village, cutting off the enemy communications. Our infantry rushed into the box thus created. They reconnoitered, capturing a number of boxes, killing and wounding more than fifty. They captured great boxes of bread to hand fighting in the streets.

Simultaneously, another American unit southeast of Chancy (four miles east of Haumont) raided a German outpost trench, bringing back sixty boxes. Earlier in the morning, and of Haumont, American troops raided the enemy trenches, encountering slight fighting. They captured five boxes and inflicted a number of casualties.

Enemy Digging Trenches Patrols report that the Germans are busily digging trenches and building gun emplacements and dugouts in this region, especially near Demarville-Chausses (a mile and a half north of Epervier). Artillery is intermittently active along the whole Metz front. The enemy is using gas and incendiary shells. Despite unfavorable weather, American aviators have dropped five tons of bombs on airfields and railway junctions, observing successful explosions and fires.

Recently the night have been exceptionally clear, in spite of cloudy days. A night reconnaissance has developed organized which has proven highly successful. Flying at a low altitude in the moonlight, they have been enabled to get accurate views of German movements and artillery positions. The night observers caught no trouble from German guns which are unable to fire accurately enough at night to hamper the machines. The observers have added to the effectiveness of their work by dropping bombs and directing machine fire against moving enemy troops.

British Troops Active British troops progressed on a front of about three quarters of a mile east of Gavrelle (five miles and a half northeast of Arras) last night, field Marshal Haig announced today. The Germans temporarily retreated the British lines near the Bersantons (four miles northwest of St. Quentin) early in the evening, but were driven out by a counter attack.

BULGARIAN ARMIES ARE VIRTUALLY CUT IN TWO

Both Railway Supply Lines are Penetrated and Enemy in Entire Surrounding Country. Feeling Effect—Allies Now Within Five Miles of Frontier—Greek-Bulgarian Border Also Threatened

The great wedge driven into the Bulgarian lines between Monastir and Lake Dolina has already virtually separated their armies in southern Serbia and northeastern Greece. Both the railway supplying the Bulgars in Lake Dolina and the German-built railway serving Prelop have been cut. The Serbian war office reports that the enemy in all the surrounding country is feeling the effects of this operation "enormously." The allied advance up to Saturday had reached a depth of more than forty miles. No incursion has yet been reported into Bulgarian territory, but the allies are now within five miles of the Serbo-Bulgarian frontier, northwest of Lake Dolina, and their lines between Lake Dolina and the Struma river approach to within less than four miles of the Greek-Bulgarian border at one point. The latest reports from Palestine indicate that the entire Turkish army which occupied the front between the Jordan river and the Mediterranean has virtually been wiped out. The British have advanced more than sixty miles from their original line, capturing 18,000 Turks and 120 guns.

BRITISH TROOPS DRIVE STEADILY ON WIDE FRONT

Vigorous Fighting for Possession of Points Between Cambrai and St. Quentin Continues Day and Night

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Allied troops in Macedonia, have cut the railway from Gradsko to Pily, according to the British official communique. The Balkan railway line has been cut, thus stopping all supplies to the Bulgarians on the solo 65-mile front eastward to the Lake-Duro region. Up to Saturday, the allies had made a total advance of more than forty miles with infantry advancing 25 miles in one day.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 23.—Regardless of heavy rain, the British and French continued local fighting for possession of positions advanced near Epervier, during the night and early today. South of Oppy, the British last night advanced 600 yards on an eleven hundred yard front, taking fifty prisoners. At 10 o'clock last night, British troops advanced near Epervier, driving the enemy out of several trenches, protecting the Hilsenberg outpost line.

Fort Vendemie Is Captured

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Capture of the village and fort of Vendemie on the west bank of the Oise, nine miles south of St. Quentin, is reported by the first war office. North of Ly-Fontaine, two miles north of Vendemie, French troops penetrated the woods south of Hincourt, a mile north of Ly-Fontaine. North of Ly-Fontaine our troops penetrated the wood toward Hincourt, the communique said. "We captured the village and fort of Vendemie and pushed on as far as the Oise. (North of the Aisne and near Battu du Meunil, we took some prisoners."

Huns Try Hand at League of Nations

Mathias Erberger, Author of Book, Says Its Only Way to Secure Peace AMSTERDAM, Sept. 23.—The Voelckers Zeitung prints a plea for a league of nations, drawn up by Mathias Erberger, leader of the German central party. It will shortly be published in book form. The plan, Erberger declared, is to capture the village and fort of Vendemie and push on as far as the Oise. Erberger invited criticism and practical counter proposals.

TO USE WOMEN ON MEN'S JOBS WHEN POSSIBLE

Plans Complete for Forcing of Men Out of Non-Essential Employment in Every Section of the Country

COMMUNITY BOARDS HAVE FULL POWER

Survey of Conditions to Be Undertaken at Once Under Direction of the United States Employment Service

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Machinery designed to force men out of non-essential employment and master the women of the nation to take their places, was put in motion today by 3,000 community labor boards reaching into every section of the country.

The boards are working under detailed instructions from the government, working through the United States employment service. Each board soon will publish lists of industries in the locality in which non-essential jobs should be taken. The list will be based on surveys on all industrial plants in each district. The surveys will be minute on each job to determine whether a woman can fill it.

Publication of the lists is expected to cause employers to comply and substitute women as a result of the moral pressure thus exerted. Where moral pressure fails, stronger measures may be taken. The employment service, working through the war industries board, has power to shut off the supply of raw materials from any plant.

For Enlarged Army Program

This move is a result of the enlarged army program, under which four million men will be sent to France by next June. It is expected to weed out non-essential employments every man in the nation. The result will be the probable induction of hundreds of thousands of women not only into essential war industries, but into munitions factories as well. Officials say the numbers of women may run into millions. The women are imperatively needed to insure an adequate supply of material and munitions to the fighting men in France. Because of the nation-wide labor shortage, the munitions program faces serious delay. This is the main line in the munitions service boards sent out by the employment service.

Bulgarian Press Is Strong for Peace

About Time to Listen to Reason, Negotiations Must Be Opened at Once

ZURICH, Sept. 23.—The Bulgarian press is unanimously in favor of peace, according to information obtained here today. "It is about time to listen to reason," declared the Progress. "The success of the entente in France cannot be denied," the Vir says. "For accomplishment of peace," says the National. "It is necessary that negotiations which are on the verge of beginning, shall be continued."

BAKER ASTOUNDED AT IMMENSITY OF WORK OF MAINTAINING OUR ARMIES

PARIS, Sept. 23.—American Secretary of War Baker, on his recent visit to France, expressed astonishment at the growth of the American supply front since his last visit to that front. Baker made a rapid inspection of the line of communication which stretch from the sea across France to the American lines. He started at a new plan, Baker declared, for a league of nations is the only way to peace. Erberger invited criticism and practical counter proposals.

FINAL PASSAGE ACROSS JORDAN TRAPS LAST OF TURKISH ARMY

General Allenby Scores Decisive Victory of Campaign in Pioneer Tactics Begun Some Days Ago—Success Complete and Result May Become Decisive Factor in Settlement of Entire War

NO OBSTACLE NOW BETWEEN ALLIES AND CAPTURE OF CITY OF DAMASCUS

ADVANCE UNIQUE IN ARMY ANNALS

Accomplishment of Forces Under Allenby Sets New Record in Maneuvers

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—General Allenby's remarkable advance through the plains of Sharon to Nazareth and the plains of Damascus, the capture of the city, is unique. One of Damascus, General Allenby can begin to make plans for "untangling his own forces with the British army in Mesopotamia which is working its way southward along the Euphrates. This army has its objective the capture of Aleppo, where the Constantinople railway joins the Baghdad and the Damascus line. From Damascus, General Allenby, too, will advance toward Aleppo. It will be possible for him to get in touch with the British.

Cavalry Treated Used Cavalry is being used extensively. The Arabian desert which now separates General Allenby's forces from the Mesopotamian expedition, loses its density north of Damascus, permitting the two British armies to unite under a single strategic direction for the approach to Aleppo. General Allenby is now less than 800 miles from Aleppo. With the British army in possession of Aleppo the nearby port of Haifa will certainly be secured. Thereafter a major campaign may be begun for the capture of Constantinople through Asia Minor.

Slackening of Signings

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Latest reports from Palestine show that British troops have advanced sixty miles since their drive began Thursday. The main infantry body Saturday was on a line running east and west through Samaria, forty miles north of Jerusalem. The movement has progressed north of the sea of Galilee and has occupied Nazareth, thirty miles north of Samaria. Cavalry detachments are operating southwest of Nazareth from the Jordan river westward and driving isolated Turkish detachments southwest toward the sea. British force on or toward the Jordan is advancing rapidly toward the Arabs, who are cooperating with the British east of the Jordan. The British advance, in which French units are also cooperating, has been attended by insignificant losses. The Bulgarians and Germans are throwing reinforcements into the Macedonia fighting in order to hold the Serbian, British, French, Greeks, Italian and Slovak, but the allied offensive continues without any sign of abatement.

S. S. Kingfisher Is Captured by U-Boat

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The American steamer Kingfisher, reported torpedoed off Halifax, was captured by an enemy submarine at 9 a. m. September 20, the navy department announced today. The crew, which landed at Quoddy, N. S., reported that they did not see their ship sink, but heard three explosions after they were out of sight of the vessel. They reported the submarine had a straight bow, carried two six-inch guns and four smaller guns shipped on the bridge as well as on the conning tower. The navy department's last advice on the sinking of the trawler Kingfisher shows the crew has been landed. Rumors that she had been mined were not borne out by official message.

Entire Transport Is Captured

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Two entire Turkish armies have been practically wiped out in Palestine, it was officially announced today. "The Seventh and Eighth Turkish armies have virtually ceased to exist," the statement says. "Their entire transport is ours. "Having gained the passage of the Jordan the Jordanis Sunday morning the last avenue of escape for the enemy west of the river is closed," the statement said.

CULTIVATION OF BEET LAND PAYS SAYS FIELD MAN

F. D. Johnson, Successful Grower, Gives Hints to the Farmers Who Will Respond Next Year to War Need

Offering suggestions in regard to the selection and preparation of land for sugar beet production for the 1919 season, F. D. Johnson, field man for the Sugar company and himself successful beet grower, advises growers of the Twin Falls district as follows:

Select Best Land

First, select the very best land you have, land that lies well, deep soil and well supplied with fertilizer. There were hundreds of acres of alfalfa and clover plowed up in the fall of 1917 and spring of 1918 for grain, potatoes and beans. This land, if handled properly, will produce a good crop of sugar beets.

Start Fight on Weeds

Irrigate as soon as the crops are off. This will start a large percentage of weeds dead. Then use well double discing by lapping one-half so as not to ridge the land. The discing will kill the weeds which have sprouted and cover some that have not sprouted. These weeds will germinate soon. Then plow the land eight or nine inches deep. The disc will chop up the stubble and make a good mulch to turn under. The stubble and clover we find turned under without discing or harrowing in some way first, furnishes a very easy passage through which the moisture will evaporate in the spring. During the first few days, say one week, after the land is ready to work in the spring, if it is not worked, 40 per cent of the moisture will escape.

Flowing and Fertilization

Some farmers say they do not plow the fall where they expect to scatter manure on the land. If they do plow in the fall and spread the manure on top of the fall-plowed land they will pack water for the extra work. The manure is too coarse, or contains too much straw, to work into the top of the fall plowed land, plow it under, say five or six inches deep in the spring. If the manure is not good enough to secure a first class stand of clover, irrigate and plow the top of the field. You will be well paid for all the extra work you put in on the seed bed, for it is easier to get rid of a weed before you plant than it is when the crop is growing. Not only that, but your land is always ready to start the best seed as soon as the weather is warm enough.

Discouraging the Out Worms

We all have the trouble with cut worms in clover land where it has been plowed up in the spring. I think no farmer should take chances of having cut worms in the crops following clover. If clover land is irrigated well and plowed thoroughly in the fall, there is a slim chance for enough cut worms to pull through the winter to hurt the crop much.

Poor Land Means Poor Crop

Do not select the poor, foul land to plant to beets, thinking you can get your foot land cleaned up and raise a good crop too. It cannot be done. There has been a good deal of that attempted in the Twin Falls country. I know of instances where it has taken less money to produce a 25 ton crop of beets raised on first class land, than it has taken to produce a five ton crop on poor land. The 25 ton crop would cut you, allowing a good charge for every acre, labor, taxes and everything—a very nice sum, where the five ton crop would not more than pay for the use of the land and labor.

Government Offer Protection

We have plenty of land suitable for all crops if we relate properly. By having your beet land well supplied with moisture and fall plowed, much of the work in the spring is done away with, and if worked one or two days in the spring, it and snow have not packed the land too much, I like to use a large float to fill up the holes with moist earth, then follow with a spike tooth harrow and working the land as often as required to kill the weeds before planting. The government is making a strong appeal to farmers in the best districts—and there is no better beet district than the Twin Falls country, where there is a sugar factory, plenty of beet machinery such as cultivators and pullers, plenty of water and the climatic fact.

FORMER LAWYER IS MAJOR NOW C. M. Booth, of Twin Falls, Wins Promotion From the Rank of Captain

C. M. Booth of Twin Falls, who has his commission as a captain at the second officers training camp in November, 1917, at the San Francisco presidio, was promoted on September 17 at Camp Lewis, Washington, to be a major to command a battalion of the Forty-fourth infantry regiment stationed there.

His work wins. Since winning his commission as captain, Major Booth has been assigned to duty at Camp Lewis, where he has acted as personnel officer and a physical director. No man in the camp has put in longer hours or harder work at the cantonment than has Major Booth, according to reports received here, and this fact evidently has been taken into consideration when recommendation for his promotion was made.

Prior to his entrance into the military service, Major Booth was one of the leading attorneys in this district, and resigned as president of the Twin Falls County Bar association to attend the training camp.

TEACHER TRAINING TO BE MILITARY BAND LEADER Roscoe G. Lindner, Director Last Year of Twin Falls High School Orchestra, Enrolls for Course

Roscoe G. Lindner, director last year of the Twin Falls high school band and orchestra, has been since September 6, a member of D company, the United States army training detachment at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, enrolled in the band masters' course.

The course of study, he says in a letter received here, consists of harmony, band arranging, conducting, sight singing, private lessons, ensemble and hand rehearsal besides physical exercises and military drill. "We have this for a period of eight weeks," Mr. Lindner says. "A similar course also is given for band musicians. Our course is the first of its kind ever given, but the government plans to take over this school by October 1, and Pittsburg University, which is near here. "For our courses we have the regular musical faculty besides others, among them being, Caputo, clarinet soloist" with Ross, Frank and Louis Pankala, who have composed several marches, and others who have made a life study of music here and in Europe. "At present we are quartered in the gymnasium. There are about 110 of us. The first two bands, but so far we have played as one band. It certainly sounds great when we have our band out on a march, because we can furnish the volume with such a number."

THE KAISER, CONVICT

The number of petit juries before whom Wilhelm II, emperor of Germany, will be brought to judgment to answer as an individual for the murder and outraging of innocent women and children, as well as for the sole responsibility for precipitating the conflict at arms which now engulfs the world, will be materially increased through the growing membership in the Unconditional Surrender club of the United States of America.

Following the sinking of the Lusitania, a petit jury in Ireland tried and convicted the German emperor and Von Tirpitz, German director of submarines, as murderers individually responsible for this tragedy. A court in Missouri proceeded similarly and rendered the same verdict.

The Unconditional Surrender club of the United States of America is composed of loyal Americans who have tried the German war lords and exact the fulfillment of the penalty imposed, its declaration of principles is one to which every loyal American will be glad to subscribe—and ought to. Here it is:

- "As a member of the Unconditional Surrender club of the United States of America,
I pledge my undying fealty to the United States government;
I pledge my unflinching support to our soldier boys who are fighting the common enemy;
I pledge myself and all that I possess to the cause of winning the war against Germany and her allies, if that be necessary;
I pledge myself to make any and whatever sacrifices I may be called upon to make, to the end that the central powers may be brought to realize that only an unconditional surrender will be acceptable to me and to my country, the United States of America."

Agricultural Appropriations Carries Provision for Compensation for Slaughtering of Animals

The recent adoption by congress of the agricultural appropriations carries with it a fund to indemnify owners of horses and cattle which are condemned and slaughtered when found to be tubercular upon tests made by the bureau of animal industry inspectors. This information received Saturday by Dr. W. A. Sullivan, inspector in charge of the bureau of animal industry hog cholera control investigations in Idaho, in a letter from Dr. P. E. Murray, inspector in charge of tuberculin test work for the bureau in Idaho and Utah. Dr. Sullivan states that the bureau is cooperating with the Idaho state livestock sanitary board to bring about a situation in this state where advantage of the indemnity provision may be taken in this state. An arrangement entered into to this end some time since has been held in force temporarily pending the action of congress on the appropriation bill, he states. The bureau contemplates making inspections of all of the pure bred and hybrid herds in the Twin Falls district and elsewhere throughout the state. Dr. Sullivan declares, with a view to bringing about the elimination of tuberculous among cattle.

REEL STUFF

"SANDY"
World famed for his beautiful womanly features, his good looks, and his southern chivalrous man and woman, not to speak of the inimitable amber-colored liquor which the gentlemen of that state prefer to drink undiluted, Kentucky is the scene of the newest Paramount picture, "Sandy," starring Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, which is to be displayed at the Idaho Wednesday.

Sandy is a fair-haired Scotch youth who goes to Kentucky in search of fortune and after his inborn grit and persistence have been severely tested, finds it, and very much to his liking. The dramatic incidents of the narrative, its wholesome good humor and impressive charm, have been carefully translated to the screen in this production. It was while on the firing line in France and while a spectator of nine successive air raids by Zeppelins and airplanes on London that D. W. Griffith took many of the scenes for "The Great Love," the first of his special productions to be released through Artcraft Pictures; therefore all that is shown of the war is actual fact. Quick, Watson, the needle! There is a terrific in Douglas Fairbanks' next picture. Does that mean Doug? "He Comes Up Smiling!" just the same.

Kaiser Still Hopeful of Desperate Resistance Working Out for More Advantageous Peace

By J. W. T. MASON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Von Hindenburg's stiffening of his defenses in western France coincides with a renewed effort on the part of Austria-Hungary to secure consideration of the Hapsburg plan for a peace conference.

It is evident that the Kaiser has ordered a fresh supply of man power in the desperate hope that Austria-Hungary may be able to stave into a peace conference from the conquered fields of France and Belgium. The Kaiser is an inveterate gambler with destiny.

Gambles With Reserves.

The crushing failures of the submarine campaign and of this year's bloody offensives do not seem to have cured him. He has returned to the tables for another throw. He is now gambling with his reserves. Instead of moving slowly backward and conserving his man power for the defense of Germany...

Different Kind of Peace

The line is drawn if the war continues and only the Central Powers have any idea that it may not continue. When the retreat in Belgium again resumed the Germans will discover that the chief result of the Austro-Hungarian peace overture has been to beggar still more the falling supply of German reserves. The Vienna statesmen are now trying to intimidate the Allies...

Capay Rancho an Ideal Dairying and Grain Country

The world is clamoring for the products of the farm. To patriotic incentive is added the inducement of wartime prices to produce more and bigger crops. Capay-Rancho offers you that opportunity in an intensive degree. There is no better dairying and grain country in America. Crop production here in many cases is almost beyond belief. Feed is plentiful. Cattle thrive. Almost all kinds of grain yield very heavily. Barley is especially featured. Splendid markets are close by and are reached by good highways.

The Last of This Great Rancho Is Now Being Sold to Wind Up the Estate

If you are in time to secure some of the land you will be fortunate. Even normal crops should pay for the land within two or three years. The price—$175.00 an acre is away below what similar land under similar conditions in other sections of California is sold for. The farmers who are living on Capay Rancho today will tell you they bought here because land was much cheaper than they found it any place else, desirably considered. It will pay you to at least look into the proposition. Act now. Use the coupon.

The Earliest Citrus District of California

Fifteen years old citrus orchards in this section have never been injured by frosts. Prunes, apricots, peaches, plums, almonds, walnuts are proving big money makers. Independent electrically operated pumping plant on every 50 acres included in the price of the fruit.

MURTAUGH BOY TELLS HOW HE WON WAR CROSS

Private Kenneth Howard of Ambulance Corps, With a Brother and Sister in Service, Gives Experiences

SAYS HE HAS RECEIVED TWO PRICELESS REWARDS

Exciting Exploit at Front When French Turned Offensive Against Huns Is One; Decoration the Other

MURTAUGH.—In a letter received by Carlos Howard, his nephew, Tracy Howard, who was in the real estate business here prior to going to New York to enlist, says that he has been ordered immediately to an aviation field. Tracy's sister, Margery, has arrived safely in France as a Y. M. C. A. cautious worker. Extracts given below from a recent letter from his younger brother, Kenneth, who is in France as a member of an ambulance corps, show that he is in the thick of the fighting:

Describe Recent Experiences
'I'll give you a little line on what we've done and what good luck we've had since early July. On the 4th of July we started out from near Mont-ditler with our newly acquired division and headed for the Marne front. We pulled in just east of Chateau Thierry on the next day and began to settle up the mess down there. On the sixteenth, the hooches were stopped and on the seventeenth they were on the run again. From 10 to 12 we kept moving our posts three or four kilometers ahead each day. We crossed the Marne and kept going until August 4, when we struck out on another 200 kilometers march, passing through Sprenay, Chateau Bar in the night and ending at Vivanquier, where we are now enjoying a "repas" with the rather battered up division.

Saw Barrage Begin
On July 17, the French hooches that counter attack against the German advance. I was lucky enough to be at the front post when they started to put up the barrage. It lasted for about two hours and was in the middle of Fritz was a little more foolish with his than the French, but he was throwing over enough to remind us that he was still in the scrap.

Shell Drop Close
The stretch of woods that I was in was pretty warm over for that time of year. I had a "blow" in my car, so dragged him into the gutter after two or three minutes and dropped. I flopped there with him to wait for a full load. After 10 or 15 minutes the temperature jumped from hot to better, and my "blow" got fire in the leg. I gave him a lift to the dressing station, where he was patched up there and his and mine others were piled into my "volture." We bumped over a mountain road, went through a pluck of gas, dropped it on the ground at the next post, and then arrived intact at the "trage."

Section Is Closed
Out of those two hours of so, I got two precious minutes of the most interesting and exciting experience, and the other was the cruel de quere. The decoration probably will take place within a very few days. One sergeant and two other men also will be decorated and the section as a whole will receive a divisional citation. Spends Leave Behind Lines
On top of that, I am going on permission on the thirteenth. I will spend one time at Aix le Bains and two or three days at Paris. Then added to that, I have been made a private first class, which nets me 17 francs a month. It's not such a tough "goose" after all, is it? Especially since I have appeared so closely to the beginning of the end, with the French going strong, the Yanks coming strong, the Tommies coming back up around Amiens and the boche going back all over.

COMMITTEE TO EXAMINE FACTS

Charges That Brewers Bought Newspapers Will Be Investigated in Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The senate judiciary committee today named a sub-committee headed by Senator Overman, of Carolina, to investigate the charges that the Washington Times was bought for Arthur Brisbane by a group of brewers. There was wide difference of opinion in the committee as to how broad the scope of the investigation should be. Some favored a general investigation into the activities of brewers and their organization in the United States since the war began. Others wanted to confine it to relations between brewers and newspapers. The decision was left to the sub-committee, which will meet this week to plan its inquiry.

PRODUCTION IS BEYOND DEMAND

Coal Output in West and Middle Western Fields Exceeds All Previous Records

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 23.—Coal production in the central and western region during June, July and August exceeded the demand, according to a report made public today by the railroad administration. In June 202,840 cars were loaded, in July 257,701 and in August 305,549. Several plans for disposing of the surplus were formulated, one of them being shipment of Illinois coal to Michigan, which would take 600,000 tons. Coal production is of less moment in this zone than the car supply.

Salvation Army on Front Lines in the St. Mihiel Salient

Work of Organization Excites Hearty Approval of Officers and Men of Army

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 23.—In the woods behind the American lines, Captain and Mrs. Holbrook, Salvation Army workers, are carrying on their trade among the doughboys after an arduous and dangerous journey to the front on the St. Mihiel salient. This couple entered town within four hours after the troops had taken them. Their track at one time broke down in the middle of No Man's Land. The first night Mrs. Holbrook slept at the side of the road and the next day she salvaged a diminutive organ from some of the broken cases. It is now serving the Salvation Army for soldiers' meetings. Lieut. Louis, American aviator, continues to give his weekly observation balloons some such observations.

Pacific Coast Leads in Ship Production

Figures Compiled by Board Show That Yards of West Are Ahead All Others

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Figures compiled by the Shipping Board today, including the first two weeks of September, show the Pacific coast shipyards have delivered their first millions of completed new vessels. The Pacific Coast yards lead those of the Atlantic coast by 376,300 dead-weight tons and those of the Great Lakes by 1,200,000 dead-weight tons. The Pacific coast also leads in vessels launched but not yet completed and delivered. More than half a million dead weight tons of new ships are under way of Pacific coast shipyards, approaching completion.

FIT NEW WORDS TO OLD TIME WAR SONG

Joy Over Overthrow of Potsdam Bunch Is Set Out in Song for Liberty Chorus
The singing of a new arrangement of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" is to be one of the features of the community singing and Liberty chorus weekly rehearsal in the high school auditorium at 6 o'clock this evening. The last verse of the arrangement runs as follows:
Fit ready for the victory;
Hurray! Hurray!
We'll give our heroes three times three;
Hurray! Hurray!
When Kaiser Bill, Crown Prince as well,
And the Potsdam bunch have been kicked to well,
We'll all feel gay,
When Sammy comes marching home.
Other old time songs to be sung at this meeting include Annie Laurie, Sweet and Low, Three Blind Mice, etc. Director Austin D. Thomas will be glad if more men will attend to balance up the parts more equally.
